STAR

No sentiment, however beautiful, can match a lovely deed.

Gold and platinum dredging is an industry now being tested by placer drill on Similkameen and Tulameen rivers—Coal and Lode mining.

This is glorious Spring: The wild duck and the goose, trout and big black bear, lure the sportsman to our Elysian wilds fragrant of the pine.

THE BOARD OF TRADE

Work on Pack Trail to Steamboat to Begin Early as Possible.

Great Northern Official on Qui Vive for Steamboat Business. Asks for Maps.

The postponed regular meeting of the board of trade was held Tuesday night. After routine a communication was read from A. W. Ross, assistant general passenger agent, G.N.R., Seattle, requesting a supply of maps indicating the best route to Steamboat via Princeton. Request granted.

It was stated that work would begin on the Steamboat trail as soon as the snow on the summit would permit.

Secretary was instructed to write Superintendent Morgan re telephone at the station, pointing out the great convenience it would be to merchants and others having business with the railway.

Account for map printing, $30.05, ordered paid. Additional supply of maps, 1000, was ordered, also stationery for the board with map printed on back.

Board adjourned.

TRANSGRESSOR'S WAY IS HARD.

Poor old Bill Miner at 65 years of age a convict for train robbery at White Sulphur Springs, Ga. Twenty more years behind the bars, if he does not dig out as at New Westminster, will probably count him out. When arrested he gave the name Anderson. During his year or more of sojourn at Princeton he enjoyed the respectable cognomen 'Mr. Edwards,' had entre to our highest society, played bridge sluff and poker, danced gracefully, dressed neatly, spent freely, bore an air of distingue also a brace of Colt's handuppers in his inside pocket. Bill never killed a man in his long career of deviltry but he scared many a one. Had a big chance to be good and wouldn't. Pity.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR.

Reciprocity, yes. Universal free trade and universal peace—this is the goal for statesmen in every country. The Anglo-Saxon race must lead in this great enterprise. John Bull and his big family, with the help of Uncle Sam, could dictate the peace of the world. Let there be Anglo-Saxon free trade and peace societies in all English speaking countries. Is Princeton ready to form the first of these societies?

Geo. A. Cox, the great financier and founder of the Bank of Commerce, strongly favors reciprocity with the United States. G. A. always did believe in business expansion, as witness the world wide agencies of the bank of Commerce. He believes in free trade and practices it.

If anyone is in doubt about the benefits to be derived from reciprocity with the United States let him read Sir Wilfrid Laurier's speech last Tuesday in the Commons. It is, or ought to be, the last word in answer to the anti-progressionists.

PUBLIC MEETING.

A public meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, March 22nd, at 8 o'clock in the court house to hear the report of the board of trustees of the Princeton general hospital, to elect trustees for the coming year, and to deal with any other business in connection with the affairs of the hospital which may be presented. A large attendance is requested. J. D. ANDRAS, Hon. Sec.

CONFIDENT OF THE FUTURE.

A. L. White arrived in town from Greenwood last week on one of his periodical business visits. He says business is good in Greenwood and the outlook better than for years. Mining operations show a steady increase which give to the town a solidity seldom surpassed. Mr. White is convinced that Princeton will experience great expansion in the next two or three years. He is increasing his stock and has now on hand a variety of goods suitable for the growing demands of Princeton.

PIONEER MERCHANT.

J. A. Schubert, the well known merchant of Hedley, was in town Monday and spoke very hopefully of the business prospects of the valley. Largely gifted with the spirit of enterprise and having an inborn desire to be 'doing something,' Mr. Schubert is reaching out for more business and expanding with the development of the country. At one time he thought seriously of opening up a store in Princeton, but the rapidity with which Coalmont has sprung into being determined him in the question of location. It is not improbable that he will reside there so attractive are surroundings. With an honorable business record Mr. Schubert will meet with that measure of public patronage which is his due and which the new town is sure to afford.

J. F. Tener, of the Gold and Platinum Dredging Co., arrived today.

The Keystone placer drill in charge of Mr. Clark, who built the gold dredge on the North Thompson several years ago, is now at work on Gulliford's point.

W. C. McDougall has contributed a very well written article on the resources of Princeton district to the Nelson Daily News. It is such articles that produce best results in impressing the outside world with the riches of this district. If other citizens would emulate Mr. McDougall much profitable publicity would be obtained.

Where, oh where, is Cherrapunji?

Bert Irwin, builder and contractor, has about completed large addition to the Granite Creek hotel and now has a gang of carpenters at work on a large residence for J. F. Waddell. Mr. Irwin predicts great building activity this year and keeps in readiness large stocks of wood fibre and lumber.

In future all land notice advertisements running sixty days in the Star will be charged at the uniform rate of $7.00, not $7.50, the rate charged in other districts.

Already inquiries from outside are being made re packing rates on freight into Steamboat.

J. R. Campbell is about to complete arrangements for enlarging the sales room of the Princeton drug and book store. When done this store will compare favorably with any other drug business in the province both in uptodate appointments and service.

E. B. Tingley arrived back from Boston yesterday.

MANAGING MILDRED.

'The best yet,' was the opinion generally expressed of the musical comedy, Managing Mildred, played by C. P. Walker's strong company with Chas. Picquet as leading man and directoire. Princeton playgoers know a good stage production when they see it and their plaudits are given on merit only. The applause was spontaneous and copious and the audience the largest as yet. Le Miserere from Il Trovatore, Verdi's splendid operatic composition, was beautifully rendered, the contralto capturing the audience with her pure, birdlike vocalization. The orchestra and the performance as a whole evinced culture and high class talent, but the play is in parts frothy and frivolous, uninstructive.

LAW'S STRONG ARM.

C. J. Bunbury, chief constable for the Boundary and Similkameen district, was in town Monday on official business. The onerous duties imposed on chief constables by the operations of the new liquor act keep these officials largely occupied with the enforcement and proper administration of the act. Chief Bunbury finds that offences in many instances are attributable rather to a lack of correct interpretation of the act than of intent. In this respect his duties are both educative and corrective. When licensees have gained that familiarity with the act which relieves any new law of chafing then it will be found to work for the benefit of all concerned, and while the act is not perfect it is far in advance of any liquor law yet framed in B.C. and will elevate the tone and standard of the whole liquor business.
