LOCAL ORIGINS

THE FIRST SURVEYS.

The earliest geological work done on the southern portion, as far as can be learned, was under Mr. H. Bauerman, the Geologist to the North American Boundary Commission. The work was done between the years of 1859 and 1861.

Dr. G. M. Dawson spent the season of 1877-78 in the southern interior.

In 1888 he was again in charge of surveys in the Tulameen-Similkameen area. The work was not again resumed until 1906.

The Easter Monday dance which is given every year by the W. I. again proved to be a big success. There were a number from Hedley and Cawston. Mrs. F. VanBlaricom was the convenor for the evening.

The road between Keremeos and Hedley is in good shape, but a little preparation will require to be done to keep it so.

Mrs. D. Clark of Penticton is the guest of Mrs. D. J. Innis.

Among the guests at the Keremeos hotel during the past week were: T. G. Carter, Penticton, district school inspector; Mr. Robert Cheyne of Kelowna, who has been making an audit of the books of the Keremeos Co-operative Asociation;; and Mr. G. R. Doubleday, also of Kelowna; and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Shepherd of Victoria, B. C.

SPRING AT LAST

Ever[illegible] in the Valley heaves a sigh of relief that Spring at last has made its appearance.

* * *

It seems that the road between Hedley and Princeton is officially closed for the time being, also the new road to Cawston. Of the two roads leading to Penticton the Green Mountain one is the better.

CUSTOMS MAN IS RETIRING

Mr. W. L. Boult ,who has been subcollector of Customs at Princeton since 1918, is being retired at the end of this month, and to-day leaves the service of the Inland revenue department to make his home at Summerland with his family.

Mr. Boult has been a "good and faithful servant" and has always been a willing community worker. He will be missed.

He will be succeeded by Mr. J. A. Brown, who was appointed assistant to Mr. Boult, witth a view to ultimately relieving him, several months ago.

A farewell party was given at the Anglican Rectory Wednesday night, n hoinor of Mr. W. L. Boult, for many years collecotr of customs at Princeton who leaves the service to accept superannuation a t the end of March. A presentation was made by Mr. E. Waterman. Refreshments were served by the hostess, and a quiet, enjoyable evening was spent.

Princeton board of trade is tendering a complimentary dinner ot Mr. W. L. Boult at the Princeton Cafe tomorrow (Friday) evening.

Mr. Boult has been a valued member o fthe board for some years, and is at present a member of the council.

HEDLEY BOARD HAD GOOD YEAR

Reviewing the work of the Hedley Board of Trade for the year, President T. A. Heeney reported—

I think when we survey the work year you will find the organization has been worth while. It is indeed rather a hard task for me to speak to a body of labor men in face ofthe existing conditions. This country has never known or experienced just quite such a problem of problems as have presented themselves in the past two years. Labor in particular has been very hard hit, but no class of employment or business has escaped.

Agriculture, the basic industry has suffered by low prices and in some cases by poor crops, and some have no crops at all.

Indications now loom of general improvement of conditions. Wheat is beginning to move after several slack months when what little did move did not bring enough to pay labor and other charges.

The lumber business is also looking up. All commodities are daily arriving at a more equal value of exchange, which is indeed a good sign of general improvement. Gold production has been active in the past year in all the gold mining areas of the Dominion and the value has increased by more than 25 per cent over the previous year.

HOPE FOR HEDLEY

This being a gold area, I am very hopeful that the gold industry which has been the community in the past quarter of a century will resume operations this year. I have been informed from a reliable source that the future is both bright and hopeful. Gold is in great demand at the present time and is at a premium of 30 per cent; and the price of other metals is so low that they cannot profitably be mined. There for both small and large investors are looking for gold mines, for speculation and operation. Our Dominion government has been effecting trade agreements with other countries, and we can already feel a benefit. Unfortunately our neighbors to the south have seen fit to bar us from their markets by a tariff wall which has forced us to look to other sources for markets, which under the present conditions has been an additional hardship. This we indeed regret, as they are our natural customers and we theirs, we being in such close proximity. However, I am certain they will soon be glad to arrange matters and take us back.

The depreciation in our dollar has favored us in the past few months being able to market in the United States has favored us to their loss. One thing we have been taught is to appreciae the products of our own country, and best of all it has awakened us to the fact that it is bad policy to buy more than sell; and lastly that it is very important that we build up trade with our sister Dominions and with Great Britain, so that we may not again by the stroke of a pen have ous market cut from us.

Gentlemen, I wish to commend you for the patience and courage which you have displayed during these distressing months through which we have passed My wish for you is the best for 1932.

"SPLENDOR SINE OCCASU"

If Louis Sherbauer reads the funny papers and believes in advertising, his heart must have jumped when he first saw the new Teen creation. Of course the analogy doesn't mean a thing, but what a coincidence!

HIGH SCHOOL RESULTS

MUSICAL TALENT AT HOPE ROAD CAMPS

Relief workers in the Hope-Princeton road camps are music-minded. An orchestra is in process of formation under the leadership of P. Dafeo, and a good deal of interset is being taken. While the couection of instruments may be a mottley one, the organization will not lack enthusiasm, and music will no doubt provide pleasure for non-members and diversion for the members.

WAS RELATIVE OF LOCAL MAN

Revelstoke's tragic fire, which resulted in the deaths of two pioneers recently had an echo in Princeton.

Bottle Message Returned From Oroville

But the Bottle is Empty as Saga of Similkameen Concludes

CAST, or presumably so, on the waters of the Similkameen river at Princeton, a note taken from a bottle picked up by a power-house employee at Oroville, has been returned to Princeton in care of the Star.

The facts of this saga of the river are not definitely known, but, worse luck, the note is not the clue to any deep-rooted mystery, tells nothing about buried treasure. It is obviously the fancy of some idle joker.

The note is in good condition. It reads as follows—

Saturday, Feb. 27th, 1932
Time, 4 p.m.

Anyone finding this bottle please return note to "Princeton Star", Princeton, B.C.
"Give place of finding and time.
"Princeton Star Office,
Princeton,
B.C.

"Found March 24th, 1932, 11 a.m.
Arnold Frazier, operator at Oroville Power Dam by Oroville,
Wash.

And on the reverse—

"'Twas only an old beer bottle,
Many miles from home;
'Twas only an old beer bottle,
Floating on the foam.

A piece of paper in it.These words were written on it:

"Who finds this old beer bottle
will find the beer (Look down)

—All gone!"

(A very catchy tune goes with these lines)

The bottle-note is on display at A. L. White's store.

CAWSTON

EASTER SERVICE

Easter service was held i nthe Community Hall, on Sunday afternoon at the regular hour. A joint choir of Hedley, Keremeos and Cawston vocalists was arranged by Mrs. G. Findlay. Mrs. D. J. Innis was the organist.

The anthems rendered were: "Listen To the Lillies", "What Can the Easter Carol Be ", "Love Divine." A trio was given by Mrs. Findlay, and Mr. and Mrs. T. Knowles, "My Redeemer Lives."

A very appropriate sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. Findlay.

Miss Agnes Lang and Miss E. Dunnette spent the Easter week with friends in Penticton.

Men Expelled From Princeton Camps Walk Out When Refused Three Meals

Expelled from the camps of the Hope-Princeton road several weeks ago when they declined to go to work on the new wage scale introduced by the provincial government, transient unemployed are again causing concern, this time at Ashcroft.

According to reports from the Fraser Valley center some 300 men descended on the town Friday. The men walked out of the special camps where they were quartered, Thursday, when refused more than two meals a day when not at work This action is in line with the psychology of a member of the dissenting army who recently called at the office o fthe Star to explain the actions of the men who refused to go to work on the Hope-Princeton road unless their terms were met. He stated, on a return visit to Princeton, after the exodus from the local camps, that the men had not gone to the coast, but were concentrated in camps near Ashcroft, where they had been joined by others who shared their sentiments.

They had considered, he said, the different angles of the situation, and were determined not to alter their atitude. The government would have too provide for them, and their weapon would be to remain together, which would command recognition.

He spoke of a federation of the unemployed, but seemed rather vague as to just what it was. At any rate, he said, the men were well organized, and determined to follow down certain definite policies.

ASHCROFT ALARMED.

Their weapon of passive resistance appeared to be effective at Ashcroft as the little Cariboo town viewed with some alarm the descent of some 300 men on a peaceful Easter morning.

They were greeted by a band of thirteen police officers, asembled form the district.

The men were perfectly orderly, however, and made no disturbance. They played baseball on the main street.

Taken by surprise, provincial government authorities at Ashcroft wired Victoria asking what to do. They were instructed to provide the men with two meals a day, as they would have received in the camps. Some slept in the open, others in the community hall

Teachers In Session At Vancouver

British Columbia school teachers are in convention in Vancouver, the annual Easter Convention of the B. C. Teachers' Federation being the occasion, as usual, fo rthe gathering at the coast center of a large number of teachers from a ll parts of the province. The Similkameen is represented.

Business sessions are interspersed with addresses by well-known speakers including Dr. W. A. Carrothers,professor of Economics at the University of British Columbia.

Easter services at local churches were very well attended.

PRINCETON IN HOOP FINAL

Winning at Merritt 23-16 and on their own floor 25-9 to take the round 48-25, Princeton basketballers ousted the cup-holders from the Province Cup Interior Senior C competition, and themselves qualified for the final series against Salmon Arm.

The final will likely be a sudden-death affair, and preesnt arrangements call for it being played on.... the Penticton floor Saturday night.

Princeton had a clean-cut edge over Merritt, who do not have the same line-up that won the trophy last year, eliminating Princeton in the process.

The team play of thet locals was much superior to that of the Nicola boys, and the work of Scholfield and Gregory, the shooting of McAlpine, and the strong defensive play of the rangy guards was more than the former champions could cope with. Had Princeton accepted their scoring chances in Tuesday's game they could have piled up a much bigger margin.

Turning i na very fair display after a long layoff, Princeton girls had little difficulty in disposing of the Nicola ladies 17-6.

MERRITT GAME ROUGH.

There was plenty of color to the Merritt game, which saw Princeton stepping out to an early lead. Merritt tied things up midway in the second frame, but Princeton had the winning points in their jeans.

HAVE BIG EDGE.

Merritt's less experienced team had very little chance to even the series at Princeton, and the home lot stood on no ceremony, going out from the first whistle to consolidate their margin. At no time was the issue in doubt Merritt played gamely, but Princeton had a big edge. Gregory, Coles and Scholfield provided McAlpine with a number of fine chances which enabled him to again annex scoring honors.

DAVE TAYLOR, Managing Editor

BY WAY OF EXPLANATION

THE BOTTLE story we print herewith must leave a rather feeling about this establishment, and lest Perley, spoiling as ever to work us woe, should break into print with a deluge of sarcasm, we hasten to deny any responsibility for the story outside its publication in this issue. The point is that no one especially Perley, would believe that we would send away anything but an empty bottle—which is true. Hence this denial. Once and for all, we did not send the bottle down the river, and we did not empty it—that we know of.

The adventurous soul who cast his words and wit upon the waters trusted in Providence and the Printer's Devil to see the river saga in print; and as Providence did not fail him, why should the Devil

Before we close thesubject, however, let us take another precaution, less Uncle Sam suspect us of conspiracy in some rum-runing competition. We publish this as news, professing the facts as they are, and pleading that our information is that the bottle was empty. And in any case, Mr. Volstead, we had nothing to do with it ,save printing this, so excuse us, please. There should be no harm in sending down empty beer bottles, of course, and that is the reason we stated at the outset we would have emptied it—to avoid international complications. Which is a darned god story to stick by.

AND ANOTHER THING

WITH the mortification of empty beer bottles and the intoxication of Princeton Beer suits, this issue must savor of the appeal of the eighteenth amendment, but so help us, there is no attempt to wax alcoholic. The whole effort is to explain that this news smells so just from circumstantial evidence, and that the trousers and the bottle alike contain no beer.

If much more of this issue goes into this subject or its at tributes, we'll be tempted to charge cost of publication to Louis.

All of which is not published or displayed by the Liquor Control Board or Province of British Columbia.

CATCH THE SPIRIT

CLEAN UP, while the urge of spring is in the air! Already smudges of pine-needle smoke scent the spirit o fthe new season From year to year Princeton makes an organized drive under its over-worked board of trade, in the interests of a thorough spring cleaning of the town. But the board would doubtuess be very well pleased this year if its customary attentions are not required. There is something about the first call of spring that compels tidiness and respectability. Respond to that urge, and Dame Nature will prove a far better scavenger than your board of trade, which can find plenty else to busy itself about.

A Great War!
A Great Pestilence!
A Great Depression!

ALL within twenty years. Could there be a more gruelling test?

Yet life insurance stands invincible. During that whole period it paid every obligation promptly and fully — as it has ever since the Dominion was formed.

The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada itself paid to policyholders and beneficiaries in cash during these periods —

The War (1914-1918)
The 'Flu (1919)
The Depression (1930-1931)

— over $226,000,000. It has paid to its policyholders and beneficiaries since formation nearly $600,000,000.

In prosperity, life insurance is valuable; in adversity it is indispensable. The protection of your home, the security of your business, the comfort of your old age, depend first on adequate life insurance.

Have you enough?

He Knew The Value Of Hearing The Voice

His voice had travelled 18,000 miles from Vancouver to Melbourne, Australia - - it was the world's longest telephone call.

"I placed the call in order to strengthen our business and friendly relations by hearing each other's voice," he said later.

The man who talked with Australia is a member of a Vancouver importing and exporting firm. At the other end of the line was an Australian, head of a company with which the Vancouver firm does business. Neither had ever seen the other. A trip was at the time impossible. A telephone conversation was considered the next best thing.

So this Vancouver man called Australia to "strengthen business and friendly relations." He knew the value of hearing the voice.

On The Weather

WITH ALL the talk of hard times, there is one man going around with a smile on his face, and that is the Farmer.

Lots of snow last winter, and lots of rain this spring assure him of a good crop, as his land will be well moistened.

Now is the time to think of seed.

..: : MINING IN BRITISH COLUMBIA : :..

IN 1930, among the Canadian Provinces, BRITISH COLUMBIA was the leading producer of Silver, Lead and Zinc.

IN THIS PROVINCE 45 per cent of Canada's silver, 97 per cent of the Lead, and 93 per cent of the Zinc were produced.

BRITISH COLUMBIA has produced over $1,260,000,000 worth of mineral products.

Abou 200, 000 squatre miles of unexplored mineral-bearing lands are open for prospecting.

Practically Every Mineral Known To Be Found On The Continent Exists To Some Extent In British Columbia.

A special report on Placer Mining in British Columbia is available, and may be obtained, together with copies of the Annual Reports and Bulletins (one of which contains a SYNOPSIS OF THE MINING LAWS) upon application to.

COALMONT

Mr. Jerry Brown was taken suddenly ill last Friday morning. Dr. Whitworth was called in and diagnosed the trouble as acute appendicitis. This necessisated an immediate operation, which was successfully performed at the Princeton hospital, Dr. Whitworth being assisted by Dr. R. S. Manson. Latest reports are that Jerry is progressing fine, and his many friends will be looking forward with pleasure to seeing him around again, safe and sound.

* * *

Mrs. Gordon and son Jimmy, together with Mrs. Corson Matheson, spent Easter in Coalmont as the guests of Mrs. Matheson.

* * *

Miss Mattie Barton of Vancouver spent Easter as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Barton.

* * *

Mr. Peter Ralston, whose transfer to Vancouver wes cancelled at the last moment, left on Thursday to spend Easter with his folks in the city, returning on Monday's train.

* * *

Miss Grant, who is teaching at Greenwood, spent Easter here with friends.

OR SOMEP'N.

In the Spring, a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love" we are told in an old saying (Tennyson). Nowadays they would naturally turn to new models of cars, but under existing circumstances love seems to be the best bet.

BETER ROADS.

Road conditions this spring are much improved over last year, in spite of the weather man's attempt to turn them into a sticky mess. According to car drivers the road to Princeton is the best around here, so this much maligned road has good points after all. The only straight piece on the road is the very worst of all, and will remain so for a few days until the sun dries the road out.

* * *

Mrs. E. W. Cook and Edward, of Princeton, were Coalmont visitors on Sunday.

* * *

Mr. Albin Nelson and family motored up to Mr. John Holme's place, Oter Valley, and spent Easter Sunday there.

* * *

Keeping up with the Joneses used to be a familiar passtime. Now it is keeping down with them.

SHIPPING BEEVES

Mr. G. P. Myren, who is one of the oldest ranchers in the districta, has recently begun shipping some fine young steer beeves to the market. His health has been poor for the lastyear or so, and has prevented him from getting round as he would have liked to.

* * *

Mrs. James., another old timer of these parts, who purchased a ten-acre fruit ranch at Oliver a few years ago, has returned to her old home at Granite Creek for a visit.

STAR SPORT REVIEW

Sneis Fourth At Hollyburn Meet

Jumps of 96 and 90 feet gave Axel Sneis of Princeton fourth place in the Hollyburn Ski Club's Easter tournament Sunday..The meet was won by H. Sotweht of Hollyburn, one of the Vancouver jumpers who competed in the January tournament at Princeton. He set a new record for the Hollyburn ridge hill, with a jump of 112 feet. Nordal Kaldahl, a Princeton favorite, had hard luck, falling both times after making good distance.

Girls Play Well To Win From Merritt Here

With Anne Hall performing like a champion, Princeton girls had a easy time against Merritt on Tuesday. Goldie Waterstreet and diminutive Lilian Mitchell also played strongly at guard.

WILL DISCUSS CITY LEAGUE

Formation of a town basketball league has been enthusiastically discussed of recent days, and the idea seems to be so popular that a meeting has been called for Friday night at 8 o'clock at the office of P.W. Gregory, when all interested are asked to attend.

There is ample material for at least four senior teams, and the basketball club is favorable to the proposal Such a competition proved ery popular a couple of years back, and with summer sports still a good way off, should again have a strong appeal.

Should the idea find favor, the series would be got under way at once.

YOUR MERCHANT—AT YOUR SERVICE

BUSINESS—the grease that lubricates the hub of the Similkameen. One of the most important community cogs addresses you—the business men of Princeton.

What would Princeton be without its business street? What would the business street be without supporting payrolls and industries, and without a loyal public?

Princeton business men realize that what is good for the community is good for them; it is good business to make good buisness—good for the merchant, and good for the consumer.

Conscious of their function in community life, your merchants are anxious to please you; are anxious to co-operate with you, and are anxious for your co-operation.
