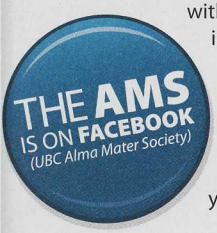
About the Insider

This year's Insider is here to serve you! Since the AMS is dedicated "to improving the quality of the educational, social, and personal lives of the students of UBC," we've been working throughout the summer to scour campus for information, contacts, and pictures for your reference and enjoyment. Thanks to Gerald Deo for taking the pictures of your AMS executives this year and last year!

Each tabbed section in the Insider has information relevant to you. "Student Government & Resources" contains all the information you need to get in contact with AMS executives, discover AMS and UBC services and resources, and get involved with your campus. Foster and explore your additional interests by looking through the "Clubs & Constituencies" lists to find clubs you can join or to simply get involved with your faculty constituency. "Student Life" gives you information about projects the AMS is working on, and information to help make your daily life on campus easier and more enjoyable with service listings such as food and transportation. Lastly, "Term One" and "Term Two" include calendars to help you manage your busy class schedule, homework, and more. With the Insider inside your bag, you'll be ready for nearly everything class throws your way!



The Insider is FSC Certified!

The Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) is an international nonprofit organization, which guarantees through independent auditors that paper products are from responsibly managed forests and verified recyclers.

Why does this matter? FSC certified papers are free from illegally harvested, endangered, and genetically modified trees. The FSC also respects the control of First Nations Peoples over their own forests, including respecting sites of cultural/religious significance and ensuring economic protection and compensation. Recycled fibre must be tracked and come from verified FSC recyclers. All of these FSC requirements prove to consumers the final product has come from sustainable and socially-conscious sources.

The AMS continues students' dedication to sustainability by obtaining FSC certification once again for the Insider. By using FSC Mixed Source paper versus conventional paper, the Insider has saved four tons of wood, 19 million BTUs of energy, 2,221 pounds of CO_2 emissions, 10,045 gallons of wastewater, and 1,171 pounds of solid waste! For more information about the FSC, to validate our certification number (printed on the cover), and to learn about sustainable forests, visit www.fsccanada.org.

AMS President's Message

Blake Frederick

The AMS is your student union. For nearly 100 years, we've been working to improve the lives of students. We provide the U-Pass, the Health & Dental Plan, over a half of a million dollars in bursaries each year, and a variety of services from tutoring to Minischool courses to peer support. Through the hard work and dedication of students, the AMS has built a number of buildings on campus including the Aquatic Centre, War Memorial Gym, Brock Hall, and the SUB. We are well on our way this year toward building a new SUB that will meet the needs of students for decades to come.

The AMS is also your voice to the decision makers at the University and the levels of government. Last year, when the AMS spoke out against the high cost of athletics fees, the University responded by reducing them by over 80% and making some of them free. When we spoke out against the University's plans for private retail development in the heart of campus, they scrapped those plans to include our new SUB instead. When we spoke out against the lack of student housing on campus, the University committed to building thousands of new spaces. The AMS is an effective lobby organization that gets results for students.

As the 100th President of the AMS, I would like to encourage you to get involved with your student union. I know students are under an immense amount of pressure given the work load and the sacrifices required to fund the high cost of education. By getting involved, even in a small capacity, you will be able to bring your issues to the table and effect tangible change. Students often don't know the power they yield in the decision-making processes on campus. Remember this is our university, and we can mould it to shape our vision for post-secondary education.

I wish you happiness and success in all your academic, social, community, and political endeavours this year at UBC.

In solidarity,

Blake Frederick
100th AMS President

UBC President's Message

Stephen J. Toope

Welcome to UBC. Whether you are a new student, or returning, you have chosen an extraordinary place to learn, discover, and contribute in your own way.

First of all, you can take some pride in knowing that you are studying at one of the world's best institutions—UBC consistently ranks amongst the 35 best universities in the world.

A university is about much more than studying. A truly great university fans the flames of your intellect, piques your passions, and opens the door to a myriad of opportunities for personal growth and fulfilment. I believe that no other university offers people and programs of such global stature, or an environment so open to new ideas and charting your own path.

A fundamental reason for such a rewarding learning environment is your student government, the Alma Mater Society of UBC Vancouver (AMS). Not only does it provide a wide range of important student services, including one of the largest numbers of student clubs on a campus in Canada; they also have a track record of advocacy and student achievement.

UBC students have made significant contributions to the campus through the AMS. Students rallied to raise funds to build UBC's first gymnasium in 1929, Brock Hall in 1940, and the current Student Union Building in 1968. And students have now committed $85 million to a new Student Union Building. You can have a role as this is planned and constructed in the coming years.

The AMS has also helped students organize to receive important benefits like the U-Pass. And after our first Great Trek in 1922 that urged the government to build UBC, the AMS has mobilized other marches to increase university funding in 1956 and 1963, and in 2009 to celebrate the UBC Farm.

Take your own place in the vibrant life of this campus. Take advantage of all that UBC has to offer, both in and out of the classroom, in Vancouver, and around the world. In doing so, you will grow confident in your skills and knowledge and be ready to make your own mark.

President • SUB 238L
president@ams.ubc.ca • 604.822.3972

The president's responsibilities are vast. It is my job to guide the direction of the AMS according to the will of students. I am also responsible for communicating the functioning of the AMS to students. Though the president's portfolio has certain tangibles such as coordinating the executive team, the president bears the ultimate responsibility of all the actions of the AMS.

One of my roles that I plan to put heavy emphasis on during my term is advocacy. I will continue to take every opportunity to stand up for students' rights. We have the power to influence our education, both inside and outside of the classroom. Through our active and critical engagement, we can use the AMS to advocate for students' multiple and diverse interests. Everyone has a right to not only an education, but to influence how their education is experienced. Everyone has a right to access, to be respected, to feel included, and to have a voice within their student union.

If you ever have any concerns about your experience at UBC, please feel free to contact me at president@ams.ubc.ca.

VP Academic & University Affairs • SUB 238K
vpacademic@ams.ubc.ca • 604.822.3092

Hello everyone, and welcome to the 101st year of UBC's theoretical existence, and its 94th year of actual classes. Whether you are here for the first time, the last, or somewhere in-between, this is going to be a year to remember!

After all, 2010 is a landmark year for not only UBC, but Vancouver and Canada as a whole. With the Olympics coming to campus, we will be seeing a campus at 200% capacity, and a university community that will be experiencing a once in a lifetime opportunity to engage with the rest of the world through this event. It is also a once in a lifetime opportunity to engage with your education and learning experience here at UBC during this energetic time. I hope my job at the AMS can help you take these opportunities.

The role of the VP Academic and University Affairs is to act as your liaison to the university and different campus constituencies about academic, planning, and other policy issues. In short, it is my job to liaise with the university to ensure your experience during your years here as a student and as an alumnus or alumna are the best possible. Issues this portfolio deals with include the following:

Academic Issues: Quality of teaching, calendar, senate, innovative programs, diverse curriculum and professors, teacher evaluations, academic support programs, budgeting, etc.

Campus Development Issues: New buildings and development, student housing, University Town and non-institutional development, the Campus Plan process, transportation issues, student social and learning spaces, green space, etc.

Campus Community Issues: Access and Diversity, health and wellness, discrimination, campus crime and safety, community building, governance, UBC Greek system, residence, international student issues, First Nations students, Ombuds services, advocacy, etc.

Of course, the list could go on as to the many university issues this position touches, since there really are limitless possibilities of what can happen here at UBC. So if you ever have any questions or suggestions about how to make UBC have the best teaching, learning, and living environment possible, let me know! My office door is always open.

VP Administration • SUB 238G
vpadmin@ams.ubc.ca • 604.822.3961

When people ask me what I do, my natural, politically-suave instincts kick in, and I respond with, "I represent all students at UBC and work to provide services and accountability to all students on our great campus—of course!"

But let's skip the PR spiel and I'll give you the DL on what I really do... I own the SUB. Okay, perhaps the term "own" is not quite accurate. What I really do is administer the SUB, making sure our Student Union Building is functioning at its optimum. Any renovations or changes in the SUB are under my portfolio.

I also oversee the Student Administrative Committee (known as SAC, a committee composed of amazing, hardworking people). In some way, shape, or form, I (and the AMS) will impact your student experience. Want to start a club on campus? That goes through SAC. Want to book a room for a meeting? Talk to our bookings representative, Kathryn Will. Didn't get enough ketchup on your fries at the Pit? See Tom Dvorak, VP Finance.

As you can imagine, there is so much going on in the SUB that I never leave. And why should I? The SUB is where all the magic happens! From movies at the Norm, coffee and cookies from Blue Chip, art displays in the AMS Art Gallery, and an after work pick-me-up at the Gallery Lounge, there are hundreds of reasons why I would rather stay in the SUB than commute an hour and half back home—hard to believe, I know!

In my time at UBC, I've discovered the AMS is an amazing place where impromptu chats about projects that excite us and creative problem solving in the halls are not uncommon. Every decision we make is made by students, with students, and for students. Student involvement can be seen at every level from the signatures on your reimbursement cheques, to the start of big projects. Our most successful initiatives have come from the passion students show, and I encourage each and every student to get involved with the AMS—the most dynamic and vibrant organization you can get involved with at UBC.

Tom Dvorak

VP Finance • SUB 238M
vpfinance@ams.ubc.ca • 604.822.3973

Hello UBC! It's my pleasure to address you as this year's VP Finance!

The VP Finance:

My job here at the AMS involves a wide realm of responsibilities. I work closely with our student society's fantastic full-time staff, who run our daily business operations, overseeing everything from our conference and catering businesses, to the Pendulum and Pit Pub.

I also spearhead the AMS' budgeting process, allocating nearly $20 million of student money each year. Working with the Budget Committee and full-time staff, I help decide how this money can best serve you each year! Finally, I work closely with our sustainability coordinator, helping to make the AMS a leader in social responsibility.

My Goals:

If you use our student businesses and services often, you'll notice there's a lot of paper that goes around. We're just starting to embrace technology, and my plan is to make an enormous leap in customer service systems as well as general office systems. My hope is that by this time next year, we'll see faster, more streamlined AMS businesses and services that can serve students better. Also, I plan to take a closer look at sustainability and begin to implement changes to our society as a result of the amazing amount of research that was done in the past year.

Fun Facts About Me:

I've lived in Vancouver for over a decade; when it came time to choose a university, I followed my philosophy that rain doesn't need to be shovelled in the winter. And besides, in what other city can you go swimming in the ocean during the day and skiing on the mountains the same evening? Anyway, I'm studying toward a business degree here at UBC, with plans to major in real estate and entrepreneurship. Don't ever hesitate to pop by my office in the coming year if you have questions about your student society. I'm here to serve, and I can't wait to see what can be accomplished in the next year!

Tim Chu

VP External • SUB 238J
vpexternal@ams.ubc.ca • 604.822.2050

First things first—we need to recognize that UBC is on un-ceded Coast Salish territory, and we should all behave accordingly.

As you can probably tell, the AMS External Office, led by the VP External, is the more politically-charged wing of the AMS. The VP External is your personal advocate and lobbyist for the issues you care about.

The AMS External Office deals with the U-Pass and Translink; the various levels of government regarding student issues such as tuition fee levels, student financial assistance (loans, bursaries, government scholarships), and post-secondary education funding; other provincial and federal student organizations/unions; and any other issues you care about, like the democratization of the UBC governance structure, the pacifist/anti-war movement, or even human rights in places like China and Burma.

Prior to becoming your VP External, I was an AMS Arts representative. I decided to run for the VP External position because I have a strong interest in progressive politics. I feel the upfront costs of education are acting as barriers for people to access post-secondary education, and this is completely unacceptable.

As the chair of the Equity Committee, I am committed to making the AMS much more inclusive and representative of the student body. Women and visible minorities are grossly underrepresented in the positions of power at the AMS, and this is completely unacceptable. We need to identify barriers, remove them, and seek justice for marginalized groups within the AMS.

I also chair the External Policy Committee. In collaboration with the other committee members, I would like to create policies that are relevant to students, and policies that students support. As this is the student union that you pay fees to, you, as a student, should drive the priorities and policies. Get involved with this committee to make your voice heard.

I believe in increasing access to post-secondary education. I believe inadequate transit acts as a physical barrier to accessing post-secondary education. I also believe underrepresented groups in our society need to be represented. Finally, I believe students need to bind together to show solidarity and strength for the issues we care about.

My office is an open, positive, and safe space. Feel free to drop by my office in SUB 238J and we can resist, organize, and mobilize together to fight for issues we care about.

Pavani Gunadasa

Executive Coordinator of Student Services • SUB 249B
services@ams.ubc.ca • 604.822.9949

Hello UBC! My name is Pavani Gunadasa, and it will be my pleasure to serve you this year as the Executive Coordinator of Student Services (ECSS). The ECSS oversees eight student services offered by the AMS. I provide training, guidance, and support for the service coordinators and student staff managing the day-to-day activities of the individual services. I sit as a nonvoting representative on Student Council and on the Executive Committee. In both roles, I speak on behalf of the Services and work to promote their interests within the Society and the UBC community. I am also involved with a number of ongoing AMS and UBC projects, programs, and initiatives geared toward supporting students, fostering academic learning, and enhancing student life.

I am originally from the beautiful, tropical island of Sri Lanka and grew up migrating between Sri Lanka and Canada. Currently, my ambition is to pursue a career in medicine. I am very passionate about humanitarian and community service efforts, and therefore, eager to incorporate these interests in my future career. This year, I hope to use my strong background in advocacy, diplomacy, program and event planning, promotions, public speaking, and employee and volunteer management to further enrich and expand the role of the ECSS.

My goals are to:

- assess the current state of the Student Services, collect student input, and restructure and tailor the services to better meet the needs of a diverse and quickly expanding and evolving student population.
- network and work closely and cooperatively with various AMS and UBC bodies to instigate positive changes that improve the quality of the services we provide, while reaching out to a greater number of students.
- promote employment and institutional equity and address issues such as cultural, religious, and language barriers. Accessibility is a significant issue, and I will be working on eradicating the barriers that may prevent or deter some students from using Student Services.

If you are interested in learning more about the services that you as a student have access to on campus, please do not hesitate to get in contact with me or the service coordinators.

Student Council

The AMS Council is the highest elected decision-making authority in the AMS. Council is composed of student representatives including the executives, affiliated colleges, Ombudsperson, each of the faculties, and an International Student Representative. From setting policy to determining budgets, AMS Council takes its direction from the student body to determine the AMS' priorities and activities.

AMS Council is designed to be an open and welcoming space for any student to give input on the AMS' functioning and express concerns with their student experience at UBC. The AMS relies upon active, interested students to help guide its actions.

The AMS has identified there are systemic barriers that prevent students from getting involved with the AMS Council. The AMS will be undergoing a thorough review this year, and we welcome your input on how the AMS can most effectively represent you.

Make it a goal to attend at least one AMS Council meeting this year, and have your voice heard by your student union. AMS Council meetings are held every second Wednesday at 6:00 p.m. in the SUB Council Chambers with food and refreshments provided.

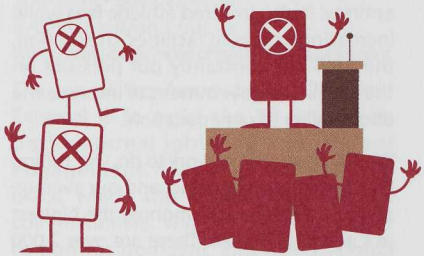
Annual AMS Elections

Someone once said, "Bad officials are elected by good citizens who do not vote." Someone also once said, "If you don't vote, you can't complain." Who doesn't like to have a say in school matters? But before you do, make sure you vote!

Vote online at www.ams.ubc.ca or in person with your UBC student card in late January at any of the polling stations.

Run for it!

Besides voting, you can also run for these positions by following these steps:



Act fast!
AMS Elections take place near the end of January, but to run in these elections, you need to get in the game earlier. You need a campaign, promotional materials, speeches prepared for platform presentations, and so on.

Research and choose a position!
You can run for President, VP Academic and University Affairs, VP Finance, VP External, or VP Administration. During the elections, you can also run for Senate or Board of Governors.

Get nominated!
The form is available from the Administrative Assistant (adassist@ams.ubc.ca) at the AMS Executive Offices (SUB Rm. 238) in late Nov.

Get 50!
Fill out the form and get 50 other registered UBC students to sign it. Once this is complete, submit it per the directions on the form.

Be campaign ready!
Spend your winter break creating your campaign, posters, fliers, and speeches.

Meet candidates!
Go to the All-Candidates Meeting in early January.

Showtime!
Show them what you've got! The process usually takes two weeks. Make sure you are familiar with the rules, because you'll want the Elections Administrator to sanction your campaign!

Last but not least... Get elected!

AMS Lobbying

The AMS advocates for issues you care about. We put pressure on the University, the various levels of Government, and external organizations to enhance the lives of students. In the past, the AMS has successfully lobbied to save UBC Farm in its entirety. It also lowered athletic fees while increasing access to facilities. In addition, the AMS has constantly put pressure on the provincial government to improve the affordability of our education.

We still have a lot of work to do. Our tuition fees are constantly rising, and our average student debt load is amongst the highest in Canada ($27,000). There are over 2,000 students on UBC Residence wait lists. We can cause change, but we need all students to speak up. That's why you should get involved with the AMS' lobbying efforts. Contact your VP External to fight for a better post-secondary education—call 604.822.2050 or vpexternal@ams.ubc.ca.

Student Legal Fund Society (SLFS)

Have you been treated unfairly and require legal assistance or wish to take legal action? The Student Legal Fund Society was created by students in 1998 in the aftermath of the APEC protests, which involved many violations of students' rights by law enforcement officers. The SLFS exists to provide advisory, legal, and financial assistance to fund and initiate legal advocacy. Our mandate is to improve education and access to education at UBC as well as other matters of general concern to UBC students such as tenancy, student loans, and activist rights. The society has six directors elected annually, and a seventh director appointed by AMS Council. Visit www.studentlegal.org or contact us at slfsdirectors@gmail.com.

SAC Vice-Chair: Elin Tayyar
SUB 238F • 604.822.2361
sacvc@ams.ubc.ca
www2.ams.ubc.ca/index.php/student_government

The Student Administrative Commission (SAC) works closely with the VP Admin, Crystal Hon, in overseeing the SUB's operations and is primarily a resource for its constituents. These include AMS clubs, constituencies, and resource groups. SAC also ensures that subsidiaries are functioning smoothly (both independently and as a whole) by providing room bookings, locker rentals, consultations, club constitutions, and much more! SAC meetings are held every week, and you are welcome to attend!

Finance Commission (FinCom)

Associate VP Finance: Catherine Metrycki
SUB 238F • 604.822.2361
avpfinance@ams.ubc.ca
www2.ams.ubc.ca/index.php/student_government

The AMS Finance Commission (FinCom) works with the VP Finance in overseeing all financial matters of your student society. Important programs that FinCom administers include AMS Club and Constituency Budget Review, Financial Aid Awareness Days, and student grant applications (the Clubs Benefit Fund, Constituency Aid Fund, and Student Initiative Fund). Make sure to check out Financial Aid Awareness Days to receive information about loans, credit cards, and to learn how to finance your degree. Associate VP External: Rory Green
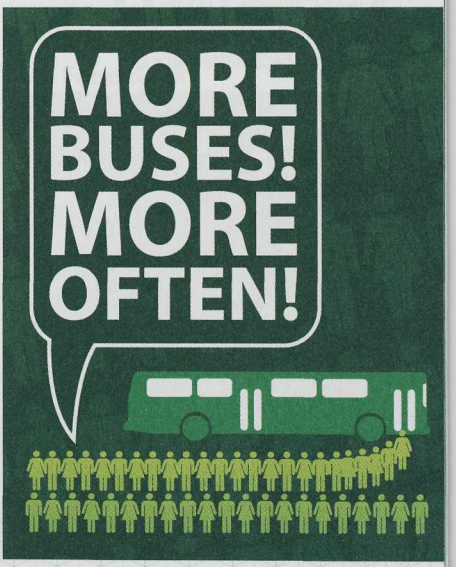
SUB 238R • 604.822.6868
avpexternal@ams.ubc.ca
www2.ams.ubc.ca/index.php/student_government

The job of the Associate Vice-President External is to assist the VP External in both external lobbying and student engagement. This year, the external office, which also includes four external commissioners, will be lobbying for fair tuition for domestic and international students, better transit service (More Buses, More Often), affordable and accessible childcare, and more! The External Office always wants to hear from you. If you want to give us your two cents, get involved in a campaign, or sit as a member-at-large on the external policy committee, let me know!



University Governance

In addition to your AMS Executives, these guys also represent you at UBC. If your particular project or case requires you to liaise with university officials, contact your representatives to the UBC Board of Governors or the UBC Senate.

UBC Board of Governors

Bijan Ahmadian: ubc@bijan.ca
Mike Duncan: studentboardrep@ams.ubc.ca
www.bog.ubc.ca

The Board of Governors is the highest decision-making body at UBC. It is responsible for managing, administering, and controlling the property, revenue, and affairs of the University.

The Board is composed of the Chancellor, the President, three student reps (two from Vancouver and one from Okanagan), 11 people appointed by the Lieutenant Governor, three elected faculty members, and two elected non-faculty members. More information, including minutes, schedules, and agendas of Board meetings, is posted on our website.

The student representatives from UBC Vancouver are Bijan Ahmadian and Mike Duncan. Bijan is a third-year law student, and Mike is completing his undergrad degree in biomathematics.

UBC Senate

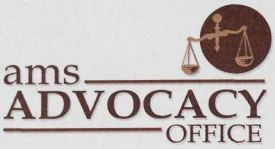
Student Caucus Chair: Geoff Costeloe
senate@ams.ubc.ca
www.senate.ubc.ca

UBC Senate governs academic affairs at UBC and works alongside the Board of Governors. The Senate creates new courses and programs, sets admissions and other academic policies, and manages scholarships and awards. The Senate is also a student's last resort for appeals on academic discipline and academic standing.

Senate is made up of 90 Senators, 18 of whom are students. Being involved in Senate is a great way to have an impact on the UBC community. Senate meets monthly from September to May at Irving K. Barber Library, Rm. 182. Contact senate@ams.ubc.ca for more details.

AMS Services

Being a student isn't easy. The AMS is here to help you every step of the way! Your AMS' student-run businesses and food outlets help fund the free and affordable services you will find in the following pages. Help your services stay strong by supporting your AMS businesses and by applying for volunteer positions.



AMS Advocacy

Coordinator: Hillson Tse
SUB 249G • 604.822.9855
advocate@ams.ubc.ca
www2.ams.ubc.ca/index.php/services

The Advocacy Office provides confidential, free support and representation to students who are engaged in formal conflict with UBC, regardless of guilt or innocence. Our primary mandate is to support, assist, and guide students who are preparing for, or participating in, any of UBC's formal appeal or complaint structures. Specifically, we help students with matters of academic discipline (e.g. cheating, collaboration, or plagiarism), non-academic discipline, assigned academic standing, admissions, financial assistance, and appeals of decisions made by UBC Library, Parking, or Housing. You are not alone—we are here to help!

www.amsfirstweek.com

Known at other universities as "frosh week" or "welcome week," AMS Firstweek is UBC's version of a week-long festival dedicated to welcoming new students to UBC and re-introducing old ones to campus life. Firstweek is designed to take a typical, year-long UBC campus experience, and jam it all into one week of fun and insanity! Starting before Imagine Day, events continue all the way until the end of the week. Firstweek is not your typical campus tour—unless your idea of a campus tour includes huge concerts, dances, live comedy, improv, a massive indoor/outdoor pool party, and more chances to meet your future best friends than you can shake a stick at! Check out our website for more info!

AMS Food Bank

foodbank@ams.ubc.ca
www2.ams.ubc.ca/index.php/services

We know sometimes students need a little help with groceries when funds run low; that's why we're here. The AMS Food Bank provides a free, 7-day supply of emergency food relief for current UBC students. We can also provide information on other Lower Mainland food banks and sources of financial assistance. Appointments to access the Food Bank can be made by email. All students with valid student ID are welcome to use the service. For hours of operation and more information, please visit our website.

AMS Minischool

If you feel that you have been treated unfairly, or need to approach the University or the AMS to resolve a conflict, the AMS Ombudsperson can assist you. The Ombudsperson acts impartially, is independent of any administrative body, and provides a confidential service. Our services include mediation, conflict resolution, help with writing letters and making appeals, and general assistance in navigating the structures of UBC and the AMS.

AMS Rentsline

ubc@rentsline.com
www.amsrentsline.com

The AMS Rentsline is an accommodation service geared to Vancouver's Westside. Each student with a UBC interchange email address receives five free ad listings when registering with their interchange account. It is free to browse. The website allows users to browse listings by distance from UBC, type of accommodation, neighbourhood, and rental cost. There is also a useful free service (rental alerts by email) that will email users according to their preset criteria as soon as a listing is posted.

Networks Enhance Your Benefits and Save You Money

Get even more coverage by visiting members of the Dental, Vision, Chiropractic, Physiotherapy, and Massage Therapy Networks.

Find a health practitioner at www.ihaveaplan.ca.

Why a Health & Dental Plan?

The Plan is a critical service of the AMS and GSS designed to fill the gaps in provincial health care. As a student at UBC and a member of the Alma Mater Society, you're covered by the AMS/GSS Health & Dental Plan. The cost of the Plan is part of your student fees.

Covered by Another Plan? Weigh the Costs and Benefits

Being enrolled as a dependant in a parent or spouse's employee benefit plan usually requires your family member to pay additional costs to have you covered. The AMS/GSS Plan may provide better value. You can also combine it with your other plan to maximize your overall coverage—up to 100% and eliminate out-of-pocket costs.

Alternatively, you can opt out of the AMS/GSS Health & Dental Plan by providing proof of equivalent health and dental coverage.

Change-of-Coverage Dates

All enrolments and opt outs must be completed between Sept. 8 - 29, 2009. Only new Term 2 students can opt out or enrol their spouse/dependants between Jan. 4 - 25, 2010 for coverage from Jan. 1 - Aug. 31, 2010.

Save Even More Money with the Provider Networks

You're covered for the insured portion of your AMS/GSS Health & Dental Plan regardless of the health practitioner you choose. By consulting a Network member, you will get additional coverage.

Find a health practitioner at www.ihaveaplan.ca.

Vision Network

30% Off Prescription Eyeglasses

When visiting an optometrist or an optician who is part of the Studentcare Vision Network, you save at least 30% — up to $75 on prescription eyeglasses. They also offer savings on the cost of eye exams and contact lenses.

$150 in Savings for Laser Eye Surgery From LASIK MD

Dental Network

Get Up to 90% of Your Dental Costs Covered by Visiting a Dental Network Member

Your Plan covers many dental services such as checkups, cleanings, fillings, and wisdom teeth, for 50-70% of the cost, to a maximum of $750 per policy year. The Dental Network provides an additional 20% in savings, so your total coverage is up to 90% of your dental costs.

Health Networks

Massage Therapy Network

$30 for a 30-minute treatment and $55 for a 60-minute treatment.

Chiropractic Network

$35 for an initial assessment and $30 for subsequent visits.

Physiotherapy Network

$35 for an initial assessment and for subsequent visits.

Counselling Services offers primarily short-term counselling for UBC students. In the initial consultation, a counsellor will help to clarify concerns, develop goals for change, and determine the most appropriate next steps, which may be a referral to services within our centre, to other services on campus, and/or to appropriate services in the community. Consultations are available by appointment or drop-in, and emergency appointments are available. Students wanting drop-in appointments are advised to arrive when the centre opens as availability varies. In addition to individual counselling, Counselling Services provides groups that focus on topics such as anxiety management and mood management.

Allies is a group of men who work with men to end violence toward women. We do this by critically evaluating masculinity, relationships, sexuality, and the power dynamics of society. We hope to make men aware of the driving forces that condone violence against women by holding regular group discussions. We also conduct outreach workshops for various campus groups where we teach men how to improve their relationships and sex life. Allies is famous for its White Ribbon Pancake Breakfast in late November, which raises funds for resources that benefit women's groups and survivors of sexual assault.

The DSC organizes a variety of activities such as educational/leisure workshops and seminars, volunteer functions, social events, public performances, and sport activities. We promote Chinese heritage while participating in cultural exchange with other ethnicities. Furthermore, DSC also recognizes the importance of charitable contribution to our community.

Economics Students' Association (ESA)
econesa@interchange.ubc.ca • www.econ.ubc.ca/esa
With around 200 members, ESA is one of the largest and most active departmental clubs on campus. It is the home organization of Economics majors at UBC and seeks to foster camaraderie amongst the department's student population. Any UBC student with an interest in economics is welcome to join! Visit our website for more details about what we have to offer.

Electrical & Computer Engineering Student Society (ECESS)
eeclub@ece.ubc.ca
ECESS is a student organization for all Electrical and Computer Engineering (ECE) undergrads at UBC. With over 800 undergraduate students in the department, ECESS is the largest of all engineering departmental clubs.

Emerging Leaders of UBC
www.elubc.com
We are focused on leadership development and networking. Club members will have the opportunity to participate in professionally led workshops, the UBC Leadership Challenge, and serve on our executive. With our focus on "leadership as service to others," the implementation of a new scholarship program, and high profile CEOs expected at our third annual Leadership Summit, you can expect to grow a lot and have fun!

Engineering Physics Society
amschaap@physics.ubc.ca • www.ubcfizz.com
We represent students within the Engineering Physics undergraduate program. We work with UBC Physics and Astronomy as well as Applied Science. In addition to representing our student body, we also organize and run events ranging from industrial liaisons to general social events.

English Students' Association (ESA)
The English Students' Association (ESA) is simply a gathering of students who love anything concerning the English language. We put on events, have outings, and talk about English stuff. Want to get to know your fellow students and professors better? As the official club of the UBC English Department, the ESA is an open-arms, close-knit community where students and English faculty members enjoy a horizontal comradeship with each other.

Environmental Sciences Students' Association (ESSA)
essa.ubc@gmail.com • www.ams.ubc.ca/clubs/essa ESSA is the student club representing the Environmental Sciences program at UBC. We are dedicated to bringing people together with a passion for the environmental sciences. We organize and run events for students to get acquainted outside the classroom. We also hold academic conferences and discussions with professionals in the environmental sciences field as well as organize study groups and outdoor group activities.

Environmental Design Society
ends.society@gmail.com
The Environmental Design Society consists of student representatives for the Environmental Design program. This is a multidisciplinary undergraduate program within the School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture. The Society also organizes social, cultural, and educational events for the students.

Equestrian Club
ubcequestrian@gmail.com
The Equestrian Club was constituted to provide the opportunity for riders of all levels to participate in intercollegiate competitions in the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association and Intercollegiate Dressage Association. We also have social events for riders and horse enthusiasts to meet and learn from one another, forming a community of "horse people" at UBC. Regardless of your level of expertise, we encourage you to contact us and find out more.

European Studies Students' Association (ESSA)
iesessa@gmail.com
The recently founded ESSA is for anyone with an interest in Europe. The ESSA seeks to promote positive dialogue amongst students and scholars who have an interest in European issues, culture, and Canadian-European-international affairs. Activities include small events, films, potlucks, etc. that touch upon various European subjects.

Federal Young Liberals of UBC
We support the national Liberal Party of Canada and strive to achieve a richer, fairer, and greener Canada by supporting a national governing policy focused on economic prosperity, social justice, and environmental sustainability.

Fencing Club
fencingubc@gmail.com
www.ams.ubc.ca/clubs/fencing
If you love the sound of clashing steel, fencing is the sport to try. The UBC Fencing Club welcomes new and experienced members. Membership includes lessons by a certified CFF coach, use of club equipment, and the lowest fees in BC. We organize several tournaments and social outings throughout the year. Whether you have never fenced before, or you are an experienced fencer, drop by and learn more about this exciting sport.

Film Society (FilmSoc)
chair@ubcfilmsociety.com • ubcfilmsociety.com
FilmSoc is one of the oldest and largest clubs at UBC. We show great movies Wednesday through Sunday evenings at the Norm Theatre in the SUB. Tickets are only $4—or just $2 if you're a member! Membership comes with tons of other great benefits too! Check out our website for our film schedule and membership details. The Norm Theatre is located next to Bernoulli's Bagels on the SUB Main Level.

Finance Club
ubcfinanceclub@gmail.com • www.ubcfinanceclub.com
We are one of the largest industry-focused clubs at UBC with over 500 proactive members. Our mission is to provide opportunities in the financial industry to students. Excellent execution of our mission has allowed us to facilitate recruitment through our networking, informational, and competitive events including North America's largest student-run investment banking competition.

Food Society
info@ubcfoodsociety.com
Experience exquisite cuisine, meet fellow foodies, and learn how to cook from professional chefs—all on a student's budget! The Food Society offers unique food experiences in small group settings. Whether you want to learn to cook or simply love eating, we have something for everyone. Discover new places to excite your taste buds at our restaurant outings or mingle during our hands-on workshops. Join us and start eating better today!

Formation DanceSport UBC
ubcformation@gmail.com
www.ubcformation.weebly.com
Whether you want to improve your International Style Latin technique, learn more about Latin ballroom, or get a total body workout, we have something for you. We hold a weekly technique class, where we teach styling skills to enhance the look of your dancing. We also have a competitive team of eight couples, and we are always looking for dedicated team members. This club is open to both students and non-students.

Forum on International Cooperation (FICUBC)
www.ficubc.wordpress.com
FICUBC promotes active youth engagement in international affairs. We hope to better understand global challenges and generate practical solutions. We have a particular focus on political and economic inequalities in the current international system. FICUBC works with our partner chapters and organizations around the world to design sustainable community development programs.

Freethinkers Club
freethinkers.ubc@gmail.com
The Freethinkers Club is a group for atheists, agnostics, humanists, skeptics, and basically anyone who is interested in a naturalistic world-view. We provide an opportunity for members to meet like-minded people, building a forum for discussion surrounding science, belief, and secularism. We promote the importance of causes such as scientific education and consumer protection from pseudo-scientific claims.

Friends of the Spartacus Youth Club (SYC)
604.687.0353 • trotskyist_vancouver@shawcable.com
The SYC encourages the free exchange of Marxist ideas on campus. The SYC intervenes into social struggles with the revolutionary program of Trotskyism. The SYC fights to win students to the side of the working class, which has the social power and historical interest to carry out a socialist revolution. The 1917 Revolution led by the Bolsheviks showed only the overthrow of capitalism can lay the basis for a world free of exploitation, oppression, and war.

Friends of the UBC Farm (FoF)
friendsoftheubcfarm@gmail.com
FoF is an advocacy group for the UBC Farm. If you are interested in promoting the farm around Vancouver, volunteering in the fields, getting involved in your local and organic food network, and attending all sorts of awesome events, come on out and join us!

Friends of Wetlands
friendsofwetlands@gmail.com
www.ams.ubc.ca/clubs/fob
Friends of Wetlands combines education, volunteering, and socializing with wetlands and conservation. Volunteer opportunities include regular work parties at Camosun Bog, Jericho Beach, and participation in the Great Canadian Shoreline Clean-Up. We also organize educational trips to Burns Bog and the Delta Bird Sanctuary.

Fun Run UBC Running Club
runubc@gmail.com • www.runubc.wordpress.com
Fun Run UBC was created to provide UBC students with an environment that allows them to socialize, to decrease the stresses of university life, and to keep fit! It is a noncompetitive community of people sharing a common interest in running.

Gado-Gado Indonesian Students' Association of UBC (GISAU)
gisau.ubc@gmail.com • www.gisau.webs.com
The name Gado-Gado is taken from the country's well-known traditional salad, consisting of various kinds of vegetables. Its richly diverse nature symbolizes the multitude of cultures we expect to see from our members. Our club's focus is to strengthen members' knowledge and awareness of the Indonesian community through event gatherings and social activities.

Game Developers' Association
www.gdaubc.net
We bring together video game enthusiasts and those interested in the development process. The club's main focus is on the developmental aspects of video games. Activities include story writing, 2D/3D graphic design, coding, and modding.

Geography Students' Association (GSA)
ubcgsa@hotmail.com • www.ams.ubc.ca/clubs/gsa
The GSA is one of the most active student associations on campus. We host various events during the year including our famous "Bzzr" gardens; members of the GSA enjoy a wide range of indoor and outdoor activities throughout the year. We are a student-run organization for UBC Geography students and alumni, but any and all students are welcome to join!

German Club
ubc.german.club@gmail.com
www.ams.ubc.ca/clubs/german
The UBC German Club aims at bringing together members of the campus community whose first language is German, who are learning German at university, or who simply have a general interest in German language and culture. Activities include conversation groups, movie nights, outings to German restaurants, and the occasional beer garden.

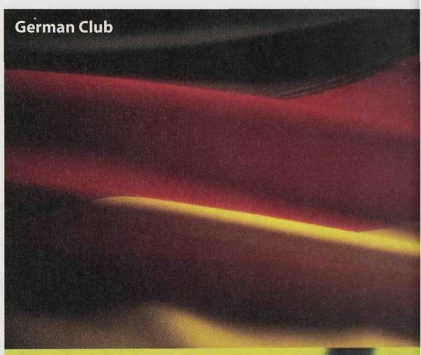
Gilbert & Sullivan Society of UBC
info@gsubc.com • www.gsubc.com
We're looking for enthusiastic people, with or without experience, who want to perform (sing, act, dance) or enjoy theatre production (front of house, ushering, costumes, props, set, etc.). We put on one Gilbert and Sullivan operetta each year and two musical revues. Our goal is to provide amateur musical and theatrical opportunities for the UBC community.

Go Club
ubcgoclub@gmail.com • www.ubcgoclub.pbwiki.com
Go is called Weiqi in Chinese and Baduk in Korean. It is an ancient, Chinese strategic board game invented 4,000 years ago. Despite having very simple rules, it is arguably the most complex and strategically intense board game. At UBC Go Club, we seek to promote Go, teach beginners how to play, as well as provide a friendly environment for intermediate and advanced players.

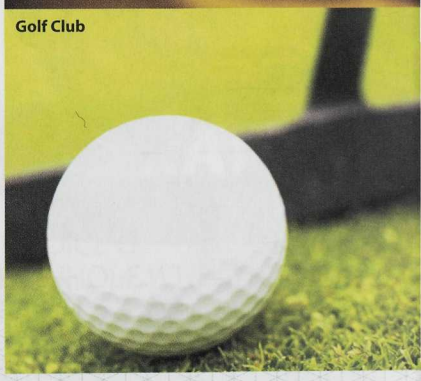
Golf Club
email@ubcgolfclub.org • www.ubcgolfclub.com
Golf is one of the fastest growing sports and one of the largest sport clubs at UBC. Free coaching and equipment rentals, 2-for-1 driving range discounts, cheap green fees, and other exclusive discounts are just some of the perks our members enjoy.

Green Party of UBC
campusgreenpartyubc@gmail.com
The Green Party of UBC strives to promote environmental awareness, accountability, and sustainable economic prosperity. We support a decrease in resource consumption, stress the importance of future human needs, and emphasize quality of life rather than quantity of consumption. We've had guest speeches with Elizabeth May, leader of the Federal Green Party; and Jane Sterk, leader of the BC Green Party.

Handball Club
ubchandball@gmail.com.
The UBC Handball Club is a rapidly growing club of handball enthusiasts. We welcome players of all levels to participate in our weekly drop-in games, socials, and tournaments. We provide a fun and friendly environment to build teamwork skills, social networks, and physical fitness. With dedicated game and social coordinators, we aim to give our members the best handball experience on campus. Come out and join us!



German Club



Golf Club

Heart Club
ubcheartclub@gmail.com
We offer members various opportunities to make a difference in the lives of people in the community through the spirit of volunteerism. Whether that means volunteering with the Heart and Stroke Foundation, visiting clients at the GF Strong Rehabilitation Centre, or organizing fundraisers around campus or across the city, we believe everyone brings something valuable to the community, and everyone can make a positive impact.

History Graduate Students' Association (HGSA)
president.hgsa@gmail.com
groups.google.com/group/hgsa HGSA represents graduate students to the History Department and the University. We meet monthly and arrange social and academic activities. In HGSA, graduate students sit on important departmental committees such as hiring committees, the graduate program committee, and the space committee.

Human Resources Management Club (HRMC)
communications@ubchrm.com
www.ubchrm.com
HRMC's mission is to serve the needs of students by providing essential and comprehensive resources to further advance each student's career. Throughout the year, HRMC will host many events such as the Careers in HR and Law School Preview nights. Through our social and professional events, we provide invaluable learning and networking opportunities.

Humanitarian Society
humanitarian@club.ams.ubc.ca www.ams.ubc.ca/clubs/humanitarian
The UBC Humanitarian Society's objective is to get out into the community and aid those who are less fortunate. Major projects of the club include hosting soup kitchens in the Downtown Eastside, food and toy drives, and sponsoring families at Christmas.

ICON (Imaging Concepts)
info@icon-ubc.ca • www.icon-ubc.ca
Connecting students to the world, ICON is a student-run club dedicated to helping the community and having fun through club-organized events. We strive to work together to assist our community by visiting senior homes and hospitals, attending various charity events, and organizing fundraisers for local charities. Our aim is to network students with each other and in the community at large.

Improv Theatre Society
ubcimprov@gmail.com • www.ubcimprov.com
UBC Improv is a high-energy, entertainment-based club with a prolific and pleasing presence on campus. Haven't you ever wondered how the Ancient Egyptians relate to the birth of a small otter in the Appalachian Mountaintops? Whether it be as a member, or as a performer on one of the teams, the answer to this question could, one day, be revealed.

Integrated Engineering Club
The UBC Integrated Engineering Club represents Integrated Engineers. We hold many social events which include BBQs, movie and poker nights, our yearly "Rock Your Socks Off, Dance Your Pants Off" party, and more.

Integrated Sciences Student Association (ISSA)
www.ubcissa.com
ISSA was founded to create a sense of community in the Integrated Sciences Program (ISP). Students in ISP come from varying disciplines of science, and consequently, share a diverse range of interests. We organize workshops, peer counselling, socials, and our annual life skills conference.

Inter Varsity Christian Fellowship (IVCF)
ivcf.ubc@gmail.com
Join us in meeting God on campus, navigating university life within a Christian community, and being transformed into a follower of Jesus. We explore the Bible in small groups and reach out to serve the community through the love of Christ. Large group times, social events, and retreats also provide times of laughter and discovery.

International Business Club
info@ibclub.ca • www.ibclub.ca
The International Business Club connects UBC students to the global business world, helping you attain the skills you need to succeed at the international level. From industry networking banquets to our highly acclaimed undergraduate publication, there is something for everyone in the club. Our events will expose you to the latest business developments around the world, and introduce you to new cultures and languages.

International Relations Students' Association (IRSA)
irsa.vpi@gmail.com • www.irsa.ca
IRSA is one of the most active student clubs on campus. Created to provide students interested in international relations and global politics, IRSA provides students with opportunities to participate in a wide variety of simulations, conferences, social events, speaker forums, and regular club meetings. Completely student-run, IRSA continues to provide opportunities to enrich students' time at UBC.

International Students' Association (ISA)
international.ubc@hotmail.com
www.ams.ubc.ca/clubs/isa
The ISA exists to represent the international student community, advocate for their needs, and create a space for cross-cultural awareness. Members can take advantage of UBC's international diversity by networking, discovering resources, and accessing other opportunities. We also aim to assist international students with LPI, UBC housing, tuition fees, and other related issues.

Ismaili Students' Association (ISA)
president.ubcisa@gmail.com • www.ubcisa.com
The ISA is a community group for Ismaili Muslims dedicated to enhancing the academic, social, as well as cultural well-being of its members through various initiatives, activities, and events.

Israel Awareness Club (IAC)
israelubc@gmail.com
www.ams.ubc.ca/clubs/iac
IAC is dedicated to promoting understanding between peoples of Canada and Israel while fostering debate on Middle East issues. The IAC is committed to enlightening the campus population on Israel's positive contributions to the world, dialogue on Israeli culture, society, and politics as well as offering educational programs, seminars, and speakers on Israel's shared values with Canada. IAC members believe in Israel's right to exist as a Jewish state within secure borders.

Italian Club
italianclub_ubc@hotmail.com
The UBC Italian Club is a club for everyone interested in Italian culture and language. We hold conversation groups so our members can practice speaking Italian (open to all levels). In addition, we provide interactive forums that facilitate academic and social language resources, and hold various events such as movie nights through the club and Vancouver's Italian community.

Japan Association
info@ubcja.net • www.ubcja.net
The UBC Japan Association is the only club on campus that promotes Japanese culture. Our club offers a variety of events throughout the year, some of which promote Japanese culture, while others exist simply for the members to mingle and have fun. Our club is intended to offer a place for people to share their interest in Japanese culture. You do not have to be Japanese to join.

Jewish Students' Association (Hillel)
programdirector@vancouverhillel.ca
www.vancouverhillel.ca
The Jewish Students' Association at UBC is a dynamic club that focuses on creating and hosting a myriad of social, recreational, charitable, educational, and religious events. Journalists for Human Rights (JHR)
www.jhr-ubc.ca
Running projects across the globe, JHR works with local media to reach 20 million people worldwide. JHR welcomes student engagement and leadership as a means to promote human rights awareness within communities. JHR UBC had the honour of leading Speak magazine's most recent issue, which was distributed across Canada.

Kababayan: Filipino Students' Association (FSA)
info@kababayan-ubc.com • www.kababayan-ubc.com
We aim to serve our members by focusing on four main objectives—cultural, social, community, and academics. Our goal is to create a sense of unity and belonging for those interested in the Filipino culture, and by doing so, forming connections within the Filipino and UBC community. We strive to promote awareness and enrichment of Filipino culture, tradition, heritage, and explore the Filipino-Canadian identity.

Kendo Club
www.ubckendo.com
UBC's Kendo Club has been active for over 25 years and promotes Kendo amongst students, faculty, and the general public. We are affiliated with the BC Kendo Federation and maintain an active role in the organization. We are led by David Harding, with the aid of fellow instructors Masa Kagami and Bob Takagaki.

Kids Help Phone UBC
kidshelpphoneubc@yahoo.ca
The Kids Help Phone club is dedicated to raising awareness and funds for the Kids Help Phone, Canada's only toll-free 24-hour bilingual and anonymous phone and web counselling service for children and youth. We work closely with the Kids Help Phone office in coordinating fundraisers and presentations.

Korean Campus Mission (KCM)
kcm_ubc@hotmail.com • kcm-ubc.cyworld.com
KCM is a community that shares laughter, support, encouragement, and mind-provoking topics and thoughts—with God in the centre. Our activities include weekly services with guest speakers, Bible studies, retreats, dawn prayer/QT meetings, and special outreach programs such as volunteering at a homeless centre and the KOSTA Christian conferences.

Korean Intercollegiate Student Society (KISS)
KISS is the largest Korean student club at UBC. Annual activities include student orientation, membership training, dance parties, a ski trip, and a formal dance with SFU and Emily Carr. There are also volunteering opportunities such as the New Year's feast for elders, UBC admission orientation, and Korean Heritage Day.

Navigators
ubcnavigators@gmail.com
www.ams.ubc.ca/clubs/navigators
UBC Navigators are about discovery. Life is a gift, and we believe we exist for a good and fulfilling purpose. Discovering who Jesus is, how to follow him, and blessing our communities are essential to this journey. We arrange campus Bible studies, prayer groups, overseas and local adventure opportunities, retreats, dinners, and to help inner-city kids learn to read. Make this a year of discovery and get involved in your world!

New Democratic Party Club of UBC
ubcndp@club.ams.ubc.ca
www.ams.ubc.ca/clubs/ubcndp
Members of the UBC NDP Club have their hearts in the right place—a little to the left! But bad puns aren't all we have to offer. We host speakers and forums, organize socials, attend marches and rallies, participate in model Parliaments, and work to elect progressive candidates in all levels of government. There are no guarantees that you'll have a good time, but as a political club, we'll probably promise it anyway. . . .

New Taiwanese Generation (NTG)
www.ubcntg.com
NTG is a Taiwanese social club—a family that helps incoming students meet new friends in this new environment. During the year, we provide lots of special events that will make your life at UBC more interesting.

Newman Catholic Club
newmanubc@yahoo.com
The Newman Catholic Club is one of the oldest clubs at UBC, providing for the spiritual and social needs of Catholic students. Following the example of our namesake, great convert Cardinal Newman, we are committed to providing an environment where Catholics can grow intellectually and spiritually. Through invited speakers from the Archdiocese of Vancouver, community service projects, pilgrimages, and social outings, we provide a home where faith can grow.

Organ Donation Club
kit_yieng@yahoo.com
The UBC Organ Donation Club promotes awareness about transplants, stresses the importance of organ donation, and encourages UBC students to register in the BC Transplant database. We work in partnership with the BC Transplant and the BC Kidney Foundation to educate UBC students and the community about organ transplants.

Origami/Paper Folding Club
Essentially, we fold paper. Beginners to pros are welcome. Come to a meeting and we'll teach you something new! Drop by our office, and you'll be able to peruse origami books, some of which can only be purchased in Japan. Executives in the club are always happy to help with diagrams.

Young Women in Business (YWiB@UBC)
jen@ywib.ca
The Young Women in Business Society at UBC's mission is to connect women from all industries and backgrounds. We hold a self-branding workshop, make sandwiches for homeless individuals during the Career Expo, and encourage conversations about struggles and triumphs over coffee.

YOURS Student Association
www.yours.ca
Established in 1997, YOURS Student Association is an organization registered at UBC and SFU. Our goal is to break the gap between the two schools, enabling them to meet new friends with different academic, cultural, and social backgrounds. We provide opportunities to develop soft skills such as communication, leadership, negotiation, promotion, design, and working in a team.

Youth Outreach Club
yo_president_ubc@yahoo.ca
www.ams.ubc.ca/clubs/youthoutreach
Youth Outreach provides students the opportunity to have a positive impact on the youth of our community. We work to inspire confidence, motivation, and a sense of citizenship in our programs and activities. Our group provides an after-school program at Mackenzie Elementary located in East Vancouver, which focuses on tutoring, mentorship, crafts, games, and sports.

Constituencies

Guess what? You're already a member of a constituency! Each faculty has a constituency that works to represent you at AMS Council, faculty, and UBC Senate meetings. Read below and get in contact with your constituency representatives to find out what else your peers can offer you!

Agriculture Undergraduate Society (AGUS)
President: Kirsten Flood
MacMillan Building, Rm. 64 • 604.822.5085
kirsten.flood@gmail.com • www.landfood.ubc.ca/agus
"Food is what we do!" At AGUS, we are committed to making your UBC experience a memorable one. Throughout the year, keep an eye out for our legendary beer gardens, our weekly student dinners, Farm BBQs, AGGIE sport teams, and many other events that help create a sense of community within our small faculty. We look forward to seeing you at our next event!

Architecture Undergraduate Society (ArchUS)
Co-Presidents: Colin Clark & Chad Manley colinlclark@hotmail.com • bikingchads@hotmail.com
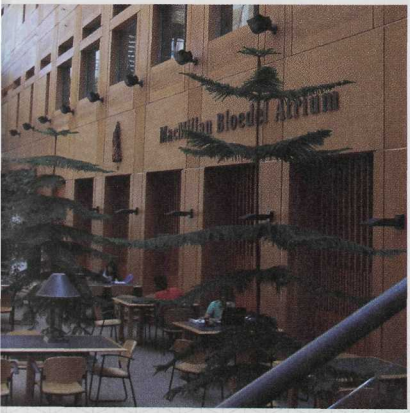
ArchUS is the representative body for UBC Masters of Architecture and Landscape Architecture students. We are their voice in the administration and a portal to the architecture community beyond. Through design competitions, project grants, and a quarterly publication, we are able to enrich the academic experience. We also facilitate social events, peer support, and field trips to provide relief from the rigour of the studio. We are here to help build architects.

Arts Undergraduate Society (AUS)
President: Guillaume Houle
Buchanan D140 • 604.822.4403
auspresident@gmail.com • www.aus.ubc.ca
The AUS represents over 11,000 students at the UBC Vancouver campus. We are here to enrich Arts students' lives by lobbying for our constituents at the AMS, organizing great social events, as well as offering a variety of academic services and conferences throughout the year. Additionally, we fund a variety of clubs that have the goal of enhancing the Arts experience on campus. Come and visit us in Buchanan D140!



Commerce Undergraduate Society (CUS)
President: Laura Silvester
Sauder School of Business, 302E
executiveassistant@cus.sauder.ubc.ca • www.cusonline.ca
The CUS enhances the lives of Commerce students through leadership, academic, and social initiatives. Our services include mentorship and tutoring programs, intramural sports, conferences, POITS (our beloved beer garden), Frosh orientation, and Enterprize Canada.

Engineering Undergraduate Society (EUS)
President: Lin Watt
2335 Engineering Rd., Cheeze Factory • 604.822.9615
www.ubcengineers.ca
There once was a student society / Engineers composed its entirety / Thirty-eight hundred strong / With a national song, / Red jackets, and (some) notoriety!

But all of our joking aside, / We've got a professional side. / From tutors to fence, / E-Team and events, / You can see why we 'geers have got pride.

Forestry Undergraduate Society (FUS)
President: Suzanne Hopkinson
2424 Main Mall
suziq@interchange.ubc.ca • www.forestry.ubc.ca/fus
Do you hear the call of the marbled murrelet? Love the smell of chopped wood? Do you agree plaid ain't bad? Join FUS for great social events like Forestry Week, student climate change symposiums, and a rich tradition in LoggerSports events. We are the leading voice of forestry students on campus, and our voice can be heard in every facet of environmental and forest sciences.

Graduate Student Society of UBC Vancouver (GSS)
President: Arvind Saraswat
6371 Crescent Rd. • 604.822.3203
president@gss.ubc.ca • www.gss.ubc.ca
The GSS of UBC Vancouver represents and advocates on behalf of graduate students to the University, the Government, and the public. We provide academic, professional, social, and recreational services to graduate students. GSS advocates for adequate student scholarships, bursaries, loans, and other financial aid. GSS promotes graduate student representation at all levels of decision making at UBC-V.

Human Kinetics Undergraduate Society (HKUS)
President: Fraser Young
War Gym, Rm. 300A • 604.822.6175
hkus-pres@interchange.ubc.ca • www.hkus.ca
Your HKUS is a student-run organization specializing in all kinds of fun and crazy events including our infamous Halloween Boat Cruise and holiday Rum and Eggnog event with profs and alumni! We also offer many different programs for HKIN students, from frosh, to tutoring, to clothing orders. Check out our website or email us for more information and to get involved!

Law Students' Society (LSS)
President: Ted Murray
604.822.5257
tedmurray@hotmail.com • www.ubclss.org
The LSS represents J.D. students in the Faculty of Law. The LSS Executive oversees the activities of the LSS and serves as a liaison between students and the faculty administration. The Academic Issues Caucus represents student interests to the Faculty Council and its committees, while the Student Affairs Caucus coordinates social activities for the law school and supports clubs within the faculty.

Library & Archival Studies Student Association (LASSA)
Co-Presidents: Kristin Hodgins & Jenny Borland
lassa.ubc@gmail.com
www.slais.ubc.ca/PEOPLE/students/student-groups/lassa/index.htm
LASSA is the student association for the School of Library, Archival, and Information Studies (SLAIS). Throughout the academic year, LASSA organizes orientations for new students, social events, and professional development. LASSA operates as a liaison between students and SLAIS administration.

Medical Undergraduate Society (MUS)
President: Mattias Berg
eberg@interchange.ubc.ca • www.ubcmed.com
The MUS is an executive of medical students that represent our members to the UBC Faculty of Medicine and its committees, the Senate, the AMS, and the Canadian Federation of Medical Students. We promote education, expand educational experiences, improve the well-being of members, and serve as a liaison between medical students and faculty.

Music Undergraduate Society (MUSA)
President: Gary Tse
ubc.musa@gmail.com
MUSA represents the UBC School of Music student body. The MUSA Council hosts a variety of social events and fundraisers during the year. MUSA is also a great resource for those of you looking for musicians to perform at your next event!

Pharmacy Undergraduate Society (PhUS)
President: Wynnie Lau
2146 East Mall
lau.wynnie@gmail.com • www.ubcphus.com
PhUS is made up of undergraduate students in the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences. In addition to being a liaison between the students and the faculty, PhUS is well known for its annual social events such as dodge ball, Big Brother/Big Sister, Skits Night, and Gala.

Planning Students' Association (PSA)
President: Lindsay Clark
West Mall Annex 150 • 778.237.9561
lindsaychloeclark@gmail.com
www.ams.ubc.ca/clubs/psa
PSA is open to students in the School of Community and Regional Planning (SCARP). We represent SCARP students to faculty, the University, and planning professionals. Our activities include orientations for incoming students and social events throughout the year. We also participate in SCARP decision-making processes such as faculty hiring and student admissions.

Regent College Student Association (RCSA)
President: Ryan Munn
604.224.3245 ext. 336
rcsa@regent-college.edu • www.regent-college.edu
Regent College is an independent, international graduate school of Christian Studies. The RCSA represents and serves Regent students and is an active member of the AMS. We have public chapel on Tuesdays, evening lectures, weekly topical forums, Arts Week, and host international dinners. We sponsor intramural sports and pick-up soccer. Highlights include our very own coffee shop (The Well), an independent art gallery, prayer chapel, and our underground library.

Science Undergraduate Society (SUS)
President: Jimmy Yan
604.822.4235
prez.sus@gmail.com • www.sus.ubc.ca
SUS' main mandate is to enhance the academic, social, and personal experiences of all science undergraduate students at UBC. All UBC science students are members of SUS and get full access to all of our services such as social events, sport team rebates, funding for clubs, scholarships, grants, and more! We also offer many leadership opportunities; come visit our office in the Abdul Ladha Science Student Centre.

Social Work Students' Association of UBC
President: Ada Tsang
604.230.2113 • swsa.ubc@gmail.com
www.swfs.ubc.ca/index.php?id=11551
The Social Work Students' Association of UBC represents the Bachelor of Social Work students by democratic processes to ensure a full, representative voice. We advocate for student concerns and issues within the school, the campus, and the broader community. We provide effective relationships amongst members, the school administration, UBC, the AMS, and the broader community.

AMS History

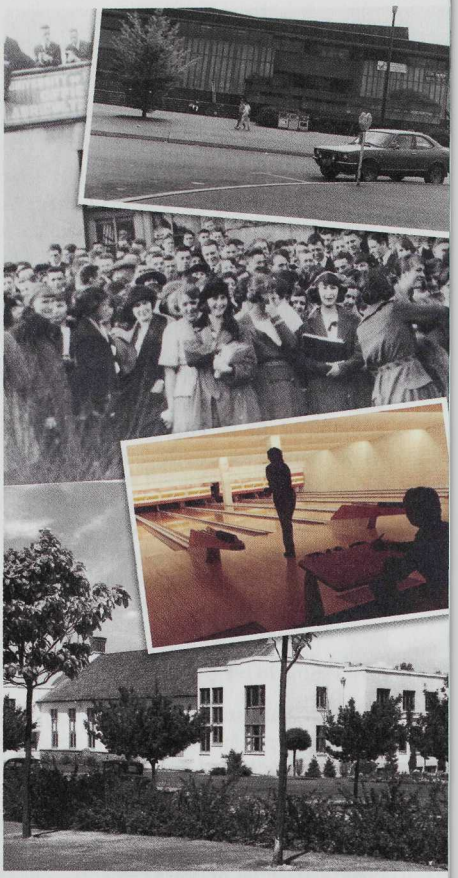
Historical Successes of the AMS

The AMS has always fought passionately for students' interests starting as far back as 1922 before there was even a proper campus, and students were crammed into the "Fairview Shacks" at 10th and Oak. That October, the whole student body marched in the Great Trek Protest and convinced the provincial government to finish building the present Point Grey campus, which finally opened in 1925.

At the time, there were only a handful of academic buildings, but not much else—no sports facilities for instance. So the students, through the AMS, took it upon themselves to raise the money needed to build a stadium, playing fields, and a gymnasium. Over the years, the AMS raised money to build the War Memorial Gymnasium, the Aquatic Centre, Brock Hall (which used to be the student union building), and of course, the current SUB.

The AMS has also been the driving force of the student experience at UBC in other ways. In the absence of a University Ombuds Office, the AMS created one in the 1960s that still functions today. In subsequent years, the AMS introduced a number of other services, which on other campuses are usually run by university administration—everything from peer support (Speakeasy) and tutoring to SafeWalk and the Food Bank.

In addition, students through the decades campaigned to improve post-secondary education and defend student interests, launching two subsequent "Treks," or marching protests. More recently (through a referendum in 1999), the AMS was able to introduce a popular health and dental plan. In 2003, the AMS, again through a referendum and after several years of pressuring the University, was able to introduce the U-Pass. And just this past year, the AMS persuaded the University to reduce its fees for intramural and recreational activities—yet another notable success in a long series to improve the lives of UBC students.



The Student Union Buildings

The very first SUB, Brock Hall, was built in the 1930s when the student population reached 2,000. The AMS raised most of the money needed to build Brock Hall, and in the 1960s, raised the bulk of the money to build the current SUB. In both cases, the primary motivation was a lack of space to support student activities.

The current SUB was proposed at a time when the student population had just reached over 10,000, making old Brock Hall insufficient. The planners of the current SUB tried to anticipate future population growth and designed a building that could serve 20,000 students, but that number was exceeded the same year the SUB opened. Now, the student population hovers around 45,000.

The current SUB, which opened September 26, 1968 on the site of the old university stadium, has undergone numerous transformations over its more than 40 years. Perhaps, the most notable was the addition of the Pit Pub, which opened in its permanent form in November 1973.

Over the years, a bowling alley and a listening lounge (for vinyl records) disappeared, businesses have come and gone, and a continual scramble to find space for clubs and social activities has been an issue.

So it is time to build again.

In March 2008, students voted to increase their fees to pay for a new SUB—a vote that took place 44 years after the referendum that approved funding for the current SUB. The hope is that the new SUB will be able to provide the space needed for the diverse activities of UBC's students.

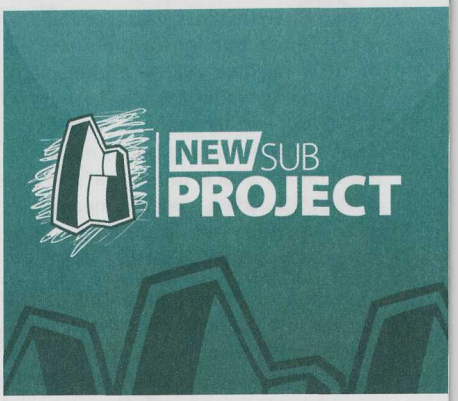
CELEBRATE UBC RESEARCH

New SUB Project

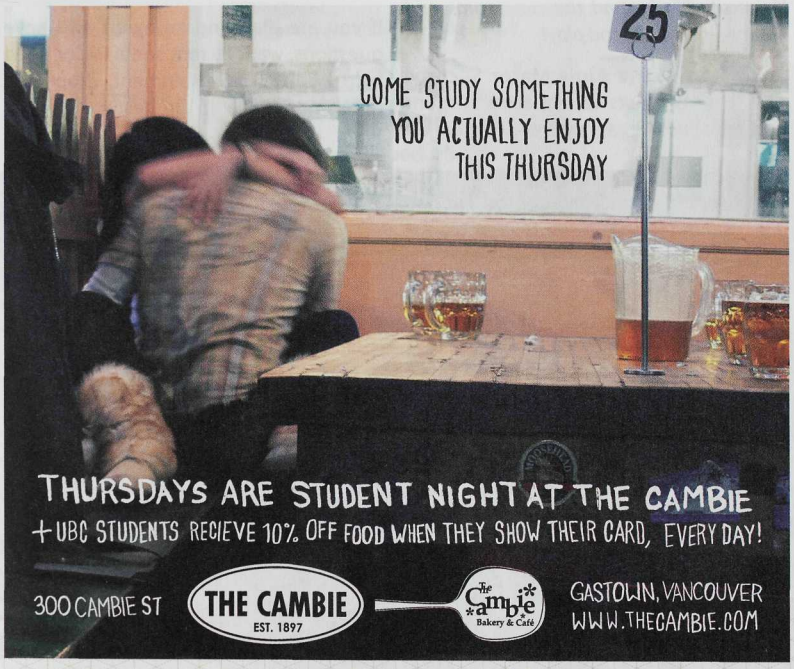
In March 2008, UBC students approved the construction of a new SUB through an AMS-run, campus-wide referendum. Since then, the AMS has been working around the clock to turn students' vision into reality.

The New SUB Project is the biggest project the AMS has ever undertaken. We have developed a fundamentally student-driven process designed to put an end to the era of top-down planning on campus. The new SUB will be built according to the principles of broad, meaningful engagement with the student body and accountability and transparency throughout the process.

We are taking back the centre of campus by placing our 250,000 square foot building in the University Square area.



The New SUB Project is under the administrative and creative control of the AMS, giving us full autonomy to expand a myriad of student amenities such as social and resource space, bookable rooms, club space, food outlets, entertainment, recreation, and more.



Students have made it clear sustainability will be a top priority for the new SUB. The new building will be a pinnacle of sustainability, achieving the Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Platinum rating as a minimum. The ultimate goal is to reach a "standard of living building," which means our building will net produce energy rather than consume energy.

We need you to be involved in the process. To learn more about the New SUB Project and find out how to get involved, please visit www.ams.ubc.ca or email subrenewal@ams.ubc.ca.

Safety on Campus

AMS Safety Coordinator: Saadia Rai
SUB 100B • 604.822.9319
safety@ams.ubc.ca
www2.ams.ubc.ca/index.php/services

The AMS Safety Coordinator's portfolio deals explicitly with safety concerns and the well-being of all students. This portfolio is divided into two mutually constitutive areas dealing with safety concerns—one being the "overt" issues of physical safety such as personal preparedness, overall emergency response procedures, etc., and the second being the "covert" issues of mental and emotional safety such as forms of discrimination and oppression based on race, ethnicity, disability, sex, gender and sexual diversity, etc.

AMS SafeWalk

SUB 100A • 604.822.5355

The safety and comfort of everyone on campus is important to the AMS, and that's why SafeWalk is here. For a walk call 604.822.5355, use one of our Direct Line Phones, or use a Blue Light Phone for Campus Security to contact us.

Blue Light Phone & Campus Security

Blue Light Phones are at various locations around campus. We provide you with direct access to Campus Security, 24 hours a day. For safety concerns, assistance, or general information including directions, push the button, and security will answer your call. Safety phones are also located in most campus elevators.

AMS Sexual Assault Support Centre (SASC)

SUB 119A & B • 604.827.5180

SASC offers support services to survivors of sexual assault and other forms of violence, as well as their friends, family members, and partners. We are committed to education and the support of students, staff, faculty, and visitors of all genders. We offer counselling, accompaniments, information, and referrals.

AMS/GSS Health & Dental Plan

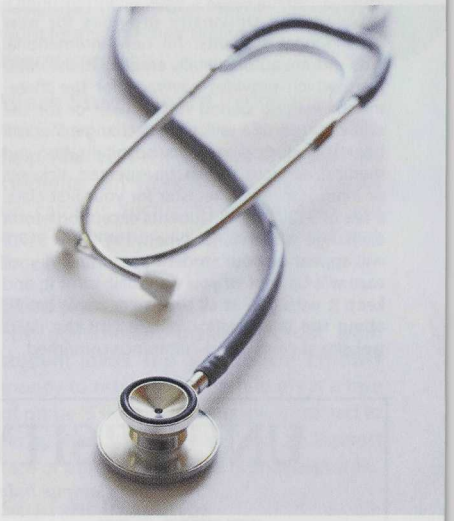
SUB Lower Level, Rm. 61 • 1.877.795.4421
www.ihaveaplan.ca

The AMS/GSS Health & Dental Plan provides extended health and dental coverage, designed specifically for students to cover expenses not covered by basic health care plans. More detailed information about the Plan is available on the website, or at the Health & Dental Plan Office on campus.

Who is covered?
All AMS and GSS members who pay AMS fees for the Health & Dental Plan are automatically enrolled, including full-time and part-time students, international students, and those auditing a course. To verify if you are enrolled in the Health & Dental Plan, check your fee statement and look for the "AMS med/dent fee" line item. You can do this online through the Student Services Portal at https://www.auth.cwl.ubc.ca.

What is covered, and how much does it cost?
The Plan includes benefits for prescription drugs, health practitioners, dental care, vision care, travel coverage, and more.

The total cost of the Plan is $216.31 per student, and is included automatically with university fees each September. The policy year is from Sept. 1, 2009 until Aug. 31, 2010. Students beginning in Jan. 2010 will be assessed $144.20 for coverage from Jan. 1 to Aug. 31, 2010.



What if I already have health and dental coverage?
If you are covered by another extended plan (i.e. a parent's or spouse's employee plan), you can combine both plans to maximize your overall coverage and reduce or eliminate out-of-pocket expenses. You may also choose to opt out of the AMS/GSS Plan and have the fee reversed from your student account. All opt-outs must be completed within the Change-of-Coverage Period or within three weeks of your registration date—whichever is later. If it is your first time opting out, you will need to provide proof of other health and dental coverage. Visit www.ihaveaplan.ca and follow the on-screen instructions for opting out.

New Patients Welcome!

Can I enrol my spouse or dependants?
Students have the option of enrolling their spouse/dependants by completing an enrolment process and paying an additional fee. Common law and same-sex couples are eligible. Visit www.ihaveaplan.ca and follow the on-screen instructions for enrolments.

Mandatory Health Insurance for New International Students (iMED)
iMED is the mandatory basic health insurance program the University provides for new international students. All new international students are automatically enrolled in the iMED plan, which provides coverage for the three-month waiting period for BC MSP or for the entire length of a one-term exchange. Medical benefits include emergency hospitalization and medical services for an unexpected sickness or injury. Once you register for your first class, a fee of $120 (for all students except one-term exchange students, for whom the fee is $170) will appear on your student account, and your card will be sent to you via email; print it, and keep it with you at all times. For more details about the iMED policy, please visit the iMED website at www.david-cummings.com/imed.

Change-of-Coverage Period
Students can opt out or enrol their family only in Sept. 8 – 29, 2009 for students starting in September or in Jan. 4 – 25, 2010 for students starting in January (new Winter Term Two students only).

Blackout Period
There is a delay in claims processing while studentcare.net/works waits for complete enrolment lists, after opt-outs and enrolments have been processed. Returning eligible students who were covered in 2009's Winter Term Two will not experience a blackout period in Winter Term One. All other students will have a blackout period during the first two months of Winter Term One. Only new Winter Term Two students will experience a blackout period in 2010's Winter Term Two.

Claims can be dropped off at the Health & Dental Plan office, but they will not be processed until the blackout period ends. You may also hold your claims until this time. Remember, claims are your responsibility until received by Sun Life. Practitioners and pharmacists can't accept Pay Direct or assignment of benefits during the blackout period.

Tuition Fees & Financial Options

There are many issues surrounding tuition and financing your education—get informed. If you are experiencing financial hardship, here is a non-exhaustive list of your financial options to help ease your burden.

Systemic Issues with Education

Stipends—BC students aren't familiar with this word. A stipend is a scholarship or a salary given to students just for attending school. It's prominent in places such as Germany, Spain, Australia, Norway, and Scotland.

In BC, things are different. We pay to go to school, and we pay substantial amounts. BC students pay constantly increasing tuition fees just to access their right to post-secondary education. Since 1996, tuition fees have increased by over 200%. As a result, students are forced to rack up immense amounts of debt in order to finance their education. The average student debt load in BC is over $27,000—amongst the highest in Canada.

The government and the University recognize that no qualified student should be denied post-secondary education on financial barriers alone. But in reality, many can't afford it, and students are dropping out.

Invest in your AMS

Things don't have to be this way. You can invest in your AMS by getting involved. The AMS is your advocate for affordable post-secondary education. We need to unite and fight for a stronger and well-funded education system. Contact your VP External at vpexternal@ams.ubc.ca or 604.822.2050.

Co-operative Education Program (Co-op)

www.coop.ubc.ca

The Co-operative Education Program facilitates employment opportunities for enrolled students. The goal is to successfully translate students' classroom knowledge to work settings by helping students integrate paid, full-time, four-month work terms into their university degree programs.

Work Study/Learn Program

Work and study at the same time. To help finance their expensive education, students can work at a variety of jobs on campus, including at the AMS. For more information, visit Career Services in Brock Hall.

Student Loans

The government makes a profit from student loans. The government borrows money to establish student loans at a rate of prime -1%, but students are expected to repay their student loans with an interest rate of prime +2.5%. This is unacceptable.

Student Bursaries

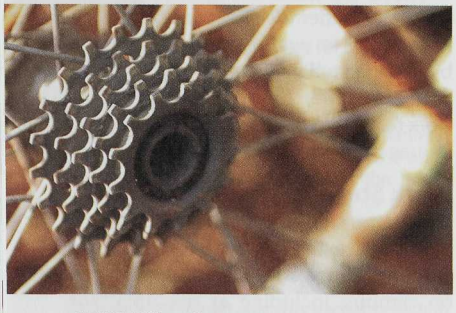
Students who have maxed out their debt on student loans may qualify for bursaries. Bursaries are based on financial need and have a rigorous application process.

Scholarships

Despite UBC's approximately $10 million cut to scholarships this year, UBC is still handing out merit-based and needs-based scholarships. A student needs to get really good grades, and usually, faculties will recommend recipients to Financial Services.

Transportation Options

Getting to class is a challenge some days, but with these options, it's easier than ever! Whether you need to get to campus (or need to get away), be familiar with your transportation options to arrive at your destination safely and efficiently.



AMS Bike Co-op

ubc.bikecoop@gmail.com
www.ams.ubc.ca/clubs/bikecoop

The AMS Bike Co-op was founded in the spring of 1998. We are a student-run organization dedicated to improving the UBC cycling environment by providing cycling services and resources to the campus community. Our mission is to expand opportunities for innovative transportation at UBC through the use and promotion of cycling. To meet this goal, the AMS Bike Co-op runs several volunteer learning programs, maintains the Purple & Yellow Bike Share, holds bike repair clinics, has a fleet of cargo bikes, and operates the Bike Kitchen, a commercial bike shop.

Bike Kitchen

www.thebikekitchen.com

Located on the lower level of the SUB beside the north doors, the Bike Kitchen is a full-service, nonprofit repair shop. We're open 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on weekdays, and 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on weekends. This is the most economical way to get started with cycling. Whether you need to buy a bike or fix up your own, you can pay to use the shop or have our staff fix your bike. We also sell inexpensive, refurbished bikes with warranties. UBC students get 10% off all new items.

Jack Bell Ride-Share

604.879.7433 • 1.888.380.7433
ubc.ride-share.com

What is ride-sharing? Ride-sharing is when two or more people commute together in the same vehicle, "sharing the ride." Carpool or vanpool in one of our fleet vehicles. Ride-share with your own or another's private vehicle. Find matching commuters by registering at the UBC ride-sharing website.

UBC's Full-Service Dive Shop!

Experience adventure other people only dream about. Learn to dive with the Aqua Society, Canada's oldest scuba club! Already a diver, and looking for some bottom time? Our full-service shop can provide equipment sales, rentals, and a wide variety of courses from beginner to seasoned pro! Drop by the lower level of the SUB and see what we have to offer, from our monthly FREE club dives to our trips around BC. Membership is open to anyone, so come on by and join today!

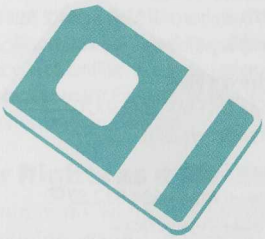
UBC TREK & Community Shuttle

www.trek.ubc.ca

The TREK Program Centre is committed to improving your transportation choices by providing you with a variety of sustainable transportation options to best suit your travel needs. Chances are, you're already well aware of the U-Pass program (your student bus pass), but just in case you need more info, visit www.upass.ubc.ca. Programs you may not know about include campus community shuttles (free access with your U-Pass); free, secure bike parking cages throughout campus; free, online ride-matching where you can join or create a carpool group; and access to a car-share program if you need wheels for that trip to Whistler! To find out more about these programs and other transportation initiatives, visit the UBC Trek Program Centre's website.



The U-Pass

www.upass.ubc.ca

The U-Pass is a three-zone bus pass that allows you unlimited access to Translink services. Every eligible AMS member receives a U-Pass at the beginning of the year. Visit the Carding Office at UBC Bookstore (www.ubccard.ubc.ca) if you did not receive your U-Pass, and if you have any questions.

If you want to see the program expanded to include a Summer U-Pass opt-in, visit your VP External in SUB 238J or call 604.822.2050, and we can fight for an expanded U-Pass.

AMS Sustainability Office

Coordinator: Joyce Shen sustainability@ams.ubc.ca
www.ams.ubc.ca

Did you know the AMS has a Lighter Footprint Strategy? The students of UBC have a responsibility to reduce the university campus' ecological footprint by fostering environmental justice in our operations. Ultimately, the AMS employs your knowledge of these issues toward the University community and broader society. After holding consultations with students, staff, and faculty, nine targets were decided upon that are either "Interactive" (together with another body) or "Internal" (within the AMS). If you have any ideas, concerns, or would like to be part of this initiative, please send an email.

Your Rights as a Renter

UBC Residences

You are governed by your tenancy contract and not the Residential Tenancy Act. You can contact your Residence Life Manager or the University's Equity Office when you feel the contract has been violated or is unjust.

Off-campus Residences

You are covered by the Residential Tenancy Act. Your security (damage) deposit cannot be greater than a half-month's rent. Your rent cannot increase if you have lived in your place less than a year, or if the increase is more than CPI +2%. Your landlord must provide you with a written notice 24 hours in advance to enter your suite.

You have a right to complain to the Residential Tenancy Branch.

You have many additional rights as a renter. Know them. Read the Residential Tenancy Act online at www.rto.gov.bc.ca or contact your VP External at 604.822.2050 or vpexternal@ams.ubc.ca.

Your Rights as a Worker

The minimum wage is $8.00/hr, and the training wage (applicable if you have fewer than 500 hours of paid work experience) is $6.00/hr. You are entitled to a 30-minute, unpaid meal break if you are scheduled to work over five hours. Overtime pay is time-and-a-half after eight hours and double-time after 12 hours worked in one day. You have a right to unionize and refuse unsafe work. Contact vpexternal@ams.ubc.ca or call 604.822.2050 for more information.

Broadcasting 350 watts of independent radio from the top of Gage Towers at 101.9 FM, CiTR is a progressive, student-run radio society at UBC. More than Vancouver's source for local and indie music, CiTR also covers campus and community news, live UBC sports, arts, and culture. Sign up for daily tours of the station and/or broadcasting training. Volunteers can host their own show, assist with pre-production, plan events, and more. Visit our website to discover podcasts of your favourite shows or to stream live radio.

Discorder Magazine

SUB 233 • 604.822.3071 ext. 2
editor.discorder@gmail.com

Spawned in 1983 as the program guide and print supplement for CiTR 101.9 FM, Discorder is published monthly with 8,000 copies sprinkled throughout Vancouver. Driven by a production team and a sprawling diaspora of music lovers, aspiring writers, and visual artists, Discorder harnesses raw volunteer power and converts it into edgy and informative newsprint. Our content includes music reviews, film and literature analysis, artist interviews, and full-length features—all under the umbrella of independent music and culture. If you'd like to contribute words, pictures, ideas, or baked goods, stop by our office.

The Knoll

knollpaper@gmail.com

When the swimming pool at UBC was constructed, the dirt from the excavation was piled between the SUB and the old bus loop. This dirt became "the knoll," a green space where students could gather or just eat their lunch in peace on a sunny day. The Knoll hopes to retain the sense of openness its namesake possesses, while bringing attention to those events and realities of our world that the corporate press ignores. It is produced by students and "students at heart," and we are always looking for more people to be involved.

UBC Reports is a monthly university news publication produced by UBC Public Affairs Office. It is dedicated to providing information of interest to UBC faculty, staff, students, alumni, supporters, and members of surrounding communities including community centres, hospitals, public libraries, and Canadian university officials. UBC Reports is made available to a global audience via its website and email subscription. In 2009, the UBC Reports team of writers earned a silver award for "Best Periodical Writing" from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education. The publication regularly features stories and photography on major UBC academic and research achievements, national and international student and faculty/staff accomplishments, and significant institutional developments. Individuals who would like to submit items can find submission criteria and deadlines on our website.

The UBC Farm is a 24-hectare learning and research farm. It is a student-driven initiative where students, faculty, staff, and the local community have been working together to create a place where anyone can come to learn and value the connection between land, food, and the community. The goal of the farm is to retain and recreate existing farm and forest lands at UBC into an internationally significant centre for sustainable agriculture, forestry, and food systems. Throughout the growing season, several community festivals are held at the farm. These coincide with our summer Saturday Markets, which typically involve live music and fun activities for kids and families.

The Morris and Helen Belkin Art Gallery is internationally recognized for its exhibitions and programs concerning contemporary art of all media and disciplines. The Gallery specializes in Canadian avant-garde art of the 1960s and 1970s, with holdings that include the University Art Collection of over 2,500 artworks and 30,000 archival items.

A venue for dynamic local, national, and international contemporary art, history, and criticism, The Belkin is a great resource for students interested in visual art. Stop in to see the latest exhibition or for information about the outdoor art collection.

Free admission for UBC students, staff, & faculty

The Museum of Anthropology houses one of the world's finest displays of Northwest Coast First Nations art in a spectacular building overlooking mountains and sea. We offer long-term and temporary exhibits of indigenous arts from around the world, an outdoor totem display, an elegant shop, year-round Café MOA, guided tours, and public programs for all ages. Currently, the Museum is undergoing a $55.5 million expansion project, causing some galleries to close temporarily; however, the Great Hall, Bill Reid Rotunda, and Koerner Ceramics Gallery are open. MOA's Multiversity Galleries (formerly Visible Storage) and major temporary exhibition gallery will open January 2010.

Campus Lifestyles

Do you want to get connected to a close-knit community on campus? Perhaps you just want to stay fit and healthy? Fraternities and sororities are a great way to meet new people, get involved, and experience UBC in a whole new way, and the recreation centre is a great place to keep active and stress-free.

The Interfraternity Council (IFC)

President: Mike Scott
ubcfrats.ca

The Interfraternity Council (IFC) is a self-governing body that represents the nine fraternities at UBC. Consisting of a delegate from each fraternity and an executive council, the IFC strives to promote all aspects of fraternity life and academic pursuits. The Council also works to achieve its common goal of membership development and service to the UBC community. These goals are achieved by focusing on chapter development, student scholarship, community service, member education, as well as alumni and public relations.

Sororities of UBC

www.ubcsororities.com

For over 75 years, the Sororities of UBC have acted as a supportive on-campus community, allowing female students to connect with a diverse group of goal-driven women and get the most out of their UBC experience. By joining a sorority, these women are offered the opportunity to make new and lasting friendships, engage in social activities, participate in philanthropic endeavours, and partake in sporting events. Sorority membership does not end with a woman's individual undergraduate experience; the benefits of UBC Sororities continue long past graduation.

Student Recreation Centre

Student Recreation Centre (SRC)

6000 Student Union Blvd. • 604.822.6000
www.rec.ubc.ca

UBC REC is proud to offer one of the most innovative university recreation programs in Canada. Students, staff, and community members are all encouraged to get active with fun activities. UBC REC offers Intramural Leagues featuring nine different sports (seasons start in September and January). We also have over 25 events and tournaments, such as Day of the Longboat, Lace Up for Kids, the UBC REC Triathlon-Duathlon, and UBC REC's signature event, Storm the Wall. UBC REC offers a comprehensive array of activities through instructional classes and Outdoor REC, which is detailed in the UBC REC program guide. During most days, there are drop-in sports in the three gymnasiums, and UBC students with a valid ID play for free.

For the SRC daily drop-in schedule and information on programs and activities, please visit our website.
