FORTRESS OF HALIFAX IS SHATTERED

Halifax, Dec. 6.—As the result of a terrible explosion aboard a munition ship in Halifax this morning, a large part of the north end of the city and along the waterfront is in ruins and the loss of life is appalling. Estimates place the number of dead at over 2,000. On one ship alone, 40 persons were killed. Thousands have been injured. The property damage is enormous and there is scarcely a window left in a building in the city.

Among the dead are the fire chief and his deputy. They vere hurled to death when a fire engine exploded. Fire followed the explosion and this added to the greatest catastrophe in the history of the city.

All business has been suspended and armed guards of soldiers and sailors are patrolling the city.

Not a street car is moving and part of the city is in darkness. All the hospitals and many private houses are filled with inured.

The offices of the railway station arena rink, military gymnasium, sugar refinery and elevator collapsed and injured scores of people.

The munition ship was bound from New York for Bedford Basin when she collided with a Belgian relief ship bound for sea.

A part of the town of Dartmouth is also in ruins. Nearly all the buildings in the dockyards are in ruins. Practically the north end of the city has been laid in waste.

The destruction extends from North street railway station as far north as Africville to Bedford basin, and covers about two square miles.

The buildings which were not destroyed by the explosion were laid in waste by the fire which followed.

Five hundred tents have been erected on the common and these will be occupied by the troops who have given up their barracks to house the homeless.

THREE DISTINCT SHOCKS

Halifax. Dec. 6.—The horrors of an air raid possessed the minds of many when the explosion on the Mont Blanc shook this fortress town to its very foundations today. First a comparatively light rumble like a seismic disturbance startled the city. A moment later a terrific blast made even the citadel quake. Then a crash of glass throughout a wide area completed the confusion.

Washington Hears Through Naval Sources

Washington, Dec. 7.—Five thousand are believed to have been killed in the explosion in Halifax harbor and the fire which swept North Halifax and Dartmouth, N. S., according to advices from a naval commander reaching the navy department early today. The navy department said these figures had not been verified, however.

Due to Confusion

Halifax, Dec. 6.—The crew of the Mont Blanc and pilot claim collision was due to confusion of whistle signals.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Parton and family wish to thank the many friends who sent messages of sympatny to them in their recent bereavement.

Mrs. Dan Combs has returned home after her two months trip to Alma, Nebraska. She had an enjoyable visit with her mother and her relatives there.

The friends from Vancouver wish to extend their deepest sympathy to Mrs. J. Christenson, of Abbotsford in her sad bereavement of the loss of her son, George P. Thompson, killed in action November 6, 1917.

Dr. E. S. Clark, of Sumas, who was an exhibitor and prize winner at the Poultry Show last week, has donated $6.25 to the Mission Red Cross being the amount over and above his expenses of exhibiting. This is an unlooked contribution which this paper feels quite sure will be highly appreciated.

National Canadian Patriotic Fund

At the meeting of the National Executive held at Ottawa on October 26 at which all of the provinces of the Dominion were fully represented the policy for the year 1918 was fully debated, and, upon resolution, it was unanimously decided to continue the voluntary system, it being considered neither necessary nor desirable to fall back upon the Federal Government for assistance for the year 1918. Therefore all branches throughout Canada are requested to use every effort to continue the system of voluntary contributions.

We must all realize the enormous burden which the war has placed upon the Federal Treasury, so that, while we have an organization through which sufficient funds may be obtained altogether apart from taxation, it would appear to be entirely wrong to forfeit such source of revenue, and thus make it necessary for the Government—already sorely pressed for funds—to find $15,000,000 or $20,000,000 additional, because it is quite certain that what the Patriotic Fund can do for $12,000,000 per annum would cost the Government $20,000,000, and perhaps more. The fund as it is at present administered is flexible, and may supply what and where assistance is most needed. This can be done in an efficient, sympathetic, and economical way. On the other hand, Government administration could not discriminate between those who have and those who have not. Hence, the enormous difference in the cost to the country, which would mean nothing short of absolute waste.

The Federal income-tax which is now in force exempts incomes of unmarried men up to $1,500 and married men to $3,000 per annum. Therefore, it is safe to say that not more than one man in ten in this province will be affected by this tax. That being the case, what are the other 90 per cent. going to do, individually to assist in the prosecution of the war?

The issue of this great struggle means either national life or death. It is a case of serfdom or freedom. Every man must fight or pay. If you are not directly taxed, you can help by assisting to support the dependents of the men who are fighting and dying for you, by voluntarily supporting the greatest national fund Canada has ever had.

The small sacrifices we are asked to make, in maintaining this fund and kindred organizations are nothing, absolutely nothing, compared with the sacrifices of our gallant soldiers and their dependents; but you say: "Yes, support the dependents properly, but let the Government do it." Why should we remain at home in security and comfort be relieved of all direct personal effort and inconvenience, or anything you may wish to call it, while our boys are making the supreme sacrifice so that we may be thus secure? No, that argument is bad. This is our war—the people's war—just as much as it is the war of the soldiers. Individual help is urgently needed! it is demanded. Everyone can help! Canada, as a nation, has said continue this voluntary system. This being the case, every man in Canada should feel it a privilege to have this channel afforded through which he may assist. The Government are not undertaking this work. Therefore, the people must. For three years and a half we have not faltered; we cannot afford to do so now.

While we expect our gallant soldiers to fight, stay-at-homes must continue to pay. The last thing we would dream of would be the thought of a British or British-Canadian army quitting. Can we at home think of quitting payment of our money to assist in properly supporting the dependents of the men whom we expect to fight, and to fight until the day of victory?

On behalf of this, I appeal to all of the members of all committees of all branches throughout the province of British Columbia to do everything in their power to place this most important matter strongly before the people of each individual district, so that there may be no doubt as to the continuation of sufficient funds forthcoming to properly carry on the work so long as there may be occasion for it.

Our Shibboleth—Neither for nor agin the Government.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1917

The dominion elections will take place on December 17, and it is confidently hoped that the Union government will carry the day, so that the present plan of conscription may be carried out without delay.

Laying aside all prejudice that may be brought to bear against either party, during the past or the present, we look straight at the request that reinforcements be sent to France at as early a period as possible. Outside of the request from Gen. Currie, we all realize the necessity of keeping in the war until it is finished. If we allow our battalions to become smaller without sending men to replace the killed and wounded the time will surely come when there will be no battalions; and Canada will not be in the war.

Procrastination is the thief of time. Delays are dangerous. Now there is an organized plan to send men to fill the ranks in France and if the Union Government is returned to power we all have every reason to believe that at a very early date men will arrive in France from Canada to fill up the ranks of the battalions now there. Any plan of delay would seem to indicate the day when Canada would surely feel that her interest in the war was waning. We all realize the necessity of continuing in the war.

CONSCRIPTION is the one thought above all others in this election. The government or party that guarantees to the electors to stay in the war is the one that should be elected. A promise to make out a plan if elected is no good, and not up to the standard required by Canada. In the eyes of the nations of the world Canada has established a reputation that Canadians cannot allow political party to monkey with. It is a serious matter. Canada's sons have died for what we believe to be the liberties of the smaller nations Canada has gone too far now to halt or hesitate in the great undertaking.

There are two candidates in the field in this district. One stands for carrying on the war under the present Military Act; while the other ,while believing in conscription, would hesitate until another plan was thought of. Which do you think should have your support?

One candidate stands for sending them right away; while the other would try again a plan that has sent many brave men, but which is not quite fair, because it leaves it to the man himself to decide. The war has become so serious now that it is up to the state to say who shall go and who shall remain at home, and how many MUST go. Under the Union Government 100,000 go in the first draft. They are needed. Is that not the way you have figured it out? It is a case of MUST.

Both our candidates believe in conscription. Stacey sees nothing but Conscription; while Ramsay, while believing in Conscription, is the follower of one who would think out some other plan and present it to the people—perhaps when our battalions are decimated, or after the war is over. Which in your opinion ought to be elected?

For Major Ramsay, the Laurier Liberal candidate, none of us can have other than the greatest respect. He is a returned soldier under the voluntary system. Has been up to the firing line, but owing to misfortune he has been declared unfit for the demands of the battlefield. We are honored in having him as a candidate, but sorry that he has associated himself with a leader whom many believe cannot ever again be in a position to carry out Canadian ideals. Major Ramsay is in the field to win and so far as we know is carrying on a clean campaign, he being a gentleman, a scholar and one of our returned soldiers. For these reasons if we do not feel like honoring him this election, we may have the very great pleasure of doing so at some future date, under different circumstances.

Mr. F. B. Stacey, the Unionist candidate sees nothing in this political fight but CONSCRIPTION. He is a new man in politics, consequently has nothing to answer for in the way of things political left undone; neither can he be blamed for the faults of any former government. He was until recently the President of the Liberal Association, but left the Liberal party in order to fight for conscription. He says in explanation of his present stand that "It is no time for party politics, Conscription is the one issue before the people of Canada today." Mr. Stacey is a forceful speaker, besides being thoroughly in earnest. The name Win-the-War candidate could not be better atached than to the name of F. B. Stacey. He carries with him a winning smile that is sure to stay with him even after the 17th day of December, and he will represent Westminster riding in a manner that will do him credit and after the war Westminster district will we trust be proud that he was our choice for the Commons at Ottawa.

Press and Party

Those Liberals who follow Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and are annoyed because they do not obtain all the newspaper support to which they consider themselves entitled, may find comfort in considering the state of affairs in other places. The Victoria Times seems to be well disposed toward the coalition. The same may be said of the Calgary Albertan. At the capital of Saskatchewan the Liberal leader is Unionist. Both Liberal papers in Winnipeg are strong for the coalation and the Free Pres may be regarded as one of the promoters. The Times of Hamilton is out for the minister of militia and the Union. Toronto takes the lead, with the Globe, which used to be called the Bible of the Reformers, endorsing Mr. Rowell's course and suporting the ministry. The other Liberal journal in Toronto is also Unionist but more critical. In Toronto the chief anti-coalationist is the Conservative Telegram, which cintinues to declare that western Liberals became Unionists because the disfranchisment of the foreign element deprived them of their main hope of success. At Ottawa, the Citizen which had become the opposition journal, is friendly to the ministry. The Globe of St. John is Unionist, and so we understand the Halifax Chronicle to be. The Prince Edward Island press of both parties appear to be friendly to the new regime. Montreal and Quebec do not furnish any journalistic support from the Liberal party to the coalation, but in all the other provinces the government has no reason to complain of the unfriendliness of the Liberal newspapers.

ABBOTSFORD DISTRICT BOARD OF TRADE

President, Hope Alanson Secretary, N. Hill of Abbotsford, B. C.

Meeting Held First Monday of Each Month

Write the secretary regarding manufacturing sites with unexcelled shipping facilities and cheap power or information regarding the farm and fruit lands of the district, and industries already established.

To the Electors of the Federal District of Westminster:

Having accepted the unanimous nomination of the recent Union Convention at Abbotsford as a Liberal-Unionist Candidate for the House of Commons, I beg to state briefly the ground upon which I solicit your endorsation and support.

The world is engaged in the greatest and most awful conflict that the human race has ever known. As a part of the British nation we are in the struggle in order to maintain liberty and truth and honor and a lasting peace among men. Thousands of our best and bravest Canadian sons have paid the supreme sacrifice that these principles should not perish from the earth. Thousands more are counting their lives not dear unto them so that we and all other nations may cherish those ideals which are the soul and substance of our civilization. Stripped of all trimming and verbiage, the great question before the people of Canada today is this: Shall we set aside our petty party differences, our affiliations and our ambitions, and unite with each other in a solemn purpose and pledge to be true to our heroic volunteers to the last man and the last dollar? The Union Government policy and platform answers this tremendous question in the affirmative. The Opposition policy does not even suggest such a program.

Let us keep the real issue clearly and constantly before us and not allow it to be obscured by party or personal appeals. The late Borden Government is not now on trial, much less ,any act of the previous Laurier administration.

A Coalition Government has been formed with a new and definite national policy,a policy of patriotism and progress. The Opposition policy is——Who can explain or harmonize it?

I have the honor to solicit your support as the Union Government Candidate.

F. B. STACEY,

Chilliwack, B. C.

Union Government

is concentrating its efforts to win the War. It has gone about raising reinforcements in the only practical way; under the Military Service Act, 1917.

Laurier, Bourassa and their adherents admit their intention of holding up reinforcements so urgently needed in the trenches.

Where do YOU stand ?

To Hasten Victory—

POULTRY SHOW GRAND SUCCESS

Mission City has been favored with one of the best Poultry Shows ever staged in B. C. in the Fraser Valley Poultry Show held in the Agricultural hall last week. Great credit is due the secretary and officers of the Show for the way they did their work and evrything ran smoothly and harmoniously from start to finish.

Mr. Wm. Walker of New Westminster, judged all the regular classes, and did so in a very satisfactory manner.

Some of the outstanding features of the show were the Barred Rock alley. Eighty-seven birds of this variety were shown; the largest exhibit seen in any B. C. show for some years. The White Wyandottes and White Leghorns' exhibits were also large. 67 of the former and 63 of the latter. More remarkable than quantity was the quality of the birds shown and the winners were fit to win in almost any show.

There was also a large exhibit of utility stock. This class was judged by Mr. J. R. Terry. There was a good exhibit of chickens raised by the school children. Of this class special mention should be made of the exhibits of Miss Grace Noble, Master Frank Appleby and Gordon McEwen.

A hearty response was made to the appeal for help in connection with the Belgian Farmers' Relief Fund. Donations of Birds were made by local and outside breeders, and on Thursday afternoon these exhibits were sold Mr. Terry acting as auctioneer. The sum of $39.85 was realized.

On Thursday afternoon the Mission Poultry Association entertained the visiting delegates and a most sumptuous repast was enjoyed by all present.

The show will be held in Chilliwack in 1918 and again in Mission City in 1919.

The public turned out well and any one who missed this show should make a vow not to miss the show of 1919.

A SUBSTITUTE FOR VEGETABLES.

Bananas are not hard to digest and are very palatable,either raw, baked or fried, declares Health Officer Landis. Many people have entertained the false belief that the banana is not digestible, he says. Dr. Landis fully concurs in a bulletin of the New York Board of Health issued recently, in which housewives are advised to utilize apples, bananas and oranges as food. The fruits contain mineral salts, so they may be used as substitutes for vegetables. In part the New York bulletin reads:

"Baked apples, unsweetened, with the addition of a little butter, substitute or oil, may be used with meat as a vegetable. So may unsweetened fried or boiled or roasted slices of apple. Apples and rice are an excellent combination. Apple dumplings with a good sauce are sufficient for a luncheon.

"Bananas and oranges are usually eaten raw, and in this form they are quite as valuable as in any other; but it is a pity that baked and fried bananas are not better known. Oranges that are too small and sour to be eaten raw make the best of marmalade. Bananas and marmalade, bananas and apple sauce are pleasant combinations, and all of them are very fine in combinations with rice.'

Signaller Frank Aish, son of Councillor Aish of Matsqui, who was recently wounded, is at a hospital at Etaples, France, and rapidly recovering.
