As thus revised and corrected the list was adopted on a motion as the list to be used in the forthcoming election for Reeve, Councillors and School Trustees.

MT. LEHMAN NEWS.

Mr. D. K. Campbell came up Tuesday in spite of the heavy snow, and spent the afternoon cutter driving with W. R. Ferguson.

Master Buckley, who has been spending a short holiday with Mr. G. H. Loach, returned to Vancouver in the beginning of the week.

The heavy snowfall experienced throughout the week has improved the roads, and the teams have been able to haul out some big loads of lumber on the "bobs."

Almost all the camps are shut down indefinitely, and a number of the men have gone off to town to put in the time. Mr. Campbell, of Anderson & Lusby's, visited Mr. H. Ferguson.

Mr. Gibson is busily employed sending out the municipal statement of receipts and expenditures for 1912. There are a few at the post office for distribution.

Mr. and Mrs. Wescott and baby, from Vancouver, spent a few days at Councillor Lehman's.

H. T. Ross returned on Friday from the big city with a friend.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Coghlan and Mrs. F. Martin travelled down to town on Saturday morning's car.

Mr. Baldwin's wife and family arrived on Saturday morning, and intend settling down out at the mill.

Messrs. J. W. Taylor, R. Cooke and J. E. Israel caught the same car up to Abbotsford.

Owing to the stormy weather during the latter part of the week there was only a poor attendance at the True Blues, and it is expected that a meeting will be called for next Saturday night.

Messrs. Firkin and Robinson are expected back from Victoria some day this week.

Mrs. George Stewart and family are staying with Mr. Brownell just now, their house in Sumas having got badly burned in a recent fire, which gutted out their neighbor's place.

Mr. S. Barber spent a few days at the Manse last week.

Next Sabbath being the annual anniversary, Mr. G. A. Wilson, of Vancouver, Superintendent for B. C., will take both services, morning and evening.

On Monday night an entertainment and social will be held. There will be refreshments, the reading of the Sunday school and Ladies' Aid reports, and a happy time for all at 8 p.m. Bible class and choir practice on Wednesday night as usual.

THE WORK IS ALMOST COMPLETED

After Monday new Council is to have Charge of the Municipal Affairs

The request was granted on motion.

Municipal Solicitors returning the cheque of $150,000 which had been tendered Mr. J. Hoban in connection with the matter of the diversion of the Huntingdon Road at the "Sweeny Hill.

E. W. King, Cemetery Commissioner, being the annual report. Filed.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH THE SCHOOLS?

Criticism of our system of public education, provoked by the startling deficiencies of high school students, will be still further encouraged by the statement that seven students were found in New York high schools who were so deficient in mathematics that they could not add one and one, or multiply one by one.

Only the other day a test made at Spokane showed that a considerable number of the high school students had no knowledge whatever of our national anthem.

What is the matter with our public schools? It is apparent that something is wrong with our educational system, and it is encouraging to know that the leading educators have set themselves the task of finding out what and where the trouble is, with a view of applying the remedy, if proper remedy can be found.

That defects exist in our educational system has been apparent for some time; but even the closest students had not discerned the glaring deficiencies recently brought to light. What is the remedy? We do not know. Certainly we are spending enough money on education. Sometimes it seems that we really are spending too much money on education. Probably we are trying to do too much for the child. Maybe it would be a good plan to put the child more on his or her own resources. Books are plentiful; and they are cheap enough. There is now no excuse for the failure of any boy or girl to secure an education if they want it; and if they do not want an education all the teachers of the earth cannot cram it into their heads.

Individualism is a decadent virtue in these days of a growing tendency to lean upon the state. It might be well to attempt to revive it. The strongest characters in history have been individualists in the larger sense. Moses would still have been Moses without Egyptian preceptors; and that is true of most of the great characters in history. Men and women who really want an education will dig it out of the ground, and it might be well for the educational leaders of the country to consider the advisability of doing less, instead of more for the boys and girls who are in school.

The express companies are finding that the parcel post is cutting down their business as all kinds of articles are being sent through the parcel post since it was opened. We read these days in numerous places how the new system is being used. Read the following from an exchange:

Scoop shovels, cowbells, derby hats, pot roasts, eggs, and hundreds of other articles were sent through the local office yesterday by parcels post by a line of patrons who waited patiently that they might secure stamps even after the office had announced that the sales for the day had reached $1,000, and that no more large amounts were to be sold to firms until additional ones arrive.

While many freak articles were received yesterday, the hundreds of inquiries and stamp sales convinced the officials that by the end of the month many tons of additional mail will be sent through the office daily. As soon as the office opened yesterday a line of patrons appeared. The line gave the office a holiday appearance until late in the afternoon.

The Fraser Falley Publicity Bureau should take up the custom of letting the secretary of the Vancouver Board of Trade know that the "knock" he gave the Fraser Valley the other day was the kind that will not be permitted to go unchecked by the people of the Fraser Valley. Either Mr. Blair is not fit to represent the Board of Trade of Vancouver, or the attempt to knock the county around Vancouver was premeditated. "No good land within one hundred miles of Vancouver fit for new settlers." Guess Blair is after notoriety, and has resorted to extreme measures when the proper opportunity came. Besides being a slap at the Valley it is aso a slap at the city itself, as should an eastern paper reprint the evidence as it appeared in the Vancouver Province a very poor opinion of Vancouver and its surroundings would be the result.

The Market.

Business was quiet at the regular weekly market this morning, the cold weather evidently having its effect. The supplies were equal to the demand, however, and prices remained steady with a general tendency to strengthen.

With the cold weather the price of eggs shows signs of an increase the first jump being noticed this morning when vendors demanded 55 and 60 cents a dozen, an increase of five cents per dozen over the price last week. The wholesale price was unchanged, being 40 and 45 cents a dozen.

In the poultry section also prices showed a tendency to increase. Some excellent pullets sold for $15.00 per dozen. Poultry, live weight, was offered at 20 cents a pound, and one vendor asked 23 and 24 cents a pound but few sales were made at the latter price.

In the meat department there was an excellent showing and no change in the prices were quoted. Some fine salted pork was sold for 18 cents a pound retail, lard 17 cents, heifer beef 18 cents, pork 15 cents to 18 cents beef 15 to 27 cents, mutton 17 to 20 cents.

There is little change in the vegetable department. The prices remain unchanged and the demand shows no sign of an increase. The potato market is a little improved with the price remaining at $13 to $15 per ton.

THE FARMER'S CREED

The Canadian farmers' creed, given below, though written nearly half a century ago, is still being printed on cards, and distributed among the advanced pupils of the Canadian public schools:

I.—We believe in small farms and thorough cultivation.

II.—We believe that soil loves to eat, as well as its owner, and ought therefore to be literally fed.

III.—We believe in large crops, which leave the land better than they found it; making farmers and the farm both glad at once.

IV.—We believe in getting to the bottom of things, and therefore in deep ploughing, and enough of it; all the better with a subsoil plough.

V.—We believe that every farm should own a good farmer.

VI.—We believe that the best fertilizer for any soil is the spirit of industry, enterprise, and intelligence. Without this, lime and gypsum, bones and green manure, marl and guano will be of little use.

VII.—We believe in good fences, good farms, good farmhouses, good orchards, and children enough to gather the fruit.

VIII.—We believe in a clean kitchen, a neat wife in it, and a clear conscience.

A. J. Henderson of the Abbotsford Hotel paid a visit to the coast cities this week.

Mrs. Edison intends to leave for California in the course of a few days.

Tim McElroy, of the Commercial, who gured so prominently in the recent football match, states that he is perfectly recovered and will be in the best of condition for the return match when the weathre moderates.

Mr. W. H. Williams, formerly on the staff of the Royal Bank here, but now of Vancouver, was a week end visitor to Abbotsford.

H. Alanson, whose hardware store was destroyed in the recent re, has purchased the stock of the Abbotsford Hardware Company on Esandane avenue, and is now busy fixing up the premises to accommodate his ever increasing trade.

Abbotsford is certainly endowed with its share of the "beautiful" this year. The person who coined that word "beautiful" in regard to snow, according to some of our worthy citizens' opinions, should be relegated to a more congenial clime—if not already there. Snow, in its place is extremely popular, but the majority seem to think the proper place for it is on the top of Mt. Baker. But then, the "kidletts" enjoy it, especially on the big hill. Messrs. Clark and Bolton also appeared to be enjoying themselves on the same hill, much to the amusement of their fellow citizens and others.

Our local barber has recovered most of the goods stolen from his shop recently through the aid of the police at Seattle, who captured the robber a few days ago.

BOARD OF TRADE.

The Board of Trade will hold a meeting on Monday evening, Jan. 20th, when election of officers for the coming year will be held; also reports from the various committees for last year. As there are numerous questions of vital importance coming up, it is imperative that all members should be in attendance.

THE FARMER ON PARADE

From the Portland Evening Telegram.

The more we get in touch with the farmer the more do we understand that he is a fellow who knows how to do things. Take that parade of yesterday—for downright uniqueness and attractiveness it was a hummer, and thoroughly representative of the entire enterprise that has brought the farmer to the front as an entertainer and educator of the city. There will be more parades and more farmers and bigger land shows and extended education as the years pass. The trend is that way. There is a growing realization of the necessity of turning to the land, but as we get in touch with the farmer and the things he does more and more the sense of necessity is changed into one of desirability. The entertaining function in this city yesterday is representative of a condition. In the broader economic sense the farmer is getting on parade. There is a demand to know him and to know of the things he achieves.

FRUIT GROWERS' MEETING

At a recent meeting of the B. C. Fruit Growers held in Victoria, Mr. C. W. Baxter, chief Dominion fruit inspector of the prairie provinces, explained the methods, the difficulties and the general practice of officials of his department in enforcing the fruit marks act, especially as it affected British Columbia fruit. The following resolution, moved by Mr. Thos. Hulman, which had been carried at a meeting of the directors, was then presented:

Proposed by the Shuswap Lake, Notch Hill District Fruit Growers' Association:

"That the tariff on American fruit entering Canada should be at least as high as the American tariff on fruit grown in Canada exported to the United States." This had regard to the fact that whereas the duty on Canadian apples entering the United States is 25c a box, that on American apples coming into Canada is only 13 cents each.
