Miss Graham has fully recovered from the "Flu" and is back to her pupils.

Miss Florence McPhee has recoved from "Flu". She is home for a few days.

Word was received last Saturday that Mr. John McEwen had died in the east. He was well known and well liked by all and intended to return to B. C.

There was a committee of three appointed to secure a victory bond for the Presbyterian Sunday School thinking they could get one. Two were easily gotten and it is anticipated that the third will be secured before the limit if time was up.

The celebration was not quite so noisy on Monday when peace did come as on the Thursday before but we had a dandy bon fire.

I AM THE MAN IN THE TRENCHES

When the call came I went out to fight the common enemy of mankind. I sought no other reason, asked no profit. The Empire's call was for MEN and I went.

I left you with a trust. I demanded of you that you "carry on" whilst I was "over there;" that you watch over and care for those near and dear to me and foot the bill for them and for me.

For more than four years I have stood between you and destruction. I have been through hell and suffered the tortures of the damned; have succoured and again gone forth to drive the enemy back.

On foreign soil I am greeted by one and all—poor and rich—as the saviour of mankind.

When I return to Canada I shall call upon you for an accounting of your stewardship.

I shall ask of you "How have you kept your trust" and woe betide those who have failed me; those who have been mere boasters whilst others and I have paid the price.

I am coming back from a land where men poured out their wealth till told to stop—till there was none to pour—but there the wealth was blood.

My account lies with a man named Foch, but yours is due to me, and unless you can look me straight in the face and say "I fought with you," and show me your bonds, I shall deem you have been the Kaiser's friends, and no quarter will be shown.

I will judge you not by your cheers, or the flags you waved when peace came, but by the aid you gave, the bonds you bought.

There is yet time for you to make good, and I warn you that if you have not, then waste no time in doing so, because I, the man from the trenches, am in no mood for dallying with traitors or idlers.

Only until Saturday to do YOUR bit. If you meant those cheers when you heard of Peace buy your bonds TO-DAY.

SUMAS COUNCIL MEETING

The regular meeting of the Sumas council was held on Saturday last in the hall.

The matter of utmost importance at the meeting was the settling of the deadlock between the reeve and the councillors. Last summer work was done on a road in the Indian reserve outside of the municipality. The reeve has persistently refused to sign cheques paying municipal money for the work, maintaining that thereby the Sumas council would be establishing a precedent and committing them to probably the completion of the road, which would be in the neighborhood of $2000. The annual taxes of the municipality is about $5000. The reeve however, in order that the men be paid has offered to pay his share of the wages due the men if the councillors would do their part.

The councillors take the stand that the municipality is responsible for work and have insisted that the bills be paid.

On Saturday the councillors appointed Councillor T. DeLair to act as reeve for the purpose of signing cheques for the men's time on the Kilgard fill.

On Monday Reeve Fooks vetoed the motion passed by the council over his head; now it is upto the bank.

The deadlock appears to be increasing. On the one hand the councillors feel that the work should be paid for out of the municipal funds; while on the other hand Reeve Fooks feels that the duty of his position as reeve is not to pay the money out of the municipal funds.

It will probably be a matter for the ratepayers to decide on at the next election.

The B. C. Telephone Co has written to the council agreeing to clean up the ditches on C. street damaged last winter by the breaking down of their poles in the ice storm.

Mr. John Farmer objected to the report sent in by the council regarding the road he asked for but nothing was done to change the decision arrived at by the council and Mr. Farmer does not get repairs to the road.

Make your money fight.

On Monday evening a Thanksgiving service was held in the Presbyterian church. There was a large gathering. Rev. Mr. Robertson, Mr. J. McGowan and Capt. Whitchelo gave splendid addresses. Sunday evening will be a peace Thanksgiving with special services and music.

Miss Hannam from Victoria is the guest of the Misses Steede for a few days.

Mrs. Parton attended the funeral of Arthur Hume at New Westminster The deceased was one of those who met death on the Galiano.

The Bank will trust you

Perhaps you never had an account in a bank—maybe you've never done business in a bank—hardly even cashed a cheque in one. But—that is no reason why you cannot go to a bank and borrow money to buy Victory Bonds.

If you are a steady, industrious, thrifty citizen, working and saving a part of your income, you are just the kind of person Canada's chartered banks stand ready to help to-day.

Any bank will lend you as much money as you can save during the next twelve months, with which to buy Victory Bonds.

All you have to do is to pay ten per cent. of the amount you want to buy and deposit the receipt for that ten per cent. in the bank.

The bank will lend you the 90 per cent. balance at 5½ per cent. interest and will give you a year to repay it, the interest you get on your bond being just the same as the bank charges you.

This is a fine opportunity for you to begin a real savings account, to make a first class investment and to help your country at the same time.

Why not see a banker to-day—he will tell you all about it and you will be glad of the advice and help he can give you.

VICTORY LOAN QUOTA DOUBLED

As we go to press we have just learned that the Abbotsford-Matsqui Victory Loan committee has doubled its quota of $50,000. The total is now about $110,000 and there is still a little time left. It is anticipated there will be a few applications received before 6 o'clock Saturday evening, November 16th, after which time no applications will be received.

The committee are to be congratulated on the great success of their efforts and the total amount subscribed has exceeded the expectations of all. The Abbotsford-Matsqui Unit was the first unit in the whole of the Fraser Valley to reach its quota. This was accomplished in the first three days of the campaign to the great astonishment at headquarters in New Westminster and there has been a steady run ever since. In addition to the honor flag, which has been received, this unit has earned at least six crowns, which will be attached to the flag in due course.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1918

It certainly looks as though the war is drawing to a close and our soldier boys will be coming marching home. It is astonishing how quickly some of the soldier boys have advanced during the war. Here is some young fellow, the pearly down of youth scarce shaved off his cheek, who has borne the honored title of lieutenant, captain, or even perhaps major. But a short couple or three years ago he was regarded as only a boy. Now he has the lives and fate of a group of men and the interests of country in his youthful keeping. He has carried a heavier responsibility than elderly ones in positions of power and influence

This is one reason, perhaps, why army life has appealed so powerfully to our young men, and they have been able to write home such cheery letters from the dugouts and the trenches. They have felt the hazards keenly enough. But it cuts the gordian knots of life. In times of peace, life is a long and discouraging struggle for advancement. The knots are tangled and have to be united with infinite labor and pains.

In time of war, the doors to advancement are thrown wide open. There may not be much money success. But there is fame and reputation, which are rewards that men prize equally well. And all these opportunities may come within a few months or a year by the quick recognition that is given to ability.

The fellows who have accepted the risks of service, or who are cheerfully complying with the government call, are entitled to some compensation. It is right that they should be given prompt advancement in life ahead of those who stay at home.

When a young fellow returns from the war, victorious, with a good record in an officer's position, it should help him in the pursuits of peace. He has shown ability to lead under circumtsances of great strain. That ability should be valuable in any business field. So the fellows who are making the sacrifices at the front are going to come home and be the coming men in the future days of business competition.

Thus we say the return of the soldier victorious from the scenes of the battlefield will make changes in business, politics and all walks of life during the next quarter of a century. They will shake up the dry bones of civilization the same as they have helped to down barbarity.

LA MARSEILLAISE

Ye sons of France awake to glory
Hark! hark! what myriads bid you rise!
Your children, wives and grandsires hoary;
Behold their tears, and hear their cries,
Behold their tears and hear their cries!
Shall hateful tyrants mischief breeding,
With hireling hosts, ruffian band,
Affright and desolate the land,
While peace and liberty lie bleeding!
To arms, to arms, ye brave!
Th' avenging sword unsheathe!
March on, march on! all hearts resolved
On victory or death.

AMERICA

My contry 'tis of thee
Sweet land of liberty
Of thee I sing.
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

LA BRABANÇONNE

The years of slavery are over,
The Belgian is freed from his chains
By his valour he has reconquered his good name, his rights and glorious flags.
With their powerful daring right hands
Hereafter the people boldly
Engrave on the splendid old banners
For King, for law, for liberty:
Engrave on the splendid old banners
For King, for law, for liberty,
For King, for law, for liberty,
For King, for law, for liberty,

THE MAPLE LEAF FOR EVER.

In days of yore, from Britain's shore
Wolfe the dauntless hero came,
And planted firm Britannia's flag,
On Canada's fair domain.
Here may it wave, our boast, our pride
And joined in love together
The Thistle, Shamrock, Rose entwine
The Maple Leaf forever.

Chorus

The Maple Leaf, our emblem dear,
The Maple Leaf for ever.
God save our King and Heaven bless
The Maple Leaf forever.

ITALIAN NATIONAL ANTHEM

All onward! All onward!
The tombs are all open, come forth our departed,
Our soldiers arise and our hearts be united;
With swords in hand, and our face towards the foe,
The fame and the name of Italia will glow.
All onward! Yes, onward!
Advance gallant warriors, unfurl to the winds banners so glorious,
Arise with your sabres, down with our enemies,
Arise in your glory, Italians arise;
Depart from our borders, depart from our shore,
Depart all ye strangers, return never more.

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

KIMI GA YO.

May our Emperor reign for ever,
As the sun for thousands of years shall shine;
Hail our King! may our Emperor reign for ever,
Strong and firm,
Strong and firm as stone and rock.

O CANADA

O Canada, our heritage, our love,
Thy worth we praise all other lands above
From sea to sea, throughout the length,
From Pole to Borderland,
At Britain's side whate'er betide
Unflinchingly we'll stand,
With heart we sing God Save the King,
Guard thou our Empire wide do we implore
And prosper Canada from shore to shore.

What about starting a Colony of decrowned kings, placing the King Constantine as ruler and the former Kaiser as chief "hotair" artist" and ask the mto adopt as their national anthem a song entitled, "How We Knocked the Spots off Dear Old Cain."

TERMS OF ARMSTICE MEANS ABJECT SURRENDER BY HUNS

Washington, Nov. 11.—Germany signed an armstice today that branded her before the world as beaten. She surrendered in the field to a greater force than the military machine her war lords had builded. By the terms of the armstice she agreed to evacuate occupied territories, surrender a generous portion of her submarine and battleship fleets, and gave up war materials. Briefly, she admitted America and the Allies victorious, and agreed to strong stipulations which made her unable to renew the strife even if her shattered people were so inclined.

London, Nov. 11.—Marshal Foch issued the following order to all Allied commanders today: "Hostilities will cease November 11th at 11 a. m. along the French front. Allied troops will not until further notice go beyond the line reached at that hour."

Washington, Nov. 11.—Armistice terms include the evacuation of invaded territory, including Alsace-Lorraine and Luxemburg; surrender of a vast amount of guns and equipment, evacuation of the left bank of the Rhine; unconditional surrender of all German forces in East Africa, reparation for damage done; surrender of scores of submarines and battleships; concentration of aircraft at stipulated points, and reparation of all Allied and United States merchant vessels sunk.

The abandonment of Bucharest and Brest treaties and evacuation of all Black Sea ports is also provided for.

The duration of the Armstice is set at thirty days.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The president this afternoon told congress and the world the terms on which Germany accepted the armstice. They pictured Germany surrendering abjectly to Marshal Foch in the field of battle, her armies beaten, her government overturned, her master in flight. Congress had only a small crowd to hear the President's burning words, but enthusiasm ran riot. The terms as announced were:

Evacuation of Alsace-Lorraine, Luxemburg, and all occupied territory must be completed within fourteen days.

Occupation by the Allies and the United States forces jointly will keep pace with this evacuation.

All inhabitants of evacuated territories must be repatriated within fourteen days.

The German army must surrender in good condition 5,000 guns, heavy and field pieces; 30,000 machine guns, 3,000 minewerfer and 2,000 airplanes.

Evacuated territory on the Rhine's left bank will be administered by its local authorities under Allied and United States control.

The Allies will hold the principal crossing of the Rhine, and also Mayence, Coblenz and Cologne, with their bridgeheads at these pointns.

A wide strip along the Rhine's right bank becomes a neutral zone. Eleven additional days will be allowed for the evacuation of the Rhine lands. The evacuating armies shall not harm the evacuated territories or inhabitants. All food and livestock must be left behind.

The Germans must deliver to the Allies 5,000 locomotives, 50,000 wagons and 10,000 motor lorries within fourteen days. The Alsace-Lorraine railways must be surrendered within the same period.

The Allies can requisition, from Germany, for the upkeep of all allied armies.

Germany must immediately release all Allied and United States prisoners without reciprocity.

Naval Conditions

The immediate cessation of all naval hostilities. Definite information to be given as to movements of German ships. Surrender to the associated powers of 160 submarines with their complete armament and equipment. All other submarines to be at once paid off and completely disarmed and placed under allied supervision. Germany to disarm and intern in neutral ports six battle cruisers, ten battleships, eight light cruisers, and fifty of her most modern destroyers. All other surface warships, including river craft, concentrated in German naval bases, shall be at once paid off and completely disarmed, under allied supervision.

The associated powers shall be given the right to sweep up all enemy mine fields, German officials to indicate their positions.

Freedom of access to and from the Baltic, with the Allies occupying all the German defense works in the entrances from the Catetgatt into the Baltic. The Allies existing blockade conditions are to remain unchanged. A German merchant ships found at sea shall remain liable to capture. All naval aircraft are to be concentrated and demobilized in German bases to be specified by the Allies.

All German troops in the territory formerly belonging to Russia, Roumania, and Turkey are to be withdrawn inside Germany's frontiers The Germans must immediately cease all requisitioning and seizure of supplies

Financial conditions. "Reparation for damage done; enemy is to remove during the armistice no public securities, which can serve as pledge for recovery of allied war losses. Immediate restitution of all cash deposits in the Belgian National bank, also immodiate return of all documents, specie, stocks, shares and paper money Restitution of Russian and Roumanian gold already yielded to Germany to be delivered in trust to the allies until peace is actually signed.

In evacuating the Belgian coast, Germany must abandon all merchant ships tugs, cranes or other harbor material, with all stores, arms armament and apparatus of all kinds. All Black Sea ports are to be evacuated All Russian warships seized in the Black Sea by the Germans shall be delivered to the allies. All neutral merchant vessels seized must be forthwith released. The Germany government must formally notify all neutrals particularly Sweden, Norway and Holland, that all restrictions placed in their trade with the allies are immediately cancelled. The Germans must not transfer any merchant ships to neutral flags. The armstice shall continue during thirty days, with an option for extension.

"The war thus comes to an end," said the President, "for having accepted these terms, it is impossible for the German command to renew hostilities. It is not possible yet to assess the consequences of this great consummation. We only know that this tragical war, whose consuming flames have swept from one nation to another, until all the world has been afire, is now at an end."

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

As a matter of business, what do you think of the plan?

You are a farmer.

Canada is a farming country.

Canada grows more food than the people of Canada need.

To prosper she must sell that surplus food.

Great Britain is our best customer for grain, pork, beef, cheese and other farm products.

Every practical man must see how important it is to hold the British trade. Canada wants not only the profit on this trade, she wishes to create a good-will in Britain towards Canadian products and thus assure our export business for the future.

At the moment Great Britain asks for credit, asks Canada to sell her the products of the farm, "on time." To hold her trade, it is necessary to give this credit.

This takes capital—immense capital. For Britain's purchases from Canada are huge, and these purchases must be paid for in cash.

In these times, it is not easy even for a nation as wealthy as Canada to procure money. Certainly, no other country can lend us money. The only way now open for Canada to secure money is to borrow from the people of Canada.

This is the reason for selling Victory Bonds.

Can anyone deny the sound business sense of this plan of protecting our valuable market?

From the standpoint of the man who lends, what better security could he get for his money? Where else could he get a five and a half per cent. return on such security? Where would he find an investment to pay interest so regularly and with so little trouble to the lender? Certainly Canadians have an opportunity to benefit very directly from this borrowing plan.

And the money Canada borrows is spent entirely in Canada—a very large part of it for the very crops the farmer has to sell.

Therefore, if the Victory Loan is a success, business in Canada must be good, the nation must prosper and so be able to carry on a vigorous war effort in France and Flanders.

As a practical man you must approve of the Victory Loan plan.

Then help it along. Put your own money into Victory Bonds; urge your friends to buy; work hard among your loyal neighbors to make the Victory Loan 1918 an overwhelming success.

SUCCESS OF VICTORY BOND UP TO WEEKLY PRESS

The Weekly Press has a special duty to perform in this campaign, is the word sent out from headquarters thus it is that this paper has devoted so much space during the days of the present Victory campaign. It has been a victory campaign indeed, as during the campaign the Kaiser has had to get down on his knees to the Allies—now he is hiding. Just imagine the Kaiser hiding! What would it have meant had he hid before August 1914?

Canada must go beyond the $500,000,000 mark, which means that the rural district where thousands of our bravest soldiers came from, must come through handsomely. So they say it is up to the Weekly Press.

It is often claimed that the weekly paper goes home better than any other kind of publication in the country. It probably gets closer to the people in the small towns, villages or country than the big "daily" possibly can. Unquestionabiyl it has strong influence. What it says on the Victory Loan has been repeated.

If the Victory Loan is to be sent over the half-billion mark the Press must do it. The "Flu" has closed public buildings to such an extent that public meetings are impossible in a very large portion of the Dominion. Consequently, the Press must do the work. This ist hen a great opportunity for the Press and it must be lived up to.

It is really up to the readers to read every printed word about the Victory Loan so that they will know their duty to themselves; to the boys who lie peacefully in France; and to the boys who have fought so well.

Buy the Bond today.

How Many Crowns for Your Honor Flag?

Of course every city, town and district will earn its Honor Flag.

But how about the crowns?

For every twenty-five per cent. in excess of its quota, each city, town and district will be entitled to add a crown to its flag.

Can you do fifty per cent. better than your quota—that means two crowns for your Honor Flag.

But double your quota and it means four crowns.

Hang a Flag in your hall, that for years to come will show that your city, town or district did better than well—

That it was a real factor in the huge success of CANADA'S VICTORY LOAN 1918.

MISS MURPHY OF HUNTINGDON DIES OF THE "FLU".

Miss Ruth Murphy, elder daughter of Mr. M. Murphy, died Saturday at Agassiz of Spanish influenza. The young lady was educated at the Convent of St. Ann's, New Westminster, and later entered the convent hospital at Victoria as a nursing probationer, staying on as nurse until this year, when she went into the Military Hospital at Victoria as trained nurse, but left there two or three weeks ago to attend to relatives at Agassiz—Mrs. J. Boyer and family After nursing both Mrs. Boyer and Miss Sue Boyer well the young lady went out to the neighbors to carry on the good work but the devoted girl herself succumbed to the plague.

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon at the O. M. I.

The father, sister and relatives have the deep sympathy of the community.

MRS. J. H. RADCLIFFE DIES

Rouleau, to St. Mary's cemetery, O. M. I. The deceased was in her 24th year and leaves a husband and little daughter, a few days old to mourn her early demise. She was born at Nicomen lived in the district most of her life. During the past year she and her husband resided on the prairie and had just recently returned to Mission City, when she became sick with influenza. She was a sister of Mrs. Rex Bryant.

Some beautiful flowers had been donated by friends.

The pallbearers were Messrs J. Bidnall, R. Boyes, C. Paton, C. Chesney and —. McGillivray.

The husband and relatives have the sympathy of all during this time of sorrow and bereavement.

Since Miss Graham returned to take her school Miss Fraser is teaching Miss Simlett's room.

Mr. McGowan has had word recently from Teddy Barrett, our former postmaster. He has been wounded, but just enough to take him back to Blighty.

Mrs. Ferris was taken home on Wednesday from the hospital after recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

IN MEMORIAM

At the service in the Presbyterian church last Sunday special reference was made to the death of Mr. John McEwen, who for the last ten years had been a highly respected citizen of Abbotsford. The Rev. W. Robertson referred to his genial disposition and kindly generous spirit. He had been an adherent and supporter of the church all his time here and was beloved by everyone. The secretary of the church was asked to convey the sympathy of the congregation to his mother and family at Maxville, Ontario, where he was visiting when he died so unexpectedly.

He will be greatly missed in Abbotsford as he was the life and soul of many of the social evenings, and no party was complete without his cheery smile and kindly word.

The sympathy of the entire neighborhood goes out to his aged mother and family.

The Red Cross officers are now: President, Mrs. Thomas; Treasurer Mr. Percy Peele; Secretary, Mrs. McMenemy; and Mrs. King, Custodian.

Miss Annie Bousfield died suddenly on Sunday in New Westminster from the "Flu". She was sick only a few days.

The Fraser Valley Teachers will hold their convention in Mission City on Friday, 22nd. The public are invited to enjoy the programme, particularly the evening programme.

RED CROSS STILL AT WORK

A correspondent to one of coast papers conveys the idea that the work of the Abbotsford Red Cross is now finished, that the war is over. This paper is asked to say that the Red Cross work in Abbotsford will be continued indefinitely. The ladies meet every Friday in their work room in the building formerly occupied by Mr. Clark as a store. These are the best rooms in the valley, being large roomy and comfortable with lots of light.

At a recent election Mrs. McMenemy was appointed as secretary in place of Mrs. Parton who resigned.

Although the war is apparently over the Abbotsford Red Cross ladies do not feel as though their work was done and expect to continue their sewing until such time as the boys have returned from the front—probably two years.

The ladies aid met at the home of Mrs. Ryall last week. There was a good attendance considering so much sickness.

Mr. R. J. McMenemy of New Westminster was a visitor to Abbotsford this week.

The Post is brought out one day earlier on account of the Victory Loan advertising.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my many friends and particularly the people of Agassiz for their many kindnesses, sympathy and floral tributes during my recent bereavement in the death of my daughter, Ruth.
