THE ATLIN CLAIM.

VOL. 11. ATLIN, B. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1904. NO. 277

WAR NEWS.

London, Oct. 29th:—The impression prevails in diplomatic circles that France has given Russia and Great Britain to understand that she will not be involved, should the disputants resort to hostilities.

London, Oct. 29th:—The Russian squadron has received orders to remain at Vigo, on the northwest coast of Spain, until the conclusion of the present Russo-British negotiations.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 29th:—Vice-Admiral Rogestvensky sends a second report of the trawler affair, which says: "Having met several hundred fishing boats, the squadron showed them every consideration except when they were in company with two foreign torpedo boats, one of which disappeared."

London, Oct. 29th:—Seven British warships sailed westward from Gibralter. The Hermonies is bound for Vigo. Ships of the British Channel Fleet cleared their decks yesterday ready for action. Several torpedo boats left Tangier fully equipped. Work at arsenal proceeding under high pressure.

Stockholm, Oct. 29th:—The Swedish steamer Aldebaran, from Hull, England, was chased and fired upon by a Russian cruiser on the night of October 21st, but the shot had no effect.

London. Oct. 31st:—Investigation into the North Sea affair is starting today at Vigo.

Vigo, Oct. 31st:—Five British warships are cruising off here, evidently keeping an eye on Russian warships. Spain has granted a request to allow them to remain in port until the investigation is completed.

Mukden, Oct. 31st:—From an early hour this morning there was a heavy bombardment of Lone Tree Hill by the Japanese, and large masses of Japanese troops were moving eastward on October 29th and 30th.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31st:—Gen. Sakharoff reports there was no general fighting since October 28th. There is occasional cannonading along the whole front but the Japanese fire is inefficient. The official statement of the number of Russians killed in the fighting which began October 9th and ended October 18th, totalled 800 officers and 45,000 men.

The Hague, Nov. 1st:—Officials of the Court of Arbitration endorse Balfour's views, that under the terms of the Hague Convention, the Commission to be appointed for the purpose of investigating the North Sea incident will be purely a commission of inquiry without the power to act as arbitrators.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 1st:—It is rumored that Rojestvensky has asked to be relieved of the command of the Baltic fleet.

Chefoo, Nov. 1st:—The third general attack on Port Arthur began October 24th. On October 26th, Japanese shells set fire to a smokeless powder magazine. Portions of the town caught fire, the conflagration continuing the whole day.

Gibralter, Nov. 2nd:—The garrison has been mobilized and artillerymen ordered to take up positions at different batteries of the Rock. The Channel Squadron is ordered to be in readiness at a moment's notice.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 2nd:—Everything indicates that both armies south of Mukden are ready to resume hostilities. The Japanese have received large reinforcements from the south.

London, Nov. 2nd:—A despatch received from Tien Tsin states "The Chinese government has formally declared against any further infringements of neutrality in the dispatch of supplies to belligerents and has sent troops to Shanhaikwan. This leaves the Russians without an open port in the East.

Good Qualities Rewarded.

A pleasing function took place in this office on Monday last, when just prior to his depurture for Europe, Mr. A. C. Hirschfeld, Editor of The Claim, was the recipient of a handsome testimonial in the shape of a nugget chain, manufactured from native gold by Mr. Jules Eggert. The presentation, which was gracefully made by Mr. James Stables, president of the Atlin District Board of Trade, took the late editor completely by surprise, but he finally found words to express his appreciation of the very handsome token his Atlin friends had presented him with and assured them that it would ever remind him of his generous fellows in the Northland.

Union of the Churches.

The world has to look to Atlin for the solving of the vexed question of church union and harmony. A shooting expedition, made up of three Irishmen, mark you!—one an ecclesiastical dignitary of the Episcopal Church; the second, a coming moderator of the Auld Kirk, and the third, a formidable representative of the Church of Rome,—buried the shieltelah of controversy, went forth with guns to war against the ptarmigan, and to show what can be accomplished when the churches work in harmony, the three returned with a hundred birds.

Ye Who Would Reckon with Britain.

Ye who would reckon with Britain—
Ye who would sweep the seas
Of the flag that Rodney nailed aloft
And Nelson flung to the breeze—
Count well your ships and your men,
Count well your horse and your guns,
For they who reckon with Britain
Must reckon with Britain's sons.

Ye who would challenge Britain—
Ye who would break the might
Of the little isle in the foggy sea
And the lion heart in the fight—
Count well your horse, and your swords,
Weigh well your valor and guns,
For they who ride against Britain
Must sabre her million sons.

Ye who would roll to warfare
Your hordes of peasants and slaves,
To crush the pride of an empire
And sink her fame in the waves—
Test well your blood and your metal,
Count well your troops and your guns,
For they who battle with Britain
Must war with a Mother's sons.

Prizes for Winter Sport.

There are on exhibition in the store of Stables & Lumsden, two beautiful silver cups on ebony stands. These cups are a gift from Mr. J. T. Wilkinson, better known as "Wings," to the lady skaters of Atlin and to the Atlin Curling Club. "Wings" has been a visitor to the camp on several occasions, and on the occasion of his last visit he promised Mr. Stables that he would present a cup to the Atlin Curling Club, for competition by its members; but "Wings," having a soft spot in his heart for the ladies, could not overlook them, hence the two cups. As to how these cups are to be completed for and finally won, "Wings" has left that entirely in the hands of the Club members as regards the curling cup, and in the hands of Mr. Stables and one or two others as regards the skating cup. Either cup is a prize worth having and will no doubt create keen competition among those wishing to secure them, and the name of "Wings" is likely to hover over Atlin during the long winter months now fast approaching. See the cups and join the rinks.

A Generous Offer.

The following generous offer has been received this week from Mr. A. Heathorn, passenger and freight agent of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company:

Whitehorse, Y. T., Oct. 9, 1904.
Mr. A. C. Hirschfeld, Atlin, B.C.

My Dear Sir:—I have just learned that the people of Atlin have raised the money to erect a monument to the memory of Fritz Miller, the discoverer of the camp. I desire to say that the Pacific Coast Steamship Co. will esteem it a pleasure to transport the monument from the coast to Skagway free of charge. If you will kindly notify me where the shipment will originate and when it will be shipped, I will give it my best attention.—Yours truly,

A. HEATHORN.

The Election.

The Liberal party of Canada have obtained the most sweeping political victory that has ever been recorded in the history of the Dominion. The following are the results so far as known:

Ontario,	40 Lib.	46 Con.
Quebec,	53 "	10 "
Nova Scotia,	18 "	— "
New Brunswick,	8 "	5 "
Manitoba,	5 "	3 "
British Columbia,	4 "	— "
Prince Edward Is.	— "	3 "
Northwest Ter.	9 "	1 "
	137 "	68 "

2 to hear from in Quebec.
2 " " Manitoba.
3 " " British Columbia.
1 " " Prince Edward Is.

In British Columbia there are Comox-Atlin, Kootenay, and Yale-Cariboo yet to hear from. J. B. Kennedy was elected by 508 majority in New Westminster; R. C. McPherson by 850 in Vancouver; G. Riley by 508 in Victoria; and R. Smith in Nanaimo.

The polling takes place in Atlin on Saturday, 26th November.

The end of steam navigation for the open season which has just closed, between Atlin and Caribou, does not by any means signify that we are frozen up or out of the world. Each year facilities of ingress and egress are improving and with the exception of a few days when the ice is forming in the fall or breaking up in the spring, passengers and mail come and go with almost as little delay as is experienced in the summer months.

British Columbia is commencing to experience the benefits of Japanese progress in the customs of western civilization, and their advance in these directions has become the theme of universal comment. They continue to draw more largely and widely upon Europe and America for those productions which are regarded by us as inseparable from an endurable existence. The products of British Columbia's coal mines, fisheries and lumber resources can compete with advantage in the markets of Japan against the entire world.

The Presidential election in the United States takes place on Tuesday, 8th November.

Canadian Wheat Crop.

W. P. Thompson, vice-president of the Ogilvie Flour Milling Co., who has been on a tour of the Canadian Northwest, and is well qualified to estimate what the wheat crop will be, figures it at 65,000,000 bushels. W. P. Woods, president of the London Corn Exchange, was also, lately, on a trip to the Pacific Coast, and said: "It is merely a matter of getting the settlers on the land to make it possible for the output to be six hundred million bushels. The fertile plains of Western Canada will grow the wheat of the world and will enrich you all. All the nations of the earth will send their products to you in exchange for wheat and flour. The wheat which can be grow in Canada is the finest in the world, and will always be in demand."

The Atlin Studio.

The Atlin Studio will be carried on as in the past, under the management of Mr. A. Carmichael. Specialties in post-cards, sets of views suitable for Christmas and New Year presents, and over a thousand negatives to choose from.

It is not too early to order your photos for Christmas and New Year. Nothing is more seasonable or will be better appreciated by your friends abroad than a set of views from the country you live in. Get in your orders before the rush.

The demand of Great Britain for an indemnity of $3,750,000 from the Tibetians appears likely to lead to a prolonged British occupation of the Chumbi Valley, which is the key to Tibet. It is proposed that the payments be made at the rate of $50,000 annually, which would allow a tenure by the British of the Chumbi Valley of 75 years, by the end of which time it is more than likely that complete possession would be admitted.
