OVERLOOK PROVISIONS FOR FUTURE

There is something decidedly melancholy in the thoughts of those among Vancouver citizens who are a little more far-sighted than the average, who can vizualize Vancouver half a dozen years hence as a city of possibly a quarter of a million population, and remember it as possessing the natural advantages of the most beautiful city in the west, when they realize how far it lags behind cities of not one-tenth its importance and resources in two of the essentials of accomplished civic beauty—systematic street planning and a civic centre.

While countless cities east of the Rocky Mountains, whose geographical position does not permit their progress to be measured by the rule of international importance, are feeling the quickening influence of city beautification, and are today putting through ambitious schemes for remoulding their unlovely and unwholesome spots, this city—the most phenomenal as a growth gathered in the history of the western empire—remains virtually in the first primer of regulated civic advancement.

Vancouver, since the close of the war, and even during the last two war years, has been bounding ahead to a remarkable extent in population. In what are now generally referred to as the boom years of 1909 to 1913, its business growth astonished even those who were accustomed to rapid western changes. The city boats of business structures built by private capital that compare with any cities in the first class, and it is richly endowed with homes that stand out strikingly as examples of individual refinement and architectural grace. But while the process of individual enrichment has gone forward amazingly, definite action towards giving the city some distinction through the scientific treatment of its streets and the charm of public buildings, and with all this a patent benefit to the community as a whole, has been sidetracked among the vitally necessary needs left undone.

The city stands today with all its acknowledged advantages and with the echo of more than ten years of pseudo planning, talk and apology about a "city beautiful," in its memory—and with a city hall and miscellany of public service structures that a town of even the remoteness of Medicine Hat or Prince Rupert would hasten to diavow and disown—as the one big city in the glorious Canadian west's sisterhood of municipalities that remains unresposive to the call of the present day's demand for constructive beauty in the accomplishment of civic reform.

MINING

At a recent meeting of the Silverton Miners' union the decision was reached to endeavor to get a six-hour shift as a day's work, with pay at a rate of $1 an hour.

Seattle and San Francisco capitalists have an option and bond upon the Carmi mine at Carmi. A compressor will be installed at once, and considerable work done this summer, a new mill may be erected in the near future.

CITY ASKS TENDERS FOR 5 MOTOR TRUCKS

The civic board of works on Tuesday authorized City Purchasing Agent James Stuart to call for tenders for the supply of five motor trucks for city use at once. Three of the five are to be 2-ton trucks suitable for the use of the city garbage department, while one of the other two is to be a 1½-ton truck to be used for the maintenance of pavements and the other a 1-ton truck for sewer maintenance. The tenders called are to specify immediate delivery, as it was pointed out by City Engineer Fellowes that they would be of great use for emergency purposes, especially under present conditions with the city's horse-drawn vehicles all tied up.

B. C. ELECTRIC READY TO GIVE TO BRIDGE

VICTORIA—If the British Columbia Electric Railway decides to make use of the proposed Johnson Street Bridge, it will make a contribution of $50,000 towards its construction, Mayor Porter made known Tuesday.

FOUR MILLION IN BOND ISSUE

SEATTLE — Superintendent of Schools Cooper Tuesday night laid before the school board a proposal to issue bonds for $4,500,000 for new school buildings, his former estimate of $3,000,000 he felt being inadequate to fully cover the needs of the district whose school facilities are now overcrowded. This issue is planned to cover a two-year construction period.

GAS HEAT YOUR BUILDING
Gas heating by means of a system like the Rector has been the dream of engineers for years.
It does away with dirty, smoky furnaces, dusty basements filled with fuel, and the necessity of constant stoking.
Each radiator is a unit—you can cut as many of them out as you wish. You pay for your gas after you use it, not as you pay for coal, in advance.
We will be glad to give you figures on a gas-heating installation.

PLAN TO SPEND $11,100 ON NORTH SHORE STREETS

NORTH VANCOUVER—In addition to the paving of Ridgway Avenue, for which tenders are to be invited soon, the city council has decided on a number of other extensive improvements to various streets which, according to the city engineer's estimate will involve an expenditure of about $11,100.

These improvements include the macademizing of Thirteenth street from Mahon to Lonsdale Avenue at a cost of $1,800. The proportion of this which the property owners will be called on to bear is $1,311. It is also planned to grade and macademize Mahon Avenue from Thirteenth to Twenty-third streets at a cost of $9,300, in which case the charge against the properties affected would be $7,122.

Notices have been sent to owners of all properties affected that unless a sufficient number of protests are received, the work will be commenced immediately and carried out as a local improvement.

OPINIONS

WASHINGTON—The present high wages will continue for several years, according to J. Ogden Armour. In a letter to Secretary Wilson, made public by the Department of Labor, the Chicago packer expressed the belief that the present level would continue for six fundamental reasons, as follows:

1. The practical stoppage of immigration since 1914.
2. The retention by the military and naval establishment of nearly 2,000,000 workers, which "may continue indefinitely."
3. The creation of new industries, such as shipbuilding and the manufacture of chemicals and dyes.
4. The urgent demand for building and construction of every class, long held back by the war.
5. The shortage of the world food supply.
6. This proportionately higher level of commodity prices existing practically all over Europe.

STRICTLY FOR BUILDING PURPOSES

SOUTH VANCOUVER—At a meeting of the local Branch of the Great War Veterans Association on Wednesday night, replies were received from Hon. N. W. Rowell, president of the privy council, and Col. R. C. Cooper, M.P. for South Vancouver, which definitely settle the oft-raised question as to whether or no the funds provided by the Soldiers' Housing Act can be used towards clearing off mortgages on soldiers' homes or for the purpose of purchasing houses already built. From both Hon. Mr. owell and Col. Cooper came replies setting forth quite distinctly the fact that the Act provided only for loans for the erection of new homes. This will result in settling that much discussed and frequently raised question for many veterans who sought to take advantage of the act in these ways.

A new feature of the "Own Your Own Home" and general building movement in many American cities is the proposal to erect apartment houses for the exclusive use of business women.

CITY TO BUY KITSILANO BEACH FOR $235,000

After allowing an option which was secured ten years ago from the C. P. R. on the valuable Kitsilano Beach waterfront tract, to be extended from year to year during war times, the civic finance committee on Wednesday decided to accept the offer of the C. P. R. and acquire the property which the citizens have so long enjoyed the use of for the sum of $185,000 plus one-half of the interest arrears. The option on this tract was taken in 1909 at $185,000, but according to a conservative valuation placed on the property by City Assessment Commissioner Painter, the property is now worth fully double that sum. The interest on the option purchase price, however, has been piling up since 1909 and now amounts to slightly over $100,000. The C. P. R. has very generously offered to split that sum with the city, consequently the total sum which the Kitsilano Beach property will cost the city will be about $235,000.

INVITING TENDERS FOR ERECTING PILE TRESTLE

$2500 HOME PLANNED FOR SHAUGHNESSY HEIGHTS

Plans are being prepared in the office of Architect Robert M. Matheson, 508 Northwest Building, for an attractive eight-room stucco residence to be erected on Shaughnessy Heights for a prominent local business man. The new home will have every modern convenience including hot water heating system, etc., and will cost in the neighborhood of $8,500. As soon as plans are ready for the acceptance of figures notice will be given in these columns.

WESTMINSTER THEATRE TO BE REMODELLED

Architect Edwardes Sproat, 303 Duncan Bldg., is preparing plans for alterations and additions to the Royal Theatre, New Westminster.

The alterations consist of a new sloping floor and operating booth, enlargement of the seating capacity, removing floor above the present premises, new emergency exits, heating and electrical systems, and redecorating the theatre throughout.

Tenders for this work will be asked for from selected contractors in about a week.

START WORK IMMEDIATELY ON THREE NEW RESIDENCES

Work will start immediately by the Vernon Construction Co., 431 Richards St., on a $5,800 home to be erected in Magee for Mr. Henry W. Scholfield. The new home will be of Colonial design, containing 8 rooms, three fire-places, hardwood floors, hot air heating, etc.

Plans for a new 5-room bungalow to be erected on 12th Ave. West near Oak St. for Mr. Fred Delamater, to cost $3,200, are also under way and work will be started in about a week.

Construction will also start immediately on a 5-room bungalow to be erected on 10th Ave. near Crown St., Point Grey for Mr. Hewitt.

THREE BUNGALOWS PLANNED FOR KITSILANO DISTRICT

Plans for a housing scheme consisting of three modern bungalows to be erected on the corner of 18th Ave. and Stevens street, Kitsilano, are under way in the offices of architect Fred. L. Townley, 325 Homer street.

These modern homes will be erected for Mr. F. G. Evans of this city, who has appointed G. M. Champion, 4350 14th Ave. west to supervise the work of construction. Work has just been started on one of the new bungalows, and the remaining two will be started just as soon as the present one under construction is completed.

The new homes will have six rooms each, hardwood floors, built in fixtures, hot air heat etc., and will cost $3,500 each.
