ACTION, NOT WORDS, NEEDED NOW ON WAR MEMORIAL, "LEST WE FORGET."

It is high time that some definite line of action that will produce results, instead of delays and postponements, should be adopted that will provide Vancouver with a proper memorial to those of its sons who fell in the great war. So far, the tangible results of a lot of talk has only crystallized in one meeting at which a lot more talk was spilled but nothing definite in the way of action achieved. We may be nearer to the accomplishment of something tangible that we were a year ago, but if we are the average man in the street is not aware of it. Far less prosperous communities in all parts of the Dominion have already erected their monuments, auditoriums, community centres or laid out their parks to commemorate the deeds of those sleeping in foreign lands. We appreciate the fact that we have had a surplus of drives, tag days and campaigns of various sorts and the raising of a huge sum of money at this time may not be feasible and we are not convinced that it is entirely necessary, but we are sure it is time we were getting our war memorial beyond the discussion stage.

We are getting too prone to forget and to postpone. This does not apply to Vancouver more than to other Canadian cities, but as a people we are getting somewhat like the Americans—too inclined to thing of memorials in terms of dollars and cents and to believe that we should have something massive and awe inspiring. This we do not particularly need. If funds are available, or can, without detacting from the purose and sentiment of the memorial, be made available, then a more or less expensive mark of respect would not be amiss. But let us not make it a hardship financially to the extent of detracting in any way from the sentiment which must be associated with the movement.

Vancouver is fortunate in one respect, and that is having a most magnificent and centrally located site for a war memorial, which, under the terms of the grant to the city, cannot be used for any other purpose. Let us, however, not delay longer than necessary, the erection and dedication of a suitable memorial which will cause us to remember as often as possible the debt we owe to those boys for whom "taps" sounded in blood-drenched Vimy Ridge or other of the notable engagements in which they brought such imperishable honor to Canadian arms, when Canada's sons moved forward in the most glorious offensive for the good of man that the world has ever known.

Before we can give out, we must take in.

SIX FIRMS TENDER ON HULL FOR POLICE BOAT

Six local boat-building firms submitted tenders to the civic fire and police committee on Wednesday for the construction of a new hull for a police patrol boat. The specifications as prepared by Mr. T. Halliday, naval architect, call for a power boat forty feet over all, nine feet beam, and of the cabin cruiser type. In this new hull is to be placed the overhauled and rebuilt forty horse-power engine removed from the old police patrol boat. A considerable variety was shown in the figures submitted as follows:

Hoffar Motor Boat Company, $3,900; W. R. Menchions, $5,000; Vancouver Shipyard, Ltd., $6,350; Pacific Construction Company, $7,100; Seaton & Smith, $8,350; Erickson Bros., North Vancouver, $13,940. The tenders were all referred to the chairman, Ald. Owen, and City Purchasing Agent James Stuart, to tabulate and report upon.

MONEY AND HAPPINESS

Never at any time has the "almighty dollar" held so little purchasing power as now, and never has the race for riches been such a hot one. "Get money honestly if you can; but by all means, get money," seems to be the new adaption of the old saying. The whole world is running a race for riches, while with all his swollen earnings, the average man has more difficulty than ever in making ends meet.

to as the Regal. It is being erected for the B. C. Paramount Theatres, Ltd. and is to be called "The Paramount."

The decorative effects on the interior of this ultra-modern and palatial theatre are expected to surpass anything in that line in the west, according to the announcement of Messrs Townley & Matheson, who have been appointed supervising architects to carry out the plans as originally prepared by Architect Thos. Lamb of Toronto, who designed this as well as a number of other large eastern theatres of the Canadian Famous Players-Lasky chain, of which the new Paramount will complete the last western link for the showing of feature films produced by this corporation. The distinguishing feature of the new playhouse will be an especially striking and handsome doomed ceiling executed with a large amount of decorative plaster and set off by beautiful lighting effects. A large number of decorative and ornamental plaster panels will be used on the walls, and altogether the plastering contract will be an important one and its award to these local experts indicates the class of workmanship available here.

PLAN TEN COSY HOMES IN SOUTH VANCOUVER

With the object of helping to relieve the present acute housing shortage and at the same time provide a number of moderate priced homes for workingmen, Architect J. H. Bowman, 716 Yorkshire building, has been commissioned by a prominent Vancouver business man to prepare the plans for ten cosy 5-room semi-bungalows to be erected on an excellent location already selected in South Vancouver.

Mr. Bowman is now working on the scheme and it is intended as soon as the first set of plans are complete, to build a model home with all modern conveniences to cost in the neighborhood of $3,000, as a sort of demonstration house, after which orders will be sought for the erection of the other nine comprised in the building scheme. Each house will have five rooms on the ground floor, comprising living room, hall, bedroom, kitchen, pantry and full basement, while there will be two bedrooms and a bathroom upstairs. The houses will all be 27 by 28 in size, but the interior arrangements and exterior design will be capable of considerable variation.
