THE RICH PROVIDENCE

Twenty Tons of Ore Net $4,400

THE VALUES ARE IMPROVING

Splendid Showing Made by This Wonderful Mine

The repetition of even good news may become tiresome. The wonderful results from the Providence mine is becoming an old story to the Boundary Creek Times readers. But the Providence mine persists in furnishing no other kinds of news and the shareholders in the company accept their dividends and are glad that the story does not vary. The ore bodies are stronger, the values better and the general outlook for this wonderful property becomes more and more encouraging. This week returns were received from the Trail smelter for a carload of 20 tons recently sent there To be more accurate the car contained 40,104 pounds of ore and the net proceeds were $4403.89 or over $220 to the ton. The assay shows the following values, gold 2.44 ounces, silver 327.80 ounces and lead 7.60 per cent. This was one of the best cars sent from the mine and more equally good will follow. This week 55 tons of second class ore was sent from the Providence to the B. C. Copper company's smelter.

Superannuated.

Mr. Justice Walkem has retired from the supreme court bench. Under the new act supreme court judges who have served the time limit or who have become incapacitated may retire on full pay. It is stated that Mr. Justice Drake whose health has been poor for some time will also retire.

Socialist Labor Party

C. A. Weitzel, secretary of the Socialist Labor party of Canada, writes to the Vancouver Independent that the candidates of the so-called Socialist party of British Columbia in the recent elections are not in any way identified with the Socialist Labor party of Canada; that they are would-be imitators of the Socialist Labor party, and simply take the name of Socialists to confuse and mislead the working class. By assuming the name Socialist party of British Columbia they prove themselves to be the outcome of purely local conditions, and consequently must have purely local aims, while the Socialist Labor party is the sole international political organization that intrepidly and uncompromisingly faces the foe of the working class, and works solely in the interests of that class.

News of the Week in the Boundary and Elsewhere

The Mayflower, a short distance east by Anaconda, has been bonded.

Rossland Camp's tonnage last week was 9,640, Boundary's was 17,523.

The compressor at the Winnipeg mine will be in operation the early part of the week.

J. H. Tonkin has severed his connection with the Crow's Nest Coal company as manager.

Both furnaces at the Boundary Falls smelter are running full blast. The third furnace will soon be in readiness to be set up.

The owners of the Sally mine at Beaverdell have four men at work and as soon as snow comes will rawhide ore to the wagon road, and from there haul on sleighs to the smelters.

C. A. Phillips has bonded the Helen claim, adjoining town, and put men to work Wednesday. Six years ago high grade ore was shipped from this property and considerable work has been done since. The Helen belongs to the Helen Gold Mining Company.

GROWING TIME

Canada Under Liberal Rule Rapidly Forged Ahead

Hon. W. S. Fielding, minister of finance, in the house of commons on October 22 spoke on the growing time of Canada under Liberal rule. Following is an extract from his speech:

The Canada of 1896 was vastly different from the Canada of today. The population of the Canada of that day was 5,086,061. We have not the exact population of today, we have to take it approximately, but a proper approximate statement is 5,528,847 The increase in population is not so great as we would like, but in that respect we are making up for lost time, and the population is likely to increase much more rapidly than formerly.

In 1896 we received 16,833 immigrants. In 1903 we received 128,364.

In 1896 we had a revenue on consolidated fund of $36,618,590. In 1903 that revenue amounted to $66,034,108.

In the year 1896, there were sales of public lands in Manitoba, the Northwest Territories and British Columbia to the amount of $93,303. In 1903 the sale of these lands represented $313,960.

The total imports in the year 1896 were $118,011,508. In 1903 under the great progress and prosperity of the country, at a time when our factories were busy and our people employed as never before in the history of the Dominion, the purchasing power of the people had so increased that they consumed all these things and increased their imports from $118,011,508 to $241,214,961.

The total exports in 1896 were $121,013,852, and in 1903 they amounted to $225,849,724. Our exports of home test of the prosperity and the activity of our people, amounted in 1896 to $109,915,337, and in 1903 they increased to $214,401,674.

Our exports of products of the farm and animals and their products in 1896 amounted to $55,378,407, and in 1903 they were $114,441,863.

They take the article of manufacture, the very industry that hon. gentlemen opposite have tried to make themselves the special patrons of, which they claim the particular credit of nursing, and nourishing, in 1896 our exports of manufactured products amounted to $10,222,877, and last year they amounted to $20,624,967.

The total trade of this country, which in 1896 was only $239,025,360, increased last year to $467,064,685.

A Booze Monopoly

The owners of the Coleman townsite according to report are endeavoring to grant L. A. Manly and Anderson of Grand Forks a monopoly of the whisky business in that new town. The Fernie Free Press is responsibllle for the statement that Thomas Hardy, formerly of Greenwood and Phoenix, recently purchased several lots in the new townsite and paid good Canadian coin for the same. The company wishes him to accept a deed restricting the sale of liquor on the said lots, but Thomas Hardy is not in the habit of accepting restrictions of any kind; so he is going ahead with the erection of a large two-story hotel and expects to get a license. The result of the fight will be watched with interest, as it is rather extraordinary to grant exclusive privileges to the favored few at this late date.

J. P. GRAVES TALKS

Granby Mines Now Equipped to Handle 5000 Tons Daily.

Jay P. Graves, general manager of the Granby Consolidated Mining & Smelting company, after an inspection of the smelter at Grand Forks and the the mines at Phoenix, in an interview, had this to say respecting the enlargement of the reduction plant:

"The directors have decided to run the smelter at least six months with its present equipment of six furnaces in order to demonstrate our ability to successfully produce and treat a tonnage of 2100 tons daily, and to secure sufficient labor and coke as well as to test the ability of the railway to handle the tonnage involved. If those conditions all work out in practice the question of making a further addition to the smelter will be determined. Every time we have increased our tonnage we have found that some of the factors has been lacking and it has in each instance usually taken from three to six months before things run smoothly. This time we will make a crucial test before elaborating our plans for further expansion of our operations.

"The ultimate aim of the Granby is to treat all the tonnage our group of mines can produce These mines are now equipped to handle 5,000 tons of ore daily, and, of course, we expect to treat that amount of tonnage at Grand Forks some day, whether one year or three years hence. The policy of the board is to pay a portion of the earnings in dividends instead of putting everything into equipment as has been done in the past. This is what we expect to do soon, as the present plant of six furnaces goes into operation and is in smooth running order.

"The directors are also of opinion they will pay a dividend of not less than 4 per cent per annum payable quarterly, I mean a four per cent dividend on shares of the par value of $10 each, or 10 per cent on the selling of the Granby stock, which is at present quoted at $4 per share."

Board of Trade

At the meeting of the board of trade held on Wednesday, President Ehrlich presided. The committee appointed to inquire into the feasibility of erecting a combined curling and skating rink reported that owing to the lateness of the season the committee recommended that no further action be taken. The report was adopted. George R. Naden, J. P. Myers-Gray and Duncan Ross were appointed delegates to the Associated boards of trade whose annual meeting is to be held in Rossland on December 2. The board decided to bring before the Associated boards a resolution urging the appointment of a resident supreme court judge, and Messrs. Whiteside and Brown were appointed a committee to draft the resolutiod.

To Work the Moreen

Harry Shallenberger intends developing the Moreen this winter. The Moreen is located in South Deadwood camp and adjoins the Buckhorn on the south. It has the Buckhorn lead. The ore contains good copper values, in fact the Buckhorn and adjoining claims carry the highest copper values in Deadwood camp. The ledge on the Moreen is fully 60 feet wide. Mr. Shallenberger recently built a wagon road to the Moreen. He has hauled 300 feet of steel rails and an ore car to the property and will put men to work immediately.

Orders for cut flowers of all kinds received at Munroe's.

SECURED EXTENSION

Owners of Defiance Giving Mr. Fowler More Time

TO DEVELOP THE PROPERTY

One of the High Grade Mines of Providence Camp

Geo. F. Steele of Palouse who with Hal Cole of Spokane own the Defiance mine in Providence camp was in the city this week and arranged for an extension of the lease and bond held by Wm. Fowler. During the summer Mr. Fowler did considerable work on the property with most enccouraging results but water gave him considerable trouble. Before further work can be satisfactorily carried on a pump mustbe installed, hence the desirability of extending the lease and bond. Mr. Fowler is well satisfied with the reasonableness of the owners in granting the extension. He leaves next week for his old home in Scotland, where he will spend the Christmas holidays. He intends returning early in the New Year when a plant will be installed at the Defiance and work resumed. The Defiance is one of the earliest location in this high grade camp. Its ore contains remarkably high gold values and the vein though narrow is well defined. There is no more successful developer of high grade properties in the country than Mr. Fowler and with a claim of such promise as the Defiance, it is reasonably certain that he will add it to the list of dividend payers.

Millionaires Coming

Harry Payne Whitney, the multi-millionaire horse-racer, owner of the fastest stables of running stock in the world, and son-in-law of Cornelius Vanderbilt, in company with Dan Guggenheim, will shortly visit British Columbia. Mr. Whitney has interests in the Boundary and will visit Greenwood.

That Desolate Waste

A geography that was published only 35 years ago included the following bit of information: "It is generally supposed that the climate of the Northwest Territories is so severe that the country must forever remain a desolate waste." Last year "this desolate waste" produced 65,000,000 bushels of wheat, 157,000,000 bushels of oats and 35,000,000 bushels of barley, taxing to their utmost the resources of the railways in moving the crop. What will the next 35 years bring forth?

The Poor C. P. R.

The C. P. R. is laying off 5000 men on their lines between the Pacific and Atlantic slopes. This is not caused by the recent expenditure of building a roof over the platform at Boundary Falls. Var Horne says: "It is the policy of retrenchment as already adopted by some of the American railroads. It is not due to any lack of business."

VANCOUVER'S DUTY

The eyes of the province are on Vancouver. That city now has two of the most important offices in the provincial cabinet. The temptation to take a selfish view of the situation and return Hon. Charles Wilson is strong, but from every point of view Vancouver will ultimately lose by pursuing a selfish course.

In the past the electors of Vancouver have always opposed governments that were not in the interests of the province and the return of Mr. Wilson now will tend to convince the rest of the province that the independent electors of Vancouver have been bribed by two cabinet positions. This news will be strengthened by the fact that the Province newspaper, a purely corporation sheet, while proclaiming its loyalty to the Liberal party, urges the re-election of Mr. Wilson. Those desirous of securing good government for British Columbia should feel grateful that the Province has decided to support Mr. Wilson, because its support should ensure defeat.

In supporting Mr. Wilson the electors of Vancouver are assuming responsibility for the acts of the McBride administration. They are condoning the Fernie outrage and Mr. McBride's cowardly conduct in connection with the Houston incident. They are endorsing a government whose attorney-general interferes in an honest effort to redress a grievous wrong to the electors of an important constituency and whose leader endeavors to shift responsibility on the venerable lieutenant governor because he himself had not the courage to play the man. They are making an effort to perpetuate a government that does not command respect at home nor confidence abroad, and is so lamentably weak that a powerful financial institution like the Canadian Bank of Commerce refuses to give it credit notwithstanding the almost illimitable natural assets of the province, and they are prolonging the day when the province can have sound, sensible, progressive government under the able leadership of J. A. Macdonald.

Vancouver now has the opportunity. The eyes of the province are upon it.

MORE MEN.

According to such a renowned authority as Sir William Van Horne railway officials are prone to indigestion and when so afflicted they do some very remarkable things. Recently an order was issued discharging a large number of men. Men are usually discharged because there is no work for them to do. But this order was evidently the work of some dyspeptic official in the effete east who knows nothing of the volume of business waiting for the C. P. R. railway. From Manitoba, the Northwest, through the Crow's Nest and the Boundary there is a cry for more cars, more men and more expedition in handling freight. The coal mines' bunkers are loaded up and there is nowhere to keep coal and coke because the C. P. R. is unable or unwilling to take it away. Mr. Graves is afraid to enlarge the Granby smelter because there is no assurance that the C. P. R. can handle the additional ore from the mines or additional fuel from the coal mines.

What the C. P. R. really needs is more men, more engines, more cars, more energy, and more consideration for those who by their efforts are doing much to develop the natural resources of this great country.

Speaking of Hon. Charles Wilson's re-election in Vancouver the Rossland Miner (Conservative) very truly remarks: "Mr. Wilson's defeat would immediately necessitate another general election, which is the very best thing that could happen, because it is now a foregone conclusion that Mr. Macdonald would carry the country by a sweeping majority and thereby give the people the honest and stable government which they so earnestly desire."

The Tories got busy last week and filed three additional protests, including one against J. R. Brown, M. P. P. The usual charges are made. The others are against Dr. King, Cranbrook, and H. S. Tanner, Saanich. These make ten protests in all. Three were filed by the Liberals and seven by Conservatives.

Rev. J. R. Robertson will conduct morning and evening services in Knox church next Sunday. Subject for evening sermon: "Is the young man safe?"—Grand Forks Sun. No, young man McBride is not safe, not even with the support of John Houston and the two Socialist and labor man.

Here is what the president (John Houston) of the Provincial Conservative association says of British Columbia's handsome premier: "I had discovered he was not above deliberate lying, and I don't believe the people of British Columbia want a liar for a premier."

Captain J. Duff Stuart has been selected by the Liberals to oppose Attorney-General Wilson in the bye-election on November 18 in Vancouver. Captain Stuart was a member of this year's Bisley team, and is one of the most popular men in Vancouver.

The wages of conductors on the Intercolonial railway have been increased 50 cents a day, and trainmen 40 cents. Notwithstanding the wage increase, the general improvement of rolling stock, etc., the Intercolonial is now a good paying asset.

The Laurier government will have another big surplus, as the revenue for the first four months of the financial year is $2,046,000 over same period of last year. The growing time is still with us.

A bye-election takes place in Vancouver next week. This week the provincial mine inspector was instructed to prosecute Dunsmuir for employing Chinese in his mines.

The last official act of Provincial Secretary Goodeve was to turn down Rossland's application for school assistance. Goodeve got even on Rossland for turning him down.

Much time, money and worry would be saved if the returning officer in Vancouver would declare Charles Wilson elected without waiting for election day.

The McBride government has been eating crow so long that the supply is exhausted. A bonus of five cents a head is now offered for dead ones.

Captain J. Duff Stuart is going to take a shot at the Jim Crow government. The Bisleyian will probably earn the bounty.

Potatoes are 15 cents a pound a Dawson. This is a hard blow to the Irish.

Be a booster. Anybody can be a kicker—even a mule.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. NELSON'S QUO VADIS

Talented Canadian Actor and His Company

PLEASE A LARGE AUDIENCE

Auditorium Was Packed to Hear Strong Company in Strong Play

Made in Canada. A talented Canadian supported by talented Canadians has demonstrated that Canadians can excel in drama as well as in the more material pursuits of life. Canada might well be proud of Harold Nelson and Harold Nelson is doubtless proud of the company supporting him. With the broadmindedness of the true patriot the star has chosen a play which gives him no opportunity to show his own superior talents at the expense of the other members of his company. Quo Vadis is not a one man play. It demands a full complement of strong actors. From Marcus Vinicius to Chilo, the drunken philosopher, the Harold Nelson company meets every demand. It is a well balanced company, every member thereof playing his or her part.

Greenwood is not slow to appreciate merit when the opportunity presents itself The Auditorium was filled on Monday night. Harold Nelson won his laurels last year so far as Greenwood was concerned, and Monday night's audience was a compliment to the talented young Canadian. They left the Auditorium strengthened in their good opinion of Harold Nelson and with warm spots in their hearts for the other members of his company.

Sienkiewicz's splendid descriptive tale of the early Christians suffers none in the dramatization; Vinicius' graphic description of the Roman cruelties, Peter's thrilling words to the persecuted, the awful anguish of the Mamertine prison, and Petronius' suave yet scathing comments still remain.

Harold Nelson has genius. He is a conscientious actor. He is good looking and has a good figure. He has also the impetuosity of youth. What more could be desired in the protrayal of Marcus Vinicius, the impetuous Roman soldier, fired with love for the beautiful Lygia? There was nothing lacking, nothing to be desired in his interpretation of the hero of Quo Vadis, But in our opinion Marcus is not the strongest character in the play. Petronious, that courtly, cynical man of the world, yet withal a man with a great big heart and true as steel to his friends, compels admiration and respect. A selfish star, anxious for nothing but his own popularity, would not be enthusiastic about having Clifford Bruce in his company, but the conscientious actor desirous of giving a performance, perfect in all its parts, must find in him a never failing strength.

Fred Roland plays a vain, egotistical, cruel Nero, who pleases the audience, affording a relief from the more solemn parts of the play, but surely Nero is not as bad as he is painted. His cruelty is not quite so heinous as his singing. For the sake of his courtiers there should be some shadow of an excuse for their fulsome praise of his musical talents. The Nero of the final act, however, was capitally done.

Arthur Cyril, the commander of the guards; Bryce Desmond, the Greek philosopher, and William Blake, the muscular Ursus, are all capable actors

Actors to some extent are born not made. Miss Florence McLeay comes from a noted theatrical family. Her brother was one of the few Canadians who made a name on the stage. If Lygia of the story was as sweet and winsome as she, Marcus could not be blamed for falling in love with her. Miss Kathryn Stuart was an equally lovable Eunice, while Miss Edith Hart as Pomponia made her audience desire more for her to do.

Poppaea, wife of Nero, was a smonpure she-devil, and whether complimentary or not Miss Helene Scott looked and played the part to perfection. One wonders how one possessing such a glorious voice which was heard in the hymn of the Christians, could play so well the cruel, crafty wife of Nero.

Harold Nelson is the oasis in the desert of histrionic mediocrity which is Greenwood's portion on account of its remoteness from the regular theatrical route. It is unfortunate that arrangements were not made for a two night engagement here, but it is hoped that as he acquires more fame and incidentally filthy lucre, he will not forget his enthusiastic patrons in the boundless Boundary.

Wakeful Children.

For a long time the two year child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 59 N. Tenth St., Harriburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by J. L White and A. F. Thomas Midway.
