MCKENZIE AND MANN

Are Coming With Mr. Greenshields to Introduce New Process--The Lack of Smelter Capacity--Oro Denoro to be Worked--Progress at the Various Mines.

A eastern dispatch says that J. N. Greenshields, K. C. and D. D. Mann of McKenzie and Mann have left Montreal on their way to this province. The dispatch adds that they are interested with a syndicate of Pittsburg capitalists, in the new process of smelting the products of the gold mines in British Columbia and that possibly further negotiations with the B. C. government will take place in reference to the Canadian Northern railway as Hon. Mr. Wells who is in the east was with them for several days.

The new process to which reference is made is undoubtedly the Garreston furnace one of which is installed at the Crofton smelter on Vancouver Island. The furnace is in charge of H. C. Bellinger one of the most successful smelter men in ths northwest, but from reports which come from there, he is having trouble. Several changes have been made since the smelter was blown in and Mr. Bellinger is hopeful that he will be able to demonstrate that the Garreston process is practicable and profitable.

The claims made for the Garreston process are that by it the sulphur and iron in the ore is used to generate heat and the cost of a converting plant is done away with, making the cost of the Garreston process simply one-fourth the cost of ordinary smelting.

It is presumed that the properties Mr. Mann particularly wishes to develop are those of the Dominion Copper company which include the Brooklyn and Stemwinder at Phoenix and the Emma in Summit camp. Mr. Mann and his associates are the principal shareholders in the Dominion Copper company. Jas. Breen has a big block of stock in the Dominion Copper company and he is also associated with Mr. Bellinger in the Crofton venture.

That work would be resumed on the Dominion Copper company's properties have been mooted for some time. The properties have been developed to to such an extent that a smelter for the treatment of the ores is likely to secured before further work is done.

The company will likely do one of two things, either go in with the Montreal and Boston Copper company in enlarging the Boundary Falls smelter or erect a large smelter at Boundary city about one mile above Greenwood. Mr. Greenshields who is a director of the Montreal and Boston is also one of McKenzie and Mann's solicitors.

In any event the visit of Messrs. Greenshields and Mann will likely lead to something definite in so far as the Dominion Copper company is concerned.

Speaking of smelters, it is rather interesting to note what this district now needs more than anything else is more smelters. Less than three years ago smelter men looked wise and asked for tonnage before venturing to build smelters in the Boundary; to-day, mine owners are searching for market for their ore and cannot find it. All the smelters are running full blast and they cannot meet the output of the mines; in fact if the smelter capacity were doubled there would be more than sufficient ore to keep them running. Of couse it takes time to install a big smelting plant, but it is usually the case that smelters have their purchasers out hunting for ore. There are several big properties that are lying idle because they have been developed to such a stage that further work without treatment for the ores would not be profitable.

W. T. Smith and Geo. H. Collins have bonded the Oro Denoro in Summit camp and intend shipping ore from the property as soon as arrangements for treating the same can be made. The Oro Denoro is owned by the King Mining Company. Considerable work has been done on the property and a small power plant is installed thereon. The property is situated near the Emma and contains ledges of high grade copper ore. A force of men will be started on the property in a few days.

Miss Flesher has returned from Fairview where she nursed the sufferers from the Fairview fire. The more seriously injured were removed to the Vernon hospital. Dr. Schon remains at Fairview for some time to look after Dr White's practice while the latter is taking a vacation.

Towgood--Flewelling

A pretty wedding took place at St. John's church Phoenix, Tuesday morning at ten o'clock the high contracting parties being Mr. Sartees, James Towgood, a prominent Sandon business man and Miss Stella St. Clair Flewelling daughter of Rev. E. P. Flewelling rector of St. John's church. The pleasing ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Robins of Greenwood. The bridesmaids were Miss Flewelling and Miss Ray Flewelling sisters of the bride, while Mr. C. E, Merrit supported the groom. The church was suitably decorated for the occasion. There was a large number present including the choir of St. Jude,s church, Greenwood, and several friends from this city. After the marriage ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the rectory after which the usual toasts were given and the happy couple wished a long life of happiness and prosperity.

The bride was the recipient of many presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Towgood drove down to Greenwood to take the afternoon train outward. The honeymoon will be spent in Spokane and the coast cities after which the happy couple will take up their residence at Sandon.

Rev. W. A. Robins M. A. returned on Tuesday last after spending an enjoyable vacation in England. He received a cordial welcome from his congregation who gathered at St. Jude's church on Tuesday evening for the purpose of showing their pleasure at seeing their pastor home again.

This Friday evening the Socialists hold a public meeting in the city hall which will be addressed by Rev. Ralph W. Trotter.

Noah Lecasse of Molson Wash. and Miss Verdie Verginius of Port Townsend were married at the Roman Catholic church, Greenwood on Tuesday last by Rev. Father Bedard.

Dr. Matheson will be at his Phoenix office Nov. 10 to 14th.

Aftermath of the Fire.

Additional Particulars Regarding the Fairview Fire.

The following additional particulars of the Fai rview fire are taken from the Vernon News:

Dr. O. Morris, coroner for the district held an inquest regarding the deaths of Mr. Mathias and Miss Smith, the following jury being empannelled, W. Cornwallis-Bate, C. E. Oliver, D. Carmichael, G. H. Sproule, S. Mangott and F. W. Swinburn. Several witness were examined, but nothing additional was brought to light. The following verdict was reached by the jury: "We find that Philip Mathias and Louisa Smith came to their deaths on the 22nd day of October, 1902, at the Hotel Fairview, from burning; the former in the attempt to save his wife and child, and the latter in endeavouring to escape. We wish to suggest that the government empower the License Inspector to see that proper fire escapes are provided and ropes for each room in hotels."

Another incident that should not pass unrecorded, as showing qualities in a Chinaman that would shame no man of any race is this: The head cook of the hotel who had escaped down the pipe, when he saw Miss Hunt lying on the ground without covering, climbed back on the pipe until he gained entrance to a bed room window from which he threw down blankets and other covering. He did not even speak of this thoughtful and courageous action until an inquiry as to how the blankets came to be saved elicited these facts so much to his credit.

On Sunday the funeral of Miss Smith was held at Enderby, the attendance being very large, and the ceremonies being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Campbell and Rev. Mr. Roberts, Presbyterian and Methodist ministers. The pall bearers were Messrs G. Sharp, J. Pringle, W. Wood, J. Burns, F. Wellman and G. Mohr. The most sincere sympathy was expressed on all sides for the bereaved relatives in their terrible afflication, and the community mourns with them over their great loss.

New Recorder.

In this issue is published a notice from the provincial secretary's office that George Cunningham has been appointed mining recorder. The appointment has been made in answer to representations from the Board of Trade and other sources. It was felt that if government agent McMynn were relieved of some of his multiferious offices that he would have more time to attend to outside work. Mr. Cunningham has been acting recorder for some time past. He has already demonstrated his fitness for the position and the appointment will be a popular one.

The city plumber has received a number of applicants for water as soon as the new main is completed on Long Lake street, Kimberley street and church street. Make your application now and save money.

CONTRACT AWARDED

To Smith Bros., For the Greenwood Court House--Work to be Commenced Immediately--Building is a Handsome Structure-Contract Within Appropriation.

A dispatch to the Boundary Creek Times from Victoria states that Smith Bros., of this city have secured the contract for the Greenwood court house. The tender of the successful contractors was within the appropriation and work will be commenced immediately.

The plans prepared by Geo. D. Curtis, architect, outline an unusually handsome structure which will be erected at the corner of Government and Deadwood streets. The building will be a frame with a stone foundation and stone columns. The basement will contain the furnaces, cells and lavorties. On the ground floor, a wide hall runs from the entrance to the rear of the building. To the left is the large public office of the gold commissioner and a private office for the same official at the rear. On the right of the hall is the registrar's public and private office and the office of the sheriff.

The first floor will contain one large court room with a ceiling 24 feet in height and a gallery for the public. There are also rooms for the judges, juries, witnesses and barristers. The exterior and interior is to be furnished with the best material, dry coast cedar being used largely in the interior finishing.

The excavation and stone work will be finished as early as possible but as severe weather can be expected in December it is reasonable to suppose that the building cannot be completed until after winter breaks up.

A Deserved Promotion.

This week A. W. Strickland, accountant in the Bank of Montreal, received notice of his promotion to the Rossland branch where he will occupy a similar position. Mr. Brown the Rossland accountant goes to the Northwest as manager of a branch to be opened in one of the growing towns there and the assistant accountant at Rossland will take Mr. Strickland's position here.

Mr. Strickland has been accountant here since the branch was opened over four years ago. The many friends which he made during his residence here will rejoice at his well deserved promotion but sincerely regret his departure from the city. Mr. Strickland leaves for Rossland early next week and Mrs. Strickland will join him later.

Curling and Skating.

Greenwood will have two ice rinks this winter. The Curling Club has arranged with T. B. Winnett for the erection of a rink, work on which has already been begun. The building will be erected above the Auditorium on the opposite side of Boundary Creek. It will be ready before December 1st. Curling is going to be the popular pastime this winter and secretary Humphrey of the club is receiving many new applications for membership. All those who wish to join should hand their names in before the end of the month.

The Citizens' Band is arranging to lease the old ice rink for the winter. If arrangements can be made they will give a series band concerts there which will be an attraction.

Was Adjourned

Hearing of the Dase Against John Manly Again Deferred.

GRAND FORKS, B. C., Nov. 5—The preliminary hearing of the case against John A. Manly, alleged to have had some connection with the burning of the Columbia Hotel at Columbia three years ago, came up this afternoon before Magistrates McGregor and Henderson. Considerable time was taken up in a argument as to whether Mr. Henderson had a right to sit. Mr. McGregor, the other magistrate, contending that he alone had the right to conduct the enquiry. Affidavits were read on behalf of the accused stating that McGregor had made statements to the deponents long prior to the proceeding, to the effect that he believed Manly to be guilty, and implying his intention of administering summary justice if the occasion ever presented itself. The affidavits were followed up by strong arguments that McGregor was prejudiced and should not sit on the case.

Considerable discussion then followed between the two magistrates. McGregor contending that Henderson had no right to sit and refusing to call in any other magistrates.

Mr. Henderson mantained his right to hear the case, and the prosecuting attorney also agreed that there was no objection to Mr. Henderson sitting.

After reading of the affidavits and argument by counsel Mr. McGregor came to the conclusion that he had better withdraw. This he accordingly did.

By agreement between counsel the hearing was fixed to take place before Justice Williams of Phoenix on the 13th inst. at Columbia, counsel for the prosecution agreeing that unless he could produce further evidence than he now has the case would be withdrawn by the crown when it next came up for hearing.

A. M. Whiteside of Greenwood appeared for the prosecution, E. P. Davies, K. C., of Vancouver, Ernest Miller end A. C. Sutton of Grand Forks for the defense.

A special to the Victoria Times says that Hon. W. C. Wells, chief commissioner of lands and works, who is now in that city, states that Mackenzie & Mann, accompanied by J. N. Greenshields, will reach Victoria on Sunday, and will ask the provincial government for a modification of the subsidy act of last sesion with regard to the British Columbia end of the Canada Northern, and will ask for an increase in the proposed subsidy.

R. A. C. McNally who represented the James Cooper Manufacturing Co. in this province with headquarters at Rossland, has been promoted to an important position in the head office in Montreal and will leave for there in a few days. He will be succeeded by W. Morton who has been Mr. McNally's assistant in the Rossland office.

W. J. Waterman, a mining engineer of Princeton visited Greenwood this week. Mr. Waterman is consulting engineer for several coal and gold mining companies who are operating in the Similkameen district.

THE WEST FORK ROAD.

The Vernon News after publishing extracts from our open letter to the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works and endorsing the Times has this to say in reference to Mr. Ellison, the member for East Yale:

"He went further than this. He secured a personal pledge from Mr. Wells, given in the presence of another gentleman, that the work would be pushed ahead without delay. He exerted himself to the utmost to help on this work, and the Times should at least give him credit for his persistant efforts in this direction, even if political animus forces it to endeavour to discredit him because he secured needed appropriations also for this end of the district. The West Fork has no better friend in or out of the House, than the member for East Yale, and those conversant with the facts will not be misled by the sneer-tone of the remarks in the Times whenever it has occassion to refer to our representative.

We do not blame the Times for thus taking the Minister of Lands and Works to task; but the same letter from which the above is taken proceeds to cast unmerited blame upon the member in this connedtion. No man has tried harder than Mr. Ellison to get this road built. It is absurd for the Times to hint as a reason why the work is not done that too much money has been spent in this end of the district. Mr. Ellison has no control whatever over this expenditure. The matter was taken out of the hands of the road superintendent here and given over to the direction of the government officials at Greenwood. Mr. Ellison did his part when he so pressed the matter upon the government.

The Times does not wish to do Mr. Ellison an injustice. If we have said anything that unfairly reflects upon the position taken by Mr. Ellison in the West Fork road we hasten to fully and freely retract the same. No one appreciates more than we do the persistency with which Mr. Ellison goes after appropriations for his district and the success which usually attends his efforts but there were circumstances which led us to reflect on Mr. Ellison,s course. The News is in error when it says the government officials at Greenwood had anything to do with the West Fork road. The West Fork is in the East Yale district and anything that was done was under the direction of the department of Lands and Works Victoria or the road superintendent for East Yale. The East Yale appropriation was increased to 27,250 on the distinct understanding that the necessary money for the wagon road would be taken from this appropriation. Under the circumstances it was [illegible] quest the good offices of Mr. Ellison in having the chief commissioner to do something. A gentleman heavily interested in the West Fork country wired Mr. Ellison urging him to do something but got no reply. He prepaid a reply but up to the present writing the C. P. R. telegraph company are ahead that amount since Mr. Ellison has not seen fit to send a reply. We trust that the news is corr ct and that the money intended for the West Fork road will not be expended in other parts of the district. The News says that Mr. Ellison in the presence of another secured a pledge from the chief commisioner that the road would be completed without delay. Mr. Ellison was not the sole recipient of this pledge. During the present year Mr. Wells promised the delegation from the Associated Board of Trade that the road would be built without delay.

Mr. James Kerr received a similar pledge.

Mr. Robert Wood was assured that the road would be completed without delay.

Mr. Ralph Smailes was told several times that the road would be completed without delay.

And Mr. Smith Curtis M. P. P. in a letter to the writer says: You know the solemn pledge Mr. Wells gave in your presence to build the West Fork road if I would not ask for an investigated regarding the botch made

Others received similar pledges. It is now up to Mr. Wells. What has he to say?

A LIBEL IN GREENWOOD

The following despatch appeared in the Seattle Daily Times with a Vancouver date line:

"John A. Manly, formerly Mayor of Grand Forks, B. C., has been arrested on a charge of arson. There was once a bitter rivalry between the towns of Grand Forks and Columbia The chief hotel of Columbia was burnt down by men of Greenwood who wished to injure Columbia. For this crime one man went to the penitentiary for five years. Another man, Mullen, now a saloon keeper in Seattle, was held and acquitted. Ex-Mayor Manly went to the States after the fire, but on Mullen's acquittal, returned to Greenwood. He has now been arrested by the police and will be tried for the grave offense at next assizes."

We appreciate most fully that Grand Forks has more than it can bear. With Hot air lines, absconding accountants, La Mored bank managers. incendiaries and other ills that respectable towns like Greenwood are not heir to, no wonder that John is passed up to us. But surely Grand Forks will not stand for its father and founder being registered from Greenwood. We would respectfully suggest that the Gateway City keep John and give us back the Mother Lode, Sunset and other mines and various smelters which it appropriated as its own.

Seriously speaking the Seattle Times should hasten to make a correction. Men of Greenwood do not burn hotels; neither do they find it necessary to do any unlawful acts in order to preserve the supremacy of their town as the chief mining, commercial, smelting and financial centre of the Boundary district.

A WAIL FROM THE EAST

For gall, pure and undefiled, there is nothing equal to a Timothy Eaton printer. The representative of a firm who lives in Toronto, pays scab wages and wants western trade has sent the following circular:

I intend visiting your good town along about the first of November, but owing to the fact your city clerk imposes a licence upon me for doing business in your city, I will not be able to take orders from you. I mean by this that all I can do is to check up your stock and see what you require. I will, however, be able to show you samples but cannot solicit or take orders at the time of my call. You can, however, address your orders to me at Vancouver.

The printers throughout the Kootenay district are doing all they can to steal our business away from us. We therefore appeal to you for support in the matter."

It is really to bad that the Kootenay printers are so naughty. As a matter of economic fact there should be no printers in Kootenay- Consolidation is the fashion. All the printing should be done in Toronto. All the retail business should be done there as well. There is really no good reason why there should be a retail merchant in the West since Timothy Eaton can furnish everything needed and the postal service is so good. It is mistake to have small towns anyway. All business should be done direct with the departmental stores in the east. We hope that the merchants of Greenwood will note the fact that local printers are trying to steal away the business of the big Eastern houses and govern themselves accordingly. Toronto firms must be protected though the heavens should fall and Kootenay printers go bankrupt.

SHOULD HAVE A DEPARTMENT.

The present is an opportune time for pressing the claims of this province for full and complete cabinet recognition. Hon. William Templeman was selected as a member of the cabinet without portfolio to partially meet the strongly expressed views of the people of British Columbia. Now that Hon. Mr. Tarte has withdrawn from the cabinet there is no good reason why a full measure of justice should not be given this province by giving Senator Templeman one of the departments. We would like to see Hon. James Sutherland given the department of Public Works and Senator Templeman that of Marine and Fisheries. The latter position would suit the representative of this province as its fisheries are of the most important in the Dominion and Senator Templeman has the ability to satisfactorily fill the position. British Columbia is fully entitled to one of the departments and no man is more capable of taking charge of a department than Senator Templeman.

The city plumber has received a number of applicants for water as soon as the new main is completed on Long Lake street. Kimberley street and church street. Make your application now and save money.

A satisfactory test was made at the Cascade Power station this week in the presence of S. S. Fowler manager of the London & British Columbia Gold Field. It is expected that power will be turned on at the Graby smelter next week as the transformers installed at the substation in Phoenix are being removed to the smelter until such time as the Canadian General electric company can install the transformers ordered for the smelter.

J. Cuthbert Welsh formerly assayer at the Trail smelter is expected in today to take a position position with the Montreal & Boston Copper Company.

If A. Archambault calls at the Boundary Creek Times office, he can receive a pocket pass book which was found on the street and evidently belongs to him.

Socialists Meet

Eloquent Address by Rev. R. W. Trotter.

A fairly large audience was present in the city hall last evening when Ralph W. Trotter delivered an address on Socialism. The meeting was the first of a series to be held this winter under the auspices of the Greenwood Socialism club. President Lukov of the club opened the meeting and asked the audience to appoint a chairman. Rev. Dr. McRae was appointed and after an instrumental duet by Mrs. O'Mara and Geo. F. Richardson Mr. Trotter was called upon to deliver his address. In opening he said that they had doubtless heard that he had left the Baptist church.

It wasn't so, he was still a Baptist and a Baptist minister and preached in a Baptist church every Sunday and there was no church law to drive him out. He would admit however, that the Baptist Association of B. C. has given him the cold shoulder chiefly because of his socialistic utterances. He had no new message to deliver to the people of Greenwood whom he had enjoyed addressing in the past. He was a socialist for 15 years and preached Socialism for ten years. In his opinion socialism taught men how to live.

In a eloquent way he pointed to the signs of the times notably the coal strike as indications of the movement in the direction of socialism. He criticized the church for losing its grip on the people. The church no longer presented any attractions to men. He thought socialists should stir up the church, because after all Socialists taught nothing that had not been taught by the lowly Nazarene and represented nothing that the church should not represent.

In an eloquent peroration he pictured conditions under true christianity-true Socialism and resumed his seat amid loud applause.

After a brief discussion, Mr. Lukov announced that he would treat Socialism scientifically next Friday evening.

P. Burns & Co will ship 3 cars of cattle to Nelson on Monday. John is going in charge of them.

Percy F. Godenrath is organizing a company to develop the coal measures in the North Fork of the Kettle River, recently discover by Joseph Wiseman.

The king's birthday being Sunday Nov. 9th Monday following is a public holiday.

THE EDITOR'S EASY CHAIR.

The Hot Air line is dying hard. Not satisfied with the decision of the railway committee of the Privy Council, it is determined to continue its fight against the V. V. & E. in the courts. The case will come up for hearing on November 14. E. V. Bodwell, K. C., Victoria, will act for the V. V. & E., and Geo. H. Cowan for the Hot Air line. The latter claims that the V. V. & E. can secure no powers from the Privy Council that are not covered by its charter. It is difficult to say what view the court will take of the matter. Sometimes the law and the public interests do not harmonize.

Notwithstanding the numerous kicks that are registered development is rapid in the west. Five years ago court was held in Greenwood in a log cabin; this week the contract was let for the erection of a handsome court house. Five years ago, a justice of the peace was the sole arbiter in the disputes which arose in Greenwood; now a supreme court judge holds court here twice a year. Five years ago Greenwood was only a mining camp and a small one; today it is a full fledged city.

Once a month a dozen or more otherwise staid and sober men gather together for the purpose of recalling fond recollections of bonnie Scotland, cherishing Scotch sentiment and other things. It is difficult to understand why it is so easy for Scotsmen to enthuse over the little bit of barren land that forms the northern half of Great Britain, but wherever two or three Scotsmen are gathered together a St. Andrews Society is sure to be formed and the traditions, heroes, poets, statesmen—even the dew of its heather and exploited. They are a clannish lot too and only those through whose feet courses Scotch blood can enter the charmed circle. But once a year Scotsmen are at home to all tongues, kindreds, and nations of the earth. St. Andrew may be honored by all. The local Scotsmen intend to mystify the good people of Greenwood—at least those who have the courage to tackle the supper and listen to the strang language of the true Scot. Ordinary edibles will not be recognized by extraordinary titles on the caird o' the guid things for who but a Scotsman would recognize in Roastit Bubbey Jock, the everyday turkey? Then there is a fearful, awsome dish without which a St. Andrew's dinner ia never complete—the haggis. A dish which moves Scotsmen to exclaim "Great Chieftain o' the Puddin' Race served in Tam O'Shanter style. "I hae a drooth, an awful' drooth, an' water daes nae guid." They have another habit that brings pain and tribulation to the telegraph operator. As we said before they are a clannish lot and they want to be united on St. Andrew's day. Miss McQueen is Scotch and will probably bear it for Auld Lang Syne but just fancy J. C. Helem's feelings when he gets something like this from Scotsmen in New York to Scotsmen in Greenwood:

A wheen Scots at the yett hae
Haggis, some Glesca' magistrates an'
a case of Baillie Nicol Jarvie to honor
St. Andrew's Day. Here's tae ye.
May your lums aye reek.

Notwithstanding these pecularities Scotsmen are good fellows. They are none the worse citizens because they once in a while break through their natural reserve and fraternize together. Indeed there are noble inspirations in Scottish history and Scottish literature that are bound to make her sons better and braver men.

Thank God the heart of Scotland
Yet is with her valiant past,
When freedom fronted tyranny
And dared death to the last.

H. C. Killeen, superintendent of roads, streets and bridges is coming to Greenwood. He is expected here on Saturday. Mr. Wells promised us a visit from Mr. Killeen some months ago, but he came not. His coming now with several inches of beautiful snow mantling the ground cannot be profitable from a road making point of view. But Mr. Killeen is a good-fellow and he is welcome in those diggings anyway.

Angus R. Stuart is at present representing the Dominion government at the big exhibition which is being held in Cork Ireland.
