Vol. 10 GREENWOOD, B. C. FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1902. No. ~~28.~~ 25.

GROWTH OF BOUNDARY

Despite the Prevailing Reputed Business Depression the Entire Boundary is Going Ahead—Greenwood Leads.

A little over three and a half years ago the writer first came into the Boundary Creek district. He made the trip several times within a few months of his arrival between Cascade and Midway, extending it more than once as far as McKinney. He visited every town and village in the region, as well as every working mine. He thinks the risk nothing in stating his belief that in August, 1898, there were not over 1500 people in all the territory between the international line at Cascade and Camp McKinney. In the same stretch of country generally known as the Boundary and embracing several small towns there is today doubtless 6,000 people. That is to say that in the last three and a half years the population has quadrupled; and though there have have been periods since, when there was greater surface activity than now the time has never been when the actual volume of trade, that is trade begotten by the district, was as great as now. Since then many mining properties have reached the shipping point and the output of Boundary mines which at that time was practically nothing is now over 10,000 tons of ore a week.

At that time smelters were hoped for, were expected, today two smelters with phenomenal records are at work and continually enlarging and a third is nearing the point where the fires will be lighted.

Of course there isn't much wild-catting being done now and too many are apt to gauge a country by that. Our Canadian wild-catters back east used up all their energy in getting the money their friends had, when they unloaded the prospects they bought here for a few hundred or a few thousand dollars for many times their cost and still owned the majority of the stock. The men back east who bought War Eagle and Republic and Baltimore and a dozen other stocks for "fancy creamery. gilt-edge" and all that when it was the commonest kind of "ranch", have no blame to lay upon British Columbians. Their own friends did it. We out here in the hills got a very few dollars out of every hundred the promoters got. Despite the disadvantages incident to such, the Boundary and particularly the heart of it—Boundary Creek—has gone foreward by leaps and bounds. Schools, churches, business blocks, banks, mines, smelters, roads, railways, custom houses all attest these. The returns of Provincial and Dominion revenues in Greenwood for the last fiscal year will exemplify our position positively, and a comparison with that of other years will show we are holding our own.

The 1901 provincial revenue collected at Greenwood was $23,197.75 compared with $20,937.24 collected in 1901.

Like the rest of the Province moreover the Dominion revenue will show us paying much more than we are getting. The Dominion revenues were enriched in Greenwood collections in 1901 as follows:

Inland Revenue	$14 757 52
Customs Duties	$27 912 55
	$42 570 07

The business of the Post Office for the year ending June last was $73,509.-13, out of this the Dominion got $4,366.35 for stamps alone not counting commissions on money orders, etc. These facts do not argue an absence of progress but on the contrary imply the substantial character of the country's business.

The Boundary is all right, and Boundary Creek its heart is all right, and Greenwood the heart of Boundary Creek is all right too.

AMERICAN CORONATION

The Americans are to Have a Great Side-Show at King Edward's Coronation. Crystal Palace the Scene,

Simultaneously with the coronation of King Edward will be that of American enterprise in London. A great American exposition is to open in Crystal Palace in May, and the great crowd who will come to London to see the pageant of the King will see a great display of American products. The Crystal Palace managers conceived the idea of an exhibition of American products and the American society in London vigorously forwarded it. The result will be a gathering there of manufactured products that will give an adequate idea of American advance and even supremacy in many lines.

An advisory board of prominent English and American people was formed and plans laid for carrying out a display on lines creditable to the industrial forces concerned. While it might be charged as being rather unpatriotic for the Crystal Palace managers to suggest such an exhibition at such a time, no blame can attach to the Americans for embracing the greatest of opportunities for booming their products. Under the great roof of glass the representatives from the farthest corners of the great British empire, from the very ends of the earth itself, will have an opportunity to study American enterprise. Some of the millions spent by Americans in Europe every year will be returned as a result of this exhibition into the channels of American trade.

Call it mutual trade interest if you will, call it the American invasion of London if you choose, we prefer to name it a cornation of American products. The gorgeous coronation scenes of Westminster Abbey will redound to England's name no more than the American coronation in Crystal Palace will to that of the United States. A great nation has seized a great opportunity and American preeminence in many lines will be here recognized as never before.

MINING NOTES.

The Bodie mine on the reservation is shipping ore to Midway for the the Greenwood smelter.

The West Fork people are gtting pretty well discouraged. They are wondering which is the better condition poor mines and good roads, or good mines and no roads.

The corner stone of the lead refinery in connection with the Canadian smelting works at Trail has been laid.

Copper mountain, near Bolster, where several Greenwood people are interested is showing up some fine ore these days. Somebody reports ore running from 35 to 75 per cent in copper and a large body at that. Make it 3½ to 7½ per cent and that will be good enough.

In addition to the paper referred to last week, prepared by F. Keffer of the Mother Lode mine, we see that the program of the Canadian Mining Institute provides for two others on the mines of the Boundary, one by Dr. Ledoux of New York and one by R. W. Brock of the Canadian Geological survey, Ottawa.

Chinese Immigration to Get a Severe Set-Back.

Private information received from Ottawa to-day is to the effect that the majority report of the Chinese Commission, which recently investigated Oriental labor conditions in British Columbia, will recommend the increase of the per capita tax on Chinese immigrants to $500, while the minority of the commission suggest $300 as a compromise figure. The commission's report was delivered to the Secretary of State, Hon. R. W. Scott, yesterday, by the commission's secretary, Mr. F. J. Deane.—Vancouver World.

Valuable Lands.

The C. P. R. is reported as having paid $400,000 for between 300 and 400 acres of land near Montreal on which to erect their $1,500,000 shops.

The Governor's Speech.

The speech of the lieutenant-governor at the opening of parliament foreshadows legislation affecting redistribution, immigration, authority for issuance of a new loan, and construction of the Coast-Kootenay railroad.

Railway Work.

A party of Sclavonians arriving in town a few days since, and who have been working on the V. V. & E. over in Kettle River valley claim to have been sent here to await the opening of work on the Midway-Phoenix brauch and which is to take place within the next two weeks.

The Globe's Wisdom.

How well Greenwood is known down in Ontario may be judged by the following from the editorial page of the Toronto Globe. "The development of smelting in southern British Columbia is now encouraged by a combination of favorable circumstances. Although American capital and enterprise are helping to build the extensive smelters at Grand Forks and Cascade, they are both Canadian industries, employing a great force of Canadian labor, and affording a market for Canadian goods as well as for ores from Canadian mines." Who ever heard of a smelter at Cascade but the Globe editor.

Provincial Income and Expenditure.

According to the public accounts laid before the Provincial Parliament on its opening day, the expenditures for the year ending June 30th last, exceeded the income something over $800,000 or in the ratio of $3.00 expended for every $2.00 received. That means that the province with a population of say 200,000 is expending about $4.00 more per capita than it is receiving. This is startling but with so much new country clamoring for roads and trails and bridges may it not be wise to incur this debt. Progressive communities like progressive individuals may sometimes wisely mortgage the future.

WEST FORK COUNTRY

A Rich Country Standing Still Because the Government is too Poor or too Careless to Give it a Road.

There is no more promising section in British Columbia to-day than the West Fork country and there are fewer sections more absolutely at the mercy of the provincial treasury. There are many calls on the latter and doubtless the government uses its best discretion as to apportionment of its resources, but it seems very unfortunate that so rich a region should be held back for want of a road. This becomes more apparent to a Greenwood man than to any other, doubtless because so large a part of its interests are those of Greenwood men. Greenwood capital has had nerve if not foresight and unselfish often in building up its direct concerns has gone out to new fields and new enterprises with characteristic dash. Meyer's Creek and McKinney, and Similkameen all show this, but the West Fork is its most signal instance. The inability to realize anything therefrom, therefore comes most directly home to Greenwood people. Lots of rich ore is lying to day on the dumps of the Butcher Boy and Bounty and Rambler and Sally which must remain there until a good roadway connects Westbridge with Beaverdell and the Carmi.

Meantime the owners are handicapped in their work of development and their capital lies helplessly tied up. Can the government do nothing? Will it if it can? This region pours lots of money yearly into the provincial coffers. The stream would gradually swell. While governments do not exist to feed the people they certainly ought to exist to give the people a chance to be happy and prosperous.

The West Fork is being depopulated because of existing conditions and capital is not coming to its relief on account of these conditions.

Can nothing be done to remedy this state of affairs? Is it personal or departmental pique that is holding the West Fork back, or its provincial inability to provide funds? Who can furnish reply.

The Vancouver News-Advertiser says: How delightful Enid Martin sang "Angels Guard Thee" (Godard). Her lower notes are beautiful; there is a warm, rich resonance in them, most pleasing to hear, and above all qualities, I appreciate the purity of her intonation, but her high pianissimos are beyond praise—sweet and delicate. Her compass is unusually large, and she displays good style and considerable musical intelligence.

CONSOLIDATION OF SMELTING INTERESTS.

While it is confidently believed that if not already realized, the amalgamation of the interests of the B. C. Copper company and the Dominion Copper company will certainly ensue at no distant date, no official information of the same appears forthcoming. Of course the companies interested may not be so anxious for a speedy termination of negotiations as are the people of Greenwood. While amalgamations may appear fraught with advantages to both parties yet where it is a matter of bargain and arrangement, business prudence may demand delay and that delay is what the public must endure even if restive meanwhile. The amalgamation must certainly come and it were wise that it came only on correct conditions. When both parties to a bargain are anxious as in this case it must prove to be only a matter of time.

The acquirement of the Pyritic smelter by the Sunset people only whetted the appetite of our citizens however for bigger things and they are now straining their ears for the voice from the east which proclaims amalgamation a fact. It certainly looks now as if Boundary Creek, and that for all practical purposes means Greenwood, was to be the greatest mining and smelting centre in the west. When three years ago the knowing ones foresaw a second Butte here the unknowing ones were incredulous. Time works her changes however, and good things like bad both to individuals and communities appear to chase each other in rapid succession. Lots of smelters, cheap fuel and competitive railways is Greenwood's destiny.

EDITOR'S ABSENCE.

The editor of the Times has been attending the meeting of the associated Boards of Trade at Kaslo this week. As most of his work has necessarily been done at long range he hopes that any deficiencies in the appearance of this week's paper will be overlooked. The work of the convention was deemed of sufficient importance to justify his presence there as one of Greenwood's delegates.

THE SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

For Conventions	delegation
Arid lands	irrigation.
Taxation	legislation.
Fever	fumigation.
Small pox	vaccination.
Martinism	repudiation.

The winter of our discontent will soon be made glorious summer. The outlook is big with promise for those who are willing to work as well as wait. To wait patiently is not sufficient. Waiting must be supplemented by persistent, energetic effort even if the returns are trifling meanwhile.

CLAGS TO BUSINESS.

The man who keeps a larger margin at the bank will let his local bills go unpaid.

The man who is never ready when you call, and has not had time to look it up.

The man who is always complaining of no business and yet hasn't time to give an hour to a public question.

The man whose maxims of enterprise are applied to this and not to himself.

The man who wears his worry on his sleeve and keeps his little knocking hammer out.

The man who overlooks the good things at home and magnifies those of his neighbors.

The man who in reducing his expenses cuts out his home newspaper first and buys the outside ones—or reads his neighbors.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Ten Boards of Trade Represented at Associated Boards.

KASLO, Feb. 26.—The fourth annual meeting of the Associated Boards of Trade of Eastern British Columbia, met here to night with C. S. Galloway, of Greenwood, president, in the chair, the secretary, H. W. C. Jackson, of Rossland, also being present. Twenty-four delegates were seated from the following different boards: Nelson, Kaslo, Rossland, Moyie, Grand Forks, Cascade, Trail, Greenwood, Phoenix, and Fernie. The election of officers resulted in choice of G. O. Buchanan, of Kaslo, as president for the ensuing year with H. W. C. Jackson, of Rossland, secretary-treasurer re-elected.

The president in his address, referred to the great good which must result from the appointment of Senotor Templeman to a seat in the cabinet, and congratulated those whose efforts resulted in securing the granting of a bonus by the Dominion government for the refining of lead ores. His plea for "free trade" in railway construction was specially strong and he suggested the appointment of delegates to proceed to Victoria to impress upon the legislature the necessity of removing any obstructions to railway building by any persons or corporations willing to invest capital in opening new districts. He also referred to the disposal of coal bearing lands.

ACTUAL RESULTS of "savings fund" policy No. 241,490 at end of its accumulation period.

Twenty years ago, in 1882, Mr. F. W. C.—, then twenty-five years of age, assured his life in the Equitable, under Savings Fund Policy No. 241,490, for $1,000. This policy was issued on the 20-Year Endowment form, on which the annual premium was $47.68. For twenty years then Mr C — has been protected by $1,000 of assurance, and if he had died at any time his family, would at once have received $1,000. However, he has not died, and now, in 1902, he has the choice of the following options:

1.—To Receive the Endowment in cash, and also a Cash Dividend of	$1,000.00 467.25
TOTAL CASH,	$1,467.25
2.—To Convert the Cash Value into paid-up Life Assurance for Subject to Society's approval of risk.	$3,200.00
3.—To Convert the Cash Value into an Annuity for Life of	$94.20

BRIEFLETS.

—East Lynn
—In Auditorium
—Monday, March 3rd.

Have you noticed the broad smile Julius wears these days?

Housekeeper desires situation in either town or country. Apply at this office.

Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma have been reported favorably for admission into the sisterhood of States.

The Western Mining World calls our attention to the removal of its headquarters from Butte to Chicago.

Dr. Simmons and family have moved into the residence on Kimberley street, recently vacated by Andrew Laidlaw.

Mrs. J. R. Porter goes to Spokane next week for a visit with her friends, incidentally looking for a betterment of health.

Dr. MacRae has returned from the recent meeting at Nelson of the Kootenay Presbytery. He reports a good attendance and an interesting session.

Buttercups in Boundary Creek on February 23rd is the report brought in by Mr. Robert Wilson who picked several full-blown ones near the Sunset smelter on that day.

We are getting a nice line of eastern catalogues and price lists in for which we have no use. If any of our readers are not receiving these as promptly as usual they can borrow our copy.

The Grand Forks News comes to us this week in most creditable condition everyway. Its appearance reflects credit on its management and on the town that handsomely supports it.

Col. Holmes, district officer commanding will be in Greenwood, Monday next, March 3rd. A meeting will be held the evening of the same day, March 3rd to consider the formation of Mounted rifles.

And soon the alleys with a season's collection of strange bric-a-brac, running all the way from cast off shoes to worn out cats, will need somebody's attention. Spring has evidently put her foot down in the valley.

From the New Westminster Columbian: Mr. Bayliss, one of the best organists in the Province again shewed remarkable skill in handling the large organ, and we bespeak him a very successful career.

Mr. W. B. Keith the enterprising merchant of Beaverdell is in town buying goods and incidentally kicking over the condition of the West Fork road or rather trail. The kicking exceeds the buying and he is right.

Messrs. Rendell & Co., are in receipt of a letter from a business house in Vancouver in which very favorable mention is made of the "Enid Martin company," soon to appear in Greenwood. Commendation of this company appears general and spontaneous.

Mr. C. Scott Galloway and Mr. W. G. Gaunce left on Tuesday as Greenwood's delegates to the associated Boards of Grade annual meeting at Kaslo. Mr. H. C. Shaw was prevented by business engagements from taking the trip.

The commercial travellers who have been in town are loud in their praises of the Enid Martin Concert company. They say no one should miss seeing and hearing the attractive soprano, Miss Enid Martin. Her singing of "Home Sweet Home" and "Robin Adair" is soul stirring.

The opportune discovery of fire in the Naden-Flood building Sunday morning and the timely arrival of the fire department prevented what might otherwise have developed into a serious fire. The building is frame and in the heart of a frame range and once under headway would have proved troublesome.

At the regular meeting of the Greenwood Literary Society on Wednesday evening, a most interesting paper was read by Mr. A. E. Ashcroft on the Maoris of New Zealand. The ground was too large to be covered in one evening. It is the hope of many that Mr. Ashcroft will consent to give the society another talk on this remarkable race. Next Wednesday Mrs. Keffer will favour the society with a paper on "The American Illustrators."

THE WOODMEN OF AMERICA

Celebrated Washington's Birthday With a Masquerade Ball, at Chesaw.

The Modern Woodmen of America held a grand masquerade ball in honor of Washington's birthday on Friday evening Feb. twenty first and was the largest and most brilliant affair that ever took place on Myers Creek.

Representatives from Camp McKinny Rock Mountain and Midway B C and Molson, Kipling, Bodie and Waconda, Wash., totalling about 100 couples in attendance. The costumes were rare and beautiful, rendering real difficulty for the judges making impartial decision which however was done as follows Best Ladies costume Miss Graham, Midway, five dollars. Best Gent's costume Lyons, Bolster five dollars.

Mrs Barker Chesaw best all round Ladies dance, five dollars. Best Lady waltzer, Miss Myerhoff, Midway, prize perfumes from Chesaw drug store. Best Highland fling dance, Miss Day, Rook Mountain, cutlery prize from McGregor & Campbell's hardware. The well rendered music furnished by Messrs. Bressfield Bros. and Nickle brought buoyancy to every heart and elasticity to every foot that will make this event one long to be remembered by lovers of the light fantastic.
