The Fifth Annual Meeting Held In Rossland.

THE RESOLUTIONS PASSED

Dealing With Chamberlain, Lumber and Oil.

It is not the Rossland of the palmy days; but there are plenty of indications that it is still Rossland. The jovial, jolly and hospitable citizens are not as numerous as they were but there are still some of the old guard who strenuously strive to maintain the reputation of the Golden City. They are successful. No man can be taken in hand by the Rossland delegation and be amenable to their numerous suggestions without returning home fully convinced that Rossland hospitality is no mere tradition.

It is apparently a better natured Rossland than in days gone by, else why does not its people rise and denounce the transportation companies? We of the Boundary kick until we get what we want. When we wish to leave Greenwood we travel in a luxuriously furnished car supplied with all that man can desire. For five or six hours we live in a modern cafe on wheels, but after we get to Robson, Oh that awful wait! There is nothing quite so heartbreaking in modern railroading. It is the awful uncertainty. It may be one hour, it may be five. Providence and the steamer captain alone know; and both are evidently not in speaking distance judging by the remarks which are offered by weary passengers. After Robson is finally left, the C P R. train—not too clean nor comfortable, is slowly hauled over a road built by one Fritz Auguste Heinze who never took any sharper more numerous curves tnan this road possesses. When Rossland is reached sometime about midnight or later, a first class compass couldn't find its way.

It is said that a Rossland sport made a wager that the C. P. R. train would not reach Rossland on time one night during the next six months. He won the bet.

We will freely confess that we do not know much about the transportation business, but it never requires much knowledge in formulating a criticism. It should be possible, however, to give Rossland a train service that wouldn't be entirely dependent on the beat and would enable the people of the Boundary to reach there at a half decent hour.

But that is another story. This article has to do with the fifth annual meeting of the Associated Boards of Trade. Geo. R. Naden and the writer were representatives from the Boundary but when Robson was was reached Geo. O. Buchanan the sage of Kaslo and president of the affiliated Boards; John L. Retallack and Mr. Cockle, Kaslo detegates were there waiting. No man can pass Robron without waiting. East, West, North and South all must wait and pay their respects to the goddess of dilatoriness. There is an end to finite things and Rossland was reached. Next morning the Nelson delegations arrived and the convention was opened by G. O. Buchanan who read a very interesting annual address. G. O. Buchanan has a nasty habit of saying what he thinks and as he thinks a great deal he often says things that are more truthful than pleasant.

Nelson is somewhat of an English town and the Nelson delegates were quite ready to give Joe a boost by jove. His scheme (of which they apparently knew little) was all right and should be endosed by the Associated Boards. This raised the ire of George Ratcliffe Naden. English to the core but descended from one of the families who fought for free food under Cobden and Bright, he wasn't going to be stampeded now into encouraging a man who wanted to give the English working man a dearer loaf with a view to making the colonies a slaughter market for the British manufacturers.

The president also spoke. He apparently took sardonic glee in demolishing the arguments of the Josephits but notwithstanding his speech and those of others in opppsition, the Chamberlain idea, whatever it may be in detail, prevailed.

The Associated Boards of Trade without G. O. Buchanan as president would be like the play of Hamlet with the star on a holiday, so G O. Buchanan was made president for a third time. Archie McKenzie of Rossland was made secretary. Archie will have a hard job keeping the pace set by the president but his early Presbyterian training will help him.

All this happened on Wednesday. Tuesday day and night was spent in getting to Rossland and Monday night—well it was St. Andrew's night. The condition of the delegates on Wednesday night after haggis on Monday and C. P. R. on Tuesday can very well be imagined. It can be taken as a positive statement of fact that they were not in a proper frame of mind to appreciate Damon and Pythias as exemplified by Harold Nelson and his clever company. But a Rossland invitation is never refused and to the show the delegates went. Harold Nelson is always good and no more eloquent tribute could be paid to his ability than that the Scotmen had no desire to quacter him that night. Scotsmen led by the Grigor of Rossland exercised their gifts of diplomacy and they had Mr. Nelson presiding at the piano while they sang Loch Lomond and other Scottish airs. The contrast between Damon and Pythias and the singing of the Scots was marked but the latter were saved by his good natured graciousness and Harold Nelson made a few more warm friends.

There was a banquet; as it was Rossland, that statement was scascely necessary. It was 11 p. m. before the theatre was out but the hour doesn't count in Rossland; there must be a banquet. Good things to eat, bright speeches and clever songs were the bill of fare.

Mining is a curious industry in many ways. One of these curious ways was shown to the delegates. H. H. Claudet is manager for the Canadian Ore Concentrating compony. His company has erected an odd looking building about two miles out of Rossland. In the building is an ordinary concentrating plant and below this plant are six oily greasy looking tanks. These tanks and their concomitants are what is known as the Elmore Oil Process. Mr. Elmore is a genius. A man who can invent the right kind of a can to put the cheapest kind of oil in and by the combination make possible the profitable operation of low grade mines in Rosfland and other camps is a genius. The mill has been treating Le Roi No. 2 ore with marked success.

The process requires oil of a certain kind. Cheap but not procurable in Canada. There is a duty on this oil but to encourage a new industry it was thought the duty should be removed. Of course the Canadian Ore Concentrating company held this opinion and they hadn't much difficulty in convincing the Assocciated Boards that it would be a good thing for the country to have the cheapest possible oil for mining. When they asked for free minlng machinery it was a different however and the Associated Boards turned a deaf ear to this request. The discussion brought out some remarkable views from grits and tories regarding a proper tariff policy until, one delegate was moved to suggest that the Dominion government should be asked to frame a special tariff applicable to Kootenay alone.

Thursday morning the lumber men had their inning. Lumber is king in East Kootenay and there are some embryo lumber kings in Nelson. Rough lumber is admited free of duty into this country and the Forwesters sometimes buy American rough timber and sometimes American mill men bring rough timber into Canada and have it dressed on Canadian soil. The British Columbia lumber men believe in Canada for the Canadians and they want a duty on rough lumber. The Northwest farmer doesn't want the duty but the Northwest farmer doesn't send delegates to the Associated Boards and the resolution asking for the duty was passed, notwithstanding the fact that some who had no lumber mills thought the evil did not lie in the duty. Lumber sold at the mills in British Columbia for $12 costs $26 in the Northwest. The C. P. R. and the retail dealers' trust are responsible.

These were the chief matters discussed. Another shot was taken at the twoper cent tax, aid was asked for a railway up the Kootenay valley, the C. P. R. was asked to keep the Lardeau branch running all winter and the provincial mineralogist was told to waken up. The government was asked to set aside certain public lands for school purposes; a resolution was passed urging the appointment of a resident supreme court judge and Nelson was chosen as the next place of meeting. Some minor resolutions were also passed. The work af the Association was completed on Thursday night.

LIBERAL CONVENTION

To Be Held at Kamloops on Wednesday, January 13th.

In view of the probability of an early Dominion election a call has been issued for a convention to nominate a candidate in the Liberal interests in the Yale-Cariboo district. The convention will be held at Kamloops on January 13th. The provincial ridings included in the Yale-Cariboo federal district are as follows: Cariboo, Lillooet, Yale, Kamloops, Okanogan, Similkameen, Greenwood and Grand Forks. At the convention one delegate will be allowed for every fifty votes or portion thereof cast at the recent provincial elections. Delegates are to have credentials from the Liberal association having jurisdiction over the polling sub-divisions they represent, or from the chairman and secretary of a meeting of Liberals called to elect delegates where there are no Liberal associations. Proxies shall be allowed but no delegate shall be entitled to hold more than five proxies.

Under these conditions and taking the vote cast at the last provincial election into consideration, the Greenwood district is entitled to 16 delegates, as follows: City of Greenwood, 7: Midway, 2; Boundary Falls, 2; Eholt, 2; Rock Creek, 1; Deadwood, 1, and Oro Denoro 1.

A meeting of the Greenwood Liberals will be held tonight when delegates will be appointed.

For good fresh candy go to Munroe.

Wrestling Match.

In the wrestling match at Phoenix, next Tuesday night, G. C. McLaughlin of this city, and Chris Mack of Phoenix, the former has agreed to throw Mack three times in an hour. Danny Dean and Silent Rowan will fight ten rounds for a decision.

Don't miss the concert in the Auditorium next Tuesday night.

A LARGE PAY ROLL

The Monthly Pay Roll Now Reaches $40,000.

MINES AND SMELTERS

Tributary to Greenwood—Healthy Effect on Town.

The monthly pay rolls of the Greenwood smelter, Mother Lode mine, Boundary Falls smelter Sunset mine and the high grade mines surrounding Greenwood aggregate a grand total of over $40,000 a month. In October the B. C. Copper Company's pay roll alone was over $22,000 and for November its was $21,750. The pay roll at the Boundary Falls smelter is about $8000 a month.

It can be taken for granted that a district having a pay roll of such proportions has passed the speculative stege. Greenwood and the Boundary are no longer dependent on outside capital. Its prosperity more largely depupon the operation of its mines and smelters.

The effects of large and regular pay rolls in the prosperity of a city and district are hare to determine in all their ramifications. For example, the mining and smelting industries provide a profitable market for farm produce. This has led to the settlement of nearly all the available land along the Kettle River valley and on Rock Creek hill and Anarchist mountain. A wonderful improvemant has been wrought in three years in the farming settlements. Before the developmentof the mines of the mines of the Boundary but few farmers tilled their soil or made any special effort to raise produce simply because there was no market. Today it is different. The farmer has something to encourage him in making a good farm ane there are now many of them between here and Anarchist mountain. Greenwood business men appreciate the farming trade because it is large, satisfactory and continually growing. This growth is directly attributable to the fact that the mines and smelters employ a large number of men who make a market for what the farmer has to sell.

This is only one instance of how trade increases trade. Others might be mentioned. The big pay roll has had its beneficent effect on the city. To rent cards are no longer seen and in the city and its thriving suburb Anaconda all the houses excepting a few shacks are filled with happy and contented families. There is really no poverty in the district.

Of course, other camps besides these surrounding Greenwood furnish their quota of trade. What is still more encouraging, new properties are being opened up, the mines and smelters are enlarging the scope of their operations.

Greenwood has reached a new stage in its history. The prospecter was followed by the investor, the investor by the railway builder and today the producer is king. The latter is the permanent stage. Slowly but surely the city has been trying to climb to the commercial position it occupied when railway contracters were expending thousands of dollars each month in its immediate vicinity. The summit has been reached. From now on there will be no backward movement and Greenwood will surely become the largest town in the Interior.

THE LEGISLATURE.

It requlred the consideration of an important measure like the Assessment act to demonstrate that the Liberal party rendered the party a great public service in selecting good men for candidates in the recent provincial contest. Unfortunately a number of the best men went down to defeat but there were sufficient elected to prove that good government can be secured through the Liberal party. The session has also demonstrated that the Liberals made no mistake when they elected J. A. McDonald leader. He is easily the strongest man in the house today.

A Victoria dispatch says: "But Macdonald, leader of the opposition, is in a class by himself when effective committee work is to be done. In the few days in which he has been in the house he has sprung to the front with a rapidity which would scarcely be credited among those who know his native modesty and reserve. Gifted with an analytical mind, he scrutinizes each section as it comes before the committee and has pertinent inquiries of the ministers habitually set those worthies in a state of agitation which affords huge amusement to the galleries. The premier rarely measures swords with him, but the attorney-general has more temerity, if less discretion, and he is so repeatedly unhorsed that he evidently has come to regard it as part of the day's work. The administration is rapidly acquiring a reputation as weak vessels. Indecision, irresolution and ignorance of the uature and effect of the nature of their own measures are amongst the minor sins for which they have to account.

The two socialist members also are steering a course which will not strengthen them in the country. It commenced with a declaration of Hawthornthwaite that he did not care what taxes were imposed as long as they were not increased on the class of people whom he seems to think he alone represents. Then followed his vote in favor of increasing the coal prospectors' license fees, and his absence from the chamber when the proposal to exempt agricultural lands to the extent of $2500 was under consideration. It is an open secret now that the government's renunciation of its power to increase the poll tax was a direct concession to the socialists, and was probably the price of their support."

Mr. Brown the Greenwood representative, is doing effective work. His speech in the debate in reply to the speech from the throne, was well received, and he made a strong fight against increasing the license fee to $100 for coal prospectors. He dwelt on the disparity between this course and that for ordinary miners, and also mentioned that the annual rental for 640 acres was $96 less than the government proposd as a fee. Prospecting for oil was very expensive owing to the necessity of boring and he felt that the effect of the excessive license fee would be to discourage real prospectors and encourage speculators.

Hawthornthwaite, Socialist, defended the government, and Houston vigorously opposed placing an excessive tax on prospectors.

Mr. Brown also took up the matter of the West Fork road and asked the Chief Commissioner the following questions:

1. The amount of money expended on the road commonly known as the West Fork road, situate in the Greenwood Mining Division, in the Similkameen Riding, from the 15th of September, 1903, to date?

2, Under whose supervision the said money was expended?

3. Have the men employed on said West Fork road, since the 15th of September, 1903, been paid?

4. If not, why not?

The Hon. Mr. Green replied as follows:

1. $2,305.53.

2. A. Megraw.

3. Instructions were given on the 9th November last to pay the men, and it is assumed that the government agent at Fairview has carried out these instructions.

CHRISTMAS TRADE

Merchants report that the Christmas trade is much better than last year. The trade would be largely improved if citizens purchased goods at home rather than at Eaton's or Ryrie's. At this season of the year the post office department does a large business in supplying citizens all over the country with attractive looking catalogues telling of the great bargains which can be secured in Eastern departmental stores. The temptation to purchase in response to eloquent appeals made through advertising by the Eastern stores is great. Trouble is taken to convince prospective customers that they have just what is wanted at the right price. It is safe to say that any good housewife can go to a Greenwood store and get equally good goods at equal prices. The merchants themselves are to blame to some extent. They do not advertise sufficiently. They should remember that their Eastern competitor is continually advertising their wares while the local merchant occasionally takes a space to help out the local paper. This is a mistaken idea. Judicious advertising is just as important as any other phase of his business. Let Timothy Eaton or any of the other big firms who find customers all over the country discontinue advertising and their trade is gone. Let the local merchants give more attention to this important branch of their business and they will find a marked increase in their sales.

Merely taking a space is not all that is required. The advertising matter should be fresh and attractive.

Spent Over $2000 Doctoring

Mr. Joseph Pominville of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so and is a well man today. For sale by J. L. White, Greenwood, and A. F. Thomas, Midway.

Olsen Loses Go.

The Spokesman Review of Saturday last says: "John Olsen, called "The Terrible Swede," was easy money for McMillan last night in their wrestling match at Swedish Brothers hall. Olsen is big and strong, but as clumsy as a cow on ice. He secured the first fall from McMillan in nine minutes. McMillan then threw Olsen in four minutes and again in three.

The Public School

TO THE EDITOR BOUNDARY CREEK TIMES:—

Allow me space in your columns to say a few words regarding the management of the public schools of this city. It is very important that we should have the very best teachers available to advance the children in education in a satisfactory manner. To one not familiar with this important work it is difficult to conclude who is at fault if the young do not advance as they ought. Much dissatifaction was expressed at the close of last term. The teacher (pricipal) was responsible, at least the influential citizens thought so. He resigned to go into business.

It seems to me that the "influential citizens" have notions like old maids, and listen to childish gossip, packed around by shallow minded people who are ever ready to swallow the slightest morsel of ridiculous yarns manufactured by the children who have a spite against their teacher, who, may it be understood, punishes them for misbehaviour. This is evident to an observer who has had some little experience as a schoolboy. teacher, and an ordinary citizen within the last ten years.

All this "petition" business that has been signed by the influential grannies is the result of manufactured yarns by spiteful children.

It is very surprising to me that people don't know when they have a first class man as principal in their school.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both andults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. For sale by J. L, White Greenwood and A. F. Thomas Midway.

Wakeful Children.

For a long time the two year child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 59 N. Tenth St., Harriburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by J. L White and A. F. Thomas Midway.

Neat Souvenirs

Smith & McRae report a greater demand than ever for their unique line of Xmas cards, having thereon the verse given below and one of the following views:—Greenwood, Copper St, Mother Lode mine, M. & B. Copper Co's smelter, B. C. Copper Co's smelter

This time my modest muse must soar
And take a higher flight,
We're feeling now as ne'er before,
With dividends in sight.

The hills about so rich and big
No longer cause us fear,
For out of "glory holes" we'll dig
A million tons next year.

Our copper mines may sometimes run
Yet pay, at dollars four,
But gold and silver go the ton
Two hundred net and more.

And so I sing to far and near,
In language true but bold,
"Keep eye on Boundary mines next year,
Of copper, silver, gold."

INDUCTION SERVICES

Rev. M. D. McKee Permanent Pastor Presbyterian Church

On Wednesday evening last a meeting of the Presbytery of Kootenay was held in St. Columba church, Greenwood for the purpose of inducting Rev. M. D. McKee in the pastoral change of the congregation. Rev. Mr. Robertson of Grand Forks, moderator, presided. Rev. Mr. Thompson of Midway preached the sermon, Rev. Dr. Wright, Nelson, addressed the pastor and Rev. Mr. Robertson the congregation. After the ceremony, a reception was held at which the congregation welcomed Mrs. McKee who enjoys the distinction of being the first minister's wife with sufficient courage to join her husband in pastoral work in Greenwood This is largely accounted for by the fact, that the majority of clergymen who toiled in the Greenwood vineyard were not possessed of wives. The visiting clergymen returned home on Thursday. Mrs. Robertson accompanied her husband.

Next Sunday morning Rev. J. C. Herdman, superintendent of missions in the synod of B. C. will preach in St. Columba church. M. Herdman is a gifted speaker and as he cannot be here Sunday evening, there should be a large congregation to hear him Sunday morning.
