RELATING TO IMMIGRATION

Numerous items and clippings from the press have appeared in our columns in regard to the lately enacted regulations by the Dominion government in the matter of immigration, whereby it is required that all immigrants coming to our country for employment "other than farm work," or in the case of females to domestic service, that they must have in their possession at the time of landing the sum of $25 in excess of their travelling expenses or transportation to ultimate destination.

The second regulation, providing that the consent to emigrate to Canada shall be given only to those as are suited for, willing to accept, and have assured employment at farm work.

In the first instance, our first thought is that this is a hardship, when in most cases it is about all, and more, too, in many instances, to raise the needed amount for transportation alone, and few indeed are so fixed that they have sufficient to tide them along till employment offers. But when you sift out the meaning which this regulation is meant to convey, it seems very rational, as a clause is inserted not making it applicable to farm laborers, but only to those who come anticipating ordinary employment, and for these it is much to their own interests to come prepared for any emergency.

When all is calmly thought out the conclusion will be reached that it is a very wise move, and one that will decidedly prevent any future embarrassment liable to be encountered by the new comer.

THE BOY SCOUTS

Under the leadership of Scoutmaster Hargreaves, on Friday evening last, the boys had a marching out order, apparently for exercise, but in reality to make a grand sortie upon the Fortress McAllister, which, when approached so unexpectedly was unprepared to resist the attack, and there was no other recourse but to capitulate, which was done, and the enemy took possession. It only remained for the besieged to make the amende honorable and endeavor to conciliate the foe by an extensive catering to their material wants. After ice cream and many other delicacies were safely stowed away and the beligerents cooled off, games were brought into play, and were so thoroughly enjoyed by the scouts that, going as warriors, they left as captives, and as far as Mr. and Mrs. McAllister and friends are concerned no more warlike actions are likely to occur toward them from the hands of the scouts. They were actually bowled over with kindness and returned to the barracks rather fatigued (from eating) but no lives were lost.

I. O. O. F.

The Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. meet at Kamloops last week, for their annual election of grand officers. A large attendance was had and a very enjoyable gathering was the result. Wm. Fleming and Bert Logan, of Boundary Valley Lodge, were the delegates from Greenwood. Bert will continue his outing to the coast and Fleming will return to Greenwood.

BRODEUR SWORN IN

Hon. L. P. Brodeur has been sworn in, at Ottawa, as minister of naval affairs and J. G. Desbarats as deputy minister.

REVISION OF THE OATH

Opposition to the proposed change in the form of the Accession oath has reached the form of a public demonstration in London. This was shown recently, when 3,000 persons, members of the Established church assembled at Albert hall and organized a church organization which will be identified with the evangelical section of the Church of England in future.

Lord Kinnaird, who presided, denied that there was the slightest desire in the world to vex their Roman Catholic brethren, but, as he stated the matter, those who were taking the question in hand did not even dare to risk the possibility of seeing a priest-ridden monarch ascend the throne of Great Britain. They were not, he added, going to barter their liberties to the demand of John Redmond and other of the Roman Catholic members of the House of Commons who chanced to represent Ireland at this time.

As a result of the meeting a telegram was sent to King George protesting that any attempt to alter the declaration would grievously hurt the feelings of the people and endanger the hard-won liberties of the Empire of Great Britain. A resolution was also passed vehemently opposing a revision of the oath and pledging "determined resistance to every attempt to tamper with this great constitutional safeguard."

TEN YEARS AGO

(From Boundary Creek Times of June 17, 1900)

Dr. Keller, of Ymir, visited Greenwood.

Geo. A. Stuart Potts and wife left for Nelson today.

Dr. G. W. Forster leaves on a vacation to his old home in the east.

The English American circus is in town. Old boys and young boys delighted.

Wm. J. Williams, superintendent of the Graves Co., came in last night and is registered at the Armstrong.

IRON MERGER

The official announcement is made at Hamilton, Ont., of the consummation of the merger of the Montreal Rolling Mills, Canadian Bolt and Nut Co., Hamilton Steel and Iron Co. and the Canada Screw Co., under the name of the Canadian Steel Corporation with a capital of $25,000,000.

BUT LITTLE DAMAGE

The Toronto Mail and Herald states that the crop conditions in the west are most promising. The excess of rain and cool weather has retarded the growth, but very little, if any, damage has been reported. The situation is most promising all over Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

TO FIX VALUATION

L. M. Rice, of Seattle, says a Victoria dispatch, who has just returned from completing a reconnaisance survey for the British Columbia & Alaska Railway through Central British Columbia, has been appointed by the Kettle River Valley Railway Company as its valuator, to act with R. F. Green, the nominee of the provincial government, and a third commissioner upon whom these two gentlemen will agree, to estimate the amount which the Kettle River Valley lines will pay for the acquired right of way of the abandoned Midway & Vernon road, such payment being applied to the settlement of the outstanding indebtedness of the Midway & Vernon.

The valuators, with President James J. Warren, of the Kettle River Valley lines, will leave Victoria for the field of operations shortly, and it is expected that not more than three or four days will be required for inspection and investigations of the old right of way, immediately upon the completion of which contracts will be awarded and actual construction of this road assisted by a mileage grant of $5,000 from the provincial government and the established Dominion subsidy of $6,200, will begin simultaneously from Merritt and from Midway. Allowing for a maximum of possible delays the dirt will be flying and construction in progress within a fortnight.

THE FISH QUESTION

The following from the Nelson News is appropos of the fish question as it affects the Boundary district:

"On the other hand, if we establish no salmon and trout hatcheries, where are we likely to come off? The fishing is wonderfully good now, though not so good as it was at one time, or so good as it may be made. It is one of the attractions of the country, both to settlers and to visitors. But with the increase of population and with the bringing in of fishing parties to the C. P. R. hotel, something must be done to keep the fishing up to its present standard. If it falls off and the first season's tourists go back disappointed, and the next year's do likewise, what will the result be?"

For lack of business the only restaurant in Kaslo has closed its doors.

GREENWOOD'S CELEBRATION

It looks most promising for a tip top day's fun on Dominion Day, July 1st. Every effort is being made to fill in a first-class bill of fare to be enjoyed by our citizens and the many most welcome guests from our surrounding towns. Every means in the power of the committees, and all that will in any way make it a gala day, will be brought into play to have it from start to finish a straightaway run of interest and excitement. We expect the crowd here, and no effort will be spared to have it succeed, and to have them all feel that they have enjoyed the day.

Phoenix has done the graceful act by cutting out her celebration and will chip in with Greenwood, and the indications are that Grand Forks will send a large representation. A large crowd of baseball enthusiasts are coming over from Republic, Wash., to take in the sports. To all we tender our best thanks, and reciprocation will be the order from this district.

SHOTGUN CLUB

The following is the score of the meet of the Greenwood Shotgun club last Sunday:

GOLD MEDAL FOR FLIGHT

LORD SELBORNE

The ex-govenor general of South Africa may follow Earl Grey as the King's representative in Canada. This is the general opinion in London.

The rate of taxation in Penticton is fifteen mills.

APPALLING DISASTER

The Montreal Herald building was completely destroyed by flood and fire on June 13th. The supports of the sprinkler system on the roof gave way and the great mass of metal and water weighing 35 tons, went crashing down to the basement, taking with it men, women and machinery, and when all lay in a jumbled mass at the bottom fire broke out and added to its horrors. It is thought that between 20 and 30 bodies are in the debris. At the time of the disaster there were nearly 300 people in the building. What bodies have been recovered are most horribly mutilated, which makes recognition almost impossible. The insurance on the building is estimated at $300,000.

RESPONSIBLE PARTIES

A writer in McClure's attributes the rapid increase in fatal accidents to railway employees to the fact that by the aid of the courts the railway proprietors have so far been able to divest themselves of responsibility for injuries done to their servants. If they were responsible they would be more inclined to use safeguards.

ROOSEVELT'S INVITATION

It must be a source of regret to Mr. Roosevelt to know that, as far as concerns his visits, it is a case of "one bit, twice shy" with all the nations who have had the pleasure of entertaining him. It is unquestionably a source of mortification to Mr. Roosevelt's countrymen, in any event.

Sir Wilfrid has accepted the invitation of Premier McBride to be present at a public reception in the legislative building's at Victoria to be given the federal premier on the occasion of his visit to the Pacific coast.

OPEN CHURCH CONFLICT

The Toronto News of June 6 has the following:

"At last there seems likelihood of an open conflict between the Irish and French elements of the Roman Catholic church in Canada.

"This conflict has no party significance, nor does it suggest in the remotest degree any want of loyalty to the church and its doctrines.

"It is the outward manifestation of a quarrel which has been going on for years, and which at last has become so acute that it appears in the open.

"What is charged is that the French bishops, who control the church, are crowding the Irish people and their clergy into the background and practically making the church all over Canada French in spirit, in character, in clergy and in bishops.

"In Montreal a few years ago there was a very desperate conflict over the organization of a new Irish Roman Catholic parish, in which an attempt was made to plant French priests. The quarrel even went so far that threats were made by the supporters of the Irish element to make representations to the Canadian parliament during the very time that the western autonomy bills were before the house.

"In the west, as in Ontario, the conflict is in progress. Everywhere French priests are preferred before Irish, and in the schools, as in the church, French teachers are engaged where Irish speaking Catholics should be employed.

"In Ontario the dispute has gone so far that the Irish clergy are organizing to resist the demand for the teaching of French in the schools on the ground that this is only a part of a great movement to ostracise Irish-speaking Catholics and to extend the power of the French priests and bishops over the province.

"In the main the justice of the case seems to be with the Irish-Catholic element. It is loyal to the church, seeking no exceptional consideration and only asking that, where Irish people constitute the majority in parishes and dioceses, they shall have Irish clergy and Irish bishops.

SOME NOTABLE EVENTS

The past week has proved a very notable one from the many important events that have transpired, making it an exceptional one and full of happenings most worthy of note. The death of that great scholar, Goldwin Smith, of vast learning, occupying a plane entirely his own. In the national life of the country he played the part of a philosopher and has also left an indelible mark on Canadian journalism. It was his firm conviction, and he did not hesitate to declare it, that Canada was destined to merge her political life with that of the United States.

The election of Rev. A. U. D'Pensier took place to succeed the late Bishop Dart, as head of the diocese of New Westminster. A native of Carleton county, Ontario, he was recognized as an indefatigable worker in the cause of the church, and his genial personality made him a favorite and a friend everywhere.

In the death of General Butler, in London, England, Canada loses a very warm friend and admirer. His active participation in the quelling of the Fenian raid, and the Red River expedition, gained for him honorable mention and also the Canadian medals. A literary production of his, "The Great Lone Land," descriptive of the northern portions of the Dominion, over which he traveled, is a work of intense interest and of most authentic information, and was highly praised by its critics.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Sir George Newnes, the founder of the Westminster Gazette, Tid Bits, the Strand and Wide World magazines, died in London June 9th.

Mr. Roosevelt continues to be the recipient of honors, Oxford conferring the degree of Doctor of Laws upon him. The United States will seem very plain to him after all this unceasing round of excitement which he has had these months back.

Earthquakes, ship wrecks and mine disasters seem to be the daily bill of fare, and not only of late, but are continually occuring It makes one very skeptical as to the value of all our efforts to better conditions, when by an unexpected event all our plans, aims and efforts are at one fell blow knocked into a cocked hat. We require lots of the Bruce and the spider perseverance now a days to surmount our troubles and hold the fort. These events, so disastrous, appear to allow no preparation to meet, and although every precaution is made to safeguard human life, nothing apparently can prevent these terrible visitations, which makes us sigh as we chronicle them.

OUTLINES OF CURRENT EVENTS

Vernon is increasing its police force.

Rossland now has a picture theatre.

Dr. Goldwin Smith died at Toronto June 7th, at 3 p m.

A first class nursery is about to be established at Nelson.

The Rifle contest at Nelson results in Nelson retaining the cup.

A rush to the Buckley valley and Hudson Bay mountain is expected this season.

Two hundred women and children sent by the East End Emmigration fund, sailed from London, to engage in agricultural work in Canada.

Hon. W. S. Fielding and Hon. W. Patterson leave on Friday for London, to attend the Imperial West India Preferential Trade commission.

The appearance of a dirigible war balloon over London at an early hour one day last week led a number of the citizens to believe that Germany was trying to wreck the city.

Two hundred million dollars worth of construction work on railways in the United States will be cancelled as a result of the injuction secured, preventing an increase in the freight rates.

Stewart City is now after a wireless system of Telegraph, to connect with the stations on the coast, failing in this, they will stretch a wire and connect up with the Yukon service land lines.

There is a movement on at Ottawa to have Earl Grey remain in Canada another term as govenor-general. His excellency's early trip to England is believed to have something to do with the matter.

The Danish Atlantic liner United States, went ashore in Christiansand Fjord with a thousand passengers on board. The heroism of the officers and crew prevented one of the worst marine accidents in history.

Persons once rejected by an immigration officer; and who later enter Canada without official permission are subject to arrest, and on conviction, to two years imprisonment, and to be deported at the expiration of that term.

At Tiverton three Boy Scouts saw a man struggling with a woman, who was crying "He has got my purse!" The man ran away but the Scouts captured him. One Scout hurried of for a policeman who took the man into custody.

An increase in the price of meat is again imminent in London in consequence of the short supply. The situation is growing serious, and one result will probably be a more determined demand for the removal of the embargo on Canadian cattle.

The body of a well dressed man about 48 years old and weighing 166 pounds was found in Seattle in a railroad freight car, shot through the head, with a revolver lying beside him. A note written on the fyleaf of a notebood lying near the pistol read, "Don't go to any trouble about this, I've done it myself." The man had been dead several days. In his pocket was the return stub of a Bellingham excursion ticket. His handkerchief was embroidered with the initial "R."

A 60-ton concentrator is to be erected by the Aurora Mining and Milling Co. on their property on the west side of Moyie lake.

On the Molly Gibson property, Burnt Basin, a new strike of ore has been made in a shoot about three feet wide. Five assays show retusns of $24 to the ton.

It is estimated that $15,000 persons will leave Seattle for Nome and St. Michael's on the early sailings, being drawn north by the reports of rich gold discoveries in the Idatarod gold fields.

At Stewart, B. C., a party of prospectors came across an old mine hidden and forgotten in a desolate region. The property is reported fabulously rich in free gold. The finders, Harry Rogers and his companion, searched in vain for stake posts, but found none or any indication that it ever was staked, or discovered any sign of habitation. It will prove a mint of money to the lucky prospectors.

A large investor in Granby stock, in reply to a correspondent, asking for his views on the present status of Granby, replied as follows: "I strongly advise you not to sell your Granby at its present price, for the purpose of buying any other copper stock. I believe in the Granby property and am satisfied that the management will spare no effort in the handling of its affairs to make good the investment of stockholders. After market conditions change for the better, Granby stock should have a substantial rise."

PROFESSOR GOLDWIN SMITH

In "The Grange," a delightful, plain, brick house, half-concealed by the net-work of vines that cover it, with a wide sweep of lawn and grounds filled with old trees—a whole city block in the heart of Toronto, hedged in by high walls—lives Canada's venerable author, Goldwin Smith.

This greatest living master of style in the English language, as he has been called, has had a busy life in his eighty-one years, yet his own words prove it has been a serene and peaceful one. "According to the Psalmist," he says, 'if by reason of strength our years be fourscore, yet is their strength labor and sorrow,' but I must say that while I have found mine full of the first, they have been free from the second."

Born in Reading, England, he was educated at Eton and Oxford, graduating in 1845; two years later was elected a Fellow of University College, where he acted as tutor for some time, and though called to the bar, he never practiced. He was prominent in the two commissions appointed to examine into the condition of Oxford University which led to a number of salutary reforms. In 1858 he was made Regius Professor of Modern History at Oxford, a post he held for eight years. During the Civil War in the United States he was a valiant champion of the Northern cause, and on his lecture tour in that country in 1864 he met everywhere enthusiastic and flattering receptions and received the degree of LL.D. from Brown University.

In November, 1868, having resigned his chair at Oxford, he again visited the United States and accepted the professorship of history at the newly-founded Cornell University at Ithaca, N. Y., where he lived for three years. On his retirement he went to Canada, being still Professor Emeritus of Cornell, where he was extremely popular with the students, who affectionately referred to him as "Goldie."

In Canada he soon found recognition and served in a number of positions that gave him opportunity to render invaluable service to the cause of education and letters; and on all questions of vital political interest his voice and his pen were ever ready. A long list of books on history, religion, national politics, philosophy and biography he has to his credit, yet a far greater bulk of material remains in his constant contributions to the newspapers and periodicals of his day. A rare scholar, a master of style, a great thinker, a fearless iconoclast, an able champion a tireless worker, Goldwin Smith has been a mighty influence for good.

Entered according to Act of the Parliament of Canada, in the year 1905, by W. G. Peck, at the Department of Ottawa.

KING GEORGE

He called his counsellors and said, one day in London town: "It is decreed that my poor head must wear the kingly crown. And when that crown is on my brow, the sceptre in my hand, I'll reign the best that I know how, and guard my native land. But, to avoid a muss that would disgrace the nation's fame, there's one thing must be understood this early in the game. At reigning I will labor hard, as busy as a bee, but you must keep that Austin bard from shooting songs at me. A monarch cannot put up hay, or make a useful sound, if Alfred Austin springs a lay whenever he turns round. And so, my lords and gentlemen, you should be looking sharp; go confiscate that poet's pen, and smash his blamed old harp. A monarch bears a heavy load, e'en when there is no bard; if Alfred Austin writes an ode, that rubs it in too hard."—Walt Mason.

BEEF QUESTION

There is a prespect that the embargo upon cattle imported from Canada into the United Kingdom will very shortly be removed. At present all Canadian cattle must be killed immediately upon arrival in the Mother Country, and as the loss in weight and quality on an ocean voyage is heavy, the effect on the embargo is to depreciate the value of live stock from the Dominion. When the new arrangement comes into effect, cattle from Canada may be fattened in the United Kingdom, and they will therefore bring better prices here, while it is claimed the beef can be sold more cheaply to British consumers. If the change will help both producers and consumers it certainly ought not to be delayed. There is no valid reason for retaining the embargo.

BRITAIN'S ANXIETY

A London dispatch says that the situation in Egypt is evidently presenting itself to the home authorities in a serious light. According to information published by the newspapers two battalions of infantry and one cavalry regiment are under orders to proceed to Alexandria. Whether this is merely a change in the personnel of the British forces in Egypt or indicates the more serious step of increasing the strength of the army of occupation is not stated.

Sir Eldon Gorst, British agent and consul-general, will be recalled, it is said, and succeeded by Sir Frances Wingate, the Sirdar. Considerable criticism has been directed against Sir Eldon in the press during recent months and his retirement would not come altogether in the nature of a surprise.

THE WHITE PLAGUE

That the death knell of the white plague has been sounded throughout Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific was evident from the reports read by representatives from cities and towns throughout the Dominion at the opening session of the Canadian Association for the prevention of Tuberculosis at the royal Edward institute today.

HIGH LIFE IN STEWART

Stewart's first dance will long be remembered. Of course the affair was shy on women as there aren't many more than a score, but to say the least they were very obliging and did their level best to dance with every one of the men who could dance. No, it wasn't a full dress ball. Really the man who would have the nerve to appear in those kind of duds would be carrying a chip on his shoulder. It is rumored a dress suit has been seen in camp, but it wasn't on anyone. All of the men did the best they could, and more than one managed to unearth a forgotten tie and sallied forth with his change of clothes quite gay and joyous. Several of the boys had their hair combed. Quite a few were unrecognizable with clean shaves. The unaccustomed change from hobnailed boots to pavement footwear caused considerable nervousness at first. And the piano sounded awfully good and made a lot of the fellows homesick. The piano was loaned by the shooting gallery.
