SUDDEN CONVERSIONS.

[Victoria Weekly Standard, May 20.]

Sudden conversions and death-bed repentances are not always looked upon as genuine evidences of soundness of faith or sorrow for past sins. What is true in a spiritual sense is likewise true in relation to politics. The sudden conversion of Messrs. Helmcken, Macdonald, Roscoe & Co., in fact the whole tyle of leaders who cut such a prominent figure on the occasion of the invasion of the Legislative Assembly in February last—from rabid sticklers for "the whole Terms and nothing but the Terms," to submissive acceptors of Mr Mackenzie's policy for a relaxation of the "cast-iron" obligation which bound the Dominion Government to construct the Pacific Railway in ten years, will constitute one of the remarkable features in the history of this country. When it is borne in mind how bitterly and unreasonably these persons opposed the Local Government, and how they hounded after Mr DeCosmos, circulating broadcast over the country the most wilful falsehoods about them, because they dared to propose a scheme by which to raise a large sum of money to construct a graving dock at Esquimalt and build roads and bridges throughout the country, is it any wonder that people are somewhat perplexed at the present attitude of the gentlemen who now clamor so lustily for a relaxation of the Terms, and ask each other on the street what has come over the spirit of their dream to induce them so suddenly to change their minds in relation to a modification of the Terms of Union? Neither Mr De Cosmos nor the Local Government ever dreamed of such a thing as to permit any alteration in the Terms of Union that would relieve the Dominion Government of the responsibility it had incurred in relation to the building of the railway, their only object being so to modify clauses two and twelve of the Terms as to enable the Government of the Dominion to advance the money sought to be obtained for graving dock and other purposes. But in the face of the most positive assurance to that effect, the obstructive clique, both in the House and out of it, resorted to every artifice which their ingenuity could suggest to defeat them, and to every falsehood that their fertile imaginations could invent to prejudice the popular mind against the Government scheme, the first and foremost of which was, as they alleged, that the Local Government had entered into a secret agreement with Mr Mackenzie to relax the railway clause of the Terms, upon the faithful performance of which the very existence of British Columbia depended. Now these very same men, who in February last besought the people, with crocodile tears drippling from the tips of their patriotic noses, to resist the faintest attempt on the part of the Government to relax the Terms of Union, and who even went so far as to lead a mob into the House of Assembly with a view to overawe the people's representatives while in the faithful discharge of their duties, are screaming themselves hoarse for a relaxation of the Terms, and their organ is engaged in daily denunciations of the Government because they have, as it alleges, refused to entertain a proposition of Mr Mackenzie's having that object in view. Only a few days ago these men formed themselves into what they were pleased to call a "Terms of Union Preservation League," and took as their shibboleth "the Terms, the whole Terms, and nothing but the Terms," and scattered circulars broadcast over the country inviting every man and his wife to join it, and by a united effort save the country from impending ruin, which would ensue if the Government were permitted to relax the Terms in the slightest particular. Why this sudden backing down and complete ignoring of the objects for which the "Terms of Union Preservation League" was brought into existence? Does any one imagine that the sudden conversion of Messrs. Helmcken, Roscoe, Macdonald & Co., from ultra Termists to submissive Relaxationists, is the result of honest conviction and a desire to promote the welfare of British Columbia as a whole? If they do, they are very much mistaken. We do not intend to express any decided opinion on the subject of a relaxation of the Terms until it is officially laid before us; but we may here observe in reference to the gentlemen above named, that there is reason to believe they are not so much influenced by a desire to serve the interests of the public generally by now advocating a relaxation of the Terms of Union, as they are to promote their own. The construction of a line of railway from Esquimalt to Nanaimo will exert a healthy influence upon the trade and commerce of the island, and add in no small degree to the value of their real estate, and herein is the secret of the sudden change which has been wrought in the opinions and conduct of these patriotic gentlemen. The Local Government are not alone the representatives of Victoria land speculators, but are the guardians of the interests of British Columbia as a whole; and the public may rest assured that any proposition made to them having in view the welfare of the country, will receive at their hands the most careful consideration.

THE CARIBOO SENTINEL

SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 1874.

PROGRESS.

The initial steps in carrying out the policy inaugurated by the present Local Government,—the "policy of preparing our Province for settlement by the building of Colonization roads and trails, the construction of important public works, and the extension of surveys, upon a scale not hitherto attempted,"—will shortly be taken. Tenders for the construction of the first three sections of the New Westminster-Yale road, for sections of the Nicola Valley road and a bridge in the same district, will be received up to the 8th inst.; and on the island new roads and bridges will also soon be under headway. The construction of these important public works will not only prepare the Province for settlement, but be the means of supplying the backbone of British Columbia—the Cariboo gold mining district—with additional bone and muscle to develop its wealth.

The Government must certainly be complimented for the energy with which it is carrying out its policy. Railway or no railway, the public improvements now about to be commenced are necessary, if we desire to be in a position to invite settlers to our shores, and when the railway is built they will prove valuable aids to its success. Under the most difficult circumstances the Administration has never flinched in carrying out its wise policy. The clamors of a factious Opposition in the Legislature, backed by an onslaught of the ruffianism of the city of Victoria on Parliament when in session, were unavailing to stop the march of progress. The almost infallible way of rousing fierce popular wrath against a Government—by accusing its members of sacrificing the national interests to personal ambition—was also tried; but the verdict given by a majority of the electors of Victoria in returning DeCosmos as their premier commoner, proved that the people would not be influenced by unjust suspicions and slanders directed against men whose faithful discharge of their public duties is a crime in the eyes of unscrupulous men. We apprehend that even the few island landowners who lent material aid to the obstructive faction, from mere spite towards the Government for having passed an Act extending the city limits, whereby their property is taxed for civic improvements, are by this time heartily ashamed of their conduct, and will cut their connection with the patriots whose great aim is to make a raid upon the public treasury. The people of the mainland are unanimous in supporting the go-ahead policy of the Administration, and the opposition on the island is entirely confined to an association known as the "Terms of Union Preservation League" and their worthy allies the aborigines.

THE CONFIDENTIAL AGENT.

Mr Mackenzie's Confidential Agent, Mr J. D. Edgar, after a sojourn of some two months in Victoria, has taken his departure. It is difficult to understand the real object of his mission. If he was sent to British Columbia by the Federal Government merely to inquire into the causes of the Victoria outrage, a simple introduction to the police authorities was all that was necessary to obtain reliable information as to the antecedents and present standing of some at least of the parties implicated. But if he really came to this province as the representative of the Federal Government to arrange modifications of a very important nature in the Railway clause of the Terms of Union, most people would naturally suppose that Mr Mackenzie had furnished his agent with an official introduction to the Government he was to treat with, and the necessary powers to bind the Federal Government in any arrangement agreed upon. Such, however, was not the case. Beyond statements made in public prints, it appears the Local Government had no official knowledge that Mr Edgar was empowered to negotiate for modifications in the railway terms in behalf of the Dominion Government. The Victoria Daily Standard, of the 20th May, informs us, however, that a few days before the departure of Mr Edgar, "that gentleman undertook, in the private capacity of a gentleman visiting this province, to place certain propositions which he stated emanated from Mr Mackenzie, and referring to the railway clause of the Terms of Union, before Mr Walkem, stating at the same time that a copy thereof had been enclosed by him to the Lieutenant-Governor. Mr Walkem, on the same day, replied, informing Mr Edgar that before he could place any such proposition before the Government as emanating from Mr Mackenzie, it would be necessary that he (Mr Edgar) should forward his authority to act for that gentleman in that capacity." Mr Edgar neglected to produce his authority to act, and the course taken by Mr Walkem in refusing to enter into negotiations with an agent without credentials will meet with the approval of every man in the country who desires to see the railway question settled as soon as possible, and not delayed by the quirks, quibbles, and humbug which a great many people think form part of Mr Mackenzie's relaxation programme.

THE CARIBOO SENTINEL

SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 1874.

BY TELEGRAPH

QUESNELMOUTH.

Quesnelmouth, June 5—The Omineca Express arrived last evening. Mr Lewis reports very favorably of that district. He says a number of companies are working and taking out good pay. All hands in good health and spirits.

A very interesting race came off on the 4th between the Quesnelmouth Blackhawk and Byrnes' horse Mowitch. Distance 500 yards; stakes $50 a side. The former won by a clear length.

STEAMER VICTORIA.

Soda Creek, June 4—Mr A. S. Bates will run the steamer Victoria this season. He went up to the ways this morning, and the boat will be launched immediately.

VICTORIA.

Victoria, June 3—A special to the Standard, dated Ottawa, June 1st, says Hon. Mr Dorion, Minister of Justice, is appointed Chief Justice of the Province of Quebec. Mr Fortbier, of the Inland Revenue, succeeds him.—Hon. G. F. Farron takes the Inland Revenue Department.

Senator George Brown is here to confer with the Government on the Reciprocity Treaty with the United States.

Senator Macdonald of your province has said he intends to resign his Senatorship on his arrival in Victoria and stand for the Local House or the Governorship. He has no weight in the Senate.

The contested elections are expected to go against the Government.

Mr R. J. Macdonald, an old resident of the province, has been appointed Military Storekeeper for British Columbia.

The Superintendent of Indian Affairs will leave for the upper country next week. He will visit the tribes around Cache Creek, Clinton and Kamloops, as well as the Chilcotins.

Two tenders were received by the Post Office Inspector for the conveyance of mails once a month between Fort Wrangel and Dease Lake. The contract was awarded to Mr Johnson, for many years the Kootenay mail carrier, at $175 per trip.

The steamer Otter and the gunboat Boxer will start to-morrow with Marcus Smith, Mr Horetzky, and others connected with the survey of the Coast line for a railway terminus on the mainland.

Small pox is spreading along the line of the Overland railway.

Ottawa, May 30—Senator Brown to-day presented a draft of the Reciprocity Treaty, and Government approves of its general features.

DOMINION DAY CELEBRATION.—A splendid programme of sports and races in Barkerville on 1st and 2d July, appears in our advertising columns. The public spirit of Barkerville was displayed this week as in days of yore,—the committee having collected in two hours from her citizens the snug little sum of $808! Nearly $1400 has already been subscribed, and it is expected that one or two more hundred will yet roll in. We may add that the miners in this district have nobly seconded the efforts of the committee.

LIGHTNING CREEK CELEBRATION.—A communication in another column informs our readers of the preparations making at Stanley for the approaching holidays. Stanley is a regular "chip of the old block,"—forty citizens having subscribed the handsome sum of $810 for the sports,—and it is said that sum will be doubled when the committee finish their collecting tour. Fireworks have been sent for, a grand stand will be erected for the ladies, and every possible step taken to make the holidays a success.

MR J. S. THOMPSON, M.P. for Cariboo, arrived at Ottawa on the 23d April, in eleven days from Victoria. He could not, however, take his seat for six days after his arrival on account of the return to the writ which left Victoria April 16th by overland mail via Portland not having come to hand until the 29th. Letters and papers by this route usually take 18 or 19 days to reach Ottawa from Victoria.

NOTICE.—Mr Lindsay, of Van Winkle, will act as agent for the SENTINEL on Lightning Creek, and all orders left with that gentlemen will be promptly attended to. Parties at the lower end of Lightning desirous of subscribing, will please leave their orders at McDermott's, Stanley. Sent by Mail to subscribers at the rate of $1 per month, payable in advance.

AN interesting Ottawa letter from J. S. T. will appear in our next. Parliament was prorogued on the 26th.

MAIL CONTRACTS AND THE PARCEL POST.

In the House of Commons, on May 6th, on the motion of Mr DeCosmos for returns respecting British Columbia Mail Contracts,

Mr Thompson (Cariboo) said he considered it very desirable that the returns asked for should be laid before the House, as the people of British Columbia wished to have the fullest information on the subject of mail contracts in that province. The terms of contracts had been changed between times of advertising for and letting the same, and now the carriage of gold dust and bullion had been stopped, which had caused great dissatisfaction in Cariboo, where gold dust was the staple product. When gold was carried by mail, the Banks paid a higher price for it than they could afford to do now; they insured all treasure forwarded by mail, while the Government was not responsible for its safe delivery.

Mr Thompson then read a resolution passed at a public meeting held at Barkerville on 27th March, strongly condemning the action of the Post Office authorities on the grounds that the course adopted would cause a loss to Cariboo of $15,000 per annum, and to the revenue of $4000 per annum.

MR. MACKENZIE'S PROPOSITIONS.

The Official Correspondence and Telegrams between the Dominion Government and the Government of British Columbia on the relaxation of the railway clause in the Terms of Union as proposed by Mr Mackenzie through his private agent, Mr Edgar, has been published. The relaxation asked for is what may be termed very extensive indeed, and would cause the construction of the Canadian Pacific to extend over a period of something like one hundred years. One million and a half of dollars is proposed as the minimum expenditure in this Province until the road is finished.

MINING INTELLIGENCE.

WILLIAMS CREEK.

The Cariboo and Ballarat companies commence work on Monday.

The Ophir co. has been laid over, and will assist the Eleven of England company to the extent of $2500; some assistance is also expected from the Myrtle co. The West of England will either start working or assist the Eleven of England.—Costello Sawmill co. still sinking in bed-rock. LIGHTNING CREEK—THE COMING HOLIDAYS.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—Not having wrote you for some time, I will now endeavor to give you an idea of the march of events on Lightning since my last report, more especially

STANLEY.

This town is improving beyond calculation, and in fact I think it will soon rival Barkerville in its palmy days, for the street is wider and the site much better for a large town. The street is now being graded under the supervision of Mr J. J. Robertson, and the work so far done is a credit to him. Stanley will have a

FINE RACE TRACK,

350 yards long, level as a house floor, with 80 to 100 feet for a start and the same for an outcome. Sidewalks are being laid, the street will have side drainage, and when it is rolled over it will surpass anything in the upper country.

I came into Stanley last night, and heard for the first time that there had been a committee here from your "burgh" to arrange matters for the coming holidays, and that it could not be agreed upon as to whether Barkerville or Stanley should have the 1st July, therefore it was thought there would be a celebration at each place on that day. As an outsider, I am under the impression Barkerville is very unjust, from the fact that she has always had the celebration there since the day was celebrated in Cariboo. I will say, however, that Barkerville has always been generous, even to a fault, for to my own knowledge she has "panned out" on every and all public occasions with a lavish hand. But let us look at the present case fairly. Lightning creek has always paid its proportion to Barkerville celebrations without asking anything in return, and now when half of her population comes from Barkerville, is it not strange that the latter place will not concede that which I think is just? Why not let Stanley have the 1st, and then when the boys get in humor they will go over to Barkerville and finish the sports? I believe that by so doing both places would make more, the holidays be a greater success, and good-feeling continue to exist between the two places, whereas if we divide on the celebration, I am certain Stanley will raise more money than Barkerville for the sports, and probably never do anything for her sister town in the future.

The holiday celebration Executive Committee are:—Thos. R. Pattullo, Robert McDermott, J. J. Robertson, Wm. Brown, J. C. Beedy, Joseph Denny, A. McNaughton, John Johnson, Charles Vallancour, A. McDonald, Henry Morgan, and Benj. Edwards, and you will perceive comprises our business men and "sturdy" miners; most of the latter are known as Barkerville and Lightning Creek men, and have always been identified with everything pertaining to the enjoyment of the people. I have it from the books that 40 men have already paid for the sports $810, and with the collections which will be made by sub-committees a purse will be raised that will astonish the natives. As to

we have three fine hotels, with first-class stabling, viz.:—Austin's Stanley Hotel, the Duke of York's (Houseman's) Hotel, and Beedy & Townsend's Hotel, also a first-class restaurant kept by Sam Wha. Austin's stables can accommodate 16 horses, Houseman's 10, and Beedy & Townsend's 20. We have also 12 to 15 nice saloons—everything in fact to make people happy and comfortable.

Come, now, Barkerville, and join us, and let us have on the day we celebrate. Lightning will never forget the concession made, and would return it a hundred fold. Let the mottoe be, "Live and let live!" and success to the new Dominion of Canada!

PROSPECTOR.

Stanley, June 4, 1874.

THE LIGHTNING LETTER STEALER.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—I observe by a late number of the Standard that a member of the Victoria Colonist ring has recently arrived on Lightning creek, and commenced operations by stealing private letters for publication in that paper. This may be "Ah Sin's" first transgression in the thieving line, as it is the general opinion of parties acquainted with him here that Nature has not endowed him with sufficient brains to become a member of the heathen band of thieves, and if so he may mend his ways. I will let him off gently this time—merely cautioning him to beware of evil companions, and especially of the forcibly expatriated patriots in the lower country who have been using him lately.

TRAIL REPAIRS WANTED.—We have been requested to call the attention of the authorities to the bad condition of the trail from Beaver Lake to Keithley, and from Keithley to Snowshoe. The trails are blocked up by fallen timber, and it is impossible for pack animals to get through. The mail contractor has also the greatest difficulty in making his trips.

FIRST PACK TRAIN.—The first pack train of the season, for Beedy & Townsend, with a large quantity of general merchandize, arrived at VanWinkle on Tuesday last.

BARNARD'S Express, with the mails, arrived at 7 o'clock last night. The following is the passenger list:—Jas. Gerald, for Vanwinkle; George Webster and two prisoners, for Richfield.

CASSIAR.—Mr J. H. Sullivan has been sent up as Gold Commissioner. Monthly mail communication has been established between Wrangel and the mines.

THE steamer Victoria will shortly commence running between Soda creek and Quesnelmouth.

FRESH VEGETABLES.—Two Chinese teams, with early vegetables, arrived last Saturday.
