VICTORIA.

Matsqui, June 14—The Victoria Standard of the 12th has the following items:

Toronto, June 9—Orders have been issued to adopt the route of the Canada Pacific Railway between Victoria and Seymour Narrows at once. Sir Hugh Allan leaves England on the 19th of June. He has succeeded in raising a part of the loan—rumor says forty millions—but the negotiations were not finally closed at last advices.

We are informed the citizens of Victoria have engaged the Alhambra Hall for an early day to meet members of Parliament recently arrived from Ottawa in order to give them an opportunity to express their opinions of the session of the Legislature at Ottawa and its bearing on the prosperity of the province of British Columbia.

Mr J. H. Sullivan, the Superintendent of Police, has been formally committed for trial on the East coast shooting affair. He was admitted to bail on his own recognizance.

THE POLARIS INVESTIGATION.

New York, June 14—A Washington special says the testimony of Captain Tyson and the Sergeant-Major in the Polaris investigation has been received from the stenographers and will be printed as soon as possible. Their statements contain together about 55,000 words. The entire mass of the testimony is confirmatory of the fact that their separation from the vessel was accidental. There was entire unanimity among the crew and officers. The discipline on board the vessel was excellent and all were working in harmony carrying out preparations, expecting every moment she would be jammed and broken between the ice or rendered unseaworthy from the floes. The separation was therefore wholly accidental as far as the crew could know.

EUROPE.

Madrid, June 11—Dissensions have broken out in the Carlist camp. Dorregary's removal was not on account of wounds, but in consequence of an intrigue with the Marquis Valadeze.

London, June 11—It is expected the prosecution against the Tichborne claimant will be able to rest their case next week.

Prince Amadeus and suite arrived in England, where they will remain during the summer.

Constantinople June 11—The Sultan has issued a formal decree granting to the Khedive of Egypt an independent Government, and authorising him to augment his army and conclude formal treaties.

Paris, June 12—The Government has directed the immediate transportation of Henry Rochefort to New Caledonia.

Madrid, June 12—The excitement which has prevailed in Madrid for the past few days has greatly subsided. The city is quiet and calm to-day, and the armed factions which were posted in different quarters have withdrawn. All parties have accepted the Ministry formed.

St. Petersburgh, June 12—Dispatches from Central Asia were received to-night. The Russian forces under Gen. Kaufman reached Amurda river on 11th May, where they met and put to flight a body of 3400 Khivans without the loss of a single man of the Russians.

The Russian ironclad which has been building for some time past in the dockyard at Nicalvio, was launched to-day. This is the inauguration of the renewal of the Russian fleet on the Black Sea. The Grand Duke Constantine, High Admiral of the Navy, presided over the ceremonies.

Rome, June 13—The Pope has completely recovered. Ex Queen Isabella is coming here to confer with the Pope on the possibility of a Bourbon restoration in Spain.

Berlin, June 12—The Emperor William is still weak, and requires absolute retirement for the complete recovery of his health.

London, June 12—Special dispatches to the London Press says Thiers has frequent conferences with Gambetta, and an alliance between the ex-President and the Radicals has been established.

A STRANGE STORY.

New York, June 12—The Graphic publishes an extract from a private letter dated Rome, May 25, which tells of a rumor prevalent in that city that Pope Pius IX. died some days previous; that his place is filled by a bold, astute priest named Abbatimenati. There was a priest of the order of Benedicts named Abbatimenati who bore a striking resemblance to Pius IX. Accordingly it was arranged that Father Abbatimenati, in the event of the Pope's death, should enact a part. The Pope died, but instead of their announcing the fact to the public, they began to inform the outside world that the holy Father was getting better, and finally that he was quite well again, the fact being that the remains of Pope Pius IX. were hidden away in some secret recess of the Vatican, while Abbatimenati quietly stepped into his place.

THE CARIBOO SENTINEL

SATURDAY, JUNE 21, 1873.

FEDERAL PATRONAGE.

The question of the bestowal of Federal patronage is being warmly discussed in the lower country papers, and it would appear that all parties are united in the opinion that the citizens of this Province have a just right to be first considered in the bestowal of offices at the disposal of the Federal Government. The importing of officials from Downing street in the early days of the colony was considered a great grievance by some people, but the wisdom of doing so at that time was generally conceded; not that there was any scarcity in the colony of men competent to fill offices of trust, but the inducements held out in the shape of moderate salaries and a small amount of work were not sufficient to attract the attention of the vigorous and energetic men who seek to make their fortunes in gold countries. Downing street, therefore, supplied our officials; and it will be admitted that the gentlemen appointed, with probably some few exceptions, were men well qualified both by character and education to fill their various offices. But now that the rule of Downing street has passed away, and a large portion of the inhabitants of the Province have adopted more settled modes of business than gold mining, and become permanent residents, the importing of officials should cease. The genuine office-hunter is not often a very desirable citizen; and we fancy that in Cariboo but few people are to be found who would forego their chances in the mines for the apparently more comfortable mode of sliding through life in the public service. But there are men in British Columbia who have not followed office-hunting as a profession, but have labored long and faithfully for the advancement of the country; and surely in the bestowal of its patronage their claims should be first considered by the Federal Government. The appointment of Mr Gray to a Judgeship was not viewed with favor by the people of this province, but respect for the judiciary prevented any great outcry against it; but now that it appears to be the settled policy of the Federal Administration to send all its officials from Ottawa, it is the duty of our people to protest against such a course being persisted in, and demand that the claims of old and capable residents be not passed over in favor of strangers.

THE EAST COAST SHOOTING AFFAIR.—Police Superintendent Sullivan has been committed for trial, which took place in Victoria yesterday. The result of the trial had not transpired up to the time our Victoria dispatches were forwarded. The case will, however, be thoroughly sifted by a competent tribunal, and justice fully satisfied. While forbearing to make any remarks at present on this case, we must say that the persistent and vindictive hounding by the Victoria Colonist of a public officer simply because he is an appointee of a Government to which the conductors of that journal are opposed, calls for and receives the strongest condemnation of every right-thinking person in Cariboo.

CHIEF JUSTICE BEGBIE arrived in Barkerville last Saturday and leaves for the lower country this morning. The good effects of his Lordship's visit to Cariboo last year are plainly visible in the blank calendar presented to the Court of Assize last Tuesday. The full measure of justice meted out by Chief Justice Begbie to all classes of offenders at the Court of Assize held in 1862 has inspired the vicious with a wholesome terror of the law. Respect for the dignity of his high office, and the impartial administration of justice by his Lordship, have elevated him high in the esteem of all good people.

THE GOVERNMENT has lost no time in attending to the memorial forwarded from Cariboo praying for the immediate construction of a mule trail from the Williams Creek Meadows to Nelson Creek. As anticipated a favorable answer has been given to the prayer of the memorialists. Tenders are invited for the work, and will be received up to Saturday next, 30th inst. The present Government has always shown itself alive to the wants of the whole Province, but certainly its good works in behalf of the interests of the upper country deserve the fullest meed of praise from the people of Cariboo especially.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

To his Lordship MATHEW BAILLIE BEGBIE, Chief Justice of British Columbia.

The Grand Jury of Cariboo, convened in the usual manner on the 19th June, 1873, respectfully beg to submit the following recommendations to your Lordship.

That the road between Van Winkle and Barkerville being almost impassable during the spring of the year, owing to the melting snow, would ask your Lordship to recommend the Executive to clear the snow therefrom earlier in the season, in order that the road may be put in such condition that the mails may not be delayed and freight teams arrive earlier in the season, thereby conferring a great benefit upon the inhabitants of this district.

That the road to the VanWinkle Meadows be kept in repair, and a trail cut from a convenient point thereon to the mouth of Nelson Creek.

That your Lordship will be pleased to recommend the removal of the Court House and public buildings from Richfield to Barkerville. The inconvenience of existing arrangements is so obvious, and the advantages to be derived from the removal so great to the Court, jurors, suitors, &c., that the Grand Jury are of opinion that it need hardly be dwelt upon at any length. They desire, however, to express their regret that the Executive has seen fit to treat previous recommendations of a like nature with neglect, and trust that the importance of this matter will induce them to give it their immediate attention.

On behalf of the Grand Jury.

JONA. NUTT, Foreman.

SATURDAY, JUNE 21, 1873.

BY TELEGRAPH

PASSENGERS.

127 Mile house, June 18—Barnard & Co.'s Extra passed here this morning, with one passenger—a Chinaman. Pearson's stage passed at noon, with one passenger for Soda creek.

Barnard & Co.'s Regular passed at 5 p.m. to-day with the following passengers:—Dave Disher and Uriah Nelson, for Barkerville; Frank Barnard and two others, for Soda creek; and David Pratt and wife, for Blue Tent.

Barnard's Express has a heavy Eastern mail and large freight.

About twelve ox teams have passed up during last week, all heavily loaded for above. Roads in excellent order. Weather delightful.

Cariboo Charlie and Oregon Dick left here this morning for Barkerville in charge of John Cameron. He expects to reach Barkerville by Monday afternoon. The horses look well.

SODA CREEK.

Soda Creek, June 18—There are three race horses here under the training of D. F. English. Mr Manifa will leave here to-morrow week for Barkerville.

CLINTON.

Clinton, June 20—Mr Wm Sampson, with a party of men, is cutting out the trail between Lillooet and Howe Sound. He is doing good work, making a mile per day, and hopes to have it nearly completed by fall.

On Monday last five 12 mule teams and one loaded pack-train passed through town, having in all about 125,000 pounds of freight.—There passed down two empty pack trains, making about 250 mules both ways. Mr T. Hutch left for Omineca to-day with a cargo of flour. Weather very cool and cloudy.

VICTORIA.

Victoria, June 18—The gunboat Boxer returned yesterday from a four weeks' cruise along the north west coast for the purpose of allowing the Superintendent of Indian affairs to interview the Indian tribes. They were found to be peaceable and satisfied. At Bella Bella the party obtained from the Hudson Bay Company's agent a keg, lantern, candle, fragments of a newspaper, and some biscuits, supposed to have belonged to the wreck of the G. S. Wright. They next proceeded to Cape Caution, where the Superintendent interviewed the tribes of Indians, who appeared to be well disposed and quiet, in contradiction to the letters written by Suwanee. No tidings of the wreck were obtained.

Joe, a Kanaka half-breed, suspected of being concerned in the murder of Mr and Mrs Dwyer on San Juan Island, made a full confession to-day. He acknowledged having done the killing, his object being plunder.—He also confesses to having killed a Mr Fuller on the same island last year.

Victoria, June 20—The Sullivan case comes before the Supreme Court to-day. The result is awaited with anxiety.

UNITED STATES.

New York, June 15—Francis Gillem, aged 23, met his wife Ellen, aged 19, to whom he had been married five months, but with whom he never lived. She was walking with a friend at the time. After a few minutes conversation, he brought her up on Broom street, near 11th street, and stabbed her in the breast five times, causing instant death.

James Duffy was stabbed and instantly killed to-day by Edward Kirtland, alias Curtis, in a drunken quarrel.

Chicago, June 18—A Decatur, Illinois, dispatch tells a remarkable story of a wholesale murder by a female poisoner. Last September a farmer living at Moanyha, Ill., died under most suspicious circumstances. Mrs York, his mother-in-law and house keeper, was suspected of having had something to do with his sudden death. No steps were taken to investigate the matter, and Mrs York went to live with her son. There she was taken ill. The physician who was summoned to her aid told her she was poisoned and had but a few hours to live. She then made a confession which exposed her to the world as a fiend incarnate. She confessed to having poisoned her husband in 1865, her own daughter, the wife of E. R. Drake of this city, and last September A. W. Drake. She then went to her son's, and while there she made a mixture of poison to administer to him on the first opportunity. Feeling unwell a day or two afterwards, she went after something in the cup board and by mistake took the full dose prepared for her son, which resulted in her death.

New York, June 16—James Curtin, while drunk, early yesterday morning quarrelled with his wife, when a young and idiotic brother of the latter struck Curtin with an axe, fatally wounding him.

Belfast, June 16—Almond Gordon, with his wife and three children, were found murdered in their beds at Thorndyke, 18 miles from here, this morning. A brother of Gordon has been arrested on suspicion. There seems to have been trouble about property between them.

Norwich, June 16—Three men have been arrested charged with obstructing and throwing trains from the track of the Norwich and Worcester railroad.

EUROPE.

London, June 15—The Emperor William continues seriously ill. Private dispatches from Aden, dated June 3, says that the treaty with England for the suppression of the slave trade has been degotiated by Sir Bartlet Frere.

Prince Jerome Bonaparte has arrived here from Paris.

Constantinople, June 15th—Resca Pasha, Minister of Marine, has been removed, and Advet Pasha appointed in his place.

Bayonne, June 15—It is reported that Gen. Nauvelez has defeated the Carlists under Barrengaray, near Vittoria. Three hundred insurgents killed and wounded, and 700 taken prisoners.

MINING INTELLIGENCE.

THE LANE & KURTZ CO.

This company started steam on Thursday, the 12th inst., and have been engaged in sawing lumber for the shaft, water wheel, &c. The contract for the construction of one mile of ditch was awarded to Messrs. Holroyd & Co., and the work of cutting began on Monday, the 9th inst. The Company have commenced a double shaft, which is being rapidly sunk by three shifts per day. It is, we believe, the intention of the Superintendent to start the pumps in the present shaft, when water is reached in the new one, thus draining the new shaft and facilitating sinking. The new boiler is finished and in position, and the Company ready to commence pumping when required.

VALLEY MOUNTAIN.

The Discovery co. are cutting a new ditch, and will recommence work in the diggings next Tuesday or Wednesday.

JACK OF CLUBS CREEK.

The Two Sisters washed up 65 oz. last week and 40 oz. on Wednesday of this week. The Discovery co. still prospecting, drifting up stream. The Two Brothers machinery is nearly completed, and will start sinking about 1st July.

LOWHEE CREEK.

The Calaveras co. washed up over 30 oz. last week.

LIGHTNING CREEK.

The Spruce co. are putting in 400 feet of flume. The Point co. are working on a bench; they washed up 24 oz. for three shifts. Victoria co. still pumping, but making very little headway. The Vancouver co. are working down stream. Costello co. cutting a tail-race. The Gladstone co. have got in what they think is the channel, but have struck no prospect as yet. Bay State co. have commenced a tail-race. Water Lily co. are clearing ground for wheel and shaft house.—The Ophir co. are working on tail-race.

BURNS CREEK.

McLeod & Co. struck a good prospect las week; they washed up 15 oz. in two days and a half, one piece weighing 11 oz. The other companies are making from an ounce to $5 per day.

GROUSE CREEK.

The Waverley Tunnel co. will be on pay next week. A large number of hydraulic claims are piping away, taking advantage of the abundance of water, and will not clean up for some time.

ANTLER CREEK.

The Lothair company have stopped stripping for the present, and are waiting for the water in the creek to lower to commence washing. The Welsh co., who struck a good prospect on a bench some two weeks ago, are satisfied that they have good diggings.

THE WEATHER.—The weather continues very cold, and during the present week we have had frequent showers of rain, hail and snow. A great many of the deep claims on the different creeks are still unable to work on account of the high stage of water. The hydraulic claims are taking advantage of the abundance of water, and will probably run off double the quantity of ground usual in previous seasons.

SWORN IN.—Three of the new J. P.'s were sworn in during the present week before Chief Justice Begbie,—Jonathan Nutt on Tuesday, and Messrs. Prentice and Muir on Wednesday.

COURT OF ASSIZE.

The Court of Assize was opened at Richfield at 11 o'clock on Tuesday, by his Lordship Chief Justice Begbie. The Grand Jury were duly sworn in, and addressed by his Lordship on their duties and obligations, after which the Chief Justice retired from the Court room in order to allow the Jury an opportunity for deliberation.

On the reassembling of the Court, the Foreman of the Grand Jury congratulated the Chief Justice on the absence of crime in Cariboo. The calendar for the present Assize was an entire blank, the only business before the Grand Jury being the consideration of several nuisances existing in the town of Barkerville, and unless the nuisances were removed the parties causing them would be indited.

The Foreman also expressed the regret of the Grand Jury that they were unable to comply with the time-honored custom of presenting to the presiding Judge a pair of white gloves, although no effort had been wanting on their part to procure them, as the Grand Jury were at all times desirous of complying with those customs that show respect to their Sovereign, especially when represented by Justice and Learning.

His Lordship made a suitable reply, graciously accepting the excuse of the Grand Jury, and congratulating them on the orderly state of Cariboo.

QUESNELMOUTH ASSIZES.

WEDNESDAY, June 11, 1873.

REGINA vs. TOMMY (an Indian.)—The prisoner was indicted for the wilful murder of two Indian women at Omineca in August, 1872.

Mr Davie appeared for the Crown.

The chief points against the prisoner, proved in evidence given by John Grant, W. H. Robertson, Ira Crow, John Latimer, F. Page, and Charles Seymour, were as follows:

The two women were found dead in Kildare gulch on the 13th August, having wounds upon their heads likely to produce death and apparently inflicted by some sharp instrument. They had been robbed. The prisoner was seen in their company on three occasions on the 9th August, the day on which the women were last seen alive, and was seen going off into the woods with them. He was seen the day previously to his going off with the women, with a hatchet in his possession. A hatchet was afterwards found under the root of a willow tree near to the place where the women were found, and not far from the place where the prisoner was seen with his Indian wife after he had gone off with the deceased. A tin can taken by the prisoner from Ira Crow's house, but the taking of which the prisoner denied, was also found near the same place. On the 9th of August the prisoner's trowsers were observed to be tucked up, and on the day of the inquest, the 13th August, they were examined, and when unrolled what appeared to be blood stains were found upon them. Similar appearances were found upon his undershirt and overshirt. Money was taken from the Indian women according to the admission of the prisoner, who says that he found one dead and the other dying. The prisoner denied all knowledge of the charge and pleaded not guilty.

No counsel appearing for the prisoner, the Chief Justice watched his case, and in remarks on his behalf his Lordship pointed out that the hatchet found was not identified as the one in the possession of the prisoner; that any one may have put the hatchet where it was found; that, if the prisoner committed the deed, he would be unlikely to have put the hatchet where any one could find it, and that it had no blood stains upon it. That though there was water hard by with which the hatchet might have been washed, it was unlikely that blood stains could be washed from wood. As regards the stains on the prisoner's clothing, there was no evidence that they were blood stains, or if so the stains of human blood, and the prisoner may have got them upon him in passing through the slaughter yard, which was not far from where the prisoner had been on the 9th August. In conclusion, his Lordship said the case for the Crown virtually was:—These women have been murdered. Who could it be but the prisoner? On the other hand, the prisoner said:—True, the women have been murdered. I did not do it, and you have not proved I did it.

The Jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

REGINA vs. WILLETT AND KENNEDY.—The prisoners were indited for stealing various articles, the property of Baptiste Parquette, and also for having them in their possession, knowing them to be stolen.

It appeared that Parquette owned a small farm at Fort Alexandra; that in the spring of last year he was lawfully married to an Indian woman according to the rites and ceremonies of the Roman Catholic church. The defendant Willett had seduced the woman from her husband and taken her to the house of the defendant Kennedy, which was also near Fort Alexandra, and where Willett and the woman were allowed to stay. Kennedy knew of the facts above stated. Parquette afterwards missed a gun, blankets, a horse, some chickens, and other articles. They had been stolen from his premises. He procured a search warrant, and with Chief Constable Lindsay searched the house and premises of Kennedy, and found Parquette's chickens, but none of the other articles.

Rev. Mr McGuckin deposed he had a conversation with Willett in which he charged him with going to Parquette's house and assisting the woman in carrying off the various articles, naming them, and that Willett in reply said that nobody saw them do it.

The wife of Parquette was called for the defence, and stated that she never told Kennedy or Willett she had left her husband; that she alone, and unassisted at night took two of Kennedy's horses, without his knowledge, went to Parquette's house, packed away the chickens on one horse, she riding the other; that she returned with them to Kennedy's house and put the horses back in the stable and the chickens in the fowl house. Of all this she swore neither Kennedy or Millett knew anything.

The prisoners were defended by Mr Park.

The Jury, after deliberating seven hours, returned a verdict of guilty on the second count, whereupon the prisoners were sentenced to six months' imprisonment without hard labor.

THURSDAY, June 12.

REGINA vs. TOMMY.—The prisoner, who before had been acquitted of the charge of murder above stated, was now indicted for stealing money from the bodies of the Indian women found murdered at Omineca, and pleaded not guilty.

The evidence against him consisted of three statements made by him of his having taken the money; one made in writing before Mr Fitzgerald, the Magistrate, another verbally to Charles Seymour, and a third made voluntarily immediately after his previous trial, after being acquitted.

The Jury found him guilty, and he was sentenced to two years' imprisonment with hard labor.

REGINA vs. LEE KEN.—The prisoner was charged with larceny and having stolen goods in his possession. The main evidence against him was that immediately after the stealing foot tracks were observed from the house from which the articles were stolen going to the house of the prisoner.

Mr. Barnston appeared for the defendant, and he was acquitted.

THE CELEBRATION ON THE FIRST.—The arrangements for the celebration of Dominion Day are nearly complete, and our citizens are responding liberally to the call for subscriptions. We believe it is already known that at least eight fast horses will be entered for the principal races.

THE Hon. Joseph Howe, Lieut. Governor of Nova Scotia, died on the 1st June, aged 69 years.
