It Says Here—
Shopping Around Gibsons

By L. McPHERSON

BEING a lovely day, this week the shopping tour started on the far end of the Gibsons to Granthams road and the wee end store with the new sign was first call. Although the stock is anything but complete . . . they said, I did find the crisp marquisette very reasonably priced, and good quality. The drapery material tempts me to re-do the windows, it is so colerful and new looking. There are towels by Caldwell, in gay pastel stripes, at 85 cents each . . . which is O.K. too, and good value. Needles and pins . . . notions, wool batts, spreads, flannelette blankets . . . and nice school shoes. And too, we can order our venetian blinds for eight-day delivery, and all installed at 80 cents per sq. foot.

Sugar is going . . . going . . .

A Lonely Grave

BY 'ENRIETTA 'OBBS

I AM GLAD they laid that other man beside old John in the little graveyard on the hill. Old John's was such a lonely grave. True, he had the whisper of the trees and the song of the birds for a lullaby, but there was something pathetic about the little mound of earth, and the stone slab that bore the name of the old man who had once lived in the little house at the foot of the hills.

I never knew the old man who lies beside John, but I did know old John, that independence-loving old soul who never asked a favour, and never took one without making some recompense. He was a solitary soul, loving his solitude and treasuring his independence. And, though he lived for many, many years in this little community, I doubt if there was even one neighbour who knew him really well.

Sometimes when we went to the store, in our boat, we would see the old man ahead of us in his rowboat. Should he happen to see us coming, he would row behind the little island and remain out of sight until we had passed. Should we happen to sneak up on him, unnoticed, he he would wave for us to pass on without stopping to give him a tow. Yes, he was truly an independent old soul.

FATAL ILLNESS

He must have known for a long time about the sickness that was eating his life away, for he set his house in order, made his will, and went to the hospital to die. That day he went before the magistrate to make his will, I think he asked the only favour he ever asked from a neighbour, for he asked his nearest neighbour to go with him, his weak old hands being too feeble to row his boat. It was a cold, miserable day in the middle of winter and, when they returned, I asked them into the house to warm themselves, and was agreeably surprised when the old man accepted the invitation. He held his half-frozen hands out to the blazing fire and said, "This feels good."

I rose and put the kettle on, the old man watching me suspiciously the while. "I am going to make you a cup of tea," I told him. "It will help to warm you."

Like a shot he was out of the chair and hastening towards the door. "I have got to get home," he said. "I have such a lot of things to do."

That was the last time I ever saw him. The following week he was in hospital, and the week after that he was lying in the little graveyard on the hill. His was the first grave to be dug there, and there was something about that pathetic mound of earth that saddened my soul.

Maybe it was pity that made me lay a little bunch of roses on the lonely grave, this summer, or maybe it was my conscience reproaching me for not trying to get to know the old man better. Whichever it was, I know that John, the independent old pioneer, would have resented the liberty I had taken. But somehow, I think old John now understands the feeling that prompted my action.

Yes, I am glad they laid that other old man beside John in the little graveyard on the hill. Maybe it was only my imagination, but the trees around the little graveyard seemed to be greener this summer, and the birds seemed to have added a sweet new note to their song.

Goodbye, old John. Until the day breaks and the shadows flee, rest in peace.

Surprise Shower Held for M. Forry

GIBSONS — A truly surprise shower was held at the home of Mrs. Alan Inglis on Thursday evening, September 18, for Miss Margaret Forry, local V.O.N., who is to be married in October.

The miscellaneous shower gave Miss Forry many lovely gifts with which to start married life.

Under the arrangement of cohostesses Mrs. Alan Inglis, Mrs. Ben Lang and Mrs. George Frith, tasty refreshments were served and entertainment provided to keep the evening lively. Contest prizes were won by Mrs. Glif Leach and Mrs. R. W. Elliot.

Among those present in addition to the above mentioned, were Mrs. Hugh Inglis, Mrs. R. M. Inglis, Mrs. John Inglis, Mrs. N. R. McGibbin, Miss Drummond, Mrs. C. Lawrence, Mrs. Wm. Swallow, Miss Ruby Graham, Mrs. H. A. Cole, Mrs. Robert Murray, Mrs. E. Kullander, Mrs. Robert Burns, Mrs. S. Fladager, Mrs. H. Smith, Mrs. A. C. Bailey, Mrs. D. G. Poole and Mrs. L. R. Peterson.

Sechelt Legion W.A. Honors Mrs. French

SECHELT—Mrs. A. A. French, who has been active in veterans' affairs for both World Wars has been awarded a life membership in the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion. Mrs. French served in the First World War and since coming to Canada nearly 30 years ago, has been active in war work and in helping veterans.

Sechelt Promised Start on New Wharf

SECHELT — Work on the new wharf for Sechelt will start immediately after the end of the tourist season, according to word received by the Sechelt Improvement Association from James Sinclair, M.P. Cost of the new wharf will be $37,000.

A committee has been formed to study the wharf plan and insure its suitability for local needs.

NOSEY BEAR came to an unhappy end after venturing into the village of Westview Sunday night, stealing fruit, startling residents and frightening chickens. Numerous incidents have been reported this fall from small towns on the coast where bears and cougars have been wandering right into back yards. The hairy black marauder shown above was shot by Godfrey Harper of Westview who got him in an alder tree. The 300-lb. Bruin climbed the tree after being cornered in a thicket.

Standard Time Resumes Sunday

BRITISH Columbia will return to Pacific Standard time this Sunday at 2 a.m., with everyone putting their blocks back one hour. Concurrent with the change to standard time, trains, planes and some boats will leave and arrive one hour earlier.

Union Steamships and Gulf Lines, which have operated on daylight saving time during the summer, will have sailing schedules reading the same. C.N.R. ships will leave one hour earlier according to clocks in this area, as the C.N.R. has not operated on daylight time.

Legion Gives Smoker

ROBERTS CREEK—A smoker in honor of Mr. R. West, who is leaving shortly for England with his family, was held at Jack Hammond's "diggings," Wednesday. Mr. West was presented with a Ronson lighter with the Legion crest engraved by his fellow associates of the Roberts Creek branch of the Canadian Legion, 219.

Improvement Assn. Annual Meeting Set

SECHELT — The Sechelt District Improvement Association will hold its annual meeting and election of officers on Friday, October 3, at Sechelt United School. This organization has been in existance since November, 1940. The association was inactive from April 1942 to April 1945 when, due to the rapidly increasing population it was realized that the time was ripe for the organization to resume its activities. Since that time the membership has doubled.

As this association deals with local problems it is of interest to ratepayers especially, although the membership is open also to residents of six months standing.

SPEED LIMIT URGED ON SECHELT ROAD

SECHELT — B.C. police have recommended that the Pender-Hopkins road be designated as a through street and that speed limits and zoning areas be specified.

Standard Oil Dealers Now Chevron Stations

TO ESTABLISH the identity of its dealers as independent businessmen, and to distinguish their stations from the red, white and blue units operated by the company, Standard Oil Company of British Columbia Limited has commenced the conversion of all its dealers throughout the province to Chevron gas stations.

This conversion program consists chiefly of a new cream, green and burgundy color scheme, a distinctive Chevron gas station identification sign, and other advertising signs which feature the name of the individual dealer rather than the company whose products he handles.

"Surveys have shown," say Standard officials, "that most people prefer to deal at their neighborhood gas station . . . with the man who is in business for himself . . . for there, because their business is more appreciated, they get a friendlier, more personal type of service. That is why we are identifying the independent stations which handle Chevron Supreme gasoline and R.P.M. motor oil, with the Chevron gas station sign and colors."

Badminton Club Starts Off Season

ROBERTS CREEK — Roberts Creek Badminton Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Shaw, September 22, to outline the club's activities for the forthcoming season. The following officers were elected for the 1947-48 term: President, Mr. Keith Wright; secretary, Miss Shiela Klien; refreshment, Mrs. Carola Forst; games captain, Mr. Norman Cotton; games committee, Mr. Richard Gray and Mr. J. G. Utting.

The season opened on Friday and many new members were in evidence. Anyone wishing to join may get in touch with the secretary any Friday evening at the Community Hall.

BEAR FACTS GIVEN WORRIED READER

Editor, Coast News.

Dear Jack McGoon,

In reply to your bear story of September 19, I would like to give you some "bear" facts.

It is quite permissible for you to wear your "Stanfield's underwear" to bed—providing you have two pair, (but where did you buy them?). As far as the bear is concerned, he'll be sleeping most of the winter, anyway.

Why not try, like the bear, then you will be able to stay up nights and escort him through your humble home during the summer months.

P.T.A. Discusses School Book Needs

ROBERTS CREEK—The Roberts Creek P.T.A. held its first meeting of the season on Sept. 15 at the home of Mrs. C. Haslam, president of the organization.

Under discussion was the great need of reference books and encyclopedia for the higher grades, 7 and 8, at East Roberts School; also a pro-rec centre for the children.

Mrs. E. J. Shaw gave a very entertaining talk about her recent flying trip to California.

After the meeting was adjourned refreshments were served by the committee.

A VERY enjoyable event took place on the evening of September 16 when about 25 neighbors and friends called as a surprise on Mr. and Mrs. Harry Batchelor, who have recently moved into their newly completed home. On behalf of those present Mrs. Lund presented to the honorees a pair of embroidered pillow cases. The evening was spent in stunts and a sing song, and refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. H. Batchelor, Mrs. J. McGuinness, Mrs. McRae and Mrs. Hanson.

A very successful and enjoyable tea was given by Mrs. J. Sowerby on September 18 in aid of the Community Centre. The rooms were tastefully decorated with autumn flowers, and the many guests enjoyed a delicious tea.

A general meeting of the Selma Park Community was held in Willows store on September 15, with the president, Mrs. Geo. Colson, in the chair. It was decided to have a general meeting every third Monday of each month, and everyone is asked to keep this in mind and try to attend. The treasurer's report showed a balance on hand of $425.29, this sum to be augmented by different efforts through the coming season. It was suggested that the men of the community make new and repair old toys for the children this Christmas. Anyone having old toys to donate please leave them at Willows store.

A vote of thanks was tendered to all those who helped to make the recent sports day a success, also to Mr. Willows for the use of his store. Tickets for the raffle of a silver teaset and coffee table will be available soon. It is hoped a goodly sum will be raised by this effort. Mr. J. McGuinness moved the meeting adjourn.

FRIENDS will be interested to know that Mrs. Ruth Mitchell is now "at home" in her new home built on the old foundation, the only remaining evidence of the fire which deposessed Ruth of her possessions, one of which, her radio, was her only source of entertainment.

Now she has a new radio and has been looking forward to renewing her acquaintance with the soap opera families, whose troubles lightened her own labors. In one of them a man is on trial for his life, but alas the evidence is drowned out by the peculiar whine on the radio which is always present during the daytime. Could the power lines be at fault? Will someone please do something before the trial is over?

HELLO folks, it's me again, and I'm still around, even if my daughter isn't. I've sure been double-crossed after all this time and the day before her fifth birthday she takes the mumps, so slight that she hasn't even a swollen jaw. Although her birthday party had to be cancelled for another three weeks, we had a party among ourselves and they sure enjoyed themselves with baskets of candy, hats and balloons.

Well we sure have a tall order for congratulations. "Its" done it again. Pearl Stevens presented George with a second son. Congrats. Pearl, sorry you didn't get your daughter. Maybe next time?

The Ivan Roweds sure did things up in style by having twins, a boy and girl, so congratulations twice. I may say it's the talk and envy of the beach, and hope you are all in the best of health.

Well we sure are getting new neighbors on our trail. We wish to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Todd. Mrs. Todd flew by plane from England, so hope she will enjoy living "town the trail."

* * *

We also wish to welcome my next door neighbor, Mr. and Mrs. T. Wills, and if I slip up on my news you can blame it on them, seeing they have twin daughters two months old, and are they ever lovely.

* * *

Well at last our Ivy is away. She left here Friday morning and is leaving for Trail Tuesday night, so we know she will like it there. I am lost without her already and our morning coffee. Good luck to the Hawkshaws.

Well the club had bingo Friday again. Sorry to report a poor turnout. Cigarettes and candies were free and lots of them, and the coffee and doughnuts went down good, after spending $2 and nary winning a thing, but it was loads of fun.

* * *

Mrs. Thomas of Minaty Bay is visiting her son in Calgary.

I see Bud Patenaude and his wife and son are home visiting from Edmonton, and it's nice to see him back.

* * *

Also wish to say "welcome home" to Bud Munro, his wife and two daughters. I believe they are here to stay for a few months.

* * *

I wish to say hello to Frank and Doris Rainbow of Selma Park; they're formerly of Minaty Bay. Also hello to correspondence writer Mrs. Erickson, who also was an old-timer here; she writes for Wilson Creek.

Hello to Oliver Browning who is home visiting his Mum and Dad, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Browning.

Well eleven years today, September 21, there was lots of hustling and bustling going on at the townsite. Wes and I were married that day. Last night we had some folk in for the evening. Just got to bed at 1:45 a.m. when eight others walked in on me and I must say a good time was had by all until breakfast time.

* * *

My cousin Emily Smith and hubby Frank are up on holidays but spent them with Mr. and Mrs. R. Fleming owing to mumps in my family, but by all accounts haven't had a dull moment.

* * *

Guess I've seen everything now. I wonder what elderly man got feeling good for the first time in his life. Apparently life begins at 70, and two blondes helped him at that!

GIBSONS

By LES PETERSON

A NEW industry is being carried on in the quiet of a summer cottage by the beach here at Gibsons.

Hugo Rhys came up from Hollywood about a year ago, and has since been working with various materials in an effort to find a fresh medium for manufacturing the earrings, brooches, combs and countless other accessories which do so much to add charm to feminine fashion.

It was not until he met the vivacious Mrs. Rhys that the search finally ended and the two of them worked night and day to develop further their process of fabricating plastic into the lovely creations which will shortly be seen on shop counters here, in Vancouver, and in other parts of Canada. This development represents an entirely new field for expressing beauty in color and elevates plastic to its rightful place as the modern means to create lovely jewellery which is both unbreakable and at the same time light as a feather.

Mrs. Whamsley is returning to her Vancouver home after a nine-week holiday. She reports that her health is much improved, and that in many ways she regrets having to return.

A well known Headlands couple have deserted Gibsons for a few months. Mr. Donald Cochrane has accepted the principalship of the Port Alice school for the coming term, and Mrs. Cochrane has become supervisor of the Indian School at Alert Bay. It is hoped that they will return here after school is out.

Johnny MacDonald went for a spin in his merry Oldsmobile last Sunday and wound up at road's end at Irvines Landing. In good neighborly fashion he took Mrs. Rita Peterson and family along for the drive. It was the first time any of them, including the automobile, had made the journey.

The Kullander Bros. Garage has changed hands. The purchaser, Lew Reid, took over on September 2. Lew is no stranger to Gibsons. He came here first in 1932 and remained until 1939. In 1940 he enlisted in the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, with which branch he served until his discharge in 1944. He is married and has three children.

In addition to his instructional duties in automotive mechanics during the war, Lew has had considerable experience in garage work in civilian life. He has worked with Standard Oil, Begg Motors, MacLachlan Motors, Big Chief Service, and Varsity Service before establishing his own business here at Gibsons. Here he intends to specialize in brake work, front-end alignment, tune-ups.

One of the newest stores open for business here is the shop known as Usher's Yard Goods Store, located next door to the T. R. Godfrey & Co. Ltd. premises. Usher's now has a large variety of stocks, which include draperies, bedspreads, flannel sheets, towels, ticking, drills, pattern books, and many more articles of home requirements. Ladies and children's shoes are also stocked.

BIBLE READING

HEAR THIS, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world: Both low and high, rich and poor, together. My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding. I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp. Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about? They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches; None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him: (For the redeption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever:) That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption. For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall comsume in the grave from their dwelling. But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for He shall receive me. Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased; For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.

Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

—PSALM 49:1-10,14-17,20

Now that meat is off the bill of fare, let's go fishing for one of those 35-pounders that some folk dream of catching, and that some folk really do get — no kidding, the evidence can be found in the jars in Mrs. Gass' cupboard.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dillabaugh have as their guests Mrs. A. Bolton and young son of Vancouver.

We shall miss a cheery little couple, Mr. and Mrs. G. Ray, around our wharf. They decided to seek adventure in unknown places for an indefinite time.

Pender Harbour is really in the limelight in the magazine section of the Daily Province on Friday last. Thank you, Will Dawson, for your splendid portrayal of this lovely harbour.

We welcome back the Rev. and Mrs. Wenzel.

The boys will again be shooting the clay pigeons Monday, Sept. 15th, and we hope to have a report of same in this week's issue.

* * *

Mrs. A. Cameron of Vancouver is visiting with Mrs. Proctor for a few days.

KNOW YOUR TREES

Western Hemlock
(Tsuga heterophylla)

A coniferous tree which occurs in the wet belt region of the interior, but has a wide range on the coast. Prefers lower slopes, flats and stream bottoms. Best growth in deep, porous, moist soils. Grows from 125 to 160 feet high and from 2 to 5 feet in diameter. Of primary importance for pulp, lumber and plywood. Valuable for tannin from bark.

$16,000.00 worth of plant and equipment is back of every man and woman in the Pulp and Paper Industry.

IRVINES LANDING

By MARGARET DUNCAN

THE BRIDE and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Brenton, arrived Sunday. They are living in Garden Bay.

Mr. Ross Johnson left Tuesday to return to school.

Miss Eileen Wray went down Sunday to work, I believe. Good luck, Eileen.

* * *

A bit of excitement was created when a tug went on some rocks off Hassen's. Nothing serious though, and the boat was off in a short time.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lee and daughter Linda returned home Monday from the Queen Charlotte Islands. It is good to see you all again.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Lee only just got home and off they went on a trip to Vancouver. They went in their own boat.

* * *

Miss Marie Gooldrup is attending the Irvine's Landing School. She is going to live with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Lee.

* * *

Mr. F. Brooks' sister is up on a visit again we see. She came on Saturday via the Union.

* * *

Miss Doris Dubois came home on Saturday for a holiday. She will rejoin Mrs. Kilborne some time next month.

* * *

Our teacher is quite a traveller. Every week-end we see her hurrying to catch the boat for town.

Mr. E. Falconer is up visiting his son, Mr. W. P. Falconer for a week.

Misses Dolly and Myrtle Edwardson and yours truly were away last week-end and again this. Last week we were invited to a party at Kuchinka's Camp. We had a wonderful time. Such a nice time in fact that yours truly stayed until Tuesday. Well we decided to do it again this week, so up we went and we enjoyed it.

gone in most pantries, with jelly and pickling just scraping out the bin. So, satisfy the sweet tooth by patronizing the local bakery. Good prices at the store or did you notice that?

The Sea Bus has a new schedule coming up October 1, and note it before you travel. And watch for further news about the marine sales next door.

Our beautician is recommending the scalp and oil . . . like I said befo' . . . and say again, they are all they are supposed to be. And feel so-o-o good.

The big general store has some canned fruit . . . limited . . . and keep up your canned milk supply, don't forget. The jelly-making red crabapples look intriguing . . . I like a swish of a cinnamon stick through mine. There are Goblin vacuums . . . in . . . and "out" if you are slow.

Our cafe features Delnor foods with the dinners . . . colorful and tasty. But if you prefer to have them at home, that is alright too. You can buy them over the counter. This is an exclusive line, and Sechelt shoppers can have their orders sent by bus, I understand.

The hardware store . . . and upstairs are getting electric mixers . . . and Revere-ware out to make the housewife ask Santa early . . . and hope he does a little lay-away-planning. There are air tight heaters, all sizes. And smart chrome handles are in stock, good and practically all that are on display.

The druggist has his hands full doing up the store for the big One-Cent Sale. And, though I have not taken advantage of this event before coming to G., it does appeal now. Shaving cream is even O'K.'d by fussy men . . . the medicine chest can be well stocked against winter colds . . . and cologne and stationery do come in handy for odd gifts when you have just forgotten some little occasion.

The plaques at the 15-cent store are still admired . . . and priced at $2. Some would do a fine job of reclaiming that blank wall in the dinette or kitchen.

The ducks . . . more expensive, but are gift possibilities . . . sell at $10.

Sewing notions are in full stock . . . and zippers handy. Has anyone tried that new dye trick? The paddle do-jiggers now on sale . . . remember?

You get friendly, personal service at those new Chevron Gas Stations

Folks have always enjoyed the thoughtful, interested kind of service they receive at independent gas stations. But many people don't always know they are locally-owned. Well, as Chevron Gas Dealers, we're establishing our identity as independent businessmen in our community. That's the reason for the new Chevron Signs and the burgundy, cream and green paint jobs on our stations.

It's "only the best" for our customers—and that adds up to products like Chevron Supreme Gasoline and RPM Motor Oil. Our other services and accessories will be the same top grade, too.

We're glad to honor Standard of B.C. Credit Cards. If you haven't applied for a Credit Card, drive around any time and we'll see that you get an application form.
