More phone lines work

A $34,000 outside plant job is under way to handle future demands for service in the Sechelt area, E.L. Mallet, district commercial mnaager for B.C. Telephone Co., announces.

Cable is being placed between Inlet Avenue and Mason Road on Cowrie Street and Pender Harbour Highway to serve Wakefield. Another 140 miles of open wire is to be strung along Pender Harbour Highway and Norwest Bay Road to increase facilities in the Secret Cove, Halfmoon Bay and Redrooffs district.

A heavy gang under Ben Frigon is carrying out the work and will have it completed by late November.

B.C. Telephone Co officials announce that outside plant has been placed in the Roberts Creek area of the Gibsons exchange. The $10,000 job was designed to reduce the number of people on party lines and provide service for new subscribers.

Cable was placed between Cannery Road and Sechelt Highway on Roberts Creek Road towards Halfmoon Bay.

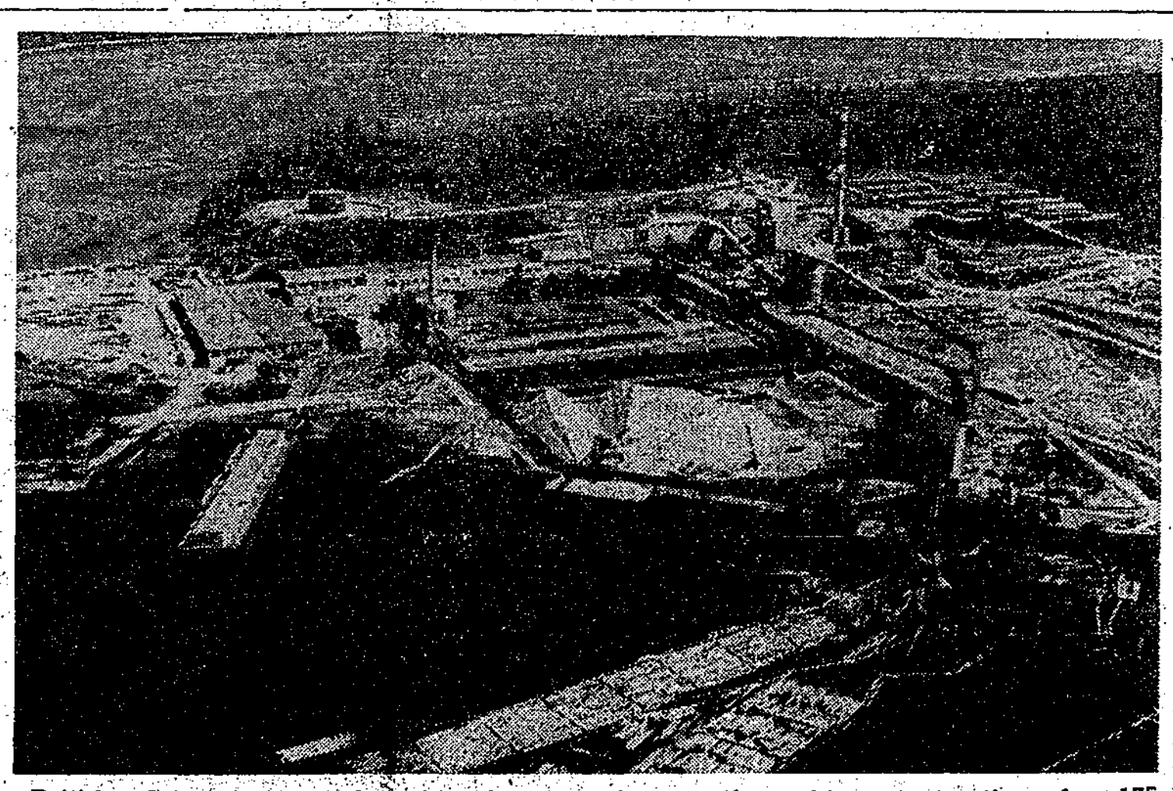
Audition for Pat Reiter

Mrs Harry Reiter, accompanied by her daughter, Pat, have returned from a trip to Seattle where Miss Pat Reiter was one of the few Canadian girls chosen to be auditioned for the part of Joan of Arc in the picture of the same name being filmed by Otto Preminger.

Mr Preminger was present for the audition and about 50 girls from the North Pacific States and Western Canada took part.

Miss Reiter speaks highly of the way the the auditions were arranged and every girl was given a fair chance to show her acting abilities.

The setting for the auditions was the Olympic Bowl in the Olympic Hotel. The proceedings were televised and much publicity appeared in the American papers. Results of the auditions will be made known in about a months time.



British Columbia's ninth pulp mill — fourth since the war — commenced production this week. It is the Elk Falls Company's $15,000,000 kraft pulp mill at Duncan Bay, near Campbell River, Vancouver Island. The plant (daily capacity 500 tons) is adjacent to the newsprint mill, (buildings to left of centre) which has been in operation since June, 1952. Mountain of chips in centre foreground feeds mill with material from several Lower Mainland and Island sawmills which formerly was largely wasted. Further expansion at the site to be carried out within the next year will be addition of $7,500,000 second paper machine, construction of a 175-ton per day bleach plant, a sawmill and additional grinders for groundwood production. When completed, the project, totalling $29,000,000 will provide completely integrated forest industry at one site to give best end-use of sawlogs. Elk Falls Company is subsidiary of Crown Zellerbach Canada Limited.

Bishop coming

Bishop Geoffrey Gower of New Westminster will preach in Anglican churches Sunday on the Peninsula and will be at St. Bartholomews in Gibsons at 11 am. St. Hilda's, Sechelt at 2 pm and St. Aiden's in Roberts Creek at 3.30 pm.

The services will be special Thanksgiving services and it is expected there will be good congregations at each service.

Many sign for concerts

The memberchip campaign for the Overture Concert association on the Sechelt Peninsula is making satisfactory progress, Dick McKibbin, president, announces.

Reports from team captains for the first four days indicate an enthusiastic acceptance of bringing top-flight talent to the Peninsula. Over 100 memberships have been received, and many more promised.

The fact membership cards may be loaned to others is a favorable point with many members, likewise the idea passes may be obtained for visitors from outside areas.

Mr Polson, a concert pianist, with Mr Dorse McTaggart who has taken a keen interest in the Overture Concert Association, Vancouver, visited the Peninsula on Wednesday, calling on many members from Port Mellon to Sechelt, to discuss operation of the association.

B of T WILL HEAR CENTENNIAL IDEAS

Gibsons and district Board of Trade has arranged for J. Mathison, regional consultant of the Community Programs branch, Department of Education to address the board on Centennial committee operations at the local level.

This will be done at the next meeting, Nov. 19 and Mr Mathison will outline how a local committee can function and what it will be able to do to obtain government financial aid.

The board, now in its 11th year saw the vice-president swear in the president. Mrs Wynne Stewart, who was unable to attend the swearing-in ceremony at Port Mellon recently owing to illness. Four new members were admitted, Mrs Nygren, Bob Emerson, Mr Priess of Port Mellon and Mr Holden of B.C. Elertric. The membership is now on its way to the 60 mark.

A letter from Black Ball Ferries asked that the board show its agreement by letter for Black Ball to move to Hopkins. As this was regarded as a formality a motion to that effect was passed.

The slate of officers for the year and members of the various committees are: Mrs Wynne Stewart, president; Ed Anderson, vice - president; Harold Wilson, secretary; Rae Kruse, treasurer; Keith Wright, local affairs; Walt Nygren, marine; Walt Emerson, public relations; Don Macklam, advertising; George Hunter, house; Ted Henniker, finance; William McAfee trade and industry; William Sutherland, tourism and safety; Harry Reichelt, Farmers Institute; Rae Kruse, membership program and entertainment, Jack Marshall and special events, Ed Anderson.

Members who admitted they were offenders of parking laws, complained about the lack of action on part of the RCMP in nabbing overtime parkers and 'sleepers', people who leave their cars for long hours and days in one spot. The board was urged to write the RCMP and urge greater enforcement of the parking laws.

MEETING DEBATES BUS FARE

Lower bus fares following the reduction of the Lions Gate Bridge toll was discussed at the last meeting of Roberts Creek Improvement association. Mrs R. Hughes was in the chair and the meeting was of the opinion the only solution was for the bus line to issue a return fare in order the reduction could be put into effect.

Owing to the general dissatisfaction of the meeting over the lack of a fare cut two letters were read.

Here is the first letter to the Public Utilities Commission at Victoria:

Dear Sirs: I have been instructed by the Roberts Creek Improvement association to advise you, that as yet the Sechelt Transportation has not reduced the fares as B.C. Electric did when the toll was taken off the bridge.

Your attention to the matter would be appreciated.

J. Monrufet, secretary-treasurer.

Here is the second letter:

Dear Madam: In answer to your letter I can advise as follows: The reduction per passenger amounted to only two-and-a-half cents and as Sechelt Transporttion Ltd. sell only single fare tickets, the officials of the company pointed out that it was impracticabe to reduce the fare by two-and-a-half cents.

Where return fares are offered to West Vancouver, North Vancouver, etc. and where the toll amounts to five cents the adjustment was made.

I trust the above is the explanation you require.

W.A. Jaffray, superintendent.

CNIB drive may top '55

The CNIB drive for funds is expected to go over last year's figure, Edward Henniker, manager of the Bank of Montreal at Gibsons, and chairman of the drive, announces.

So far collections have totalled $440 and there are still some points to hear from such as Sechelt, Wilson Creek and Halfmoon Bay and elsewhere.

Long search comes to end

Coming on Oct. 18, 19 and 20 to Gibsons Theatre is a story billed as the roughest, toughest, most beautiful picture ever made. The Searchers is a story of a search for Debbie, young daughter of a Texas rancher and niece of Ethan Edwards (John Wayne), who has been carried off by a raiding band of Comanches.

The search lasted for five years, and extends from the southwest to the Canadian border. Martin Pawley, a ward of the Edwards family, joins his uncle in the search, played by Jeff Hunter.

11th Canada Savings Bonds now on sale

The 11th series of Canada Saings Bonds will be offered to Canadians Oct. 15. While the new bond reains features that have caused two million Canadians to become owners, there is an added touch this year.

As an incentive not only to buy but to hold the bonds, the interest rate has been stepped up. The first two coupons pay off at an annual rate of 3¼ percent, the next two at 3¾ and the last seven at four percent.

A veteran of savings bonds campaigns, William S. 'Bill' McQuaid will help organize payroll deduction buying in plants and mills in the Howe Sound Region. With Pemberton Securities, Vancouver. Mr McQuaid is one of nine B.C. vestment dealers borrowed from firms for the job.

Payroll deduction buying has proved a popular way to secure savings, $1,565,398,400 worth having been bought this way during the past decade.

Bonds also can be bought for cash and through banks and inestment dealers. As usual they do not fluctuate in value and can be turned in anytime for cash value plus interest.

The news sure gets around, Professor.

CSB's for rainy days

At times a set of initials will convey to the general public something of importance. We have UNESCO, NATO, CPR, CNR, TCA and so forth. Each one representing something substantial.

In Canada we have initials which have a considerable effect on our general economy. Those initials are CSB and they represent Canada Savings Bonds. Canada backs them and they do build our economy.

Why are these initials important? Well to start with they represent a nest egg amounting to something like two billion dollars salted away by the people of Canada on which they get more than three percent per year added to their investment, guaranteed by the Ottawa government.

These bonds are not subject to market fluctuations. They remain at one price during their lifetime and can be turned into cash at any bank on any banking day when interest to that period will be paid as well as the face value of the bond.

These bonds are sold to individuals only, each person can purchase up to $15,000 only. They can be bought in sums ranging from $50 to $15,000.

They cannot be held by corporations because they must be important in the life of Canadians or they would not hold them to the value of two billion dollars. That large sum and along with the bank savings deposits which are more than two billions it would look as though Canadians are financially sound.

CSB's now on sale, are easy to get. Your bank manager can help you decide how you purchase them. Banks also have an excellent loan policy to assist the purchaser.

Editor: Our good little Coast News certainly gets around. We got results from both the ads, a man from Half Moon Bay bought the buggy to take out to Chilliwack, and I received a letter from Ontario in answer to the one about the Rama wool.

Editor: I think it is high time that something was done about cows wandering free all over the Gisbons streets. They really are a public nuisance the way they are allowed to roam everywhere, up and down the roads, into private yards tramping on gardens and flowers, eating fruit out of the back of trucks, even when the truck is closed in on three sides.

They are all over the school yard and would probably be inside if the doors weren't kept closed. Also they are all over the parking area of the lovely new Super Valu store.

Of course this messes up the grounds as their manure is left behind.

Many people are nervous of cows, especially old people or handicapped people. If people want to own cows, why should n't they have a large pasture well fenced in for them. That is the only decent thing to do for the public. So please can't something be done about this?

Yours for cowless streets.

A fallen leaf

BY MARGARET ALLAN

We are going to miss Mrs Nell Paton, who passed away in her sleep. There was no elaborate funeral. Friends came and took her quietly away.

She was one of the old school who thought people should stand on their own feet if able, and although failing lately she still carried on. No task was too menial for her. It was carried out with dignity and done well.

The village is going to miss her. She was always at hand. The children will miss her too. She was never on the front page or the Social Column, but at the grass roots of humanity she was indispensible.

Her type is getting scarce. She kept her troubles to herself. God in his wisdom saw fit to take her away where she will be happy. Farewell Nell Paton we miss you.

The following is from a poem she liked:

Oh death, the poor man's dearest friend—
The kindest and the best,
Welcome the hour my aged limbs
Are laid with thee to rest,
The great, the wealthy, fear thy blow,
From pomp and pleasure torn,
But, Oh a blest relief to those, that weary laden mourn.
Blessed are the poor in Spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

He'll be around quite awhile

A pixy-like little old man hobbled out of the high hills and announced to a startled world that he was a left over of the big British Columbia gold rush one hundred years ago.

Giving his name as Century Sam, he told reporters he'd been here before — in 1858! That's what they're saying down at the Centennial Committee office in Victoria.

The fact is Sam's the man who's going to shout to all the world that B.C.'s biggest celebration is set for 1958.

They are going to see Sam in London, Paris, Rome and New York. At the same time he's going to be as familiar in Prince Rupert, Penticton, the Peace River Country, the Queen Charlottes, in the big cities and the Pumpkin Corners. He'll be right here on the Sunshine Coast too.

Sam's as real as patriotism. You can see a bit of him in everyone who calls this province home — and the twinkle of his eye is transported to foreign places with everyone who even visits here.

He's at once, the gol 'durndest story-teller, and the dagnabbist boaster who ever panned the rivers.

'Went on a spree back in 1858. Me and a rattler chose to hole up in the same rocks. He bit me, I bit him back. He stiffened out and I used him for a pipe cleaner. Then I guess I slept for 98 y'ars or so.'

Stuff like that Sam spouts. He can talk all day about the gold rush — how the miners landed at Puget Sound and at Whatcom, how they made a trail from there overland to the Fraser, about 20 miles above Langley. How they lived, worked and 'whooped it up'.

His memories of the last century, his 'wonderment' at the advances of the country since he hibernated, will be a big part of the Centennial color which is soon to be splashed around the globe.

Sam's going to the people soon in a broadside which will show on the walls of community halls and municipal offices wherever local committees are planning their 1958 birthday party.

B.C. Centennial Committee chairman L.J. Wallace says Sam's going to make the papers, the magazines, the T.V. and the billboards.

Watch for Sam. Where he is you'll learn more about your Centennial Year program — the biggest collection of excitement since the province began.

A LONG SPAN

British Columbia's longest suspension span is being constructed across the turbulent Peace River at Taylor Flats, a short distance south of the town of Fort St. John. The span, which will be 1675 feet from tower to tower, will carry the Westcoast Transmission Company Limited natural gas pipelines, Plans call for completion of the crossing this year.

ARTS BUILDING

Construction is expected to start shortly on the University of British Columbia's new $2 million Arts Building. Contract for construction was awarded to contractor A.R. Grimwood Ltd. who submitted the lowest bid, $1,658,000, in competition with five other firms.

I.O.O.F. Sunshine Coast Lodge No.76 meets Gibson's Legion Hall 2nd and 4th Friday each month.

POWER OUTAGE

During the construction of the Port Mellon-Gibsons new Distribution Line, there will be Intermittent Power Outages for the period of about one month, commencing Oct. 5.

These Outages will be for periods of from ONE to TWO HOURS.

A new planting rig

Faster and better reforestation practices are forseen by foresters as the result of the development of a new power planting tool. Mechanized harvesting of the forest has long been common-place in B.C., but until now, planting of the forest has remained strictly in the hand tool stage. The new power planting tool, weighing 21 lbs., combines a McCulloch chain saw motor with a four inch auger and was developed by Doug Best, MacMillan & Bloedel's Reforestation Supervisor, working in co-operation with the Island Chain Saw Equipment Co. Ltd. in Nanaimo.

For most effective planting it is carried in a swinging motion to dig holes at six or eight foot centres, or other spacing to suit requirments. Thorough tests by MacMillan & Bloedel's Forestry Division indicate that superior results are obtained as compared with standard practice of using a mattock. The planter digs a good hole and cultivates the soil well to permit planting of the trees at proper depth with well placed roots. The rate of planting under tough conditions is considerably improved.

Already the B.C. Forest Service and private companies have placed orders for the machine in preparation for fall planting.

AN ACHIEVEMENT

More money was raised in British Columbia by the Red Cross in the current year's campaign than during any other peacetime period. With money still coming in, $[illegible]000 has been contributed by Red Cross subscribers to date, $17,000 more than during the previous year. While the objective for 1956 was higher, returns were greater. It is anticipated that 97% of the $667,000 goal will be reached.

Port Mellon news notes

BY MRS. M. WEST

Mrs C. Graham is spending a week at Courtenay, Vancouver Island, guest of her cousin Miss Kathleen Stevens. She will be joined by her husband and David for the weekend.

Mrs J. Thomson with Jimmy and Marianne is visiting her sister Miss Margaret Moncrieff in Victoria.

Mrs R. Weston and Dwight and Sheri have returned home after a week in Vancouver.

Mr and Mrs G. Taylor and Mr and Mrs Ollenberger and family spent the weekend in Vancouver.

A son born to Mr and Mrs Fred King of Vancouver last week is the fifth great grandchild of Mr and Mrs W. Schultze.

Mr Arne Leen of Longview is in Vancouver General Hospital following a fall from the porch of his home resulting in a broken collar bone and several broken ribs.

Mr and Mrs Davies, Mr and Mrs Brown, Mr and Mrs Hempsall, Mr and Mrs Mackilam, Mr Ollenberger, Mr Peterson, Mr and Mrs Preiss and Mr and Mrs Sherman went to Woodfibre on Friday evening in Mr Peterson's cabin cruiser to attend the farewell party honoring Mr and Mrs Guthrie of Woodfibre who are leaving to take up a new post.

At the October meeting of the PTA Mr Cliff Mahlman and Mr Chris Wood, representing the Credit Union, outlined the proposed School Savings Club, and referred briefly to the growth of the Credit Union in Port Mellon from 11 members with $67 capital in 1951 to approx imately 160 members with $25,000 share capital at the present time. Loans totalling $150,000 have been made in the past five years.

The school plan approved by the school board and teachers and run by a PTA committee will allow children to deposit small sums not less than 10c to their accounts each week. Loans will not be made to children and withdrawals may only be made with the parents consent.

Eight PTA members volunteered to serve on this committee and the children may bank their savings every Monday after school.

As in former years the PTA will take advantage of the offer of the Peninsula Cleaners by collecting coat hangers. Mrs Boyes, Mrs Gant and Mrs Wiren will organize the Coat Hanger drive which will take place on Oct. 24 to give everyone ample time to turn out their cupboards and release as many coat hangers as possible.

The winter crib games sponsored by the PTA will start later this month.

Cleanups remove fire hazards

Thorough clean-ups around the home can help reduce the high incidence of fires and accidents during the fall and winter months, according to the All Canada Insurance Federation.

Officials of the Federation, which represents more than 200 fire, automobile and casualty insurance companies in Canada, said hundreds of deaths an accidents could be avoided by a more systematic check-up of hazards in the home.

Safety officials recommend the following precautions:

1. See that all leaves and rubbish are cleaned away from the house and eaves. Guard against flying sparks when burning rubbish.

2. Chimneys and flues should be cleaned and checked at least once a year. Have experts inspect heating equipment.

3. Before storing summer clothing, remove matches from pockets.

4. Clear old newspapers, magazines and inflammable materials from attics, basements, garages and spare rooms.

5. Have electrical wiring and appliances checked by qualified electricians. Overloading of circuits is dangerous.

6. Store painting and cleaning materials carefully; keep inflammable liquids in plainly marked safety cans; destroy rags or clothing soaked with paint, furniture polish or wax.

7. Protect yourself from public liablity — saw off dead tree branches; keep driveways and walks in good repair.

8. Flooded basements are dangerous — see that downspouts are clear and discharging into storm sewers.

9. Make sure garden tools and children's toys are not left lying about.

Exchanging hats following the announcement in Vancouver August 15, that McCulloch of Canada will handle the Canadian distribution for Scott-Atwater outboard motors are Keneth C. Mulkey, Sales Manager for McCulloch of Canada left and Harold Larsen, Canadian Co-ordinator for Scott-Atwater.

Weddings

CZUBAJKOWSKI-MORRISON

A profusion of summer flowers, gladioli and asters created the beautiful and traditional setting for the marriage Saturday evening of Edna May Morrison, daughter of Mrs W.L. Morrison and the late Mr Morrison and Zygmunt Czubajkowski son of Mr and Mrs J. Czubajkowski of Germany.

Rev. A. Rutherford performed the service in Trinity United Church at 7.30 p.m., Sept 8th.

Given in marriage by her uncle Mr. Albert Rowbottom, the bride wore an exquisite gown of nylon lace over lustrous white satin. Pearl appliques decorated the bouffant skirt of the princess styled full length bridal gown. Her finger tip length illusion veil was caught to a coronet of seed pearls and sequins and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

Mrs Deanna La Breche, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, her gown was yellow chiffon and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Elaine Smith and Miss Lillian Blake as bridesmaids were in full length frocks of net and lace, Miss Smith in pale blue and Miss Blake in pink. Both carried carnations en tone.

Little Joanne Mountain was flower girl in a full length dress of pink organdy, her flowers were green carnations.

Mr. Maurice Mathieu was best man.

A reception for 200 guests was held at the IOOF hall at which Mr Ted Law was master of ceremonies and Mr. Les Smith proposed the bridal toast.
