OBITUARY.

It is with very deep regret that we have to announce the death of Mrs. Clinton, wife of our esteemed fellow citizen Mr. G. W. Clinton, which took place at an early hour Monday morning. Mrs. Clinton was taken seriously ill at her home, on Friday last, and was removed to the hospital, where, in spite of every effort of doctors and nurses she passed away. The late Mrs. Clinton has been for many years a resident of this city, and her many friends and acquaintances will regret her early and sudden taking off, and will with the rest of the community join in deepest sympathy with the bereaved husband and family. The deceased lady was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Shaw of this city also sister of Mrs. L. Nunns and Mr. R. Shaw, resident here.

The funeral takes place from Holy Trinity Church, on Wednesday afternoon, June 30th, at 3 p. m.

Mrs. Frank Burnett, who has been visiting her aunt Mrs. S. F. Dobson, of Comox, for the past four weeks, returned to Vancouver on the 27th inst.

Dr. Kerr dentist will be at Courtenay from July 1st to 7th, 1909.

Wanted at once—A sensible woman for general house work. Apply to Mrs. Cairns, Comox Valley.

Don't forget the celebration at Union Bay on July 1st.

Mr. and Mrs Crosby left by Wednesday's boat.

Miss V. Matthews arrived home by Thursday's boat.

J. W. Bryden arrived home by Thursday's boat.

City Council.

The City Council met in regular session last evening a full board being present.

The minutes of previous meetings were read and adopted.

A communication was received from St. George's Presbyterian Church, calling attention to the unsightly condition of First St; referred to Board of Works.

Accounts,—H. Mitchell, $7.25; Water Works Co. $101.00; Geo. Peacock, $1.85; Elec. Light, $36.25; Water, $3.00; R. Grant & Co. $74.10; A. H. Peacey, $5.20; Freight on pipe and cement, $9.15 Wellington Col. Co., $7.55.

Applications for position of scavenger were as follows:—Joseph Stant, Wm. Brown, D. Haddow, A. Gatz, James Brown, Joe Bonzo, Matthew Perry, Pete Bono, F. Monaco. Monaco's and Bono's applications being received too late were not dealt with. James Brown was the successful applicant.

A communication was received from the Police commissioners recommending that policemen be supplied with uniform, Ald. Bate, moved, seconded by Ald Partridge that uniform be supplied. The motion was defeated.

It was regularily moved and seconded that Board of Works examine sidewalks on the main street and report at next meeting of council—carried.

The time for payment of taxes was extended to the 20th of July.

It was moved by Ald. Bickle, seconded by Ald. Partridge, that Mrs. J. Robinson's taxes be remitted—carried unanimously.

It was regularily moved, seconded and carried, that Mr. P. P. Harrison be instructed to draft a tax sale by-law—carried.

There being no further business the council adjourned.

Health Inspector Here.

The lecture delivered by Dr. Fagan, on Wednesday evening last, in Council Chambers, was well attended and listened to with marked attention. The doctor was very pronounced in the matter of proper drainage and warned the city of consequence if they failed to see to it. If any man in this province has the relief of the tuberculosis sufferers at heart and would do all in his power for them, that man is Dr. Fagan. Quite a number of short addresses were delivered by prominent citizens, who heartily endorsed the doctors very able and instructive address. Quite a nice sum was subscribed at the meeting for the sanitarium fund, and a ladies' aid was organized at the close of the meeting.

Dr. Arbuckle, Miss L. Grant and Mrs. R. Cessford arrived by Saturday's boat.

Mrs. R. Grant, and Mrs. B. W. Baily left by S. S. Cowichan, on Sunday afternoon for Vancouver.

"Do you think my peach-basket hat is too extravagant?" she asked.

"That isn't a peach basket," answered her husband, as he grouchily signed another check. "That's a waste basket."

In clearing the site for the new Church of England parsonage, on on Thursday last, one of the stumps was too heavily charged causing a piece of the stump weighing about one hundred pounds to fly across the street striking Mr. T. Richard's verandah, tearing one end almost completely away. Care should be taken in blasting in the centre of the city, that the charges are not too heavy, for if proper precautions are not taken, serious damage may be done to life and property.

PUTTING HIM WISE.

The Secondhand Auto Dealer and His Irate Victim.

THE irate victim blustered into the office of the secondhand automobile dealer.

"Look here, sir!" he thundered. "The automobile you sold me yesterday won't run. One of the cylinders is cracked, the spark plug is badly connected, the steering gear is loose, one wheel is wabbly, and—and"—

"Hold on a minute," the dealer interposed. "Did I sell you a machine yesterday?"

"You certainly did."

"And you paid me for it?"

"Of course I did!" was the emphatic response.

"Then the machine belongs to you, doesn't it?"

"Why, to be sure it does!"

"Well, that being the case, I'd advise you not to amble through the city shouting about its defects. If you do I'd like to know how you expect to sell it."—Lippincott's Magazine.

The Pleasure Seeker.

Lady—Well, I'll give you 5 cents—not because I think you deserve it, mind, but because it pleases me.

Tramp—Thank yer. Couldn't yer make it 10 cents and thoroughly enjoy yerself?

Extinguisher Needed.

Mrs. Stubb—John, I have some old novels I thought about donating to the home for disabled sailors. Here is one intensely interesting. In the first chapter during a fiery argument the hero, red hot with anger, rushes at the villain with blazing eyes. Then the heroine, with glowing cheeks—

Mr. Stubb—Hold on, Maria. That's not appropriate reading for disabled sailors. You had better send it down to the home for retired firemen. Geo, such a novel as that needs a fire extinguisher with every chapter!—Houston Post.

Among the Ultra Set.

Mrs. Highuppe—Uncle Henry is so stupidly plebeian. Really, I am exasperated every time he calls.

Mr. Highuppe—In what way, my dear?

Mrs. Highuppe—Why, he always asks if our baby cries. As if we had one of those old fashioned babies!—Chicago News.

The country swain dropped his red ear and leaned over to the country lass.

"Mandy, c-can I kiss yeou now?" he asked anxiously.

"Not now, Hiram," giggled Mandy.

"Why not?"

"Because even the corn has ears."—St. Louis Republic.

Each Had His Work

Gyer—There go Peckem and his wife. She is a lecturer, and he is an entertainer.

Myer—Both in public life, eh?

Gyer—Oh, no! When he wants to go downtown in the evening she gives him a lecture; then he stays home and entertains the baby.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

"You and Mr. Gudgeigh were very quiet in the parlor last night," said her mother.

Sending to Eatons.

The writer wishes to draw attention to the fact that the business people of Cumberland are always complaining about the public sending their money away to Eaton's instead of doing their business at home and keeping the money here. The other day a Presentation took place in which the business men and others contributed, and instead of purchasing the goods at home, they sent to Vancouver to be supplied, when the goods could have been obtained in Cumberland. We have in our town, a Development League agitating to bring capital etc., here. Are they not working in vain? The writer was appaoached by a gentleman on this matter, and his opinion was, that a public meeting should be called to investigate the matter and also to invite our local member to be present, as this might be a precedent for the future. There is a play called "Too Much Johnston," this should be called "Too Much Grantham."

"No," replied the old professor, whose mind had slipped a cog and transported him to mythological fields, "not if the pictures of her are authentic."

Presentation.

Previous to Mr. Netherby's departure last Saturday night, he was summoned to the parlor of the Cumberland Hotel, where many friends had assembled, and presented him with a very handsome gold watch (hunting case) and chain, with the initials A. B. N. nicely engraved on the outside of the case. The presentation was made on behalf of the business men and friends by Mrs. Piket in the following short address:—

"Dear Mr. Netherby:—On behalf of the business men and your friends of Cumberland, I have much pleasure in presenting you with this small token of esteem and good will in which you are held by your many friends, and trust you may long enjoy good health to wear it."

Mr. Netherby in reply thanked his friends for the valuable and unexpected gift, which though acceptable and very much appreciated, was not necessary to keep him in remembrance of his many kind friends in Cumberland. At about ten o'clock a large party left by autos to escort Mr. Netherby to Union Bay.

Mr. A. E. John Houston has shaken the dust of Prince Rupert from his shoes] some maliciously inclined persons say, however, that the new metropolis of the north will never be troubled with the problem], has sold out the Empire, and will seek new political and advertising pastures in Texas or New Mexico. But John will never be happy away from British Columbia. We will give him six months, or a year at the most, to find out that this is the only part of the world worth living in.—Victoria times.

The foundations of Califonia have been suffering again from a severe attack of ague. The natives of the state accepted the shock as a mere matter of course or periodical experience. Strangers not accustomed to the sensation of feeling the foundations of the earth rocking beneath their feet, were naturally greatly alarmed. It is satisfactory to learn that no damage was done. Yet the visitation contained an imtimation of ever present possibilities. A slightly more violent vibration and there might be ghastly tales for the newspapers to tell.—Times

At the baseball match played between the "Waverly Steps" and the "Father of the Tramps" on last Sunday resulted in a victory for the latter team, they having proved themselves easy winners. "Waverly Steps" it's up to you to redeem yourselves.
