THE GREAT NORTHERN
VANCOUVER DEPOT PLANS

Private advices received in this city state that the Great Northern's False Creek depot plans, as far as the station bldg is concerned at least, will probably not be prepared by the architectural dept of the railway company for another year or two.

The statement has been made, on authority of the railroad's engineering dept officials, that the bldg plans would be rushed and work probably started within six months.

If such is the case, the architectural dept of the railroad does not seem to know of the fact.
