GIGANTIC PROPERTY LOSS AT SASKATCHEWAN CAPITAL

Telegraphic dispatches from Regina indicate an enormous property loss occasioned by a tornado which struck that city Sunday afternoon. Buildings to the value of between ten and eleven million dollars were destroyed. The provincial government buildings erected at a cost of $2,000,000 and but very recently completed, were seriously damaged but can be repaired.

Of a group of public buildings facing Victoria park in the heart of the city only two, the Baptist church and the Land Titles bldg can be repaired. The buildings totally destroyed include the Metropolitan church, Y.M.C.A., Public Library, Knox Presbyterian church and the Y.W.C.A., representing a property loss of over a million dollars. Many office buildings were badly damaged and innumerable residences were totally destroyed. The loss of life is estimated at about 25. Over 400 persons were injured, some of them fatally.

WILL LET CONTRACT FOR STANDARD BLOCK

A contract will be closed today for the erection of the Standard blk, to be built at the corner of Dunsmuir and Seymour sts for Leon Melekov, the archt being W. T. Whiteway, 543 Hastings st W. The plans call for a 2 story bldg, with provision made for additional storeys. A reinforced structural frame is planned with the first story in terra cotta and the second in pressed brick facing both upon Dunsmuir and Seymour sts.

The main entrance will be upon Dunsmuir st, on which street 3 storeys will face. There will be a second entrance on Seymour st and the upper floor is to be occupied by offices.

CONTRACT AWARDED FO R APARTMENT HOUSE

R. A. McCullough, 25 Hastings st E, has been awarded a contract for the construction of an apartment house on Alder st for Norman McLeod, 677 Hamilton st. M. D. Campbell, Exchange bldg, is the archt.

The plans call for a frame bldg consisting of 5 apmts of four room each. A hot water system will be installed. The bldg will rest on a concrete foundation. The cost is $8000.

BANK BRANCH FINISHED

The new Fairview branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, at the corner of Granville st and 6th ave was opened Saturday. The building is 30x64 ft of red pressed brick with light brown terra cotta facing and was erected at a cost of $25,000. The interior consists of two tellers' cages, space for six ledgers and a counter room for accountants, together with a manager's private office. Accommodation is provided on the second floor for a clerical staff of eight. The building was erected by the Dominion Realty Company, of Toronto, under the supervision of Robert Afford.

RESIDENCE BURNED

An unoccupied house at the corner of Cornwall st and Walnut ave and owned by J. H. Hudson, of the Blackburn hotel, was destroyed by fire Sunday morning. The loss is $4,500 with $2,000 insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown. Mr. Hudson has not determined as yet when he will rebuild.

ARCHTS RECEIVE BIDS FOR NEW CLUB BLDG

Sharpe & Thompson, archts, are now accepting tenders for the excavation of a site to be occupied by the new Vancouver Club bldg. Bids will be received until Saturday. Next week the archts will accept tenders for general structural work from selected contractors only.

Saturday the archts submitted their plans to the bldg inspector who will pass upon the drawings at once. The plans call for a most beautiful structure costing in the neighborhood of $250,000. Five storys constitute the height of the proposed bldg, to be built of steel and reinforced concrete. The design is pleasingly appropriate and will add materially to the appearance of the corner where the present bldg now stands, Pender st W.

BUILDING FINE HOME AT CEDAR COTTAGE

Archt R. Mackay Fripp has completed plans and let a contract to W. D. McKenzie for the erection of a $10,000 residence for H. B. Clark, of Cedar Cottage. The structure consists of ten rooms including a large reception hall. The architectural style is colonial. The exterior is to be finished in shingles upon a stone foundation.

WORK BEING RUSHED

Excavation is almost completed for a large rooming house being built on Pender st near Abbott for John Walker. F. L. Langer has the genl contr and Braunton & Leibert are the archts. The cost of the bldg is $50,000 and it will be finished about Dec. 1. The bldg will be of reinforced concrete, 6 sto in height with pressed brick facing. Steam heat will be used. Provision is made for 70 rooms and a store. Each room will have hot water. The bldg will occupy a lot 25x120 ft.
