Mrs. Bert. Wilson was admitted to the Armstrong hospital a week or ten days ago on account of illness.

The fancy dress carnival held on the Enderby rink last evening was a delightful affair to all participating.

Don't forget the meeting of the Farmers' Institute in K. P. Hall, on Saturday, at 1 p.m. Important business.

Mrs. C. Paradis has bought the Matthews home on Cliff street, and has removed her dressmaking parlors thither.

Geo. D. Calder, contractor & builder, of Vernon, spent some days in Enderby the past week, the guest of his brother, principal of the public school staff.

A meeting of the local organization of the Boy Scouts will be held in K. P. Hall next Tuesday evening, Feb. 18th. All members are requested to attend.

J. P. Westman showed a very fine assortment of stereopticon pictures in the Methodist church Tuesday evening in connection with the Sunday School and League work of that church.

On the evening of the 21st inst., the Mara Musical & Athletic Association will give a fancy dress ball in the Mara hall. Great preparations are being made by some of the Enderby dancers who will attend.

John Doble, who was arrested in Enderby a few weeks ago with a ring in his possession stolen from an Armstrong jewelry store, pleaded guilty when brought up for trial and was sentenced to one year.

Mr. Geo. H. Prince and Mr. A. R. Rogers, capitalists of St. Paul, Minn., the latter owner of the Okanagan Sawmills Ltd., visited Enderby the past week on an inspection of their property interests here.

The ladies of the Hospital Auxiliary will hold a whist drive in the Opera House, on Feb. 19th, at 8 o'clock. Playing to begin promptly at 8:30. Suitable prizes are to be given, and an admission fee of 50c will be charged.

A telephone was installed in the C. P. R. station Wednesday afternoon, and each morning Station Agent Burnham will keep "Central" informed as to the time of trains, etc. It will therefore be unnecessary to call up the station to learn this information.

We are pleased to note that the illness of Hon. Price Ellison was not as serious as was reported in the coast papers. Mr. Ellison was subjected to an attack of appendicitus, but recovered without the necessity of an operation, and is again able to attend to his parliamentary duties.

Harry Baxter left for the coast this week, where he will finish his studies to acquit himself as a provincial surveyor. His many Enderby friends wish him success in his work and hope to see him return to the Okanagan.

Evangelistic services will be held in the Methodist church each night of next week, Sunday, 16th to Friday, the 21st. Rev. G. O. Fallis, of Penticton, will speak on Tuesday and the following evenings of the week. The services will be brief and helpful, commencing at 7:30 each evening.

Constable Bailey was called upon Tuesday morning to arrest two men who insisted upon riding on the south-bound train without paying their fares. They were taken before Magistrate Rosoman who imposed a nominal fine of $1.

Do not forget the sale of fancy and useful articles, Saturday afternoon, and evening, by the Ladies Aid of Methodist church, in store vacated by dry goods department Enderby Trading Company; a lot of house-plants also offered. Tea and cake will be served.

The Enderby team of bowlers went to Kamloops last Friday to give the Kamloops team a return game. A. E. Evans, Milt. Stevens, F. B. Dill, Geo. Schmidt and E. B. Dill were on the team. The playing resulted in three straight games to their credit, with the score more than 100 points to the good.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Brash have for the past week enjoyed a visit from Mr. R. Wilson and daughter, old friends of Westview, Sask. Mr. and Miss Wilson returned to their home by Tuesday's train. They were delighted with the Enderby district, and are determined to return in the near future.

Whoever says there is not any humor in the suffragette movement is a dull, sordid skate. The ladies of the Province have been preparing a valentine for Sir Richard McBride, and to-morrow a deputation of them will wait upon the Premier and present it with their compliments. It consists of a petition signed by the women of the Province asking the Provincial Government to give the voting franchise to women.

Mr. Geo. Schmidt left on Monday for Chemainus to take up his new work as head of the clerical department of the big sawmill there. Mr. Schmidt made a host of friends during his residence in Enderby, and he will be greatly missed in many circles. He was an assistant Scoutmaster in the local Scout organization, which position he will nominally retain until he sees what can be done at Chemainus in the same direction.

A sad fatality is reported from Mabel Lake. Last Thursday evening Chas. Preston reported at the Hupel hotel, that while he and Geo. Isherwood were crossing the lake, carrying the mail to Hupel from the opposite side, they ran into treacherous ice as they were nearing the shore and both broke through. Both wore skis but Preston managed to free one of his feet and climbed safely upon the breaking ice. He tried to save Isherwood with a pole picked up close by, but his unfortunate companion disappeared under the ice before aid could be rendered. Isherwood was located on a bush ranch on Mabel Lake. He was well liked by all who knew him, and his tragic death brought gloom to the district in which he lived.

To-morrow evening, in the Opera House, the Military Ball by Enderby Troop, B. C. Horse, will be given. This promises to be very largely attended by the citizens of the surrounding district, and it is certain that Enderbyites will be there in force, for all who have had the good fortune to be present at other events given by the troop, know there is a good time in store for all. The opening waltz at 8:30.

Secretary Handcock has left at the office of The Walker Press an official receipt book so that all old members (and any new ones) may pay their annual membership fee into this office and receive receipt therefor. The annual fee is 50c. For this amount members receive all bulletins, pamphlets and other literature published by the Department of Agriculture, and, in addition, the right to purchase stumping powder at the reduced government rate; also seeds and other supplies required by the agriculturist and fruitgrower.

NEW ENDERBY BUSINESS FIRM

Papers were signed this week in an important business deal, whereby the stock and business of the firm of J. W. Evans & Son were taken over by the Dill Brothers, F. B. and E. B. The turn-over will be made on the 1st of March, in the meantime the purchasers making the necessary business changes to enable them to open up on a settled basis when they take over the business.

This change in business will undoubtedly add materially to the commercial life of Enderby and district. The Dill Brothers are young men of wide experience in the line of business they are taking over. Both are family men and very popular in social and athletic circles. Mr. F. B. Dill is recently from New Westminster, and is a grocery man of long experience. His brother, E. B., has been a member of the Enderby Trading Company staff, in charge of the gent's furnishing department, for the past two years. He has taken an active interest in all athletic sports and is popular in curling, hockey and baseball circles throughout the Valley. He has had charge of the gent's furnishings department in several large establishments in the interior cities of the Province, and is thoroughly conversant with all the details in connection with the business. Mr. F. B. Dill is now closing up his coast affairs and will bring Mrs. Dill and children to Enderby by the 1st of the month. Mr. E. B. Dill goes to the coast on Monday to complete purchases of spring goods.

It is understood that Mr. J. W. Evans will go to the coast next week but will not be in a position to say what his future plans will be for the next few months. Mr. E. Evans contemplates completing his window-dressing studies, when he will then be in line for big things in one of the coast cities.

City Council Disposes of Drain Bill, and Hears Publicity Petition

A meeting of the City Council was held last Monday afternoon to settle matters of business growing out of the meeting of the previous week.

All members excepting Ald. Teece were present, with Mayor Ruttan in the chair.

The matter of main drain construction was first taken up. The bill for $1,645 presented by W. A. Russell at the last meeting of the Council, and taken up in committee of the whole, was re-presented in the sum agreed upon in committee—$708—and was passed upon in final settlement of the account.

The following bills were ordered paid:

E. J. Mack	$ 19.00
J. Place, labor	5.40
Fulton Hardware Co., Ltd.	4.70
Okanagan Telephone Co.	7.95
City of Vernon, prisoners	10.00
Bank Montreal, coupons	305.00
J. Place, donation	10.00
Hospital Auxiliary	25.00
Board School Trustees	540.00
Bank Montreal, loans	6,000.00
W. H. Flack, wages	3.00
F. L. Williams, surveying	120.32
W. A. Russell, bal of acct.	708.00

Ald. Blanchard asked that the matter of street improvement work be laid over until a later date.

A. F. Crossman, as secretary of the Board of Trade, presented the petition of the ratepayers asking the Council to make a special levy to provide the sum of $3,000 for publicity purposes, and asked the Council to set a date when the Board could meet with them and go into the matter fully with the Council. As there were many questions which would have to be taken up in connection with the petition, and the whole question would have to be settled before the tax rate is set for the year, it was left with the Board of Trade to name the date, when the necessary data is prepared.

The Mayor and Ald. Teece were appointed a committee to meet with the Farmers' Institute on Saturday, 15th, in connection with the appointment of committees to appear before the Agricultural Commission when it sits at Enderby.

Attention was drawn to the blocking of the fire exit in the Opera House, and the matter was referred to the City Counstable.

The application for an extension of one year's time on a mortgage held by the city from C. S. Handcock, was granted.

REVELSTOKE TO OKANAGAN

Considerable discussion has been recently heard anent the opening of the wagon road between Revelstoke and the Okanagan. Persons not conversant with the conditions have argued in favor of the Government building a new road from Revelstoke to Mabel Lake via. Three Valley, thence down Mabel Lake to connect with the road to Enderby. To do this would require the building of 45 to 60 miles of road, and much of it through heavy timber land without a settlement for many miles. Others, better conversant with road matters, favor the completion of the road from Malakwa to Sicamous thence parallelling the C. P. R. to connect with the wagon road now constructed to Mara Lake, in all a distance of 10 to 12 miles. The latter route would open the Okanagan Valley by wagon road to such places on the way to Revelstoke as Bowie, Malakwa, Craigellachie, Taft, Huhwah, Griffin Lake, Three Valley and Clan William. Such a wagon road was in existence years ago, but when the C. P. R. came the company quietly expropriated the wagon road for its road-bed, and for years the people of some of these places have never been able to get in or out except via the railway. The short connection between Malakwa and Mara Lake will open up one of the finest agricultural sections in the Interior. It will also give the people of Mara a trunk road and will open the Valley from the north. For years the people of Mara have been placed at a great disadvantage. They have one of the finest agricultural districts in the Dominion, yet they have been forced to pay the penalty of being placed as it were in a hole: a 13-mile drive from Enderby to Mara and a 13-mile drive back again to get upon the main trunk road through the district. The result has been most disastrous to that rich section of the Okanagan.

It would seem better for the Government to make provision for the opening of this road than to tackle the much heavier undertaking into the timber belt from Three Valley.

GOOD CURLING WEATHER

The past week the local curling rink has been the scene of many interesting contests, in the outcome of which Johnstone's rink has gone down to Keith, Prince and Scott, thus giving Scott a lead of three. The standing of the rinks now is:

Mack, 6 up, 4 down; Prince 4 up, 5 down; Johnstone 6 up, 5 down; Williams 5 up, 5 down; Keith 4 up, 5 down; Murphy 4 up, 6 down; Taylor 3 up, 6 down; Scott 7 up, 3 down.

This does not include the results of the Wednesday evening games.

INCREASE IN LAND VALUES

City Assessor Kenny mailed his assessment notices this week to all property owners. There is a noticeable increase in the value of land assessed, and as a result we have heard some complaint. But the summing up, after duly considering, amounts to this: "Oh, well, if the increase is general: if everybody else is assessed on the same basis, I have no complaint."

This must, of course, be the logical summing up of every ratepayer. Assessor Kenny has recognized no property distinction in making a basis for the levy. Every owner is treated with the same consideration. The same scale applies in arriving at the values of all property similarly situated. The assessed value of Enderby property has been increased $140,000 by the new assessment, the land values being brought up nearer the actual value put upon the land by the owners.

It should not be inferred that because of this increase in assessment values the taxes to be paid on the land will be proportionately higher. The raising of the land values will make possible the lowering of the rate of tax levy. Land values in Enderby have been held too low ever since the town was incorporated. It must result in good to bring these up to a point somewhere near the value put upon the property by the owners, and on a fair basis, reasonably lower than the market value. To do this, and at the same time hold the tax levy down, will be the biggest boost Enderby can have.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING

A meeting of the Executive of the Board of Trade was held last Friday evening in the office of A. F. Crossman, secretary of the Board, to consider the matter of laying before the City Council the petition of the ratepayers in regard to publicity work for the ensuing year. Also to appoint members to meet with the Farmers' Institute on Feb. 15th, for the proper presentation of data before the Agricultural Commission which will meet at Enderby on its travels through the province.

The Secretary was instructed to place before the Council at its next meeting the petition of the ratepayers. It was suggested that the City Council be asked to set a date when the matter will be taken up in detail by the Board of Trade with the municipal body, the object being to co-operate with the Council in the formulating of the proposed publicity campaign, and to have a committee from the Board work with the Council in all matters involving the expenditure of the publicity fund it is proposed to raise. It was believed that by co-operating, the Council and the Board of Trade would evolve a plan of action which would be satisfactory to all and would result in great good to the town and district.

"GOLDEN" WHEAT HARVEST

The London Telegraph tells of one W. R. Elgar, a member of the Canterbury Farmers' Club, who raised a crop of wheat which realized £1,666 7s 3d, without the value of the straw from the produce of a quarter of seed which he purchased two years ago at a guinea a bushel. The wheat is a new variety brought out by the Cambridge University School of Agriculture, and Mr. Elgar bought for eight guineas a quarter (28 pounds) of the seed in 1910. The first year he had a crop of 43 quarters 5 bushels.

Planting the whole of this seed last season, he had a total crop of 770 quarters, which he sold for the price given above. His outlay of eight guineas has thus produced over £1,666 ($8,330) in two years.

ENGLAND'S WHEAT SUPPLY

Statistics recently published by the Board of Agriculture of Great Britain, bear testimony to the rapidly growing importance of Colonial wheat in the British market. Year by year the proportion of Britain's overseas supply obtained from the Dominions increases. In 1875 the wheat imported from British possessions was only 11 per cent. of the whole. Today over half the wheat supply of the United Kingdom comes from India, Australia and Canada. In 1908-9 Britain imported from Russia 17,677,380 bushels; from Argentina, 45,811,730, and from the United States 36,024,800, a total of 99,513,860 bushels. In 1911-12 the wheat imports from these foreign countries was considerably less: Russia, 15,904,000, Argentina, 31,461,930, and the United States, 31,022,130; a total of 78,329,068. The wheat imports from the exporting Colonies during these same years show a decided increase. In 1908-9, India shipped 26,354,120 bushels to the British market, Canada, 28,220,270, and Australia, 17,895,730. In 1911-12 these amounts increased from 66,470,130, to 113,093,570, divided as follows: India, 40,773,660; Canada, 36,995,470; Australia, 36,824,800. It will be seen that while in four years importations from the principal British possessions have nearly doubled, the supplies received from the chief foreign exporting countries have considerably declined.

INDIA'S GOLD IMPORTS

It is pointed out in Messrs. Montagu's annual bullion letter in the London Telegraph that the marked increase in gold coinage has shown no sign of diminution. The outbreak of war in the Balkans produced no visible effect on the movement of gold, though a small consignment of sovereigns was received from Constantinople. It is remarked that the broad fact that India occupies the position of a creditor nation on an immense scale, and that this position is strengthened year by year, renders the size of its gold imports a matter of primary importance to the rest of the world. It is noted that the great prosperity of India—a prosperity more thorough than a superficial observer can imagine—results largely in the accumulation of dead capital by the population in marked contrast to its effect on a country with highly organized finance like France.

CHARACTER THE CHIEF ASSET

Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan is the modern money colossus. He is now in his 75th year. Twenty years ago Mr. Morgan controlled $527,282,564 in outstanding stocks and bonds; in 1897, $1,396,506,231 was the total of the enormous fortune in his charge. In 1902 Mr. Morgan's company was estimated to control $3,852,940,903, and in the last ten years this is said to have grown to $26,854,254,628.

In view of this enormous accumulation of wealth, in the hands, one might say, of one man, it will be interesting to know what has been at the bottom of Mr. Morgan's accumulations, and what he considers of most importance in the commercial life of men and nations. In his hearing before the Congressional committee some days ago, Mr. Morgan was cross examined by Mr. Untermyer, and these are some of his answers to questions asked:

"I know lots of men, businessmen, too, who can borrow any amount, whose credit is unquestioned."

"Is that not because it is believed that they have the money back of them?"

"No, sir; it is simply because people believe in the man."

"And it is regardless of whether he has any financial backing at all, is it?"

"It is, very often."

"And he might not be worth anything?"

"He might not have anything. I have known a man to come into my office and I have given him a check for a million dollars when I knew he had not a cent in the world."

"There are not many of them?"

"Yes, a good many."

"Commercial credits are based upon the possession of money or property?"

"Money or property or character."

"Is not commercial credit based primarily upon money or property?"

"No, sir; the first thing is character."

"Before money or property?"

"Before money or anything else. Money cannot buy it."

"So that a man of character without anything at all behind it, can get all the credit he wants, and a man with property cannot get it?"

"That is very often the case."

"But is that the rule of business?"

"That is the rule of business, sir."

"He does not get it on his face or his character, does he?"

"For instance, if he has got government bonds, or railroad bonds, and goes in to get credit, he gets it, and on the security of those bonds, does he not?"

"Yes. Yes, he gets it on his character."

"I see; then he might as well take the bonds home, had he not?"

"A man I do not trust could not get money from me on all the bonds of Christendom."

"That is the rule all over the world?"

"I think that is the fundamental basis of business."

These words from a man who has achieved such success must not be passed over lightly. To the uninitiated, his statements may appear as exaggerations; but to those who have had experience in business, the truth of his assertions must be recognized. And, therefore, whatever we may think of Morgan and his methods, we must admit that he has sounded the keynote of business success—and that is character, which gives associates in business confidence one in the other.

HOPEFUL CRITICISM

Editor The Enderby Press:

Dear Sir: I have received the following letter which is self explanatory, but as the writer does not sign his name, I shall be obliged if you will publish same in your correspondence columns so that the writer may send me his name:

"To the Sec. of Choral Society, Enderby, B. C. Dear Sir: All who went from Mara on Thursday night returned with glowing accounts of their enjoyment that evening, but there were quite a few of us unable to make the trip and who would very much like to participate in our friends' enjoyment. If you could possibly manage to bring your company here I feel sure you would not regret it as you would benefit financially and we should benefit spiritually, Thanking you, I am,(amongst others) HOPEFUL."

You will observe that this correspondent does not hold the same view as your critic, or critics, as per your article in last week's Press. Possibly this may be accounted for by the fact that your editor did not put in an appearance at this performance until the third act, and then only for a short time; many citizens have expressed the opinion that this was unfortunate. However, this may also account for your failing to mention the arduous task of the chief character of the play, namely "Columbus," together with your mistake in naming the Queen as "Elizabeth" instead of "Isabella."

With many thanks for the prominent position with which you favored the Society in last week's edition of your worthy paper, I am,

A. SUTCLIFFE.
Secretary Enderby Choral Society.

(Without wishing to prolong the discussion, the editor of the Press wishes to state that in fairness to themselves and the public, the members of the Enderby Choral Society who have taken exception to the criticism of "Columbus" appearing in this paper last week, should reread the article and read it again and again, until they have read out of it the many "horrible" things they apparently have been pleased to read into it. So far as we can see our critisism expressed nothing but good for the Choral Society. The few lines of criticism were honestly expressed and honestly believed, and we reproduce them so as to avoid the necessity of anyone being carried away with any false notion of what was and was not said.—Ed.)

Last Thursday evening, in the Enderby Opera House, the Choral Society gave a rendition of the comic opera "Columbus." The Society has been preparing for this event for the past four months. It has required a lot of hard work and sacrificing effort on the part of the individual members to bring themselves to a point where they could undertake to produce an opera of this magnitude. Realizing how great has been the effort put forth, and recognizing the good work the Choral Society is doing, the Enderby public gave "Columbus" a very enthusiastic reception. The Opera House was comfortably filled, and the performance elicited much praise for the able manner in which the opera was costumed and staged. It far exceeded the expectations of even the most sanguine in this respect. In point of stage effect and costumes the performance was really first-class. As a musical triumph it required quite an elastic imagination to make one feel there was nothing lacking. The necessary strong lead voices were not there, and as a consequence the choruses were flat and lacked the swing and sparkle so requisite to make an opera thoroughly enjoyable.

However, there can and will be no gainsaying this much: It was a performance upon which the Choral Society and their leader, Mr. Chapman, can be most heartily congratulated.

Miss George as Queen Isabella, Mr. Sutcliffe, as the King, Mrs. Turner, as the president, and Miss Laing, as Sago Palm, were, perhaps, the most appreciated of the cast, though all participating seemed to have a very true conception of their part and entered into the spirit of the time portrayed with very much of the vigor essential to make the opera a success. If any criticism at all was heard, it was in respect to the prolonged waits between the acts and the awkward pauses in the exchange of verse and lines.

(Following this, appeared a complete list of all taking part in the performance, as well as special mention of those to whom was due the excellent staging of the play and the costuming of the performers.)

Remember the date of visit of Dr. S. L. Taube, Eye Sight Specialist, of the Taube Optical Company of Calgary and Vancouver, who will be at Reeves' Drug Store, Enderby, Saturday, March 1st. If there is anything wrong with your eyesight don't fail to consult him. All work absolutely guaranteed as tested.

Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or sub-Agent of the district in which rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal sub-divisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Important Legislation Proposed Affecting Settlers and Timber Men

Parliamentary Press Gallery, Victoria, B. C., Feb. 10.—Legislation of extra importance as it affects the settlement of the Province and development of the agricultural industry on the one side and augmentation of the public revenues from the forest asset on the other is now before the local parliament, having been brought down by Hon. Mr. Ross during the final setting of the past week. The bills presented by the Minister of Lands crystallize radical innovations in governmental policy; indeed, they might almost be classed as revolutionary, providing in one case for the adoption of the principle of free lands for bona fide settlers and on the other for various important amendment in the Forest Act, the one of which will possibly attract most comment, providing for a doubling of the royalty now payable on timber cut from Crown lands.

The proposed amendment to the Land Act provides for the granting of free pre-emptions of surveyed Crown lands from and after the 31st March proximo, pre-emptors henceforward being permitted to take up land upon payment only of $2 for the pre-emption record and $10 as crown grant fee. The land and the cost of survey are given without charge.

The policy of the past has been to sell such pre-empted lands at a price of $1 per acre, twenty-five per cent. of such cost being payable within two years from the issuance of record, with further annual payments of 25 cents per acre until the purchase price of $1 per acre be paid, and 6 per cent. interest being collectable upon arrears. The maximum quantity of land which it has heretofore been possible thus to take up by the pre-emption process has been 160 acres, and this maximum will remain the general standard of pre-emption size under the new and progressive legislation, power being retained to the Minister to refuse any application for the pre-emption which may in his opinion be adverse to the public interest, as for example, should the applicant be an Asiatic.

This radical change in the law for the substantial encouragement of settlement and the development of the agricultural resources of the country has been for some time past under consideration, and has had as a necessary precedent foundation the surveys of large tracts in those districts now or soon to be rendered accessiqle by the rapid advance of railway construction operations. The new bill will go far toward settling up first of all the surveyed areas which in the majority of instances have already been reserved for pre-emption requirements, and in it the minister is further given power to determine the acreage which may in individual instances warrant in special localities.

There can be no question but that the departure from the old pre-emption plan will bear early and satisfactory fruit in the immediate stimulation of settlement, many thousand taking advantage of this last opportunity to secure free land for agricultural purposes on the western American continent.

Offsetting the revenue loss involved in the new pre-emption policy, the amendment to the Forest Act provides for an increase of the royalty collected on timber cut on Crown lands from fifty cents to one dollar per thousand feet, board measurement, such increase, however, not taking effect until three years hence. The bill also prescribes reforms in timber markings, and increases the annual collections for forest protection service from timber licensees, lessees and owners of timber lands. This impost has been one cent per acre per annum under the forestry legislation of 1912, it will be one-and one-half cent in future, the government continuing to contribute dollar for dollar.

During committee consideration of the bill prescribing regulations for the establishment of crematoria in British Columbia, Hon. Dr. Young said: "As a medical man, I thoroughly believe in cremation as the best method for the disposal of the bodies of the dead, and if the Premier would allow me to do so, I should bring in a bill providing for compulsory cremation in British Columbia."

Enderby Pen of Layers Showing Up Well in International Contest

In the international egg-laying contest which the Provincial Department of Agriculture is conducting at Victoria, the fowl are doing exceptionally well. In the two months the hens have been laying, Dec. 2nd to Feb. 2nd, the leading pens have done as well as was done last year by the lead pens in three months.

Mr. J. S. Terry, superintendent of the contest, in reporting the results at the end of the second month, comments on the fact that whereas in the East, Leghorns are not looked upon as winter layers, yet, a perusal of the egg figures shows them to be holding their own above all the other breeds even in what are usually considered the worst months of the year for them.

It will be noted from the egg-laying totals given below that the pen of Barred Rocks entered by H. E. Waby, of Enderby, stands third in the weight class of 20 pens. This would indicate that Mr. Waby has a winning strain of Rocks. Commenting on the excellent showing of his pen, Mr. Waby says they are pullets just breaking into laying, and they are exceeding his expectations. He did not expect them to make much of a showing for another month or more.

Anniversary services will be held in the Baptist church next Sunday evening at 7:30. Rev. H. G. Estabrook of Vancouver, will take the service.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Schammehorn on Monday and was buried Tuesday afternoon.

He promises an exceptionally good bill for next Saturday evening. Admission fee —adults, 20c; children, 10c.

Maraites are making great preparations for the masquerade ball to be given in Mara Hall to-morrow (Friday) evening. A special train will be run from Sicamous and return for the affair. A big load of dancers are also going from Enderby, together with several smaller parties. It is needless to say, all contemplate having a good time. Mr. Davis has the sale of tickets in Enderby.

Some very fine costumes were seen on the Enderby rink in the ice carnival last Wednesday evening. The following skaters were awarded the prizes by the committee: Miss Jean Sparrow, peasant; Miss Jean Duncan cowgirl; Ivy Evans, Valentine girl; Katie Jones, flag girl; Reg. Crane, Spanish gentleman; Wm. Blackburn, Zulu gentleman; Percy Stevens, Irish boy. Miss Daisy Sewell and Miss Vivian Nichol, as suffragettes, scored a big hit.

A meeting of the Local Association of the Boy Scouts was held in the office of the Northern Okanagan Land Company, Tuesday evening, the meeting being very largely attended. The election of R. C. Attenborough and J. Warwick as assistant Scoutmasters was the principal business transacted. Scoutmaster Campbell urged the procuring of the starting paraphernalia of a gymnasium, and the Local Association endorsed the proposition and asked that an estimate of the cost be made.

IN THE POLICE COURT

Henry McDougald, of Kelowna, was in town on Saturday, trying to get the most out of a bottle. He was arrested by Constable Bailey and it cost him $10 and costs.

Robt. Nelson was fined $5 and costs for being drunk and disorderly last Friday before Magistrate Rosoman.

Henry Henderkson was fined $5 and costs for being drunk and abusive.

James Mitchell was going to the lumber camps last Saturday and emptied a bottle of fire water into him to keep warm en route. He dropped off the load into the snow, where he was picked up by a passing team coming into town. He fell off the incoming load on the bridge. Constable Bailey put him where he could not roll off, and the Magistrate fined him $5 and costs.

It cost Jim Munson $10 and costs for going to sleep in Dr. Keith's woodshed last Saturday afternoon, and allowing himself to be discovered by Constable Bailey.

Constables Oland and Bailey went on to the Indian reserve about midnight Saturday, and found there Johnny Martin, filled to dancing pitch with fire water. Tuesday the case was heard by Magistrate Rosoman, and it cost Johnny and his friends $50 and costs.

SHEAF WHEAT, 2c per sheaf; oat hay baled, $10 per ton; timothy hay $20 per ton; potatoes, $10 ton. G. Murdock, Grindrod.

LOADING DOWN INDUSTRY

The lumbermen of the Province are strenuously protesting against the increase in the stumpage royalty as proposed in the new timber bill now before the Provincial parliament, by which it is proposed that the royalty dating from three years hence shall be $1 per thousand instead of fifty cents. After reading the report of the Forest Branch, in this issue of the Press, it will be felt that perhaps the lumbermen have good reason for protesting. Last year the a law was passed levying upon the lumber industry one-half the cost of fire protection and patrol of the timber berths. This of itself means quite an increase in the cost of lumbering. On top of this to come the doubling of the royalty tax seems to savor of overloading one industry to let another go scott free. The report of the Forest Branch shows that it is costing the Government only ten cents on every dollar received from the lumbering industry to carry out its part of the contract, and that of every four dollars of the total revenue of the Province one dollar comes from the lumber industry, and this, too, inspite of the fact that the timber resources of the Province are not as yet one-half developed.

City Council Takes Initial Step in Purchase of Cemetery Site

At a special meeting of the City Council last Friday evening, the first step looking to the purchase of ground for a cemetery was taken. A committee was appointed to go over a plot of nine acres owned by G. L. Williams, located just east of the Glen home, three-quarters of a mile from town, offered for $1,000.

It was also decided to open a lane from Vernon Road to George street, between Cliff and Russell streets, 16 feet in width.

The City also guaranteed the expense of a 5,000 edition of The Board of Trade Journal, to be published forthwith.
