Third Year.—No. ~~78~~ | Grand Forks, B. C., Tuesday, August 2, 1904 | ISSUED TWICE A WEEK

EVENTS IN THE CITY

Two Grand Forks Parties Receive Teachers' Certificates.

Laborers Are Reported to Be Scarce on the Phoenix Branch.

His Honor Judge Leamy opened county court in this city this morning. There is only one jury case on the docket—P. Burns & Co. vs. Blakeway & Urlin—and that is being tried this afternoon. The original jury list drawn consisted of D. D. Munro, E. Spsaggett, Peter Donaldson and Al Traunweiser. Of these a prominent hotel man was fined $10 for being late, but after his honor had taken a second look at the man he remitted the fine because he thought mine hostneeded the money. A leading merchants also attempted to evade jury duty by stating that he had overslept himself and had hurried to the courthouse without eating his breakfast. His honor informed the business man that the next time he came as a juror before eating his breakfast he would be fined $10. The following jury was then selected: N. McLellan, foreman; W. K. C. Manly, W. S. Stuart, J. H. Hodson, Fred Laurie. Court then adjourned until 2 o'clock.

Of those who wrote for teachers' certificates at the examination held recently in Grand Forks, two were successful, Mr. R. Clement obtaining an academic and Miss Florence Miller a junior certificate.

Construction work along the entire line of the Phoenix branch is now progressing very rapidly. It was stated by a Great Northern official yesterday, however, that at present 200 more laborers could be used to good advantage on the road.

Al McCormick, formerly assistant assayer at the Granby smelter, and Angus McDonald, left yesterday for Basin, Mont., where they will reside in future.

Joe, the diriver of P. Burns & Co's. delivery wagon, had a unique experience last Sunday. He went to Royer's livery stable and got the handsomest rig in the barn, and took his best and second best girls out for a buggy ride. While driving through the country lanes on the other side of the river something in the harness broke. The horses became frightened, tore themselves loose from the buggy and ran away. The queerest part of the incident is, Joe was so absorbed in feeding the girls bonbons that he didn't realize he had had a runaway until half an hour after it had happened.

Word has been received in this city from New Westminster of the death of Mr. Whiteside, father of A. M. Whiteside, the Greenwood barrister, and uncle of David Whiteside of this city. Deceased was a native of Australia, but came to this province in the early days of the gold rush to Cariboo. After the gold excitement he settled in New Westminster, where he resided ever since. He had been ailing for some time previous to his death. He was 85 years of age, and leaves in addition to his son a widow and a daughter living at the family residence in the Royal city.

The following are the appropriations in the supplementary estimates for the districts of Kootenay and Yale-Cariboo: Fernie public school, $10,000; telegraphic communication between Okanagan Landing and Kelowna Mission, $4500; Quesnell-Barkerville branch repairs, $1000; extension of Kamloops-Lower Nicola telephone line, via Granite creek, Princeton, Hedley, Keremeos and Fairview to Penticton, $12,500.

The following officers have been installed by Phoenix Lodge No. 28, K. of P., for the ensuing six months: C. C., Sam Stevens; V. C., Alexander McDonald; prelate, James Murray; M. E., George Elkins; M. F., James Marshall; M. F., James A. Clark; K. of R. and S., J. E. W. Thompson; M. of W., J. N. Campbell; I. G., John A. Morrin; O. G., Ed Brown. The installing officers were Deputy Grand Chancellors Rumberger, Gordon and Thompson.

The Pavilla Comedy company, who are to hold the boards at the Biden opera house Friday, Aug. 5th, come exceedingly well recommended with a program of high-class vaudeville attractions. Their entertainment, while highly amusing and laugh-provoking, is at the same time moral, refined and completely void of any objectionable feature. The company is spoken of very highly by many of our citizens who have seen them in various parts of the United States and British Columbia.

N. McLellan, the well known flour and feed man, is making gratifying progress in his new role as an amateur horse-trader. He may move either to Kentucky or Tennessee after graduation, which, from present reports, will be before long.

Mr. John Donaldson and family went down to Christina lake today for a brief outing.

The baseball game on the East side grounds last Sunday between teams from the Granby mines in Phoenix and the smelter in this city was an exciting one. The score resulted in 11 to 7 in favor of the smelter boys. The men from the mines started out with a good lead, but the smeltermen soon pulled themselves together, and held the visitors down to one run after the first inning.

Duncan Ross, of Greenwood, Liberal candidate for member of the Dominion house for Yale-Cariboo, is a visitor in the city today.

Fred Grant, the Chesaw youth arrested by officer Thouet recently on the charge of bringing stolen horses into Canada, was acquitted in Police Magistrate Cochrane's court last Friday, the evidence being insufficient to convict him.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stuart returned last Sunday from a pleasant outing at Christina lake.

NEWS OF THE MINES

Unwatering of Brooklyn and Stemwinder Progressing Steadily.

Ore Bins in No. 4 Granby Tunnel Will Require One Million Feet Lumber.

Owing to the receipts of news of a very encouraging nature from Franklin camp today, all the stock of the McKinley Mines, Ltd., has been withdrawn from the market.

* * *

The unwatering of the Brooklyn and Stemwinder mines, in Phoenix camp, has been progressing steadily now for about two weeks. The water was all taken out of the Stemwinder last Saturday, and is nearly out of the Brooklin, the pumps working now from the 250 level. Superintendent Collins states the Stemwinder shaft appears to be all right, and mining operations are to start at once. The timbering in the Brooklyn shaft, however, was found to be so decayed that it will have to be renewed from top to bottom, requiring three or four weeks time before mining operations can be taken up in that property in earnest.

* * *

Superintendent Lawrence, of the C. P. R., states that his road is hauling ore from more mines in Kootenay and Yale at the present time than in any period during the last three or four years, and the country generally is on a sounder basis than ever before in its history.

* * *

About a million feet of timber will be used in the new Granby No. 4 tunnel ore bins. They will be 50 feet high, and close to the new giant ore crusher. The No. 3 and No. 4 tunnels when arrangements are completed will be able to output 3000 tons of ore daily.

* * *

Isaac Skidmore has uncovered a vein of high-grade ore on the Humming Bird, adjoining the E. P. U. on the north, in Greenwood camp. He was working with the object of crosscutting the E. P. U. lead on his property, and believes he has succeeded in doing so.

* * *

Last week development was started on the Spokane claim, one of a group of 11 claims recently bonded by J. C. Haas and associates from the Bank of Montreal, the claims being formerly owned by the Boundary Creek Mining and Milling Co. The Spokane adjoins the Elkhorn, and in the past high-grade ore has been taken from several claims of the group.

* * *

The final payment on the Gold Bug was recently made in Greenwood.

* * *

The force on the Brooklyn and Stemwinder is gradually being increased.

* * *

Manager Moffat, of the Rathmullen, is said to be getting encouraging results from the development he is doing on a claim or two adjoining the Rathmullen group in Summit camp, which are under bond from Lauder and Coot.

* * *

A big strike has been made on the Silver Cloud, in Skylark camp. The property was recently bonded by Alex Robinson, J. Johnson, J. McCreath and L. A. Smith.

* * *

The Cliff, Le Roi 2 and Jumbo in Rossland camp, and Mountain Lion in Republic camp, are now shipping to the Granby smelter.

LICENSES ON 3RD

East Kootenay Coal Locators Will Be Made Happy on That Date.

$30,000 in Fees Collected Since Order-in-Council Was Passed.

A dispatch from Victoria says that it is stated on good authority that licenses for the coal and oil lands of Southeast Kootenay will be issued by the chief commissioner of lands and works on Wednesday, the 3rd inst. The scramble for this property is indicated by the fact that since the order-in-council was passed, a little over a month ago, throwing open the lands, nearly $30,000 have been collected by the government in fees. It is expected that the total revenue will amount to $60,000.

The City Council

The regular weekly meeting of the city council was held in the council chamber last night, Mayor Hammar, Ald. McCallum, Feeney, Martin, Clements and McNee being present.

The following accounts were ordered paid: Grand Forks Transfer Co., $9; J. W. Jones, $46.80; Canadian General Electric Co., $6.65; J. A. Riddle, $4.50; P. Waterston, $12; J. Lagimodiere, $7.50; J. Haverty, $7.5.

A communication was received from the C. P. R. officials making an offer of $40 per month for city water. On motion of Ald. Martin and Feeney, the council decided to ask $50 per month for the water.

A communication was read from the superintendent of education. The letter was accompanied by a cheque for $4000, being the final payment by the provincial government to the city of Grand Forks on account of the erection of the new school building.

The president of an eastern board of trade says: "There is no excuse for dealing away from home. Money should be spent in the locality in which it is made, otherwise the growth and success of the district is impaired. The conduct of those people who buy on credit in town and outside for cash cannot be too strongly condemned. The merchants know what they have to contend with in outside competition, and consequently mark things down the lowest possible prices, so that if they cannot obtain cash or its equivalent in value, they suffer loss. Be loyal to your own district. Assist the merchant so far as lies in your power to take advantage of every trade discount by giving nim the cash with which to do so, and you will find that every effort put forth in this way will redound to your own interests. It is true that the large departmental stores may be able to buy cheaper in larger quantities, but this is often offset by the cheaper rentals and cost of labor locally. You will also have the satisfaction of feeling that you are doing what you know is right. It is a well known fact in some instances people have reached their credit limit in every store in the place, and have then gone to neighboring towns, so that if there is any driving of business away, the credit system and not cash one will do it in the long run. It may not be possible to introduce a cash system at once, but nothing is lost by giving the subject all the publicity possible."

The first number of the Western Caterer, a 20-page magazine published at San Francisco by H. S. Turner, founder of THE SUN, has been received. The paper is very neat, and bears evidences of prosperity.

Superintendent W. A. Coplen, at the head of the mining department of the Spokane Interstate Fair, October 3 to 9, will be in the Boundary country this week visiting various camps, soliciting ores from al the leading mines which did not exhibit at the fair last year. The fair management has done wisely in refusing to allow the exhibits in this department to be scattered. It is all very well to send mining exhibits to St. Louis and for permanent exhibits in other eastern cities, but the ore specimens sent to Spokane are not sent to be scattered all over the country. Mine owners prefer them retained in Spokane, where they can be added to from year to year, thus building up what in time ought to be the best mining exhibit in the northwest. The management of the Spokane fair, it is understood, has retained every pound of ore which was on exhibition last year, and will use it as a nucleus for the mining department exhibits at the fair this year, and in future years. Mr. Coplen, therefore, is in a position to do better work this year for the fair than ever before, and for the mining resources of the Pacific northwest.

Has Last Say.

"Say, pa," queried little Billy Bloomper, "what's an echo?"

"An echo, my son," replied the old man with a sigh long drawn out, "is the only thing that can dimlam a woman out of the last word."—"Lyre."

Little Ozro—Paw, what is a chamber of horrors? Farmer Bentover—Wa-al good land, Ozzie! Don't you know what your maw's spare bedroom looks like?—"Puck."

More than forty per cent. of the people of Great Britain could not write their names when Queen Victoria ascended the throne. Now only seven per cent. are in that condition.

Hat Salesman—So you invaded France with your line? How did you make out? Bicycle Salesman—Very poor. Every time I handed any one my card he thought I wanted to fight a duel.—Chicago "News."

Brannigan—The doctor told me to get a porous plasther for me stomach. Druggist—Yes, sir; what sort do you want? Brannigan—'Tis little I care what sort it is so long as 'tis aisily digested.—Catholic "Standard and Times."

It is reported that a young married man of Golconda, wrapped in the greatest excitement, flew to the telegraph office of his town and wired his wife's relatives a happening as follows: "Twins to-day, more to-morrow."—"Lyre."

Philanthropy.—Andrew Carnegie—I would like to give your town a public library. Leading citizen—Thank you, Mr. Carnegie. It is very noble of you to propose such a thing. How much do you want us to subscribe for letting you put your name over the entrance?—Chicago "Record-Herald."

A postal card sent from Billville to one of the absent brethren reads: "Dear Jim—Nuthin' but good news to tell you. Your crop paid off the mortgage, your brother broke out o' jail, an' your daddy has jest got $1,000 out the railroad fer runnin' over his leg. Ain't Providence providin'!"—Atlanta "Constitution."

"Are you playing horse?" asked the benevolent gentleman who takes an interest in children.

"Certainly not," answered the little Boston boy. "We are amusing ourselves by the assumption that Brother Waldo is an ichthyosaurus and that I am a prehistoric man in pursuit of him."—Washington "Star."

Gladiatorial Athletics.

The London "Lancet" says that athletics in England have developed too much into gladiatorial displays by picked competitors struggling to win prizes or to earn wages before huge crowds of spectators, and can hardly be regarded as effective agents in the development of the physical strength and physical activity of the people. There is the same tendency in this country, but the fact merely serves to make more imperative the need of supporting and extending such systems of physical training as have for their chief aim strength and not fame.

Mother—What did you say when grandma gave you a piece of cake? Willie—I told her I hoped it was as good as it was small.—"Pick-Me-Up."

Deduction.

Miss Cutting—Then you are an agnostic? Chelly Smallhed—I never said so. Miss Cutting—No; but you said you only believed what you could understand.—"Judge."

A New Vocabulary.

"I SEE," said the wise person, "that some eminent philologist is again monkeying with the language of the world in the effort to combine them in one tongue that no one will want to learn, but everybody can understand. It has always been a matter of surprise to me that none of these word-arrangers has ever grasped the amazing possibilities of baby-talk as a universal, time-saving method of conversation. Instead of delving into the dusty dimness of antiquity for Saxon and Sanskrit roots, and making it necessary for one to master ten languages to learn one, why do they not go into the nursery with an open mind and a notebook and compile a new mother-tongue that will catch everybody?"

Here he paused for a question, but, as none was forthcoming, he went on:

"What I mean is this: You take any baby that has an intelligent, quick-witted mother, and it can make its wants known with less expenditure of breath than a deaf-and-dumb man. If it says "Wow" she knows that a pin is sticking it, or that it wants its dinner, or that it wants to turn over, or that it has colic. If it says "Ah-goo" she makes a rapid-fire translation which proves that the child has said that it wants to see papa or that it feels good. If it says "Gup" she will at once tell you that it means "look at the horse." If it says "Boo" she can tell you without a moment's hesitation that it desires a peep at its picture-book. And so on ad infinitum, and ad infantum, for that matter. By jing! We don't want Volapuk or any other old universal language, but as a time and tongue saver and word-condenser we need the adoption of baby-talk."

Then, with a sarcastic glance at the young father, he concluded:

"Besides, it would keep a lot of people from telling us what their children had tried to say."—W. D. Nesbit in "Judge."

This you can do by traveling on the Rio Grande system, the far-famed "Scenic Line of the World," the only transcontinental line passing through Salt Lake City, Glenwood Springs, Leadville, Colorado Springs and Denver enroute to eastern points.

Three daily express trains make close connections with all trains east and west, and afford a choice of five distinct routes of travel. The equipment of these trains is the best, including free reclining chair cars, standard and tourist sleepers, a perfect dining car service, and also personally conducted excursion cars, each in charge of a competent guide, whose business is to look after the comfort of his guests. No more pleasant and inexpensive means of crossing the continent can be found than is provided by these excursions.

One Obstacle Overcome.

WILLIE was a bright boy, of an inventive turn of mind. At the age of eight or ten he was seized with the "perpetual motion" idea, and began to make all sorts of queer machines, despite the advice of his father, who told him of men that had devoted their lives to a vain search for perpetual motion.

"It violates the first principles of mechanics, my boy," said his father. "Action and reaction are equal, as you will understand some day. When you can pull yourself up by your bootstraps, you may hope to invent a machine that will start itself and run without stopping."

The next day Willie came to his father in great excitement and told him he had done it—had pulled himself up by his bootstraps.

"It's no trick at all," he said as he led the way to the barn, where he showed his bewildered father a pair of old boots nailed, soles up, to a beam overhead.

"There!" he exclaimed, as he climbed on a box, reached up, ran his fingers through the straps of the boots and pulled himself up. "What do you think of that?"

Willie's father did not reply in words. Instead, he took a harness strap, and then and there Willie gave an imitation of perpetual motion which required no elaborate apparatus.

Chief Engineer Emil Prillwitz of the North German Lloyd steamship "Kronprinz Wilhelm," is experimenting with a new arrangement which he has placed in the ship for use in case of a collision. A small wheel abaft the pilot-house is turned, and instantly hydraulic pressure closes twenty water-tight doors in the lower part of the ship, making sixteen water-tight compartments. The fact that all the doors are closed is instantly shown on an electric dial, on which the numbers of the doors and their location are printed. The sixteen water-tight rooms are more than enough to float the vessel in case any part of her hull is punctured. The experiments show that not more than two minutes is required to render the "Kronprinz Wilhelm" unsinkable.

TONSILITIS IS GOING AROUND

And everybody is wondering what to do. Here is a simple cure. Use a gargle of Nerviline and water as recommended in the directions, and rub your throat and chest vigorously with Nerviline. This has been tested and proved successful a thousand times. Nerviline is a specific for tonsilitis and we know of nothing half so good for breaking up colds, curing tight chest and all muscular pains. Try a bottle of Nerviline; price 25c. H. E. Woodland, druggist.

THE TORONTO

DAILY NEWS

AND THE

GRAND FORKS SUN

...FOR ONLY...

$2.25 a Year

A radical change from old methods and prices has been made by the Toronto Daily News. The eyes of the newspyper world have been upon The News for the past few months, during which time several departures have been made which have given that paper a widespread reputation for enterprise and originality. This latest move is to place The News at the price of $1.00 a year by mail. Only a deep-founded belief in the future success of The News could lead the publishers to make such a reduction in price. But just as the dollar magazine has taken hold of the people, so, we venture to predict, The News will secure a vast and ever-increasing circulation, based not only on the popular price at which it is sold, but mainly upon the intrinsic merits of he paper.

We have arrangements concluded which enables us to club the Toronto News with our own paper at $2.25 a year in advance. Such a combination presents many unique features —our semi-weekly giving you all the home and district news, and the big 12-page daily keeping you in touch with events all over the world. Send us your subscription to The News, or if you would like to see the paper first, write us and we will secure a sample copy.
