'BLIND-PIG' EVILS

Prince Rupert Has Had a Sad Experiance With Illicit Liquor Traffic

VICTORIA, July 13.—Edward Leighton, a youth of eighteen, who —made mad for the nonce by indulgence in potations of fiery wood alcohol and tobacco juice in one of the many "blind pigs" that have proven the curse of Prince Rupert in its no-license days—stabbed Lillian Calvert, a young woman friend, has reached the prison at New Westminster, to which he has been sentenced for three years by his honor Judge Young. The prisoner made a full and piteous confession, ascribing his action wholly to the influence of the vile stuff designated as whiskey which had been sold to him by one Teddy Kruzner, proprietor of a soft drinks shop, who like many others has been taking advantage of human nature and the absence of licensed and regulated hotels in the G. T. P. city to carry on a secret and illicit traffic, incomparably more harmful to the community, and more difficult to control in its relation to the breeding of crime in secret. This phase of the liquor traffic problem was very energetically and pertinently commented upon by Judge Young in passing sentence.

"I only regret," said his honor, "that there is not enough evidence now before me to convict this man Kruzner, for in my opinion a severe sentence ought to be imposed upon him. I realize that it is exceedingly difficult under prevailing conditions for the officers of the law to keep a strict watch upon these stealthy drinking places, and I hope they will be even more active in doing so in the future. As for Kruzner, if he has any conscience at all, it should be a punishment for him to reflect upon all the misery and suffering that his dealings have undoubtedly brought about."

The experience of the police at Prince Rupert during the no-license period preceding its incorporation as a city with self-governing powers, and its adoption of the license principle so generally prevailing in this province, is not one that is likely to be cited by advocates of change in British Columbia's system of dealing with the liquor traffic. Despite the utmost activity of the police, "blind pigs" and "holes-in-the-wall" have sprung up and flourished until ferreted out with difficulty by the law. These vile resorts—hidden away from the public view, dealing in alcoholic drugs and poisons of the vilest description, and subject to none of the official supervision and surveillance inevitable under the license system—have proven fruitful breeding places of disorder. According to Superintendent Hussey, the "blind pig" offers opportunities in crime and difficulties for the police which are, happily, uncommon in the extreme in British Columbia. In Prince Rupert alone no less a sum than $5100 was recently collected in fines as the result of a special campaign against these underground boozing dens, to deal with which a special force of outside detectives had to be employed. At least three crimes of serious character are directly traceable, and these, it is said, would in all probability have been impossible under ordinary circumstances had the common license and regulation system of the province prevailed.

Reduction in Prices

Tuesday the Dreamland theatre made the announcement that, during the summer months, the admission prices would be reduced to 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children, with Wednesday and Saturday matinees at 5 and 10 cents. The first show at these popular prices was given on Tuesday evening, when the house was filled with an enthusiastic audience. Eight prizes were awarded. Next Monday night eight more useful prizes will be awarded to adults, and three to children. In making the reduction the management of the theatre said: "We are giving the citizens of Grand Forks the best moving picture shows procurable, and if you desire an enterprise of this nature in your city, you must accord us a liberal patronage, as we are under a heavy operating expense. In cities of this size the usual admission fees are 25 and 15 cents, but we have decided to make this reduction in order to draw the crowds. The theatre is roomy, well ventilated, provided with comfortable seats, and cooled by electric fans. It is a pleasant place to spend an hour, and much instructive information may be gained from our shows. The pictures shown are all of a moral character. Nothing that might prove offensive to ladies or children is permitted to be shown. The program changes every other day, and new songs and music are constantly being added."

Drop in Beer

While indulging in a spirited runaway on Monday morning, McNeil & Henniger's delivery team bumped into Frank Hartinger's beer wagon in front of the Grand Forks hotel. The drop of Mr. Hartinger's beverage was sudden and unexpected. With the exception of a broken pole and the jarring of a telephone pole, no damage was done.

Enjoyable Lawn Social

The members of the Epworth league of the Methodist church held an enjoyable lawn social at the home of Frache Bros., at the Columbia greenhouses, on Monday evening. About forty of the youth of the city were present, all of whom spent a pleasant evening. Vocal and instrumental music and games supplied the entertainment for the occasion.

Preparing for Action

Chicken stealing is said to be developing into one of the fine arts in this neighborhood. A number of poultry owners have commenced to clean their guns.

Seven Furnaces Running

Seven furnaces are now in commission at the Granby smelter, Nos. 7 and 8 having been blown in on Thursday morning. No. 1 is the only one idle at present.

Catholic Fair

The ladies of the Catholic church in this city will hold a fair on the 10th of September.

MEETING MONDAY

Professors Thornber and Melander Will Address the Farmers' Institute

A meeting of the Grand Forks Farmers' Institute will be held in the city hall Monday evening, July 18, when Professor Thornber will address the fruit growers of the valley. Mr. Thornber will speak on "Practical Fruit Growing." On the forenoon of July 19th a practical demonstration will be given at J. T. Lawrence's ranch by Prof. Thornber, assisted by M. S. Middleton. The announcement previously made that Professor Thatcher was to have delivered a lecture on "Dry Farming and Soil Cultivation" on the evening of the 18th, has been countermanded in a letter from W. E. Scott, superintendent of institutes, to Fred Clark, secretary of the local institute. Mr. Scott writes that Professor Thatcher has notified him that he will be unable to carry out the agreement made with the department regarding lecturing at Grand Forks. The reason that Mr. Thatcher advances is that the federal inspector is paying his official visit to the agricultural experiment station at Pullman, Wash., from July 22nd to 24th. Mr. Scott is endeavoring to find a good man to take Professor Thatcher's place at the meeting here on Monday night.

Yesterday Secretary Clark received the following letter from Superintendent Scott: "I am pleased to inform you that Professor A. L. Melander, entomologist, of Pullman, Wash., will accompany Professor Thornber on his itinerary in the province, lecturing on behalf of the farmers' institutes, to take the place of Professor Thatcher, who was unfortunately unable to fulfill his engagement with the agricultural department. Will you therefore kindly notify the fruit growers of your district to this effect."

Slight Accident

A. W. Fraser was injured on Tuesday while unloading hay by a hay-hook catching him in the face. The flesh was badly lacerated, but he has now entirely recovered.

An Optimist

Geo. L. Walker, the copper optimist, still believes that Granby will again sell above $100, and advises its purchase. People who have not money to tie up for an indefinite period, however, should exercise their own cemmon sense in buying mining shares.

WAS HE A THIEF?

Literal Demonstration That Stolen Fruits Are Best

Last Sunday, while a crowd of week-day sports were on their way home from evening service, one of them proposed that they make a raid on a sweet cherry orchard. The night was ideal for an enterprise of this nature, as it was as dark as the main entrance to Pluto realm. In the crowd was a man who himself owns a few cherry trees; but he took it for granted that stolen fruits are best, and was as eager to embark on the emprise as the balance. The other members of the party were aware of the fact that this man had some luscious cherries in his orchard, and conceived the idea to play a practical joke on him. They started out in an opposite direction from his orchard, but by slow meanderings, devious turns, and retracing of steps, they finally wound up at his cherry trees. They ate voraciously, and when they had finished one tree had been literally stripped. The owner of the cherries ate with great gusto. He had never, he said, tasted such delicious fruit. When all had had their fill, they brought the man back to the starting point by the same dexterious movements as had characterized their approach to his orchard. Then they parted. On Monday morning the man came into town. His countenance was clouded with grief. Meeting one of his companions of the previous evening, he imparted the cause of his sorry. While he had been to church on Sunday evening, he said, some criminally disposed persons, who ought to be in the penitentiary, had stolen his choicest cherries.

Complimentary Dance

A complimentary dance to the young ladies taking part in the recent production of "The Spinsters' Convention" was given by the Women's Auxiliary in the Davis hall last night. There was a large attendance, and everybody had a pleasant time.

Alleged Assault

A nasty case of an alleged attempt of criminal assault came up for preliminary hearing before Judge Cochrane yesterday morning. As the little girl was too much frightened to give her story, the hearing was postponed, and the names of the parties are therefore withheld.

Paid for Their Fun

J. Topp and J. Rhodes were up before Magistrate Cochrane on Tuesday on a charge of assault. Both were fined $20 and costs, and were bound over to keep the peace in the sum of $750.

Forest Fires

Forest fires are reported to be raging throughout the Boundary district. In the North Fork country there are two of considerable dimensions—one between Lynch creek and Franklin, and another north of the latter camp. Fire Warden Mix and a gang of fire fighters left for that section on Thursday.

SATURDAY, JULY 16, 1910

In country towns the little, harmless comedies of life are made much of. They usually find their way into the columns of the local press, and furnish amusement to the crowd on the street corner as well as the gathering at the ladies' aid society. But the real tragedies—and they are happening every day in all communities—must be hushed up. That portion of the public who pride themselves on wearing spotless raiment do care to hear about them, because their prudish minds imagine that a recital of the facts might contaminate their own morals. The country press usually shuns these subjects. If it handled them it would be accused of delving in the gutters for its news. The pulpit does not dare to preach on this themes. If it did, it would have no congregation. The people are, of course, divided in their opinions as to whether or not any good could come out of giving publicity to these lamentable happening. The prudes who advocate concealment may be honest in their motives; but we are inclined to believe that a certain amount of publicity devoted to the tragedies of life would make them serve as danger signals to society. A few weeks ago a real tragedy occurred in this city. The appearance on the scene of a handsome but deceitful man broke up a prosperous and, to all appearances, happy houfehold. The usual denouement followed. The family separated, and each member is now in a different city. The children will grow up without proper training. The woman is now reported to be in Spokane, almost penniless. In view of these circumstances, it is safe to say that the husband is not getting much enjoyment out of his wealth.

"The Moving Finger writes, and, having writ,
Moves on: nor all your Piety nor Wit
Shall lure it back to cancel half a Line,
Nor all your Tears wash out a Word of it."

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 31 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 50 stamps.

SUN OFFICE

Work on the V. V. & E.

According to newspaper reports, the Voncouver, Victoria & Eastern will be in Merritt within twelve months. It is stated that the company has decided to get in touch with the coal fields of Nicola and run a spur from the junctional point at the head of the Coldwater.

Over 2000 men are now at work in the vicinity of Tulameen, pushing construction of the road west of Princeton. They are making good progress, and the Vancouver, Victoria & Eastern will reach Vanconver ahead of any other Coast-Kootenay road.

The main line passes only a few miles from Merritt, and it is announced that the big railway company has had its eyes on the Nicola coal fields for some time.

Headquarters at Penticton?

President Warren, president of the Kettle Valley line, while in Penticton recently, stated that his company desired rights to cross certain streets and a flat rate of taxation for twenty years, along with a grant of foreshore from Winnipeg street to Penticton creek. In exchange for this the company would make Penticton a divisional point. He fully expected that he would reside in Penticton, and the head office would be there. Fifteen acres would be purchased for machine shop and roundhouses.

The provincial government has cancelled all permits for setting out fires.

Leases Power Plant

The North Washington company has closed a ten-year lease for the Similkameen power plant, near Oroville. The main objects in securing this lease are to increase the power supply of the North Washington company, which owns and is operating the electric light and power plant at Republic, and to develop the Oroville plant itself to a point where it will be capable of supplying not only all the demands for the Republic district for power by means of a transmission line, but also those of many large irrigation enterprises in Okanogan county.

Improving Phoenix Branch

Three work trains and a hundred men are now busy on the new roadbed of the C.P.R. between Phoenix and Eholt. When the improvements now under way are completed the troubles of the local train crews will be minimized and the Canadian Pacific outlet from Phoenix will be one of the best roadbeds in the mountains.
