COUNCIL MEETING

Question of Buying a City Team Raises a Lively Discussion

Employment of Two Assistants by City Electrician Also Ventilated

The regular bi-weekly meeting of the city council was held in the council chamber last night, Mayor Hutton, Ald. Cooper, Gaw, Lequime, McDonald and Spraggett being present.

A communication was read from the deputy attorney general stating that the city was not responsible for the cost of keeping city prisoners in the Nelson jail.

The following accounts were ordered paid:

Canadian Gen Electrical Co...	$417 50
" " " "	70 00
" " " "	155 68
Granby Consolidated	612 55
C. P. R.	67 78
A E Smith & Co	5 00
John Temple	10 85
W A Thrasher	1 00
H E Woodland	12 12
R F Petrie	3 55
Canadian Westinghouse Co	214 87
Canadian Gen Electrical Co	10 91
City of Grand Forks	7 50
Kettle River Lumber Co	275 00
J M Simpson, estate	50
Max Kuntz	7 00
W R Feeney	12 50
Geo Pound	76 85
B C Telephone	12 05
Firemen	22 00
Martha Rhodes	118 00
Canadian Pipe Co	98 71

Ald. Cooper wanted to know why two extra electricians were being employed to install the fire alarm system. The system would cost about $800, or $300 more than the estimate given. He refused to sign the payroll of these men until an explanation was given.

Ald. McDonald stated that at the time it was decided to install the system an approximate estimate of the cost was given. He explained that it required two men to string the wire.

The mayor had been surprised to see two electricians at work when he returned to the city, and had intended to ask for an explanation.

Ald. McDonald said it wouldn't be fair to withhold the pay of these men, who were entirely innocent in the matter, and Ald. Cooper withdrew his objection with the understanding that they were to stop work.

Fred Clark addressed the council on behalf of the Athletic association. He asked that the council lease the lots on Spokane street, between Fourth and Fifth, for a skating rink, as the old grounds would be required for railway purposes within a month or two. He also asked for the same privileges in regard to free light and water as were granted last year. They had partially been promised the trusses from the old smelter building. If they got these, an attempt would be made to build a covered rink. The aldermen appeared to think that the property was of no use to the city, and the request was granted, with the understanding that a roadway be left open. The subject of the ranchers of the valley combining with the association and utilizing the building for fair purposes was also broached, and on motion of Ald. Lequime and Spraggett, a committee from the council was appointed to confer with the Athletic association. The mayor appointed Ald. Lequime, Cooper and Spraggett as such committee.

Geo. Taylor explained that it depended entirely on how badly he needed a team whether or not he would pay $525 for the horses now housed in the city stable.

Ald. Cooper said he had asked Mr. Taylor if he would give $525 for the city team, and he had answered no. That ended the controversy between him and Mr. Taylor.

The chairman of the board of works reported that the crossing at Woodland's drug store had been finished. The city team had also been tested, and the committee had found it all right. Steps had been taken to stop people from draining their sewerage into the river.

Ald. McDonald, chairman of the special committee appointed to purchase a city team, said he was no judge of horses, but he was willing to take the judgment of Ald. Lequime and Messrs. Sloper and Taylor. He was satisfied that the horses under consideration were all right, and would answer the purposes for which they were needed. They had given them a thorough test, and had practically purchased the team.

Mayor Hutton—"What do you mean by practically purchased?"

Ald. McDonald—"We have decided to purchase."

Ald. McDonald moved, seconded by Ald. Lequime, that an order for $525 be drawn on the city treasury for the team.

In view of Veterinary Surgeon Tamblyn's report on the horses, Ald. Cooper said he was forced to object to the resolution. He wanted the report read.

City Solicitor Miller read the report, as follows:

To The Hon. The Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Grand Forks:

This is to certify that I have this day exrmined for the City of Grand Forks the following horses:

Brown gelding, age 10 years, J. P. near shoulder.

Brown gelding, age 8 years, H. near shoulder.

I find that the brown gelding, J. P. near shoulder to be suffering from "side bone" on both forefeet, and on the off fore a sore which has a tendency to form a fistula, and the soles of the fore feet are somewhat dropped, and the feet are in a very dilapidated condition, but the horse is in no other way diseased.

Horse No. 2.—Brown gelding, H. near shoulder. I find this horse at some time suffered from laminitis, causing a dropping of the soles of the front feet, which in itself will be of a troublesome nature. On the other hand, I find that the horse shows a tencency to sidebones This must also be taken into consideration. I find no disease except those mentioned above.

The conformation of the feet of both horses is on the whole very unsatisfactory, so from a physical point of view the horses are both unsound and not a team that I could recommend the city to purchase. DR. TAMBLYN, V.V.S.C.M

Ald. Lequime gave a history of the negotiations for the team. He didn't think two sounder horses could be found in the Boundary country.

Ald. McDonald thought the veterinary surgeon had condemned the team because he wanted the job to buy one for the city.

Mayor Hutton said he had been informed that the horses could have been bought on the other side of the line for $250. As soon as they reach-

NEWS OF THE CITY

Birthday Surprise Party Tendered C. F. Wolfram Last Evening

Work Started on the Foundation of the Boundary Iron Work

A pleasant surprise was tendered Carl F. Wolfram at the home of his aunt, Mrs. A. Pocock, last evening by about forty young people. The intruders had brought with them everything necessary for a general jollification, and once on the victim's premises they lost little time in carrying out their original intentions. Those of the vast multitude who hadn't had time to bake dainties had armed themselves with musical instruments, flowers and anything else they could conveniently lay their hands on. After taking complete possession of the house the party proceeded to decorate the rooms until these were one vast sea of sweet scented loviness, and this completed those of a musical turn, namely E. M. George, Thos. Duffy and the Hansen brothers, were given their cues, and they tuned up for the occassion. At about midnight a dainty repast was enjoyed amid a veritable stream of railairy and happy laughter by every one present. Many handsome and useful presents had been brought, among which were a large anp mysterious looking box. This, the party informed Mr. Wolfram, would prove the surprise of his life, and instructed him to open it. Mr. Wolfram promptly proceeded to unearth the mystery of the box, which verified the statements of the guests. In it was another box, and in this another and so on until after a few minutes Carl had the room, surprise party, decorations and everything else literally deluged in one billowy ocean of boxes, paper, etc. At about two o'clock the party disbanded and repaired to their respective homes, declaring they had had a most delightful time.

The pattern building of the Boundary Iron Works is now nearing completion, and work has been commenced on the foundation of the main building.

C. A. Hartley, the jeweler, had business in Cascade the first of the week.

You are cordially invited to attend the annual Harvest Thanksgiving services to be held in the Holy Trinity church next Sunday, October 7th. Services at the usual hours.

H. W. Itter held the lucky number in the raffle pulled off by J. H. Shaw, and he now sports a fine riding horse.

Geo. A. MacLeod, of the Franklin townsite company, left on Sunday for a business trip to Seattle, Vancouver and Victoria.

It is reported that the pickpockets in sunny Spokane succeeded in extracting the purse from the inside pocket of a Grand Forks man last week. There is some satisfaction in knowing that one Grand Forks man had a pocketbook to lose.

Mrs. Fred Clark returned Sunday from a visit to her parental home in Coeur d'Lene, Idaho.

The moving picture exhibition by Bert Martin in the opera last Friday and Saturday nights was appreciated by good sized audiences both nights. Some realistic views of the Frisco earthquake were shown, giving the audience an idea of this awful catasthrophe. The tribulations of a rarebit fiend is a new film, and created an avalanche of laughter, possibly by reason of the fact that many of the audience were brought face to face with fond recollections. The Train Robbery and Over and Under the Sea are old films which were new here.

Thos. J. Benninger, secretary of Grand Forks Union No 180, announces that Grand Forks and Greenwood unions will celebrate Labor day next year at Curlew lake. The announcement is made at this early date in order that the public may have no doubt on this score.

Al. Traunweiser, proprietor of the Yale hotel, returned last Saturday from a two weeks' hunting trip near Calgary, Alta. He reports having had a fine time, and that he was very successful in bagging game.

Fred McKeehan, United States immigration agent at this point, left yesterday for a trip to North Yakima, and on his return journey he will take in the Interstate fair at Spokane.

The Greenwood city council lavishly entertained the members of the Canadian Society of Civil Engineers last week, footing all the bills—probably to get even for the lack of a visit from Earl Grey and the Spokade chamber of commerce.

Mrs. Chas. Brown visited the Interstate fair in Spokane last week.

In the case of the Eastern Townships Bank vs. Vaughan, tried last May, the case was finally dismissed with costs. The decision is a victory for the Vaughan estate, but the case will probably be appealed. The suit grew over water rights for irrigation purposes on the Covert estate near this city.

Tracklaying on the Vancouver, Victoria & Eastern westward from Midway has been completed to the town of Molson, Wash., about 30 miles west of Midway. Trains will be run regularly to this point before long, as the ballasting gang has been keeping up pretty well with the steel crew.

OTTAWA, Sept. 29.—The customs receipts for the month of September are not only the largest on record, but the increase for the month is higher than any months in the past year. The revenue was $4,657,412, compared with $3,916,018 for September, 1905, an increase $741,394. For three months of the fiscal year the customs revenue was $12,835,743, an increase of $1,506,072.

Geo. E. Massie has closed his Midway tailor shop, and will be here permenantly to look after the interests of his customers. He intends to push his business, and will sell suits from $17 up.

STRIKE AT FERNIE

Situation Up to the Hour of Going to Press Was Unchanged

Two Furnaces at Granby Closed Down---Coke Still Arriving

Telegraphic advices received by The Sun from Fernie shortly before going to press stated that there was no change in the situation of the striking miners. The men are still out. At Coal Creek and Michell the mines were shut down tight yesterday, the fans being stopped and the pumps drawn out of the mines. Coal has been purchased from outside sources to keep the electric light plant of Fernie in operation for some time yet.

At the Granby smelter furnaces Nos. 5 and 6 have been closed down. Coke, however, still continues to arrive daily, and unless the strike is prolonged for a longer time than at present expected, it is not anticipated that a total shut-down will be necessary. It is earnestly hoped that the trouble will soon be amicably settled.

The C. P. R. now has its new boarding house at Eholt about ready for business.

Miss Catharine Irene Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Wood, was married last week at Greenwood to Ormond Higman by Rev. J. Leech-Porter.

The winter time table on the C. P. R. is not expected to go into effect till about November 1st.

Geo. R. Naden, mayor of Greenwood, who has been off on an expedition into the Bulkley valley country, in northern British Columbia, has returned to the Boundary.

D. J. Darraugh, provincial constable at Midway, who has been very low at the Greenwood hospital for some weeks, is improving slightly, but his condition is still critical.

The United States naturalization law, which went into effect last Thursday, debars a man from taking out his first papers until the expiration of two years after entering the country The new law also requires of every man who goes to that country with the intention of settling there, to secure a certificate to that effect from the U. S. immigration agent. Failure to do so will result in a further wait of two years at the end of the probationary period. Under the new law the indiscriminate conferring of citizenship just prior to an election is no longer possible and the standards are higher. From the time an alien desiring citizenship enters the United States until he receives his final papers he practically will be under the supervision of the federal government. Should he fail to possess the qualifications specified by the law he must remain a foreigner and be denied any privileges of citizenship. He must be able to speak English and be of good moral character.

The new law is more discriminating in its selections of courts designated to naturalize. Inferior courts are no longer permitted to perform the function of conferring citizenship upon aliens. The only courts having jurisdiction in citizenship matters will be the federal, circuit and district courts and only those state courts that have a seal; a clerk and jurisdiction at law or equity. All courts having jurisdiction have received specific instruction as to procedure and the necessary blanks. The papers ore to be uniform throughout the United States and the certificates of citizenship issued will not only be uniform, but will be numbered consecutively and a record kept of them at Washinton

The provisions of the new act as to qualifications for naturalization are not materially different from those existing heretofore, excepting that the applicant must be able to speak the English language. The duration of residence is the same as that provided by the old law. Under the new act the witnesses must be American citizens.

One of the striking features of the new law is the requirement that all petitions for naturalization shall be filed at least ninety days before a hearing. Under the old system the applicant could be heard the same day he filed his petition. The delay will give administrative officers an opportunity to investigate those cases where there may some doubt as to the moral qualifications of the applicant. The new law provides also that naturalization shall not be granted within thirty days of any general election. The new law deprives clerks of courts of the power to grant certificates. Certificates must be given by a judge after a hearing in open court, and the government has a right to oppose if it chooses. If it notifies the court that it is opposed to the granting of a certificate the court is forbidden to issue that certificate until after thirty days, thus giving the government thirty days' time in which to institute proceedings against naturalization. The law also provides that the applicant must be of good moral character and the proper authorities are required to make investigation on this point before the certificate is issued.

Applicants for citizenship will find that, in addition to the so-called "anarchist clause" to which they are required to subscribe, they must swear that they are not polygamists or believers in polygamy. Another interesting provision is that if any applicant does not take out his second papers within seven years after he has taken out his first papers, he must begin again. The price of the final cate goes up from $2 in some courts and $2.50 in others, to $4 a piece, a fact that is calculated to discourage politicians from putting up the money for the papers in order that they may get the votes of the citizens they help to make.

In this connection it may be stated that Mr. McKeehan, who is United States immigration agent in this city holds the second highest position in the service on the Canadian border between the Atlantic and the Pacific the Grand Forks station coming next in importance to Niagara.

Wm. Dinsmore is of the opinion that a mass meeting of the citizens should be called to protest against the council purchasing the team now housed in the city livery stable at the exorbitant price asked for it. The Sun thinks that Mr. Dinsmore's plan is a good one. There appears to be something back of the question that the general public do not understand.

ed the city the price rose to $525. The horses were no good, and the city would be ashamed of them. He had been raised on a farm, and knew something about horses. He was satisfied that one of them would go lame inside of six months. He would certainly oppose buying them. He didn't think they were worth $100 apiece.

Ald. Lequime—"Did I understand you to say that the team could have been bought on the other side of the line for $250? Now, your worship, be careful in your statements."

Mayor Hutton—"That's what I was told."

Ald. Lequime—"And that when they came over here the price rose to $525?"

Mayor Hutton—"That's what I said."

Ald. McDonald and Gaw again advocated the purchase of the team.

Chief Savage was called on for an opinion. He said one horse was good—what he called a good horse. He didn't the other could stand a run from the fire station to Columbia. The team might be all right for scavenger work, but it wouldn't do for the fire department.

A vote was taken on Ald. McDonald's motion, with the following result: Ayes—Ald. Gaw, Lequime, McDonald and Spraggett. No—Ald. Cooper.

Mayor Hutton gave notice that at the next meetng he would veto the resolution absolutely, and would give his reasons for so doing.

Ald. McDonald gave notice that the committee would hold a meeting and appoint a chairman, and would compel the mayor to sign the cheque for the team.

The mayor reported that the police commissioners had held a meeting and had decided that it would not be advisable to dispense with the services of Policeman Dinsmore for another month.

Chief Savage stated that more tough characters were passing through the city now than ever before, and if two policemen had ever been needed it was now.

On motion, the recommendation of the commissioners was voted down. The police commissioners will meet next Friday, when final action in the matter will be taken.

The council then adjourned.

John Fletcher was brought before Judge Cochrane yesterday afternoon on a charge of disorderly conduct, and was fined ten dollars and costs.

Frank Miller, of Atlin, B. C., is visiting relatives in the city.

The Athletic association is preparing to give a grand Thanksgiving ball in November,

It is a pleasure to make wishes—and that is about all the satisfaction the most of us get out of them.

The average woman likes to be bossed during courtship almost as well as she likes to boss after marriage.

Many a man does not love his neighbor as himself because he has a garden and his neighbor keeps chickens.

Our idea of a hypocrite is a man who says he hates to go to church because the girls in the choir make goo-goo eyes at him.

When a girl says her mother won't let her accept an invitation to a party it is certain that the wrong person asked her to go.

The average man attributes his success to his own good judgment and his failures to his having followed the advice of others.

Some men work so hard to win a woman that they do nothing but rest after they get her.

When a man wants to fight don't hold him, but permit him to wade in and get what's coming to him before he changes his mind.

A young lady in Grand Forks is said to have a hen setting on China eggs with the hopes of hatching out a Chinaman to wash dishes for her.

The reason some people are better than others is that they don't try to work their temper off on others who can't use it.
