KITCHENER.

A dispatch came over the telephone Tuesday that Lord Kitchener and staff were lost with the crew of cruiser Hampshire, wrecked off the Orkney islands. This is the greatest of a long series of empire disasters. Let us hope that Official Britain and her protected alien-enemies are not in this case responsible for a crime similar to that which resulted in the untimely death of Sir Hector McDonald.

TOWN AND DISTRICT

The golf links are being well patronized these days.

M. Daly and R. G. Cawston of Keremeos were in town Saturday.

T. H. Rotherham made a flying business visit to Princeton Monday.

Remember the band dance in the Hedley opera House on the 16th inst.

H. A. and Mrs. Barrello of Keremeos were visitors in town Saturday.

F. H. French of the Hedley Trading company visited Princeton Monday.

Curry Shister and Homer Wells of Princeton were in town Saturday.

Al. Campbell and Nat Darling of Vancouver were in town yesterday. They sell booze and smokes. Separately they are pretty good fellows.

Princeton will have a big two day celebration June 30th and July 1st. The program will include baseball, horse racing, rock drilling, athletic sports and cowboy race; $1200.00 will be expended in prizes. Special trains will be run to accommodate visitors.

Owing to a mistake in shipping by freight instead of express, the ready prints for the The Gazette have not arrived in time for this issue; therefore the single sheet this week. Since taking over The Gazette it has been one gosh-hanged (we would say damned but for early Presbyterian environment) thing after another. Luck may change and it is about time.

Tuesday evening the Hedley band gave an open air concert which was much appreciated by all. The band should receive the hearty support of the citizens. Especially in a mining camp it is difficult to keep a band alive, where men are constantly moving from one place to another. It is a constant dig down in their pockets by the members for music and other requisites. Then there is the time lost by the members in practice and free engagements. You have all asked the band to play for nothing—to help the church, the town, or the district—just for pure patriotism, forgetting that every effort of a village band is patriotic. The Hedley band couldn't play a day's engagement for less than $50 and break even on actual expenses. An evening engagement monthly could not be financed for less than $25. Don't say nonsense, eight years' experience should give one a good idea of the necessary expenses of a village band.

Mrs. A. F. Lomer and children visited Princeton Saturday.

Nick Pickard left Saturday for Kamloops, where he will join the Pioneers.

Mrs. L. Oty and children of Chopaka came in Thursday, returning to Oroville Sunday.

R. J. Smith, district freight and passenger agent of the G. N. R., passed through Hedley Thursday.

Mrs. Bowerman left for Spokand Tuesday. A number of friends were at the station to bid her good-bye.

J. Peck MacSwain went up to Princeton Monday. He expects to go north to the Peace River country this summer.

M. C. Hill left Saturday for Trail. He made a host of friends while here, and will be missed in Hedley's athletic world.

The weather for the past two or three days has been comfortably warm, and it is probable there will be summer weather from now on.

W. J. Kirkpatrick and Hugh Finnegan of Princeton were here Friday trying to get a corner on pork, but all they secured was a single hog.

Mrs. P. C. Rolls, who has been visiting her sons, Bruce and Louis, for the past three months, left Thursday for her home in Alameda, California.

Tennis, ice cream and strawberries are being played industriously by the female population, while highballs and grunts are still indulged in by many of the males.

Jas. Brass, of Boeing & Brass, returned Tuesday from a business trip to Trail, Nelson and points in the Boundary district. He says Trail was the only live business burg he visited. Trail has a payroll of $120,000 monthly. About twelve hundmen are on the payroll, a num- of them civilized, the balance from central and southeastern Europe, and usually designated bohunks.

Great Naval Battle.

On the 31st May the greatest naval battle of the war was fought in the North sea. The Germans lost 2 battleships, 2 dreadnaught cruisers, 4 light cruisers, 9 torpedo boats, and a submarine. The British, 3 battle cruisers, three armored cruisers, and 8 destroyers. Time will tell whether the engagement was a victory or not. The Germans came out with about one hundred fighting craft. These were attacked by the British cruiser squadron before the battleships came np. After the British battle ships came into action the Germans retired, or whatever is the naval equivalent for a "duck and quick get-away over the ropes."

The dispatches contain a number of excuses for the cruiser squadron attacking so vastly superior a force. There is nothing to make excuses for. History does not record a single instance of British seamen haggling over weights before engaging an enemy. They got 18, of the enemy's boats, and had been waiting two years for just such an opportunity. The losses in men were large on both sides, the largest in any naval battle, but this is a war of annihilation, and will end only when one of the participants is almost exterminated.

Helps All Around.

Henry Ward Beecher once said that no man ever manages a legitimate business in his life who is not doing a thousandfold more for other men than he is trying to do for himself; for, in the economy of God's providence, every right and well-organized business is a beneficence and not a selfishness; and the less so because the merchant thinks mostly of his own profits. These words tell the whole story. No man ever built a nice house on his lot or his farm but that he added to the value of his neighbor's property. When a man keeps his own lawn in good condition and his back yard looking neat, he is making progress himself and he is also making money for his neighbors across the way, whether his neighbor's chickens bother him or not. No man ever invents a practical machine or device but he benefits the world at large and adds not only dollars to the world's wealth, but more intelligence and a higher civilization. The same is true of a good book, a magazine or an editorial.—Ex.

The official certificate of ore found on Rocher de Boule mountain, a short distance from Hazelton, shows that the values are as follows: Gold, $87.20; silver, $2.77; cobalt, $110; making a total of $199.97, which is exclusive of the 53.53 per cent of arsenic. Alex. Sharp, M. E., who examined the property on behalf of A. Erskine Smith, states that this is the first time cobalt has been associated with high-grade gold values.

The provincial legislature has been prorogued. Constituents should securely bar their doors and place their valuables in a bank vault during the election campaign, and keep a loaded gun in the house.

Father Godfrey of Old Hazelton has leased the St. Marie group in Howson Basin to Chisholm Bros., who have a shaft down 50 feet, exposing a good vein of bornite.

Dean Channel properties are being investigated by the Granby company.

Greenwood smelter is treating 1400 tons of ore daily, 100 tons being custom ore.

KEREMEOS ITEMS.

Keremeos has been enjoying a big summer rain.

Mrs. Joe Armstrong of Chopaka was in town between trains on Saturday.

Rev. F. Stanton and Mr. F. B. Gibson returned on Saturday's train from the coast.

Mr. Adams, livery and feed merchant of Princeton, was in town on Tuesday on his way to Greenwood.

Mr. Geo. Riddle of Hedley motored through town on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Oty, going to Oroville, Wash.

Miss Meconnell, after spending a few weeks in the sunny Similkameen, left for her home in Victoria on Thursday's train.

Mrs. L. A. Clarke and Mrs. G. Clarke of Green mountain motored to Hedley Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Forbes.

Mr. and Mrs. Langtry of Winnipeg are visiting at South Keremeos. Mr. Langtry has interests in the Similkameen Fruit Land Co.

Mrs. L. A. Clark of Green Mountain, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. G. Clark, drove to Keremeos Saturday and attended the W. I. picnic.

Mrs. Keeler left last week on a visit to her brother and son in Montana. Mrs. Keeler will be away for two months and will also visit her old home in Nebraska.

Any one wishing to see the cutest thing in horse flesh should visit F. B. Gibson's home and see the baby Shetland pony, only a week old, and not much bigger than a lap-dog.

Mr. D. J. Innis was kept very busy with his car on Sunday. He motored to Hedley on Sunday morning with a party; leaving them there, he went through to Penticton, bringing a party of men back with him to Keremeos, returning to Hedley in the evening for another party.

Mr. H. Tweedle left on Saturday's train for Cranbrook.

A party of B. C. Copper men were in town Sunday from Copper mountain.

Mr. Bell was a visitor in town Thursday and is very much impressed with the valley.

Miss Annie Innis made a flying trip to Hedley last week in the car with her brother.

The Great Northern painters are in town finishing up some painting around the station.

Mr. Noreross, superintendent of the B. C. Copper company, motored to Oroville on Friday.

Mr. Riddle motored from Hedley on Wednesday, accompanied by Mrs. Jackson and daughter.

Mr. Oscar Lachmund passed through town again Monday with men for Copper mountain.

Mrs. Forbes of Hedley spent a couple of days in town last week with her sister, Mrs. D. J. Innis.

Mr. Knowles of Olalla and Mrs. Lelierue of Springbrook ranch were visitors in town on Thursday.

Mr. Lachmund lunched in town Wednesday of last week on his way from Copper mountain to Greenwood.

Mr. W. Kirkpatrick and Mr. H. Finnegan of Princeton were in town last week having horses examined by Dr. Thompson.

The ranchers from the lower valley passed through town on Thursday with a large drove of horses and cattle for the Princeton ranges.

Mr. D. J. Innis motored to Penticton today with men to work on his ranch at Trout Creek. From Penticton they will travel by the Kettle Valley.

R. H. Carmichael spent two days on the Ashnola fishing and brought home some beauties with him. We expect from this on the trail will be kept hot.

Mr. E. Mills, our hardware man, has just finished the renovating of his store, and put in a new line of goods which will reach everyone's wants in hardware.

Messrs. Miller and Jackson have arrived back from their hunting trip, bringing in a mountain lion, three bear and a number of coyotes, which they secured on Shuswap creek.

We are pleased to hear that the Rev. F. Stanton is to stay another year on this circuit, as Mr. and Mrs. Stanton are well liked by his congregation and the community in general.

Visitors from South Keremeos last week were Messrs. Cawston, Wright, Bell and Taylor; Mesdames Wright, Newton, Taylor, Cawston, Ring, and the Misses Sinclair and Wood.

Mr. Smith, district passenger and freight agent of the Great Northern railway, was in town on Saturday conferring with the Similkameen Fruit Land Co. in regard to the station at Cawston.

Arrangements have been made by local Prohibitionists for a lecture on the prohibition question by J. W. Bengough, noted throughout Canada as one of the foremost cartoonists alive today.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will hold a strawberry and ice cream social on Friday evening, June 23rd, in the Park. Everybody come and enjoy the good eats that the ladies always provide.

Among the guests at the Keremeos hotel: T. H. Brone, J. Knox Wright, Vancouver; M. Bailey, Spokane; Geo. E. Brown, Aurora, Ill.; R. J. Smith, Nelson; W. J. Kirkpatrick, H. Finnegan, Princeton; H. Prince, Oroville; H. R. Mott, Penticton.

Mr. Frith has his tennis court in a splendid condition and has offered the use of it to the Tennis club which Miss Ramsay is organizing, and we hope after the club has had a little practice to see some interesting games with Hedley and Princeton and Keremeos.

Dr. J. Knox Wright, of Vancouver, secretary of the B. C. Auxiliary of the Canadian Bible society, which is a branch of the great British and Foreign Bible society, visited this place last Tuesday and gave a lecture and lantern views of a trip through Japan, Siberia and Manchuria in the church to a large and appreciative audience.

The W. I. picnic held in the park on Saturday was well attended in spite of the unfavorable weather in the morning. The afternoon turned out beautifully warm and all seemed to enjoy themselves. Two long tables were spread with delicious refreshments, to which everyone did ample justice. Afterwards games were played by both old and young, and as darkness approached all wended their way home well satisfied with the afternoon outing.

Easy? Oh Yes!

Editing a newspaper is a pleasing business if you can stand it.

If it contains many advertisements the subscribers claim they take up too much space.

If there is a scarcity of advertising it is unpopular and the people won't have it.

If we attend church regularly, they say it is done for effect.

If we stay away from church they say we are monstrously heathenish.

If we accept an invitation to a wedding, they say we are invited to write it up.

If we are on the street much they say we neglect our business.

If we avoid going on the street they say we don't hustle around after news.

If we are single they say we are too hopeless to get married.

If we are married they say it is a pity for our wives.

If we publish a man who brought disgrace on his family the friends of the family never forgive us.

If we, out of goodness of heart, omit anything on the subject, the man's enemies are disappointed, and we are branded as white-livered cowards.

Should we report a concert and not give everybody taking part a flattering write-up, we are liable to have the few remaining hairs yanked out of our head.

We are liable to receive these raps and many more, and we are always ready to receive visitors whether accompanied by a dog or not. Of course we do not claim there is any work in running a newspaper. Everybody knows its a snap.—Ex.

The live citizens should give better support to the band. Aside from the pleasure to the citizens and the splendid advertisement a good band is for a town, there is found a continual growing necessity in a live town for a band to play at the obsequies of men who were dead for years in business. There are always enterprising citizens who will contribute funds to furnish music at the official interment of old acquaintances who started business on First avenue and ended on Hogan's alley, through neglecting to to advertise and letting the people know they were alive. As a town grows the non-advertisers gradually drift to the side streets and alleys. To get business, you must let people know you have the goods. As the business man who does not advertise is practically dead, it is a good plan to have a band at the funeral to excite public curiosity as to who the deceased was and what he did.
