LAURIER GETS IT AGAIN.

Result of Monday's Polling Gives Government Safe Working Majority.

ONTARIO THE GREAT DISAPPOINTER.

Most of Other Provinces do about as expected of them—Laurier like Patti, Barnum and other Notabilities can Work Wonders on last Appearance Appeals.

For Laurier the agony is over and he is intrusted with another lease of power from the people of Canada. It is useless to say that the result has not been in a great measure disappointing. In many cases there are surprises. That the machine has been at work there is little doubt and the usual crop of disclosures of electoral crookedness may be expected.

SIR WILFRED LAURIER,
Premier of Canada.

The returns show only a slight Conservative gain in Quebec, and the Ontario landslide that was to materialize failed to connect, the Conservatives only winning forty-five seats, their opponents forty.

HON. R. L. BORDEN
Leader of the Opposition Party.

The returns to hand while incomplete indicate that Laurier's majority while a little less than in the last parliament is more evenly distributed through the Dominion and not centred in the province of Quebec as before. West of the Great Lakes, the Conservatives have the best of it.

British Columbia has witnessed the most general turnover of any, and had the elections been held on the same day, one solitary Liberal would be all that would have been left of the once vaunted "Solid Seven."

Little has been learned as yet of individual contests, but it is known that Cowan has won Vancouver; Taylor captured Westminster; Ralph Smith was bowled out by Hawthornthwaite, and first reports stated that Templeman was down and out with Barnard five votes ahead of him. This narrow majority however could not last for the half of one recount with a Liberal returning officer.

Winnipeg was captured by Haggart, conservative; Laurier and McGivern carried Ottawa and Bordon won his seat in Halifax. That will mean a bye-election in Carleton, which is safely Conservative.

Sifton won the Brandon election.

The vote by provinces was as follows:

	Lib.	Con.	Soc.
New Brunswick	10	3
Nova Scotia	12	6
P. E. I.	3	1
Quebec	49	10
Ontario	39	39
Manitoba	4	7
Saskatchewan	5	2
Alberta	3	3
British Columbia	1	2	1
	126	73	1

The Italians are making splendid progress in grading out the station grounds. At their present rate of going they should have it ready for yardage steel in about four more weeks.

ELECTRIC ROAD FROM NIGHTHAWK.

How V. V. & E. Traffic Might be Diverted—Report Looks Faky.

Seattle, Oct. 23.—Okanogan county, in the extreme north central part of Washington, now traversed by stage and freight lines operated by horses and automobiles, is to have an electric railway before the end of another year. Col. Albert M. Dewey of Spokane, president of the Okanogan Electric Railway Company, incorporated under the laws of Washington with a capital stock of $3,000,000, and an authorized bond issue of $4,000,000, announces that the sale of bonds is practically accomplished, and that work will soon begin. The line and equipment will cost $2,621,280.

The company has a fifty-four year franchise, right-of-way and charter for a steam or electric railway of eighty miles from Nighthawk, where it will connect with the Victoria, Vancouver and Eastern extension of the Great Northern railway, to the head of navigation on the Columbia river, where connection will be made with river boats and the main line of the Great Northern, giving its outlets to Spokane on the east, and Puget sound points on the west. The main line will pass through Loomis, Okanogan, Ophir, Malett, Brewster and the Q. S. mines, near which a smelter will be built, and there will be branches to Conconully, Omak, Riverside and other desirable points.

THE VALUE OF CRITICISM.

Some Wholesome Advice for the Thin-Skinned.

(Walker's Weekly.)

Without honest criticism this world would be a cipher in the sum of time and we a lot of sap-heads. Criticism honestly maintained and conscientiously directed is the finest tonic a community can have. The Man of Nazareth recognized this fully, and his words to the pharisees, priests and scribes of his day,—men who put up with no criticism and ruthlessly brushed aside all who dared to question their authority,—indicate that the no criticism policy was not his policy.

The thing is, not to be afraid of criticism nor to hate it, but rather to court it and profit by it. The author afraid of criticism is a "dub." the actor who cannot stand criticism is a false alarm. Progressive men in all vocations court criticism. They recognize in the severest critic their best friend. It is the man of small calibre that looks upon criticism as opposition. The critic is destructive only to those things and conditions which are of themselves destructive. Silence criticism and you take out of the community its best impulse in the daily march forward. Criticism is not chastisement. It is the goad that inspires men to do things, not dream them.

HIDDEN CREEK MINES.

Operations of M. K. Rodgers Co. on Goose Bay.

Among those who came down from the Goose Bay mines this week were William Hanna and James Mack, both good miners, who are well acquainted in Kootenay and the Boundary, says the Prince Rupert Empire. Both say the showing at Goose Bay are wonderful, and that if there is not a big mine there then surface showings are deceptive. The ore has been exposed by trenches and by stripping, and they estimate the deposit or ledge to be over 200 feet wide. It has not been sunk on. One tunnel was started, but surface works showed so much ore that the management decided to begin a tunnel lower down, which will give over 450 feet of over-head stoping, and the work of facing up for that tunnel is now under way and will soon be finished. At present nearly all the working force is engaged at grading for a surface tramway from the mine to navigable water, a distance of about a mile and a half, and in putting in a pipe line for the compressor plant. About 80 men were at work, but some of them have quit, not caring to do outside work in wet weather. The wages paid are $3 and $3.50 a day, with $6 a week for board. There is no Sunday work.

ELECTION LAW FARCE.

Canada has stringent election laws. The regulations look well on paper, but in practice the whole law is a big farce. The law makes it an offense punishable by a fine of $200 for any printing house to print any matter upon the election, which does not bear the imprint of the printer. And yet the dead walls about town are plastered over with highly colored show bills sent out by the Liberal campaign managers, which are neither educational nor reasonable. The election law also makes it a misdemeanor, and imposed a fine of $200 upon anyone posting this anonymous campaign stuff, and yet our good Liberals in the dead of night think nothing of plastering the town with it. A campaign booklet gotten up in the shape and style of Little Bo-peep and circulated anonymously, is anothes bright Liberal dodge. All of which is contrary to law. Just what the party can expect to gain by the circulation of this sort of campaign rot is beyond our comprehension. The printer who put it out was evidently so much ashamed of it that he would not put his imprint on it. The very nature of it presupposes a very low intellectuality. If there were any number of Canadian voters who could be influenced by this sort of thing, we should be ashamed of them.—Walker's Weekly.

ROD AND GUN FOR NOVEMBER.

Fine diversified reading is the leading feature of the November number of "Rod and Gun and Moter Sports in Canada," published by W. J. Taylor, at Woodstock, Ont. The delights of camping, canoeing, fishing, hunting and mountaineering are dwelt upon in stories which give the added touches of personal experiences to the pleasant pictures of enjoyment each one presents. Particularly notable are papers on "The Deer of New Brunswick" by that veteran guide, Adam Moore; "Deer Farming for Profit," a summary of inquiries on this subject made by the United States Government; and "Wild Rice Growing in Nova Scotia." Everyone will enjoy reading the stories, "Running the Rapids with an Amateur" by L. W. Bingay; "My Experiences as a Bear Hunter" by Dr. Henzel; "How I missed a Moose and Deer and shot a Wolf," by Jack Miner; and the friendly challenge by Mr. J. A. Shade, who believes, when all points are taken into consideration, that he has the finest moose head yet taken out of New Brunswick. This summary by no means includes the whole of the wide field covered. Diversions are made into many paths each one of which must appeal to many readers. With the various departments, the wealth of material included in this number of the magazine is surprising and includes contributions that must appeal to all lovers of out door life.

SERIOUS MILL ACCIDENT.

West Has Foot Badly Mangled in Gear of Conveyors.

On Sunday about 9 p. m. W. West, a young Englishman, who was working on the conveyors in the Daly Reduction Co's. stamp mill had his foot caught in the gearing and so badly mangled that it will have to be amputated. How the accident occurred is not known for he was working alone and his condition is too serious for anyone to disturb him by making inquiries merely to satisfy curiosity. The first that was known of it was when he managed to make his way on one foot in a semi-fainting condition on to the battery floor where the roar of the stamps would prevent him attracting attention. The first to notice him was Patterson, who sent for A. E. Holbrook, superintendent of the mill, who happened to be near.

Dr. McGregar was immediately summoned and was on the ground in a few minutes after, making an examination of the injury and also the condition of his patient, whom he found to be too weak to stand the shock of amputation. He has been doing everything that is in his power to allay his patient's suffering and bring him through if possible. It is reported that the injured man has had one or more attacks of hemorrhage of the lungs since the accident occurred and this condition seriously handicaps the doctor in his efforts to save the man's life.

MARTIN BURRELL
— IN —
FRATERNITY HALL, HEDLEY
— ON —
OCTOBER 30th
At 8 o'clock p.m.

AS OUTSIDERS SEE HIM.

Tribute to Martin Burrell from an Outside Non-political Source.

The following warm appreciation of the Conservative candidate in Yale-Cariboo appears in the October number of the Canadian Horticulturist, an entirely non-political publication. It says:

"More horticulturists should be in Parliament and in our Legislative Assemblies. There is need for men who know something about fruit growing and kindred pursuits. The enacting of legislation that has to do with the progress of our fruit industry requires the support of men acquainted with the business.

"It is with pleasure, therefore, that we learn of the nomination of Mr. Martin Burrell to contest the Yale-Cariboo constituency in the next Dominion election. Apart from politics (and we do not know the party he supports), Mr. Burrell is eminently fitted for a place in Parliament no matter to which side of politics he belongs. His long experience as a fruit grower, the excellent work that he did at the Dominion Fruit Conference in 1906, the manner in which he performed his duties as representative for British Columbia at the fruit shows of England and the great interest that he takes in the development of the fruit industry of Canada, make him highly deserving of the confidence of the electors. Furthermore, the retirement of Mr. E. D. Smith, M. P. the Conservative member for South Wentworth, Ontario, and the fact that Mr. A. A. Wright, M. P., the Liberal member for South Renfrew, will not be a candidate at the next election, both of whom have done valuable work in the interets of our fruit industry, demand the election of one or more men to continue the work.

Mr. Donald McPhail came down from Nicola last week and will remain for a week or two visiting Mr. and Mrs Terrill. Mr. McPhail's Hedley friends are pleased to see him back again.

WHAT WAS THE CAUSE

The cause of Ontario's behavior on Monday last may be sought in a good many directions but will be difficult to find. The moral turpitude on the part of the electors of that province which it implies is not pleasant to contemplate, for it shows that they are prepared to condone the pilfering from the public treasury that has been going on to such an alarming degree as has been proven in the public records and the public accounts. The strangest feature about it and one which looks very suspicious is that the better class of Liberals shared the opinion of Conservatives that a great turnover in public sentiment in that province was to be expected. Some of these were prepared to concede over fifty seats to Mr. Borden, and that it fell so far short of the sixty or sixty-five that the Conservatives were counting on, would look very much as if means were employed of which these better class Liberals would be kept in the dark. This of course may have no foundation in fact and the end may be due to some other cause unexplained. There is, however, another factor which may have queered the electors of Ontario. That is their utter lack of sympathy with the Asiatic Exclusion movement which occupies so large a place in the public eye in this province, and it is questionable whether it was good tactics to seek to give it the same prominence with people who could only judge of the question in the abstract and had no opportunity of knowing by object lesson any of the effects either real or probable that must follow the introduction of Asiatics in large numbers into this province. It is like butting the head against a stone wall to talk to those old self-sufficient blue law manipulators, who may be perfectly sincere in their views, that there is socially and industrially an impassible gulf between the European and the Asiatic. For nearly two centuries they and their forbears have been building up altruistic ideals based on the assumption of the brotherhood of man. When Burns wrote that "a man's a man for a' that" and that "man to man the world o'er would brothers be", he had never had any acquaintance with the migratory Chink or Jap, and neither has the present day Ontario elector, who has made Burn's altruism a part of his religious creed. It is less than a year since Laurier was loudly applauded at a Board of Trade banquet in Toronto for saying that he would not be stampeded by British Columbia into Asiatic exclusion, and the sentiment that called forth that applause is still there. It should have been reckoned with in the contest.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

The triumphs of photography are seen in the feat of the highly imaginative camera, which snapped a snap of Duncan's new ethereal post office in Vernon.

If it were known how much of the misrepresentation appearing in the Vernon Okanagan these days is to be attributed to ignorance of public questions and how much to the habit of prevarication, it would be easier to tell how much blame is to be meted out for each week's dose of mendacity.

Now that the electors in Ontario and other eastern provinces have said that they dont care whether B. C. is white, yellow or brown, there is all the greater necessity for Yale-Cariboo and Kootenay re-affirming their determination of keeping it white by electing Burrell and Goodeve.

Word comes from the Okanagan to the effect that the friends of Duncan Ross in this ridiug are resting all their hopes of his election upon the dredging dodge at Penticton and upon that picture of the new post office in Vernon. Of course they claim that tenders are called for. Tenders are sometimes long in being opened; besides they often read "the lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted." Oh Duncan, Duncan, how thou dost love humbug!

If Parker Williams is correctly reported in the Penticton Press he stated in a public address in Penticton that "the condition of the working class was worse now than it had been since the close of the 17th century, while the best period had been in the 13th century." Surely Parker Williams does not expect to find anybody in the Similkameen riding green enough to believe a statement so manifestly false as this is. If this were true he is the worst enemy that trades unionism could possibly have, for in this he practically gives labor unions a slap in the face by telling unionists that their unionism was no good and had accomplished nothing for the betterment of the wage-earner's condition. Worse than that, he gives them to understand that all their work and worry in organizing labor for its own protection had resulted only in loss to them since their condition was now worse than when they began. Verily much doping with Carl Marx pabulum hath made these men mad.

Children are often promised a nice picture book if they will be good. Last week's Okanagan has a nice picture, on its front page, of the new post office that Vernon is to get if it will support Duncan Ross. All Yale-Cariboo will watch what Vernon is going to do about it and will be able to take Vernon's measure as the re- of what its people will do on November 12th.

If for no other reason than its foul record in the Yukon and its treatment of Rev. Dr. Pringle, the Laurier Government deserved to go down to defeat on Monday last. Dr. Pringle's letter of Oct. 8th telling the foul story of the conspiracy to ruin him, is at all events enough to show the people of British Columbia that they have reason to be proud of their action in February 1907 when they turned down a party led by such men as Ex-Judge Henderson and Billy McInnes. The Christian church has never shown out grander in anything that has happened here in the west than the fight put up by Dr. Pringle in his denunciation of vice in high places.

Town and District.

Mr. A. E. Anderson, who has been most of the year in Spokane, returned to Hedley on Saturday.

H. Swan is making good progress on the Ashnola Creek Bridge, which is now well on the way to completion.

The Spokane Spokesman-Review had a cut of Hon. R. L. Borden, which looks as much like Mr. Borden as Duncan Ross looks like Abraham Lincoln.

Across the line, in Washington State, the interest in the Presidental election seems to be lost in that of the contest for removal of the county seat from Conconully to Riverside.

The Molson Leader, a new paper, started by H. I. Mooney to take the place of the Independent which was removed, has come to hand. It is a tidy looking sheet and has fair advertising patronage.

Miss MacHaffie, who has been visiting in Hedley with Mr. W. A. MacLean's family during the past two months, returned yesterday to her home in Vancouver, having spent a very enjoyable time in Hedley and the Similkameen.

Gradually the Similkameen Falls Power Co. near Oroville are reaching out for new business. Their latest move in this direction is the construction of a powerline to transmit electrical energy from the Falls to the Triune mine at Golden.

Mr. J. R. Brown, of Summerland, was in Hedley over Sunday, having driven over with Dr. White. Mr. Brown was over in the old country last winter on behalf of the Dominion Government as fiscal agent in the interest of Canadian Fruit-growers.

Dillier and Scherbauer of the Hedley Brewery have dissolved partnership, Louis Scherbauer buying out Otto Dillier's interest in the business. The latter has made no arrangements yet as to his future, but will no doubt look for a location elsewhere.

Mr. J. L. Caldwell's friends in Hedley were pleasantly surprised to see him walking around on Monday last. He returned from the Vernon hospital on Saturday night's stage. While he is still very weak his condition has greatly improved, and he hopes with rest and care to be able for his work again in the spring.

An enjoyable farewell party was held on Monday evening at the residence of Mr. F. H. French on Kingston Ave. to bid goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. French, on the eve of their departure to Vernon. The many Hedley friends of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. French wish them Godspeed and a full measure of happiness.

Mr. J. H. Kennedy, chief engineer V. V. & E. was in town on two days last week. Mr. Kennedy has been looking after parts of the local engineering work between here and Princeton, which Mr. Hale could not find time to look after. Mr. Kennedy expects to move to Princeton shortly in order to be nearer his work.

The Gazette has received a copy of the handsome lithograph of Hon. Richard McBride, Premier of British Columbia, issued by the Toronto Lithographing Co. and supplied by the Vancouver Province to its subscribers. The picture is an excellent likeness of the premier and one which every British Columbian should have.

On Tuesday night's stage Messrs. Charles Bunting, Parker Williams and George E. Winkler, representing the Socialists, arrived in Hedley in the interests of Bunting's candidature. It is understood that they will hold a meeting in Princeton, and put in the balance of their time in a still hunt, before their meeting here on Saturday night.

Chas. Bunting the Socialist Candidate will be in Hedley on Saturday night, and will address the electors. He will be assisted by Parker Williams the Socialist representative for Newcastle in the B. C. Legislature. Williams is acknowledged to be a good speaker, and whether the electors agree with their political views or not, many will no doubt turn out to hear them.

Mr. M. K. Rodgers, of Seattle, came in on Friday night last accompanied by Walter B. Beam a mining engineer from Colorado. They spent Saturday and Monday at the Nickel Plate, and went out again this morning. Mr. Rodgers is giving most of his attention to the opening out of properties of the Hidden Creek Mines Co. in which he is largely interested and whose property is situated [illegible] ose Bay an arm o f O[illegible] n t.

Picture post-card scribblers at DAVIDSON'S.

It was a large congregation which turned out to hear Rev. Dr. White, the Superintendent of Methodist Missions, who preached in the Methodist Church here on Sunday night. Dr. White can always count on a good turnout in Hedley for his periodical visits. He spoke of the difficulty which the church had in securing men for the work of the various mission fields, but if no man could be secured for Hedley, he would arrange for monthly visits by clergy from Penticton, Kelowna or some other field.

Looks comfortable to see smoke this weather. A good assortment of Pipes at DAVIDSON'S.

Martin Burrell the Conservative candidate, will address the electors of Hedley in Fraternity Hall to-morrow, (Friday) night. The defeat of his party at the polls on Monday last does not in any degree daunt Mr. Burrell who is not a quitter. Four years ago he was up against the same handicap of a deferred election, but he never deserted his post, and had his friends been possessed of half the sand that is in him he would have won out, and would have done credit to the district as its representative. Everybody in town who wishes to hear one of the best speakers in the province should turn out to-morrow evening and hear him.

Let your friends know you are alive. Get your Stationery at DAVIDSON'S—a fresh supply just arrived.

SOUTHERN OKANAGAN

Al. Phelps and family recently removed from Myer's Flat to Fairview.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Ellis, of Victoria, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wade, of Penticton.

Jas. Davis, besides clearing twelve acres of bench, cut several tons of hay on his lower meadow.

Dr. R. B. White is thoroughly renovating the old bank mess, he is preparing it for a residence.

Miss Hazel McKenzie of Cliff Ranch, Vaseaux, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Parkinson, of Kelowna,

In the last twelve months a wonderful change has taken place in this new settlement nestling down among the foothills.

Messrs Mahoney and Woodworth on Kearns Lake are busily engaged in breaking up their lake shore frontage preparing it for fall planting.

Hawthorn Bros., lately arrived from Peachland, are engaged in cleaning their pre-emptions preparatory to installing a sawmill on Green Lake.

Two gangs of men under McLean and Davis are busily engaged in opening up the Green Lake District between Okanagan Falls and Fairwiew.

Jos. Gigniac of Beausejour Ranche, Myers Flat, picked 15 tons of first-class grapes off one half acre of bench this year, finding a ready sale in Penticton and Hedley.

Chinamen and the many small boys in Fairview will now be able to go up and down the gulch without fear of either devils or spooks since the Blue House is being removed.

The Government dredge is arriving in Pentiction on the installment plan. I'll tell you more in next's week's breezes, about the dredge and dredgers. Of course they are all Grits.

Peter McIntyre, of Cliff Ranch, has purchased the 'Old Blue House' in Fairview and is moving it out on his farm. W. M. Dalrymple, of Fairview, has the contract for mov the edifice.

Thanks to our Hon. member L. W. Shatford, this district is now being opened up in record time. The distance between between Penticton and Fairview will be about 24 miles by the new road instead of 32 miles as at present.

Harris Bros. have sunk a 30 foot shaft and made several open cuts on their free bearing quartz lead. They have several acres in orchard besides a flourishing young nursery full of young apricot and peach trees which they are rearing to supply the local demand.

MARTIN BURRELL,

The Liberal-Conservative Candidate for Yale-Cariboo, and Next Representative of This Riding.

MR. BURRELL was born in England, and came to Canada over thirty years ago, when he engaged in the fruit-growing industry in the Niagara peninsula in Ontario. In that province he was recognized as an able speaker on horticultural topics, and was one of the most acceptable lecturers at meetings of the farmer's institutes in each electoral riding of that province. With the opening of the Boundary district he came to British Columbia to engage in fruit-growing, and has since been recognized as an authority on that question, representing British Columbia in England last winter. While identifying himself with the Conservative party he has never been a violent partisan, and stands for placing politics on a higher plane. Such a man would make an ideal representative for Yale-Cariboo. Do yourself credit by voting for him!
