WILL HE BE OPPOSED?

Following parliamentary procedure it will be necessary for Hon. Martin Burrell to journey back to Yale-Cariboo for re-election. By this time doubtless he has been sworn in as Minister of Agriculture in the Borden cabinet and as soon as the House meets and there is a speaker elected to whom he may resign, it will be necessary for him to place his resignation and come back for re-election.

So far there are indications that in many of the constituencies through Canada where their representatives have been given a position in the cabinet, these will be returned by acclamation when they present themselves for re-election. Whether this courtesy will be extended in Mr. Burrell's case will rest with his opponents in this riding, but there are rumors that prominent Liberals in the riding favor this course.

The nominations for the new elections are to take place on October 25th in ten of the constituencies concerned.

A WELL-MERITED TRIBUTE

The simple little extra of the British Columbia Gazette announcing the death of LieutenantColonel Wolfenden was a thoughtful and gracious act on the part of the Provincial Ministry that we are sure will touch a large section of the people in this province and particularly the older residents. It was an honor due to the personal worth of the deceased and his long and faithful service for the province as Queen's and King's Printer since 1863. In that long and honorable career in the service of the province Col. Wolfenden has looked after the issue of many an extra of the Gazette and it was most fitting that his own decease should be made the subject of another, and his name and memory be thus handed down in the archives of the province to meet the eye of the future historian. Premier McBride seems blessed with the faculty of doing the right thing at the right time and the kindliness of his nature which prompts these little offices as well as his ripe unerring judgment combine to make him the successful leader he is.

WOULD SETTLE INDIAN QUESTION

The Vernon News tells of a meeting having already been held in the upper Okanagan by the residents of Enderby and other sections to secure joint action in making effort to bring before the new government the question of dealing with the various Indian reservations in the Okanagan valley.

It has always been understood that the antagonism existing between the governments at Ottawa and Victoria stood in the way of settlement of this vexed question, and if so, there is now reason to hope that when the governments are in accord something better may be expected. This is a question that the Gazette has at different times discussed pretty fully and offered a remedy which will be in the interests of the Indians and also of the various communities in which reservations are situate. The editor has also had the honor of discussing the matter briefly with Mr. Borden, and had the satisfaction of hearing him say that the plan of settlement suggested, which has nothing new about it, appeared fair and reasonable, with no apparent objection.

It is not to be inferred that there is any disposition on the part of those moving in the matter, to take any advantage of the Indians or deal unfairly by them. On the contrary, the plan of settlement proposed is that which was employed in various parts of the east which has brought civilization and prosperity to the Indians.

But the way the Indians of British Columbia have been used by their supposed guardians at Ottawa during the past decade has been a disgrace. Right here in the Similkameen we have seen that secrecy and intrigue characterized the methods employed in dealing with the Indians and obtaining concessions from them that would have resulted in downright spoliation had there been an administration at Victoria of like mind with that at Ottawa. Or at all events, the experience at St. Peters reserve, Winnipeg, would warrant the assumption that the Indians were in for other raw deals, if the same department officials had the say as those concerned in the St. Peters matter.

LOCAL NEWS

Martin Burrell was sworn in by the Duke of Connaught on his arrival in Ottawa.

Mr. Stevens a mining engineer formerly in charge of a property up in Alaska and latterly down south, came over from Penticton on Friday last and spent a couple of days in camp. On Saturday Mr. Oliver took him over to see the Pollock group and on Sunday accompanied him up to the Nickel Plate.

J. H. Kennedy, chief engineer of the V. V. & E. went up the valley on Friday of last week. He was on a visit of inspection to the west end to note progress on track-laying and confer with the engineer in charge. He has two engineering parties on the west of the summit revising the line from the summit to Hope.

Sam, a Chinaman who was formerly cook at the Central Hotel for the late James Reith, was brought to the Hedley hospital on Sunday, Oct. 8th, suffering from typhoid fever. The jolting he received in bringing him up in a lumber wagon proved too much for him and he died on Saturday morning A number of Chinamen came up from Keremeos on Saturday and took the remains there for burial.

L. W. Shatford, M. P. P., went up the river on Saturday last with the Tax Commission. He had been making a run through the district in company with the Chief engineer of the Public Works department and the district road supervisor who were travelling by auto, and on Monday he came back with them from the upper valley and left for the eastern part of the riding. He appears to have shaken off the hay fever trouble for this time and should reasonably expect to enjoy immunity from it for the balance of the season.

There was a large turnout on Sunday evening last for the song service which was held in Fraternity Hall, as the church could not have held the congregation. In addition to the regular church service a programme of sacred music was provided, embracing both vocal and instrumental. The various sacred solos and duetts sung by Mrs. J. A. Brown and Miss Daly of Keremeos were much appreciated and the accompaniments played by Mrs. Smith and daughters on cello, organ and piano added much to the effect. Two instrumental numbers were given by the Misses Smith in which the new church organ and the piano of the hall were used were enjoyed. The solos sung by Mrs. Brown were "Star of Hope" and "The Voice of the Father" and those by Miss Daly, were "Spirit of of God" and "O Jesus Savior" while the Duett was "Hark There Comes a Whisper" and in response to a special request, they sang "Nearer My God to Thee."

Mr. J. E. Griffiths, engineer of the Public Works department, was in town for a while on Monday, accompanied by Mr. Shatford and road supervisor Turner. Since succeeding Mr, Gamble as engineer of the department Mr. Griffiths has been over the greater part of the province but this was his first trip into the Similkameen valley. The extent of the riding and the road mileage it contains was somewhat of a revelation to him. In view of the fact that the riding has only existed as a separate electoral district for some eight years and that its road mileage has for the most part been built in that time there was the strongest kind of evidence for him as to the thoroughness of the work that has been done in that time. As an engineer who has had large experience in railroad work both as to construction and operation he is able to appreciate the difficulties which have been overcome and to make the necessary allowance for new work done in many instances when the funds available influenced the choice of location by compelling the man in charge to place the road in the easiest place to build it.

TAX COMMISSION

The members of the Tax Commission which is at present making a tour of the province passed through Hedley on Saturday on the way up the valley and out through by Nicola, Hon. Price Ellison, Minister of Finance, is chairman of the commission and with him is associated Messrs. A. E. McPhillips, W. H. Malkin and C. H. Lugrin with Dr. Gray as secretary of the commission. The latter gentleman was for many years at the head of a noted educational establishment at Bradford, England, and is a strong man in political economy. During the present trip they have heard many opinions advanced as to taxation and the theories underlying the same. While some of these have been of value a great deal was also of the fad and crotchet order and little calculated to improve matters under existing conditions. Fortunately the commission are men of ripe experience who have had every opportunity to know and understand the conditions prevailing and hence the report they are likely to make will be influenced but little by the faddist views presented to them during this tour. The chairman himself knows what it is to be a tax-payer and can look at the question from the tax-payer's standpoint as well as from that of the legislator who may be too much dominated by bookish theory that may be all right for conditions obtaining elsewhere but unsuitable to those which have prevailed in this province.

THE WEEK'S GOLF

The golf foursomes on Friday last failed to bring out a very large representation of ladies, only two putting in an appearance. As a result, one of the sets was made up of men. Rolls and Mrs. Rotherham played Mr. and Mrs. G.P. Jones and won on a score of 52 to 75 with handicaps deducted. Hincks and French beat James and Sproule, score 54 to 61 with handicaps deducted. The interest has revived somewhat during the past month and conditions are most favorable for play at the present time. As it costs money to keep the greens and course in shape it is hoped that all who are in arrears for dues will not forget to see the secretary.

A match has been arranged in which most of the members will take part. Sides have been chosen by Messrs. Hincks and Rolls and these are paired off in a series of singles, to be played off as early as the parties can arrange. The pairs are: Hincks and Rolls, James and Martin, French and Megraw, Barnes and Rotherham, Barclay and Revely, Knowles and Jones, Rev. Cameron and Sproule, Miss Jackson and Mrs. Rotherham, Miss Williams and Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Sproule and Mrs. Thain.

NOT ALL SENTIMENT

One of the biggest delusions connected with the recent election in Canada is the claim made by all Liberal papers and by too many conservative papers, that imperial sentiment predominated over commercial considerations. No such thing. It is true that the imperial element in the situation did sway many electors, and who is there who is sordid enough to blame any Canadian who voted on those lines? But to say that any elector who voted on those lines was placing his national sentiment before his commercial interests is to talk arrant humbug. Weak as the advocates of reciprocity were on the score of national sentiment, they were weaker a hundred times when they attempted to put forward economic grounds for support of reciprocity. There were Liberals by the thousand who recognized the shallowness of Liberal argument when asking support for the measure on economic grounds and voted against it on that feature alone, and it is safe to say that there were as many more whose judgment told them that Canada would get the worst of the bargain commercially, but nevertheless they would vote their party rather than see it defeated. In England they have the same foolish notion that Canada threw away a commercial opportunity in her devotion to imperial ties when the truth of the matter is that Canadians are able to recognize when they have a snap and patriotic enough to their own pockets to want to keep it for themselves. The market gardeners and fruit-growers of Ontario, in whose ranks were hundreds of strong Liberals, voted to a man against reciprocity, and did so almost wholly on commercial lines. The farmers of Ontario generally, went strongly against reciprocity and did so largely because it paid them. Anyone who would have told Ontario farmers twenty-five years ago that after 1905 the Canadian west would begin to absorb annually ten million dollars worth of Ontario-bred horses, would have been laughed at; but nevertheless it is so today, and three months of reciprocity would give almost all of that trade to the horse-breeders of Dakota, Idaho and Montana. And yet we are told by humbugs like preacher McDonald of the Toronto Globe that "sentiment triumphed over reason."

The hitch in the arrangements for the formal reception of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught on their arrival from the steamer, and the fault lying with the military end of the function, would look as if the new Minister of Militia will have to institute some reforms. A general wash-up of the whole system is required. On this occasion the guard of honor were late and did not appear until ten minutes after the Duke and Duchess had landed. Such a bungle is bad enough to be unpardonable even in the case of some of the civilians who have represented royalty in this country, but when it happens in presence of a soldier like the Duke of Connaught who knew so well what was required, it was simply damnable and gives some inkling of the rank state of discipline and disorganization into which the system has lapsed. During the McKenzie regime the force became demoralized and it was a paper army only which survived in 1878; but the Dundonald incident clearly foreshadowed the dry rot which was setting in under the Laurier regime and this incident the other day marks the progress it has made.

The Ladies' Guild of the Anglican church in Hedley have purchased an organ for their services in Fraternity Hall, the piano scarcely being suitable for congregational singing.

When a man rides into town in an automobile on Saturday and packs his blankets out on Monday it looks like a sudden and serious drop in his worldly prospects. Maybe so; we'll wait and see.

Leslie Robertson, of Keremeos, was in town last week, having come up to see the doctor to attend to a rather ugly wound he received by coming in contact with a barbed wire fence while doing a cowboy stunt.

W. B. Braddick, representing the Oliver Typewriter company was in town over Sunday. Mr. Braddick was formerly the company's agent at Vancouver but he has been appointed to succeed Mr. Neihoff who was superintendent of agencies in British Columbia, and Mr. Neihoff has been transfered to the Colorado field with headquarters in Denver.

Mr. J. A. Brown, of Keremeos, left there on Monday on a business trip to Manitoba. Mrs. Brown who was in Hedley for the song service went down with Mr. Cameron early on Monday morning to see him before he left.

On Sunday it was noticed that there were no less than 9 telephone posts down between Hedley and Dr. Whillan's ranch, but early on Monday morning the line repairmen were along to get the line in proper working order again.

J. Raitor returned last week from his holiday. When quizzed as to the truth or otherwise of a rumor which was current at the time he went away he denies the charge, but never very emphatically. Biessel, who was relieving him, left on Saturday's train.

Rev. J. Williams will hold Anglican church services at Hedley next Sunday 22nd, in Fraternity Hall: 11 a. m. Morning Prayer, Holy Communion and sermon, subject, "St Luke the Faithful Friend" 7.30 p. m. Evensong and sermon, subject, "Eternal Punishment". All cordially invited.

C. T. Cartwright of the Mines department at Ottawa paid Hedley a visit last week. He is connected with the statistical part of the department's work and is supplementing the work done by R. R. Hedley two years ago. He is a nephew of Sir Richard and a graduate of Queen's University.

Thanksgiving Day a week from Monday. This event always used to be held on a Thursday before the government changed it at the instance of the commercial travellers who wanted to spend the day at home with their families, without making it break in on a week on the road.

From our Keremeos correspondence it will be seen that the Nahumshans are at it again. Wouldn't it be a good idea for the Attorney-general to give orders that the next time these particular 'not too particular' Indians come up before the assizes it will be some where else than in Vernon. Or perhaps it might do as well to have the foreman of the Vernon jury who acquitted Nahumshan last time be arraigned with him next time, for that jury is much to blame for the commission of this last offence.

EAST PRINCETON

The New City with the Payroll gives you the opportunity for one of the

SOUNDEST INVESTMENTS

in British Columbia.

City Lots are being offered for Sale for the first time. It is inevitable that the value of these lots will Greatly Increase. Here are some of the reasons.

East Princeton is surrounded by huge deposits of coal, cement, copper, gold, and other important minerals.

The British Columbia Portland Cement Co. is erecting a half a million dollar plant which will employ between 300 and 400 men.

The United Empire Co. is shipping a lignite coal of the best quality and is developing immense copper deposits, requiring large reduction works and several hundred employees.

The Princeton Coal and Land Co. is increasing its daily shipments to 300 tons of coal, providing employment to about 150 men. Other coal companies are spending over $2,000,000 in development, and will give work to at least 1000 men.

For transportation, East Princeton will have, in the near future, the Great Northern and the Kettle Valley lines, both of which, will pass through the townsite.

East Princeton is beautifully situated on the Similkameen river, with an abundance of water power available. The new city has every factor for growth into a big industrial centre. It presents a rare opportunity for investment.

Keremeos is bound to grow. Why shouldn't it? Carloads of potatoes and hundred of boxes of apples and a regular supply of marriages ought to work the trick.

Keremeos generally has two or three weddings a month. Rev. Mr. Cameron's last job was that of uniting in matrimony Chas. Ashley and Cordelia Chaffens, both from across the line.

Dated at Fairview this 20th day of September, A. D. 1911

RONALD HEWAT
Assessor and Collector, Kettle River Assessment District.

We forgot to mention in last week' items that Mr. J. R. Brown, of Fairview, was here to meet Judge Brown, of Greenwood. There were no cases to try in this law abiding burg.

While Les Robinson was helping E. M. Crooker to get in a wild cow, he met with rather a painful accident. He got in a scrap with a barbed wire fence, and the fence won. He is feeling better now after Dr. McEwan patched him up.

Mrs. and Mrs. Tool, of Vancouver are visiting their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Coulter, of Similkameen. They are on a six months' trip to Kansas and Ontario before going back to the coast. Mr. Tool who has been connected with fruit raising for many years, thinks this is an ideal spot in which to raise the finest kind.

Two of the directors of the Eastern Townships Bank, Mr. Kathan and Mr. Howard, accompanied by Mr. Hargreaves, manager of the bank at Vancouver, made a flying trip through the valley on Wednesday of last week. They were very much impressed with the possibilities of the valley, and look for rapid development, on completion of the line to the coast.

On Saturday last the two Nahumshans, Æneas and Samuel, were caught at Nighthawk with a horse they had stolen from Kitt Carr's pasture. Samuel just got out of prison at Walla Walla for horse-stealing last spring and Æneas was the one who was sent up from Hedley for horse stealing but acquitted at the assizes. They had the same old yarn to tell, that they had got the horse from another man on a trade. It is hoped that when they come up again they will get what is coming to them. There has been a great deal of horse stealing lately by an organized band on the other side with Nahumshan looking after the B. C. end of the business. Joe Linton in the lower Similkameen lately lost 5 head. Constable Ewart has warned people down there to be on the alert. The former chief constable was onto them and knew all of them and their haunts.
