Body of Missing Westbank Man Found

Seven Months Old Mystery is Solved by Boy's Discovery

The seven months old mystery connected with the disappearance last winter of an aged Westbank man was cleared up last Sunday by the gruesome discovery by two anglers, who during a fishing excursion up Powers Creek came upon the decomposed body of John M. Dobbin. The body was lying by the side of the creek in a deep ravine, the old man, who was turned 84, having apparently sunk exhausted after his long and difficult climb of seven or eight miles from his home. The spot was one most difficult of access even to an active climber, and it is marvellous how a man of his years and feeble body could have made his way there, especially as the weather was extremely cold at the time with snow on the ground.

It was the evening of December 5th last, it will be remembered, that old Mr. Dobbin disappeared. He had been down to the post office for his mail, and as was his custom, had sat up reading the papers until a late hour, the rest of the family having retired. In the morning he was nowhere to be seen, and a search of the house showed that he had wrapped himself up as if for a journey, taking his fur coat and hat, overshoes, pipe and tobacco with him Which direction he had taken it was impossible to tell as a fall of snow had completely obliterated his tracks. Search parties were organized, friends on both sides of the lake taking part in the hunt, as well as some of the most expert Indian trackers in the district. A reward was offered for his discovery and every effort was made by the police and others to locate the missing man, but though the search was continued for several weeks, not the slightest clue could be obtained.

On Sunday last Mr. Jas. Campbell and his young son set out up Powers Creek for a fishing trip, and it was while making their way up the stream that the boy chanced upon the body. The two at once made their way back to town and notified the provincial police at Kelowna.

On Monday morning Coroner E. Weddell and Constable Graham crossed the lake, and tak- Mr. J. Campbell along as guide, made their way to the spot indicated and verified the discovery. There was no mistaking the identity of the body, for the tall figure of the old man was well known, and though the features were much decayed, the clothing was easily recognizable as that worn by the deceased on his disappearance.

Next day the journey was repeated, but this time in company with a jury whose duty it was to view the remains. A coffin was also taken along in order to bring back the body for interment. This was no easy task, the coffin having to be pulled up out of the ravine with ropes.

An inquest was held at 2 o'clock at the Westbank Hotel. The horror of the discovery had proved such a shock to the grief stricken wife and daughter of the old man that it was deemed unnecessary to subject them to the pain of giving their evidence and Mr. John Davidson, who had last seen deceased alive, the latter having called at Mr. Davidson's house on his return from the post office, recounted the circumstances of Mr. Dobbin's disappearance. The jury returned a verdict of death from exposure and exhaustion.

The funeral took place Wednesday morning at Peachland.

Old Mr. Dobbin was an interesting character in his way, and proud of the fact that he was an old soldier and a veteran of the Indian Mutiny. He was much troubled before his death over the course of the war, and it was thought at the time that bad news of the reverses in Roumania, which were contained in the papers he had just taken from the post office must have preyed upon his mind and furnished the reason for his strange act.

He leaves a wife and daughter and son in Westbank, and an other son who is serving with the overseas forces.

The Sons of England held their annual picnic on Sunday last at Deep Creek, and the whole party thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The trip was made by water and excellent weather prevailed all day.

The Unity Lodge, I.O.G.T., held their yearly ice cream festival on Tuesday, on the lawn at Mr. Pearson's. A heavy shower of rain in the earlier part of the evening promised no encouragement to those in charge, but judging by the noise and hilarity coming from that quarter later, it made little difference. There was a large attendance and the affair was a successful venture

President Warren, of the K.V.R., and Mrs. Warren passed through today motoring north to Vernon.

Dr. MacTier, C. P. R. general manager of the Eastern lines, was in the district last week on a holiday visit, accompanied by Mrs. MacTier and their daughter. They travelled up the lake by special boat, stopping off for a short time at Kelowna to pay a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Taylor.

Kelowna Pioneer Dies Saturday Morning

William Crawford was One of Earliest Settlers in District

One of Kelowng's pioneer farmers passed awgv last Saturday in the person of Mr. William Crawford, of Crawfords Falls, near Okanagan Mission. Though in a sense not altogether unexpected, the end came very suddenly for the old gentleman, who had reached the advanced age of 73 years, for he was discovered dead in his bed on Saturday morning, having passed away peacefully some time during the night of heart failure.

Some few months ago Mr. Crawford happened a serious accident, falling in descending some steps and striking the back of his head. He was brought into the Kelowna Hospital, and it was feared for a time that he could not recover. He did recover, however, sufficiently to take up some of the lighter duties at the farm, for he had been an active worker all his life and could not be idle. Even so late as the eveniog before his death he had been out after the cows. One of them had given him a little trouble, and it is thought that the agitation thus produced may have been the ultimate cause of his death. He had suffered for years with heart trouble, and there is no doubt that his end was hastened by his unfortunate accident, further aggravated by another 7 fall which he had a little over a week ago. 6

The funeral took place at the Kelowna cemetery Sunday at 3 o'clock. Owing to the fact of the old gentleman's death not being generally known until Monday, many were deprived of the opportunity of paying their last respects to an old-time friend, but there was still a number of old-timers and neighbors there to follow the remains to the cemetery. The pall-bearers were Mayor D. W Sutherland, Messrs. E. R. Bailey, W. D. Walker, D. W. Crowley, C. S. Smith, and Max Jenkins.

Mr. William Crawford was one of the earliest settlers of the district, he and his family having taken up land near the picturesque falls which bear his name fully twenty-five years ago. His activities have also included a sawmill, and Crawford's Mill has for years furnished lumber for many of the buildings in the district, and still continues to do so.

Deceased was born in 1844 at Lanarkshire, Scotland, and came to Canada about thirty years ago. He was an engineer by trade and for a time worked in that capacity at Vancouver in that city's early days. In 1892 he moved to the Okanagan and started farming, being asisted by his sons.

He is survived by a wife and four sons, only one of whom. William, is at present living at home. Jock is away in the old country serving with the Foresters; Alec (Scotty) who recently returned from overseas, is away railroading to the south, his wife coming up from Penticton to attend the funeral; Dave and his wife were also up from the coast.

Sergt. George Kennedy is Back from Front

Now Convalescent After Being Three Times Wounded

Sergt. Geo. Kennedy is this week busy receiving the congratulations of his friends on his return from the front. Sergt. Kennedy, who came in on Tuesday's boat, limps considerably, and has to walk with the aid of a stick; his face, too, bears unmistakable signs of the terrible experiences he has gone through, but otherwise he is much the same, and considers himself fortunate to get out without worse damage.

Sergt. Kennedy has been through some of the fiercest of the fighting experienced by the Canadians in France. He has been wounded three times. The first time he was in a building near Ypres while the Germans were shelling a church. One of the shells fell on the roof of his shelter, and he escaped death only by being blown clear of the ruins. He was badly shaken, however, and was some weeks in hospital.

The second time he got cut up with shrapnell, but it was not until September last that he was knocked hors-de-combat by a shell which burst in his trench sending fragments into various parts of his body.

He has had many narrow escapes, being at one time in a camp in England when a Zeppelin dropped a bomb there, killing fourteen of his companions.

After spending several months in various hospitals in France and England, he has been returned to Canada, landing three weeks ago, and proceeding to convalescent hospital in Vancouver, from where he is now in Kelowna on a short leave.

Accompanying him to Canada was another Kelowna man, Joe Cowan, who wgs badly crippled up with rheumatism. He had returned to this country only to get his discharge, intending to return to his old home in England

Scholarships For Students of B.C.

Proposed Scheme Has Many Educational Advantages

The calendar of the University of British Columbia for 1917-18 gives a short outline of a proposed scheme which has been approved by the Senate and Faculties for the establishment of local scholarships for students entering the University.

The scheme will depend for its success entirely on public support and should be given careful consideration by all who are interested in the educational progress of the province.

The proposed scheme is that these scholarships should be founded by City or Municipal Councils, School Boards, Corporations or other local bodies or societies, or private individuals, and that they should be awarded by local committees. It is further recommended that in making the award the financial circumstances, character and intellectual promise of the candidates should be taken into consideration as well as their standing in the matriculation examination.

The advantages of the scheme are many. It gives to those interested in the cause of university education an opportunity of helping it in a direct and effective way. Scholarships established by the liberality of private individuals, and city or county councils are common in Great Britain and the United States. It is believed that there are generous and public-spirited citizens in our province who will welcome a method by which they can give practical expression to their sympathy and goodwill.

The committee which should award the scholarships would be composed of local people such as the chairman of school boards and the mayor or reeves of cities, towns or municipalities in the district. Such a committee would interest itself in the people of the district and encourage promising students to look forward to a University career and would thus be itself an educational influence of value.

The scholarships would excite a healthful desire in the pupils of our schools to excel not only in scholarship but in qualities of character, and would stimulate an interest in higher education in the community generally. Teachers and parents especially will appreciate the importance of this.

Scholarships might, if it were so desired, be restricted to students who intended to follow some particular calling or profession. They might be open, for example, only to students proposing to equip themselves for scientific research or for positions requiring technical skill in the industries of the district, as mining or agriculture. In this way the district would probably reap the benefit of the scientific knowledge of some at least of those whom it had helped to educate. In consequence of the immaturity of most of the pupils at this stage, however, it is probably desirable that in most cases the award should be made to the most deserving student irrespective of the career he proposes to follow.

Lastly, a consideration of a more general character may be referred to. The need for men with a thorough scientific training is being keenly felt in every sphere of enterprise — commercial industrial and professional. In our province, specialists in agriculture, mining, forestry, fisheries, &c., are urgently required. Commerce with countries in South America and Eastern Asia is being greatly extended, and men with commercial training and a knowledge of the languages spoken in these countries will be in increasing demand. In the professions, too, a high standard of education must be maintained. We should look to native sons to fill these positions, and to the provincial university for the training necessary to fit them for their various careers.

It may be thought that the present time, when the country's energy and resources are taxed to the utmost by the war, is inopportune for this appeal. It is a sufficient reply that Great Britain is preparing to spend on education in the coming year a sum larger by $4,000,000 than in any previous year, and that in the United States a conference of representatives of nearly six hundred of the higher institutions of learning has been held to consider means of making these institutions more effective during and after the war. This conference is a part of the national government machinery and has made unanimous recommendations.

It is believed that the scheme outlined, if successfully carried out will help to make our provincial university a more effective influence in the life of the province, and it is therefore earnestly recommended to the active support of all who are interested in the cause of university education.

The expenses of a student boarding in the city, together with the fees for the First Year in Arts amount to at least $250,00.

It is suggested that scholarships may range from a minimum of $100 to $250 or over, per annum, and may be made tenable for one or two years.

Orders for Local Scouts

Kelowna Troop
Troop First; Self Last

Edited by Pioneer. July 3rd, 1917

Orders by command for week ending July 14th, 1917.

The troop will be in camp all of this week and notice was given last week of the two visitors' days, &c. During the absence of the troop from town Mr. DuMoulin, president of our local association, will answer all inquiries in connection with scout matters.

We were very fortunate as a troop when war broke out in August, 1914, that all our scouts were so young, but the war goes on and we all grow older. Assistant Cub-Master Francis Buck, one of the original members of the original troop, and who is still attached, having been loaned to the cubs only, happens to be the oldest scout in the troop, although he is not yet 19, and has the great honor of leading the van to enlist with the Colours, having left Kelowna Tuesday morning to join the artillery at Petewawa Camp.

Francis will be greatly missed by the whole troop, as well as the cubs, and we wish him Godspeed and a quick return to us. We feel sure that he will play a very material part in making a name for the particular unit to which he may be attached, in the same way that he has so materially helped the First Kelowna Troop. If he becomes as dangerous with the artillery he handles as he was with a camera, we think Kaiser William might as well commit "kari-kari" at once and be done with it. The Wolves won the Aquatic Shield twice with him as their leader, and he was also troop secretary for a long time. He was a first-class scout and held 10 proficiency badges. He had put in his name to try for 7 more just a short time ago. Au revoir, Francis, and keep the troop posted on your address and movements.

We also regret having to record another loss to the troop in the person of Scout Fred Whitehead, who left Kelowna on Monday to take up a position in the Bank of Montreal, Princeton. He is only 16 years old so is away under age for the Colors. He was also one of the troop's o iginal members and is a Second-Class Scout and the holder of three proficiency badges. There was a troop of scouts in Princeton but they have temporarily disbanded owing to lack of officers. We wish Fred every success in his new sphere of work.

During the past two weeks the following scouts passed their Carpenter's Badges before Mr. Mitchell of the manual training school staff: Patrol Leaders G. Groves and Calder, Seconds B. Davies and L. Day and Scout Carl McKenzie. Recruits Arthur Clarence and Clifford Cunningham also passed their Tenderfoot tests and were invested as scouts on Friday evening last. They have both been posted to the Wolf patrol.

An attempt to restore the Chinese monarchy seems likely to end in a revolution and civil war.

Dr. Robert Bell, F.R.S., F.R.C.S., later director and chief geologist, geological survey of Canada, died at his home at Rathwell, Man., after a paralytic stroke, aged 76. Dr. Bell leaves a widow, one son and three daughters.

The miners of South Wellington voted for a general strike in case conscription is brought to pass. The vote was 133 for and 10 against. The referendum was submitted by the B.C. Federation of Labour.

The war, in the opinion of Lord Northcliffe, British commissioner to the United States, is just beginning. In a communication from him read at a meeting in the interest of the Red Cross war fnnd, Lord Northcliffe said he based his opinion on the result of "much experience at the front."

In Saskatchewan 21,000 licenses for motor cars were issued up to the beginning of May, and it is estimated by the department that the total would reach 30,000 before the end of the summer. In 1916 the number issued amounted to 15,000 and in 1915 to 9,000. This extraordinary increase has been accompanied by considerable activity in the business centres of the province.

The Ford Is Economical

THE average man can easily afford a Ford car. It is the most inexpensive car to drive.

20 to 25 miles on a gallon of gasoline is an every-day occurence. 33 miles is frequently reported by Ford owners. Yearly repair expenses of less than one dollar are not unusual. The car is light in weight, and tires give more mileage on a Ford than on any other car.

You can buy a Ford for yourself and one for your wife for the price of one car at $1000. You can run both Fords at about the same expense as for one large, heavier car.

You can always sell a 'used' Ford at a good price. You have to accept a big reduction for a "used" larger car.

Go and take a ride in the 1917 model. See how comfortable it is. And stylish, too—stream line effect, tapered hood, crown fenders, beautiful finish. You need one for business. Your wife and children need one for pleasure and health.

Printed Butter Wrappers

According to the new Dominion Government regulations all farmers who sell butter either to the stores or privately, are required to have it properly covered in a wrapper on which MUST appear in prominent letters the words "DAIRY BUTTER."
The fact is also emphasized that all butter in such packages must be of the full net weight of sixteen ounces, and in default of same a fine of from $10 to $30 for each offence is imposed. Whey butter must be so labelled even when mixed with dairy butter, and dairy butter retains its label though it be mixed with the creamery product.

You can be supplied with neatly - printed wrappers for your butter at the Kelowna Record Office, for the following prices:

100	PAPER & PRINTING INCLUDED	$1.50
200	" "	2.00
500	" "	3.15
1000	" "	4.50

These prices include Both the Paper, which is the best obtainable for the purpose, and the Printing of same. Please note this.

Owing to the extraordinary rise in the price of butter parchment (which has gone up over 100 per cent) we have been reluctantly obliged to raise our prices slightly. Nearly all this paper was previously manufactured in Belgium, and needless to say this supply has been entirely cut off. Unfortunately there is no guarantee against further increases, indeed, they are more than likely.

TOWN AND COUNTRY NOTES

Mr. J. C. Stockwell went up to Nahun yesterday for a short visit.

Miss Johnson, of the B.C. Growers, went to Wilson's Landing on Monday for a short visit.

Mr. Jack Cameron had a visit last week-end from his brother who returned to the coast Wednesday morning.

Miss Wood, the matron of the Calgary Isolation Hospital, returned to Calgary Friday last after a brief visit to Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Old.

Spr. Geo. Thomlinson arrived Tuesday from the old country having been returned discharged from the Canadian Engineers in which he enlisted a little over a year ago. Mr. Thomlinson has suffered from persistent ill-health during his absence.

The Oddfellows held their annual picnic last Thursday afternoon, but owing to some slight misunderstanding with the weather man, the party met with a nice light shower. Happily no one got wet!!

The ladies of the Baptist denomination resident in Rutland are holding an ice cream and strawberry at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McGregor (Rutland) to-morrow evening. A programme of music will be rendered and the choir from the Baptist church are expected to be in attendance. An invitation is extended to all.

Presentation to Archdeacon Greene

A garden party under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Michael and All Angels church was held on the grounds of Mr. Binger and Mrs. Temple on Saturday afternoon, the W.A. being ably assisted by their junior branch The weather was ideal and the affair was a great success in every way, the total proceeds being something over $110. A pleasing incident occurred during the afternoon when Archdeacon and Mrs. Greene were presented with an address and a very bulky looking purse of silver in celebration of their recent silver wedding. The address, which was signed by the wardens on behalf of the church committee and congregation, expressed the congratulations of the congregation on the recent promotion of the rector to the post of first Archdeacon of the Okanagan, and also conveyed to the rector and his wife the feelings of affection and respect entertained towards them by the church members.

The archdeacon, although taken entirely by surprise, was equal to the occasion and replied in a few suitable words, his remarks being received by everybody present singing "For they are jolly good fellows," followed by three cheers.

Mesdames DuMoulin and Galt, the presidents of the senior and junior W.A. were warmly congratulated on the great success of their efforts in providing a most enjoyable and profitable afternoon.

HAROLD N. DeHART

The Rev. Mr. Henderson, of Summerland, was in town yesterday.

Miss Bessie Gaddes returned last week-end from school at Vancouver.

Geo. Sweny, of Okanagan Mission, left last Thursday for Toronto having been accepted as a recruit for the R.F.C.

Word was received a few days ago that R. C. Bennett, of Kelowna, had been wounded, though it is believed not seriously.

A handsome crocheted basket of artificial roses now on exhibition in Knowles' window is to be raffled Tuesday evening next at the dance in aid of the hospital. Tickets are on sale at Knowles'.

Still another fruit shipping house is to be opened in Kelowna and will be known as the "Okanagan Market," the local management of which will be in the hands of Mr. E. Clement while Mr. W. J. Clement will act as representative on the prairie. The new firm has taken a warehouse and packing shed on the C.P.R. track near Ellis Street and announces its intention to be ready for business July 15.

Following the closing of the schools on Friday there was the usual exodus of teachers to various points to spend the summer vacation. Miss Elderkin went all the way to Halifax, being accompanied part of the way by Miss Bullock, who was to stay at Brandon. Miss Page, Miss Thompson and Miss Lillian Thompson left for the coast, and Miss Davis for Dewdney. The only change in the staff this year is caused by the resignation of Miss Lillian Thompson who has been very successful in her work with the primary class. Her place is to be taken by Miss Mabel Woods from New Westminster, who has had some five years' experience with primary classes.

Mr. Jack Cameron had a bad luck day Monday. While he was away taking in the races at Penticton a fire broke out on the back verandah of his house, and had it not been for the promptness of neighbours serious loss would have resulted. As it was there was not much damage done and the fire was extinguished with a garden hose. The fire brigade happened to be away at Vernon so a few volunteers got the outfit down but found it unnecessary to use it. Jack's bad luck, however, followed him to Penticton, for his horse "Local Option" had a bad fall in the third heat of the "Free for all" and sustained a bad sprain which will put him off the track for some time. The horse was bad when he reached Kelowna and could only hobble painfully from the wharf to his stable.

Rutland News

(From our own correspondent).

Lance-Corp. Gay returned to the coast Wednesday.

To-morrow night (Friday) the Baptists are arranging a social at the McGregor home. A good number of people are said to be coming out from town.

The Y.P.S. of the Methodist church held a social at Mr. and Mrs. Dalgleish's home on Friday night last. A good crowd of young people attended and the evening seemed to pass all too quickly.

The ice cream social held by the Presbyterian friends last Friday was also well attended though the weather did not assist very much. A substantial sum was added to the church funds as a result of the affair.

At the school closing last week a pleasant incident took place when Miss Quinn and Miss Faris the retiring teachers, were presented with a volume of Tennyson's poems and an album for snapshots respectively.

The regular meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at Mrs. Gay's on Thursday, July 12th. Refreshments will be provided and the proceeds given to the Y.M.C.A. fund. Members are requested to attend in full strengih and bring their friends along.

The Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday-schools held their picnic together on Wednesday down by the Mission creek. Practically all the inhabitants of Rutland were there, and had "a whale of a time." The weather was ideal and the eatables to match.

In the preliminary high school exams. three scholars passed, the total marks possible being 807:—

Alma Wilson	567
Abby Wilson	545½
Gladys Plowman	539½

Many Take in Monday's Trip

The fine weather which prevailed Monday and the fact that no arrangements had been made for any particular programme of amusement in Kelowna, a large crowd of Kelowna people were tempted to take part in the excursion to Penticton where the usual Dominion Day sports and races were to be held. One hundred and thirty-five tickets were sold in town for the trip and those who went report that things went off very satisfactorily. Our neighbours at the foot of the lake are staying with their annual sports and improving every year.

Kelowna racing men were down in force and carried off several of the prizes. Ike Chamberlin's "Beauty Silk" won the "Free-for-all," through his good luck, or rather Jack Cameron's bad luck had something to do with this result, for Jack's "Local Option" dropped out in the third heat with a bad sprain. Ike's "Cora Brown" won the 2.25 pace. Victor Borree carried off the 14.2 pony race and second place in the half-mile repeat.

Kelowna was also represented by a baseball team team but they did not shine to any extent. Penticton beat Kelowna in the morning game, while Oroville outclassed Penticton in the afternoon.

There was a big attendance from the south as well as from the north and Penticton was gay with flags and streamers.

Francis Buck left Tuesday for the training camp at Petewana, Ont., with the intention of enlisting in a branch of the artillery service. The young man has been a most enthusiastic member of the local Boy Scouts and the boys were all lined up at boat time to give him a good send-off. On Saturday evening last the cubs, of which he has acted as assistant master, met and presented a case of pencils and pens and a loose-leaf note book. For some time he has held a position in the office of the Okanagan Loan Co.

THE Okanagan Market

will be open after July 15th to handle fruit and produce of all-kinds. We have our representative on the prairie and everything will be handled direct to him.

Mr. Fruit Grower let us handle some of your fruit this year and we are sure we can please you.

Our packing house is on the track near Ellis Street and we will be pleased to have you call.

Far more effective than Sticky Fly Catchers. Clean to handle. Sold by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

Salvation Army Appeals For Fruit

In these days when the calls upon the generosity of the public are so numerous and insistent some of the older charities which have been quietly carrying on a noble work for years, and what is more, have still to do so in spite of present conditions, are in danger of being neglected and literally starved out of existence. To have this happen in some cases would be nothing short of a national disaster.

Take for instance the Orphan Home and Maternity Hospital mgintgined by the Salvation Army in Vancouver. There is no one familiar at all with the eamy side of life in a big city but will realize the urgency of this movement, gnd unless some other provision is made for carrying on its work, it must be kept open.

Brigadier McLean, financial maintained by the Salvation Army for this dictrict, was in town during the week, and stgted that in connection with the annual self-denial effort of the Army itself, an appeal is being made to the general public for help in keeping things going The suggestion wgs made by several people in the neighborhood that although unable to send money gifts they might be able to contribute a box or two of apples or other fruit. These offers were at once gratefully accepted, and as there might be many others of the same mind it was decided to give them the opportunity, and to make it as convenient and easy as possible

Mr. W. D. Brent, manager of the Growers' Exchange, has agreed to look after the storage and shipment of the fruit, and all that the grower needs to do is to leave the fruit at the warehouse of the Growers' Exchange with instructions to devote it to the above object. Contributions from one box upwards will be gratefully received.

CANADA'S FOOTBALLERS DISAPPEAR INTO WAR

Chronicle of Athletes Who Won Fame and Death—In the Big Game Until the Last

Grantland Rice, noted sport writer, took a trip up to Fredericton, N.B. from New York, and then reproduced the following: When a record of this war has been completed it will be found that no one set of men have contributed more to the cause than the sportsmen of Canada. You hear a lot about the stars of England who have fought and died, and of the stars from the States who have started. But neither country has given a greater proportion than Canada has to the cause of crushing the Hun. No one sport in Canada has given a greater number to the firing line than football. Practically every football player of note has gone overseas, and many of the best have already been killed or badly wounded. The list of the dead includes Russell Britton, of Kingston, the star quarterback of the Argonauts and one of the best that Canadian sport has ever known. Gordon Southam, of Hamilton, one of the Canadian all-stars, is another who has been killed in action. At the rate established so far there will be very few football stars left when the war ends and sport comes back to its own.

Canadian football, contrary to general opinion, is very like our own. They play a lot of soccer and Rugby here, but, in the main, football in Canada means just about what it does in the United States. One of the first to go was Eric McDonald of Fredericton. McDonald, in addition to being a star football player, was also a noted sprinter and famous all-around athlete. He carried out the original idea of the football entries, which was to rise through valor or fall on the field. In this case, McDonald has survived to rise from the rank of lieutenant to that of colonel, and it would be no surprise to see him soon promoted to the rank of brigadier-general for distinguished service and military efficiency. His record at the front has been even greater and finer than his record here in sports, where he was regarded much as the U.S. of A. would look upon a Ned Mahan or a John Kilpatrick.

The Case of Longboat

Most of those mentioned are unknown in the States. But there will be few below the southern side of the Canadian border who have forgotten Tom Longboat, the Indian marathon runner, and his manager, Tom Flanagan. Longboat is still remembered as one of the greatest marathon runners of all time. He has put the long distance efficiency into effect as a dispatch carrier on foot, where he has done remarkable work and has been mentioned more than once for his daring, stamina and efficiency. The idea of an Indian dispatch runner proves again that this war is not entirely modern in its make-up, despite the 42-centimetres, the U-boats and the Zeppelins. Longboat to-day is running greater distances at greater speed than he ever used in his best marathon days, to judge from reports that have been received from the front.

Percy Molson, McGill's star sprinter, and Frank Lukeman, of Montreal, are other track men who have done distinguished services. White Victor Buchanan, president of the Montreal Athletic Association, was killed at the front while going over the top with the Fighting 13th. He was one of the best known sportsmen in Canada. Ted Savage, outside wing and captain of the championship Montreal football team, is still another who has rendered brilliant service in France.

These names are mentioned to show what Canadian sportsmen have done and as an indication of what famous names in American sport from the United States will accomplish. There is no football team in Canada, no track team, that hasn't lost enough star players to break up the organization and that hasn't contributed the finest sort of fighting material—game, resourceful, alert, and always to be found on top of the job, making good or remaining on the field of No Man's Land, with the game over for all time.

The Aquatic dance the other night was one of the most successful ever held. The evening was perfect, and the many visitors from Vernon and other placec were delighted with the beauty of the scene.

Friends of Dr. and Mrs. Arnott will learn with regret that Mrs. Arnott passed away yesterday at Vernon. Since leaving Kelowna for Salmon Arm a few weeks ago Mrs. Arnott has been more or less seriously ill, and a few days ago her removal to Vernon Hospital was deemed advisable. In spite of every care, however, she expired yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Arnott's mother died only very recently at Spokane.

The Boy Scouts are in Camp this week at Cedar Creek. They left Tuesday morning by the ferry boat towing another unnamed craft, both loaded with a confusion of boys, grub, and camping impedimenta. There were mgny who regretted that the flight of years had placed them outside the age limit for Scouts as the boys pulled off. The Acting-Commissioner for B C., the Rev. and Hon. T. R. Heneage, formed one of the party, and will be with the boys at camp.
