Alien Settlers Are Refused Admittance

Veterans Resist Landing of Party from Saskatchewan

Determined opposition on the part of the war veterans this week has prevented the landing here of a party of Hungarians who had intended to migrate to Kelowna from Horizon, near Weyburn, Sask. The affair has created considerable excitement, because of the repeated efforts of the party, comprising several families, to get ashore, efforts which were frustrated each time by gatherings of veterans.

It appears that early this year a Hungarian settler from Horizon paid a visit to Kelowna and he apparently was so pleased with the look of things that he not only purchased land for himself but arranged for several other families to come also. The party numbering twenty-nine in all, of whom seventeen were children, arrived Monday afternoon. The war veterans had been warned of their advent and were on the look-out for them and presented such an unfriendly attitude that the would-be settlers remained on the boat. They continued to travel up and down the lake until Wednesday, the C.P.R. making strenuous efforts each trip to unload their embarrassing passengers.

On Wednesday the boat was held at Penticton for several hours and the report got around that a detachment of mounted police were coming along to land the party under guard. The boat arrived about 1.30 and the wharf was crowded with people anxious to see what would happen.

It was expected that no resistance would be offered this time as there was a feeling even amongst the veterans that to clash with the police would be carrying the protest further than was wise, and that the affair had already served its purpose in drawing the attention of the government to the fact that former alien enemies were unwelcome here.

A party of provincial police were on hand from Vernon when the boat pulled in, and on the boat itself came Inspector King of the "Mounties." There was no other guard, however. It was arranged that the settlers should land and be taken quietly to the War Veterans rooms, where the case could be investigated thoroughly, the Veterans, Col. Belson stating on their behalf, being agreeable to this.

Alas, for plans, however. Planting himself before the gangway, was a determined Hibernian who having fortified himself with something stronger than two per cent., was utterly unmoved by the persuasive eloquence of the police, the C.P.R. Captain and other peace-makers. He had made up his mind that those —— should not come off the boat, and he stuck to his guns. Seeing this doughty Horatius thus "keeping the bridge" revived the opposition of others near by and developed such a menacing spirit in the crowd that the landing party finally turned tail and returned to the boat, the leader an old man declaring they would not now come to Kelowna for a thousand dollars. The crowd cheered loudly when they saw the victory had been won and the hero of it all was lifted shoulder high and carried off.

While the motives of the war veterans in endeavoring to keep away those whom the war has shown to be undesirable citizens, are approved by nearly everyone, the difficulty in the present case lies in the fact that the party were all naturalized years ago, their children having been born in Canada, and that the whole proceeding is therefore strictly illegal. They are said to have been in the Weyburn district since 1903. Relatives of the party are already residing in Kelowna.

Just what will be the outcome of this matter it is impossible to say, but the party is understood to be returning to Saskatchewan in the meantime.

The veterans are holding an important meeting of members Saturday to discuss the alien question and also to elect further officers on the executive. The government's attitude on the question of re-establishment will be discussed.

Complete Interior of St. Michael's Church

A very interesting ceremony was performed on Sunday morning, the 9th inst., at St. Michael & All Angels, when the arcading of the church, which has just been completed, was dedicated to the glory of God and in memory of the late Ian McKenzie Cameron, Lieut., 15th Batt. Canadians. At the close of the voluntary "Rest in the Lord," played by the organist, Mrs. Ford, the archdeacon, church committee and choir, assembled inside the south door near the pillar on which is the brass memorial plate. Mr. Alister Cameron, eldest brother of the brave soldier, unveiled the memorial tablet and the dedicatory prayers were read by the archdeacon. The choir then sang in procession "O King of Kings." The impressive ceremony was brought to a fitting close by the singing of "For ever with the Lord."

The work of the arches was executed by Mr. A. Whiffin, one of our local builders, from designs furnished by the Rev. E. P. Laycock, M.I.A.E., rector of Vernon. The inscription on the plate reads:

To the Glory of God
In Loving Memory of
Ian McKenzie Cameron
Lieut., 15th Battalion, Canadians
Fell in Action at Vimy Ridge
April 9th, 1917

A few Sundays previously the archdeacon dedicated for use at the communion services a beautiful solid silver flagon, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. W. Graveley, who are making a short sojourn in Kelowna. The flagon, which is a work of art, was made by the firm of Henry Birks, on a model of a 14th century one in use in an old English church.

Present Flag to G.W.V.A

A most successful dance was held on Armistice Day, November 11th, at Morrison Hall under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary to the G.W.V.A. The hall was most tastefully decorated by the decorations committee consisting of Mesdames Robbins, Roberts, Ballard and Hall. All the engagements that the Canadian Corps took part in were inscribed in cards on the walls. There was a very large attendance and the room late in the evening was rather crowded.

His Worship Mayor Sutherland, during the evening, presented a flag to the G.W.V.A. on behalf of Mesdames Richards and Butler, who had raised funds for this purpose. The Mayor took the opportunity to call attention to the Victory Loan campaign. Mr. J. W. Jones, M.L.A., also drew attention to the meeting called in the interests of the memorial fund for tonight. It is expected that nearly $360 will be realized by the dance.

Taxes Paid More Readily This Year

Eighty per cent. of Year's Levy is Received to Date

In a statement made at Monday's council meeting by the assessor, some interesting information was given regarding the payment of taxes this year which showed very clearly the effect of recent legislation in this respect. Approximately 80 per cent. or $62,687 of the current year's taxes had been paid before the end of October, leaving only $15,450 subject to the 15 per cent. penalty. Collections on arrears of taxes by tax sale means and otherwise, had brought the total receipts of the city up to $90,238, exceeding those of 1918 by $17,464. Taxes amounting to $20,750 were paid with Victory Bonds. The total amount of outstanding taxes is now only $31,176 of which, as will be seen, nearly half are for the current year.

After receiving an estimate of the probable expenses for the current year, the Finance committee had felt justified in recommending that a sum of $17,000 be invested in Victory Bonds, to be placed to the sinking fund.

Ald. Duggan reported that the fuel supply at the power house would be exhausted by the middle of January and he recommended that the council call for tenders for 500 cords of dry 4-ft. wood.

Messrs. J. F. Burne and H. G. M. Wilson waited on the council regarding a grant to the Aquatic Association at least equal to the amount of the light and water rates They received the assurance that provision had been made for such a grant in the estimates and would probably be made at the end of the year.

New Theatre to Open Monday Week

The new Empress Theatre is now nearing completion and the management are hoping to have all ready for opening by Monday, the 24th. Work is being rushed forward with that end in view, the hammer and saw being kept going nightly until a late hour. The new opera chairs, projecting machines, and other fixtures have arrived and will soon be installed. The seating capacity is to be about 750, including the balcony. Every effort is being made, the manager, F. W. Simmons, informs us, to ensure the comfort and convenience of the public, and the equipment from the special screen to the mercury arc projecting lamps are the latest things in moving picture apparatus.

Kelowna Running Up Big Loan Subscription

District Wins Prince's Flag and Two Crests Already

Those who took a pessimistic view of the possible subscription in this district to the 1919 loan will find themselves away out, when the figures are published. Already Kelowna's subscription has reached the sum of $222,000 which is getting very near to doubling the original quota of $120,000. This quota, it should be stated, has since been raised to $130,400 by the addition of Okanagan Centre to this district. With this added, however, Kelowna is now entitled not only to the Prince of Wales' Honor Flag, but to two and nearly three crests in addition.

This sum may easily be increased during the remaining days of the loan campaign to $250,000.

Parties were out all last night and this morning searching for Mrs. C. C. Allen, who had gone out walking yesterday morning and failed to return. Fortunately she was discovered at noon west of Munson's mill in Gleanmore, having lost her way the night before and spent the night in the bush.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories, and in portion of the Province of British Columbia may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,500 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Applications for the lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5, which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

In surveyed territories the land must be described by sections or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns shall be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 an acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to the Agent or sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

Troop First; Self Last

Edited by "Wolf." Nov. 11, 1919

A year has come and gone since the greatest event in the history of our Empire and perhaps of the world occurred. A year ago today the armistice was signed, and brought to an end the most terrible war the world had ever dreamed of. It is only natural then that our thoughts should fly back over a space of two or three years to the time when we were fighting with our backs to the wall, and that an overwhelming feeling of thankfulness should come over us when we realise how much we have to be thankful for in these days, which may be considered the dawn of a new era. Yet while we rejoice we must remember that this day brings back to many sad thoughts of loved ones who gave the greatest thing they possessed in order that we might be able to rejoice today.

It is for us to step into the breach and carry on in peace the task that they so nobly carried out in war, and we as scouts must remember this or else we are not doing our duty to our country. Are there not some lines that go as follows: "If ye break faith, we shall not sleep, though poppies grow in Flanders' fields."

We are unable to post any definite orders this week owing to the loss of our clubroom, but instead of making this an excuse for holding no meetings at all, patrol leaders should regard it as an opportunity for holding patrol meetings. Tuesday would probably be the best night for a meeting of this kind.

Scout Harry Mantle successfully passed his second class ambulance test, and Scout Akeroyd his tenderfoot test on Saturday.

Dr. Robertson, our Chief Commissioner for Canada, was in town for a short time last week, and delivered a lecture at Rutland. It was unfortunate that Dr. Robertson was not here long enough to become acquainted with the troop, but this was of course impossible in the short time he spent here.

Although unofficial, it seems to be more or less certain that there will be a great Jamboree for scouts the world over in London, England. "Headquarters Gazette" states that this is now in the course of preparation and will be held in all probability in July of next year. Now it seems to us obvious that if this takes place, Scouts will be sent from all over Canada to attend it. The last Jamboree that was held was before the war when this troop was in its infancy, and not one single scout from this province was present, though the eastern part of Canada was splendidly represented. We are fairly safe in stating that if this Jamboree takes place, our province will be as well represented as the rest, and if this is so, we, the First Kelowna Troop, as one time holders of the Lieut.-Governor's Shield, stand a very good chance of being called upon to send over delegates. We do not want to falsely raise your hopes, but there is nothing like being prepared for an occasion like this which offers in itself an education worth a lifetime. If, however, we are not asked to send delegates in which case of course fares might be paid, parents of scouts who wish their sons to go over could arrange to pay the fare in the full knowledge that their son would be amongst many other scouts and consequently well taken care of.

"Headquarters Gazette" says this about it:—

"Put to them in the right way the Jamboree can start a conflagration of energy in the next few months—and I hope it will. At any rate now that we have definitely taken Olympia in London for the August bank holiday next year, promises of attendance and offers of displays, etc., are already beginning to come in. It is going to be a big thing. It can't help it. It is in the hands of Major Walle."

The G.W.V.A. is calling a meeting for Sunday afternoon in the theatre to discuss the phase of the alien question which has arisen during the week, and it is possible that a protest will be sent to the government against allowing former enemy aliens to migrate to this district.

The low temperatures which have prevailed during the past few days have practically brought all fruit picking to a standstill, and it does not seem likely that very much more of the fruit crop will be harvested. The packing houses, however, will probably be busy until well into December, disposing of the fruit which has been in safe storage during the cold spell.

The I.O.D.E. are holding a bazaar on Saturday afternoon, November 29th, in Wesley Hall. The members have been sewing for a considerable time and hope to have a nice display of plain and fancy Xmas gifts. There will be booths displaying fancy work, plain articles, novelties, dolls and many things for babies. There will also be a booth of home-made candy and a grab tree for the children. Tea and ice cream will be served during the afternoon.

Mr. Angus McGregor has this week completed the sale of his house on DeHart Avenue to Mr. Jerman Hunt. Mr. McGregor is storing his furniture in the meantime and will spend a few months in the east.

Our Volume of Business

makes possible the "small profit and quick return" which is our basis of business. From very small things in the shoe selling line we are now doing a big trade. In other words, we have gained the confidence of the public—have set a REASONABLE Price on our stock and kept to it, without playing a double game. Men, you should know this.

Short Pieces for the Wolf Cubs

By the Old Silver Wolf

The Pack held an indoor parade on Friday night last, meeting in what was the scouts' hall. There was a large attendance and only five of the whole pack were absent including Roy and Donald Duggan, who are leaving the pack as they are going to live out in the country. We are sorry to lose such boys as the Duggans.

Four new sixers were appointed whose names are: Ellis Todd, Gordon Haug, Frank Fumerton and Howard McCarthy. Twoof them have but one star and will need to gain their second by the end of the year. Now, there are other boys who well deserve to be sixers, but of course all cannot be as we now only have four sixes—the Black, White, Brown and Grey. This means we shall have a total strength of twenty-four boys, and seeing that all of them have been members of the Pack for over three months every boy will try for his first star before the end of the year. The new sixers will see that their six get busy and practice.

Some of the newer Cubs are very bad at their drill, whilst others have not yet learned that when the whistle blows it is blown for a purpose and attention must be paid. There will be no parade next week but there will be one on Friday, November 28th, when we will see what progress is being made for the star-tests.

Random Remarks

By the Chiel

"A chiel's amang ye takin' notes and feth, he'll prent them." ---Burns.

The day is cold and dark and dreary;
It rains and the wind is never weary;
The vine still clings to the mouldering wall,
But at every gust the dead leaves fall
And the day is dark and dreary.

Hasn't the weather been awful for this time of year. I suppose because we dwell in this favoured part of the world we take the rain, sleet, and cold winds so badly. And that reminds me that the Canadian climates are wonderful phenomena It is an open secret that sometimes rain falls in Vancouver—but, it does not wet you. We hear of the temperature dropping to "40 below" and lower on the prairie, but the inhabitants thereof wander around in practically summer clothing, so we are told, but not assured of. You see you don't feel the cold on the prairie. Indeed without consulting the thermometer one would not know it to be cold there. Here in Kelowna, on the other hand, the same old temperature shoots up to one hundred in the shade quite often, but the heat is not oppressive at all. Yes, they are wonderful, the climates of Canada.

By the way, Vancouver has just undergone another evangelistic campaign. They are having that sort of thing quite regularly there now, like the 'flu' and other visitants, and a fellow is apt to wonder just what are the usual effects of those somewhat noisy, and always exciting performances. My experience of such movements (and I have had some) is that after the departure of the star performer, the zeal or excitement, or both, rapidly subside, and one wonders what it all amounts to anyway. I have a strong predilection for quietness and individuality in my religion. One reared on porridge and Spurgeon's sermons has not much appetite for pulpit jokes or gymnastic preaching. I think I have read somewhere the following question and answer, which I quote slightly altered: "What is required of thee, but to do justly, to love mercy, and walk humbly." What do you think?

Among many evangelists I have known of in my time I remember a converted actor, a converted hangman, and the brother of a famous free-thinker. What puzzled me at the time, and does now, is what more qualification has an actor or a hangman, over a butcher, a baker, or candlestick maker, or a converted chiel for that matter? There was no claim made to special fitness for preaching, it is true, but why advertise the meeting as being held by actor, hangman, or brother of a well known atheist if it was not reaching out after notoriety? And my notion is, that notoriety and the "still small voice" do not go together.

A medical friend told me the following story: The medical officer of a workhouse hospital, making his usual call, asked the matron how everything was and got as answer "Oh doctor, two of the patients died last night." "Two?" said the M.O. in a surprised tone, "Did I not leave pills for three?"

All the cows (except Nos. 4 and 5, which were imported from the C.P.R. farms, Alberta), are descendants of four choice cows purchased from the T. W. Stirling herd in 1910 with records of milk production in 1914 of 13,242, 12,650, 10,527 and 10,019 respectively. Two of the Stirling cows were pure-bred Holsteins. Their descendants have one top cross of registered Jersey. A number of the cows are served by or bred to Rooker Aldermere, the well-known government bull. He is the sire of the Champion Cow No. 10. The balance of bred cows are served by Colony Segis McKinley 36956, one of the best bred bulls on the continent.
