Mayor Sutherland mentioned that an application had been received from the city band for a grant of money from the city.

Ald. Cox understood that a grant of $300 had already been agreed to. He was a member of the band committee and he would like to suggest that they do their very best for the band. The city had now a beautiful park and a good band stand and it was necessary that they should have a good band. But there was a certain amount of expenses which a band had to meet. The boys turned out time after time and got scarcely anything for their services. But they had to have a leader, and it was impossible to get a good leader without paying him. Mr. Tom Robertson had brought the band into a high state of efficiency, and had generally proved a capital man for the position. But he was leaving shortly for Vancouver and they would have to get someone else. They wanted to be able to get a good man, and to do that they would have to pay for it. He pointed out too that a leader could not be hired merely for the summer months. Mr. Robertson had been busy all through the winter training his men and a good deal of hard work had been put in. Vernon, he said, paid their band leader $500 yearly and moreover sent their band down to New Westminster.

Ald. Jones thought that the question of grants should be taken up by the finance committee. There were several cases which would have to be considered. The board of trade would be wanting a grant for advertising purposes, and this was a matter which could not be ignored. The committee could go into the matter of the various grants and report to the council.

Returning to the application of the city band, Ald. Harvey made the suggestion that the band should get so much for each night that they played.

Ald. Leckie thought that this would be much more satisfactory as the council would then know exactly what they were getting for the money expended.

After a little figuring it was suggested that the council pay $15 each for twenty concerts. On consulting the calendar, twenty concerts was found to be more than the band could reasonably be expected to get in during the summer season, so the figures were reversed, making it $20 each for fifteen concerts.

This Ald. Leckie pointed out was just the same thing as a grant of $300.

The following was accordingly passed, moved by Ald. Leckie and seconded by Ald. Harvey, "That a grant of $300 be made to the City Band at the rate of $20 for each of the fifteen band concerts held in the city park."

The following communication was read from Dr. Boyce.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of City of Kelowna.

Dear Sirs,—As the position stipendiary magistrate requires so much of of my time, I wish to have my salary raised to $750 per annum, beginning on July 1st 1910.

Sincerely yours
B. F. Boyce.

Ald. Stirling said he was under the impression that the position of stipendiary magistrate was a government appointment and as such the city had nothing to do with it.

Mayor Sutherland looked up the Act and found that the fixing and controlling of the magistrates salary was in the hands of the Lieutenant Governor. When the city recommended the magistrate to the government, they had also recommended that the salary be $30 per month. The government however had fixed it at $250 per year.

The clerk was instructed to write Dr. Boyce stating that the salary was fixed by the provincial government, and that the city council had no power to make any alteration.

It was moved and seconded that By-Law No. 74, to raise $3,000 to complete erection of School building, and By-Law No. 75, to raise $5,000 for further extension of the water system be read a second time.

No discussion arising, the by-laws were also read a third time.

The day for submitting the by-laws to the vote of the elector was then discussed, and the following motion passed: "That the voting on By-laws 74 and 75 be held in the council chamber on Wednesday, July 6th, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 7 p.m., and that G. H. Dunn be returning officer."

Mayor Sutherland announced that the assessment roll was completed, and that a day would have to be appointed for its return, and the holding of a Court of Revision.

The following motion was accordingly passed: "That the Assessment Roll be returned on July 1st next, and that the Court of Revision of same be held in the Council Chamber on Monday, August 1st next at 10 a.m."

A Court of Revision was appointed consisting of Mayor Sutherland, Ald. Stirling, Cox, Harvey, and Leckie.

On the motion of Ald. Stirling, seconded by Ald. Jones, By-law No. 76, re Liquor Licenses was read a first time. This is a by-law to give the licensing board greater control over the liquor licenses in the city.

It was pointed out that at the present time the licenses in the city go on automatically from year to year. No reason need be given to the commissioners for either renewal or transfer. The city had already been threatened with a lawsuit for attempting to cancel a license, and until the council passed a by-law giving the commissioners control, the city could not interfere to any extent in the conducting of the hotels.

Under the provisions of the new by-law, no new licenses would be granted and no license transferred to other premises unless the building contained a certain number of rooms continually in use for hotel purposes. No transfer of license would be granted except on payment of $150 in addition to all other fees.

Another important provision is that all licenses shall terminate at the end of the period for which they are granted, and shall be renewed only by order of the commissioners, who may at discretion grant or withhold them.

Any person permitting drunkenness, gambling, or disorderly conduct, or selling liquor to habitual drunkards, intoxicated persons, or persons under eighteen years of is to have his license suspended or cancelled, and be subject to a penalty.

It is also to be made lawful for the licensing board to cancel any license if in the opinion of a majority of the board the holder has been guilty of such conduct as would justify such concellation in the public interest, and persons whose license has been cancelled shall have no claim upon the city. All licenses issued are to contain a clause reserving the right of cancellation.

Attention was drawn to the grass and weeds on some of the streets needing cutting. Canadian thistles were flourishing in some places, and steps should be taken to have them destroyed.

The meeting then adjourned until Monday next, June 27th, at 10 a.m.

THOS. S. ROBERTSON,
Band Leader.

There will be a special serviee of song next Sunday evenirg in the Baptist Church. Rev. D. J. Welsh will give a short address on "Christ the Musician"

The Rev. J. W. Davidson has wired the officers of the Methodist church, that he expects to occupy the pulpit in Kelowna the first Sunday in July. The telegram comes from Kincardine, Ont., where he has been delayed by an unfortunate accident to his mother.

The Rev. D. J. Welsh went up to Vernon Monday to attend the reception following the opening of the new Baptist church there. The Rev. Mr. Anderson is the newly appointed minister there, and he and his wife, who have just arrived from Scotland were given a hearty welcome on Monday evening.

The Rev. D. J. Welsh leaves today for Summerland were he will stay until Saturday.

The entrance examinations for the High school will take place next Tuesday June 28th, at 9 a.m. in the Kellar block, under the charge of Miss McNaughton.

Mr. E. W. Dunn, brother of the city clerk, arrived last week from Grand Forks. He is making a short stay in town prior to going on to Revelstoke.

We crave our readers' inculgence in being compelled by stress of work to curtail our reading matter this week somewhat. It is impossible to get skilled help for short emergencies down the Valley, and when the jok work piles up on us we have simply got to stay with it until it is done.

Mr. H. W. Raymer is building a large addition to the Argricultural Show building.

The city band is soon to lnse the the services of its leader, Mr. T. Robertson, who is leaving for Vancouver early in July. Mr. Robertson has done much for the standing of the Kelowna band during his stay here, and his withdrawal will be a distinct loss both to the boys under his control, and to the music loving public.

Reports from Fruit Markets

Strawberries in the Winnipeg Markets - Mr. J. C. Metcalf Amongst the Wholesalers.

Mr. J. C. Metcalfe has forwarded to the department his third report as follows:

Regina, June 13, 1910.

W. E. Scott, Esq.,
Dep. Minister of Agriculture,
Victoria, B. C.

Dear Sir,

I have the honor to report as follows:

Winnipeg, June 6.

The freight rate from Wenatchee to Winnipeg per hundred pounds is $1.12½, and the same rate exists from north Yakima. It costs to lay down at Winnipeg from either of the above points for the following fruit per case:

Peaches,	48c.	Pears,	80c.
Prunes,	43c.	Apples,	57c.

the above to be added to the costs of fruit, f. o. b. there.

There arrived from B. C. at the McNaughton Fruit Exchange today twenty cases of strawberries, all showing some mould, and when picked over, showed a slackness in box, being not full. Some sold at the maximum price per case, $3.50, minimum price per case, $3.00. Two cases of gooseberries sold at 12c. per pound. Demand appears to be limited here for this kind of fruit. Hood River strawberries today sold at retail per case $4.25. Idaho cherries per case of ten pound, $2.50.

Winnipeg, June 7.

There arrived at McNaughton Fruit Exchange today thirty cases of strawberries from Haney, B. C., arrived in good condition, and fairly well packed; baskets showing some slackness; maximum price obtained $3.60, minimum price, $2.80. These strawberries were nearly all from Japanese growers of Haney, B. C. There are no strawberries coming into the wholesalers or retailers from British Columbia. Growers are supplying the trade further west.

A car of Vashon Island strawberries arrived at the McNaughton Fruit Exchange today by express. Car minimum 15,000 pounds. Car rate per 100 pounds, $2.00. Express duty and ice per case. $1.15. Arrived in good condition, three days in transit, 510 cases in car, sold per case $3.50. Commission and drayage expense to come off the above, as well.

Hood River strawberries dropped in price to the retail trade this afternoon, as a result of Vashon Island strawberries coming in, and being sold cheaper. Hood River strawberries cost about the same to lay down in Winnipeg as the Vashon Island. Express rate is a little lower, $1.80 per hundred pounds, but icing costs a little higher, making the cost of them about the same.

The following places on the American side have an express rate per hundred pounds in carload to Winnipeg:

Hood River	$1.89	Puyallup	$2
Portland	2.00	Yakima	2
Wenatchee	2.00	Seattle	2

and a number of other points, but all do not have a minimum of 15,000 pounds. A distributing express rate per hundred pounds from Winnipeg to Saskatoon, and Prince Albert per C. N. R. is the same to both points, $2.40 per hundred pounds; and from Regina on main line of C. P. R. to Saskatoon $1.30, from Regina, on main line of C.P.R. to Prince Albert, $1.60.

The following carloads of strawberries have arrived at Winnipeg to date, June 7:

2 cars of Louisiana
2 cars of Arkansas
6 cars of Tennessee
2 cars of Missouri
10 cars of Hood River

Total 22 cars.

At least fifty carloads will be marketed in Winnipeg this season. Bright, Emery & Co. is the distributing house for nearly all the American strawberries coming into this point, (Winnipeg).

Idaho cherries are coming in now more freely to this point. Very nice stock, selling retail at $2.50 per case ten pound, varieties, black tartarian, royal arm and bings. They still maintain the cost f. o. b. there is $1.25 per case.

Today in Winnipeg. Mr. Savage, of the firm of Plunkett & Savage, Calgary, stated they had purchased ten carloads of peaches from Wenatchee at 45c. per case f. o. b. there. Wholesalers and jobbers here are quoting $3.75 to $4 for Florida tomatoes today, average 36 to 40 pounds per case, 6 baskets to a case. Rhubarb, lettuce, green onions and raddish coming in here now in large quantities, and grown locally are selling retail at the following prices:

Lettuce three bundles	10c.
Green onions 4 "	10c.
Raddishes 3 "	10c.
Rhubarb 8 pounds	25c.

E. D. Smith, Winona, Ontario, has agents here now, and sells to jobbers, retailers, and also sends some to the auction mart here. The Norfolk Fruit Growers' Association, Ontario, have an agent out here soliciting all over the provinces for orders. The fruit growers and shippers of Grimsby, Ontario, are contemplating putting solicitors, or resident agents all over these provinces to solicit orders, the same to be wired in direct to Grimsby, and shipped direct to the party ordering. Other fruit growers' associations as well are covering these provinces—even poor old lethargic Ontario is waking up and adopting western methods, and reaching out and pushing energetically to develop their fruit trade in these provinces, and it behoves our growers and shippers to put up the finest and most perfect fruit product they can, and use the most energetic and progressive measures in the sale of them to obtain their proportion of the trade in these markets.

California plums and peaches have arrived on these markets, and are selling to the trade at the following prices:

Peach - plums per case $3.75. Alexander peaches per case $3.00. Poor stock, small and green, neither color nor flavour. California has an immense crop from reports to date. The following is a list of duties on green fruit coming in from the American side or elsewhere; and may help our growers and shippers in determining the advantage they possess over the American growers of fruit of the same variety when shipped into Canada:

Green apples per barrel	40c.
Green apples per box	13c.
Blackberries, and gooseberries per pound	2c.
Raspberries and strawberries per pound	2c.
Cherries per pound	2c.
Cranberries per bushel	25c.
Currants per pound	2c.
Grapes per pound	2c.
Peaches per 100 pounds	$1.00
Peaches per case	20c.
Plums (per bushel of 60 pounds)	30c.
Plums per box	10c.
Quinces, apricots, pears and Nectarines per 100 pounds	50c. (½c. per lb.)

(Signed) J. C. METCALFE,
Commissioner.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, of Vernon, came up here last Tuesday. Mr. Anderson is the "head cook and bottle washer" of Messrs. P. Burns & Co. and is making a tour of the various branches throughout the valley.

The latest people who have had duckings in the lake are Mr. Dilley, Mr. Joe Biggs and Mrs. DeLatour. Bravo, 'Kent'!

Contest for Fruit Packers

Government to Grant Diplomas for Proficiency in Fruit Packing

The following announcement is contained in a communication from the Department of Agriculture:

As stated during the progress of the Packing Schools in February to April last, diplomas will be granted by the Department of Agriculture to those attaining a certain standard of proficiency in packing. This will be estimated on the following basis:

1. At each packing school the instructor gave each student a grading based on proficiency acquired in packing.

2. Each student working as a packer is asked to notify this department of the name and address of the packing concern employing him. The employer will be asked to furnish a statement regarding the proficiency and speed of the student as a practical packer during the season.

3. A packing contest will be held at the Summerland, Kelowna and Vernon fairs for packing school students. Packed fruit exhibited by them will be judged by an expert packer, and their proficiency in show-packing judged. Fifteen, ten and five dollars will be given as 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes. The conditions are: Each exhibit must consist of five boxes of apples; five or fewer varieties; five packs; all layers except face wrapped; box need not have been nailed; fruit may be wiped; no layer papers. Score as follows:

Grading of fruit	20 points
Packing-alignment	20 points
Bulge	20 points
Height of ends	20 points
Firmness	20 points
Total	100 points

Maximum points obtainable by pupils:

1. Proficiency in packing school	200
2. Practical packing	100
3. Packed fruit contest	100
Total	400

Packers securing 300 points (or 75 per cent) will be awarded diplomas by the Department of Agriculture.

It is believed that in setting such a high and useful standard of proficiency that the effort necessary will be well worth making. The increasing demand for good packers in B. C. in the immediate future will make such a certificate valuable.

Kelowna Wins Opening Game of Lacrosse League

The Kelowna boys made a good start in the league matches last Thursday, when the Armstrong team came down to meet them in the first game of the new league. Some good play was witnessed, and the home team are to be congratulated on their score of 6 goals to Armstrong 4.

Yesterday at Vernon they were not so fortunate, being beaten by Vernon with a score of 7 goals to 5.

Mr. B. McDonald, of the Farmers' Exchange, leaves to-day on an extensive tour through the fruit districts below the line. His object is to obtain reliable information at 'first hand' of the crop and market prospects down there. The trip will be an expensive one, but the directors feel that the information thus gained will be more reliable and satisfactory to the local fruit grower in every way, as the information gathered from the wholesale sources cannot, naturally be in the best interests of the farmer.

Mr. Maxwell Smith writes to say that he will be in Kelowna on the 27th, and wishes to meet as many fruit men as possible to consult about an exhibit for the Canadian National Apple Show.

The new Canadian immigration regulations have raised a storm of protest in the newspapers of the Old Country, and in a few of the papers of the east. The chief points of objection seem to be those which require an immigrant other than a farm labourer or domestic servant to have at least $25 in cash clear at point of destination; the other exception taken is that consent and approval to charity aided emigrants must first be obtained from the superintendent of immigration at London, before entry into Canada will be allowed.

What objection any fair thinking man can make to above regulations we fail to see. Surely it must be conceded that Canada herself must be the best and safest judge as to what class of immigrants are needed and desirable to open up her vast stretches of unpeopled land, and to preserve the industrial balance of the more thickly settled portions of the country. To leave Canada open as a general dumping ground would be to incur untold misery upon thouands of forlorn arrivals finding no place suited to their abilities or lack of abilities, adding the burden of their support to those already engaged in carving out their future in a new land. It is well known on both sides of the Atlantic that farm hands and domestic servants can be accommodated at once on landing, that Canada needs them and must have them. But it is not so with other classes of labor. Much more judgement and care is needed in disposing of the mechanic soas not to entail hardship on the newcomer and on his brother worker here. Even though he may have a job waiting for him, the mechanic cannot be accommodated with a home and many other little necessities immediately upon arrival the same as a farm servant or domestic can, and the workman who cannot provide the paltry sum of $25 to guard against emergencies must be destitute indeed, and should be under the protection of some organization, when, if suitable he would not be denied admission.

As to the second point of objection, anyone with an eye to the future well being of Canada will have no difficulty of seeing and recognizing the importance of the regulation. England, in common with other of the densely populated countries has a large percentage of undesirables, or wastrels, or whatever else you may call that class of poor wretches who seem predestined by their own incapacity to live and die within their miserable estate, and whilst, God knows, we who are more fortunately situated, can pity them, yet it were only shifting the burden, and turning them into wanderers, to allow the unprincipled agent and labor jobber to deport them into Canada. All who happen to be destitute are not undesirable by any means, and it is to meet these exceptions that the superintendent is allowed to pass such as stand a reasonable chance of becoming self-supporting and of bettering their condition.

Are You Crazy?

Few indeed are the people in these days of money madness who go to the theatre to be instructed. What they seek is amusement, a hearty laugh, a chance to forget business cares and worries. To such people and they are in the majority, no show appeals as much as the comedy, and the play the Clamans present this season, "Are You Crazy?" is full of laughs and surprises, and entirely different from any play they have produced heretofore. Don't miss it. Kelowna Opera House Tuesday, June 28.

News of the Valley.

The crews of the "Okanagan" and "Aberdeen" are to give a life-saving demonstration and fire drill for valuable cups at the Naramata Regatta this afternoon.

The opening services of the new Baptist church in Vernon took place last Sunday, the Rev. B. S. Freeman, of Armstrong, preaching the dedicatory sermon. The new pastor is the Rev. Alex Anderson.

Vernon school children were given a half holiday in honor of the visit of the the University commission.

William Inkster has recently commenced extensive quarrying operations on the east side of Okanagan Lake, about four miles below Okanagan Landing. He is getting out a large quantity of stone these days to be used in the new English Church at Kelowna. The stone is a fine quality of red granite.—Vernon News.

Excavations are being made for a new Baptist church at Summerland,

The new C. P. R. packing house at Summerland will be in readiness for the crop in about six weeks' time.

A sad case is reported from Swan Lake. A young Englishman named Edward J. Watts was killed by a runaway team. It appears that the unfortunate man was hauling lumber for a ditch on his property near the railway crossing at the lake, when the team became frightened at the approach of a work train, and bolted down the track. Mr. Watts was seen, by observers at some distance, to be standing on the load, endeavouring to check the horses, when a sudden jolt caused him to pitch forward. When assistance arrived he was found dead beside the track, and a subsequent surgical examination showed that his neck had been broken. Death must have been instantaneous. Deceased was about 29 years of age, and leaves a widow and one child about seven weeks old.

Armstrong has decided to break away from the district municipality and incorporate as an independent city.

A farmers' institute is being organized at Mara.

The Okanagan Telephone Co. of Vernon are considering the advisability of accepting an offer from F. J. Hart & Co., of New Westminster for the assett of the company.

The Armstrong council have added one mill on the dollar taxation for advertising purposes, raising by that means $1300.

Penticton will probably purchase for $90,000 the irrigation system of the Penticton Water Supply Co. A meeting of ratepayers was held last week for the purpose of considering the project, and the speakers were almost unanimously in favor of taking over the system. A by-law covering scheme is to be submitted shortly.

Rev. A. W. McLeod, for five years pastor of the Nanaimo Baptist church, has resigned, his resignation to take effect on September 13th. Mr. McLeod now becomes physical director of Okanagan college.

June Rod and Gun.

While each issue of Canada's foremost sportsmen's magazice contains some feature of special interest, the June number of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, Woodstock, Ont., is noted for several of such features, each one of particular interest to all sportsman. "Three Weeks in the Forests of Quebec," with the successful capture of a big moose, will prove entrancing to all game hunters; while the the story of the success of Jack Miner in attracting wild geese in large numbers to a pond near his home cannot fail to hold the attention and secure the interest of all wild bird lovers. The latter story forms a splendid illustration of the success of protection and should encourage all engaged in the work. Mr. Miner has demonstrated the fact that it is possible to succeed with the wary wild goose and success with such means that efforts in other directions need not spell failure. The importance of the policy conservation justifies the illustrated account of the gathering at Toronto Uuiversity. This policy means more to future of Canada than the present generation can fully realize and to all interested in the great out doors it is vital. A full supply of stories appealing to all tastes is included in a number which will prove a fine companion on all vacation trips.

The Business of Vice

The crux of the Moral Reform situation is the business of vice. Wherever any person desire to do wrong for his own gratification, others will provide the facilities for his indulgences and make money out of the service rendered. When there are large financial interests involved in any reform, it is much more difficult to carry than when there is only desire of evil to reckon with. Vice has nothing to say for itself, but vested interests find a voice, no matter how base the source of their gain.

This element brings into the conflict a large number of people who are not personally immoral, but whose gains are in some way dependent upon immoral practises. The influence of men personally virtuous, when cast on the side of vice, is hard to overcome. And these men by their ability and financial strength, are able to organize opposition to reform movements which would be beyond those who support evil for its own sake.

The following are some of the consequences of the alliance between money and iniquity.

It leads to the propagation of evil practices. These men. be it remembered, provide the facilities for wrong doing. The larger number of wrong-doers the more customers they obtain. It is therefore in their interests to cultivate these habits as widely as possible.

Many are in the business of vice indignantly repudiate this. Liquor dealers often contend that they never press anyone to drink, but only serve those who wish entertainment in their line. But when they provide the facilities for drinking, surround it with attraction, give free lunches, etc., they do extend the drink habit.

As the late Principle Grant pointed out so forcefully, it is as natural for a liquor dealer to want to get on in the world as for any other man; yet he cannot lift a finger to push his business without inducing more men to drink. This is his only way of advancement and whether he does it directly or indirectly makes no difference in the result.

So with other forms of the business of vice. Recent confiscations of immoral literature revealed the fabulous prices that men who deal in it get for their wares. They take the risks because of the opportunities of gain. Many instances might be given of men who hesitated not to currupt the youth of the whole community because of what they might make out of snpplying the demand thus created.

The same thing is true wherever there is money to be made out of the faults and follies of men. Those financially interested propagate the evil habit that they may extend their trade.

Another result of this unholy alliance is the one above referred to, viz. organized opposition to reform. The enimies to reform are not usually men who desire to do wrong for their own gratification, but those whose aim it is to make money out of other peoples wrong-doing.

Examples are in order. The chief opposition to the passing of the Lord's Day Act by the Dominion Parliament did not come from those who claimed liberty to violate the Sabbath for their own enjoyment, but from those transportation companies and other bodies who want to make money out of the Sabbath-breaking of the public.

Every comunity which tries to rid itself of the burden of the bar-room finds that it has to fight the organized liquor traffic. It would be easy to deal with the drinking men in their own district, if it were not that behind these are the local liquor dealers, who have large interests at stake, and behind these the larger organization with ample financial resources and the best legal talent at its command. The men who make money out of the drinking habits of the public contest every inch of ground, and resort to every technicality and every means conceivable to defeat the will of the people or to prevent it from being expressed.

A horrible disaster occurred last week in Montreal at the Herald building. A large water tank on the roof, containing about 30,000 gallons, and weighing 150 tons, broke from its supports, and fell through the four stories of the building, killing a number of the employes in its decent. Fire broke out almost immediately after, and many who had been pinned by the wreckage of the broken tank, were burnt to death. The death roll is between thirty and forty, besides a large number of injured.

Lumber munufacturers on the coast of British Columbia are arranging to invade the provinces of Saskatchewan and Manitoba with lumber retailing yards in order to get into direct touch with the consumers in that territory. The millmen declare that the high prices ruling in existing lumber yards is killing consumption. It is planned to have at least fifty yards in operation by the end of the present year and this number will be rapidly increased till about 500 are established. It is proposed that the yards owned by the big company shall be divided in sets of fifty, each set to be separate in organization and management.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO SECURE
AN ORCHARD HOME
Having the advantages of both Town and Country Life.
OUR FIRST SUBDIVISION OF GLENMORE IS ON THE MARKET.

You will have to act quickly if you wish to secure a lot in this desirable sub-division, for it is selling rapidly. The location is ideal, half-a-mile from the town limits and one hundred feet higher, commanding a beautiful view of the Lake, City, and surrounding country.

The soil is a light loam, with slope sufficient for irrigation and drainage. Unimproved land, as desirably situated as ours, is selling readily in the fruit sections of Washington and Oregon for from $650 to $1200 per acre. Conditions are changing here; before you realize it, this land will have doubled in price.

NOW IS THE TIME TO PURCHASE.

We advise you to inspect the property at once, and make your selection. It is going fast. The property has been little more than a week on the market, and at the end of the week, May 21st, there were but nineteen lots remaining unsold. Our town is rapidly growing, and it will not be long before this property will be practically a part of it, and we feel safe in saying, the choice residential section.

We might also state that it is the Company's plan to reserve the adjoining 1,000 acres, to be improved and planted out in one large orchard and retained for itself.

Maps of the sub-division, together with information regarding prices and terms may be had at our office.

July 1st is to be a great day at Penticton. The promoters of the sports are making arrangements to break all previous records in the way of celebration. A fine list of events is provided, and some of the prizes, especially horse races will tempt a first-class entry. The "Aberdeen" is making a special trip down the lake, starting from the Landing at 4:30 a.m., and calling at Kelowna on the way down, returning from Penticton at 8 p.m. A fare and a third is charged for the round trip.

Mr. Scott had a break down near the Dickson Ranch when coming back from Vernon last Tuesday. Luckily he was near a telephone and could order another car to continue the journey in from Mr. Elliott.

Mr. Wrigglesworth will be leaving shortly for his home at Norwich in Western Ontario. He has a large ranche at that point, and is looking forward to the time when he will be again comfortably settled in his old home.

Don't Experiment

With your watch. As a general run it is costly. If your horse took sick and refused to go, would you take him to the vet. or try and diagnose his case yourself? If there is anything wrong with your watch bring it to me. I do not charge for examining it, and I will quote you the lowest possible price for repair, at the same time I will guarantee to make it a perfect timekeeper, and I will be responsible for the work I do on it for one year.

This guarantee also applies to Clocks and other repairs.
