LUMBERING.

Harbor Lumber Company.

Since taking over the business of the Fred Robinson Lumber Company, Ltd., the Harbor Lumber Company, Ltd., has effected great improvements in the plant and equipment of the mills at Revelstoke, Comaplix and Camborne.

REVELSTOKE.

At the Revelstoke mill a new saw-bench has been put in on the upper floor, also a steam nigger of the most improved design. From the saw-bench the lumber passes over live rollers which automatically deliver the good stuff to the edger while a switch carries off the waste to the slab-slasher. The edgings are automatically picked up by carrier and elevator and passed through four foot saws, or by the action of a trip, carried to the slab slashers to cut into lengths when anything not fit for lath is sent to the firewood saw and cut into 15-inch lengths. The firewood is delivered in bins ready for the wagon to draw away.

On the lower floor are set the boilers and engines, planing and moulding machines, etc. There are four planers in use and a fifth is being put in. By an ingenious arrangement of travellers the good lumber is carried from the edger to whichever machine it has to go for the finishing touches and is thence taken by hand trucks to the proper dimension pile in the yard. From the time it leaves the saw till it is ready for market, the lumber requires no handling.

The motive power is supplied by an engine of 275 h. p. made by the Phoenix works. There are two boilers, the steam capacity of the plant having been doubled and the power quadrupled since it was taken over. Every precaution is taken against fire. The mill has been connected direct with the city water supply, and a powerful fire pump has been installed which will throw a stream 50 ft. over the top of the mill. 350 ft. of 2 in. pipe has been laid for fire protection and this pipe enables hose to be coupled to protect any part of the mill or yard. The shavings are taken up by pneumatic pipes and carried into the boiler furnaces, which are thus fed automatically. The new plant is working splendidly, and has been found to give economical results. The available power is sufficient to run a plant half as big again.

The office accommodation has been doubled since the new company took over. The following are the officers of the Harbor Lumber Co., Ltd.: President and manager, A. F. Dudgeon; sec.-treas., J. R. McCleary. C. H. Johnson is in charge of the office at Revelstoke. The local office staff consists of A. Y. Anderson, book-keeper, W. Munroe stenographer and typewriter. A. Smith is mill foreman at Revelstoke. At Comaplix J. W. Fairhall is accountant, and R. Steiss is in charge of the yard. Lumber camps have been put in at Camp Four on the Columbia river, near Wigwam, in charge of R. Thompson, and at Fish creek, in charge of J. Atchison. The former supplies the Revelstoke and the latter the Comaplix mill. The company hold 40,000 acres of timber from which to draw their supply of logs for years to come.

THE COMAPLIX MILL.

This mill is also fitted thoroughly up to date. The runways and dock had to be fixed up after the storm in June, which tore up the yard badly. It is intended to extend the yard room here, by reclaiming the lake shore. Two million feet of logs are in readiness for cutting. By the improvements made by the new owners, the mill has been extended 40 feet further, a new log carriage built from the mill into the lake, a new log jumper and nigger put in. The mill has been re-arranged so that the boards and dimension lumber go on live rolls to the edger and the slabs travel right through to the slab slasher, where they are cut into 4 ft. lengths, the pieces that will make laths going thence through the lath machine, and the rest to be used as cordwood. One object in the re-designing of the mill is to provide there shall be no waste.

As the dimension lumber goes from the live rolls to the travelling chain it is sorted for the different grades, and for the different planers. From the planers the lumber is removed by hand-carts to the corresponding lots in the yard.

The plant consists of sawbench, with upper and lower circular saw, four planers, edger, slab slasher, 250 h. p. boiler and engine, the boiler being built by the Waterous Company, and the engine by W. Yates, of London, Ont. The furnace of the boiler is fixed with an automatic feed. Water troughs have been laid for carrying the shavings to the dumping ground. The mill was formerly run by water power and this is retained identified with the success of the as an auxiliary to steam. The mill will next season be run night and day for ten months in the year.

CAMBORNE MILL.

This mill, owned by the Harbor Lumber Co. has also been improved by the addition of a new water wheel, edger and planer. The mill has a capacity of 10,000 ft. a day, and while the demand on the output of the mill was much greater in spring than could be supplied the mill is now shut down for the present.

COUNTY COURT.

CIVIL CASES.

Judge Forin held a sitting of the county court at Revelstoke Wednesday. The following cases were heard:

R. S. Wilson v. Eckart, claim $25. A. M. Pinkham for plaintiff for whom judgment was given with costs.

E. Corning v. D. McLean, claim for $17.40. Judgment for plaintiff for whom A. M. Pinkham appeared.

J. Laughton v. Hotham. Judgment for plaintiff for claim of $65. Mr. Pinkham for plaintiff.

McCollom v. Ward, claim $200 balance purchase money of business and share of profits. Mr. Pinkham for plaintiff and Mr. Scott for defendant. It was contended for defendant that he had paid plaintiff in full and the profits remained to be determined. The court upheld this position, giving judgment in defendant's favor on the claim of $200 and ordering accounts to be taken by the registrar, to determine the profits.

McColl v. Lardeau Smelting Company. Claim $100 for finding lime for smelter. Mr. Scott for plaintiff and Mr. Hodge for defendant. Evidence was given to prove promise of payment and judgment given for plaintiff accordingly.

Baker and Lemon v. Scales. Claim on mechanic's lien for $282. F. C. Elliott for plaintiffs, for whom judgment was given.

In chambers his honor granted probate of will of the late R. Ramsey.

CRIMINAL DOCKET.

A. McLeod pleaded guilty to theft at Comaplix and was sentenced to two months imprisonment.

Roberts was discharged on charge of theft from F. B. Wells' store, as his honor considered the charge was not sustained by the evidence. A. M. Pinkham was crown prosecutor.

POLITICAL.

The official recount gave Green only 30 majority over Retallack.

At the socialist league on Saturday night interesting addresses on socialism were given by Messrs. Gayman, Mitchell and Bennett.

At the meeting of the liberal members of B. C. at Victoria, Monday, J. A. Macdonald, K.C., was elected leader of the party. Stuart Henderson and W. W. B. McInnes were also nominated.

The Socialist League meets weekly on Fridays in the Selkirk hall. At last night's meeting there was a discussion on the best means of bringing about socialism.

The liberals of Revelstoke intended banqueting J. A. Macdonald as the new leader of the liberal party in the province, but he could not stop off for a day on his way home.

Probably in view of the fact that the elections showed the McBride government does not possess the confidence of the people the Bank of Commerce, which carries the government account, has refused further credit, and the government has had to engage that leading liberal, E. V. Bodwell, to proceed to Toronto to interview the head office with a view to withdrawing the embargo. This is a pretty state of things for the McBride government to start in with, when an agent has to be sent hat in hand to a banking institution to permit the province to carry on business.

It turns out it was the Spokane grafters who have located the Crow's Nest coal and oil lands that returned John Houston for Nelson. John pledged himself to have these locations granted to the locators, and as the locations have been made mostly on behalf of Spokane people, and probably the Great Northern Railway Co., these people poured American gold into Nelson for Houston's election. $5,500 in American eagles is stated to have come in for distribution on behalf of John, who boasts he is a "practical politician." Though so disrated in the conservative party that not a telegram of congratulation was sent him from Victoria he appears to have been able to go there and hold up Premier McBride and the whole conservative party to give him a portfolio that he cannot fill with any safety to the interests of the people in view of his statement that he favored giving away the richest assets of the province to his friends. It is high time this sort of practical politician was a back number in British Columbia. The disclosures concerning this affair are discreditable to the conservative party, and must break up that party ere long.

CHURCHES.

PRESBYTERIAN.

T. More and A. M. Miller have been appointed elders of the Presbyterian church.

THE HOSPITAL.

Emergency Hospital to be Erected and Maintained at Arrowhead.

At the hospital every bed is occupied and the medical and nursing staffs have been having a busy time. A. Berger who was operated on for a serious internal condition, is doing well, so far. Mrs. Livingston, of Arrowhead, is steadily improving.

Supt. Kilpatrick, Mr. McCarter, and Dr. Sutherland visited Arrowhead this week to confer with the management of the mills there as to hospital and medical attendance for the employes of the new lumber mills, and an arrangement was entered into whereby the hospital directors are to erect and maintain an emergency hospital at Arrowhead, and provide a medical man to reside there. That hospital will be operated in conjunction with the main hospital at Revelstoke.

INSURANCE.

Heavy Rise In Rates On McKenzie Avenue.

The insurance companies have raised the rates on the east side of McKenzie avenue from $4.25 to $8.40 owing to the compact block of wooden buildings now existing from Molson's Bank to the Canada Drug & Book Co's. store. It is proposed to erect a brick fire wall half way up along the block as a means of reducing this excessive insurance rate. This will cost about $600, and will save $1,200 a year in insurance.

The owners of property in the block will probably carry out the idea by subscribing towards the cost, as, unless something of the kind is done, the proposed increase of rates will be a serious matter for the business firms located there. It is felt that the city should have taken action to declare a fire limit and enforce the necessary bylaws before the present serious outlook had arisen.

PROTEST.

Revelstoke Election to Be Petitioned Against.

J. M. Kellie's supporters have decided to protest the election of Thomas Taylor for Revelstoke riding on grounds of alleged bribery and corruption. Mr. Kellie's committee has obtained a large amount of evidence, and J. D. Swanson, solicitor, of Kamloops, has been retained to act for the petitioners. The protest will be filed and protest served on Mr. Taylor in a few days, though it is likely that with the formalities of the law it will be some weeks before the case will come on for trial.

PRESENTATION

To Rev Father Lardon on Leaving For New Charge.

An interesting presentation took place on the occasion of Rev Father Lardon, who has been in charge of the Catholic Parish of Revelstoke during the absence of Rev Father Thayer, leaving for his new charge at Fort Steele. The children attending the Sunday school subscribed a handsome sum, with which they presented the Rev Father with a handsome travelling valise, and a purse of money. The following address was also presented:—

UNION LABEL

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1903.

Joe Chamberlain's campaign for preferential trade within the empire appeals to every loyal heart. Originating with the Laurier government the idea is catching like wildfire and liberals and conservatives will vie with each other in supporting it. Evn Blatchford, the leading English socialist, has contributed to the wellbeing of the movement by his powerful pen and sledge-hammer logic.

We congratulate J. A. Macdonald K. C. of Rossland on his election as leader of the liberal party. Though Mr. Macdonald is not very widely known outside of South Kootenay and Boundary, he has a high reputation as a man of sterling integrity, is a ready debater, and one who has the qualities which go to make a successful leader. We wish him all success in his leadership. Just as the conservatives used to swear by that able party manager Sir J. A. Macdonald, so the liberals now have their J. A. Macdonald round whose banner the party can rally in pride and confidence.

We have unquestionable evidence to show that Premier McBride was in the same boat with Hons. Eberts and Turner in putting through the crown grants for the Crow's Nest coal and oil lands. In his evidence before the commission Premier McBride stated it was W. C. Wells who first introduced and recommended the deal. This can be shown to be untrue and that, on the contrary McBride Turner and Eberts were the men who pushed the deal and were determined to put it through if possible.

THE BOUNDARY COMMISSION

The main topic of the week has been the award of the Alaska boundary commission, which gives to the States was territory that country has all along claimed, and concedes to Canada full control of the Portland canal and two islands adjacent thereto formerly claimed by America. A lot of jingo papers are raving against the award and the rights of Canada, but if the evidence showed these rights did not exist—and the commission has decided to that effect—this country has no right to complain about losing what it really never owned. The settlement of the Alaska boundary, even if against us, will settle an otherwise perpetual source of trouble between Canada and the States.

DISCREDITABLE JOURNALISM

The News-Advertiser had an article in Tuesday's issue, which is universally regarded as most discreditable. It was an attempt to stir up ill-feeling between Vancouver Island and the Mainland, because the Island went almost solidly liberal. The people of Vancouver Island can depend on it the liberals of the Mainland are not actuated by any such narrow-minded, selfish bigotry as that displayed by Editor Cotton of the News-Advertiser because he finds himself returned to support a government which has not the confidence of the country, and because Premier McBride is so weak that John Houston has compelled him to sidetrack the Vancouver editor, to give him (Houston) a portfolio as the price of his vote, though there are much more reliable men on the government side of the house. It is universally admitted that F. Taylor, as member for Revelstoke, is ten times more entitled to a portfolio than is Houston, and it is discreditable to Premier McBride that he should have been compelled to put on one side an old and tried supporter for a mere interloper.

TIMBER LEASES.

It seems strange that a city located as Revelstoke is, in the midst of forests, should yet suffer from shortage of fuel. The question is asked, why is it? The answer is given that the lumber companies hold the country around and refuse to give up what they claim to be their rights to the land either for settlement or firewood supply. This state of things cannot be permitted to continue. Where land is required for settlement, the government leases should, and we believe do, provide that reasonable notice shall be given to the lessees to remove the timber suitable for milling, and that the land shall thereupon be thrown open for settlement. This is as it should be and if the officers of the department of the interior do not see to this then they are not doing their duty, and their attention should be drawn to it. The same argument applies to firewood. A timber lease is for the purpose of removing the timber suitable for lumbering, and when that has been removed the remainder should be available to any who wish to cut firewood thereon on payment of a small royalty. The rights and interests of the people in these matters must be protected and it is up to the Liberal Association, as having the ear of the party in power, to take up these matters and have them fully adjusted in the public interest.

STOPPAGE OF WORKS.

The sudden stoppage of government work in the district immediately after the election has caused great dissatisfaction. What else could people expect? These works were put in hand in nine cases out of ten to catch votes, and the votes having been secured, the disappointed ones wonder why they proved such "suckers." Take the Beatrice trail. That was to give access to a mine which can be made a large shipper and employer of labor, but the sudden cessation of the trail work leaves the property tied up for another season without supplies which could have been got in for a full winter's work had the new trail been completed so as to be available.

The same thing applies to the Canoe river and other trails. People put in supplies, expecting to complete the work authorized, but the sudden cessation has left them with large supplies on their hands which will now be useless and their bills to meet all the same. The Camborne-Beaton road, too, is in disgraceful shape, and though a spurt was made to improve it before election the work is now stopped without any regard to the large mining properties dependent on it for getting in their plant and supplies.

Of course it may be said it serves these people well right for being caught with any such trickery on the part of the McBride government, but that is not the way to look at it. The consequences are too serious, and their ramifications too far-reaching to be overlooked, as these affect, not only those who were gulled with these government works, but all other sections of the community who are innocent of any share in the game. It is time public works were placed in the hands of county councils elected by the people, who would administer the public expenditures in the respective districts in a manner best calculated to be of permanent value to the district, and free from the time-serving dodges experienced at election times to catch votes.

RANCHING.

Galena Bay.

The road leading from the old Galena bay landing is in a disgraceful condition, and it is little wonder that one hears curses both loud and deep on the government, and on the member for the district at the manner in which the road has been neglected. The farming land here extends from the top of the hill above the bay to the foothills of the high range. It is a surprise to find such good land and such highly improved farms lying concealed from the great water highway of the lake.

The first farm on the road is that belonging to George Edge. A lot of fencing, clearing and cultivation has been done, but the owner has left it for the present. At the time of our visit there was a splendid crop of timothy hay. Fruit trees have been planted out and have done well and there was an excellent patch of berries. Mr. Edge is one of the most ingenious mechanical men we have run across. He made and fitted up with his own hands a sawmill operated by water power, and everything about the ranch testifies to his neatness and mechanical genius.

The best farm is that owned by T. Beech. There is not a finer farm in the country and its crops were a picture. The soil is wonderfully fertile, consisting of old Beaver meadow on Jennings creek. The land was easily cleared and cultivated, and proves that the man who cares to take up farm lands in the mountains and work can make for himself an independence. Mr. Beech had four acres under root crops this season and three acres of timothy hay. Fourteen acres have been cleared. He had magnificent crops of potatoes, carrots, cabbage etc. Fruit trees have been planted out, including plums, apples and Siberian crabs. Mr. Beech says he finds the trees from coast nurseries much superior to those imported from the east. Hogs are kept, a first-class piggery with breeding pens being provided so as to keep them dry and clean, and a good run is provided. The class of pigs raised is a cross between Berkshire and Yorkshire. There is a barn 20x50 ft., with hay shed and stable. Considerable drainage has been done. A mare and colt are kept. The area of the section is 320 acres. Mr. Beech is one of the pioneers of the district, having settled here in 1894 with J. Olsen and Sam Hill. He has had his share of the rough experiences that fell to the pioneer, and the following incident shows the stuff of which he is made. This spring he was taking a boatload of potatoes to the Arrowhead Lumber Co's. camp, when a storm suddenly arose and he saw there was no chance to save the cargo and himself as well. Jumping into the lake and taking the boat by the stern he overturned it so as to dump out the load, and hanging on to it drifted ashore.

The next ranch is that owned by J. Olsen, now of Camborne. An immense amount of work has been done on this property in the way of drainage. The soil is very rich. Nine acres have been cleared and seeded to timothy, which yields a big crop. The buildings comprise good house and barn 20x30 ft., and blacksmith shop. There is a fine orchard, the apple trees bearing splendidly. At the time of our visit they were laden with fruit. Small fruits are also grown. The strawberry crop was one of the best in the district and there was also a good crop of currants.

On J. J. Foley's lot of 160 acres ten acres have been cleared.

J. McLeod has five acres cleared and fruit trees planted out.

T. Cadman has a section of 320 acres, including 80 acres of rich bottom land.

Other settlers hold land fronting the bay but are not occupying their sections.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

Dennis Murphy is being put forward as liberal candidate for the new Yale-Cariboo electorate at next dominion election. W. A. Galliher, M. P., and Dr. Sinclair, of Rossland, are named in connection with the liberal nomination for the Kootenay seat in the dominion house.

THE BIG BEND.

Progress in Lumbering, Placer and Lode Mining, and Ranching.

KEYSTONE MOUNTAIN.

This mountain is one of the prominent features of the Big Bend. Standing alone, with Downie creek sweeping the eastern and the Columbia river the western slopes, it has extensive surface showings of ore, including gold, galena and copper. The country is like a prairie with its grassy slopes and patches of timber. The altitude is pretty high, between 6,000 and 7,000 feet. On the west slope of the mountain the is the property on which most development has been done. A tunnel has been run 150 ft. and a crosscut 70 ft. There is here an immense showing of decomposed iron, and every indication of the existence of a large body of ore. The mineralised zone is at least over 40 ft. wide. Well-defined dykes cut the country with a strike of N 70 W, one of these dykes being approximately 150 ft. wide. Geologically this is one of the most favorable localities for ore we have seen in the Bend. There is a cabin on the ground.

Adjoining the Carbonate Chief is the Gopher, on which there are some fine surface showings on a cross lead running N. 20 W., and apparently 20 feet wide, with vertical dip. These claims are held by Messrs. Rumens, Wilcox, and H. A. Brown. Messrs. Abrahamson Bros., J. C. Montgomery, and H. A. Morris hold claims adjacent. On J. C. Montgomery's claim, there is a good showing of iron pyrites, carbonate of lead, and traces of copper. The lead is 10 ft. wide. 200 ft. south is a stringer showing galena with lime on the footwalls and porphyritic rock on the hanging wall.

THE ANTLER

On the north side of the mountain are the Keystone and Victor claims. The is owned by F. B. Wells and A. McIntosh. A tunnel has been run 75 ft. through decomposed quartz, showing galena, blende, and sulphurets of iron. Ten feet below is another tunnel about same length. The lower tunnel follows a contact between diorite and lime for some distance and then runs into lime. The sulphurets run $8 to $16 gold and the galena gives 24 to 30 ozs silver and 70 per cent lead.

THE VICTOR, owned by P. Levesque, has been opened on an outcrop 12 ft. wide showing galena and iron pyrites. The lead has a strike of N. 16 W., and has been stripped for 15 ft.

The former trail to Standard Basin goes from the Carbonate Chief cabin, along the west slope of Keystone mountain, following an easy grade. About two and a half miles from the Carbonate Chief the trail to Goat mountain turns off along the south slopes of Keystone, and leads the traveller to the Silver Shield, Silver Bell, California and other claims. The is held by Messrs. J. I. Woodrow and A. W. McIntosh. It is located on a fine showing of galena. The lead has a strike of N. 69 W. and dips 67 N. E. The walls are graphitic schist. The ore carries 50 to 60 ozs. silver and 60 to 70 per cent lead per ton. 650 lbs. shipped to Trail smelter returned 50 ozs. silver and 58 per cent lead. A. W. McIntosh, who did the development work, stripped the lead for 100 ft. showing ore on the main vein all the way, and also on a stringer. The main lead is 4½ ft. wide. Two large open cuts have been made. There is a pay streak of 10 inches of solid galena, and ore through the rest of the vein. The schist is underlaid by lime, in which a crosscut tunnel has been started.

SILVER BELL.

This claim lies below the Shield, on the big mineralised zone underlying Keystone mountain. It is owned by Messrs. McIntosh, Woodrow and G. Johnston. A tunnel has been run for about 20 ft. There is 2½ ft. of iron sulphurets and galena. The ore is formed in the contact between lime and schist, the former constituting the hanging wall. An open cut exposes ore from 8 to 10 ft. A. W. McIntosh has a cabin convenient to the ground. Mr. McIntosh has done an immense amount of work on Keystone mountain.

OTHER PROPERTIES.

Above the Shield J. White has a claim showing nice ore on a 16-inch vein striking N. 40 E.

Further up the mountain is the California, owned by J. C. Montgomery, and which is one of the most promising prospects on Keystone. The lead is 10 ft. wide, and strikes N. 82 W. The ore is steel galena and carbonates, and has given high assays. The ore appears to occur in a dyke, with walls of chloritic schist.

Messrs. Laforme and Abrahamson Bros. have done considerable work on properties owned by them on Keystone.

GOAT MOUNTAIN

lies northeast of Keystone. J. C. Montgomery has a good showing of galena on the Bunker Hill, in a lead 4 ft. wide and which he has traced the full length of the claim. On the Homestake and Fortynine, same owner, there are croppings of copper and arsenical pyrites traceable for a mile towards Downie creek. At one point there is two feet of arsenical iron. Ore from the Homestake assayed $4.25 gold, 16 ozs. silver, and a little copper.

J. White has 50 ft. of open cut on the Republic, where he gets good gold values. This occurs in hydromica schist bounded by lime. Another lead on the same claim shows tetrahedrite and some nice ore has been taken out.

On the White Grouse J. C. Montgomery has taken out a ton of clean galena occurring between lime and schist. The development work consists of several open cuts.

EXTENSIVE MINERAL ZONE.

It is evident dioritic dykes permeate the schists in this locality, but on Keystone mountain they have not risen through the overlying limestones. All round the mountain is an iron capped zone from 100 to 300 ft. in width, which appears to indicate that the overflow of the dykes has permeated the upper schists with ores. There may therefore be large bodies of ores underlying these limestones, and if they are of anything like the character of the upper segregations in the limestone the ores should be of unusually high grade. The Silver Bell on the south side of the mountain and the Keystone on the north side appear to be located in the extremes of this zone.

(To be Continued.)

CAMBORNE GROUP.

Meeting of Northwestern Development Syndicate.

The adjourned meeting of the shareholders in the Northwestern Development Syndicate was held at Laurium on 15th.

J. D. Curtis presided as president. A. J. Scott was not present till later. It was resolved a committee be appointed for order of business. The purpose was to determine which report would be accepted and presented the shareholders first. They advised: First, report of auditing committee; second, report of Richard Rosskelly, who recently visited the property; and third, report of the business committee, which was to receive and pass opinion upon the proposition submitted by A. P. Rosenberger.

This action was accepted, and the chairman of auditing committee read a lengthy report. The only point of interest was that there is a shortage in Brock's account of $972.40 they were unable to account for.

Rosskelly's report was received with much interest, and apparently approved by all present. The greatest surprise in Rosskelly's report was the assay taken from the well defined vein for 60 feet of No. 12 tunnel on the Gold Finch, values being $23.87 in gold per ton. Next report of business committee was read, also proposition submitted them by A. P. Rosenberger, and it is quite evident the business committee, as well as board of directors, were fighting Rosenberger from start to finish. They made statements which were absolutely false and which were immediately contradicted by Rosenberger, who took the platform and addressed the audience at considerable length.

A motion was put by Judge LeGendre, and approved by other stockholders that Rosenberger's proposition be accepted, and voted upon, but Judge Curtis declined to put the question, claiming it was out of order. Such was not the case, but it was feared by the chairman and others that if the question was put it might be carried, and therefore suspend all present management from operations at the Camborne group.

The chairman suggested the meeting be adjourned till Tuesday, thereby giving shareholders time to consider Rosenberger's proposition, and to request him to make some changes.

Calumet, Mich., Oct. 16, 1903.

CARIBOO.

A Chat With an Old Timer.

The old timers of Cariboo and the Big Bend are always interesting to meet. On a recent visit to Ferguson we met one of them, J. H. Mcfarlane, who has a comfortable cabin at the junction of the north and south forks of the Lardeau River. Mr McFarlane says he reembers the Diller claim, opposite Barker's claim, above Barkerville at Cariboo yielding 1,224 ozs gold, in a ten-hour shift. Barker sank the first shaft on Williams Creek. At Richfield, a town on Williams Creek, big pay was got in the gravel from a depth of 10 to 11 ft. below the surface to bedrock. Williams located the old channel on Williams Creek, at a point where the mountain had slid and filled it, diverting the creek into the present canyon. Black Jack Smith had sunk a shaft away from the canyon and started a drift. Barker went into the meadow 600 to 1000 ft. below the canyon and sank a shaft on the ground which ran from 250 to 300 ozs a day. Hard, Curry, Diller and Loring followed with a shaft and struck the rich ground referred to, yielding 1,224 ozs, or over $24,000 a shift.

Between the canyon and Richfield there were nine or ten claims which paid well. The Point, Steel, Perrin and Thunder Peak claims made their money out of a hundred feet of ground each, though there were a good many claims also Richfield that never paid anything.

Rev. B. F. Wilson will shortly visit Revelstoke to give further addresses on socialism.

For sale by all druggists.

The Eva stamp mill at Camborne seems to be earning a big reputation for the Fish creek gold belt. A mining man who saw the mill in operation says the gold has been piling up on the plates since the mill started running, and the daily accumulation of amalgam now represents a large value. Though the management has given nothing out, it is stated the value of the crushing is about $500 a day, which would represent an ore yield of $20 a ton exclusive of concentrates.
