MATTERS AT THE MINES

Development Work Now Going On.

STAMP MILLS GOING IN

A Good Report From the Workings on Granite and Royal Canadian. Notes From Ymir.

J. Keith Reid has recently returned from Rossland after about a week's absence from Nelson and reports that, outside of the leading mines, things are rather quiet in the mining world there. When asked by a Miner reporter as to the showing on the Granite and Royal Canadian, two groups on Eagle creek of which he is in charge, Mr. Reid was able to give a most satisfactory report.

On the Granite a double compartment shaft is being sunk, which has so far attained a depth of 90 feet. The ledge which is between four and five feet wide shows no sign of narrowing, and very satisfactory returns have been obtained from it. The average returns from samples taken from time to time is $30 per ton. The ore is a free milling quartz, and shows no sign of turning base, thus when the mill is erected there should be a most profitable run. The ledge runs parallel to that of the Poorman.

On the Royal Canadian two tunnels are being driven, one of which is already in 300 feet. The ledges on this group contain similar ore to that on the Granite. Both groups, containing in all eight claims and a fraction, were acquired some little time back by the Duncan syndicate.

Mr. Reid further informed the reporter that it was intended next year, when more development work had been done, to erect a 20-stamp mill. In the meantime a 10-stamp mill is about to be erected, and tenders for its construction and also for the construction of a flume have been called for. The company are singularly fortunate in the matter of water power, as they have the control over 60 miner's inches of water under a 708 foot head. Thus there will be no fear of an inadequate water supply, and it will be possible to run the mill continuously the year around. The vein is rather wet and loose, but all difficulty from water is obviated by the steam pump which has been installed, and Mr. Reid considers that these characteristics augur well for the continuance at great depth of the free milling nature of the ore. Mr. Reid goes out to Eagle creek today to survey the proposed mill site, and lay out the location for a wagon road that is to be built.

YMIR NOTES.

Ymir, Aug. 31.—This district it seems intends to break the record for minor accidents. Arthur Styles, an employe at the Salmo sawmill, while at work yesterday was struck on the hand by a bolt, causing a compound fracture and considerable laceration. The wound is both painful and severe.

The post office was opened this morning in McLeod's new building on the corner of First avenue and Birch streets, which is a much more central position, and consequently more convenient for both ends of town.

CANADIAN BELLE BONDED.

A deal was put through in Nelson yesterday whereby the Wilson Bros., of this city acquired two claims near Ymir. The properties are the Canadian Belle and the Empire, and belong to Albert Sauvie of Ymir. The claims are bonded for $4000. The bond which extends over 12 months call for an initial cash payment of $400. A contract to drive a 50-foot tunnel is being let, and work will be commenced at once. The claims are situated about 1½ miles south of Wild Horse creek and almost join the townsite of Ymir.

SOMETHING WRONG.

Salmon Run in Myriads After the Season Closes.

Vancouver, Aug. 31.—On Thursday, August 25, the sockeye salmon fishing in British Columbia closed after going on record as about the worst season of any in the knowledge of the fisherman. That was yesterday, and there were no signs of fish. Now it is illegal to catch sockeyes and they are reported to be out in the Gulf of Georgia in millions before going up the Fraser river. Fortunately for the fishermen the minister of marine and fisheries has advanced the cohoe salmon season 10 days and on September 15 fishermen will drop their nets again and then all will be fish that comes to their nets whether it be cohoe or sockeyes.

THEY WANT TO KNOW.

Managua, Nicaragua, Aug. 31.—The diet of the Greater Republic of Central America has asked the government of Nicaragua for all the documents in its archives relating to the construction of an inter-oceanic canal across Nicaragua for the purpose, as El Liberal, (government daily newspaper) says, of "investigating the reasons why the United States of North America appear to have decided to construct the canal."

THE KHALIFA IS LAYING MINES

Cairo, Aug. 31.—The Khalifa, according to a despatch received today from Wady El-Oebeid, has laid torpedoes in the Nile below Omdurman and a large Dervish force is issuing from Kerreri, about eight miles north of Omdurman to meet the Anglo-Egyptian advance.

NICHOLAS' NOTE IS WEAK

Peace Proposals Not Acceptable Just Now.

THE FRENCH ENRAGED

It is Said That the Czar Was Inspired to Action by the Queen of England, Who Wants Peace.

London, Aug. 31.—The newspapers continue to devote large space to comments upon and criticisms of the czar's note. They generally agree the outcome will be a conference of premiers if not of sovereigns themselves, which will be followed by an expression of concurrence in the humanitarian aims of the czar and report resolutions to their respective governments, when the whole thing will be shelved indefinitely. The latest comments from Paris show there is intense irritation there on the subject. The czar's proposal is regarded as unfriendly and inconsistent with the Franco-Russian alliance.

It is alleged in some quarters that the czar's anouncement was directly inspired by Queen Victoria, whose greatest hope is that her long reign may not again be disturbed by war. The Queen confessedly has long sought to restrain Emperor William and it is not unlikely she used her great influence with the czarina to secure the czar's support.

CAUSES DISMAY IN FRANCE.

The Paris correspondent of the Times still insists that M. Faure and the French ministers knew nothing beforehand and that the czar's proposal has plunged the entire official world into considerable embarrassment and almost into stupefaction.

"Everybody," says M. DeBlowitz, "is asking with dismay what it remains. It is a sad awakening for France and her papers are making immense efforts to restrain their feelings in the face of what it regards as Russian perfidy."

ONE PROPOSED BY GERMANY.

The Daily Graphic says that Lord Salisbury, in 1888, communicated to Emperor William a memorandum showing the tremendous cost of armed Europe. Emperor William was so impressed that he privately intimated his intention to summon a disarmament congress. The semi-official German press ventilated the idea, with the result that so much animosity was shown on the part of France that the kaiser abandoned the project.

OPINION IN ST. PETERSBURG.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "The proposal is a victory for M. Dewitt, the Russian minister of finance, over Count Muravieff, the former having warned Emperor Nicholas that if Muravieff's provocative policy toward England was continued Russia would soon be bankrupt. M. Dewitt advised disarmament as a peace policy to enable him to carry out his plans for a gold standard in Russia and a rehabilitation of Russian finances."

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says: "Count Muravieff, the Russian foreign minister, declares that the idea originated entirely with Emperor Nicholas. There is much scepticism in diplomatic circles as to any practical results from a conference and it is admitted on all sides that the circular came as the greatest surprise."

SPAIN IS PLEASED.

Madrid, Aug. 31.—The Imparcial to day referring to the czar's peace note, expressed the belief that his majesty's pronouncement can hardly come from a mere dreamer.

It adds: "We urge Spain to pay close attention to the matter, as assuredly Spain is not the power least interested in it."

The Liberal is of the opinion that the czar's object was to avert a threatening rupture of views which prevail, adding: "The work of the Hispano-American commission in Paris is hardly worthy of comparison with the proposed conference, which ought to be attended by the United States as well as Europe; for should war break out and extend from the Mediterranean to the China sea Spain must awake in order to preserve the little she has managed to save from the ruin."

GERMANY ACCEPTS.

Berlin, Aug. 31.—The official Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, believed to have been inspired by Prince Hohenlohe, the imperial chancellor, declares the willingness of Emperor William and Germany to accept the invitation to attend the congress as proposed by the Russian emperor.

A MONGREL REPUBLIC.

The Central American Confederacy Restricts Liberty.

Managua, Nicaragua, Aug. 31.—The convention assembled at Managua to form a constitution for the confederacy to consist of Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua, has agreed upon 49 of the 149 articles. It has been agreed that the name of the confederacy shall be the United States of Central America. The decisions arrived at are as to what the people and the states shall not do; not what the people have conceded to the government of the United States, of Central America. They declare that there shall be no death penalty enforced by any state and that no state shall cede any of its territory. They bridle the liberty of the press and of public declarations of opinions adverse to the government. The work will not be completed until about November 1.

The Nicaraguan government recently impressed several persons from Leon and Granda, suspected of opposing the government. The authorities appear to be in constant apprehension of revolutions. Only a few days ago, according to El Liberal of July 30, several young men from this city were called before the inquisition on suspicion of plotting a revolution, and some of them were sentenced to the penitentiary.

Many of the principal importers in western Nicaragua, native and foreign, have called on the government during the last 10 days and urged it not to advance the duties on imports, which it had contemplated doing, 100 per cent on the present high rates, of which advance from 15 to 25 per cent is to be paid in gold. The importers do not know where the gold is to come from, in view of the fact that a large percentage of the growing crop of coffee, the only important export from Nicaragua excepting dry hides and India rubber, is pledged to the foreigners residing in other countries, who have advanced the money necessary to enable the planters to cultivate the coffee shrubs through ten six years of their growth from the nursery to the bearing state.

A MONTANA INCIDENT.

A Mail Carrier Waylaid and Shot Through the Body.

Sylvanite, Mont., Aug. 31.—About 6 o'clock this evening while Patrick Doran of Sylvanite was returning from Leonia with the mail sack on horse back he was held up and shot by Andrew Whitley of Troy. As Mr. Doran approached Whiltey, who was also on horse back, Whitley remarked:

"I am going to bore a hole through you," and commenced firing. Doran made an effort to grab his revolver when the horses took fright and started in opposite directions, Whitley firing one shot. Doran stopped to recover his hat which had blown off in the scuffle and seeing Whitley disappear, stopped to talk with Nick Michaels, an eye witness to the shooting. Whitley circled around through the bushes and headed him off, coming to the front with drawn revolver and demanded, "hands up," and commenced shooting. The first shot took effect in Doran's side, entering from behind after striking the lower floating rib and passed out in front, leaving an ugly wound. Mr. Doran walked to his place about three miles to have his wound dressed, and not until he reached here did he realize its seriousness. He is resting comfortably under the influence of an opiate. A posse of officers were at once deputized and started after Whitley who is supposed to be hiding somewhere in the mountains. Some say that he has fled to Canada.

OPPOSES PROHIBITION.

Goldwin Smith Says That is an Interference With Personal Liberty.

Toronto, Aug. 31.—In his opposition to prohibition Rev. Principal Grant has an able ally in Prof. Goldwin Smith. In the latter's personal organ, the Sun, he says that prohibition treads on personal liberty and always fails of its object, and argues that it will do more harm than good to public morals, concluding by saying that prohibition discriminates against the lighter drinks, such as wine, beer and cider, and in favor of whiskey, because the bulk of whiskey being less, it is more easily concealed. There are other intoxicants, such as opirm and chloral, which would be likely to increase when liquor was withdrawn.

K. OF P. TROUBLES.

The Report of the Commitee Indicts Supreme Officers.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 31.—The committee appointed to investigate the administration of the affairs of the supreme lodge of Knights of Pythias will make its report tomorrow morning. The report will be lengthy and will show that the supreme officers have been derelict if not guilty of wrong doing.

The re-election of John A. Hinsey of Chicago as treasurer of the endowment rank, is conceded. The lodge passed a resolution asking congress to make the uniform rank a reserve of the army second only to the national guard of the different states.

SPANIARDS LOST AT SEA

Fugitives From Malate Find Watery Graves.

They Boarded Transports Under Tow for Manila and Were Cast Off in a Storm.

Tacoma, Aug. 31.—The Hong Kong Daily Press is authority for the statement that 900 Spaniards, including 16 priests, lost their lives several weeks ago when the Spanish gunboat Leyte was captured by a vessel belonging to Admiral Dewey's squadron.

The Leyte had been stationed at an adjoining island where the insurgents were numerous and aggressive. The latter were gaining ground rapidly, causing 900 Spaniards to embark in three transports in an endeavor to escape from the natives, who would massacre them. The Leyte undertook to tow the two transports to Manila bay, where Spaniards aboard them were to surrender to Admiral Dewey if they did not succeed in reaching Manila under cover darkness.

The Leyte towed them down Pampangas river and some distance along the coast. A heavy storm came up, making it necessary for the Leyte to cut off her tows and proceed to Manila for assistance. Before getting there she was captured by the Americans the next day, and an American vessel was despatched to find the three transports, but failed to discover any trace of them. The natives on the adjoining coast say they saw nothing of any vessels. The Hong Kong press finally reached the conclusion that the vessels foundered with all on board.

A RABBI KICKED TO DEATH.

He Sought to Save a Child From Brutal Assault.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Seeking to save a child from the attack of a 17-year-old boy, Louis Rosenbloom, a Jewish rabbi and a teacher of Hebrew, was himself assaulted and kicked to death.

John Schlechta, charged with the murder, lives with his mother at No. 23 De Koven street. In the same house lives a family named Levi, and Rosenbloom had been intrusted with the education of one of the children of the family. Young Schlechta had locked three-year-old Julius Levi in a shed and when the child's mother objected he struck her in the face. Hyman Levi, 11 years old, the boy whom Rosenbloom is teaching, interfered in his mothers' behalf and he was kicked into the street.

At this juncture the teacher ordered Schlechta to leave the boy alone. Schlechta turned to Rosenbloom and struck him in the mouth, then followed the blow up with a fierce attack with his heels. Rosenbloom rolled into the street and tried to regain his feet, but he could not rise. Schlechta was upon him and renewed the assault. Half a dozen young men loitering in the vicinity took a hand in the attack and did not desist until the clang of a patrol wagon bell warned them of the approach of the police.

By the time the officers arrived they had all fled and only Rosenbloom was in the street. He was picked up and died before the wagon could be started for the hospital.

THE HOLLANDERS' PRIDE.

Thanks to the Nation for Loyalty to the Youthful Queen.

The Hague, Aug. 31.—The queen regent of Holland, in a proclamation just issued upon the occasion of the end of her regency—her daughter, Queen Wilhelmina, coming of age tomorrow—expresses warm pleasure at seeing the whole nation "ranged joyously around the throne of the young queen," thanks God that her dearest wish has ben heard, and after thanking the people for their loving and faithful support of herself, invokes God's blessing upon the youthfiul sovereign, and concludes: "May our country become great in everything in which a small nation can be great.

NO TRACE OF ANDREE.

Tromsoe, Norway, Aug. 31.—The steam whaler Fritjof having on board Walter Wellman and members of the expedition to Greenland, has resumed its voyage after landing an expedition at Cape Tegethoffon, the southern point of Hall's island. While the Wellman party were returning they met an expetition to Franz Josefland under Dr. A. G. Northorst at Koneligskar island and were informed that all search for Andree, the missing balloonist, had proved futile.

A POINT OF VERACITY.

When men fall out those around them have not to wait long for the conflicting versions of the cause. We have had Mr. Turner's views of his dismissal and those of His Honor the lieutenant-governor and now, as a side issue, comes young Mr. McInnes' version of his interview with Mr. Turner. The latter says that young Mr. McInnes visited him for the purpose of suggesting a ccalition government of which Mr. McInnes, M. P., of Nanaimo, could be made a useful member. Young Mr. McInnes declares that he made no such proposition, but that Mr. Turner suggested a coalition and drew up a list of names in which, doubtless, the name of Mr. McInnes, M. P., figured, though the young gentleman does not say so.

The offence that young Mr. McInnes committed was in visiting Mr. Turner at so critical a time, but having visited him it was doubly offensive on his part to discuss public questions with the defeated minister. Young Mr. McInnes occupies the position of private secretary to his father, the lieutenant-governor. The position of private secretary is one of a confidential nature and demands circumspect conduct on the part of the incumbent at all times, but in this instance, when the secretary in question is in the entourage of a governor of a province, within whose purview come grave matters of state, it is imperative that the secretary move with the utmost precaution, a faithful custodian of such secrets as his position may have put him in possession of. Young McInnes' conduct during the critical time through which his master, the lieutenant-governor, has just passed is shown by his own admissions not to have been prudent. He dabbled in affairs which were not his business unless he had inscructions to make them his business. Who can tell, the ways of politicians are so devious? As the case at present stands Mr. Turner says to Mr. McInnes, "you did" and Mr. McInnes cries, "I didn't." Between the two the point of veracity is lost.

A VAIN HOPE.

The wish is evidently father to the thought with the opposition party and press that there will be another appeal shortly to the electors of the province, and this belief is based on the supposition that with another opportunity the result might prove different. There is nothing to warrant this. On the contrary there are strong indications that another appeal to the people would accentuate the deserved disaster which an indignant people visited upon the Turner government. Clique rule can never be successful. It may dominate and dictate for a time but its arbitrariness compasses its destruction. An impressive example of this is found in the experience of the conservative power at Ottawa. After Sir John Thompson's death a clique at the capital undertook to rule. Whoever was not for them was considered against them and was treated accordingly. This soon became intolerable and the people, who cannot be deceived all the time, seized the first opportunity of driving from office men whose courses proved them unworthy of public confidence. It was the same with the Turner government. That gentleman is personally beyond reproach. He sought no gain for himself and cannot be charged with having consideration for personal profit. But he was culpable, inasmuch as he did not restrain those associated with him from a covetous desire to divide among themselves and their friends for their own enrichment the resources of the province. There can be no honest defense of this great public wrong or any palliation of it. There will be no return to the methods of the former government. The people have shaken off the men who were responsible. They look for something better and they will get what they look for. So the friends of Mr. Turner will best serve him by accepting the verdict as it stands, for no appeal could alter it.

GOLD EVERYWHERE.

The recent find at Atlin lake, near lake Tagish, in the northern part of British Columbia, of rich placer deposits, carrying purer gold by $3 to the ounce than that found in the Klondike, is sufficient evidence to warrant the belief that placer gold is not confined to one district but underlies the greater part of the country, awaiting discovery by those experienced enough or lucky enough to find it. It is useles to speculate how the precious metal came to be distributed over so large an area in such quantities as search in the Yukon and Tagish districts reveals. Whether by glacial action or by disintegration of "mother lodes" or whether cast up by volcanic action and carried along the water courses to work its way by force of gravity to the underlying clays and bed rock are questoins of little moment. Gold has been shown to lie in places where it was not supposed to lie and all theories as to the cause are sunk in the consideration how best to secure as much of it as possible and then to hunt for new diggings. We have been told that the Yukon region comprised the most important gold placer deposits in the world. Five hundred miles this side of Klondike creek equally rich deposits have been found and to come nearer home, there are indications of rich placers at Rover creek, a few miles from this city. Their value has yet to be determined but the specimens already washed out are enough to satisfy the most sceptical as to the undoubted fact that British Columbia has within its boundaries the greatest gold bearing areas ever known in any land, from which, within the next few years, will come enormous gain to the world. There can be no doubt about this. Quartz mining is one of the busiest industries in this province, especially in the interior where thousands of men find employment in the mines. Placer mining will undoubtedly attract as much attention if not more, for the reason that no capital to speak of is required to engage in it. The banks of Pine creek flowing into lake Atlin were found to be filled with gold like currants in cake, and of this was the case there, why not on creeks flowing into the Columbia and Kootenay, which for ages have been carrying down gold among the detritus from the everlasting hills. Time will tell. Keen eyes and eager hands are now at work every where and there is promise that most of the soil of this province will be overtured within the next few years with advantage, it is hoped, to the patient and persistent men who do the work. One thing is certain, the Cassiar region, always looked upon as a most promising region, has come up to expectations. It is in British Columbia and the entire province must benefit more or less from the rapid expansion which must ensue there. Fortunately the rich land still belongs to the people, the Turner government not having lived long enough to give it away to some needy friend.

The Toronto Telegram discusses British Columbia politics with more intelligence than any eastern paper. This is because the observant and able editor of that paper, Mr. John R. Robinson, visited British Columbia and studied affairs for himself, so that he now brings exact knowledge to bear instead of inagination when he sits down to discuss B. C. subjects. Therein he outclasses reputed authorities in the east.

The conservatives are organizing, which is a very necessary and useful precaution. But when Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper takes the lead, how are conservatives going to reconcile support of him, a very recent newcomer, with their denunciation of Hon. Joseph Martin as one who was not long enough in the province to take part in its public affairs.

The Rossland Miner, poor anxious soul, is agitated about the ministerial elections. There is no cause for alarm. They will be held in good time and will pass off without a hitch and the best government British Columbia ever had will immediately proceed to business.

It also looks like a defeat for the McInnes family.

As will be seen by a notice in another column, application is being made to the legislative assembly of British Columbia for a charter to construct a railway from Trail to Sayward on the Columbia river thence to Salmo and from that point following the Salmon river to its junction with the Pen d' Oreille river.

The Rev. A. E. Green, the British Columbia provincial organizer of the Dominion alliance for suppressing the liquor traffic has arrived in Rossland from the Boundary country. After organizing a branch in Rossland he is expected in Nelson with the same object in view.

QUIETLY WEDDED.

Miss Katherine Currie Becomes the Wife of Mr. W. M. Sproat.

There was a happy gathering at the house of Mr. A. Currie, Stanley street, last night, when, surrounded by members of her family and a gathering of admiring and intimate friends, Miss Katherine Currie was given in marriage to Mr. William Miller Sproat. The ceremony was preformed by Rev. Robert Frew. Mr. Sproat was supported by Mr. Fred Irvine as best man, while the duties of bridesmaid were duly discharged by Miss Teenie Currie, sister of the bride. The bride was tastefully attired and looked charming.

The ceremony concluded the company after sat down to the wedding breakfast, which the happy couple departed for Mr. Sproats new home on Ward street. Mr. Sproat, who is connected with the jewelry establishment of Mr. J. Dover, is well and favorably known in the city. At present Mr. Dover is absent from the city and the duties of management devolving upon Mr. Sproat, he was constrained to postpone his wedding trip until a more favorable opportunity.

STICKEEN CHIEF DISASTER.

Officers and Crew of the Vessel Have Been Saved.

It had been supposed at the coast that J. A. Mara, Captain Nesbitt, Purser Shields and Mr. Brownlee had lost their lives in the recent wreck of the steamer Stickeen Chief. Their numerous friends in Nelson will be pleased to hear that Captain Troup received a telegram last night containing the news of their safety.

While no details are as yet to hand it is understood that no lives were lost at all.

HARSH MEASURES.

There has been a good deal of comment in the town lately over the action of certain justices of the peace in outlying districts who have sentenced men to varying terms of hard labor for very trivial offenses. As some of these cases may shortly come before the public judically, it is not intended to make any further reference to the matter just now. In the meantime some of the aforesaid justices would do well to revise their ideas of what constitutes a vagrant.

A ROAD WANTED.

Those located in the vicinity of Forty-Nine creek are desirous of having a wagon road and ask the government to provide it. At present great difficulty is experienced in getting in supplies, which would be greatly simplified by the construction of a road. At present there is a road from Sandy creek to Eagle creek and the sum required to extend this road to Forty-Nine creek would be small. The request should receive attention in the proper quarter.

NOTICE TO GROCERS.

The grocers of the city are requested to assemble in J. A. Irving's store on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, to discuss the advisability of forming a grocers association.

REBELS NEARING CANTON.

Hong Kong, Aug. 31.—The Kwang Si rebellion which has been quiescent for some time, shows signs of serious recrudescene. The rebels are in great numbers 50 miles northwest of Canton. and are preparing to atack the city. Tan, the viceroy of Lang Kwang, protested against the surrender of Kwang Chow to the French, and when the foreign office insisted upon the surrender, Tan telegraphed his resignation to Peikn and handed his seal of office to the governor of Kwang Tung. The vicreoy of Canton, having failed to despatch troops to supress the rebellion in Hainan and protect the American missionaries, the United States consul at Canton has made strong representations to the acting viceroy demanding the prompt suppresion of the general disturbances. The uprising appears to have been fostered by the Triad and White Lily societies, which have combined for the purpose.

PRIEST RULE IN MANILA.

Moral Sanitation Demands the Expulsion of the Monks.

London, Aug. 31.—The Philippines Islands committee of Europe addressed a letter to President McKinley regarding the appeals made to him by high Roman Catholic ecclesiastics in America to protect the religious orders in the islands. The expulsion of the friars, the committee contends, is "a necessary antecedent to moral sanitation." The letter names particularly the archbishop of Manila and the bishops of Neuva Segovia and Neuva Casseres, "whose acts of hostility against both natives and Americans, and against the Jesuits and other respected religious institutions are condemned by everyone."

The committee urges President McKinley to "aid the Filippines to suppres the immorality of the diabolical institutions fostered by these monks" and the letter concludes as follows, "your name can never be associated with that of those friars; and the sense of right of the noble nation at whose head you are placed, will never permit the ever-victorious and humanitarian Stars and Stripes to protect them."

CARNEGIE'S PROPOSAL.

London, Aug. 31.—The Times publishes a letter from Andrew Carnegie, who advocates an exchange of the Philippines for the British West Indies, urging that England and the United States should retain coaling stations in each and that an open door should be preserved.

"Such a project," says Mr. Carnegie, "would naturally be dependant upon the assent of both populations; but this assent seems probable."

REBEL RAIDS AT MANILA

The Insurgents Pillaging Spanish Homes.

AGUINALDO IN FAVOR

Merritt Allows Him to Have a Representative at the Paris Conference—The Spanish Commission.

London, Aug. 31.—A despatch to the Daily Telegraph from Manila, dated August 27, says:

All the outskirts of Manila are in a state of complete anarchy. The insurgents are hunting Spaniards and pillaging their property, while the natives generally are sacking villages, robbing vehicles and stealing horses.

REBELS TO BE REPRESENTED.

The Manila correspondent of the Times says: General Wesley Merritt's last official act before leaving was to sign a permission for the insurgents to send an emissary to represent them at the Paris grand commission. General Aguinaldo has sent an agent to Hong Kong to inform Felipe Agoncillo, the insurgent leader, of his appointment for this duty.

THE PHILIPPINES.

Madrid, Aug. 31.—Senor Sagasta had a long conference with Lieutenant General Correa, minister of war, on the subject of measures to assist the Spanish officials in the Philippines, whose situation is precarious. It was ordered to entrust two officers of the colonial army with the registration of the lands and similar duties.

So far as possible commissioners will be appointed who are conversant with international law, financial matters and colonial questions, especially regarding the Philippines. In fact this last point will largely determine the choice of commissioners.

Nine P. M.—The cabinet council did not meet today, and the names of the Spanish peace commissioners are not yet definitely known. Senor Sagasta consulted with several politicians on the subject and they prepared instructions for the commission. The opinion regarding the American commissioners held here is that they will have a tendency to treat Spanish interests harshly, but are nevertheless likely to carry out President McKinley's ideas.

SAGASTA CRITICISED.

Havana, Aug. 31.—La Lucha, commenting on Sagasta's intention to prevent the cortes discussing the incidents and results of the war and to forbid the press to publish the parliamentary debates, criticises this attitude strongly and condemns Sagasta's "autocracy and absolutism."

La Lucha says: "The sultan of Morrocco pales into insignificance in comparison with the Spanish premier. Nevertheless it must be admitted that in the present state of affairs Sagasta's policy of muzzling the country and the press is only one that could possibly succeed in maintaining the consolidation and unity of the country."

Tomorrow will be General Blanco's birthday. He celebrated it in advance by a gift of $500 to be used in the purchase of food for distribution among local charitable institutions. His generosity is much applauded.

Havana business houses and private citizens subscribed during the blockade the sum of $500,000 toward the improvement of the navy, but the opportunity to utilize the fund in that way having passed a meeting yesterday was held to consider appropriating the fund to the erection of a new and magnificent Spanish club.

THE REMAINS OF COLUMBUS.

The papers are greatly agitated as to the disposition of the remains of Columbus, and it is understood that the Duke of Veragua, the only living descendent of the discoverer of America, will request the privilege of removing them from Havana cathedral and carrying them to Spain, there to deposit them with the remains of other illustrious Spaniards.

The general impression is that the remains are not to be included in the surrender.

WITH SWORD IN HAND.

Is the Only Way England Can Curb Russia in the Far East.

Pekin, Aug. 31.—A high member of the Tsung Li Yamen, who is a British sympathizer, complained in the course of a recent interview that Great Britain's assurance of support aaginst Russian aggression is rather belated.

"Why," asks this functionary, "withhold such a declaration and Russia has secured Port Arthur when France has obtained considerable concessions in the south. The disintegration of the empire has begun and the necessity for strong action is less urgent than when Russia first obtained a foothold." He admitted that China had broken her promises to England, but this, he argued, was because Russian pressure was too strong to be resisted. He complained of "British ignorance of Russia's line of action" and said: "Why does England not approach Russia directly with a declaration that Russia's interference in China will be regarded as a casus belli? It is useless to punish helpless China and to participate in the disintegration of the empire. The Tsung Li Yamen prefers that British influence should be paramount, but it is unable to do anything unless England helps with sword in hand."

CRITICISED HIS SUPERIORS.

This is the Charge Made Against General Miles.

Washington, Aug. 31.—When General Miles returns to Washington he will be asked for an explanation of certain interviews appearing and the publication of certain despatches which the war department has not made public. Whether the investigation will take the course of a military court of inquiry or a private interview with the president, the secretary of war and General Miles remains to be seen. Until the arrival of General Miles the war department will not discuss the matter. Secretary Alger says the department will not enter into a controversy with its subordinates and he does not propose to discuss matters affecting General Miles during his absence. The department is of the opinion that General Miles made public the despatches of the secretary, General Shafter and himself, published this morning.

General Miles may also be called to account for the interviews with him, as, unless disavowed, they would place him in the attitude of criticising his superior officers and so subject him to military discipline. It is expected that the controversy will extend to both houses of congress and it is feared will have an adverse effect upon the legislation which will be asked to better the army.

THE LIBERAL ORGANIZERSHIP.

Toronto, Aug. 31.—The retirement of W. T. R. Preston, from the provincial librarianship, has given rise to gossip to effect he will resume his old position as liberal organizer, displacing Alexander Smith, who has looked ofter liberal interests in that respect for some years. The evening papers published a story to that effect; inquiry shows, however that there is no foundation for the rumor, so far at least as the retirement of Smith is concerned.

THE SCORNFUL SPANIARD.

Washington, Aug. 31.—Telegraphic advices were received at the state department today to the effect that Clara Barton, of the Red Cross society, arrived at Havana yesterday in the steamer Clinton No. 2, with supplies for the starving inhabitants of Cuba, and that the Spanish authorities at Havana refuse to allow the supplies to be landed and imposed a fine of $5000 upon the master of the relief ship because he had no manifest. The vessel cleared from Santiago for Havana.
