BRITISH OPINION.

LONDON WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS' PRO-AMERICAN COMMENTS ON THE WAR.

he Speaker Says the Ultimate Results of the War Cannot be Doubtful—The Spanish have a Pre-arranged Plan of Operations—No Coal for Spanish Fleet to be got from Newfoundland.

London, May 20.—The weeklies continue their pro-American comments on the war and its international developments.

The Speaker says:—"The ultimate results of the war cannot be doubtful. Any check the United States may receive will only increase its determination to persist. The intervention of the powers would make that determination unalterable, and if European complications bring on a European war, every great power in Europe, except ourselves and Germany, will find that Italy and Spain have found already, that its government is sitting on a volcano."

The Spectator discussing the Spanish crisis, says:—"The plain truth of the matter is that if Senor Sagasta could fail to protect Cuba or to induce some of the continental power to venture upon active intervention, he will be superseded by a military dictatorship or a revolutionary Junta." Referring to Mr. Chamberlain's advocacy of an Anglo-Saxon alliance, the Spectator declares: "We would welcome anything in the direction of strengthening the Anglo-Saxon race, not of security merely for Americans and English, but as a security that the best tendencies in social and political life will be given full play."

A SPANISH RUSE.

Reports Sent out from Madrid Regarding Movements of Fleet.

New York, May 20.—A special to the World from Washington says:—"The navy department has heard nothing that would confirm the Madrid despatch to the effect that the Cape Verde fleet had safely reached Santiago. The navy officials place no reliance on information from Madrid concerning the movements of the ships. A strict censorship is maintained at Madrid and any movement of their ships would not be given out. The report is regarded as a Spanish ruse to attract this government's attention from the real course of the fleet. Naval experts do not believe it was possible for the fleet to get into Santiago without the knowledge of the scouts and such a movement would be immediately communicated to Washington.

BIG FIGHT EXPECTED.

The Hostile Fleets Sure to Meet Within a Few Days.

London, May 21.—The Daily News directs attention to the great secrecy preserved about what is happening at the Canaries, where the cables have been seized and the news censorship is severe. It says: "The question now arises whether the reserve squadron from Cadiz is not already half way across the Atlantic. One thing seems clear; the Spanish strategists have a pre-arranged plan of operation while the Americans have been forced by circumstances into a defensive attitude. However it ought not to be difficult for Admiral Sampson to find Cervera. Thus it is possible there may be a big fight within a few days."

NO COAL FOR SPANIARDS.

Newfoundland Will Prevent Spain From Getting Coal.—French Ship Wrecked.

St. Johns, Nfd., May 20.—The government is taking steps to prevent the Spanish Cadiz squadron from getting coal in Newfoundland waters and will at once dispatch the colonial revenue cruiser Frona to patrol the south coast and report the presence of strange shipping.

The British warships are also preparing to visit there.

The French brigantine Dilnne from Sydney to St. Pierre, with a cargo of coal has been lost, with all hands, off Point Platte, Miquelon islands. The body of one of the crew was found on the rocks and a stern board bearing the name of the vessel was picked up in the same locality.

SPANIARDS EASILY PLEASED.

London, May 20.—The Madrid correspondent of the Standard says: "The success of Admiral Cervera in avoiding the American fleets and keeping them on the alert excites much enthusiasm, and causes the press to clamor for a prompt despatch of the reserve fleet to the front. Senor Sagasta will make a statement of the policy of the new cabinet today.

A BATTLE IMMINENT.

A FEW DAYS, PERHAPS HOURS, WILL BRING THE HOSTILE FLEETS TOGETHER.

Activity Among United States Ships at Key West—Rioting Feared at Havana—Spaniards Look for the Eventual Triumph of Spain—New Spanish Cabinet Meets.

Key West, May 20.—The meeting of the two great hostile fleets is the pivot upon which the situation now turns and that, a few days, perhaps hours, will bring them together, is the universal view here, at the base of operations. This view is confirmed by the news that Admiral Cervera's squa ron has reached Santiago de Cuba.

The intelligence which came today, does not affect the situation, but it was a singular coincidence that the activity among the United States ships was possibly heightened and the work of coaling and provisioning these in the harbor was rushed with more than usual haste.

The ships were surreptitiously creeping toward the open sea as the day waned and the ranks of naval men ashore were constantly thinning until at dusk there was scarcely one to be seen.

SITUATION IN HAVANA.

Business at a Standstill—Many Families Striving to Emigrate—Riots Feared.

Havana, May 20, via Vera Cruz.—The weight of the blockade is seriously felt here: business is almost at a standstill, and there is hardly any movement in the streets, which have a sort of holiday appearance. The parks are almost deserted, and there were very few people to be seen last week on the Plaza de Carmas at night, although the band played there and everything possible was done to keep up the spirits of the people. There are many families without means, striving to emigrate. Many are trying to borrow money from more fortunate people, in order to be able to pay their passage money. There is considerable feeling against the men who are desirous of leaving the city, and posted on the corners of the houses all over the town one may see such notices as the following: "Here are sold women's shirts for the men who are abandoning the Island of Cuba." There are thousands of men from the cigar, tobacco and other factories, out of work, and the authorities are employing as many of them as possible on the fortifications. The wharves are entirely cleared of merchandise, and there idle people congregate and enjoy the fresh air while talking over the war. The matter of feeding so many idle men causes the authorities considerable anxiety. When these men feel the pangs of hunger, rioting is sure to follow. Then too, the people here are looking forward with apprehension for the war to eventuate in the triumph of the insurgents. It is believed that they will wreak a terrible vengeance upon the Spaniards and their sympathizers. The bulk of the Spaniards, however, are filled with warlike enthusiasm, and are looking forward with confidence to the eventual triumph of Spain over the American forces. They have great faith in the strength of the Spanish fleet and the valor of the Spanish sailors, and are looking forward hopefully to the blockade being raised by a naval force sent from Spain.

SPANISH CABINET MEETS.

The War to be Continued as Long as Spain Retains Vitality.

Madrid, May 20.—The ministers in full uniform appeared in the Senate today. Owing to the circumstances under which the new cabinet assumed office it is already nicknamed the "circumstantial cabinet."

The premier, Senor Sagasta, explained the ministerial crisis and asserted that the new ministry would continue in the policy of the former ministry. He related how "Spain did everything to avoid war, until America, violating all recognized diplomacy, attacked Spain with an injustice unprecedented in the annals of civilized history and compelled her to respond to war with war, which Spain would continue to the utmost until an honorable peace is obtainable." This the premier continued "is a strong policy and the new government will also energetically conduct negotiations with European and other States."

Count Peravemario proposed the senate's congratulation to Admiral Cervera on his arrival at Santiago de Cuba and his clever dodging of the American squadrons. Capt. Annon, minister of marine responded in the name of the navy, highly extolling Admiral Cervera. In so doing he said the arrival of the Spanish squadron in Cuban waters would cement the friendship of the Cubans and Spain and will prove to the world that Spain will never abandon Cuba while the mother country retains her vitality." The congratulations were voted unanimously. A Spanish official, speaking of the engagement said to have taken place off Santiago de Cuba yesterday, previous to the arrival of the Spanish fleet says, the American warships were repulsed and some of them were damaged.

EXCITES SPECULATION.

Manoeuvres of Spanish Squadron Considered as a Ruse.

London, May 21.—Admiral Cervera's manoeuvre excites the keenest speculation here. In some quarters the whole story is regarded as a ruse designed to hurry up the Spanish government and the spreading of it broadcast is supposed to be some sinister move. The bulk of opinion however regards the news as authentic and is inclined to the belief that Admiral Cervera well knows that reinforcements are at hand, otherwise he would not have risked being bottled up at Santiago.

RUSSIAN HOSTILITY

To Possession of the Phillippines by either the United States or Great Britain.

St. Petersburg, May 20.—The public and the press here are evincing great interest in the future of the Phillippine Islands. Much hostility is manifested towards any scheme by which the United States or Great Britain should attempt individually or jointly to retain possession of the Islands, and some of the newspapers urge the Russian government to endeavor to obtain from Spain a lease of some of the Phillippines, in order that they may serve as a Russian food supply in the Pacific.

AMERICANS OUT-MANŒUVERED

The Spaniards well Pleased with Admiral Cervara's Manœuvres.

London May 21—The Madrid correspondent of the Daily News says: "Admiral Cervera has given the slip to the two powerful fleets that have been scouting the ocean for a fortnight in an endeavor to catch him. Admiral Cervera with four cruisers and a few torpedo destroyers, alone in the Atlantic, ignoring events in Cuba and in Porto Rico and the position of the American squadron has out manœuvered, disorganized and dispersed the latter, making the Americans believe they were threatened on every side.

SPAIN'S QUEEN IS PLEASED.

Madrid, May 20, 4 a.m—The Spanish fleet on arriving at Santiago de Cuba found there two American warships which retired with all speed. The Queen Regent cabled her congratulations to Admiral Cervera.

SPANISH AMMUNITION SEIZED.

Key West, May 20.—Over forty cases of ammunition were found today on the Spanish steamer Auguranto, captured during the first days of the war. It was on board this steamer that Lieut.-Col. Cortijo, Weyler's brother-in-law, was captured with other Spanish soldiers, now prisoners of war in Fort McPherson Atlanta.

EULOGIES ON GLADSTONE

THE REMAINS WILL BE INTERRED IN THE HISTORIC WESTMINSTER ABBEY.

Historic Episode in the British House of Commons—Sympathies Unbounded by Nationalities—Her Majesty Telegraphs Condolence to Miss Gladstone—King George Expresses Greek Gratitude.

London, May 20.—The eulogies on Mr. Gladstone formed an historic episode in the House of Commons today. There were more members assembled in the House than upon any occasion since the day when Mr. Gladstone himself introduced the Home Rule bill. They filled every seat, clustered on the steps of the speaker's dais, and the peers' gallery was crowded with the foremost members of the House of Lords. The United States ambassador, Col. John Hay, and all the members of his staff were among the diplomats present. After prayers, the House silently awaited Mr. Balfour for a quarter of an hour, and when he arose all heads were bared. Mr. Balfour's speech was remarkably eloquent and displayed great good taste, while Sir William Vernon Harcourt's enconiums on his dead leader were delivered in a most glowing style. The Liberal leader's voice broke thrice with emotion, and he was compelled to pause and wipe his eyes. Mr. Dillon was in his most oratorical style when he described how Mr. Gladstone's sympathies were unbounded by nationality, and embraced the oppressed of all races. The Irish benches responded with murmurs of assent.

In the House of Lords there was a full attendance of members. The Marquis of Salisbury spoke feelingly of Mr. Gladstone, who, he said, "was ever guided in all his efforts by a lofty moral ideal." Continuing, the premier said: "The deceased will be remembered not so much for his political work as for the great example, hardly paralleled in history, of the great Christian statesman." The Earl of Kimberley, the Liberal leader, followed with a touching tribute, and the Duke of Devonshire expressed his generous appreciation of Mr. Gladstone's services in behalf of the Liberal Unionists, saying that their severance from Mr. Gladstone was a most painful incident, but, he added, he could "recall no word from Gladstone which added unnecessary bitterness to the situation." The Earl of Rosebery delivered an eloquent panegyric on the dead statesman.

London, May 20.—It is now virtually decided that Mr. Gladstone's remains shall be interred in Westminster Abbey. The associated press learns that the family do not oppose the nation's desire, and that the only direction he left was that he should be buried at Hawarden, unless there was an unmistakable national wish for an interment at the Abbey. Mrs. Gladstone's only objection is the natural wish to be buried in the same grave devoted to her husband, and it is rumored that arrangements are in contemplation whereby this feeling need not prove an insuperable obstacle to the burial in Westminster Abbey. Mr. Herbert Gladstone is coming to London to arrange the matter.

HER MAJESTY'S SYMPATHY.

London, May 20.—Queen Victoria's message to Miss Helen Gladstone was as follows: "I am deeply grieved at the sad news. Princess Beatrice and I wish to express our deepest sympathy with your dear mother and all of you. (Signed) Victoria, R. I."

GREEK GRATITUDE.

Athens, May 20.—King George has cabled his condolence to Mrs. Gladstone, saying: "Greece is full of gratitude to the glorious phil-Helenist who did so much for her, and shares the grief of England, which is the grief of the civilized universe."

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 21,

CANADIAN SYMPATHY.

The British Empire has always been an asylum for refugees under any circumstances, The pages of history contain many instances of dethroned and fugitive monarchs of European states seeking refuge on British soil. In the days of slavery many a hunted slave made for the Canadian shore, assured that when once he got beneath the Union Jack his ruthless pursuers had no power to compel him to return. In every part of the world the protection of the British flag has never been denied to the oppressed. While this is true, the hospitality extended has often been abused. At the outbreak of the present war, the Spanish ambassador at Washington Senor Polo Y. Bernabe, crossed into Canada and took up his residence in Toronto. So long as he was content to obey the laws of the country, and live peaceably, there was no objection to his remaining as long as he wished. It now turns out that he is using his position in Canada as an office of war, and is watching the operations of the United States war department at short range. If the telegraphic despatches are to be relied upon, he has recently arranged for a Spanish coaling station on the French island of St. Pierre, off the south coast of Newfoundland. The matter was brought up in the Dominion House of Parliament on Wednesday and in reply to a question by Mr. Charlton, Sir Wilfrid Laurier stated that it had not as yet been brought to the attention of the government and that until it was the government did not conceive it was in any way bound to take notice of his presence here.

There is no doubt of the trend of Canadian sympathy in the present crisis. The interests of the United States and Canada are so closely allied in many respects that the boundary line between the two countries is only imaginary. The people of the United States are one with us in language, sentiment and the character of their institutions. Both are branches of the great English speaking family of nations and are sprung from the same Anglo-Saxon stock. In the war now being waged, although Canada is bound to be neutral and must be neutral, there is a strong feeling of sympathy for those who are our neighbors and who share the continent with us. This sentiment has found active expression in the offer of Lieutenant Colonel Baynes to furnish a full regiment of trained Canadian-American soldiers, who desire service in the Phillippines under General Merritt.

The United States has not always treated Canada in a liberal spirit in the matter of tariffs, and other questions affecting the trade relations between the two countries, but in times like the present when the supremacy of the Anglo-Saxon race is threatened by a combination of alien races, past dissensions should be forgotten, and an unbroken front presented to the enemy. As admirably expressed by Sir Charles Tupper in the Canadian House of Commons: "The interests of peace, of civilization and the best interests of the world will be promoted by the most cordial co-operation between the two branch nations of the Anglo Saxon race."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The reliability of much of the war news received may well be questioned, coming as it does from Spanish sources. It is certain, however, that both fleets are in West Indian waters and may come together at any time. One of the greatest naval battles of modern times may be expected within the next few days.

The death of Hon. W. E. Gladstone has called forth expressions of sympathy from every nation in the civilized world. Throughout the British Empire the deepest manifestations of grief are seen, and the action of the Imperial Parliament in requesting that the remains be interred in Westminster Abbey, among England's illustrious dead, meets with general approval. England has produced many great men but none greater than the man whose long and active career has just closed at Hawarden.

YMIR NEWS.

Interesting Notes from the Lively Quartz Creek Mining Camp.

Ymir, May 20—(Special).—The people of Ymir are spreading themselves for the grand celebration of the Queen's birthday on the 24th. An extensive programme of sports has been arranged by the committee, and some good purses have been arranged. The Nelson & Fort Sheppard railway have quoted a fare of 1 1-5 for the round trip from all points between Nelson and Marcus. Arrangements have been made with two pipers from Nelson, so we will have music galore. A large crowd is expected from Nelson, Rossland, Northport and other points. The main sports of the day will be the drilling contest, horse races, foot races, prospectors' race with 50 pounds, etc. etc.

Ore cars and steel rails for the tramway to be erected for the Tamarac mines were received here last night, and are being unloaded today and transported to the mine. The rails for the Dundee tramway were also received. This tramway is about ready for the rails to be laid, and then work on the 50-ton concentrator will be commenced.

It is not a very uncommon thing for one or two hundred of our citizens to gather on First avenue each evening and watch a horse race or a foot race. This shows that Ymir has a crowd who are fond of sport.

Building still continues here, and there are at the present time three or four new business blocks going up, and the MINER correspondent is informed that all the buildings were rented before the foundations were laid.

Ymir has always been able to boast of the best water in Kootenay, but in a few days we suppose our citizens will boycott the water and take to beer, as a large brewery is being erected on Second avenue.

A one-fourth interest in the Ollie was sold to J. P. Rogers, of St. Mary's, Ont., the first of the week. This property was formerly owned by T. G. Mills, of Nelson, and others. The deal was a cash transaction.

Mr. Mountain, of Nelson, Chief of Provincial Police, is here today. He is well pleased with Ymir.

DEADLY SNOW SLIDES.

Seattle, May 20.—Passengers on the steamer Morgan City, which arrived here today from Copper river, Alaska, report that two large snowslides occurred at the Valdes glacier on April 30 and May 1. About one hundred people were caught in the slides, but only three were killed.

Silverton leads all celebrations for the 24th. One fare for the round trip, good till 26th.

DIXI'S CHIT CHAT

There are no greater appreciators of the city improvements than the women of Nelson and neither mayor, aldermen nor contractors are aware of the careful scrutiny to which the public works are given, nor the amount of conversation which they cause among the sex whose ideas and opinions upon them are never taken into consideration even if they are at times, given a passing thought. From the opening of Ward street, the clearing up of the park, the grading of Water street, the improving of Baker street and,—but Stanley street is only half completed, let me say the lesser work being done on less frequented thoroughfares, the women have been cognizant of it all; have been inspectors of public works so to speak, such an interest, and pleasure too, have they taken in it all.

New homes are being built, lots and lots of them, small ones mostly and not of artistic architecture, many of them, in fact, to serve for kitchen quarters of a more pretentious dwelling in the future, but still they are homes with green grass in front and gardens dug up and seeded behind, and where homes are made people have come to stay. Rents have been high, as everything is, where the demand is greater than the supply, but building is not expensive and lots have never called for boom prices, so that the man with a sure income can, with advantage, buy his lot and put up his own dwelling, and the women are helping him.

Since the green has chased the snow away to the mountain tops and the great, grey, gloomy boulders have been covered up with soft moss and grasses, Nelson has become a very beautiful spot to the strangers, who came only in time to see the greyness of fall followed by the whiteness of winter, and who inwardly rebelled at the loftly enclosures that shut them from the rest of the world; but just a little prettiness, a gleam of brightness, and we forget that the walls were ever anything but beautiful. But, tell me, where are the wild flowers? Beyond those brilliant yellow cabbages (I think they are called,) with Johnnie Jumpuppy formed leaves, I have not seen one single wild flower; not a little hepatica nor a wood violet, nor an arbutus, nor even the plant of a columbine or a delicate fern. Surely, where so much water is and such cosy nooks for hiding places there must be blossoms. "Across the river," some one told me, "are to be found lovely yellow lilies like little bells," but perhaps it is too early for them yet. The river itself is a lovely creation, it takes such endless shades of green and ripples and dances with merry white-caps, when, suddenly, as calm as a mirror, it reflects every individual tuft and tree from the opposite bank, and then in tones of grey or sunny yellow it shows how the clouds are moving above. And the beauty of it is, that it can be seen from every part of the town—the farther away from its banks, the wider the view.

I have not yet learned what conditions of climate are treasonable in the Kootenays, nor what freaks of nature are never to be mentioned. In Manitoba, a newspaper writer never speaks of the cold, (excepting to say that it cannot be felt,) nor, should a cyclone, an August frost or a cloud of grasshoppers swoop over the prairie, such facts will never be commented upon by the press—that is "writing against the country," therefore treason. In Southern California and Texas it is "never hot" according to the daily papers, though one may be par-boiling in the garden or literally melting over a preserving kettle on the kitchen stove, when the mercury has run right up to its highest point and can get no further, and only humans have to indure the excess of fever or blood heats —hades heat likely, only not so registered, yet, write a column for a paper and dare to say the air is anything but laden with the perfume of orange blossoms and fanned by cool ocean breezes and your copy is thrown out, your place on the staff taken by another and you, yourself told in scathing tones that "such rot is treasonable" and no paper would be guilty of publishing it. It simply means we want to colonize our province, our state, we want people with money to come in and spend it, we want only the bright, the fair side to be known, but it is to be hoped the Kootenays will never adopt such a policy, the down right truth, or up right—as the case may be, is always best. So far, I've seen nor felt nothing to hide. November is ever a gloomy month, be where you may. March is a tiresome, changeable creature, but the winter with its steady sleighing and bright sunshiny days were refreshing and delightful; no double windows, no great bundling up, and no heart-sinking coal bills. Summer may be warm, but surely not so for month in and month out, and with the water and the woods and an absolute dearth of mosquitoes, a few days' heat with cool evenings cannot cause any great discomfort.

Supreme Court Judgment.—Another McLean Sentenced.

Victoria, May 20.—The fourth and last session of the seventh legislature of British Columbia was prorogued by Lieut.-Governor McInnes, this afternoon with the usual formilaties, and without other noteworthy incident.

The full court today gave judgment in the case of Henry vs. C. P. R., ordering a new trial, his appeal against a non-suit in the court below, in his action for damages for the killing of a horse being allowed.

Word comes from Telegraph creek that Hector McLean, a brother of the McLean brothers, who were hanged at Kamloops in the seventies, has been sentenced to three years' imprisonment for a murderous assault on an Indian.
