have special attention given to their shape-holding features. There's no sagging or wrinkling up the front. The shape stays firm until the coat is worn out.

This, with the fact that our Blue Serge NEVER FADES, makes it worth your while to call and look over our stock of summer suitings.

Curlew Butter

We are selling more of this Brand every day, and we are safe in saying it is by long odds the BEST Butter that comes to town.

We are sole Agents in Phoenix for the Curlew Creamery Co., and will handle no other brick Butter beside Curlew this season.

In order to get the Butter in perfect condition during the hot weather the Creamery people are now arranging for an Ice Chest on the Express into Phoenix, and on arrival here we immediately put it in our Refrigerator, so that it reaches your table in perfect condition—in fact there is none of it over forty-eight hours old when placed on sale.

35c. per pound

If you have not yet tried this Butter, we ask you to get one pound of it, for we feel sure you will become a steady butter customer in consequence.

Season's Fruits

We have made arrangements with the owners of Cliff Farm, near Marcus, Wash., for handling their entire crop, and they advise us that prospects were never brighter for a big output. The following is an extract from their last letter to us:

"We will have, as near as we can figure, 150 boxes of Cherries, assorted varieties, 100 boxes Plums, 100 boxes Italian Prunes, 100 boxes Hungarian Prunes, 100 gallons Currants, 100 gallons Gooseberries, 50 crates Strawberries, 50 crates Raspberries, 150 boxes Peaches, and 600 boxes Fancy Summer and Fall Apples. We will ship you nothing but first grade and quality, nicely packed, and will pick, pack and ship to you within 24 hours, so all perishable fruit will reach you nice and fresh."

In addition to the above, Mr. Morrin will be sending us from time to time Fruits and Vegetables from our Branch at Peachland, B.C., so that we consider we are in position to look after your fruit business this summer. Better drop in some time soon, and get one of our blank order forms, and fill it in with what you think you will require, and you will have no more trouble about your supply of Fruit.

GEN. MANAGER OF GRANBY CO.

Makes a Visit to Big Phoenix Mines.

Jay P. Graves Well Pleased With Progress Made.

Jay P. Graves, general manager of the Granby Consolidated was in town from Spokane this week, accompanied by A. B. W. Hodges, local manager, of Grand Forks. They arrived at noon on Wednesday, having made part of the trip in a motor car, and were met at the hills by a local conveyance.

It is some time since Mr. Graves' last visit to Phoenix, during which a number of changes and improvements have been made at the Granby mines. With Mr. Hodges and Superintendent O. B. Smith he spent Wednesday afternoon in a trip over the company's extensive properties here, viewing the self-dumping ore cars in operation on the 400-foot level, the recently installed aerial tram line for conveying powder, the new trackage and improved facilities for shipping purposes at the Curlew, etc. At the Granby smelter Mr. Graves was shown many improvements since his last visit, and where the company has inaugurated a series of improvements and enlargements to both buildings and capacity of furnaces, which in a few months will be able to treat 4,000 tons of ore daily.

Mr. Graves expressed himself as well pleased with the progress and general advancement made at both mines and smelter during the past year in economic mining and treating of ore, about a third more ore being handled this year than during the same months last year. The largest monthly tonnage during the first six months of 1907 was 72,820 tons (in June) while in March of this year 110,223 tons were shipped. He considered the outlook of the company and continued mining activity generally as very bright.

Mr. Graves and Mr. Hodges returned to Grand Forks on Thursday over the Great Northern.

General Manager Serenaded.

Learning of the presence in town of the general manager of the big industry of Phoenix, the city band availed themselves of the opportunity of serenading him, rendering several selections Wednesday evening at the company's cottage, Old Ironside's avenue, where he was a guest with Mr. Hodges and Mr. Smith. Mr. Graves received the compliments of the band very cordially, and made the generous donation of $20 for the furtherance of the organization.

The band which has just lately been organized has also been most liberally treated by Superintendent Smith, who has granted concessions to the leader and other members of the band in the company's employ, and encourages the organization generally. This has been much appreciated by the band, and on their first appearance in public (Wednesday evening) they created a favorable impression generally. It is the intention to give frequent open air concerts in the near future.

The reference of "postage stamp province" to Manitoba will shortly pass out of existence, and even the "prairie province" will be a questional appellation.

The boundaries of Manitoba are to be extended, and it is understood the Dominion government is considering the advisability of giving a larger addition to its area than was originally intended. Manitoba Liberals in the Commons have been urging for a large share of the district of Keewatin, and the government is now rather disposed to accede to the request and give Manitoba a greater portion of the Hudson Bay coast line.

The proposal now under consideration is to extend the eastern boundary northward to the Nelson river and thence along the river northeasterly to Port Nelson, giving the province the additional district from Fort Churchill south to Port Nelson. The northern boundary of the province will be formed by an extension east of Hudson's Bay to the present northern boundary of Saskatchewan.

The first issue of the "Standard of Empire," a weekly published in conjunction with the London (Eng.) Standard, a daily with 200,000 readers, is to hand. The new weekly is a departure in journalism, designed for overseas readers, and will contain comprehensive and reliable information of the British dominions. Imperial in scope, with a large circulation in all the colonies, the Standard of Empire will cover a field upon which it will have an opportunity of wielding powerful influence. Several of the cities in British Columbia are considering the using of space in the new weekly to advertise the advantages of their respective districts.

The Provincial government has complied with Lord Grey's request for a donation towards the nationalization of the Quebec battlefields, setting aside $10,000 as a subscription for that purpose.

There are to be no more arrivals of Japanese in Canada this year. The Dominion government has intimated to the Tokio authorities that the arrivals of Japanese since the beginning of the year have already reached the number agreed upon by Hon. Rodoipne Lemieux and the Japanese cabinet, as the maximum number of passports be granted in any single season.

The Dominion government has decided to give the people of Canada an opportunity of contributing to a fund for the assistance of the consumptives of the Dominion in a most original manner.

A special postage stamp will be issued next Christmas and will have a life-time of only three weeks. The stamp will be a five cent stamp but with the powers of the regular two cent stamp only. The extra three cents will be given to a fund to provide sanitariums for consumptives. This idea will no doubt meet with the very excellent response which it deserves at the hands of the people of the Dominion.

Stranger Than Fiction.

A preacher at the conclusion of his sermon said, "let all in the house who are paying their debts stand up." Instantly every man, woman and child, with one exception, arose to their feet.

The preacher seated them and said: "Now every man not paying his debts stand up." The exception noted, a careworn, hungery l'oking individual, clothed in his last summer's suit, slowly assumed a perpendicular position.

"How is this my friend?" asked the minister, "that you are the only man not to meet his obligations?" "I run a newspaper," he meekly answered, "and the brethren here who have stood up are my subscribers, and"——"Let us pray!" exclaimed preacher.—Ex.

IN THE TRAIL OF A TRAVELLER.

(Being the second installment of some observations made by the former editor of the Pioneer, while enjoying a vacation.)

Among the places in the state of Washington, which we visited, one of the most interesting was North Yakima, on the Northern Pacific railway, and in the heart of the irrigated fruit growing district. Yakima fruit is literally famed all over the world, not only in New York, Boston, etc., but in England, France and Australia.

It was 13 years ago that we first stopped in North Yakima, and in that time the place has indeed made most emarkable strides in every way. It enjoys the distinction of being the only city of its size in the state where the banks did not issue clearing house certificates at the time of the country-wide financial stringency, last fall. With over $3,000,000 in deposits in its five banks, and every one doing well, it had no need to resort to "wooden" money.

With three, four and five storey blocks, and electric street railway system, two daily and several weekly papers (all creditable sheets, too), with crops of fruits that practically never fail, the 17,000 people in the community seem to be unusually forward.

In 1895 North Yakima had perhaps 5,000 people, and its present condition is in great and favorable contrast. And it was all built from profits from the big red apple, pears, peaches and other fruits—and built in a solid and lasting foundation.

Some of the stories of profit in fruit raising told in North Yakima are difficult to believe, but when $1,000, $1,500 and $2,000 per acre is refused for a bearing orchard, there must be something to it, after all. And there certainly is, for one can drive for miles through the orchards and note comfortable, almost palatial, residences, costing $5,000, $8,000, $10,000, and even $12,000 each—and each surrounded by one of those gold mines, here called fruit orchards.

We were told of a man from the coast who had got tired of his old business life and would try fruit culture. He paid $18,000 cash for a bearing orchard of 20 acres or thereabouts, and found later he was thought to have been badly stung by his new neighbors at the price paid. Indeed, he was afraid so himself, after hearing its constant reiteration. But he applied business principles to apple raising, and mark the result. His first crop netted him $16,000; his second crop last year brought in $30,000, and this year he expects to do as well—$76,000 in three years on an $18,000 investment. Netting $300, $500, $1,000 and up to $1,500 per acre seems to be a common thing here.

It is almost enough to make an ordinary newspaper man mortgage his pastepot and shears and try to break into fruit raising. For even members of the fourth estate like to make more than a living once in a while, though mighty few of them make more than that in a lifetime.

GRANBY COMPANY BY COPPER CRITIC

One of Most Magnificently Managed Enterprises in The World.

G. L. Walker, in his copper letter in Boston Commercial, has the following to say of the Granby Consolidated:

Granby Consolidated directors have declared a dividend of $2 per share. This is the first dividend since September of last year, when $3 a share was paid. The company is now producing more copper than at any previous time in its career, its output being at the rate of 30,000,000 pounds annually. As its copper now costs about 8 cents, the company must be earning at the rate of $1,400,000 annually, or better than $10 per share for its stock. It is quite probable, therefore, that the company will contiuue the quartly payments of $2 a share uninterruptedly in the future.

Improvements which are now under way on the Granby smelter will be completed in September, aud will enable the company to produce 36,000,000 pounds of copper annually thereafter at a cost of 8 cents per pound. This will give it earnings of $1,620,000, or $12 per share with copper selling at 13 cents. At present the company is running 7 of its 8 furnaces, and treating about 100,000 tons of copper monthly.

Recent diamond drilling has proved that the great ore body of the Granby extends entirely through the ¾-mile of intervening space between the Old Ironsides and Knob Hill mines on one side to the Gold Drop on the other. This ore body is from 100 to 400 feet thick, and in the area mentioned contains tens of millions of tons of ore.

The statement published recently that the Nichols Copper company and American Metal company are making profits out of the handling of the Granby product, while true literally, was evidently intended to convey an entirely erroneous impression. These companies aim to make a fair business profit out of all the bullion they refine and all the copper they sell, but there is absolutely no basis for the assertion or suggestion that any more money is made out of the Granby or higher rate charged it than is charged any and all other companies served.

The management of the Granby is above reproach. Indeed, it is one of the most magnificently managed mining enterprises in the world. The company is in splendid condition financially, and its available ore deposits are practically inexhaustible.

John Hayes Hammond.

John Hayes Hammond, the mining engineer of New York, receives a salary aggregating $800,000 a year, which is more money than any other man ever received for his personal services.

Men make millions on investments, or by manipulations, or speculation, but Hammond is the only man in the world who is paid so nearly a millon a year for his professional advice.

Hammond is the greatest soldier of fortune of modern times—perhaps of all times—and was model from which Richard Harding Davis drew his hero in "Soldiers of Fortune." He was born in San Franciso fifty-two years ago, and graduated from the Sheffield Scientific School at Yale. During his boyhood in California he heard and dreamed of nothing but gold, for the western coast was gold made during this period. Hammond has travelled all over the world, from Siberia to South Africa. He followed the course of prospecting in Australia during the boom days, and he was in the Transvaal at the time of the Jameson raid.

With Phillips, Frank Rhodes and George Farrar he was captured by the Boers and sentenced to death, to the great excitement of the whole civilized world. Oom Paul Kruger, under threats from Joseph Chamberlain, released the four upon payment of an enormous fine and sentence of punishment, says the Chicago Tribune.

Hammond came to New York and opened an office as a consulting engineer. He may be found now in a little room in the Empire building, and so great his knowledge of gold-bearing ore from all the great gold fields of the world that he is able to pass unerring judgment upon mines without visiting them.

His work is law to investors. If Hammond says "Yes" the financial kings will spends millions for purchase or development of gold mines. If Hammond says "No" investors will not spend a cent, no matter how tempting the offer may be. He has a corps of assistants who visit mines under question and make their reports to him.

Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good;" and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine it is unequaled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equaled.

ADVERTISING

IS NOT A LUXURY IT'S A NECESSITY

A merchant with a big store, a big stock of goods, clerks and equipment, who expects to do business without advertising, is like the man who pays a lot of money for fine gas fixtures but hopes to get along without having a meter put in and the gas turned on, "because of the expense." In both instances costly equipment will give poor results.

The cuticle covering the human anatomy is entirely renewed every few years—not a particle of the old skin remaining. A store undergoes this change every few weeks or months, according to the advertising enterprise of its owners. The progressive store of today is completely a new store as compared with itself a few months ago.

THE INTESTOR IN COPPER SHARES cannot afford to be without it. The Copper Handbook gives statistics and general information on one hand, with thousands of detailed mine descriptions on the other, covering the copper mines of the entire world, and the 40 pages of condensed statistical tables alone are worth more than the price of the book to each and every owner of copper mining shares.

PROVINCIAL.

Penticton has an orphans home.

Moyie will celebrate Dominion Day.

Emery Slack, a barber of Vancouver, aged 31, committed suicide.

Fishing is said to be particularly good on Kootenay lake at present.

Next year the C.P R. will spend two million dollars in improvements to its hotel at Banff.

The Miners' Union of Rossland will hold an anniversary celebration in that town on July 16th.

Sub-contracts have been let for the building of 31 miles of the Giand Trunk Pacific from Prince Rupert.

There will be no licenses issued for the sale of liquor in the various construction camps along the G.T.P. right-of-way.

People are going north from Ashcroft with all kinds of outfits. A lady was seen afoot the other day on the Cariboo road pushing a baby carriage.

George Watson, an inmate of the provincial home at Kamloops died there a few days since. He was for many years a teamster on the Cariboo road.

Charley DeBaro has sold his hotel at Granite creek to Gilian & Marcott for $3,000. De Baro in the old days took about $30,000 out of the Granite Creek diggings.

The Revelstoke Homing Club flew from Lytton recently, a distance of 223 miles the birds of W.A. Morris and J. D Sibbald coming in a dead heat doing the distance in 5½ hours.

The Milligan ranch on Lulu island was recently sold to R. A. Tretheway, of New Westminster, for the sum of $46,000. Mr. Tretheway intends to settle on the farm and cultivate it.

For two years Prince Rupert had an unbroken record of no deaths and no sickness, although during the time as many as 600 men, women and children have lived there. The first death occurred on May 27th, a man who had arrived to work on the railway.

The Revelstoke Mail-Herald says: The Columbia river is now about the high water mark of last year. With another week of hot weather the river will likely cover the railway line south to such an extent that the lake steamers will be obliged to make this city the head of navigation for a few weeks.

Seventy-five thousand dollars worth of timber, the property of the Patrick Lumber Company, of Slocan, is now floating towards the Pacific ocean, as the result of a boom breaking away. This represents about nine million feet of lumber, and the loss is such a heavy one that the company has been compelled to shut down.

A despatch from Chicago says: Mrs. Gunness, the murder-widow of the Brook Side farm, near Laporte, Ind., where 11 persons are known to have been assassinated, is alive and concealed in the neighborhood of Nelson, B.C. according to remarkable circumstantial evidence that came into the hands of Chief of Police Cochrane of Laporte.

On the ranch of Wm. Eccles, New Denver, is to be seen wheat growing to the height of 5 ft. 10 in. Col. R. T. Lowery measured the wheat this morning in the presence of the "Review" scribe. June 11 and wheat 5 ft. 10 in. high! Wheugh! In another month there'll be a bumper crop of fishing poles. On the same ranch clover is profusely growing to a height of 38 inches.—New Denver Review.

The Conservatives of Prince Rupert met recently formed an association and placed itself on record in favor of the province selling its lots in the Prince Rupert townsite at Prince Rupert. It also put itself on record as opposed to selecting a Couservative candidate to contest Comox-Atlin district at the next Dominion election in any way other than at a central point in the district the candidate named to be an actual resident of the district.

There is no material change at Prince Rupert, says the Empire published there. A few permits have been given people to erect small buildings on Center street. In "Knoxville" the people are living peaceably with them selves and taking care of all people who come to Prince Rupert needing beds and meals. "Vickersville" is quiet and needs a restaurant, it has a good lodging-house. Mechanics and good clerks and business men seeking work or location in which to do business should not come to Prince Rupert earlier than November, when it is more than likely lots will be placed on the market.

The Phoenix Pioneer is the only paper in the Boundary that prints all the news of the Boundary—and prints most of it FIRST.

B. C. MINING

Hydraulic mining on Wild Horse is in full swing.

Placer mining has commenced on Perry Creek.

The Eureka-Richmond, of Sandon, is increasing its output steadily.

Diamond drilling is in progress for the purpose of developing the Surprise and You Know, of the LeRoi Two group, Rossland.

The gross value of the output of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co., Ltd., of Canada, for nine months of its current fiscal year, which ends June 30, was $4,178,786, or $100,000 more than for the fiscal year 1907.

Interest in mining has been revived at Savona by the statement that the Hardy Cinnabar Mining Company has made a strike of $16 ore on its claim on Copper creek above the property of the company which operated some years ago.

When the Canadian Pacific liner, Monteagle, left Vancouver last week for the Orient, she had on board a consignment of silver from the Trail smelter. There were 50 ingots, each weighing 80 pounds in the shipment, and they were consigned to the Hong Kong bank.

A rich strike is reported in the Mollie Gibson group, Burnt Basin section. The strike consisted of a seven-foot chute of gold ore that will average $90 to the ton. A wagon road is being constructed to convey the ore 4½ miles to the railway at an expenditure of about $7,000.

An important development is taking place with regard to the Queen Victoria mine, situated on Kootenay river, about nine miles west of Nelson. This is a property with one of the largest showings in the country of low grade copper ore. During the past month eastern and English capitalists have been making a very careful sampling of the mine and recently there was shipped to the Northport smelter 100 tons of ore. On the result of this reduction will depend the future of this property. There is sufficient ore, if it is of pay grade, to justify the erection of reduction works at the foot of the hill close by the railway. Thus, by reducing its own ore in a similar manner to that of the Boundary mines, there is a chance of a steady profit, if worked on a sufficiently large scale.

A cup of BOVRIL will drive away that feeling of lassitude so common in warm weather. BOVRIL gives vigour and tone to the entire system.

FARMER AND HIS WIFE PRAISE ZAM-BUK

As a family balm and save Zam-Buk is unequalled, and should be on every Canadian farm. Mrs. C. E. Tibbs, of Oak Vale Farm, Winnipeg Beach, writes:—"We have found Zam-Buk a wonderful healer. I used it for a very bad burn on my hand, and by the next day the pain had gone and the wound well on the way to healing. My husband also used Zam-Buk for a nasty flesh wound on his arm which it healed. In several ways we have found Zam-Buk so healing and soothing that we would not like to be without it in the house. Before we could get Zam Buk in Canada, we used to write to England for it we thought so much about it."

This great skin healer is sold by all druggists and stores at 50c. a box.

MANY PEOPLE HAVE CATARRH OF KIDNEYS AND DON'T KNOW IT.

Backache, a Warning Symptom of Kidney Trouble.

Pe-ru-na Is Invaluable in Such Cases.

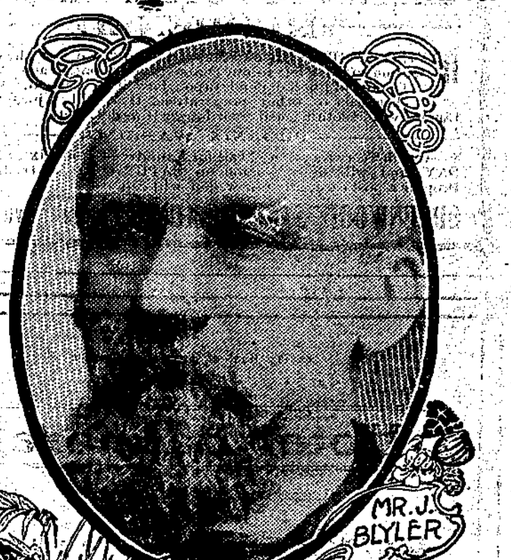
Prominent Persons Who Have Been Cured.

Mr. J. Blyler, 1505 Ohio street, Des Moines, Ia., writes:

"I wish to state my appreciation of your excellent remedy.

"I have always enjoyed excellent health, except frequent and painful attacks of bladder trouble, which doctors failed to relieve or cure.

"Upon recommendation I used Peruna to my utter satisfaction, not having had an attack now for four or five years."—J. Blyler.



MR. J. BLYLER

MR. L. BRANDL

Dangerous Kidney Diseases Cured.

WHEN the kidneys become affected by catarrh, either from colds, overwork, or an extension of catarrh from some other organ, they fail to perform their normal functions.

It is the work of the kidneys to excrete from the blood many of the poisons which accumulate in the body.

If the kidneys fail in their work, the poisons accumulate to such an extent as to cause convulsions, which often prove fatal.

Peruna, by relieving the kidneys of their congested and catarrhal conditions, leaves them free to act in a normal manner.

It also strengthens the action of the heart, equalizing the circulation of the blood in all parts of the system.

A remedy that relieves catarrhal derangements of the kidneys should certainly be considered a household remedy. Peruna is such a remedy.

High Commendation For Pe-ru-na.

Mr. C. B. Fizer, Mt. Sterling, Ky., writes:

"I have suffered with kidney and bladder trouble for ten years past.

"Last March I commenced using your Peruna and continued for three months.

"I have not used it since, nor have I felt a pain.

"I believe that I am well and I therefore give my highest commendation to the curative qualities of Peruna."

Neglected catarrh of the kidneys is apt to develop into Bright's Disease or diabetes, when a cure is almost an impossibility.

Catarrh of Kidneys Caused Much Suffering.

Mr. Leopold Brandl, 246 Bleecker street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I was sick three months with catarrh of the kidneys and lungs. I was treated by my home physician and relieved to some extent, but after I had worked again for two weeks, my old suffering—backache and pains in the right lung—returned. The dreadful cough which bothered me day and night lasted six months and no one could help me.

"I tried three different patent medicines, without avail. I could scarcely eat anything and slept only a few hours each night.

"A friend told me to take Peruna. I did so and the second day my appetite had improved. I took a teaspoonful of Peruna every hour, day and night, for three weeks. Now I have taken five bottles. I can eat enough for two people and am able to sleep well.

"Whenever I meet a sick person, I advise him to take Peruna. I thank you a thousand times for your medicine, as it was the only remedy that saved me. We continue to keep it in our family."—Leopold Brandl.

We have on file many testimonials like the ones given here.

We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements we are receiving every month.

No other physician in the world has received such a volume of enthusiastic letters of thanks as Dr. Hartman for Peruna.

Good advertising is the royal road for all who would attain success in business. Enthusiasm is just as vital in advertising as is blood in the life. Temper it, however, with common sense and a statement of facts, and you've the whole thing working properly. It is only the man who has done but little advertising who imagines that he knows all there is to be learned on the subject. The advertiser of experience is the one who admits that there is still something to learn.
