MORRIN, THOMPSON & CO.

C. P. R. IS AFTER WATER

May Build Long Tunnel From Loon Lake.

AND DELIVER AQUA AT EHOLT TANK

Or May Run Long Ditch From the Same Source in Summit Camp — Now Hauling From Greenwood.

For some months the C P.R. has been hauling water from Greenwood to Eholt, for the use of the locomotives at that point, the supply at Eholt having given out during the prevailing dry season. The railway company has been very much "up against it" in respect to a water supply, and efforts are to be made to remedy the trouble—even though the cost will be a pretty penny.

Plans are now in hand for the tapping of Loon lake, or Bear lake, in Summit camp, as it is known on the C.P.R. maps. This lake is not far from Eholt, but it would be an expensive undertaking. One plan is to run a tunnel, and so make a short cut through the hill, to a a point where the supply could be flumed. This would cost approximately $15,000, and would be a short cut.

Another plan is to run a ditch the entire distance around practically from three to four miles. As soon as the matter is definitely decided, work on he improvement will probably be started, as the C.P.R. officials have no wish to be troubled longer with the annoyance of a shortage of water.

Single Fare Return.

On November 21st and 22nd tickets will be sold at all C. P. R. stations Vancouver to Laggan and Crow's Nest including Kootenay Branches at single fare for the round trip, good to return till November 24th.

HOLIDAY ISSUE OF THE PHOENIX PIONEER.

Preparations are now being made for the publication of the Holiday Issue of the Pioneer.

It is the intention to make the number even more attractive than last winter's issue, which met with such a hearty reception all over the Boundary, and to that end we invite the co-operation of every business and mining man in Phoenix. The more liberally it is patronized, the better it will be.

This number will be profusely illustrated with half-tone engravings of mining scenes, business houses, etc.

CONSTRUCTION MATTERS.

One hundred men are employed on the track laying gang.

Three bents straight across, are now in position on the high Deadman's trestle.

By next Wednesday Contractor Shields expects to have the track laid to the Deadman trestle.

Porter Bros. have been awarded the contract for building the Great Northern passenger station in Phoenix.

Burns & Jordan are figuring on getting all their contract work here closed up by the 1st of January or sooner.

The No. 2 camp of Burns & Jordan, at Providence creek, will shortly be discontinued, as grading there is all but finished.

Johnson Porter and J. D. Porter, of the firm of Porter Bros., are looking after the bridge and trestle work at this end of the railway.

More that half of the 30,000 feet of cribbing behind the Pioneer office, has been placed on one side of the deep cut for the No. 4 tunnel spur.

Tonight the track will have reached the Oro Denoro mine, Johnson & Brandt having finished their heavy cut at that point last Wednesday.

Burns & Jordan have started the work of completing the grade on upper Dominion avenue, so as to make it connect in good shape with Victoria avenue.

Pile driving for the crossing of Dominion avenue in the lower town, which has been going on for a couple of weeks, is now well on towards completion.

Night work was started this week on the great rock cut on the first leg of the Great Northern switchback to the No. 3 ore bins of the Granby mines by Burns & Jordan.

It is probable that the last work on the entire Great Northern line to Phoenix will be the completion of the rock cut at the rear of the Pioneer office, for the No. 4 tunnel of the Granby mines.

The work of replacing the high tension power lines of the Cascade Co., at Coryell's ranch and near Fourth of July Creek, was started this week. The lines were moved a few months ago to be out of the way of the blasts of the near-by railway graders.

Sunday afternoon a construction train of a dozen cars got away, and 12 cars loaded with rails were ditched. One car is said to have run five miles into the Grand Forks yard and damaged an engine standing there, resulting in a loss of thousands of dollars.

Series of Free Meetings.

A series of meetings will be held in the Methodist church from Dec. 5th to Dec. 9th, every night at 8 o'clock. The Rev. W. W. Baer of Nelson will address the meetings on the following subjects: "What we may know about God and why men become Infidels;" "The Doubter;" "God in the Everyday Affairs of Men;" The Building of a Soul," and "Some Reflections on future Punishment," and others especially adapted to answer the questions of honest minds on the perplexing problems of religious life. No admission will be charged and everyone is very cordially invited to attend.

WHIRLWIND OF A TALKER

W. W. B. McInnis, M. P.P., Lectures the Socialists.

SENATOR TEMPLEMAN ALSO THERE

Man From Nanaimo Poured in Hottest Kind of Shot to the Followers of Ernest Mills, and Would Not be Downed by Interruptions.

Monday evening the Liberals held a political meeting at Miners' Union hall, which was by far the most notable held by that party in the campaign, and it was made so by William Wallace Bruce McInnis, M. P. P., of Nanaimo, who had been imported specially for this purpose by the Grits.

William Templeman, owner of the Victoria Times, senator at Ottawa, and member without portfolio in Sir Wilfaed Laurier's cabinet, was also present, and after the introductory remarks by the chairman, William Delahay, spoke for more than an hour. Mr. Templeman gave a clear exposition of the Grand Trunk Pacific project, now not an issue in this constituency, and the audience listened to him patiently regarding this and better terms for British Columbia and a few other things.

Mr. Templeman said also that he understood that considerable dissatisfaction was expressed locally because the government had not established a customs office of some kind in Phoenix. He remembered something of the kind being written to him on the subject a year or two ago, and had heard nothing of it since. (The letter books of the secretary of the board of trade show that many letters have been written to Mr. Templemnn and other officials on this subject.—Ed.) He said however, and he did not offer it as a bribe to secure votes for his friend, Duncan Ross, that he would look into the matter and give it every consideration.

R. B. Kerr spoke as usual for the Socialists, and paid his respects to the senator regarding the boasted postal service of the Laurier government, and illustrated, for instance, how the business men of Phoenix and Greenwood had been ignored in regard to communication between the two places, in requiring two days for the transmission of mail between the two, with two stage lines running every day of the year.

Mr. Kerr also gave his ideas of the principles of Socialism, repeating many things that had been said before in this campaign.

Following Mr. Kerr Thomas J. Hardy, spoke for the conservative side of the question, and stated that, while he had been a Liberal, he could not support that party now on account of the bad bargain made made with the Grand Trunk Pacific.

McInnis Did Not Mince Matters.

When Mr. McInnis took the floor it was eleven o'clock, and he spoke steadily and with great rapidity till midnight. At the Greenwood meeting of the previous Friday night, he had stated that he would speak directly on Socialism at Phoenix, and he certainly kept his word. Numbers were present also from Greenwood to hear him denounce Socialism and its principles, the hall being crowded.

Mr. McInnis' home town, Nanimo, is also—or was—a hotbed of Socialism, and he claimed that he had studied the question not only from books but close at hand. The Socialist vote at the coast had fallen off 50 per cent in the last year. He tried to depict what would be the result if an attempt were made to carry out the principles of Socialism, and figured it out that it was anything but practicable.

Mr. McInnis was interrupted many times, but in nearly every case his ready wit silenced the interrupter, and as he talked louder and faster than any half dozen men could ordinarily, he stood to his guns against all comers. Having the last speech of the evening, he successfully—to the satisfaction of the Grits, at least—made mincemeat of the whole fabric of Socialism, and no one could rebut his statements. He was undoubtedly the best and most entertaining speaker that has appeared here this campaign, and stood to his guns, notwithstanding that he knew he was practically in the camp of the politieal enemy, and that they were there in large numbers to rattle or disconcert him, if possible.

Miss Rogers has arrived from Butte, and will take charge of Miss Struve's millinery.

Boundary Mining Notes

A car of ore is ready to be shipped from the Silver Cloud.

Owing to the shortage of water, work has been temporarily suspended at the Emma mine.

A force of about 120 men is now employed at the Rawhide, Brooklyn and Stemwinder mines.

Both furnaces of the Mother Lode smelter are again at work after being idle a day or two for repairs.

The Hunter V. mine, near Ymir, is shipping daily to the Granby, as well as to the Northport and Trail smelters.

Manager McVicar, of the Last Chance, which recently resumed operations, is much pleased with the large body of ore he has opened up.

The Dominion Copper Co. is shipping ore from the Brooklyn and Stemwinder dumps to the Trail smelter, box and coal cars being used for that purpose.

As a result of the recent strike on the Providence, reported in these columns, work has been started on the Coronation by H. V. Fuller, adjoining the Providence.

The new strike on the Providence is said to be of no little importance, the lead having been opened up for 400 feet up the hill. Foreman Dermody now has about 40 men at work on this property.

Manager Frederick Keffer, of the Mother Lode with Mrs. Keffer and son, is expectsd to return Monday, from a trip to the east, during which the St, Louis World's Fair was visited, as well as their old home in Ohio.

The Lucile Dreyfus mine near Danville, on the the reservation, has resumed operations with a force of some 12 men and is now shipping ore to the Granby smelter. This property is situated only about ten miles from the smelter.

It is the intention to work the Betts and Hesperus all winter, one of the new things to be started being a 700-foot tunnel, a force of 12 men is to be kept busy and the new machinery will soon be received over the Great Northern Phoenix branch.

Ten men are employed at the Skylark under Foreman Rowe, and those interested are naturally pleased at the excellent ore being taken out of the lower workings of the mine. A car of ore is ready to be sent out to the smelter early next week.

Prof. R. D. Brock, of the Dominion geological survey, who has already spent several weeks examining and sampling the Snowshoe for the interests of the proposed merger of that property with the LeRoi and War Eagle-Centre Star mines, will probably proceed to Rossland to examine and report upon the other mines in the proposed consolidation, in another ten days.

Catholic Services Tomorrow.

There will be two masses next Sunday in the Catholic church. First mass by Rev. Father J. A. Bedard, O. M. I., at 8 o'clock a. m.; second mass by Rev. Father R. Pecoul, O M. I., at 10 o'clock a. m. Sunday school at 2.30 p. m. Benediction at 7, 30 p.m.

Rev. Father Pecoul, assistant to Father Bedard, arrived in the Boundary last week and will permanently reside with Father Bedard in Greenwood. After the first of January Phoenix will have mass on Sunday twice every month.

ERECTING NEW COMPRESSOR

Brooklyn Mine Will Have 15 Drill Machine.

FORCE AT WORK NIGHT AND DAY

Expect to Have it Ready After December 1st—Shipments Start From Rawhide About the Same Date.

Manager Pemberton, of the Montreal & Boston Consolidated, has given orders to at once install the new air compressor at the Brooklyn mine, which has been on the ground for over two years, but was not erected before the property closed the last time. The machine is one side or half of a 30 drill compressor, and will supply the air wanted for the Brooklyn, Stemwinder and Idaho mines, when needed.

Foreman Callahan now has a force of men at work getting the foundations for the large machine ready, and is working double shifts on it, so that, if possible, it may be ready to furnish power by or shortly after December 1st.

At the company's Rawhide mine Foreman Bresnahan has a large force at work building the tramway which will take the ore to the new bins recently erected on the new spur put in by the C. P. R. December 1st should see this mine sending out about 300 tons of ore daily, or what ever the company's Boundary Falls smelter second furnace can use.

LAST YEAR'S VOTE IN YALE-CARIBOO

How the Three Parties Stood in 1903.

That those interested may note for purposes of comparison the vote of a year ago, the following are the figures of the official election returns in the five polling stations in Grand Forks riding in October, 1903, at the time of the provincial election.

At this year's election there are two polling stations each at Grand Forks and Phoenix, making seven in all:

	Lib.	Con.	Soc.
Bannock City	3	17	0
Carson	5	12	2
Cascade	17	18	15
Grand Forks	117	226	55
Phoenix	31	73	160
Total	173	346	232

In the eight provincial ridings, which now constitute the Dominion constituency of Yale-Cariboo, the election for which will be held next Tuesday, the figures of the polling for last year were as follows:

Conservative	2,847
Liberal	2,229
Socialist	461
Or a total of	5,537

Many friends of the family of W. J. Cramer will regret to learn that their son Jay, who was operated on last week for appendicitis at the hospital, and had been steadily improving this week, was very low again last night.

To The Electors of Yale-Cariboo.

GENTEEMEN:

As Conservative candidate for Yale-Cariboo I certainly ask for a strong support of my candidature from now till the last ballot is cast on the 22nd inst.

The people of Canada by their decision on Nov. 3rd, have replaced the Liberal party in power. In regretting that decision, I wish particularly to pay a whole-hearted tribute to the defeated leader of the Conservative party, the Hon. R. L. Borden, whose sincerity and ability commanded the respect of all, and whose fine integrity of character has lifted our political life to a higher level.

During the past eight months I have had the pleasure of speaking to audiences from Cariboo to the International line. I should be ungrateful indeed if I did not recognize the personal kindness extended to me, even by many who may have dissented from my political views. It has been an unalloyed satisfaction to find that in any appeal for a higher tone in Canadian public life there has always been a strong response from the vast majority of our people. I have nothing to regret, and nothing to retract in what I have said in advocating my views during the campaign in this constituency.

So far from being discouraged by the result of the general election, I am stimulated to greater efforts, and believe that stronger reasons than ever exist for returning a Conservative representative of Yale-Cariboo.

It is entirely unnecessary for me to say, that after travelling over the length and breadth of this vast constituency, my faith in its resources has been greatly confirmed, and it will be my special privilege, if elected, to promote its interests in every way possible.

The argument has been, and will be advanced, that the material affairs of the riding could be better looked after by a government supporter. It is an argument framed to appeal to the baser side of human nature, and no man of personal or political convictions should be affected by it.

But I might point out its entire fallacy in this particular case, when so overwhelming a preponderance of Liberals in the House reduces the power of the individual member to a minimum, and renders it impossible to secure appropriations for the greater part of these large western constituencies.

On the other hand there was never so strong a need for a vigorous opposition.

It is admitted by thoughtful Liberals themselves that so large a majority is the reverse of good for the country.

I would, therefore, specially point out to the electors that, with reference to Yale-Cariboo, their district will be given a special prominence, and a special opportunity will be afforded of advocating its interests if a Conservative represents them in the next House.

I propose to fight till the last minute of the last hour, and believe my hopes for a Conservative victory will be justified.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,

Yours faithfully,
MARTIN BURRELL.

The following candidates for election to the House of Commons are in the field with the approval and endorsation of the Conservative party.

Yale-Cariboo—MARTIN BURRELL.
Kootenay—C. H. MACKINTOSH.

WHY BURRELL WILL WIN.

Practically the last gun in this campaign in Yale-Cariboo has been fired, the evidence in the case is all in, the the jury—the people—is waiting, and next Tuesday will record their verdict. They will decide whether they want Martin Burrell, the Conservative candidate, as the representative of this constituency in the House of Commons at Ottawa for the next five years, or whether they will accept Duncan Ross, the Liberal candidate, or Ernest Mills, the Socialist. We think it is conceded that the latter gentlemen has no chance of winning out, and will be fortunate if he saves his deposit.

The contest, therefore, is between Mr. Burrell and Mr. Ross, who have both presented their views to the electors through the last few months. In this issue of the Pioneer will be found an address by Mr. Burrell to the voters, and it is well worth reading by everyone who will cast a ballot next week. He has appealed for a higher tone in public life in Canada, and has received a hearty response.

The argument has been put forward that this riding should send Mr. Ross to Ottawa because he is a Liberal, and the Liberals being in power, he can therefore do more in a material way for Yale-Cariboo. But the argument is weak for the reason that the Government majority is now so large that it can afford to be independent of any one vote out of a majority of seventy, and the ability of any single member to secure appropriations for his constituency is, therefore, reduced to the minimum.

On the other hand, the sending of a strong, clean man like Mr. Burrell, to Ottawa, in the opposition, will result in our having a man there who will be heard from that very fact itself, and who, consequently, can do more for us than one in an overwhelming majority. Thoughtful Liberals themselves admit that such a majority is not good for the country, and why should it be made larger?

In the past the Laurier government, through Mr. Galliher, our then representative, has done almost nothing for this constituency, in a majority of 53. What, then, can be accomplished in a majority of seventy odd by Duncan Ross?

Both Mr. Ross and Mr. Burrell, as well as Mr. Mills, are estimable gentlemen, but earnest students of the situation, including many good Liberals, have come to the conclusion that Yale-Cariboo will be best represented by Mr. Burrell.

COPPER STEADILY RISING.

As has doubtless been noticed by those interested in the subject, the price of copper in the markets of the world has been steadily appreciating for some little time past, it now being well above the 14 cent mark. Not only is this a most satisfactory state of affairs to those who hold copper shares, but it is usually so to those living in camps where copper is the chief or only commodity produced. And the best of it is that the highest authorities agree that the brown metal is likely to go even higher, and perhaps reach 15 cents, and probably stay above 14 cents for the next year.

In high grade copper mines the fluctuations of the copper market may not be of so great importance as in camps like the Boundary, but here its importance cannot be overestimated. For instance, an increase of one cent per pound means upwards of $400 or $450 per day more for the Granby Co no little item of itself where the margin of profit is well known to be so close. This is a little matter of $13,500 per month at least, on the basis spoken of. No one in the Boundary needs to be told that our low grade copper properties are in need of all the assistance in price that a good copper market can give them, and if the figure goes below a certain price most of our mines cannot be operated at a profit.

It is, therefore, with much satisfaction that every resident of this section notes the betterment of the price for copper, with the probability that it will not be much lower for a considerable time to come.

NOTED IN PASSING.

The Nelson News has the hardihood to assert that the Duncan Ross political meeting here last week was an effective rally. And the News editor attended the meeting himself, too.

If political spellbinders really succeed in changing votes, how busy it must keep the ballots in flopping from one candidate to another.

None of the Grit orators have yet explained satisfatorily why the election here was postponed. The explanation is easy. The Liberals were fearful of defeat if the appeal took place with the other elections.

By the way Liberal notables have been brought into Yale-Cariboo in the last two weeks, it is quite evident that Duncan Ross knows his election is more than doubtful.

Editor Deane, of the Nelson News, who took the stump on behalf of Duncan Ross, says that Martin Burrell's candidacy is not taken seriously. Mr. Deane will know better after November 22nd.

Mr. Burrell is as confident as ever of being endorsed at the polls next Tuesday, and his friends are even more so.

What has W. A. Galliher, our former member, ever done for the Boundary, with a Liberal majority of 53 at Ottawa? And echo answers, "What?" We have nothing to judge the future by but the past.

Senator Templeman told the electors Monday night, that, whether Ross was elected or not, he would look into the matter of the need of a custom house here. Something good may come out of Egypt, after all.

"Wullie" McInnis is a whirlwind, all right, and he did not do a thing to the Socialists Monday evening, in good, vigorous King's English, straight from the shoulder. Even the most radical listened to him with intense interest.

Mr. Tooley on the Campaign.

With Apologies to F. P. Dunne.

"An' now, Misther Tooley," said Mr. Hinnessey, "what are ye thinkin' of th' campaign in Yale-Cariboo, whin its all over but th' shoutin'?"

"What do Oi think, do yeask," said Mr. Tooley. "What wud anny mon think, sure, but that th' best candydate will win whin th' votes a-re counted next Chuesday noight. All three of thim have been talkin' and argifyin' for weeks, and thryin' t' convince th' fra bo-rn British citizens, or those made so by the c-ourt, that their particular mon is th' only one to vote fer—an' some of thim knew why, too, sthrange to say. Each wan o' thim told th' people of th' Boundary that th' upper part of th' constituency will be solid fer him (manin' th' sphaker), an' that all he wants or nades is th' solid vote of th' Boundary to make him solid.

"Oive bin through these campaigns before, an' Oi know somethin' about it, Hinnissey. Ye may be sure of thot. Th' Consarvatives know now, as ye do, that th' Grand Thrunk Pacific will be built annyway, an' so they say no more about it, but th' Liberals are sthill tellin' all about it by th' hour—whin annyone will listen."

"But, Tooley, tell me, if ye can, which wan of th' candidates will win here this toime, if ye know so much about it."

"Oi'll tell ye this, Hinnissey, an' that is that th' mon with the most votes will be ilicted—ye can bet on that, Hinnissey. But fer me loife, Hinnissey, Oi don't see how Duncan Ross can be ilicted, aven wid th' Ottawa government behind him, wid Senator Templeman here to spout, and wid "Wullie" McInnis—th' bye thot can talk so well—all tellin' their throubles to th' voters here in wan week.

"Thot mating Monday noight, Hinnissey, was worth goin' to, too, just to hear "Wullie" give it to th' Socialists. He handled them without gloves, Hinnissey, an' he made thim listen, aven whin they did not what to. Fer an hour he poured in th' hot shot to thim, an' they enjyin' it as much as th' Grits an' Conservatives who were there, too, to see th' fun. An' as "Wullie" hed the last say of th' avenin', there was no one to conthradict him, annyway."

"Misther Tooley, do ye think th' Socialists will cut much ice in this iliction," said Mr. Hinnissey.

"Oi do not," said Tooley. "They've a good mon, Misther Mills, but he hasn't th' votes, an' votes is what counts at iliction toime, Hinniesey, as ye know.

"They think he'll save his daposit, but it's doubtful, annyway. They say that he's walked over 250 moiles in this campaign, and spoke over 50 toimes in th' course of his thrips, tellin' th' people what a g-reat thing Socialism wud be fer th' people. Oi don't think he told thim, though, how, down at the coast, this year th' Socialists did not poll more than half th' votes they did a year ago. He probably forgot all about that, or said as little about it as he cud, annyway. But they say he did have one intheresting experience, when the raturnin' officer offered to pay his way all through Cariboo, if he'd go, so as to pull votes f'm Burrell. But, of course, he wouldn't be a thrue Socialist if he'd help one p-arty pull chestnuts out of th' fire f'r th' other p-arty"

Opposition Member Needed.

The large Liberal majority obtained on Thursday last is likely to affect the chances of the Government candidate adversely. A representative, who is a Government supporter when his party is weak, is a good man for the constituency. A mere unit in a majority of sixty counts for less than nothing in advancing local interests. A strong government is independent of the individual vote, and it takes a very strong personality to force adequate recognization of the needs of his constituency. A strong opposition member is worth five ordinary representatives forming part of an overwhelming majority.—Armstrong Advertiser.

It's What It Leads To

That makes Catarrh such a dreaded disease. If you have Catarrh taint, dropping in the throat, if you hawk and spit and have a stuffed up feeling in your nostrils you should use fragrant healing Catarrhozone at once and get cured. Thousands have been saved from Consumption and completely cured by Catarrhozone, so there is no reason why you shouldn't stamp out your catarrh also. Catarrhozone will really cure you and prevent the disease from returning. It's very pleasant, just balsamic medicated vapor,—no nauseous drugs. Absolute cure guaranteed to users of Catarrhozone; it can't fail, try it. Complete outfit $1.00; sample size 25c.

Scurvy Liberal Trick.

The scurvy trick planned by the Liberal Government in deferring the elections in this constituency till the 22nd inst., seems likely to recoil upon themselves. The people everywhere will recognize the folly, looking at the matter from the lowest and most practical standpoint, of adding one more uninfluential unit to to an overwhelming majority. They appreciate the fact that the only guarantee of a reasonably pure, good government is a strong opposition that will prove a constant check upon unnecessary expenditure.—Vernon News

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

When bilious try a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and realize for once how quickly a first-class up-to-date medicine will correct the disorder. For sale by all druggists.

Hurried and Worried All Day.

And the worst of it is you are a little run down and have mighty little chance to catch up. Everything seems like a grindstone wearing down your nerves. You are irritable and get less sleep than is absolutely necessary. Better stop before things get worse. Your best plan is to use Ferrozone for a while and give your nerves and brain a chance to pick up. Ferrozone is the finest tonic a busy man can take. It makes new blood, nourishes the body, strengthens the nerves, improves the appetite and rehabilitates the whole system. Try Ferrozone. Price 50c.

NOW IN THE LAST STAGES

New Railway Grade Being Completed.

ONLY A FEW PLACES YET UNFINISHED

First of December Will See the End, Except for Three or Four Heavy Cuts—Force of Men Greatly Reduced.

To see for himself the state of the new Great Northern construction, the Pioneer man took a trip over the grade from Phoenix to Deadman's gulch a few days ago, a distance of six miles.

For two or three miles out of Phoenix the grade is all ready for the rails, and as far as Providence creek crossing one can walk the entire distance with one or two exceptions—and these cuts will be done in a week or two. At Providence creek a trestle some four or five hundred feet long will be built, and the timber necessary for this, as well as for another trestle at Scarpelli's, will be hauled from Phoenix, so that the iron squad shall not be delayed when those points are reached with the steel.

From Providence creek to Deadman's gulch, over three miles, the grade is all done with but two exceptions, namely, the big cut of Antonio Scarpelli's, on the end of Burns & Jordan's contract, and the long, heavy thorough cut on which Patrick Hughes is working. The contractors say that Scarpelli will complete his heavy work by or shortly after the first of December, and that Hughes, will be completed about the same time, even though he has a good deal to do yet Mr. Hughes has forces of men working night and day from both ends, as well as in the middle, a steam engine assisting on the top to waste the rock taken out there.

Big Bridge at Deadman's.

From Hughes' long cut to Deadman's—nearly all heavy rock work, as well—the rails could be laid now, a distance of a mile nearly, but at the bridge itself will be the chief delay, if there is any appreciable delay.

This bridge will be 159 feet high at at the highest point, is about 700 feet long, and will be built on a fourteen degree curve. It will require close to a million feet of timber by the time it is complete—and will be the highest and longest bridge on the line from Grand Forks to Phoenix. A large force of men have been working on the structure for some weeks, the two piers over the creek proper are in, and some of the lower bents are in place. This timber has all been hauled by teams over the two mile grade from Summit, whence it was brought over the C.P.R., to faciliate matters.

The bridge men and engineers figure that when the steel gang reaches this bridge—in a week or two, perhaps—it will not be more than another week or two at the most before the trains can cross over the new structure. If they do this they are likely to make a record in bridge building, but that is one thing that Porter Bros. are in the habit of doing, if need be, and there is need now, to escape the expense of shoveling snow up this way.

James J. Hill has been urging the contractors to use all possible haste, and they in turn have been hot after the men who are actually doing the work. The road will be in Phoenix this winter without fail, even if some of the beautiful has to be handled to do it.

So far the contractors have been favored to the greatest possible extent by the weather, as in the more than five months the work has been going on, the men have not been idle on account of rain half a dozen days. It is hardly likely, however, that this will continue much longer, and hurry is the word on every hand. The first of January should see nearly everything done, even in the new yards in Phoenix—and it will be one of the quickest pieces of railway building ever done in the west or elsewhere, when the obstacles encountered are considered.

The Greatest Family Remedy.

And one well known in most Canadian homes is Nerviline, a perfect panacea for all internal and external pain. Mrs. M. E. Cartwright of Morris says:—"I couldn't think of being w thout Nerviline. When I get toothache Nerviline stops it. If I get a sick headache, have a trouble with my stomach or bowels I can rely on Nerviline to cure me promptly. To break up a cold or rub on for rheumatism or neuralgia Nerviline has no equal. It's priceless in any family."

Nerviline is king over all pain and costs 25c.

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.:

Gentlemen—"I cannot speak too highly of the value of Peruna. I believe that I owe my life to its wonderful merits. I suffered with catarrh of the head and lungs in its worst form, until the doctors fairly gave me up, and I despaired of ever getting well again.

"I noticed your advertisement and the splendid testimonials given by people who had been cured by Peruna, and determined to try a bottle. I felt but little better, but used a second and a third bottle and kept on improving slowly.

"It took six bottles to cure me, but they were worth a king's ransom to me. I talk Peruna to all my friends and am a true believer in its worth."
—Mrs. Col. E. J. Gresham.

Thousands of women owe their lives to Peruna. Tens of thousands owe their health to Peruna. Hundreds of thousands are praising Peruna in every state in the Union. ALL GOOD THINGS must win upon their merits. The International Dictionary has won a greater distinction upon its merits and is in more general use than any other work of its kind in the English language.

A. H. Sayce, LL.D., D.D., of Oxford University, England, has recently said of it: It is indeed a marvelous work: it is difficult to conceive of a dictionary more exhaustive and complete. Everything is in it—not only what we might expect to find in such a work, but also what few of us would ever have thought of looking for.

A supplement to the new edition has brought it fully up to date. I have been looking through the latter with a feeling of astonishment at its completeness, and the amount of labor that has been put into it.

Voting next Tuesday in Phoenix will take place at the Delahay block in lower town, where John McRae will be deputy returning officer, and in Morrison Anderson building, Old Ironsides avenue, where E. H. Mortimer will be deputy returning officer. Polls will open at 9 a m. and close at 5 p. m., standard time. Directions for voting can be seen at each booth. Liberals Building Up Portland.

How the Laurier government, with its much vaunted Grand Trunk Pacific contract will assist materially in building up an American city, Portland, Maine, is shown by the following despatch:

Portland, Me., Nov. 4.—The victory of the Liberals over the Conservatives in the Canadian elections means that this city is destined to become, within a decade, one of the most important export cities on the Atlantic coast. The victory means the Grand Trunk railway, with its Atlantic terminus here, will be pushed from Winnipeg to the Pacific coast, and that all along this great transcontinental railroad the products for export will be for the most part, shipped directly to Portland.

The highest officials of the Grand Trunk, the officials of this city and all others who are conversant with the situation as it is and as it will be, agree that Portland's population will double within a few years after the railroad is completed, that her property valuation will increase accordingly and that her commerce will increase probably tenfold.

On Wednesday, November 23rd, the ladies of the Presbyterian church will give their annual bazaar, for which extensive preparations have been made. Hazelwood ice cream and cake will be served, and in the evening a good musical and literary programme will be rendered, including vocal and instrumental solos and duets. A flag drill will also be given. The articles for sale will include fancy and useful things for men, women and children, largely suitable for holiday gifts.

Hardy's Majority Doubled.

Not content with printing his double column picture in his own paper three times in succession, top of column, next to pure reading matter, Duncan Ross has issued the same on a leaflet and mailed it to the electors with his election address. This is evidently the final gun in the Liberal campaign.
