MINE OWNERS DISCUSS INTERESTS

But Are Extremely Reticent About Divulging Any of Their Proceedings to the Reporters.

WILL DEVELOP TOAD MOUNTAIN PROPERTIES---OTHER NEWS

The Mine Owners' Association was in convention all day yesterday and it is understood that business of considerable importance to the organization was under discussion, though the members decline to divulge any particulars of the business. Last night the association dined at the Hotel Hume and spent a jolly evening. The matter of securing a market for silves-lead ores is of much interest at the present time in view of the fact that the American Smelting Company has declined to accept further shipments or renew old contracts on the original basis. This condition of affairs was foreshadowed by J. N. Hill, junior manager of the Spokane Falls & Northern road on his trip through the Kootenays a few months ago. He predicted that the smelters across the line which were using lead ores as a flux were so overstocked that producers would shortly require to find another outlet for their product. This condition of affairs exists today and it remains to be seen whether the combine is simply firing the preliminary gun in a movement to advance rates or whether their excuse of over-stocks is based on actual conditions. When the combine went into effect the mine owners naturally looked for a squeeze in rates, and because the advance was not immediate they have not had reason to change this opinion. If a combine does not advance charges, wherein is the advantage of combination, ask the mining men, and in the recent stand taken by the combine smelters they see the first turn of the screw. "I do not anticipate the American smelters will continue to refuse lead ores," remarked a prominent member of the Mine Owners' Association yesterday. "They will make much ado about the slump in lead and enormous overstocks of lead ores, and then concede to the producers by taking their ore again at an advance of a couple of dollars in charges, thereby cleaning up a couple of millions annually over and above the 30 per cent profit they now rake off without taking a tithe of the chances incidental to mining." How to fight this advance is a matter which lies with the mine owners, but the success of their efforts will be watched with interest.

Owns a Nelson Property.

W. Hastie Adams, manager and one of the large stockholders of the Rambler-Cariboo mine in the Sandon camp, who is in attendance at the Mine Owners' Association, is the principal owner of the group of claims controlled by the Falls View Mining Company in the Nelson camp. The company owns four or five claims in the copper-gold belt on Toad mountain. A couple of years ago Mr. Adams bought in the stock, and expended enough funds in surveying, etc., to secure crown grants for the claims. Since then nothing has been done with the property, but Mr. Adams promises to start work in the near future with a view to determining the merit of the proposition. Fine copper float is found all over the claims, but up to the present time nothing has been discovered in the shape of a permanent lead, although this doubtless exists. The nature of the ground is such that any development to be successful must be on a large scale. Under Mr. Hastie's management the Rambler-Cariboo has advanced to the leading rank of Slocan properties. It is a constant shipper of high-grade ore and has paid $105,000 in dividends. The mine is in a high state of development, much ore is in sight and it is regarded as one of the big properties in the camp.

Will Not Take Action.

In response to a query, J. Roderick Robertson informs THE TRIBUNE that the London & B. C. Gold Fields will do nothing this winter toward acquiring the Olds property, one of the best known propositions in the Kettle river country. The London & B. C. had an option on the group during November and put a small crew of men to work. Their decision to take no further action this winter is not actuated by any lack of confidence in the merit of the property and it is understood that a hitch in the negotiations led up to this outcome. Report has it that last year the Messrs. Olds refused a bond of $100,000 from a well known Nelson mining man and went to England to place the property. Failing in this an option was offered the London & B. C. at considerably less than the first offer received.

THE TWO THOUSAND MILE

Mark Almost Reached.

NEW YORK, December 13.—Narrowed down to six sore, battered and stained riders, the six days' bicycle race in Madison Square Garden now becomes a contest of the nations. At midnight tonight, or the beginning of the fifth day of the contest, only one American team was left in the race—Elkes & McFarland—who, with Pierce and McEachern, the Canadians, had covered 1827 miles and four laps. Elkes and Pierce were the freshest men of the six, but they were showing weakness signs with each revolution of their wheels. McFarland is a wreck and is kept upon his wheel only by the greatest prodding of his trainers.

All day today a doctor was in constant attendance on him, taking care of his lame leg, the result of the hard fall last night. Elkes and McFarland and Pierce and McEachern led the French team, Gougolitz and Simar, by only one lap, and the dogged determination and frightful bursts of speed which Gougolitz shows at times makes natural the opinion that barring his cuts and bruises there is still lots of vitality left in him for the final wind-up.

At 1 o'clock the score stood: Elkes and McFarland 1847.3, Pierce and McEachern 1847.3, Simar and Gougolitz 1847.2, Fisher and Fredericks 1846.7, Kaser and Ryser 1846.7, Waller and Stinson 1846.7, Babcock and Arenson 1465.5, Turville and Gimm 1456.8. The leaders were 35 miles and one lap behind the record at 1 a. m.

Robbed the Mail Car.

TEXARKANA, Arkansas, December 13.—The mail on the north bound Cotton Belt passenger train was looted between Bassetts, Texas, and this city today. Several registered mail pouches were cut open and the contents carried away. It is understood that the pouches contained several valuable packages en route from Memphis. Mail clerk John W. Dennis was found unconscious, from a blow on the head, when his train reached Texarkana. Until he recovers no description of the robbers can be secured. Two men have been arrested on suspicion at Naples, Arkansas, but no trace of the plunder was found on them.

An Alarming Rumor.

LONDON, December 14.—The Daily Express publishes a rumor of a serious disaster to the British arms. According to the report the Boers attacked the camp of general Clements in the Barberton district and captured the camp, killing a number of British officers and taking prisoners all the British troops, including four companies of the Northumberland Fusileers. The story is not confirmed in any quarter and is not generally believed.

Over 200 Drowned.

CANTON, China, December 13.—The falling overboard of a man on a passenger boat on the West river, near Ho Kau, led to a rush of 400 passengers to the side of the vessel, which caused her to sink. Over 200 persons were drowned.

CRIME RAMPANT IN PARIS

CLOSING OF EXPOSITION CAUSES MUCH SUFFERING.

Street Cars on Suburban Lines Not Operated After 8:30 on Account of Danger From Holdups.

PARIS, December 13.—The close of the exposition, throwing thousands who were dependent upon it for a living in the streets, has created abnormal criminal conditions in Paris and has directed attention to the dangerous state of affairs. The outlying quarters are infested by bands of footpads and hoodlums, who terrorize the residents. The papers are filled with accounts of their nightly exploits. A gang of thieves recently held up a street car in a populous district and robbed the passengers, while an important electric car line serving the suburbs of St. Denis and St. Ouen has refused to run its cars later than 8:30 in the evening on account of the danger, and it was announced today that the prefect of police had directed to place a couple of policemen on each street car running in the suburbs after 8:30 p.m., and that he had also directed to create a special corps of picked men to be stationed in the dangerous wards, such as the ward where the dead body was recently discovered.

Moreover, in order to secure murder clues the police for several nights have raided the disorderly districts and have made large hauls of criminals wanted on other charges. A raid last evening led to 347 arrests. In fairness it must be said that the present condition of crime is largely due to the number of workmen, street hawkers and others who came to Paris attracted by the exposition and are now walking the streets out of work. It is estimated by the statistician of the Central Labor Bureau that in 25 trades 21,000 out of 51,000 are out of work. The officials of the prefecture of police calculates that there are 22,000 sufferers from the closing of the exposition who have joined the criminal army.

Would Abrogate the Treaty.

WASHINGTON, December 13.—Senator Money introduced a resolution in the senate today providing authority for the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty by diplomatic negotiations. Following is the text of it: Resolved, that the president of the United States be respectfully requested to consider the expediency of opening negotiations with the government of Great Britain for the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, with the assurance that such action on his part will meet with the hearty consent and support of the senate.

Grise Elected.

WELLAND, Ontario, December 13.—At the by-election in Welland county for the Ontario legislature today, Grise, the government candidate, was elected by about 100 majority.

THE RAILROAD PROGRAMME

CONSULTATION OF OFFICIALS IN NELSON.

W. F. Tye, Chief Construction Agent, Spends a Week on This Division --Contemplated Work.

W. F. Tye, chief construction engineer for the C. P. R., left for the east this morning after spending a week on this division. During his visit Mr. Tye was in close consultation with the local magnates of the road and the general impression is that the building programme for 1901 was under consideration, particularly as John G. Sullivan, chief engineer of the province, and A. F. Proctor, assistant engineer, were constantly with Mr. Tye. It has been intimated that the recommencement of work on the Lardo road and certain work on the main line at Field, together with the taking over of the Balfour extension were among the leading items discussed and it would surprise no one to learn that other lines, possibly one to tap the St. Mary's country were also considered. The surveying party which went into the Lardo a couple of months ago to continue the road west to Arrowhead from Trout Lake has finished its survey and the engineers in charge were closeted here for a time with Mr. Tye. While no definite announcement has been made regarding the Lardo road, indications are not wanting that the road is to be completed. Some light will probably be cast on the matter a few weeks hence when it will be seen whether or not the company starts work on the wharf at the Kootenay lake terminal. This undertaking will naturally be carried out at low water and its commencement will be regarded as evidence prima facie of the company's intention to start work in the spring.

The Balfour extension is not yet completed so far as the construction department is concerned and engineer Procter, who built the line, has a couple of week's work before the line can be turned over to the operating department. After the recent storm when the barge service between Kootenay Landing and Nelson was disorganized the operating department called on the construction branch to allow them the use of the road in order that by saving half the distance, the barges might make double trips daily instead of single trips as is the case under the existing arrangements. The request could not be complied with and the operating outfit had to get along as best they could with the old service, which they did with extra hustling. On January 1st the C. P. R. is to assume control of the section of road between Nelson and Five-mile point, acquired by purchase from the Nelson & Fort Sheppard, and as the construction people turn over the balance of the extension to Procter about the same time they can use the road if desired. In event of the present press of business, when forty-five cars are handled daily between Kootenay Landing and Nelson, continuing the line will be used for transporting freight cars, thus enabling the barges to make double trips daily. Unless the west arm of the lake freezes over the passenger service is not likely to be altered, as the present arrangement is much more convenient for the traveling public and saves a passenger train being placed on the run between Nelson and Procter. The engineers claim the Balfour extension has the finest roadbed of any section of the C. P. R. or any other line in the west.

The completion of the road between Kootenay Landing and Procter is regarded as a thing of the distant future. While continuation of the line would give the company an unbroken line of rails from Montreal to Nelson, the thirty miles or so of road would cost in the neighborhood of $2,000,000 because of the recent heavy rock cuts, and the present exigencies of the service do not warrant this heavy outlay, which does not include any estimate for the completion of the bridge across the lake.

Loss to the Country.

Toronto Telegram.

Independence would have gained a victory by the election of Chris. Foley in Yale-Cariboo against a Sifton Liberal and a C. P. R. Tory. Labor has so-called representatives in parliament like Ralph Smith, M. P., and A. W. Puttee, M. P., who cling to the coat tails of the government which helps them to the head of the poll. But Messrs. Smith and Puttee are no more representative of labor than E. F. Clarke, M. P., or A. B. Ingram, M. P. Neither Mr. Clarke nor Mr. Ingram poses as a labor representative, but they are at least as true to the cause as Ralph Smith and A. W. Puttee, who run as friends of labor and act as hide-bound backers of the government. The speeches of Mr. Foley in Yale-Cariboo marked him out as a conspicuously able man, and the labor men of that great district have no reason to be ashamed either of him or of his fight. Their defeat yesterday is sure to be turned into an early victory, and they did well to go down with their principles, instead of trying to elect a sham representative by dickers and deals with either the government or opposition.

M'GOVERN IS THE CHAMPION

GANS KNOCKED OUT IN TWO ROUNDS LAST NIGHT.

The Baltimore Boy Put Up a Poor Fight and Was Never in It --Fight by Rounds.

CHICAGO, December 13.—Terry McGovern is now the undisputed lightweight champion of the world. He knocked out Joe Gans of Baltimore after two minutes and five seconds' fighting in the second round. Gans put up a very poor exhibition and was never in it at all. McGovern started rushing him at the sound of the bell and never let up till Gans was counted out. In the second round Gans tried to fight a little at the opening, but soon resorted to his backing tactics, attempting to return no blows, and was making no effort to block the hot ones which McGovern sent in on his mouth and face. As he was rolled down on the floor time after time after every rush McGovern made he looked around with a helpless expression, as though he had no idea where he was. The last knock-down he was on his back six seconds, then rolled over on his face, rose to his left knee and remained in that position until tapped on the shoulder and told that the fight was over and that he was knocked out.

Round 1.—McGovern led with left. He rushed Gans to the ropes, pounding him hard on the ribs with his left. McGovern missed right and left. McGovern sent Gans back with left in jaw, Gans uppercutting under the heart. Gans put right and left to face. McGovern put right and left to jaw, sending Gans staggering with right and left, following him up with right and left. McGovern sent Gans to ropes with right and left to face. McGovern landed right to jaw, staggering Gans and nearly floored him with a left to face. Gans knocked down with left to jaw. Up at the count of seven. Gans knocked down again one second after bell rung. Gans taken to his corner in groggy condition. No claim of foul made by Gans.

Round 2.—McGovern sent left to face, knocking Gans down. McGovern landed right on jaw. McGovern landed hard right on ear and left to mouth. McGovern landed two lefts to face. Gans knocked down with right to jaw, taking full count. The minute he was up McGovern rushed, knocking him down again. Gans knocked down again. Gans knocked down again with right to the jaw. Gans knocked out.

As McGovern, smiling and waving his hands, turned towards his corner he was picked up in the arms of his manager and seconds and carried bodily to his corner. In an instant the ring was thronged with cheering McGovern adherents, who gathered around the Brooklyn boy's corner and cheered him again and again.

Gans had no excuse to offer for his defeat. His seconds, however, said he was over-trained and that his stomach had been bad all day.

HOW CHINESE COURT LEFT PEKIN

GENERAL PROVINCIAL AND DOMINION NEWS NOTES

VICTORIA, December 13.—Late Oriental news gives some additional and hitherto unpublished details regarding the escape of the Chinese court from Pekin, published in the the Chinese press from a well informed Chinese official. The account states that the emperor, dowager empress and party were insufficiently supplied with clothing and had no provisions of any kind. Accompanied by an armed guard and eunichs they left the northern gates of the city, where their passage was disputed by soldiers in charge, while the gates were choked with Chinese fleeing from the city. In order to prevent delay and cut short dispute the eunichs fired several volleys upon the crowd, killing a considerable number, and the carts conveying the imperial party were ultimately driven forth from the city over the bodies of the slain. By evening the cortege reached Husi-hi-Zien, where a magistrate, Wu by name, came forth to meet it and escorted his imperial guests to his yamen.

The empress was shivering with cold and begged the magistrate to supply her with additional clothing. He replied that to his regret, being Chinese, he had no Manchu female attire available, whereupon the empress said this was not the time in which distinction should be made between Manchu and Chinese and that she was quite willing to don Chinese clothes. The magistrate then caused a number of garments belonging to the widow of his deceased elder brother to be brought and placed at the disposal of the empress, who was only too glad to make use of them. A repast was quickly prepared, of which the imperial party partook. This being terminated the empress proceeded to bewail her sad fate. "Never before," she said, "in the history of the dynasty had the imperial family suffered such dire humiliation and discomfort," blame for which she did not hesitate to lay upon the princes, ministers and generals, who had by their false and misleading reports kept her in ignorance of the progress of the allies and the real state of affairs until the very last moment.

The emperor is said to have mingled his tears with those of the empress and to have repeatedly kowtowed before her, whilst the magistrate himself could not refrain from weeping over the sad plight they were in. In consideration of Wu's hospitable reception he was promoted on the spot to the rank of prefect and sent ahead preparing the way for the imperial party along the road to Tai Yuan Fu, whilst his cook, whose effort to please, evidently was satisfactory, was ordered to accompany the empress on the journey with a view of providing the court with suitable food.

Butcher Boy Group Bonded.

GREENWOOD, December 13.—[Special to The Tribune.]—Local operators have bonded the Butcher Boy group of six claims on the west fork of Kettle river to George Sonneman, mining engineer of Spokane, for $100,000. Period of the bond is one year. The property adjoins the Carmi mine, on which the last payment of $23,000 has just been made. The vendors of both groups were James and R. Kerr and James Dale.

A Canadian Lloyds.

MONTREAL, December 13.—The Star's London cable says it is understood that the Elder-Dempster Steamship company has forwarded to the Canadian government a tender for a fast Atlantic service. It is assured on high authority that the Canadian government has definitely decided on establishing a Canadian Lloyds as the only way of combating the British Lloyd discrimination in marine insurance rates against the St. Lawrence. The government will appoint a royal commission to formulate plans. Hon. Mr. Dobel arrived in London this week and will make a strong protest against the Lloyds action before the London chamber of commerce.

The Strathconas.

MONTREAL, December 13.—The Star's London cable says: Lord Strathcona knows nothing of the announcement received today from Cape Town that colonel Steel of the Strathconas had accepted a divisional command in Baden-Powell's constabulary. The announcement says he will return to South Africa after taking the Strathconas to Canada. The date the Strathconas will leave South Africa is undecided, their period of service not being up till February.

In the Interest of Farmers.

GUELPH, Ontario, December 13.—A public meeting in connection with the fat stock show last night passed a resolution calling on the Dominion government to appoint a commission with full power to regulate and control freight rates on Canadian railways and allotments of space and charges on ships sailing from Canadian ports in the interests of Canadian farmers.

Must Apologize.

MONTREAL, December 13.—Principal Peterson of McGill has threatened to expel the entire second year class in medicine unless they apologize to Prof. McBride for the rather rough treatment they accorded him a few days ago. McBride is unpopular. The boys say they object to being coerced, but the matter will probably be amicably settled.

Have All They Want.

MONTREAL, December 13.—Hon. Robert Rogers, member of the Manitoba government, who is here today, said that Manitoba had all the Doukhobors and Galicians she wanted until it was learned by actual observance what kind of settlers these people made and if they could be assimilated.

To Have a Smelter.

KINGSTON, Ontario, December 13.—Kingston is to have a $300,000 iron smelter in operation by October next.

PASSED THE AMENDMENT

To the Canal Bill.

WASHINGTON, December 13.—In accordance with previous agreement the senate in executive session took a vote at 3 o'clock today on the amendment to the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, authorizing the United States to defend its interests in the canal. The senate did not close its doors until 2 o'clock and there was then left only one hour's time for discussion of the provisions of the amendment. The vote was taken by yeas and nays, 65 votes being cast in favor of the amendment and 17 against it. After the amendment offered by the committee was passed upon various other amendments received the consideration of the senate for a short time, but none of them was acted upon. The amendment which attracted most attention was offered by senator Elkins and is as follows: "Nothing in this treaty shall be construed to prevent the United States from acquiring sufficient security and sovereignty of or to prevent building forts, connecting and maintaining and defending the said canal or for any other purpose that the United States may deem for its best interest."

What the Empress Wants.

LONDON, December 14.—Information has reached Wu Cheng, viceroy, says the Shang-Hai correspondent of the Standard, that the empress dowager has agreed to accept the following peace negotiations: "The early return of emperor Kwang Su to Pekin, indemnity to the amount of 4,000,000,000 pounds, the right of each legation to maintain a guard of 2000 troops and the appointment of a foreign adviser to each province of the empire."

IT is the people against the little clique of professional aldermen, in the coming municipal election, and the people will win hands down.

IT IS said that the only union that the Nelson Evening Miner can now draw on is Nelson Lawyers' Union No. 4, and that it, even, is not unanimous in meeting the drafts drawn against it to pay individual members of Nelson Typographical Union No. 340.

THE organ of the Tax-Evading Chinese and the Bonnington Falls Power Company has placed a candidate in the field for mayor. The candidate is a good citizen, but his newspaper organ will kill him. Every man it supports for office goes down to defeat, for the people look with suspicion on anything or anyone it favors.

THE inequalities of representation in the provincial legislature is shown by the vote polled at the Dominion election. East Lillooet has one member in the local house and polled 160 votes all told. West Lillooet, with one member, polled 107 votes. Cariboo, with two members, polled 288 votes. North Yale, with one member, polled 742 votes. West Yale, with one member, polled 372 votes. East Yale, with one member, polled 767 votes, and three precincts to hear from. Revelstoke riding, with one member, polled 674 votes. Rossland riding, with one member, polled 2034 votes. Slocan riding, with one member, polled 1031 votes. Nelson riding, with one member, polled 1170 votes. Southeast Kootenay, with one member, polled 720 votes, and Northeast Kootenay, with one member, polled 308 votes. Mr. Galliher carried Cariboo, East Lillooet, West Lillooet, East Yale, Nelson riding of West Kootenay, and the north riding of East Kootenay. Mr. Foley carried Rossland riding, Slocan riding and the south riding of East Kootenay. Mr. McKane carried North Yale, West Yale and the Revelstoke riding of West Kootenay.

THE only names mentioned for aldermen in the East ward are John Paterson, H. J. Evans, John A. Irving, John H. Matheson and Charles J. Clayton. No names are mentioned in the West ward except John Hamilton, Harold Selous and T. J. Scanlan. It looks like a new deal all round this year. None of the gentlemen whose names are mentioned above are connected with any cliques, either professional, church, social or political, and all are dead straight on the question of municipal ownership of public utilities. The next mayor of Nelson will be John Anthony Turner.

IN referring to the late election, the Kamloops Sentinel says Mr. Galliher fought a very difficult campaign, and was heavily handicapped by the fact that in the great mining centers of southern Kootenay he had no newspaper support at all. There is a good deal of "rot" in the above. Mr. Galliher had the support of the Revelstoke Mail, Golden Era, Fernie Free Press, Greenwood Times, and Kaslo Kootenaian. Mr. Foley had the support of the Rossland Miner, Rossland Industrial World, Sandon Paystreak, New Denver Ledge, Slocan Drill, and Ferguson Eagle. Mr. McKane was supported by the Revelstoke Herald, Fort Steele Prospector, Sandon Mining Review, Rossland Record, Nelson Economist, and the Nelson Miner. The following papers were strictly independent, namely, Greenwood Miner, Phoenix Pioneer, Grand Forks Gazette, Cascade Record, Cranbrook Herald, Moyie Leader, and Nelson Tribune. The Sentinel also says "Mr. Galliher's cause was further "handicapped by the fact that the "entire machinery of the provincial "government was worked against "him in the interests of Mr. "McKane." That is not a statement of fact, so far as Kootenay is concerned. In Rossland, Nelson, Slocan, Fort Steele, and Golden ridings, the provincial government officials did not take either an active or an unfair part in the campaign.

DURING the life of the present city council a number of unions and organizations and societies and individuals have laid their wants and grievances before it by petition. The labor unions asked for a nine-hour day and a certain rate of wages. The individual members of the council placed themselves on record on the question at issue. Several of the churches petitioned for Sunday observance. Societies, like the hospital and public library, asked for donations and grants. The firemen petitioned for certain privileges. Representative business men petitioned for the reorganization of the fire department. Numberless petitions were presented for sidewalks and street improvements. But according to the Nelson Evening Miner, a newspaper that declares, because it has brought out a candidate for mayor that all other people must be quiet and let it have its way, says labor unions must be sat upon; that they have no rights that should be considered; that the salt of the earth should rule them with an iron rod. The men who belong to the labor unions in Nelson have just the same right to put up a candidate for alderman or for mayor as has the little clique who met in a back room on Wednesday night and selected a candidate for mayor. They even have a better right, for they are more numerous and pay more revenue into the city treasury. But the Miner is a little sore at labor unions just now, because one of the unions that has business relations with it compelled it pay its reckoning. Hence the squeal against labor unions.

DON'T NEED SERVANT GIRLS.

The people of Longwood, a pleasant suburb of Chicago, have solved the problem of living (the same servant-girl problem that is just now agitating the west, by the way) by doing it on a co-operative basis. It is a brilliant success, they declare.

They were almost worried to death by the difficulty of finding a hired girl. Now they have found out how to do without her, and they are better off than they ever were before.

Instead of having a girl apiece, they have one chef, who has all the assistance he needs. They have a dining-room and a kitchen in common. Their three meals cost them 30 cents a day a head.

As the fall was coming on this year their souls sank into their shoes as they thought of the usual difficulty of holding on to their hired girls. All through September they were conjuring up bleak visions of winter when home would probably be without its hired girl. About the first of October they got together to consider their wrongs and how to right them. Mrs. Thomas Chambers had the only feasible plan of relief. She had read books full of lovely theories on the subject. Moreover, she had seen some of those theories in operation in Portage, Wisconsin.

So the good folk of Longwood appointed Mrs. Chambers a committee of one to delve into the mystery of hiring a chef, to find out how much help he would require, to estimate the cost in fuel, rent, service and provisions of furnishing for forty or fifty people about the sort of meals that people in their circumstances were in the habit of eating—in short, to reduce some of her beautiful theories to a practical working basis.

As a result, ten families living within a radius of three blocks of the scene of the experiment formed the Longwood Co-Operative Home Association. They rented the main floor of the residence of W. H. Stafford, one of their number, as the best quarters available. They propose to furnish meals to their members at an average per capita cost of 30 cents a day. Children under twelve at half price. They have eliminated the hired girl from their domestic scheme of existence, and, after three months' trial, confidently expect to live happy ever after.

"Service we reckon at about $15 per week," said A. H. Kingman, treasurer of the association. "If each family kept a girl at, say, a fair average of $4 a week, the item of service alone would cost the members $40 a week. In fuel there will be some saving, but not so much as at first appears, as each family has to keep a fire in the kitchen range most of the time.

"On provisions the saving, of course, should be heavy, partly because wholesale quantities can be bought at wholesale prices, but more because a family of ten is always proportionately far cheaper to cater to than a family of two. For rent, fuel and service our monthly bills ought to be, well, say $85 to $90. As to marketing, we can't say definitely till at least one month's accounts have been audited and paid, but I think we shall keep within our 30-cent limit."

In the dining-room each family has its own table and uses its own linen, china, silver, etc. In the kitchen all have contributed to a common stock of cooking utensils. By the time the present stock is exhausted it is hoped the association will be in a condition to replace it, so that the table furnishings will be more uniform.

Breakfast is served from 7 to 8:30, luncheon from 12 to 1, and dinner from 6 to 7 o'clock on week days. On Sundays breakfast is from 7:30 to 9, with an elaborate dinner at 2, and no supper, the members arguing that their help are entitled to the "Sunday afternoon out," which they would inevitably demand if employed by individual families. So each family gets its own Sunday night tea, or visits friends outside of Longwood. All the dishwashing is done on the co-operative premises, but each family attends to the laundering of its own table linen.

CORRECTED RETURNS.

The Kamloops Sentinel publishes corrected returns from every polling booth in the constituency of Yale-Cariboo, with the exception of three in East Yale. The Empire Valley (W. Lillooet) vote is included in the Dog Creek and Alkali Lake (E. Lillooet) vote. The totals now stand:

Galliher	3131
Foley	2652
McKane	2537

Galliher's majority over Foley being 482, and over McKane 547. Foley leads McKane by 65 votes and the returns from the East Yale points are not likely to change his position. The following are the figures:

My Success in Business ... ...

IS DUE TO THE BROAD PLAN OF GIVING GOOD VALUES ALL THE YEAR THROUGH, WITH NO INTENT OF MAKING BIG PROFITS, OR EXPECTATION OF MAKING MY CUSTOMERS THINK THEY ARE GETTING MORE THAN IS ACTUALLY GIVEN.

BUSINESS has not drifted my way blindly. I have not tried to get the dollar in sight at the cost of the loss of confidence a customer has in the quality of my goods and methods. Catchpenny methods of the day may attract trade, but they do not create permanent customers, and that is what we are after. In our seasons holiday lines, never before were varieties so great, styles so fresh and attractive, and quality up to so high a standard. We are ready night and day for any demands you may make upon me.

Tenders will not be considered unless made on the form supplied and signed with the actual signatures of tenderers.

An accepted cheque on a chartered bank payable to the order of the Minister of Public Works, equal to ten per cent (10 %) of the amount of the tender, must accompany each tender. This cheque will be forfeited if the party decline the contract or fail to complete the work contracted for, and will be returned in case of non-acceptance of tender.

The department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

By order,
JOS. R. ROY,
Acting Secretary.

Department of Public Works,
Ottawa, 3rd December, 1900.

Newspapers inserting this advertisement without authority from the department will not be paid for it.

BUREAU OF PROVINCIAL INFORMATION

In order that the Government may be in possession of definite information with which to supply those seeking investments in this Province, I am instructed to invite particulars from those who have properties for sale, and who may feel disposed to forward such particulars to this office for the purpose in question.

In view of the proposed early reorganization of the Agent-General's Office in London, England, the desirability of having on file a list of farms and other properties for sale, with full and accurate details is obvious. Properties submitted may include farms and farm lands, industrial or commercial concerns, timber limits, water powers, or other enterprises affording opportunities for legitimate investment.

It is not proposed to recommend properties to intending investors, but to afford the fullest access to the classified lists and all available information connected therewith, and to place inquirers in communication with the owners.

The fullest particulars are desired not only of the properties themselves, but of the localities in which they are situated, and the conditions affecting them. For this purpose printed schedules will, upon application, be forwarded to those desirous of making sales.

R. E. GOSNELL,
Secretary Bureau of Provincial Information.
Victoria, B. C., November 16th, 1900.

CITY LOCAL NEWS

The open season for deer shooting closes tonight. Several sportsmen left this morning to have a parting trial at the big game.

The supreme court of Canada will sit at Ottawa on February 19th. Among the British Columbia cases set down for hearing is that of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax vs. Houston.

Many of Nelson's mercantile houses make direct importations of goods from Europe. W. F. Teetzel & Co. are in receipt of direct importations of brushes from manufacturers in England and France.

Frank Plante, aged 26 years, died yesterday at the general hospital of brain trouble. Deceased was a miner and had been working in the Sandon camp for some time. He was a member of the Nelson Miners' Union and had a large circle of warm friends in this city.

In the case of Greenlee vs. Dickinson et al, action has been discontinued against the defendants, Warner Miller and William Spier. The case is an application for an injunction to restrain defendants from removing ore from the Slocan Chief group in the Slocan camp.

A pleasant wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Colin English, Latimer street, when Frank Craig and Miss Annie Louise Leach, both of Nelson, were married in the presence of a few friends. Rev. J. H. White, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony.

Feel Grateful.

My husband joins me in offering my sincere thanks to the good people of Nelson for the many substantial favors shown myself and children during our sad misfortune, and most especially the aid given me in effecting the release of my husband, who is now with me.

MRS. J. H. SINCLAIR.

School Exams On.

William Burns, public school inspector, has returned to the city after a lengthy trip through the Similkameen and Boundary districts. At the first of the present week he presided at the entrance examinations in the Rossland public school and opened a similar examination here yesterday morning. This is the first semi-annual entrance examination held here since Nelson was placed on the same basis as the coast cities under the new regulations. On Monday the supplemental examination for teachers' certificates opens at the central school. On its conclusion Mr. Burns will leave for the coast for the purpose of sitting on the examining committees. The city schools close for the Christmas vacation on the 21st inst. and reopen on January 7th.

To Aid the Hospital.

The collections in the city churches on hospital Sunday will make a handsome contribution to the funds of the institution. The following amounts have been received by the treasurer of the Ladies' Hospital Aid Society, who will have the disbursing of the respective sums:

St. Paul's Presbyterian Church	$ 45 15
Methodist church	17 40
Emmanuel Congregational church	19 00
St. Saviour's (English) church	36 00
Total	$117 55

With the Checker Players.

The last field night of the Checker and Chess Club was the the most interesting in the history of the organization. A number of close and exciting games were played in the December handicap series, with the result that all of last week's leaders dropped down a peg or two. Following is the standing of the leading players at the present time:

	Won.	Lost.	Handicap.	Per Cent.
W. Martin	10	2	100	.933
D. J. Hill	18½	2½	Scratch	.881
W. Irving	13	11	200	.748
E. G. Smyth	8½	3½	Scratch	.708
J. H. Wallace	11	9	150	.700
J. B. Tuttle	6	9	100	.700

In the chess tournament no material change took place, the players winding up as follows:

	Won.	Lost.	Percentage.
E. G. Smyth	5½	½	.916
D. J. Dewar	4½	1½	.750
W. Irving	1	3	.250
H. Goodeve	2	6	.250

Fresh Trouble Ahead.

Captain J. W. Troup has returned to the city from a trip to Rossland and the Boundary in company with R. Marpole and F. P. Guelius, resident engineer. The trouble with the Red Mountain people has broken out afresh at Rossland after it was thought an amicable arrangement had been arrived at. The Red Mountain road applied for and secured an injunction preventing the C. P. R. from building certain spurs to mines, and the Nelson & Fort Sheppard followed suit by taking action to prevent the C. P. R. crossing certain mineral lands. It now looks as though a bitter legal battle was inevitable.

CHASING UP A THESPIAN

Who Owned an Indian Club.

An Indian club with a history came through Nelson recently. It was an ordinary looking instrument such as is used for calisthenic exercising, but the special feature about it was that it bore anywhere from 500 to 1000 labels, indicating that it had traveled over most of the railroad lines in the United States and Canada and enjoyed a trip or two across the ocean. The story of the traveling club has been lost sight of, but it is understood that originally it belonged to a theatrical man who took exercise daily. One night the company made a rush to catch a train after the performance and in the hurry of packing the club was overlooked. Next day the actor wired to have his property forwarded by express and this was done. When it arrived, however, the company had moved on to another stop, and the club was started after them, on what eventually proved to be an endless journey. For a year or more it has been on the move constantly, each express messenger adding a new tag and handing the traveler to the man at the end of the trip. From the tags it seems the club traveled for several months in China and was returned through India and the Mediterranean to England and across the Atlantic to Canada where it was moving toward the Orient again when it came over the C. P. R.

Off for the East.

James V. Welch, the railroad contractor, shipped eleven cars of plant and live stock to Fort Francis, Ontario, yesterday. This is the outfit he will use on the section of the Canada Northern sublet by him from John W. Stewart. When the shipment is delivered at Fort Francis a blacksmith shop will be set up and all the horses sharp shod for the 75 mile trip on the ice up the river to the point where the work is located. Mr. Welch goes east on Sunday by way of St. Paul and Chicago.

Preparing to Move.

The work on the Kirkpatrick-Wilson-Clements block is rapidly drawing to a close and the tenants will be grievously disappointed if they do not get in their new premises in time for the rush of Christmas business. The various firms are taking special pains to have the interior fittings and arrangements of their respective stores up to the standard of the building. Ewart & Carrie have already drawn plans for the Canada Drug and Book company's store and are now preparing specifications for the Kirkpatrick & Wilson store fittings. The latter are to be in native woods with mirrors at intervals. The West Kootenay Butcher company expect to be in their premises on Ward street about the first of the week.

The New Smelter Band.

The old Nelson Smelter band announces its reorganization and invites all members of the old Citizens' band to affiliate. The officers of the new organization are A. Nagorsen, chairman, and Ben Chambers, secretary. The smelter musicians desire to establish a first-class band and to allay any ill feeling that may have arisen over the instruments lately in dispute.
