The Match at Sandon.

Word was received here last evening from Sandon that the Nelson hockey team had defeated the Victorias of Rossland by a score of 5 to 4 goals. The score at half time was 4 to 1 in favor of Nelson. The last half of the game was much faster than the first and each team worked hard. This will allow the Nelson boys to play this evening against the Sandon team, the game being for the championship of the Kootenays. The Nelsonites have already defeated the Sandon team, which will give them greater encouragement to hope to win the victory. The contest. The prize given to the winning team is a handsome mackinaw coat, and it is quite probable that the Nelson boys will come home clad in the new garment.

Mine Bonded.

The Iron Horse group situated on Ten-mile creek near the Enterprise mine, was a few days ago bonded by Mark Manley of Spokane, for an eastern company with its head office at Pittsburg. The bonding price has not been made public but it is said to be a large sum. Mr. Manley arrived in Nelson last evening and will meet one of the directors of the company this evening, as he is on his way here from Pittsburg. They leave for the property tomorrow to lay out development work which will be started at once. At first only a small force will be engaged. The property is an old one and has been dormant for some time past. A tunnel has been run a length of 300 feet and has been in ore all the way. A winze has also been sunk about 20 feet. It is a silver-lead producing property and the results from the assay tests have been good. It is said that the main lead of the property is an extension of the Enterprise mine. The new company is backed up with a large capital and extensive development and improvements will be made. There is a good wagon road from the transportation point to the property and when the work gets well under way the first shipment will be made.

Samples Received Yesterday.

The samples of ore received at the Prospectors' Exchange in the K.-W.-C block yesterday are as follows: Copper ore from the Faller group, White Fish creek, East Kootenay; gold ore from the Ophir claim, Bird creek, Nelson district; gold ore from the Etlente group, Nelson district; gold ore from the Redaina group, Butterfly Pass, Windermere; copper ore from the Oronoco group, Nelson district; gold ore from the Alpine group, Slocan City; gold-copper ore from the Lily group, White Grouse Mountain district.

The List Growing.

The list of cases which will be heard at the sitting of the supreme court here next Wednesday continue to grow. One more was added today and now the total number entered is eight. The last one entered was that of Wigen vs. the Bedlington & Nelson railroad. The plaintiff, who is suing for large damages, alleges that the company constructed the road across his mineral claim, which is situated near Creston. Messrs. Elliot and Lennie will appear for the plaintiff.

FORMATION OF THE PARADE

SOCIETIES THAT ARE EXPECTED TO ATTEND.

Line of March and Ceremonies Incident to the Occasion---Militia Will Fire the Salute.

The executive committee appointed for the purpose of making arrangements for memorial services held another meeting at the fire hall yesterday afternoon and the arrangements for several details were completed. The report of the committee appointed to draft the line-up and procedure of march was considered and adopted. The line-up will be as follows:

R. M. R. Band
Militia
Mayor and City Council
Clergy
Board of Trade
Masons
Orangemen
Odd Fellows
Ancient Order of Foresters
Independent Order of Foresters
Canadian Order of Foresters
Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias
Knights of Pythias
Knights of the Maccabees
Sons of England
Eagles
Firemen
Salvation Army Band
Other Organizations
American Citizens
Other Nationalities
Citizens

The line-up of march has been drafted in this order, but it is understood that the secret societies will be given position according to the age of the organization. The committee also wish it understood that everybody is invited to participate in the ceremonies of the occasion and that the affair is not being carried out by the secret societies as is supposed by some of the general public. The committee have also asked the membrrs of the trainmen's union and the members of the local steamboat fleet to occupy a place in the procession.

The procedure of march will be as follows: From Fraternity hall east on Baker street to Josephine, south on Josephine to Victoria, west on Victoria to Kootenay, north on Kootenay to Baker, east on Baker to Ward, north on Ward to Front, along Front to Hall and up Hall to the recreation grounds.

At the grounds a systematic arrangement of the different organizations, societies and citizens will be made. A platform, which will be occupied by the clergy and members of the city council, will be erected at the northeast corner of the grounds, immediately between the two seating stands. To the left of this the band will be placed, while on the other side the space will be occupied by the militia, from where they will fire the royal salute. In connection with this charges of dynamite will be set off in the vacant lot just east of the grounds. This, in connection with the firing of the militia, will form the royal salute. Those who take part in the procession will be formed in oblique lines in front of the platform. The wives and children who wish to attend the services are requested to proceed to the recreation grounds before the procession reaches there.

Charles Hillyer, of the Nelson Saw and Planing Mill stated that he would furnish the material and erect the platform free of cost.

George Steel, T. G. Procter and Mr. Colter of the Athabasca mine were appointed as assistant marshals to Dr. Quinlan.

A large number of mourning badges consisting of a purple rosette to which is attached two short black ribbons are being prepared and will be distributed to the citizens as they take their places in the procession.

Mayor Fletcher, P. S. Shaw and Fred Starkey were appointed as a printing committee and they will look after the printing of programs which will be duly distributed to all who take part in the ceremonies.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Fishburn, Tackebury, Fowler and United States consul McLean was appointed to notify all American citizens that they have been invited to occupy a position in the procession in a body. The committee adjourned to meet in the same place at four o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Cooks' and Waiters' Union.

A meeting of the cooks and waiters of the city will be held some evening this week for the purpose of perfecting their organization. The crusade against Chinese cooks is making headway and already three of the city hotels have discharged their Chinese help, and with the perfection of the union it is hoped that others will be induced to fall into line. The majority of the white cooks are married men and they consider it somewhat of a hardship that while Chinese cooks are employed in the city they are obliged to leave their families and seek employment at the mines and other outside points in the district.

Officers Installed.

The installation of officers of the Nelson lodge of Knights of Pythias took place at the lodge room at Fraternity hall last evening. The officers are as follows: C. C., H. M. Vincent; V. C., R. E. Thompson; P. Wm. Irvine; M. of W., T. J. Bradley; K. of R. and S., A. T. Park; M. at A., A. McCuaig; I. G., W. Lynch; O. G., D. J. Steele.

FUEL FAMINE THREATENED

SCARCITY OF COAL IS CAUSING UNEASINESS.

Deliveries to the United States May Seriously Hamper the Smelting Industry.

The present fuel famine with which the smelting industry of Southern British Columbia appears threatened is causing no small degree of uneasiness among the smelting men of the province. Especially is this the case when the present shortage is viewed in connection with the rumors of large future deliveries from the source of supply to United States points.

All of the coke and coal used in the British Columbia smelters is drawn from the collieries of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Campany at Fernie, and so great has been the demand that from a surplus of production the collieries are now taxed beyond their capacity and local smelters find themselves face to face with a fuel famine.

The new smelters in the Boundary district which have no full supplies on hand were the first to feel the pinch, and in consequence their operations are likely to be greatly hampered, and their blowing in dates postponed. The B. C. Copper Company's smelter at Greenwood is about to commence operations, but it has no fuel. The company contracted for a large supply the delivery of which was to have commenced on the first of the present month but it has not came to hand. The ore bins at the smelter are full, and the ore is coming down from the Mother Lode at the rate of 100 tons per day, but without fuel the smelter can do nothing.

The Pyritic smelter is in much the same fix. It has a contract with the coal company, and although the date for the delivery is past very little if any fuel has been received.

The Greenwood Electric Company is also short of fuel, and but for the action of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company in permitting it to draw upon the railway reserve it would probably have been forced to close down.

J. Johnstone of this city, who is the representative of the coal company in this district, left for Toronto yesterday morning, and it is rumored that his mission is to consult the eastern officials of the company concerning the ore supply. When interviewed by THE TRIBUNE representative he admitted that there was not at present a sufficient output at the collieries to meet the demands made, but he explained that the scarcity was due to a breaking down of the machinery at the mine which rendered it impossible for the company to take out the required amount of coal. A new engine is now being installed, however, and he expected that the colliery would speedily catch up with the demand. Mr. Johnstone added that the company's contract with the Great Northern railway did not affect the local supply, as the railway company did not receive any but the surplus. This contract was made last fall when the capacity of the mine exceeded the demands made upon it. Mr. Johnstone will attend the annual general meeting of the company, which will be held in Toronto on February 4th.

THE DREADED ANARCHIST

EXTRAORDINARY PRECAUTIONS TO PROTECT ROYALTY.

Preparations for the Funeral Continue. Many Princes and Notables Are Gathering in London.

LONDON, January 29.—The entire detective machinery of the United Kingdom and the continent has been set in motion to protect the royal personages and other notable personages now gathering in London. Unwieldy as the continental secret services often appear to be, every effort is being made to unify them in order that no injury may befal any royal personage attendant upon the obsequies of the late queen.

Sir Edward Bradford, the energetic, one-armed commissioner of police of the metropolis, has devised elaborate plans to deal with the crush expected on Saturday, but to protect the king and princely guests precautions have been taken which are illustrated by the fact that sir Edward Bradford's residence is surrounded night and day by constables in plain clothes and detectives, and that no person is allowed to approach unless his card has been passed in.

These precautions are applied in the case of all royal personages and of the principal officers of the crown. Scotland Yard maintains the most intimate and secret affiliations with every detective agency in the world and its devices for tracing continental suspects are now being operated under chief inspector Frank Fressi, who is reputed to have a wider acquaintance with the rogues of the world than any other police chief in Europe.

Malatesta and other anarchists residing in London assert that there is not the slightest probability of violence because England is an asylum for the persecuted of the continent.

At Cowes detectives are stationed in large numbers on both sides of the Medina river inquiring into the antecedents of strangers and watching all who approach the royal personages. Nothing definite is feared, but the government desires that the utmost diligence should be exercised, especially with a view of keeping emperor William from harm.

A Special Form of Service.

LONDON, January 29.—For the first time since his accession the king's train was preceded by a pilot engine. His majesty was vociferously cheered on his way to Marlborough House.

The privy council has ordered the archbishop of Canterbury to prepare a special form of service in commemoration of the queen to be used Saturday in all churches in the kingdom.

The duke and duchess of Aosta (the former is a cousin of the king of Italy and the latter a daughter of the late count of Paris) will arrive here Thursday.

Joseph Chamberlain was among the king's visitors today.

Funeral Preparations.

COWES, January 29.—Duke Albrecht will represent the king of Wurtemburg at queen Victoria's funeral. The crown prince Ferdinand of Roumania is expected Thursday night in London. The Orleans family will be represented by the duke of Chartres, younger brother of the late count of Paris, the duke of Alencon, and the count of Eu, sons of the late duke of Nemours, between whom and the late queen Louis Philippe in 1838 tried hard to arrange a marriage. The king's order directing that the draping of buildings be purple has created no little consternation. Many buildings here and in London and other places are already covered with black. It will cause no end of expense to make the necessary alterations. In addition, the supply of purple is already getting short.

The coffin will be borne from Osborne house by the Queen's Highlanders Friday at 1:45 p. m. to a gun carriage. The household of the late queen, the royal servants and the tenantry will be drawn up on the carriage drive. The queen's pipers will lead the procession ahrough the king's gate to Trinity pier. There will be an imposing military display along the route, massed bands and drummers playing funeral marches. Behind the coffin will walk admiral sir Michael Culme-Seymour (first and principal aide-de-camp to the queen since 1899) the king, emperor William, the duke of Connaught, crown prince Frederick William of Germany, the duke of York, prince Henry of Prussia, Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein and other princes. Then will come queen Alexandria, the duchess of York and other princesses.

Bluejackets will bear the coffin from the pier to the royal yacht Albert, while admiral Culme-Seymour, four naval aides-de-camps and two ladies-in-waiting will accompany the remains. The king, the queen and the emperor will accompany the remains, and other members of the royal family will embark on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert.

Bankers desirous of joining in the manifestation of the empire's grief will endeavor to have the day made a public holiday so as to permit closing.

THE MOTHER LODE MINE

A Million Tons of Pay Ore in Sight.

GREAT COPPER PRODUCER

SMELTING FACILITIES TO BE INCREASED.

A Batch of News from the Klondike—Rich Quartz Discoveries Recently Made.

GREENWOOD, January 29.—[Special to The Tribune.]—F. L. Underwood, managing director, and W. H. Thomas, consulting engineer of the British Columbia Copper Company, returned to New York today after a week's visit. Underwood stated that the development of the Mother Lode mine in Deadwood camp had been actively pushed since June, 1896, when acquired by himself and associates and today it had over one million dollars of pay ore in sight ready for treatment. Large sums of money had been unstintedly spent in development and equipping the property with the most modern mining machinery, second to none in the district. With a new plant development can be carried on to a depth of one thousand feet.

Regarding the smelter, he says that the company would immediately build a second furnace double the size of the one now installed. It will have a nominal capacity of 400 tons. The convertor plant recently ordered will be in operation in July. His trip had more than ever confirmed him in the belief that the Boundary district would shortly take its place in the copper producing sections of the world and that the Mother Lode would become as famous as any known copper mines. As coke shipments started today from Fernie it had been decided to blow in the furnace on February 15th. Regarding No. 7 mine in Central camp, also owned by himself and associates, a policy of vigorous development would be undertaken with a view to placing it on the shipping list. Asked if his company had acquired the Oro Denero in Summit Camp, he replied in the negative, though admitting that it had been reported upon by Mr. Thomas.

The Tribune.

THE completion of its proposed line from the Boundary district to the Coast will cut 250 miles off the Canadian Pacific's run from Montreal to Vancouver.

THE TRIBUNE may be mistaken, but it will venture the opinion that W. H. Ellis will accomplish more in the way of keeping out undesirable Japanese than could ever hope to be accomplished through the friendship for British Columbia of the mikado of Japan, or his smart little consul at Vancouver.

THE balance sheet of the corporation of the city of Greenwood shows liabilities amounting to $128,553.58, with assets of a like amount. Greenwood has adopted the practice of putting street improvements in as an asset, its expenditures under this head to date being $53,714.38.

THE by-election for Vancouver, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of James F. Garden, is expected to take place before the opening of the legislature. Robert Macpherson, the defeated Martin candidate in the general elections, will run as a labor man, and up to the present no candidate has entered the lists against him.

THE Vancouver World is the authority for the statement that attorney-general Eberts is to be appointed to a position on the supreme court bench, and that the office of attorney-general will be filled by some lawyer from the Mainland. The attorney-general is now in the East upon the matter of the rearrangement of the provincial judiciary, but this is the first intimation that he would go upon the bench himself.

THE good people of Toronto seem unequal to the occasion of holding a memorial service without clashing. A lively war is now in progress to determine whether the services shall be held in St. James' cathedral, in some Presbyterian church, or in some public hall where the people of all denominations could attend. Toronto should take a lesson from Nelson and afford the people of all denominations an opportunity to pay their homage to the greatest woman of the century.

IT is to be hoped that at the approaching session of the provincial legislature some steps will be taken to encourage the reduction and refining of the ores of British Columbia within the borders of the province. In no other way can the province expect to receive that full measure of benefit which all agree should attend the development of its mineral resources. It is therefore the duty of the members of the government to decide how the desired end can best be attained. In the mining sections of the province smelters and refineries, after the mines themselves, are the chief factors in establishing towns and creating values. At present there is little or no encouragement for the treating of British Columbia ore in the province. The greater number of mines are owned by aliens, and it is not a new experience for British Columbia towns to find themselves put in competition with speculative American townsites for the location of a smelter to treat British Columbia ore. The town of Northport, in the state of Washington, is a case in point. That it has retained its position on the map is wholly due to the circumstance that British Columbia was so negligent of its own interests that it allowed the Spokane owners of the Le Roi mine to transfer to Northport the advantages as a smelting point which should have gone to Rossland. The benefits which would follow the home treatment of the ores of the province are worth securing, and the minister of finance might with profit look into the question and see what encouragement could be offered to home smelting, even through some rearrangement of the assessment upon the output of the mines of the province. The mine which has its ore treated in British Columbia is manifestly of more benefit to the province than the mine which exports its raw product to the United States, and is therefore worthy of more generous treatment. This matter becomes more urgent because of the statement recently made by Whittaker Wright, at the meeting of the shareholders of the London & Globe Corporation. Whittaker Wright is one of the chief stockholders in the British American Corporation, the present owners of the Le Roi mine, and in speaking of the company's program for the future promised that the Le Roi would "soon have one of the most "complete smelters in the country, "and would refine its own matte "instead of shipping it to the eastern refineries." This company's present smelter is at Northport, in the state of Washington. It may be the company's intention to enlarge the United States plant. Continued indifference on the part of British Columbia can have but this result, but if some intimation is given by the provincial government of the inauguration of a policy to encourage the treatment of British Columbia ores in the province it may be the result of securing the refinery for Rossland instead of Northport.

ANOTHER change has been made in the staff of the Nelson Miner by which H. W. R. Moore becomes editor. Mr. Moore is well-known in Nelson, and as secretary of W. A. Galliher's committee in the recent federal campaign contributed in no small measure to the Liberal candidate's success. The new appointment is taken to indicate that the Miner will be even more pronounced in its Liberalism than heretofore.

GREENWOOD HAPPENINGS

Briefly Recorded.

GREENWOOD, January 28.—[Special to The Tribune.]—Judge William Norman Bole, of New Westminster, presided today at the opening session of the county court, in place of judge Spinks who is in the east on a vacation. All the members of the local bar association were present. Andrew Leamy, the senior member, moved "that on behalf of the bar and litigants, in view of the death of the queen, that court stand adjourned." The motion was seconded by J. R. Brown, junior member. Judge Bole in reply delivered an eloquent oration on the life of her majesty. On motion of H. C. Shaw, seconded by A. M. Whiteside, the minutes of the proceedings were ordered placed on the court records. The judge fixed the date for the next session on February 26th.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. are arranging for the establishment of a reading room. Later on it is hoped to institute a free library.

Robert Wood has gone to Fairview to meet the expert sent out by the Toronto parties to examine the 3000 acres of coal lands owned by himself and associates of this city.

Massam & Laidlaw have let a contract for the extension of the Ah There shaft in Deadwood camp 125 feet. It is down 110 feet.

The force on the properties of the Dominion Copper Company in Phoenix camp has been increased to 100 men.

Hockey practices are being held with a view to entering a team at the Rossland carnival.

KING'S VISIT TO TORONTO.

Toronto Telegram.

It is a long cry from 1860 to 1901, 45 years in fact, and it is somewhat hard to realize that more than four decades have elapsed since Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, now Edward VII, Rex. I., visited Toronto, the "Queen City of the west."

It was in September, 1860; the first hues of autumn were already visible in the foliage, the "provincial exhibition," of which the Toronto industrial exhibition is the lineal descendant, was being talked about, pater familias had settled down after the holidays, and mater familias, now that "the girls were back to school again, thank goodness," was thinking of the coming Christmas and its responsibilities, that the prince of Wales, now king of England—"Long live the king"—visited Toronto.

Adam Wilson, Q. C., was mayor, and among those who took part in the work of the committee was the present postmaster of Toronto, T. C. Patterson, the late sir G. B. Robinson, Bart., colonel E. W. Thomson, president of the "Veterans of 1812," and R. L. Denison of Dovercourt, who was marshal, the present police magistrate, G. T. Denison, then in command of the Toronto Squadron York Cavalry, now the Governor General's Body Guards, captain George Brooke, who commanded the 1st Company Toronto Rifles, the genesis, as it really was, of the present Queen's Own Rifles, besides others.

The king arrived in Toronto by steamer. It was the Kingston, of the Royal Mail line (G. B. Holland was for many years the secretary) by which he traveled, and was received with every mark of respect. Whilst in Toronto his life was one incessant whirl of gaiety and ceremonial parade. He attended a ball at the old "Crystal Palace." One or two of his partners still live in Toronto; They have grandsons and granddaughters at their knee, yet they think still, with interest, of the day "they danced with the prince."

More still, he was at a volunteer militia review, a R. C. Y. C. regatta, a reception at Varsity, and numerous other functions. Besides this he received deputations from this or the other learned or unlearned body, and made himself generally popular everywhere.

After four days he took his departure, and all united in the prayer voiced in later years in song, "God Bless the Prince of Wales."

Reparation to Italians.

WASHINGTON, January 29.—The president today sent a message to congress renewing his recommendation of last session that congress make gracious provision for indemnity to the families of the two victims of the Tullulah, La., lynching, July 20, 1899, who were subjects of the Italian government. The message is accompanied by a report made by the secretary of state, in which he says: "On representations made of the affair by the Italian ambassador at this capital, the governor of Louisiana, at the request of the secretary of state, took prompt and active measures with a view of bringing the guilty parties to justice. The matter has been the subject of careful investigation by the federal government, and has been investigated by three successive grand juries of the parish of Madison with the result that no indictment has been found, nor other steps taken resulting in the apprehension and punishment of the guilty parties, and notwithstanding the cordial co-operation of the governor of the state with the federal government in order to bring them to justice, he reports that he is not prepared to say what further steps will be taken.

Filipinos Turn Protestants.

MANILA, January 29.—Dr. Kruger, the German consul-general here, has cabled to the Berlin government asking that the German ambassador at Washington be instructed to diplomatically urge the passage of of the Spooner bill. Two mining corporations organized in Germany are anxious to begin operations in the Philippines but cannot do so until the status of mining claims is established by a permanent government. Similar action will probably be taken by the British consul.

Buencamino and some of the other Filipino leaders in Manila have about decided to become Protestants and are considering the organization of an evangelical church. In an interview today Buencamino said he had learned the Pope had decided to restore the friars to their former position in the Philippines and Buencamino added that the Filipinos would not submit to that and the effect will be that they will shortly leave the Catholic church in great numbers. No public meeting has been held, but the leaders of the movement meet privately tonight to discuss the question with Rev. J. B. Rodgers, a missionary of the Presbyterian board, who advises the establishment of an evangelical church. The principals in the project are Buencamino, Dr. Rosario, Lavara and Flores. All of these men are members of the executive committee of the federal party, but chief justice Arellano and attorney general Torres, the remaining members of that committee, adhere strictly to the Catholic church, and have distinctly declared the movement towards Protestantism does not emanate from the party organization, nor is it connected with the organization.

The Venezuelan Uprising.

WILLEMSTAD, Isle of Curacao, January 29.—Investigation shows that the schooner recently burned by the Venezuelan gunboat Miranda was a Venezuelan vessel and not British. Only vague reports reach here regarding the events which are transpiring in the vicinity of Carupano. That town is first in the possession of the insurgents and then again occupied by the government forces. As this dispatch is forwarded the Venezuelan government troops are occupying Carupano at which the French cruiser Suchet remains at anchor.

Advices from Barcelona say the government troops in that neighborhood are pursuing the insurgents very actively. The dispute between the Bermudese and New York Asphalt Company is still unsettled.

The United States minister not wishing to cause any further difficulties for the Venezuelan government at this time, it is said, has proposed the presentation of an ultimatum on the subject. But United States warships are expected. The Lancaster is on her way to La Guayra and the Scorpion is at Guiria.

The Venezuelan government has advised the Bermudese Company to appeal to the Venezuelan courts, but the company refuses to do so, alleging that the courts are under the influence of president Castro. On the other hand, it is said the United States minister is making an inquiry into the dispute and that as soon as it has been ended attempts to cancel the concessions of the Bermudese Company will no longer be tolerated.

NELSON MINES AND MINING

The Juno Property.

M. S. Logan, managing director of the Juno Mining Company, made a trip of inspection to the property on Morning mountain yesterday and he is greatly pleased with the way in which the work is progressing. A development tunnel is being run on the main ledge, which is known as the Venus vein, and has now reached a depth of 250 feet. This will be continued until the point is reached where the Juno vein intersects the Venus ledge. It is thought that the intersection of the two veins is about 700 or 800 feet from the mouth of the present tunnel. They will have to proceed over 400 feet yet. There is one interesting feature about the vein and that is it proves to be exceedingly regular as it is exposed. From the time that the work was commenced it has been carried on continually and it is intended to keep this up until the Juno vein is tapped. The average value from 60 to 70 samples of ore taken from different points along the ledge give about $22. Mr. Logan brought down with him several samples of free milling ore, which he took from the face of the tunnel, and they are exceedingly promising looking. He left for his home at Rossland last evening.

An Old Mining Claim.

John Miles, the owner of the Paradise claim situated on the divide between Eagle and Forty-nine creeks, was in the city yesterday. This property is probably one of the oldest in that district and considerable development work has been done on it. The assessment was completed and the property was crown granted a year ago. Since that time Mr. Miles has been running a tunnel for the purpose of clearly showing the true value of the property. The tunnel is now in to a depth of 80 feet and has been on the ledge all the way. When the vein was uncovered it was six inches wide, but at the inner end of the tunnel its width is over seven feet. It is clearly defined by distinct slate walls and carries high values in gold. Mr. Miles thinks that he has the richest property in that section of the country.

Slocan District Looking Up.

C. Murphy of Slocan City, who holds large mining interests in the Slocan district, was in the city yesterday. He states that the mining industry in that section of the country is increasing and he looks for prosperous times during the coming year. He said that there were several deals pending for some of the important properties. This he expects will bring into the country a large amount of capital and more extensive development will be done.

Many Want to Enlist

Although the application forms for enlistment in the South African Constabulary have been in the possession of lieutenant Beer for only two days, over fifteen have been made out by young men of Nelson and forwarded to the department at Ottawa. Many letters from parties at outside places, inquiring about the matter, are being received daily. There seems to be a large number who wish to enlist in the service of his majesty. Mr. Beer has written to the officers of Greenwood, Grand Forks and other places in the Boundary country stating that application forms can be obtained from him by parties wishing to enlist from those points.

Will Attend the Services.

The members of Queen's Lodge No 241, Sons of England, will attend the funeral services to be held at St. Saviour's church, at 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, in order to pay a tribute of respect to the late sovereign, queen Victoria. The members are requested to meet in the school room adjoining the church at 2:45 p. m. sharp. A portion of the seats will be reserved for the society. The services will be conducted by Rev. H. S. Akehurst and will be the regular English church burial ceremonies, with the appropriate alterations. Special music will be rendered by the choir. The above order will also attend the public services arranged by the city. At 10:30 holy communion will be celebrated at the church.

Asked to Co-operate.

City clerk Strachan sent out communications to the clerks of all the towns of eastern British Columbia yesterday. The notice was as follows: "I am directed by the local board of health of the city of Nelson, to ask the co-operation of your council in urging the provincial board of health to issue orders and regulations for the enforcement of compulsory vaccination throughout the province."

Two games of curling were played at the rink last evening. The line-up of the rinks and the result of the games was as follows:
