Fifth Annual Authors' Reception

The Library is pleased to co-sponsor with President Strangway the Fifth Annual Reception to honour UBC authors and their books.

The Reception is a special occasion where we celebrate the richness of our Library and also, in many instances, our faculties' use of our extensive collections to produce new books for the Library. This year we acknowledge 112 authors who have published over 115 titles.

As in previous years, these authors have written on a wide range of subjects and their expertise is impressive. The quality of a University is very much a result of the wide ranging network of scholarly and professional contacts that faculty members develop and maintain throughout their careers, and a world class Library is an essential component of the scholarly endeavor.
