

FINAL!

Annual Poster Session

& Special Book Launch!

N E X U S

Researching the Social Contexts of Health Behaviour

Wednesday, September 30

3:30 pm – 5:30 pm

NEXUS

6190 Agronomy Rd. [map]

2nd Floor Boardroom

UBC, Vancouver

Poster Session

Book Launch

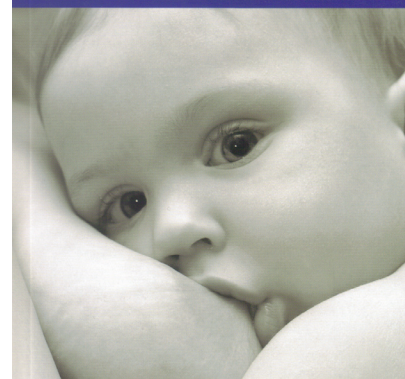

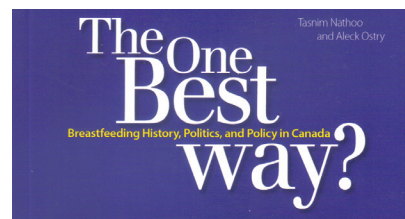

Alcohol and simultaneous poly-substance use: Patterns and psychosocial determinants, Warren Michelow (NEXUS doctoral trainee)

Do people interpret and respond to questions about their emotional wellbeing in a comparable manner? Rick Sawatzky (NEXUS co-investigator), Kopec, J.A., Sayre, E.C., & Zumbo, B.D.

Do relational differences in demographic and work values result in conflict and burnout in the nursing workforce? Angela Wolff (NEXUS doctoral trainee), Ratner, P., Robinson S., Oliffe, J., McGillis Hall, L.

Gender differences in reported symptoms of myocardial ischemia, Martha Mackay, (NEXUS doctoral trainee), Ratner, P.A., Buller, C.E., & Johnson, J.L.

Quality of death: Obituaries as indicators of disease constructs, Carolyn Gotay (NEXUS co-investigator), & Bartley N.

NEXUS lead investigator Aleck Ostry and colleague Tasnim Nathoo take a critical look at the history of Canadian breastfeeding policy and practices in their new book published by Wilfred Laurier Press (July 2009). The One Best Way? Breastfeeding History, Politics, and Policy in Canada takes a historical approach to lay out the social, political, cultural, and economic context within which current breastfeeding debates are couched. Join us for a book talk and discussion with Tasnim!

Join us for an afternoon exploring the social contexts of health!

Refreshments • Art Raffle • & More!

Book copies available for sale for $25 (cash & credit card accepted).

Please RSVP to nexus@nursing.ubc.ca. Details at www.nexus.ubc.ca.