

Social Contexts: New Frontiers in Health Behaviour Research

Tuesday, 27th April, 2004, Green College Coach House, University of British Columbia

Program

8.30 – 9.00 a.m.	Registration
9.00-9.10 a.m.	Welcome & Introduction (Joan Bottorff)
9.10 – 10.00 a.m.	Keynote: Dr Blake Poland , University of Toronto: Theorizing the social context of smoking in terms of collective lifestyles and habitus at the intersection of power relations, consumption/identity, and place.
10.00-10.30 a.m.	Coffee break in Reception Rooms
10.30 a.m.-11.00 a.m.	Dr Birgit Reime (NEXUS, UBC): Researching the social contexts of health behaviour: A comprehensive literature review.
11.00 a.m. – 12.15 p.m.	Examples of NEXUS Research Dr Jean Shoveller : Socio-cultural Influences on young people's sexual development. Dr Gregory T. Hislop : The development and evaluation of a PAP screening intervention for Chinese women. Dr Lynda Balneaves : Complementary therapy decision making by people living with cancer: The role of social networks Dr Jane Buxton : The social contexts of methamphetamine use
12.15 – 1.30 p.m.	Buffet lunch in Reception Rooms Poster display in Reception Rooms

1.30 – 2.30 p.m. Exploring the social contexts of health behaviour: Trainee research.

Robin Cox: Unmasking the metaphor: Exploring traumatic stress as a culturally embedded phenomenon.

Annette Schultz: Hospital nurses' engagement in tobacco reduction: A comparison study of nurses employed at two western Canadian hospitals.

Colleen Reid: The Effect of Ideology and Stereotypes on Poor Women's Health: Revisiting the Social Determinants of Health.

2.30-3.00 p.m. Coffee break in Reception Rooms

3.00 – 4.00 p.m. Approaches to investigating social contexts: methodological considerations

Dr Pamela Ratner: Methodological approaches to the study of social contexts and their influence on individual behaviour

Dr Lorraine Greaves: Including sex and gender in research.

4.00 – 4.30 p.m. Dr Poland leads a response to the day, and closes.