Dr. Tokujiro Kanamori,
National Diet Library,
Tokyo,
Japan.

Dear Dr. Kanamori,

I acknowledge, with many thanks, on behalf of the University of British Columbia Library, receipt of a copy of volume 1, No.1, (July-August 1955) of the International Librarian. I should like to compliment you and your colleagues not only on the contents of the magazine, but also on the wonderful indexing and abstracting services described in your article "Some aspects of Current Bibliographical Activities in Japan".

May I also add a personal note to say how much we appreciate being designated as a depository library to receive copies of all your government publications. These we hope will help to build a bridge of understanding between Japan and Canada.

To you and to my friends on your staff, I send my warmest personal greetings. It is with a great deal of pleasure that I recall meeting you, and hearing you speak in 1953/54 when I was teaching at the Japan Library School.

With every good wish,

Sincerely yours,

Anne M. Smith
