

Errata

Original Document: “Elders’ teachings on indigenous leadership : leadership is a gift”

Link: <https://circle.ubc.ca/handle/2429/5600>

Author: Alannah Earl Young

Page 32, Second Paragraph line 1, 5th word

INSERT correct orthography for x^wməθk^wəy̓əm (Musqueam)

Page 32 Second Paragraph, line 5, 14th word

INSERT Correct orthography for sɣ^wayɣ^wəy

Page 32, Second Paragraph line 3, 7th word

INSERT correct orthography for həñqəmin̓əm

Page 32, Third Paragraph line 1, 6th word & 12th word

INSERT correct orthography x^wməθk^wəy̓əm Musqueam

INSERT Seabird Island after x^wməθk^wəy̓əm Musqueam

Page 32, Fourth paragraph, line 1, 12th word OMIT the word... sXwayxw@y

Page 32, Fifth paragraph, line 2, 10th word OMIT the word... great-grandfather

Page 32, Fifth paragraph INSERT the word Ti' te-in after first word

Page 32, Fifth paragraph 3rd word, INSERT correct orthography for x^wməθk^wəy̓əm

Replace with the following text:

Larry Grant is x^wməθk^wəy̓əm (Musqueam) and Coast Salish, as the anthropologists call the people. He is a sessional instructor in the First Nations language program at UBC, where he teaches həñqəmin̓əm language. He is the current FNHL Elder in Residence and provides guidance to the LLP and teaches protocols to the FNHL community. He is a former band counsellor, a grandfather, and a big house sɣ^wayɣ^wəy dancer.

Norma Rose Point is x^wməθk^wəy̓əm (Musqueam/ Seabird Island) and has worked for x^wməθk^wəy̓əm education committee since 1965.

Gerry Oleman, Saa Hiił Thut is from the Stl'atl'imx Nation, he is a big house dancer and grandfather.

Hopokeltun Ti' te-in is x^wməθk^wəy̓əm Musqueam and Coastal Salish, he is a grandfather, big house dancer and traditional speaker.