Two Basketball Games Held On Monday

Basketball appears likely to head the list of indoor sports in Anyox this winter, judging by present signs. Two good games were played on Monday last, the teams from the Concentrator and the Mechanics A and B clashing. In the first of these, the "B" game, Concentrator won 15-9. Considering the personnel of the Mechanic squad, they did well to hold the millmen back to this extent, as most of the lathemen are beginners at the game. It was a good go, full of action and keeness, and both teams will show up even better in the near future.

The second game in which the Concentrator and Mechanics "A" teams met, ended also in a victory for the crusher and flotation crew by a score of 26-20. The teams were splendidly matched and the game provided much excitement for the fans, all the players being willing to go the limit.

Four "A" and four "B" teams should make the sport attractive this winter, and fans are looking forward to many thrilling battles.

Anyox Canadian Legion Armistice Activities

Fifteen years since Armistice! Yet despite the passing of time, the remembrance of that day of sadness and gladness, of sorrow and laughter, is as vivid as though it were but yesterday. It was a day of tremendous import to us all especially by ex-service men and women.

The Anyox Branch of the Canadian Legion are preparing with their customary enthusiasm to celebrate Armistice. Their programme follows:

Wednesday, November 8th, Poppy Day.

Friday, November 10th. Armistice Dance.

Saturday, November 11th. Parade to Cemetery and decoration of graves of ex-service men. Annual Smoker in the Elks' Dugout.

Sunday, November 12th. Annual Memorial Service in Recreation Hall..

Outside Bodies Not To Use Picture Shows

At a recent meeting of the Beach Council of the A. C. L. an important decision was arrived at, with regard to allowing other organizations to run shows for the purpose of raising funds. It was decided that such requests be not granted. The question came up through an application from the I. O. D. E. for permission to run a show for the purpose stated.

Anyox Rovers' Concert Was Greatly Enjoyed

A large crowd of Anyox people attended the variety concert given by the Rover troop in the Recreation Hall on Wednesday evening last. The lengthy programme contained a number of interesting and entertaining items, and the concert proved to be most enjoyable. The best thanks of the Rovers are extended to all those who so kindly assisted in making the concert a success, and especially to Mrs. Kent and Mr. Dresser for their services as accompanists.

T. W. Falconer Is Confident Of Victory

T. W. Falconer arrived home on Thursday from a campaign tour of Stewart and Premier Mine. He held meetings at both places and was given a warm welcome. The meeting at Stewart was exceptionally well attended. During his stay at the head of the canal Mr. Falconer met a large number of people, and he says that there is no question but that he will receive the largest number of votes in that district. With a big vote assured at Anyox his success seems certain.

H. F. Kergin Held Meeting On Thursday

H. F. Kergin, who is seeking re-election for Atlin held a well attended meeting in the Elks' Hall Anyox on Thursday evening. Mr. H. Fowler was chairman. Mr. Kergin reviewed his record for the past 13 years. He criticized his opponents and also the late Conservative government. In reply to a question, he stated that his platform in the future would be the same as in the past.

Mr. Shenton Objects To Statement

The following telegram was received at the Herald office yesterday, October 27th. from Mr. T. J. Shenton, C. C. F. candidate.

"I note Mr. Asselstine in article of October 21st. of your paper states that C. C. F. policy is purely socialistic and is a transplantation from Russia. The latter clause of statement I declare to be a falsehood of the most dishonest type.

T. J. Shenton.

Owing to the death of W. J. Bowser, which occurred on Wednesday at Vancouver, the election in Vancouver centre and one Victoria constituency has been postponed. In consequence no absentee votes from these constituencies can be received next Thursday.

Mr. H. Fowler Also Gives Lengthy Speech

A well attended meeting was held at the Alice Arm Hotel on Tuesday evening by Mr. H. F. Kergin, who is seeking re-election to the Legislature at the forthcoming election. He spoke fluently on many topics and his explanation of the various subjects under discussion convinced his audience that he was very familiar with parliamentary affairs.

Mr. Harry Fowler, who was chairman, opened the meeting with an eloquent address. He reviewed many subjects relating to present day problems, and explained how they could be remedied.

We have. Mr. Fowler said, in opening his address, seen both good and bad times in this district, but present day conditions are worse than at any previous time. We can, however, help to better conditions by electing good men to represent us at Victoria in the coming election.

He strongly condemned former Conservative governments under Premiers McBride and Bowser for giving away the resources of the province to the capitalists, who now held large tracts of land that could provide good homes for many people. The Conservatives, he said, also squandered the people's money, and we are now paying for their folly. But, he said, the people at that time demanded it, and he mentioned the disappointment at Stewart in 1910 when the government refused to build a railway into the Groundhog Country, until a tonnage was guaranteed.

The Liberal government, he said also spent money too freely, but the people again demanded it, and they got what they wanted. But it is our duty now to get behind men and elect them, that will stop this reckless expenditure.

He criticized the Independents, and said that of 35 Conservatives in the Legislature under Premier Tolmie, 31 were now running as Independents., and that as soon as a Federal election was held they would again be Conservatives.

Mr. Fowler criticized the building of the Alice Arm-Naas River road by the Department of Public Works, and he would like to ask the Hon. R. H. Bruhn who authorised the building of the road.

In connection with relief work he said that the Liberal party went on record for all relief payments to be made by cheque.

Criticism was levelled at Mr. T. W. Falconer by the speaker, who asked why the Independent candidates were coming before the people as such, and said that Mr. Falconer was not honest with himself.

Considerable criticism was also levelled at the C. C. F. and Mr. T. J. Shenton. How could the C. C. F. the speaker asked carry on as a government if it wasn't a party. Mr. Shenton, he said has told us that he is financially broke. He has for the past 13 years held the position of Mines Inspector for this district at a good salary. If he cannot handle his own money better than that, he is, in my opinion a poor representative for us to send to Victoria to assist in handling the people's money. Mr. Shenton has also told us that he was only receiving $35.00 a month from the government for superannuation allowance which he did not think was fair, but he is not entitled to more or he would receive it. It is no use for us to send the C. C. F. to Victoria if they refuse to work with any other party, but he said I don't think they will get very far judging from the recent elections on the prairie.

In concluding he urged his audience to vote for Mr. Kergin on November 2nd. whose past record at Victoria he said, speaks for itself.

Mr. H. F. Kergin was the next speaker, and in opening his address said that for a time it looked as though he would not be a candidate. There were those, perhaps, who wished that he had not offered himself as a candidate, but since the Liberal convention had been held at Anyox many people had urged him to become a candidate. Since he had announced his candidature he had received a large number of requests, some from unexpected quarters, urging him to stay with it. These requests had been received from all over the riding.

The speaker outlined the work done in the Alice Arm section under the Liberal regime, and mentioned the road to the wharf, suspension bridges over the Kitsault River, building of the Illiance and Kitsault valley trails and other projects. He said that every thing done had been warranted, and not a single complaint had been received in regard to graft or useless expenditure of public money.

Outlining legislation undertaken by the Liberal government, Mr. Kergin said they passed the Act making it compulsory to pay the workers every two weeks; also the Workmen's Compensation Act; Mothers' Pensions; the Minimum Wage Act and other Social legislation.

He severely criticized the no patronage plank of the Tolmie government and said that one of the first things they did when coming into power was to discharge Norman Watt, government agent at Prince Rupert, but who was later

Don't Fail To Secure Hospital Dance Ticket

Responding generously to the appeal of the ladies of the Hospital Auxiliary, the public of Anyox are giving their support to the Hospital Dance, which will be held on Monday next in the Gymnasium. As a consequence it is expected that this dance will be one of the most successful yet held. The committee are doing everything possible to ensure an evening of real enjoyment. The floor, the music, and the supper will be the best. Anyone who has not yet had the opportunity of attending a Hospital Dance in Anyox has a treat in store for them. There is no worthier cause than this one, which has for its object the providing of extra comforts for the hospital patients the whole year round, and the appeal goes out for support for this dance. If you have not yet secured a ticket, do so today.

Anglican Church Y. P. A. Re-organizes

Kergin. Prior to the meeting an enjoyable time was spent by all present in the playing of several interesting games.

Armistice Dance An Annual Event of Importance

Friday, November the 10th. has been happily chosen for the holding of the Annual Armistice Dance for the next day is a holiday. Add to this fact the enjoyment of this great occasion—for the Armistice Dance is one of the best functions of the kind held in Anyox—and you have cause for rejoicing.

Everyone knows this dance and everyone goes, so if you are a newcomer to the district, start now to anticipate one of the gladdest dances of the year. The music will be of the best, and everything else will be, as Charles Dickens says. "similar according." Anticipate and then participate.

Closing Comments on The Political Campaign

This will be the last issue of The Herald before the general election, which will be held next Thursday. As far as we are concerned the battle is over, and our next issue will carry the result of the voting in the Atlin constituency, and general election news throughout the Province.

On Thursday next the electors of Atlin will choose from the five candidates one man who will represent them at Victoria for the next four or five years. He must be an Independent, a Liberal or a Socialist. It is the duty of every elector to think very seriously before marking the ballot paper. We are living in abnormal times, fraught with great dangers. Wise statesmanship will be needed to keep the ship of state on an even keel, and the election of anyone who has not the true interests of the province and its people at heart is liable to cause a wreck, and bring worse confusion at Victoria than has at any time previously existed.

At the present time we need at Victoria, men strong willed enough and big enough to stand above party politics as we have known them in the past, and vote in favor of any measure that is for the good of the people as a whole, irrespective of whom sponsors the measure.

Since the campaign started you have heard the views of the five candidates either at the meetings or through the columns of the Herald. Every candidate has been given an equal opportunity to express his views. Halls have been unstintingly placed at their disposal for meetings and the Herald has reported their utterances without fear or favor. We have avoided criticism as much as possible as we believe that the electors can form their own opinions without the assistance of any hysterical condemnation of any candidate on our part. Before closing, however we intend to say a few words in regard to the qualifications of the C. C. F. to govern this Province, and the advisability of sending Mr. T. J. Shenton to Victoria to represent us. We are publishing these comments regarding the C. C. F, purely for the reason that we do not believe that it is in the best interests of the province at the present time, to commit ourselves into the hands of the leaders of the C. C. F. some of whom are advanced socialists.

The C. C. F., The Farmer, The Press, Confiscation, Religion and Mr. Shenton

The Co-operative Commonwealth Federation was born on the prairies. The cause of its birth was because the wheat growers were getting low prices for their wheat. They could not pay their mortgages off, nor their indebtedness at the banks. These debts had been incurred principally by the farmers in buying more land when wheat prices were high and recklessly purchasing much up-to-date machinery, which, as a rule, they allow to rust in the fields. In the fall of 1929 they made the biggest blunder in agricultural history, when they held hundreds of millions of bushels of wheat for higher prices, at a time when wheat was selling on the open market at $1.35 a bushel. They got pinched in the fall of prices that followed and they howled for sympathy and they have been howling increasingly louder ever since.

They formed the C. C. F. and invited the miners, muckers, smeltermen, loggers etc. of B. C. to join them and help them back to prosperity. These same farmers never recognized a labor union when wheat was selling anywhere above $1.25 a bushel and they won't again when it rises to that level. Labor to them is just a commodity to be bought in the cheapest market. Some socialists in B. C., however, joined the C. C. F. movement, and socialized it. At their Provincial Convention a short time ago, they passed measures for the censorship of the press, the confiscation of all property except farms, and they advocated the issuance of scrip money when elected to power at Victoria, instead of real money.

They would not recognize a religion, judging by the remarks, alleged to have been made by Mr. W. A. Pritchard, leader of the C. C. F. in B. C. If his party were elected he would naturally become Premier. His views on religion should be of interest to many people who are supporting the C. C. F.

Here is an extract from page 293 of "The Silent Force," a history of the Royal North-west Mounted Police, by T. Morris Lonstreth:

"The Calgary convention was a stirring success. The advantages of a state without either capital or Deity were aired, and when Mr. Pritchard was asked to make a speech giving his qualifications for office, he said that it was scarcely necessary, "but that I will tell you that I am running against the late lamented Mr. Christ," a statement, which though marked less by good taste than emphasis, was greeted by laughter and applause sufficient to show that it summed up the auspices under which the new movement was working."

Will Mr. Shenton support this agnostic doctrine of Mr. Pritchard's and continue to work with him in his campaign against "the late Mr. Christ."

It looks as though he must for Mr. Pritchard is a member of the committee of twelve who sit in judgment on all C. C. F. matters, and all candidates must subscribe to that doctrine to receive the consent of the committee of twelve in regard to their candidature.

If the leaders of the C. C. F. in B. C. had left religion alone, if they had not threatened the press with the extinction of their hard won liberty, and not advocated the socialization of all private property, then their chances of gaining power would have been immeasurably greater. As it is the extremists seem to wield the power, which is a great pity.

Mr. Shenton is probably sincere in his efforts, but the fact remains that his actions in the Legislature would be governed entirely by the famous committee of 12. Could he fight against them. We believe not. For they have the power to recall any member that acts contrary to their wishes.

To The Electors Of Atlin!

As previously announced, I am in the field at the request of a large number of Electors of the Atlin Riding as a straight Independent Candidate, attached to neither Party, Leader or Group, and with perfect freedom to act on each issue that comes up for debate, on its merits.

If I am honored by being elected on November 2nd. I do not intend to go to Victoria with a chip on my shoulder with the intention of quarreling with the government in power, no matter what party or brand it may be. My earnest endeavor will be to help as much as possible to lift the cloud of depression which has hung over this Province and the Atlin Constituency since 1929.

The first great effort must be expended on the Party System and the associated "Patronage" decease. I cannot believe that any British Columbia Government can get down to the real business of the Province until such a time as the political battles, which last during the whole of each session, are eradicated, and the members elect to join hands in the ranks of harmony and good government.

We all realize that the problems confronting the incoming government are great, and it will take lots of team work, good level heads and sound thinking to improve conditions.

There will be forty-seven members elected and we cannot afford to vote for even one that will not be sincere in his efforts on behalf of the Province.

We have five candidates in the Atlin Riding and I would ask each elector to think seriously before marking his or her ballot on election day. The record and qualification of each candidate is fairly well known throughout the district and I sincerely hope that Atlin will be fortunate in the selection made.

Yours sincerely,

T. W. FALCONER,
The Independent Candidate

H. F. Kergin Opens His Campaign In District At Alice Arm

reinstated. They gave $25,000 to the head of the Liquor Control Board to resign, and appointed three men in his place. They pensioned Mr. Pauline off at $350.00 per month and appointed Mr. Burden, then minister of lands, as the Provincial Agent in London.

Relief work methods carried out by the late government were condemned by Mr. Kergin, who said that all the money appropriated was spent before the camps were built. Wages, he said, were not uniform, and in one camp 105 men were classified as carpenters. He also condemned the use of too much machinery for road work, and said that the only thing it did here was to pile big rocks on the roads, spoiling them.

He condemned the late government for disfranchising all Doukobors, and said that the Conservatives contemplated at one time to disfranchise all men in government relief camps. Also, that they had considered discriminating against naturalized Canadians when voting at elections.

The Conservative government, he said, had approached the Liberals with a view of forming a Union Government, so that all would be re-lected again. When I moved a resolution, he said, in the Legislature, in regard to an enquiry into the cause of the strike at Anyox, and an investigation as to working conditions there, the Conservatives all voted against it. Those voting for it were all Liberals and Tom Uphill, Labor member.

In reviewing the work undertaken by the Conservatives in connection with the surveying of the Alaska-Yukon Highway, he said that $40,000 had been charged up to Atlin, although the work was done in four ridings. Among the items of expenditure there was $340.00 for 8 dead horses, $52.50 for Aneriod Barometer, $69.90 for 3 Kodaks, $14,882.75 for Canadian Western Airways, $32,00 for Binoculars, Stenography services for report amounted to $13.75.

Mr. Kergin criticized the other candidates and said that the non-patronage platform advocated by T. W. Falconer at the last election had not been carried out by him, and quoted several instances to confirm his statements. In regard to Mr. H. W. M. Rolston, he said that he was a potential Conservative candidate iu 1920. He actively supported the Provincial Party in 1924 under General A. D. McRae and in 1928 he sought the Conservative candidature. In 1930 he campaigned for Mr. Brady, the Conservative candidate.

What is the C. C. F. he asked. Dr. Telford tells us it is not a party. The C. C. F. is worse than any party. Its parliamentary policy will be controlled by a committee of nine. (This was recently raised to twelve.) The committee endorses every political candidate, and every candidate will do just what this committee tells him to do. If the C. C. F. were elected to power the people of the province would be completely governed by this secret nine. Every C. C. F. candidate has pledged himself to this effect.
