Col. Spencer Leaves for south

Col. Victor Spencer and D. Sloan, who have spent the past week examining the Dolly Varden and Wolf, left on Friday for Vancouver. Pressure of business in the South necessitated Col. Spencer's departure earlier than he had planned. Mr. Slocum of Pennsylvania, who is examining the properties is expected to leave for the south today. Col. Spencer stated that at least three weeks would lapse before any public statement would be made regarding future operations. He had greatly enjoyed his visit here and hoped to return.

J. E. Merryfield, provincial conservative organizer was a visitor in Alice Arm and Anyox on Monday. He is returning to Vancouver from an extended visit to Ottawa.

W. S. Bacon, mining engineer of Vancouver, arrived at Alice Arm on Monday to examine the Eagle, LeRoi, and Silver Cord mining properties, recently bonded by Mr. McMorris of Vancouver.

Elks' Baseball Team are Improving in Form

The Elks and Mine played a postponed game on Saturday evening, in which Orr and Smith hooked up in another pitching duel, the former coming off first with a two to one win. Two hits, one a triple, were all made off Orr, while the Mine were retired via the strike-out route. Sensational work around the keystone sack by Harris, turned the Antlered Herd back on several occasions. This player also stole home for the winning run of the game. Smith pitched winning ball all the way, Eight hits were made off his delivery, but several of them being of the scratch variety and should never have been hits at all. Smith made a strong hit to tie up the count in the sixth, when he connected with one of Orr's fast ones. for three bases, but he was out at home plate on a fielder's choice. Umpires Oleson and McIntosh.

In a regular league fixture on Monday evening, the Elks finally managed to stop the Miner's winning streak, winning by an eight to five score, The Miners scored first and were leading two nothing in the third frame. In the fourth, however, the boys from the hill ascended, five hits and a flock of errors, sent six runs over the platter. The losers made a strong bid in the fifth, when Smith weakened and three runs were chased across. But the Bills were not to be denied they added one in the fifth and another in the sixth to put the game on ice. The last marker was the best of the game when Down scored from second on Brown's bunt. Umpires Oleson and McIntosh.

Alice Arm Man Disappears

No trace has yet been found of Ed. Cullion, who disappeared on Sunday morning, and his fate remains a mystery, A short time previous to his disappearance he had been acting strangely, and early on Sunday morning he was brought down from the LaRose mine to be taken to the hospital. He escaped shortly after and his hat was found on the approach of the Kitsault river bridge. Search was at once instituted, supplemented later by Constable W. Smith of Anyox. All footprints on trails were followed, cabins in the district searched, the river dragged, and every thing possible done, but to no avail. Ed. has been a resident of Alice Arm for three years and was employed as teamster by Miles Donald.

The big log carrying barge Drumrock, towed by the tug Lorne arrived at Alice Arm from Powell River on Saturday evening, and is loading logs from the booms of the Abbotsford Logging Co. and J. Wheatley.

Crowds Attend Dance Given by Mine Ball Team

Just that particular attraction, arousing more than usual interest than is attached to an ordinary dance resulted in crowds assembling on the hill Monday evening, when the Mine Ball Team were hosts to a dance with music from the Melodians' orchestra. Considering the boys registered their first loss of the season just prior to the "hop" but nothing daunted, they were all there with "bells on" to welcome their guests; prominent among them being the ever popular Les Lane, and his stalwart sidekickers, Stan Harris, Bobby Orr, and Billy Wendell.

A novelty of the affair was a series of moonlight dances, an open air effect being obtained by subdued lights, and a touch of the cabaret was introduced when, following the supper intermission. Bud Sheen—The Mine Club idol—obliged with a trio of songs.

Advance work was ably undertaken by Dick Brown, the Club's caterer de luxe, who prepared coffee, the Misses Gracie Stevens and Patricia Dermody, of the ticket sales force, and Henry McDonald of the publicity department. Completing the event, were the Melodians, the boys who have obtained the reputation of supplying a constantly improving and up-to-date programme of dance music. A strong contingent of Beach visitors were present mingling with their friends at the Mine.

Alice Arm Logging Commence

The high lead system and a tight line will be used in pulling and dumping the logs into the water.

A dance in aid of the camp fund of Anyox Boy Scouts was held in the Gymnasium on Wednesday June 23rd. the revenue derived from this affair will be placed at the disposal of the Anyox Boy Scouts who have been trying to accumulate the sum of $400 by their enterprising endeavours during the last few months in putting on various kinds of entertainment, to help defray their expenses to Roberts Creek camp.

This dance was well attended, and great credit is due to those who played in the orchestra which consisted of Dr. Davies, S. Armstrong and Ed. Waterman for the music they provided, giving their services free for this event.

The Scoutmaster, W. Murdoch wishes to thank Mrs. J. Munroe for the loan of her piano and all the Ladies for their kindness in donating the various kinds of refreshments and for the help and assistance given. Dancing was enjoyed from 9 p.m. until 2 a.m.

Several small craft were placed at the disposal of the party, who left the float at 7.30 p.m. for the Sawmill, where an enjoyable evening was spent in singing songs and general merriment. Mrs. Gray was presented with a case of dinner knives by the ladies, and Mr. Gray was presented with a silver fountain pen and pencil by the gentlemen.

On Sunday a fire broke out in the vicinity of Carney Lake, the cause of which is unknown, but is quite probable to have been caused by lightning. A crew of men were employed fighting fire from Sunday until Tuesday, when it was brought under control.

Homeguard Discoveries Make it Attractive Property

Probably the most unique and interesting property in the Alice Arm district is the Homeguard, owned by Wm. McFarlane and Geo. Bruggy. This property was a puzzle to the mining engineers who examined it in the early stage of development. The property contained some large surface showings, but further development proved the showings to be composed of massive boulders, which had broken away from the ledge.

Geo. Clothier, in his annual report to the Minister of Mines in 1922, reports on the property as follows:

"The first showing is at an elevation of 1,000 feet, or about 350 feet above the railway on the opposite side of the river. Here an open cut along the side-hill crosses a vein 20 feet wide, filled with a breccia of greenstone country-rock cemented with calcite. The calcite is heavily mineralized with pyrite and chalcopyrite. Across 12 feet 6 inches of the face of the exposure assayed as follows: 4 feet 6 inches in width, $2.40 in gold and 6 ozs. in silver to the ton, and 3.9 per cent copper; 8 feet in width, 60 cents in gold and 2.4 oz. in silver to the ton, and 3.5 per cent copper. I judge the 12 feet 6 inches of ore will concentrate from 5 to 8 into one. Other similar showings are found up the hill."

The property was bonded by the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting and Power Company Limited, and

More Publicity for Alice Arm is Aim of Citizens

A meeting of the Alice Arm branch of the B. C. Chamber of Mines was held at the Coliseum, on Monday evening. The meeting was well attended. Numerous matters were discussed, and the meeting was one of the most interesting yet held. T. W. Falconer, Vice-President presided.

The minutes of the last meeting were adopted as read.

It was decided to accept the small bank account of the defunct Citizens' Association.

The advisability of sending an ore display to the Vancouver Exhibition, of the district, was discussed at length. It was finally decided that as the time was limited to mail a circular letter to each mining property owner in the district requesting him to send in a sample of his ore not later than July 15th.

An interesting address was given by H. Smith, who stressed the need of greater publicity for this rich mineral district. He pointed out that we had nothing to be afraid of in making known our wonderful resources, and hoped that some action would be taken along these lines.

R. Armour, who was the next speaker, was entirely in sympathy with Mr. Smith's views. He advocated the publication of a booklet, giving a general description of the district.

Other speakers on the matter were: O. Gray, H. Fowler. H. F. Kergin.

A committee was appointed by the chairman to investigate the feasibility of publishing the booklet It consists of R. Armour, E. Moss, H. Smith, H. F. Kergin, J. Fiva, H. Fowler.

The committee will gather all available data and will report at a special meeting to be held on Monday July 5th.

Homeguard Discoveries Make it Attractive Property

diamond-drilling done. It was found that in each case the showing consisted of isolated boulders, or masses of the vein broken away and embedded in the slide-rock A tunnel was then started by the owners at an elevation of 1,275 feet and has been driven over 150 feet. The first 20 feet went through a boulder of ore; the next 100 feet went through coarse slide-rock of country-rock, encountering no more boulders of ore; the balance of the tunnel is in solid andesitic country-rock, but the vein has not been found. The portions of the vein found in the slide certainly indicate a strong vein carrying good commercial values and well worth a considerable expenditure to locate."

The ledge from which these huge boulders came has been discovered since the above was written, and the size of the ledge and values substantiates Mr. Clothier's opinion. This discovery alone is enough to place the Homeguard among the most attractive in the district, but recent prospecting has revealed an additional ledge.

This ledge is lower down the hill near the Kitsault river, which it parallels. The ore is composed of silver, zinc, lead, and gold. It is over 12 feet wide and has been traced on the surface for a distance of 600 feet. The values average about $20.00 per ton.

A further vein 4 feet wide has also been discovered higher up the hill carrying lead, silver and gold in commercial quantities. Assay returns received from samples from this vein have given 25 per cent lead, 30 ozs. silver, and $3.80 gold per ton. By driving a tunnel on the lower ledge a distance of 300 feet this upper vein will be encountered at a considerable depth as it intersects the larger vein, and if expectations are realized it would be a proven property.

These two ledges each carrying a different character of ore from the ledge from which the boulders originated, indicates that the Homeguard is a property of vast possibilities.

The property is ideally located for inexpensive development. It joins the Dolly Varden railway and its chief showings are only 750 feet distant on the east side of the river. A bridge is built across the river at this point. It is 12 miles from the town of Alice Arm, and its early development can be expected in the near future.

Billy Jack, Musician, Leaves Anyox

All music lovers—and their name is legion—who have been delighted with the violin playing of Billy Jack, learned with regret of his departure from camp last week. The Melodians of the Mine Club will especially miss him. He helped to establish the orchestra over two years ago, and played his farewell engagement with them at Alice Arm on Saturday. Capable of playing with great charm and beauty of tone when demanded, his generally snyncopated style, added just that pep, so necessary to the lilt of the modern dance tune. Billy left for Prince Rupert.

Ruby Dolan Sentenced to 5 Years for Killing J. Donald

At the supreme court assizes recently held in Prince Rupert, Ruby Dolan was sentenced to serve five years in the penitentiary for shooting to death James Neil Donald in a house of prostitution at Stewart on New Year's Eve. She was defended by de B. Farris of Vancouver. James Donald resided for a number of years at Alice Arm where he engaged in mining and prospecting.

Canada has the greatest railway mileage per capita.

The Mining Laws of this Province are more liberal and the fees lower than those of any other Province in the Dominion, or any Colony in the British Empire.

Mineral locations are granted to discoverers for nominal fees.

Absolute Titles are obtained by developing such properties, security of which is guaranteed by Crown Grants.

Practically all British Columbia Mineral Properties upon which development work has been done are described in some one of the Annual Reports of the Minister of Mines. Those considering mining investments should refer to such reports. They are available without charge on application to the Department of Mines, Victoria, B. C. Reports covering each of the six mineral Survey Districts are published separately, and are available on application.
