Swimmer Loses Life In Isaacs Creek

Ferdinand Noe, an employee at the Hidden Creek Mine, lost his life while swimming near Isaacs Creek on Saturday afternoon last. Noe was apparently taken with the cramps and went down before anyone could reach him. His body was recovered at 9.30 on Saturday night by Constable Service. Born in 1901 in Baden, Germany, Noe served as an officer in the German army during the war. Accidental death from drowning was the verdict at the enquiry held on Monday. Deceased was buried at the Anyox cemetery on Monday afternoon.

New Playground At Mine Is Appreciated

Fitted with a regulation size goal-post for football practice, the new playground at the Mine is already working overtime. The footballers quickly realized the advantage of having a ground right at their own door. The ground is also being used to practice running and other sports. A business-like roller stands all ready for use so that the ground is kept in good shape. It has leaked out also that a 5-hole golf course at the Mine is projected.

Johnny Chenoski Met Death While Logging

John Chenoski, who recently lost his life at Komeleon Inlet, about twenty miles south of Prince Rupert, was well known in Anyox, having resided here for several years. He was especially active in athletic circles and his untimely death is deeply deplored by his many friends.

He was employed in a logging camp at the time of his death. He was caught by a log and his neck was broken. Deceased was only 23 years of age, and had lived in Prince Rupert since he was a boy. He leaves to mourn his loss a father and mother and several brothers and sisters of Prince Rupert, and a brother, M. Chenoski of Anyox.

The funeral was held at Prince Rupert on June 19th. and a large number of relatives and friends attended the ceremony.

Mine Athletes Training For Sports Events

With their usual thoroughness, the men at the Hidden Creek Mine are getting into shape to capture the first prizes at the forthcoming Sports. Putting the-shot, for instance. Also marathon running. High jumping, too, has its aspirants. Training for these events is in full swing.

In the early hours of Monday morning a violent storm broke over Anyox. Heavy rain fell and deluged the streets, and vivid lightning accompanied by tremendous bursts of thunder prevailed for almost half an hour.

BIRTH AT ANYOX

Born to Mr. and Mrs. D. Sorrienti, at Anyox General Hospital, June 17th, a son.

CARD OF THANKS

M. Chenoski extends sincere thanks to his many friends in the Mechanical Department for their beautiful floral tribute to the memory of his brother "Johnny" who was accidentally killed at Porcher Island. Mr. and Mrs. Chenoski left for Prince Rupert last Friday, to attend the funeral.

Evening Service will be held at the Anglican Church, Alice Arm, on Sunday next at 7.30. The Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. G. A. Rix will be present and will conduct a confirmation service and also consecrate the new Church.

All Ready For July 1st. Celebration

Fine weather is the only thing necessary to ensure the success of the big Dominion Day celebration next Wednesday. The Anyox Community League have done everything possible for everyone to spend an enjoyable day. It now remains for everyone to enter wholeheartedly into the spirit of the occasion and help to celebrate the anniversary of the confederation of the provinces of the Dominion.

Don't forget the big parade forms at 9 a.m., and from that hour the time will be fully taken up with sports throughout the day, followed by a big dance in the evening.

Mine Win From Celts In Close Game

Playing a forceful, aggressive game, the Mine secured a win over the Celts on Thursday the 18th. Jimmy Dixon notched the only goal of the game from a nice pass by Ivor Davies in the first half. The games was interesting to watch. For the Celts, Williams came close to scoring once or twice, and McColl sent in a hot shot right across the goal mouth which missed by inches; on the other hand the Mine were unlucky in not adding to their score. Dick Lavery was a very satisfactory referee.

A big crowd of fans attended this game.

Celts and Smelter Draw In Tame Game

The game on Tuesday the 16th between the Celts and the Smelter was unsatisfactory and disappointing. A persistent and annoying wind did not help matters. The Smelter, fielding a fine team, played uphill and against the wind first half, but shortly after the start Buntain headed the ball through. From then on until well in the second half the game was a mixture of errors and futile kicking, until finally, after several attacks on the Smelter goal, Jack McColl equalized. Soon after this a penalty—which was obviously doubtful—was awarded the Smelter, and Musser gave the fans a thrill by saving it. This ended the business for the day.

Former Anyox People Wed At Victoria

A ceremony of interest to many Anyox people took place at St. Matthias Church, Victoria, B. C. on June 6th, when Miss Evelyn M. Patrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. S. The happy couple will reside in Vancouver.

Mine Ladies' Aid Energetic Workers

The newly-formed Mine Ladies Aid of the Union Church is composed of real live-wires. With the energy and thoroughness for which the Mine people are noted they recently held a sale of candy, etc. at the Mine Picture Show and netted a goodly sum. Miss Helen Calderoni is the capable secretary. The committee wish to thank all those ladies at both the Mine and Beach who assisted with donations.

Howe Sound Co. Cut Dividends

Howe Sound Mining Company has announced a further reduction in dividends. The July payment will be at the quarterly rate of 50 cents a share placing the stock on a $2 annual basis compared with the $3 basis announced at the time of the April payment. Declaration was made this week of a 50 cent dividend, payable July 15 to shareholders of record June 30.

Continued low prices for copper, lead and zinc have resulted in declines in earnings. The company paid $4 per share in 1927 and in 1928. In 1929 the payment was increased to $5 per share, but was reduced to $4 in 1930. In April the quarterly payment was reduced from $1 to 75 cents.

Earnings in 1930 were $4.09 per share, just sufficient to cover dividend requirements. There was a big drop in earnings in the last quarter and 1931 earnings to date have been on a lower basis than last year.

Stocks of Refined Copper Shows Increase

Preliminary Steps For Trade Census Taken

The fifteen thousand enumerators who have been engaged since June 1st. in taking the Population Census have also been making a record of the name and address of every retail and wholesale establishment in the Dominion. These names are to be the basis for the Postal Census of Merchandising and Service Establishments.

It will be some weeks before all the lists are in the hands of the Officials in the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. When they have been carefully scrutinized and certain other preliminary work done, schedules will be mailed to each retail or wholesale establishment. It is expected that somewhere between 150,000 and 200,000 names will be received and, though a very great amount of preparatory work is necessary before schedules can be mailed, is is expected that they will be sent out in August.

He points out that in spite of depression this was an increase of 3,557,274 dozen over 1929, or practically 15%. The export of eggs was 330 cars, a large proportion due to the operation of the Provincial Egg Pool.

Percentage of Mines Rather Small

The activities of the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company in search of new properties last year was quite extensive, some 452 properties in all being reported on. Of these 188 were in British Columbia, others ranged from the Yukon to Newfoundland, while 43 were in the United States and Alaska and 16 in South Africa. Out of all these examininations options were taken on sixteen, and out of the sixteen, only two were continued, according to the report of Mr. W. M. Archibald, vice president in charge of mines.—Mining & Industrial Review.

Clarence—Yes, that's the call to arms.

Two pickpockets had been following an old man whom they had seen display a fat wallet. Suddenly he turned off and went into a lawyer's office.

"Good Lord," said one, "a fine mess. Wot'll we do now?"

"Easy," said his mate, lighting a cigarette. "Wait for the lawyer."

"John," said his better half, firmly, "one or two things is going to happen. Either you are going to learn to win at poker or you are going to spend your evenings at home playing checkers with me. I'm tired of your money going to buy new hats for the wives of those other players."

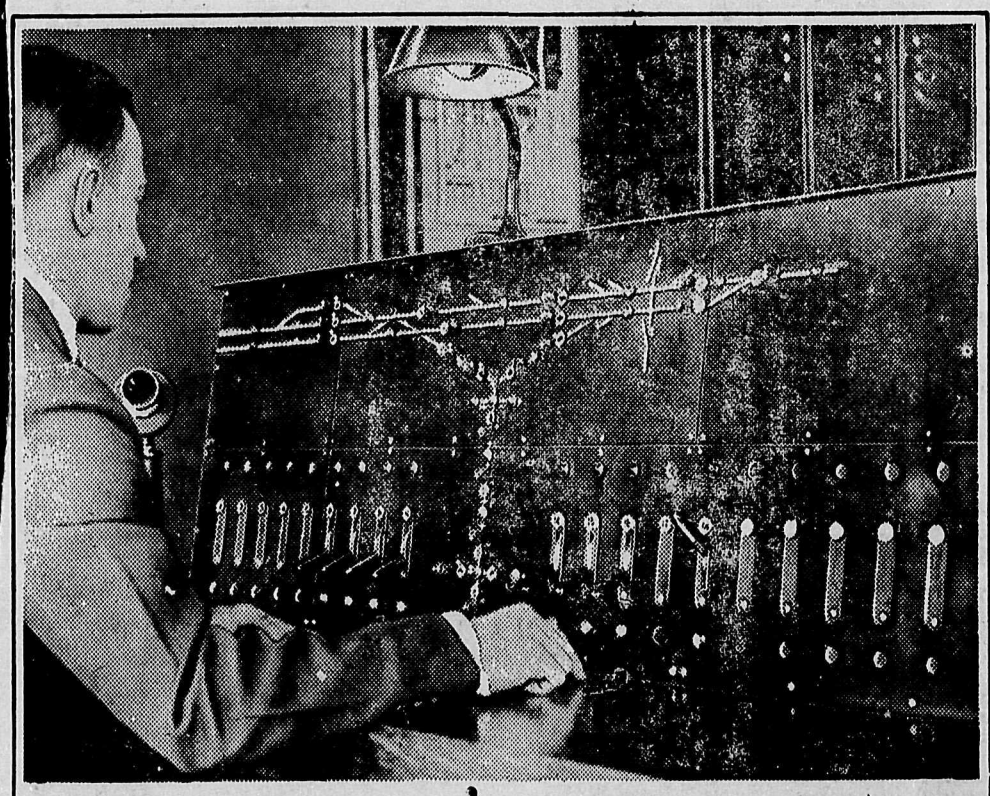
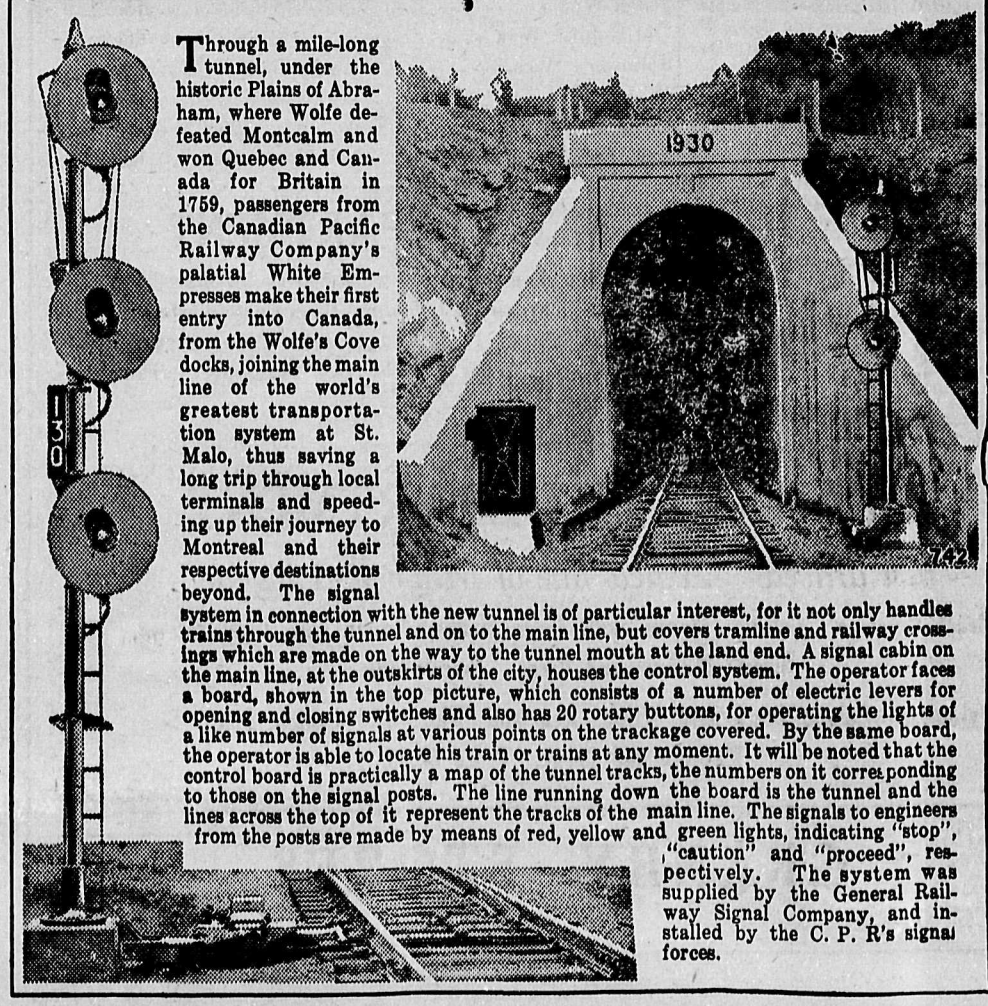
Signalling Trains Through New Quebec Tunnel





Through a mile-long tunnel, under the historic Plains of Abraham, where Wolfe defeated Montcalm and won Quebec and Canada for Britain in 1759, passengers from the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's palatial White Empresses make their first entry into Canada, from the Wolfe's Cove docks, joining the main line of the world's greatest transportation system at St. Malo, thus saving a long trip through local terminals and speeding up their journey to Montreal and their respective destinations beyond. The signal system in connection with the new tunnel is of particular interest, for it not only handles trains through the tunnel and on to the main line, but covers tramline and railway crossings which are made on the way to the tunnel mouth at the land end. A signal cabin on the main line, at the outskirts of the city, houses the control system. The operator faces a board, shown in the top picture, which consists of a number of electric levers for opening and closing switches and also has 20 rotary buttons, for operating the lights of a like number of signals at various points on the trackage covered. By the same board, the operator is able to locate his train or trains at any moment. It will be noted that the control board is practically a map of the tunnel tracks, the numbers on it corresponding to those on the signal posts. The line running down the board is the tunnel and the lines across the top of it represent the tracks of the main line. The signals to engineers from the posts are made by means of red, yellow and green lights, indicating "stop", "caution" and "proceed", respectively. The system was supplied by the General Railway Signal Company, and installed by the C. P. R's signal forces.

The plumber worked and the helper stood helplessly looking on. He was learning the business. This was his first day.

"Say," he enquired, "do you charge for my time?"

"Certainly you idiot" came the reply.

"But I havn't done anything."

The plumber to fill the hour, had been looking at the finished job with a lighted candle. Handing the two inches of it that were still unburned to the helper, he said witheringly:

"Here, if you gotta be so darned conscientious, blow that out."

The first radio broadcast in history of musical entertainment from a steamship in motion, sent over a network of Canadian and United States land stations, was carried through successfully as the Empress of Britain was sailing up the St. Lawrence on her maiden voyage from Cherbourg June 1.

All records for the St. Lawrence route to Europe were shattered when the new Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Britain, 42,500-ton flagship of the company's Atlantic fleet, made the run from Cherbourg to Father Point in four days, nineteen hours, on her maiden voyage May 27-June 1.

"The train ride from Vancouver to Banff is the most wonderful I have ever taken," was the comment of the much-travelled and famous writer J. B. Priestley, of "Angel Pavement" and "The Good Companions" fame, interviewed recently at the Banff Springs Hotel. "These parts are too wonderful to describe," he said, and added he was coming again in September for the trail riding.

Judge: "The traffic officer says you got sarcastic with him."

Mr. Nagger: "But I didn't intend to be. He talked to me like my wife does, and I forgot myself and answered, Yes, my dear."
