Rich Strike of High Grade Ore at Esperanza

Another strike of high grade silver ore was made in the Baldy tunnel at the Esperanza mine, on Thursday. The strike was made in the drift running south from the old tunnel and the ore is as good as ever came out of the mine, which is celebrated for its high silver ore.

The vein is about 2 feet in width and the ore is high grade ruby silver and silver sulphides. It is expected that a good sized ore shoot will soon be opened up. Several dykes have been cut through with this drift, and the next known dyke is about 200 feet distant from the strike.

The ore vein has been followed for a distance of about 100 feet from the Baldy tunnel, and in places narrowed down to a fine stringer, but with the widening of the vein the future of the mine is brighter than it has ever been.

Ore has also been encountered in the drift being driven in a south-westerly direction from the Baldy workings, and although of a lower grade, a considerable tonnage of shipping ore is being developed.

Mr. E. Elge, manager of the mine is at present in Seattle, and it is expected that on his return, shipping of ore will again be re-commenced.

Tragic Death of Anyox Man

On Saturday night about 8.30 a fatal accident occurred at the Anyox mine, which resulted in the death of Mr. Owen Elias Evans, aged 29, who was a brakeman on one of the mine trains. He was riding on the rear end of his train, backing in, when another train backed out of a siding, both brakemen signalled their motormen to stop, but the trains being under way and the distance so short that a collision occurred, knocking Evans off and falling under the wheels, both his legs were run over.

The wounded man was taken to the hospital, where both his legs had to be amputated. Everything possible was done to save his life, but he suffered such an awful shock that he died at 8 o'clock the following morning.

Deceased was born at Penrhyndendareth, North Wales. He was an old employee of the Granby Co. having worked in Grand Forks. He leaves a wife and three young children in Anyox to mourn his loss.

The funeral was held on Tuesday and a large number of friends attended the funeral. Rev. J. Herdman conducted the Service.

Brilliant Wedding Held at Anyox

On Wednesday morning, June 28th, at 8 p.m. the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, was the scene of a wedding which was one of the biggest affairs held in Anyox for some time.

The contracting parties were Miss Bridget O'Neill, daughter of Mrs. M. J. O'Neil, of Consett, Durham, England, and Mr. Michael Loftus, County Mayo, Ireland. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary O'Neil, and the groomsmen were Mr. Owen Loftus, brother of the groom. Rev. Father Fleck officiated. The ceremony was most impressive being a full choral Service, and was attended by a large congregation of relatives and friends of the happy couple.

The bride was attired in a dress of Duchess Satin, with an over-dress of Georgette embroidered with beads. Her becoming hat was dark blue. The bridesmaid's dress was white silk.

The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a beautiful combination set of necklace, brooch and earrings of sapphires and pearls. To the bridesmaid, a pearl necklace, and to the groomsmen a scarf pin.

The bride's gift to the bridegroom was a pair of gold cuff links.

After the Service, the party sat down to a wedding breakfast, at which the hostesses were Mesdames E. Morning and M. M. Marshall, on the table was a beautifully decorated 2-story wedding cake which did credit to the artistic skill of Al. Kobloth.

The celebration continued throughout the day, callers being numerous in the afternoon, among those who had tea were Mesdames J. Dillon, C. J. Harrington, P. Landers, W. Crerar, Cameron, J. Hutchings, J. Hart, P. McDougall, Miss Dixon.

Mr. and Mrs. Loftus left on Thursday to spend their honeymoon in Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle.

Meeting of Alice Arm Citizens' Association

The regular monthly meeting of the Alice Arm Citizens' Association was held in the Anglican Church building, on Saturday, June 24th. Owing to the absence of President, D. S. Caneron, the chair was taken by Vice-President, Al Falconer.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted.

The proposed Alice Arm Naas Valley trail was discussed at considerable length, and a motion was made by J. M. Morrison, seconded by M. Peterson, which was carried, that the secretary be instructed to wire and write to the Minister of Public Works, asking that the government send in an engineer to go over the proposed routes, estimating the cost and mapping out the best route, so that on the Minister's visit here next month, he would have first-hand information regarding the trail in his interview with Mr. H. F. Kergin, M.L.A. and Mr. Carruthers, district road engineer, and that Mr. Kergin be advised of what was being done by the Association.

A motion was made by M. D. Ross, seconded by O. Flint, that the executive interview Mr. H. F. Kergin, regarding making the necessary repairs to the Dolly Varden Railway, for the operation of hand cars over the track this summer, and also the construction of a permanent bridge over the upper Kitsault River above the Dolly Varden mine.

Drowning Fatality at Naas River

A distressing accident occurred on Saturday, June 24th, when Mr. Wm. Smith, of Anyox was drowned at the mouth of the Naas River.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Crosby and family, Mrs. E. Loseke and Mr. W. Smith, left Anyox on Saturday, on board the launch Lillian, which is owned by H. Waldo, for a month's holiday on the Naas River.

While proceeding up the Naas, Mr. Smith was standing up talking to the other occupants, when the boat gave a lurch and he fell backwards overboard, and although a lengthy search was made he was never seen again. It is thought the strong current carried him under the water and out to sea.

Mr. Waldo landed the other passengers at their destination and returned to Anyox and reported the matter to the police, who are making an investigation and conducting a search for the body.

Prominent Anyox Man Weds

A quiet wedding was celebrated on Monday, June 19th. at the residence of the Rev. Grant, at Prince Rupert, when Miss Jean Fitzpatrick, of Dublin, Ireland, became the bride of Mr. Geo. Jessop, of Anyox. The bride arrived in Prince Rupert, from Dublin a few days previous to the ceremony, and the happy couple arrived in Anyox the following Thursday morning, when a large number of friends were on hand at the wharf to congratulate the bridegroom and extend a welcome to the bride in her new home.

Mr. Geo. Jessop, who is a native of Waterford, Ireland, has resided for the past eight years in Anyox, and is the proprietor of the Maple Bay Cafe, and is one of the most popular young men in town.

Proposed Scheme for the Co-Relation of Continuation School Work in the North-Western Part of the Province of British Columbia

The scheme provides for the proposed establishment of a system of federated night schools and continuation classes, under the control of one institution, with the suggested title of the "Northern British Columbia Technical Institute."

In its character, the scheme is somewhat similar to the operation of the Royal Institute of Science and Art, South Kensington, England, whose classes (covering a great variety of subjects, from brick-laying and coal mining, to the sciences and fine arts) are conducted in nearly every centre of Great Britain. Examinations are held in those towns and certificates are issued from South Kensington.

It is proposed that the Northern British Columbia Technical Institute should conduct its classes and hold the necessary examinations in all the towns within the Prince Rupert district, from Stewart to Prince Rupert and Telkwa to the Queen Charlotte Islands. All diplomas and certificates would be issued by a central board of control

The classes would be taught by local men and women, who would teach their own particular trade or profession; the teachers receiving direction, instruction, courses of study and general supervision from a Technical expert Director appointed by the Board.

Up to this point it is somewhat similar to South Kensington, but unlike that body there would not be established a central school of Technology, the idea being to keep down the running expenses as low as possible.

The Institute would maintain a central office in Prince Rupert, which would be its headquarters. It would endeavour to teach three groups of the adult population of the district with its classes, namely (1) the illiterate population and non-English speaking people who number some 9,287 people who can not read or write, which is 23.75 per cent. of the provincial population, the highest percentage in the province. (2) Those who have a moderate amount of education, and who wish to progress further, or to specialize in some subjects relating to their business. Those who wish to spend part of their winter evenings in an interesting way.

The advantages of the scheme to the student would mainly be in numbers (1) and (2) and will appeal to men and women of ambition who desire to rise above their present level, whatever that level may be.

The outstanding feature for them is no matter where business may call them within the proposed area, they have but to present their registration card to the teacher in their new home town and get right down to work at the point at which they left off in their former town. The night they enter their new class room, they will receive the same lesson which they would have received in the old, from the same text book and for one enrollment fee instead of two.

The advantage of the scheme to the various towns in the district is that the expense of running the executive end of night school education would be shared proportionally instead of it all being borne by each school board, as is the case where towns run night schools on their own account.

The expenses in connection with the scheme for the first year would be $7000 and $6000 in subsequent years. This sum would cover salary of Technical Director and his travelling expenses, stenographer and book-keeper, office rent, etc., stationery, office furniture, and equipment for classes. The two latter items, once purchased, would not be an annual expense.

Assuming that all the towns in the district supported the scheme, the proportional cost would be somewhat as follows:

Parent-Teacher Association of Anyox, Spend Social Evening

Members of the Anyox Parent-Teacher Association and their friends spent a most enjoyable time together in the Catholic Hall, on the evening of June 20th. Cards and music, followed by a little dancing comprised the entertainment and the entire occasion was voted a jolly success.

Mrs. C. W. Bagwill and Mr. D. W. Dow captured the bridge prizes, while those for whist were carried off by Miss Violet McKay and Mr. Braithewaite.

Very acceptable vocal numbers were rendered by Mrs. S. Herrin and Rev. J. Herdman, and the former mentioned, together with Mrs. McKay, provided pleasing dance numbers.

Parent-Teacher Association Meeting

During the evening, those present had an opportunity to bid farewell to the members of the teaching staff who are severing their connection with the Anyox schools at this closing. Auld Lang Syne and the National Anthem then brought to a close the final public session of the P. T. A. for this term, and it was elected to have been one of the most pleasurable of the year.

The executive of the Association wish to extend their thanks to Rev. Father Fleck for the gratuitous use of the Hall, and to Mr. L. F. Champion for prizes donated.

Most of the credit for the pleasure of the social arrangements and for the particularly delectable supper, is due to Mrs. J. Cloke and Mrs. T. Oxley of the Social Committee, and Mrs. W. F. Eve and Mrs. L. McKay, of the Refreshment Committee, not only on this occasion, but at all times these ladies have been most energetic in their office, and their efforts have greatly enhanced the social period of the meeting.

And finally a word to those parents who are not yet members of the P. T. A. The children of Anyox require the best the schools can provide in instruction and training and the teaching staff needs the co-operation of every parent to secure the best results for the boys and girls. The P. T. A. is a medium to solve problems on both sides, so the executive urges your enrollment and boosting for next term. Think it over, mothers and fathers.

Community League Council Meeting

Maple Bay Cafe came up, and it was decided that Mr. Jessop be interviewed by the President and see what could be done about the matter. The Council felt that there should be some return for the money spent in connection with fitting this place up.

Mr. Buzzelle asked about the plans for the community building. He said that the men in charge of the contract for the new dam were capable of giving an estimate and it would be a great chance to have the matter decided. Considerable discussion was indulged in, the Chair being of the opinion that the whole matter should be laid over for a special meeting. Mr. Buzzelle suggested that the management of the Granby Co. be invited to attend this meeting, and he felt that if the company did not undertake to build or guarantee the cost, it would be useless for the A. C. L. to continue in the matter. Mr. Roberts was certain that the company would not be inclined to spend any money in connection with this scheme. Mr. Armour thought that if the company took such a stand that plans could be modified. It was finally decided that the plans be presented to the Council at the next regular meeting, July 5th, and the whole question be discussed. This was put in the form of a motion by Mr. Armour, and seconded by Mr. Lowry.

The substantial progress of the Mining Industry in this Province is strikingly exhibited in the following figures, which show the value of production for successive five-year periods: For all years to 1895, inclusive, $94,547,241; for five years, 1896-1900, $57,607,967; for five years, 1901-1905, $96,507,968; for five years, 1906-1910, $125,534,474; for five years, 1911-1915, $142,072,603; for five years, 1916-1920, $189,922,725; for the year 1921, $28,066,641.

Lode-mining has only been in progress for about 33 years, and not 20 per cent of the Province has been even prospected; 300,000 square miles of unexplored mineral bearing land are open for prospecting.

The Mining Laws of this Province are more liberal and the fees lower than those of any other Province in the Dominion or any Colony in the British Empire.

Mineral locations are granted to discoverers for nominal fees.

Absolute Titles are obtained by developing such properties, security of which is guaranteed by Crown Grants.
