ATHLETIC CLUB OPENS ITS SOCIAL SEASON

Dance in Brand's Hall Is Largely Attended and Good Management and Good Music Conduce to Its Success---Some of the People Who Were There.

The social season of the Alberni Athletic club was formally opened on Wednesday night with a dance given in Brand's hall.

The attendance was so large that the floor space was, at times, too small for the dancers, yet every face wore a smile and it was one continual round of enjoyment. The floor was under the experienced and efficient management of J. J. Burke, and the programme was made pleasing to everyone.

Announcement By Alberni Land Company.

Rev. F. H. Wimberley, rector of All Saints church, Alberni, who has been spending the past couple of months in England, has secured from the Alberni Land company a grant of two lots for a church in New Alberni. He was extremely gratified by the reception given him by the directors of the company who assured him that Alberni was going to be a very important place, and that the coming year's work in New Alberni would, they thought, cause something of a sensation. This, coming, as it does, from headquarters, is a most important statement and should further strengthen confidence in the future of this district.

INDIANS WIN AT FOOTBALL

Defeat New Albernites By a Score of Two Goals to One.

The third match in the West Coast football league series was played on Redford's field last Saturday afternoon and resulted in a victory for the Indian mission team over the New Alberni eleven by a score of two goals to one.

The ground was in fairly good condition, and play was fast throughout with a number of brilliant individual performances on both sides.

The New Alberni team had the better of the game in the first half and scored the first goal shortly after the commencement of play.

The Indians were in better condition than their opponents and, in the second half, were nearly all the time on the attack.

The Indian team was composed as follows:

Goal, Wm. Roberts; backs, James Youkum and Hamilton George; half backs, John Dick, James Santo, J. Motion; forwards, Peter Jackson, Billy Youkum, Otto Taylor, Jacob Shewish, Frank Williams (captain).

The goals were kicked by Frank Williams and Peter Jackson.

P. R. C. Bayne was referee.

Alberni, B. C., Nov. 28, 1908.

Now, if Sir Wilfrid Laurier should feel sore and want to abandon British Columbia entirely to the Conservative party we can suggest a course. Let him call Ralph Smith to the cabinet, and after he is beaten in a bye-election call on William Sloan. There is only one obstacle apparent, and that is that neither of these gentlemen might care to drop the bone to grasp at the shadow.

The Conservatives of Nanaimo met on Saturday night of last week to nominate a candidate for the provincial bye-election, and the nomination was unanimously offered to Edward Quennel. Mr. Quennel could not see his way clear to accepting, and it was decided to allow the election to go by default. J. H. Hawthornthwaite, the Socialist leader, who resigned the seat to contest the Dominion constituency, will likely be re-elected by acclamation.

The Victoria Times continues to print dispatches from the east which tell of rumors that the government at Ottawa is casting about to see where it can find a seat for Hon. William Templeman in order that he may be retained in the cabinet. Ottawa and Quebec East have been mentioned as constituencies in which the defeated minister may be given a chance. Of course the Victoria Times is controlled by Mr. Templeman, and its Ottawa correspondent knows how to earn his money.

Americans who own millions of dollars worth of standing timber in Canada are making a strong fight at Washington for a removal of the duty on lumber entering the United States. From all accounts their chances of success are good. The new-elected president, W. H. Taft, is practically committed to a removal, or at least a substantial reduction of the tariff.

There is no place in all the Dominion that is more interested in this movement than Alberni, and the success of it means an industrial development the benefit of which is hard to estimate.

What a surprise there must have been at Ottawa when the results of the deferred elections in Yale-Cariboo and Kootenay were made known! A was a most remarkable expression of disapproval of the methods adopted by the government with reference to the holding of these elections, and a declaration clear and final, "Gentlemen, we don't want your pap and favors; we ask for that which is justly ours; give us what rightly belongs to us and keep the change."

In the face of the biggest bait the government had to offer, lavish promises and the tremendous advantage that victory gives, the government lost by overwhelming majorities, and two more strong men were added to the opposition. British Columbia has spoken in no uncertain tones. She will send five of her strongest men to Ottawa to secure for her her rights as a province. They are men, too, who will demand a hearing, not machine politicians to be bent and giggered about by the man who handles the whip. — Walker's Weekly, Enderby, B. C.
