Langley Kinsmen Set Target $2,500 For Mothers' March Jan. 31

"Survival is not enough," is the slogan used in the United States last year when the March of Dimes in the United States raised $35,000,000.

Here in B. C., for Mrs. Olive Thompson of Langley this slogan is still true. Mrs. Thompson acquired polio in November, 1957. She received treatment at the Langley Memorial Hospital and last year she went to the G. F. Strong Rehabilitation Centre where she gained the necessary strength and abilities to overcome her disability to the point where she could return home and once again become an independent member of society and homemaker for her husband and two children.

But it is not sufficient to say that Mrs. Thompson was disabled by paralysis of both legs for behind this brief statement lie the long months of struggle against a disease for which there is no known cure. Salk vaccine has brought a means of prevention but for Mrs. Thompson and hundreds of others, Salk vaccine came too late.

For 10 per cent of those innoculated by Salk vaccine with three doses there is still no protection against polio (Salk vaccine is only 90 per cent effective). For the majority of people who have had no vaccine or only one or two doses there may still be the need for iron lungs, chest respirators, and other vital equipment. For Mrs. Thompson and others still requiring services there is a continuing need.

That is why the Kinsmen sponsored Foundation for Child Care, Poliomyelitis and Rehabilitation is still needing, as part of the objective of $275,000, a substantial amount of money to help provide these services, as well as funds to assist the Salk vaccine program and the many new services for other disabled persons.

On January 31 the Kinsmen sponsored Mothers' March, expected to provide over three-quarters of the total budget, will be more intensive than ever.

The Langley Kinsmen Club with Campaign Chairman Jack Fitzpatrick, has set an objective for the Langley area of $2,500. Hopes are high that this objective will be exceeded.

R. Barichello To Head LAA For '59

Ralph Barichello was elected to succeed Gordon Berry at the annual meeting of the Langley Agricultural Association last week. Gordon has been president for the past three years.

Jack Lee was elected to the vice-presidency and Mrs. Jean L. Burke was re-appointed secretary-treasurer on a temporary basis, until a successor can be located.

A bingo party will be held in the Club House on the Fair Grounds on Friday, Jan. 30.

Attempted Entry Jewelry Store

An attempted break-in was made on Rowley's Jewelry store in the early hours of Wednesday, January 21st.

Two bars were unscrewed and removed from a small window in the back of the premises but the would-be intruder was probably disturbed by the arrival of a car at Wilf's Coffee Bar next door, at 1:30 a. m. Discovery was not made until the owner's arrival later in the morning.

R.C.M.P.'s are investigating.

PET SKUNK

Pictured above is the pet skunk sent to the A. D. Brown nutria ranch on Huntingdon Road by S. P. C. A. in response to a call for a home for the little fellow. Diana Brown is already fond of this unusual pet and had him on a lead in town on Friday. Mrs. Brown tells us that he is remarkably intelligent and very affectionate. They are having a great deal of fun over the consternation he causes among people who do not know that he is deodorized. (NEWS Photo)

H. Stafford Talks On Education

Speaking at the Langley Board of Trade meeting last week District School Superintendent H. D. Stafford's subject was "Education and the School Act."

"Compulsory education isn't so very old," he said. "Not so long ago a Grade 8 education was accepted but nowadays a Grade 12 standard is needed for good jobs."

"We are raising our sights and standards—what was good enough for you and me is not good enough now for your child."

Mr. Stafford deplored large classes and in analysing the teacher shortage said, "It's not lack of money, or poor working conditions, but something else that is at the heart of the problem. We are trying to find out what it is."

"We have left the jet age," he continued, "and are passing into the space age, but still the dead hand of the past claims too much the activities of boys and girls who are going to live in this space age."

He spoke for some time on shareable school expenses and explained they were of vital concern to the public.

"As education is the basis of society," he said, "everyone should display interest in it," and he considered the real seat warmers were the parents who don't exercise their privilege to vote for school referendums and school trustees.

It takes two "yes's" to cancel a negative vote, he went on, and the apathetic, neglectful people who fail to cast a ballot are unmindful of their duties as citizens.

Let Langley stand out as one community which takes the trouble to vote for it's trustees and referendums.

"New schools will shortly be required," he said, and he appealed to the Board members to encourage active participation at all times in voting.

Questioned by one member who asked why his own education was not thought sufficient nowadays Mr. Stafford replied "When you and I were boys we hadn't heard of radio, television, jets, etc., so how can you expect our education would succeed now?"

Quilt Making Planned For L.A.

The Ladies' Aid of the Abbotsford Mennonite Brethren Church held it's regular meeting.

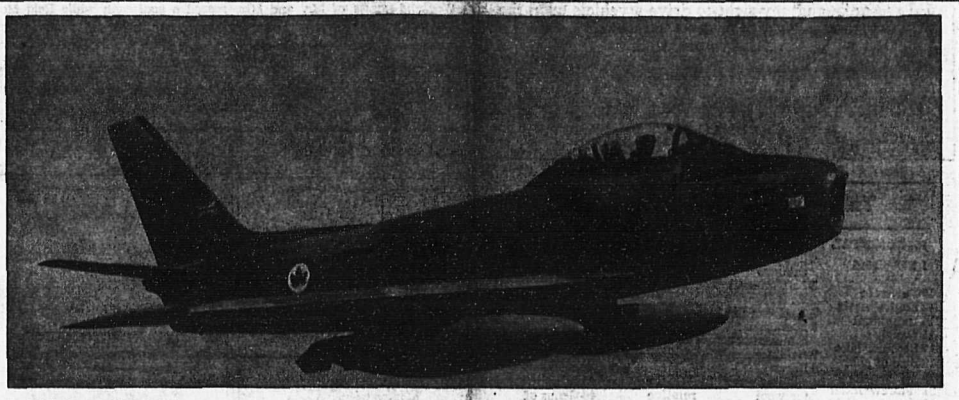
The devotional opening was conducted by Margaret Quiring and the roll was called.

A discussion on personnel work was led by Mrs. Fred Peters. Later in the evening prayer partners were revealed.

Letters of thanks were read from Mrs. Agnes Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schmidt for the Christmas gifts of money received. The President, Mrs. William Wiebe, announced that $20 had been donated to a needy family who recently lost two loved ones including the father.

Members were asked to bring in their finished articles for the layettes for Missions.

The members decided to make several dacron quilts and Mrs. E. Enns closed the meeting.



RCAF SABRE—The F86 "Sabre" of the RCAF—Canada's trustworthy jet fighter-interceptor until the introduction of the CF-100. It was in service in Europe as Canada's NATO commitment from 1952 until 1957. They are now employed by the Regular Forse for training purposes.

Local Grads Form Basketball Team

A number of young businessmen, graduates of Aldergrove or Langley High Schools and resident within the boundaries of the Aldergrove High School district, have formed a basketball club which they wish to be known as belonging to Aldergrove. Through the School Board, they are being allowed to practice in the Aldergrove High gym, when not in use otherwise, and Don Neuman, P. E. teacher at AHS, also plays with them.

One of their reasons for forming is to provide the High School with practice and also to encourage basketball in this district.

Those forming the team are Dave Christensen, Norman Flowerdew, Ernie Morelli, Carl Dorflinger, Lloyd Baker and Dave Green.

Two work for Shop-Easy, one in Sapperton and one in Langley; two work in the Royal Bank, one in Aldergrove and one in Langley; one is on the Langley City Hall staff and another is a prominent young farmer who is in partnership with his father, in Aldergrove.

At present, they call themselves "The Grads." All the boys played regularly on either the Langley or Aldergrove High School teams.

Fraser Valley Electrical Assoc. Names Officers

Norman Krogseth of New Westminster has been named president of the Lower Fraser Valley Electrical Association. Elections were held at a dinner meeting held at the Flamingo Hotel, Whalley, January 8.

Other officers are Art Jackman, vice president, New Westminster; Carl Merriam, treasurer, Whalley; and Bill Johns, secretary, of White Rock.

Other officers are Jim Beck, of the I.C.R. Electric, Burnaby; Walt Kennedy, of Kennedy Electric Burnaby, and Fred Priester of Aldergrove, all directors.

Retiring president is Bill Mufford, partner in Langley Electric in Langley and retiring secretary is Nels Sinclair, of Newton.

Members of the Association are qualified electrical contractors with an object in mind to promote good electrical business with public safety and good public relations with customers. In each effort they try to improve the electrical business.

HEAVY FINE

Pleading guilty to a charge of impaired driving a North Surrey man, James Coffey was fined $150 and $6.50 costs at Langley Police Court last week.

Traveling Gavel At Aldergrove

Aldergrove Royal Purple welcomed District Deputy S. H. R. Lady Agnes Jolley, Langley and Cloverdale Lodges, on Thursday, Jan. 22, when Texada Lodge brought the travelling gavel to Aldergrove.

After a short meeting a social get-together was held. Associate Royal Lady Harrison of Texada won the raffle. Lunch was served by ladies Legault, Johnson, Fletcher, Gardiner and Loucks.

The next meeting will be held on February 12.

Proposed Council Machinery 1959

Amount available for purchase of machinery in 1959 will be $38,000. Council is giving consideration to the purchase of a large grader, maintenance truck, new crusher motor, curbing machine, hydraulic puller and diesel fuel tank. If sufficient funds are available after trade-in of existing graders, an additional small grader may be purchased.

Young Aldergrove Resident Passes

A young resident of the Coghlan district passed away in the M. S. A. Hospital unexpectedly on January 22, 1959.

Mr. Edward Aloysius J. Langendam was in his 36th year and until his death resided at 25717 Carpenter Road and prior to that, at 5931 Coghlan.

Mr. Langendam was born in Holland on June 25, 1922, and has resided in the Coghlan district for the past seven years. He is survived by his loving wife, Cathalina, and one daughter Catharina; his mother in Hymegen, Holland, and one sister in Korbenhoef, Holland. His wife's parents are Mr. and Mrs. P. Gooudsward, of Coghlan Road.

The funeral was from the Henderson Funeral Home in Abbotsford on Monday with Rev. Henry J. Boekhoven in charge. Interment was in the Hazelwood Cemetery. pallgearers were Wm. Mackie; Ray Foan; H. Sullivan; B. H. Creelman; M. Delahiye and T. Baker.

Patricia W. I. To Enter Contest

The Patricia W. I. held its regular meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Rammell, with twelve members present.

The regular business session concluded and a report from the Sunshine committee showed a get-well card sent to Mr. Blott: an anniversary card to Mr. and Mrs. Peppin, Sr., and a sympathy card to Mrs. Madden who recently lost her sister.

$10 has been sent to Mrs. Mulligan towards the cost of a glass case for the figurines presented to the Museum by the Douglas W. I.'s.

A letter from CKNW acknowledged a donation of $10.00 to the Orphan's Fund. This money was collected at the Christmas concert held in Patricia Hall and was forwarded to CKNW.

Material for a layette for a refugee is to be brought to the next meeting.

The Quilt Block Scrapbook is complete and has gone forward for judging in the Tweedsmuir competition. The Scrapbook contains fifteen quilt blocks, one on each page, with the instructions for completion of the quilt facing each block.

Three are to be sent from each district to be judged against all others from all over the province and as far as can be ascertained, Patricia's will be the only one entered from Douglas district.

ATTEND LABOR MEETING

A delegation from the Council attended the Vancouver and District Labour Council meeting to be held in the Labour Temple Friday to discuss the unemployment situation.

Chairman Praises Hospital Staff

At the Trustees Meeting on January 12, achievements of the Langley Memorial Hospitals first ten years were reviewed in a special report submitted to the Board by Miss M. R. Ward, Director of Nursing.

The Hospital completed its first 10 years of operation on September 1st, 1958. During this period, hospital care was given to 22,756 patients.

3,636 babies first saw the light of day in the Hospital's Maternity Ward.

15,438 patients, including 8,758 out-patients, were treated in the Operating Room.

Commenting on this record, Mr. R. V. Stuart, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, stated:

"When the hospital was opened ten years ago, the population of the Municipality of Langley was 7,180 today the population of the same area exceeds 16,000. As a result of steadily increasing demands, the present facilities are so inadequate that the medical service is at all times overtaxed and the achievement set forth in these figures reflects great credit upon all departments of the hospital."

Mr. Stuart added: "As a result of the By-Law passed in December, the hospital, for the first time in its history, has paid off all its financial obligations and has a working capital adequate for current operating needs."

In welcoming Councillor J. G. Beatty, representing the City of Langley, on the Board, Mr. Stuart voiced the appreciation of the Board of the support of the Hospital By-Law given by Municipal and City Candidates in the recent election. "We are revising our plans for hospital extension to meet present and future needs on a basis that we trust will take care of the situation in this growing community for another decade."

"In this project we are working and shall continue to work in close co-operation with both councils. With their support and the splendid teamwork and spirit of service which exists at the hospital and which is borne out by the fine record of the past decade, residents of the community can be assured that the revised plans will be worked out as speedily as possible.

District No. 4 F.U. Committee Meets

A meeting of the Executive of the Economical and Educational Committee, B. C. Farmer's Union, District No. 4, was held at the home of Walter Jensen to discuss the decisions of the Farmer's Union Annual Convention.

Secretary W. T. Craig tendered his resignation due to his acceptance of the Presidency of the Farmers' Union of Bitish Columbia at the last annual convention. He felt that with the amount of work involved with his new appointment he could not continue as secretary. His successor will be appointed at the next meeting.

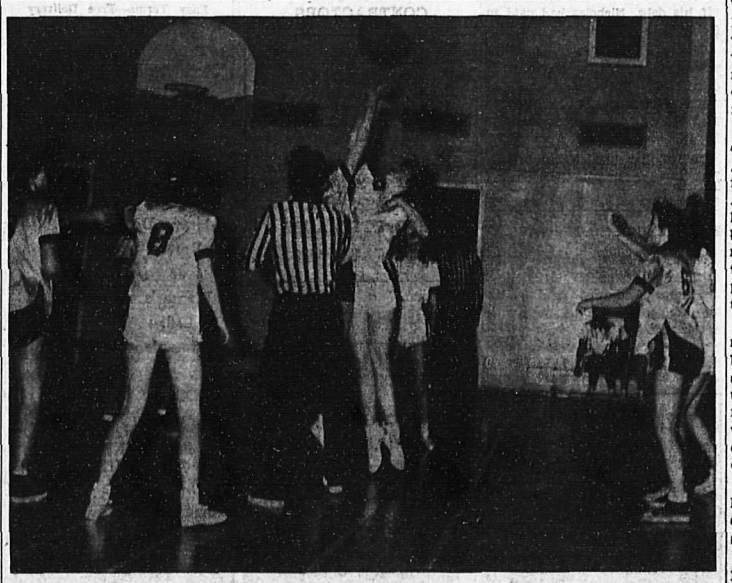
This Committee was formed as an educational group to work in conjunction with the F.U.B.C. and made a strong effort to urge the Annual Convention to pass a resolution favoring affiliation with Labor on political issues. This did not meet the approval of the convention. It also is in opposition to the present constitution which states the F.U. as Non-Partisan.

After considerable debate it was moved by W. Jensen and seconded by P. Schapit that the committee acts as an independent group from the F.U.B.C. and continues to press for a measure of unity among all working people, whether they be direct Labor, self-employed Farmer or Labor.

A. E. Bolton and James Macfarlane each gave a talk on economic conditions and their results in regard to agriculture.

The next meeting will be held in Langley, in the Upstairs Masonic Hall, on January 30th at 8:30 p. m.

This meeting is open to everyone interested.



EVENLY MATCHED—A better showing has been made recently by the AHS teams. Here is seen action in a closely fought match against Langley. The senior girls of Aldergrove lost by the narrow margin of 7 to 8. (NEWS Photo)

3 Injured After Timber Trailer Jack-knifes

Slippery roads last week caused an outbreak of local accidents on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The most serious accident happened on the Trans-Canada Highway near Kreiger's Hatchery when a heavy truck, with a timber laden trailer belonging to Dueck's, jack-knifed and hit a small Austin car driven by James Haining of Gibson's Landing.

The car, which was badly smashed, contained two passengers, Mrs. James Haining and Mrs. Dora Benns, who were both thrown from the car on to the pavement.

The two front wheels of the trailer came off and the timber was jettisoned.

Taken first to Dr. Stanley Findlay and then by taxi to St. Paul's Hospital, Vancouver, were James Haining with chest injuries, Mrs. Haining with a fractured left shoulder and Mrs. Benns, with lacerations of both knees.

A court decision may be pending to decide responsibility.

Horses Overboard

Wrecker vehicles from Ray's Auto Wreckers and Elmer's Service were kept continually busy on the hill east of Aberdeen intersection, on the Trans-Canada Highway.

Eight cars altogether were ditched there and required assistance and one horse trailer belonging to Tom Fenton, of Angling Road, Aldergrove, jack-knifed and overturned.

Three horses were thrown onto the highway but only suffered minor scratches. The trailer was damaged.

Elsewhere in the district, County Line Hill, north of Howell Road, caused considerable dislocation. The hill by the Langley Memorial Hospital, as usual, had its quota of skids.

North Otter PTA To Host Dr. Cox

The President took the chair at the regular meeting of the North Otter P.T.A. and 21 members were present.

Separate class programs were held at Christmas this year and proved quite successful and were enjoyed as usual. The cost of the Christmas treats amounted to $26 plus the donation of candy which was received.

Pros and cons of Bingo were discussed by the members and it was decided to have a panel discussion instead of a Bingo night.

Dr. Briar Cox, teacher of perceptual skills will be the speaker at the next meeting.

Miss Leland's class won the attendance prize.

The program concluded with Mr. McTaggart showing the film "Family Circle", which points out the importance of parents taking on interest in their children's work at school.

Explorers Visit Sharon Group

The Aldergrove Explorers were guests of the Sharon United Church Explorers on Tuesday, Jan. 20.

They had a guest speaker, Mrs. F. C. Freeman, of Vancouver, who talked about Sunday School in the home, by mail and air. This Sunday School is for families who, because of health, distance, etc., cannot attend regular Sunday Schools. There is a Sunday School-in-the-home broadcast every Sunday at 9:15 a. m. on CKWX.

The Aldergrove Explorers thank Mr. C. Jeffery, Mrs. J. Scott and Mrs. S. Andrews for providing transportation down to Murrayville. Mrs. G. Kinnie and Mrs. J. Scott brought the Explorers home again.

AROUND TOWN

By Don Anson

Don't try snowball fights with Cora Williams. She's really hot. Knocked away my cigarette from 15 yards—a veritable 'William" Tell of the species.

They said it couldn't be done but Aldergrove Junior girls have won a basketball game against Langley at last. And now the boys too.

The tower in the new fire hall now has new window and glass inserted. This was donated by Insulaire Windows Ltd. of Aldergrove.

Rumours that the Engineers were thinking, after the recent snowfall, of building a "Bailey Bridge" over the lake outside the Post Office, are incorrect.

Through information supplied in this column, the rubber waders left in the Royal Bank have now gotten to their rightful owner, Mr. A. J. Van Diepen.

Don Chidlow, who left the Royal Bank recently, is now at HMCS Cornwallis in Nova Scotia.

In hospital last week went Mrs. Clara Semke of Jackman Road for an appendix operation. Operation was successful and Mrs. Semke will soon be out again.

Many people who remember Ed Morgan who worked with Breckman Ker until last year, will be interested to see his advertising this week for Sanders Poultry Farms Ltd.

Basketball Games Provide Thrills

A series of three very hard fought basketball games were on the programme at the Aldergrove High School Friday evening when friendly rivalry between Langley and Aldergrove High Schools made keen competition.

A very close game between the two girls' teams resulted in a win for Langley by the narrow margin of one point in an 8-7 finish. The Aldergrove girls pressed hard all the way and defensive play on both sides was effective. The girls have already won some games but could not have played a better game than they did on Friday.

The Junior Boys scored their first win of the season by scoring a basket in the last minute of a thrilling game following a 20 all tie. The spectators rushed across the gym floor to mob the boys after raising the roof with their cheering.

Many of the Junior boys played on the Aldergrove Senior team in the final game of the evening against a completely new team from Langley and only lost that one 41-30. This game also had its complement of thrills but one feels it was well-nigh impossible for the same boys to play and win two games in a row against two completely different teams.

Mr. Neuman, P. E. teacher at the Aldergrove High is in charge of the boys' teams and Benny More, a star of the boys' team, coaches the girls, along with Mrs. Ann Hosek, the girls' P. E. teacher.

It was encouraging to see a number of parents and teachers out to watch the games, besides a lot of grads. They had a good evening's entertainment besides giving the boost to the youngsters that they need. More adults in the spectators would help a lot.

Priority Roads For New T.C. Hwy

Following an interview with the Minister of Highways Reeve D. W. Poppy presented a plan to the Municipal Council showing the proposed new Trans-Canada Highway and the various interchanges.

He had asked the Minister for assistance on roads which will be connected to the inter-changes.

It was recommended that a program be prepared on a priority basis and re-presented for consideration.

The Reeve suggested that County Line Road North, River Road, McClughan Road and North Bluff Road be considered first priority, and plans will be drawn up for these roads and presented to the Minister.

MOTHER'S MARCH

Over 20,000 B. C. women will be giving their services voluntarily in the Mother's March this year on Saturday, January 31.

Sponsored by the B. C. Kinsmen, with a target of $275,000, the money will be used by the B. C. Foundation for child care, poliomyelitis and rehabilitation. It is needed to provide for the continuation of the 1958 program and for expansion of services to cover more disabled persons throughout the province of British Columbia.

In addition it is needed for extension of a speech therapy program, for an increase in the diagnostic and treatment services for the hard of hearing, and for an addition to the G. F. Strong Rehabilitation Center required to cope with the increasing need for rehabilitation facilities.

Don't forget that voluntary funds make all this work possible, so give as generously as you can when you are visited on Saturday.

LET'S STOP "TOLERATING" CANADA

(From an Editorial in "Chatelaine")

Top subject on the speech-making circuit these days is the one about Canada's growing national awareness — nobody can argue with it and it's bound to get a rousing round of applause.

Undoubtedly, Canadians have recently acquired more selfconfidence, especially in certain areas than we have had in the past. For example, instead of letting most of our early Canadian furniture be carted across the border for sale in U. S. antique shops, we're zealously tracking it down for use in our own homes. There is a fairly brisk business in original Canadian paintings, a boom in Eskimo carvings and our patriotism reaches almost hysterical heights over any success in sports.

But there are still far too many Canadians who wait until the Stratford Festival gets a stamp of approval from a New York critic before they buy their tickets. If they buy a Canadian book they don't read it themselves—they give it away as a Christmas present, to prove how patriotic they are. They declare the CBC programs are much inferior to the offerings of the U. S. networks—and admit in the same breath that they haven't bothered to tune into the CBC for months. They literally say to Canadian artists: "If you're any good, why are you still in Canada?"

Even the most outspoken, self-assured patrons of the arts in Canada rarely dare to enthuse wholeheartedly about home-grown talent. The typically Canadian attitude is to be timidly tolerant—and prepared to qualify even this kind of mild approval immediately. Yet, even while we still look to the United States to set trends for us, we are sullen and resentful about it. We're like a small child with a new toy. He's not sure he likes it until his big brother takes it away from him.

It's too bad we can't develop a healthy self-confidence overnight. It's too bad we can't skip the ungraceful stage where we have to mutter disparagingly about our neighbors to prove our own worth. But in achieving maturity, nations seem to follow a cycle. First they copy other nations. Then they become belligerently patriotic. Finally they reach a stage where they judge a thing on its merit.

Some of us are at the first stage and some of us have reached the second stage. But if we're all to reach the last stage, we must learn to assess our own artists more realistically. This doesn't involve being anti-anything. Rather we must learn to be for the things we honestly believe to be good. We must give Canadian talent a fair showing, expect a high degree of excellence from it (and this we often get)—and stop sitting on our hands wondering how it would be received across the border.

EXPERIENCE OF THE DROWSY SOLDIER

By Mun Hope
(Reprinted from the Hartland Observer)

Nicholas the First, Czar of Russia, was occasionally in the habit of throwing aside his royal attire; and wearing the uniform of a lower officer, he would go about finding out how things were going with his soldiers. One day, a certain young man to whom he had given a position in charge of the money for paying off soldiers, fell into bad habits. The young fellow gambled a lot and began taking the government funds entrusted to him. Then he heard that a government official was coming the next day to examine his books; and he looked over his papers in despair. He wrote under his figures; "What a heavy debt; and how could I ever pay it"

He became discouraged and took out his gun ready to end it all. He became drowsy and went off to sleep in his chair.

It so happened that the Czar was coming along that night, dressed as a lower officer of the guard. He saw the young man's light shining under a door; and coming into the room quietly, he stood behind the man. He looked over his shoulder; he saw his papers and understood it all.

At first he thought he would put the young man under arrest; but his heart was so deeply touched that he took a pen and wrote on the paper: "Nicholas would pay this for you."

Then the Czar departed. The young man awoke about an hour later, still thinking of suicide when he saw the Czar's signature. He placed his trust in the one who paid off his debt. Nicholas had paid in full, and he was alright.

The Lord Jesus also paid our debt more than 1900 years ago, with His own blood. The reader may also place his full trust in this Son of God Who died to give us everlasting life.

"When they had nothing to pay, He frankly forgave them both." Luke 7:42.

PAPER STUCK TO THE TABLE?

Newspaper that is stuck to a wood surface will come off easily if a few drops of oil are allowed to soak into the paper. Then rub gently with a clean cloth.

BRADNER

Visitors at the Alex Moncur home last week were Mr. and Mrs. D. Pringle of Burnaby and Murray Armstrong, Shoal Lake, Manitoba.

Visitors over the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie Fatkin were Mr. and Mrs. E. Larson of Whalley.

Bobby Johnson celebrated his seventh birthday on Sunday by having a party.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sloggett, Sr., were Mr. and Mrs. S. Fretenberg of Burnaby.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goosen have just returned from Steinback, Manitoba where they visited Mr. Goosen's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Friesen and family are vacationing in Calgary.

The Bradner Red Shirts were host to a Coquitlam Commercials on Sunday when the game ended in a win for Bradner by a score of 6 to 2. R. Fatkin and B. Brinkman scored a goal each while Reid McDonald and Les Short tallied two each.

GIANT PRIZE HOG ON FINAL LEG OF JOURNEY

Odin Erga, a giant 1,000-pound Landrace prize hog, eight feet long and valued in the five figure range, was flown from New York to Dallas, on the final leg of its journey from Norway. The Landrace breed has 32 ribs, four more than the average porker.

COUNTY LINE

Friends from the Prairies, Mr. and Mrs. L. Biersterfeldt of Orion, Alberta, with their youngest daughter, Irine and family of Vancouver visited Mr. and Mrs. Nels Oss and their family at the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Zazula and family visited the latter's mother Mrs. Schwora, and other relatives in Whalley, at the weekend.

Mr. Mike Oss of New Westminster is staying a few days with his son, Nels and family.

Mrs. L. J. Robideau presided over the monthly PTA meeting at the County Line School last Monday. There was a small turn-out of only 17 members to hear Mr. Colin Stewart, Reading Consultant for the Langley School District, the guest speaker.

Mr. Stewart demonstrated the equipment he uses in his work and showed how fast the average students of Grade 7 and up are able to read. Mr. Parsons, the principal, is having the machine for the next month to try it in the lower grades.

The Regional Representative of the Provincial PTA will be asked as guest speaker at some future meeting this year.

The PTA is planning to sponsor a Valentine Dance in the County Line Hall on Saturday, February 14. The organization is also sponsoring a "Travelling Shirt" which will make the rounds of the neighborhood. People are asked to put a dime under a small patch and pass the shirt along.

Mrs. Bert Craig handed in her resignation as she will shortly be moving to Aldergrove in a couple moving to Aldergrove. Mrs. Bill Zazula, the vice-president, has taken ovtr the work temporarily.

The classes of Mrs. Leurquin and Mr. Dyck tied for the attendance prize.

Parliament Opens New Session; McLennan Gives First Report

Well, here we are back to the grind once again. It is very cold. The snow is four feet deep but it may not be as hard to take as the terrific heat of last Summer.

The House Opening was very colorful, with members of all branches of the Armed Forces in their dress uniforms and the beautiful dress of the vice-regal party. We must not overlook the part played by the ladies who were so charming in their evening gowns.

The speech from the Throne as all such speeches are, was just a sketch of some of the legislation to be brought down at the present session. There were enough important things in it to keep Parliament usefully engaged for a long time. It would appear we are in for a long hard session.

Legislation will be presented to make available many more millions for home building which supplies more local employment in British Columbia than any other Government assistance. It creates through our mills and factories to the men who produce the raw materials from our forests and pits.

The Unemployment Insurance Act is to be reviewed with a view to make it more workable and beneficial to those who have seasonal employment and others who are unfortunate enough to lose their jobs. Action is to be taken to alleviate the discrimination in the recent freight increases which affects the most westerly and easterly provinces to such a degree.

It has been announced that discussions to expedite the development of the power potentials of the Columbia River are taking place between representatives of the United States and Canadian officials. Also discussions are taking place between officials of the Provincial and Federal Governments on the technical engineering of this project which will mean so much and be of such great importance to British Columbia, especially all the Southern mainland.

I will have more to say on this subject as information on the project is made available.

We have just been issued the itinerary of the visit of our Queen and His Royal Highness, Prince Philip. They will spend July 10th until July 18th in British Columbia and will be in New Westminster on July 15. We hope the powers that be in charge of the Tour will make doubly sure that the children will be given every chance to meet or see Her Most Gracious Majesty.

NORTH COGHLAN

The annual meeting of the Coghlan Community Club was held in the hall on Tuesday, January 20.

L. J. Robideau was elected president; Bill Twemlow, vice-president; Tom Cochrane, secretary-treasurer; E. Langeway and Joe Luca, directors.

The books had been duly audited by Art Brooks and Wm. Twemlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Merv Knapp and boys motored south over the weekend for Mrs. Carlson, Mrs. Knapp's mother, who is returning home after an extended holiday.

Several who are weekly attending the night school classes at the Aldergrove High School were unable to put in an appearance last week, due to colds and inclement weather.

Tom Cochrane spent a short time recently in Shaughnessy Hospital for a periodic check-up.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Twemlow, Sr., have returned from Regina, Sask., where they spent Christmas and New Year with their son and family. Rolly is being transferred from the RCMP at Regina, a promotion to an executive position in Ottawa, where he will be moving with his wife and family in March. His friends in Coghlan wish him good luck.

Robert Baird, who was employed as engineer at Cassiar, is at home again in Coghlan. It was necessary to fly from 250 miles north to Fort St. John, one of the growing oil towns of northern B. C., and thence south to the Fraser Valley.

Annual Banquet For Garden Club

The Pine Grove Garden Club held it's annual banquet on Friday with thirty-eight members present.

The head table was decorated with a centre piece donated by the President.

After the turkey supper had been disposed of Dennis Healy, who recently made a tour of Canada and the United States, which was sponsored by the Odd Fellows, showed some slides of his trip. Slides taken included some of the United Nations building and it's interior.

A short business meeting followed which included a financial report and the election of officers.

Since the club has been so well managed by the present slate of officers the members, in expressing this opinion, asked them to continue for another year. The officers were returned by acclamation after which Mrs. Walter Schmidt expressed appreciation and gave thanks to the president, Mrs. Ben Davidson, and to the secretary-treasurer, Miss Lucy Owen, for their fine work in the past years.

Mrs. W. Schmidt continued as vice-president and committee chairmen elected were: refreshment, Mrs. W. Davis; programme, Mrs. G. Taylor.

OTTER

Spending a week as guest of her mother, Mrs. N. Marshall, was her daughter, Mrs. Mable Nang of Vancouver.

Condolences go out to Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gillespie at the loss of their grandson, whose passing was a shock to all. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gillespie of Vancouver.

Visiting at the Fred Penno home last week were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Allen of Lulu Island and Mrs. Penno's sister from Vancouver.

TO ATTEND MEETING

Councillor John Wellman will attend the meeting of the Fraser Valley Mosquito Control Board at Haney today, with authority to commit participation of Langley Municipality to the same extent as in 1958.

DISTRICT NEWS

The Patrol Leader's winter camp was held on January 17, and 18, at Camble Campsite in Manning Park. Twenty-five boys and six leaders made up the party of adventurous campers. The arctic weather that all had expected to encounter failed to materilize; the lowest temperature recorded being 28 degrees, and in its place an unseasonal rain fell, a freak weather condition was to blame. The rain somewhat dampeded everyone's spirits until early in the evening when the precipitation changed to snow. The snow continued falling throught the night and all day Sunday but all agreed that snow detracted little from the fun. Some highlights of the camp are: Russell Sherry was the only boy lucky enough to fall in the creek, this resulted in his staying in bed for the evening; one patrol's cooking fire was laid on top of the snow and subsequently slowly sank out of sight in a five foot hole; the campfire singing was accompanied by Eugene Shkurhan and Ron Hutton on mouth organs, Mr. Hutton played Taps at the conclusion; Skiing, snow shoeing, sledding and snowball fights were all pursued with vigor; the hike on Sunday saw everyone cooking his own lunch over small fires built in the wilderness; when everything was packed, ready for the return home, it was discovered that the road was impassable for automobiles and a truck had to be hired to transport the equipment to the highway; Gordon McAninch thoughtfully put a ten pound bag of plaster of paris in Mr. Greer's pack and, of course, it broke open resulting in Mr. Greer's goods being cemented together.

The consensus of opinion was that the trip was worth the effort and all are looking forward to the next one.

PEARDONVILLE

Guests at the E. L. Patterson home at the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. George Lenhardt of Sumas, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. B. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. J. Thompson, of Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. W. Thompson; Mr. and Mrs. O. Edle and Leslie; and Mr. Wayne Ross, of Abbotsford.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Peardon and Jean visited the M. Nelson home in Chilliwack at the weekend.

Wendy and Susan Taylor spent the weekend with their grandmother, Mrs. E. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bjorge and family of Port Moody visited the E. Gustafson home during the weekend.

The Misses June Patterson, Lucy Schmidt, Alice Olson and Jim Olson visited New Westminster last week.

Farm Forum was held at the P. Friesen home on Monday evening of this week.

Mrs. E. Patterson and children visited the Bob Fletcher home in Mission at the beginning of the week.

Mrs. Rita Buchanan of Chilliwack visited the E. Patterson home at the weekend.

ABERDEEN

Mr. Ernest Duncan celebrated his 73rd birthday on January 16.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Boyd and family from Vancouver spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edgington.

A surprise "Baby Shower" was given for Mrs. Colin W. Carmichael at her home this week. There were fourteen guests present.

PINE GROVE

The Pine Grove Women's Institute held it's regular meeting on Tuesday with twelve members present. After roll call, plans were discussed for a Valentine Tea to be held in February. It was also decided that the members should make a quilt for the Red Cross.

A plant has been sent to one of the members who is sick.

Hostesses for this meeting were Mrs. W. Davis and Mrs. Alice Ferguson.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Davis last week were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Slack of Almeda, Sask.

Spending the weekend at the home of their parents were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis of Pemberton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lock and Miss Edith Wilson of Vancouver were visitors at the Elmer Federspiel home during the weekend.

Mrs. Elmer Federspiel fell at her home last week and sustained injuries to her ankle, back and arm. She will be confined to her bed for some time .

Archie Federspiel is taking a course at the Imperial Oil school in Vancouver.

Weekend guests at the William Lesyk home were Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Clover and Miss D. Clover, of Vancouver.

The Gordon Grahams of Mission visited the W. Davis home last week.

SOUTH COGHLAN

Bud Johnson, formerly of County Line, while out here on a business trip had the misfortune to blow out a front tire. His truck hit a ditch on the opposite side of the Coghlan Road but the accident might have had serious results.

ALDERGROVE HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Shirley Arnold, Reporter

Donna Ollenburger introduced the guest speaker, Mr. R. Pearce, at the assembly on Jan. 21. He spoke on "Why Art?"

He pointed out that art is a natural impulse in human beings. He gave as examples to this the small children that love to have a pencil and paper that they may draw and the adults that "doodle." He also stated that the basis of art is shape and color.

An interesting example he gave was the influence of color alone in the field of advertising. Another important answer to the question "Why Art?" is that art is a language by which people communicate about things that could not be described or explained within the limitations of our spoken language.

He concluded by showing some colorful slides featuring paintings and sculpture of various periods and types. David Holness thanked him on behalf of all present for his most interesting and informative talk.

In Inter-House basketball Salish Sr. boys defeated Haida Sr. boys 34 to 27, Tsimshian Sr. girls defeated Nootka 12 to 7.

This has been a good week for the Aldergrove basketball teams. On Wednesday the 21 Aldergrove Intermediate Girls defeated Langley Intermediate by a score of 11 to 3.

On Friday, Jan. 23 Aldergrove played host to three teams from Langley. In the Senior Girls game Aldergrove was trailing 5 to 2 at half time but by three-quarter time they had tied the score at 5 all. However, Langley came back in the last quarter and won by a score of 8 to 7.

The Intermediate boys game was the highlight of the evening to all Aldergrove fans. Our teams took an early lead and the half time score was Aldergrove 17, Langley 13. Tension was high when Langley managed to tie the score at 30-30 with only minutes left to play. But our Intermediate boys came through to win their first game, the final score being, Aldergrove 32, Langley 30. Allan Moore scored the winning basket.

The Senior game was also a good one even though Langley managed to come out on top with 41 to Aldergrove's 30. All the Aldergrove teams played their best and showed excellent team spirit. Aldergrove High has every reason to be proud of them.

RICE APPEAL AT EVERY MEAL

You can balance your budget with rice. Rice is a good "extender" and combines well with most foods. Rice supplies food energy at relatively low cost.

Rice is a good breakfast cereal. Add a few raisins for variety. Or, you may want to sprinkle brown sugar and cinnamon on top for a breakfast treat. Or, you can add rice to waffle or pancake batter.

Rice goes well with meat, fish, poultry, eggs, or vegetables in casserole dishes. This is a good way to use left-overs.

Serve rice as the starchy vegetable in your meal. Add rice to your soups too. Don't forget the many delicious rice desserts.

Have you tried using rice for stuffings for meat, fish or poultry? For variety of flavors, add chopped apple or some chopped dried prunes or dried apricots. Or, add some herbs to the rice for a dressing with an unusual flavor.

SUPPLEMENT RICE

White rice is used more commonly than the other forms. White rice is low in protein and in vitamins and minerals. Be sure to serve rice with foods that will supply the food value rice lacks.

Serve rice with eggs, meat, fish, poultry, milk or cheese to supply high quality protein and vitamins and minerals. Vegetables, especially green and yellow ones, and fruits served with rice will provide vitamins and minerals.

STORY BEHIND POTATOES

Although called "Irish" potatoe, it is native to the Americas. Wild potatoes were cultivated in South America at least as early as the 2nd Century A. D. European voyagers who stopped in South America in the 16th Century stocked potatoes as ship's provisions. Sir Francis Drake took potatoes with him from Chile on his famous round-the-world voyage. Potatoes were slow to reach Europe because of the two-year voyage involved.

Sometime in the 1580's potatoes reached the British Isles. No one is quite sure who brought them or whether they came from the New World or the European mainland. The peasants in Ireland were near starvation about this time. The Irish peasants had suffered from years of conflict. They had frequently lost their stored foods and farm animals in raids. Potatoes in the ground survived these raids which was a strong reason for potato growing to spread so rapidly.

SELECTION

Good quality potatoes are sound, smooth, clean and shallow-eyed. To reduce waste, select potatoes that are free from cuts, insect injuries and bruises. Well shaped potatoes make for easy cleaning and look nice when served whole. It's a good idea to buy one variety of potatoes at a time. A mixture of varieties make proper cooking difficult.

The skin of a potato has a meaning too. Potatoes with thin, feathery skins are immature and don't keep too well. These potatoes will only keep about a week or ten days. Potatoes with thick, dry skins which are often netted or flaky are mature. These potatoes will store well.

SERVE MANY WAYS

Potatoes may be served roasted, baked, boiled, mashed, fried, creamed, browned, French fried, hash browned and in salads. Potatoes are good in pancakes, soups, and stews. The are also used in pastry cooking. About 81% of the potato crop is used for food.

DRY ONIONS VALUABLE

Onions are flavorful as a vegetable but are also a "magic touch" for chefs and gourmets the world over.

Good quality dry onions should be firm and solid. They should be dry enough that the skin crackles. They should also be bright and shiny. Good quality onions are well shaped with a slim neck. This cuts down on waste in preparation and also helps to eliminate auxiliary growth.

STUFFED BAKED LUNCHEON POTATOES

6 large baking potatoes
1 to 1½ cups hot milk
2 tablespoons butter
¼ teaspoon pepper
2 teaspoons salt
1 cup grated American cheese
2 cups minced, cooked ham or leftover meat
3 tablespoons minced parsley

Bake potatoes. When done, cut a slice off the top of each and scoop out centers. Mash potatoes, add hot milk, butter, seasonings and cheese and beat until light and fluffy. Fold in minced ham and parsley. Fill potato shells. Place potatoes on baking pan and bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for 30 minutes or until hot and lightly browned. Serves 6.

FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION

- The B. C. Foundation for Child Care, Poliomyelitis and Rehabilitation is not a charity. The services may benefit anyone regardless of financial circumstances.
- The programme does not duplicate services of other agencies and institutions. Close liaison is maintained with a number of other organizations and applications for assistance are referred to other agencies when such applications relate to their programmes.
- The Foundation relies entirely on voluntary giving and in so doing permits the public to determine the extent of the programme.
- The major support for the programme is provided by B. C. Kinsmen through the well-known "Mothers' March."
- The Foundation has spent over a million dollars in B. C. to reduce the crippling effects of polio and, more recently, to help those who are disabled by other conditions or diseases.
- Over twenty thousand public spirited citizens give voluntary service for this great programme. Voluntary funds make their work possible.

Haggis Plays Prominent Part In Burns' Night Revel Abbotsford

The fourth annual Burns' Night held at the Oddfellows' Hall, Abbotsford on Friday, January 16, included a supper, concert and dance. It was sponsored by the Abbotsford St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society and this year's attendance totaled 135.

The menu for the supper consisted of roast beef, chapped katties, bashed neeps, green peas, salad and Haggis. For dessert there was "Shiverin' Tam" and whipped cream, shortbread, oatcakes, cheese, tea and coffee.

Chairman in charge of the programme was J. S. Reid, principal of the Aberdeen School, who gave the address of welcome. The Selkirk Grace was said by Rev. Collins, the Address to the Haggis by John Oastler, the March of the Haggis by Piper Tommy Farquhar and John Murphy.

The programme featured a number of real Scotch songs such as "Star O' Robbie Burns" and "John Anderson, My Joe' sung by Mrs. Loepke. "My Luv is Like a Red, Red Rose" and "Gathering of the Clans" were sung by Mr. Foster with the comic section being taken care of by Mr. Oastler and Miss Margaret Wattie.

"The Lum Hat Wantin' a Croon" and "Johnnie Are Ye Walking Yet?" were sung by Mrs. Mary Mathers. A duet, "Hunting Tower," was sung by Mrs. Loepke and Rev. Collins. Joan Thompson entertained with the Highland Fling while four girls, Pam Lindsay, Gail Martin, Juanita Friskey and Barbara Crowley danced the Reel of Tullock and Broadswords. The piping was taken care of by Piper Tommy Farquhar.

Toasts were given as follows: To Bonnie Scotland, by Mrs. Wardrop of Mission City; To the Land of Our Adoption, by Mr. John Aiken; To The Lassies, by Rev. Collins; replying for the Lassies was Mrs. Eileen Bloomfield. The Toast to the Tartan was given by J. S. Reid.

The highlight of the evening was the guest speaker, Mr. Elmore Philpot, Vancouver Sun columnist, who spoke on "The Immortal Memory."

Dancing followed the concert and the Scottish dances were in the hands of John Murphy, M. C.

Abbotsford Kin Club Start Drive

Abbotsford Kinsmen Club has begun its annual drive for funds for the B. C. Foundation of Child Care, Poliomyelitis and Rehabilitation.

It is hoped that this drive will surpass that of last year, which brought in a total of $2,400.

The drive will include the mother's march, January 21, student's march in the schools, and tag days in Abbotsford, Clearbrook, Mission Bridge, and Huntingdon Customs.

Those in charge of the campaign are Frank Johnson, chairman, and Mrs. T. Maynard for the mother's march.

Socreds Re-Elect Harold Martin

The Abbotsford Social Credit group held their annual meeting in St. Mathews parish hall last week.

Harold Martin was re-elected president with Peter Enns, Bill Reimer and Mrs. Ada Ness as vice-presidents, John Bartsch as treasurer and Mrs. J. Bartsch secretary.

Former M. P. for New Westminster, George Hahn, was guest speaker, taking the place of Hon. W. K. Keirnan who was unable to attend because of transportation difficulties.

Hoop Teams Are Still Unbeaten

Abbotsford hoop teams still remain unbeaten in league play when all three high school teams were victorious over the opposing Chilliwack teams.

In Friday night's game, the Abbotsford Senior girls scored an easy win over the Chilliwack girls with a score of 33-15.

Abbotsford's hustling Intermediate boys also found little opposition in their opponents when they racked up a 42-21 victory.

A. H. S. Senior boys took an early lead and maintained it throughout the game despite a few tense moments when the Chilliwack seniors made a pressing offense and almost tied up the game. However, the threat was overcome by the local boys, who won by a close score of 38-35.

MENNONITE CHURCH NEWS

The Young People of W. A. Mennonite Church held a special meeting Sunday night, featuring a guest speaker and films.

United Church Has Annual Meet

By Mrs. H. L. Black

There will be a congregational meeting in the United Church on Sunday evening, February 1. The members and adherents are asked to remain after the service for an important discussion. Mr. Gordon Holtby will be taking part in the service and will address the meeting following.

The Murrayville and Aldergrove congregations will hold a joint social evening in the Memorial Hall at Aldergrove on January 31, at 8 p. m.

The members of the United Church Federation are planning a Variety Supper to be held in the Memorial Hall on February 21.

The Annual Meeting of the Aldergrove United Church was held on Friday night in the Memorial Hall. A Pot-luck supper at seven o'clock provided a pleasant social hour before the business of the evening.

At eight o'clock the meeting was called to order. The minister, Rev. J. R. Colclough, read a passage of Scripture and gave a prayer of thanks for the blessings of the past year, and of intercession for guidance in the work of the church throught this year. He also gave a short resume of the duties of the elders, stressing the fact that the interest of the Session is the Spiritual welfare of the congregation.

Reports from the various organizations had been mimeographed and put in booklet form. These had been distributed previously, so that members had a chance to know what had been done. The attention of the meeting had a forward look and the work during 1959 was discussed at some length. Two new Stewards, Mr. R. J. Edge and Mr. M. D. McIntosh were elected in place of two who wished to retire. The Benediction was pronounced by the Minister when time came for adjournment.

The first meeting in 1959 of the Federation was held in the church on Monday evening, Janury 19. The President, Mrs. T. Beggs, opened the meeting.

The Devotional Service was the first in a series in the study of neighborhood and was taken by Mrs. Black and Mrs. Snowdon. It consisted of Scripture readings, comments on them and questions discussed by the members, followed by prayer and a hymn. The introduction to our Book of the Year "Concerns of a Continent", was ably presented by Mrs. Angrignon. The maps she brought impressed more clearly the location of our neighbors and our concerns for them.

The Honorary President, Mrs. J. R. Colclough, was asked to install the officers for the year.

In the earnest ceremony she conducted the following members took the pledge of office: Mrs. Alton Jeffery, president; Mrs. Erle Crosby, 1st vice-president; Mrs. J. L. Gilbert, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. A. M. Kydd, secretary; Mrs. A. R. Suddaby, treasurer; Mrs. R. Andrews, W. M. S. treasurer; Mrs. W. Forsythe, Christian Citizenship and associate members; Mrs. D. G. Conn, literature; Mrs. C. Jeffery, supply; Mrs. A. Kristoff, social convenor; Mrs. A. E. Angrignon, program convenor; Mrs. H. L. Black, press; Mrs. W. E. Snowdon, representative to Official Board.

At the service on Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Edge had their little son christened, David Allan.

As usual on the last Sunday of each month the Junior choir led in the service of praise.

The C. G. I. T. had a part in the service on Sunday evening. Mrs Deans, the leader, read the C. G. I. T. "Purpose" and three girls took their vows in a Lanyard service. This entitles them to be senior members with added responsibilities. The girls receiving their Lanyards were Marilyn Scott, Gretta Azak and Evelyn Moore.

Aldergrove PTA Trys "Marking"

The Aldergrove High School PTA had an attendance of approximately sixty for the meeting on Monday evening.

The first half hour was occupied by watching the finals of the House basketball championships. Nootka came out on top, beating Salish by quite a few points, although it was a hard fought game. It was evident that even parents can become quite lusty cheerers on occasion. More such games might lead to considerable rivalry.

After a short business session the parents and teachers broke up into small groups in four classrooms. Qualified teachers explained the various systems of marking and mimeographed papers gave parents a chance to try their own hands at "marking". This session appeared to clear the air considerably for all present and most people expressed satisfaction with the explanations given.

The attendance points went to Salish, 1st; Tsimshian, 2nd; Nootka, 3rd and Haida, 4th.

RADIO STATION PROPOSED

An application will be made for the location of a commercial radio station near Langley.
