AROUND TOWN

By Don Anson

Next time you're in Langley, have a look at the oil paintings in Carousel Colour Centre. These are all painted locally and are displayed for criticism and encouragement. Anyone who has a painting, even a first effort, can have it displayed free of charge.

Last week, a lady advertised in this paper for help in her home and has received numerous replies. If anyone else is in need of similar assistance, Mrs. Krentz, BA 6-5116, says she will be glad to put them in contact with some of these girls.

If people notice street lights out in Aldergrove when they should be on they should phone B. C. Electric, Abbotsford, UL 4-2561.

I see that jewellers are now selling watch bracelets that you can tie in knots if you want to. How nice of the makers to realise how useful this will be to wristwatch owners. Best invention since pens which write on butter.

Now is the time to give a subscription gift of your home town paper to relatives and friends in the old country. There is nothing they would like better and the gift lasts a whole year.

Douglas Day banquet promises this year to be bigger and better than ever, but make sure you get your tickets early.

Plans are under way for Christmas parties again. The first we have heard of is the St. Dunstan's Sunday School party which has been set for Monday, December 19, at 7:00 p. m. in the church basement.

An Aldergrove Scout Group Committee meeting was held last Saturday when all parents were invited to attend. Only five persons turned up so it was impossible to hold elections. Consequently, the meeting has been postponed till Thursday, Nov. 24, in the old fire hall, at 8 p. m. Unless parents turn up, it may be necessary to disband, as a committee is absolutely essential.

Of interest to rock hounds is the fact that George Wade, custom's officer, has made himself a gravimeter. This is an instrument for measuring the specific gravity of rocks. Cunning contrivance.

Don't forget to look at the Aldergrove Community Plan in the Post Office.

A paper cutter is a dangerous instrument as Les Williams found out last week. Not only will it cut paper, but also thumbs.

Herb Hough's effort at pulling a cow out of a well with his wrecker was mentioned on the radio last Sunday.

Full story of Otter Calf Club awards night will appear next week.

The Royal Bank in Aldergrove will be staying open until 6 p. m. on Thursday instead of Friday for this week only.

Langley Police Court News

Violations of the law appeared in variety at last week's Langley Court session.

Failing to yield the right of way lead to a fine of $25 and costs for William Clarence Cumming of Langley, following an accident near Krieger's Hatchery in Aldergrove.

Two charges against a Langley man, Richard Samuel Brown, resulted in fines of $15 for leaving keys in the ignition and $50 with costs for consuming liquor in a public place.

John Mazzaro, Matsqui, paid $25 and costs for speeding while a fine of $75 and costs was levied against Stanley Pretenburg of Langley for driving without due care and attention leading to an accident in West Langley.

Impaired driving was charged against a Richmond man, Arthur Herbert Turner, who paid a fine of $150.

Found fighting in the middle of Glover Road with a juvenile, Rudy Kucera of Fort Langley was charged with disturbing the peace and fined $50 and costs. The juvenile was fined $25.

Council Only For Delegation Before Cabinet

Delegation to see the Provincial Exhibit at Fort Langley over road crossings will consist of Municipal Council only with Reeve D. W. Poppy acting as spokesman.

It was suggested at last meeting of Aldergrove Chamber of Commerce that the delegation should be as strong as possible and should include representations from all organizations in the district.

IN MEMORY

Council Airport Committee is making arrangements for the installation of a commemorative plaque in memory of the late mayor, E. E. Sendall.

Fire Department Buys Tanker

Aldergrove Volunteer Fire Department has now purchased additional equipment in the form of a 1,500 gallon tanker.

The tanker, mounted on a 1953 Fargo chassis is in very good condition and is complete with pump and hose. Tried out Sunday, it was found to work well.

Original intention was to buy a 2,200 gallon tanker for $3,500 from Victoria, but this was found to be unsatisfactory and the tanker bought, costing $2,625 has effected considerable savings.

TRADES LICENCE REFUSED

Application for a trades licence to operate a slaughterhouse on Medd Rd. has been turned down by Council.

A petition signed by 44 local residents asked the Council to prohibit the construction of a slaughterhouse by Mr. Dragt at the proposed locality on Medd Road. The area is not zoned.

Teachers Inducted At Langley Ceremony

An entirely new procedure featured the induction of twenty new teachers into the British Columbia Teachers' Federation, at the Langley branch's meeting on Monday evening. A business meeting had preceded the induction ceremony, and guests at the latter arrived by 8:30 p. m.

The stage of Langley Central School activity room was attractively decorated with tall standards of large yellow and bronze chrysanthemums and a centre-piece of bronze, yellow and gold mums of smaller size. On the platform were the twenty inductees, Rev. Del Johnson of Langley United Church; Mr. Trevor Beggs, chairman of the Langley School Board; C. D. Ovans of the B. C. Teachers' Federation; David Evans, president of the Langley Teachers' Association; C. Hardy, vice president of the L.T.A.; and A. E. Angrignon, past-president of the organization.

Representatives of many organizations throughout the municipality had also been invited and were present including Councillor Eric Flowerdew representing the Municipal Council; John Jeffrey of Langley Board of Trade and Larry Stade, Aldergrove Chamber of Commerce.

David Evans, president of the Langley Teachers, introduced the vice-president, C. W. Hardy.

Mr. Hardy first called upon the Chairman of the School Board, Trevor Beggs, to welcome the new teachers to the district.

Mr. Beggs remarked that he did sincerely welcome the new teachers but that he also welcomed back all the other teachers in the district, some of whom had been here a considerable while. The Chairman said that the teachers were in contact with the younger members of the community during the day but he hoped they would contact the adult population through various community activities after school hours. He stated that many teachers were already serving in various organizations in many ways.

Mr. Hardy next asked A. E. Angrignon to read the Ethics of the B. C. Teachers' Federation to the inductees who were then called upon by name to receive their certificates at the hands of Mr. Evans.

The inductees and the schools at which they are teaching are as follows: Mrs. Lois Marion Carlson, East Langley; Miss Marlene Elizabeth Dams, North Otter; John Russell Day, Glenwood; Miss Bonnie Finkbeiner, Anderson; Miss Linda Forstbauer, Langley Central; Miss Jane Isobel Gray, Lochiel; Miss Shirley Grace Helin, Belmont; Miss Lau-

LARGE TURNOUT EXPECTED

Public Meeting Called Over Aldergrove Community Plan

A public meeting has been called by Council to discuss the proposed Aldergrove Community Plan.

The meeting will be held in the Vasa Hall on Monday, November 21, at 8 p. m. and will be under the direction of Reeve Poppy, Councillors, and the Municipal Planning Officer, Ken Major.

A map of the proposed plan is now posted in the Aldergrove Post Office to enable people to obtain a preview.

Several meetings with Aldergrove Planning Committee have already been held and great interest has been shown in the plan which has been drawn up in fine detail.

Shown in the map are proposed new roads, parks and residential areas, in an area extending roughly from County Line Road north and south of Trans Canada Highway for ½ mile and through to the Matsqui border.

Projected future population of Aldergrove is 3,500 which, says Ken Major, is quite possible now that the Water By-Law has been passed.

Taken into consideration in the plan area are, best methods of subdivision, flow of traffic for ease of shopping, access roads, provision for recreation areas and commercial extension.

Questions will be answered at the meeting which should command a very good audience as it affects all residents.

If the plan is generally approved it will be registered with the inspector of B. C. Municipalities and used as a basis for development of the area.

Any person who may be planning subdivision will find that in the proposed plan the maximum number of lots obtainable from all lands are clearly shown.

Chamber Meets Monday Night

Next Monday's installation banquet for Aldergrove Chamber of Commerce will be held in the United Church Hall at 7 o'clock.

The evening programme will include presentation of the "Citizen of the Year" award to the winner selected by a panel of three judges. Guest speaker for the evening will be A. G. Woodlands from B. C. Packers' Imperial Cannery at Steveston, who will talk on the value of a Chamber of Commerce to small communities.

Officers to be installed by Reeve D. W. Poppy are Joe Breier, president; Dr. Stanley Findlay, vice president; George Rammell, recording and corresponding secretary; also Merle Courtemanche, treasurer. Directors will be Stan Deans, Terry Lang-Hodge, Art Dingley, Neville Hall, Al Rose, Jeff Rowley and Bruno Giacomazzi.

Beetle Bugs Bar Building

Use of lumber from an old house located on Jackman Road gravel pit was requested by G. Dowd, tenant of the building on the land. He asked for the lumber to build a porch onto his house.

The building inspector, after looking at the old building, found it to be infested with wood beetles and other termites and on his suggestion will not be removed but destroyed on site.

Book Fair Dates Nov. 13 To 19 Langley Central

During Young Canada's Book Week, November 13 to 19, the Langley Board of School Trustees is sponsoring a Book Fair in the Activity Room of Langley Central School. The Fair will be open to the public and will run from November 16 to 19 inclusive.

Approximately 1,000 titles will be on display. They will represent some twenty publishers and will cover a broad range of subjects in children's reading. Some adult material will be available also.

The Display will be open daily from the 16th to 19th from 1 to 9 p. m. except Saturday when the hours will be from 1 to 6 p. m.

Jackman Traffic Count Vetoed

Council dealt with three requests from Aldergrove Chamber of Commerce last week.

Regarding a complaint that owing to construction of the new highway, Roberts Road was covered in mud for long periods, it was stated by Councillors that the contractor cleans off the roadway regularly.

The condition of 273rd Street in Aldergrove was referred to the Superintendent of Works. This street has since been graded.

A request for a traffic count on Jackman Road for two separate 26-hour periods was considered to be of little value and was turned down.

MP Questioned At Council Meet

Speaking to W. A. McLennan, M. P., when he attended last week's Council meeting, Councillor Eric Flowerdew referred to the Langley resolution presented to the U.B.C.M. on the distribution of tax wealth. He suggested that the Federal Government should consider taking over responsibility for education and make bigger contributions to hospitalization to relieve the tax burden on property owners.

Mr. McLennan replied that the Federal Government is not able to participate in education under the B.N.A. Act. He also referred to the fact that the government makes contribution to hospitals.

During the last 18 months, he said, the B.C.H.I.S. has received 36 million dollars from the Federal Government.

When told by Councillor Sid Hogben that the new highway will cut Langley in half and cut off many of the municipal roads, McLennan replied that this was solely the responsibility of the provincial government but the federal government paid 50 percent of approved plans.

He suggested that any proposed changes in the plans could be submitted to Federal Government for approval.

Stores Will Be Closed Friday

Because Friday of this week is "Remembrance Day" all stores in Aldergrove will be closed that day. However, they will all stay open until 9 p. m. on Thursday evening instead, for this week only.

NEW C.O. FOR HMCS ALDERGROVE

A new commanding officer, right above, took over at H.M.C.S. Aldergrove last Thursday.

Lt./Cdr. Stanley G. Machan, the new C. O., was born in Detroit, Michigan, educated in Dauphin, Manitoba and Lacombe, Alberta, before joining the Navy as Ordinary Seaman in February, 1946. He was promoted to Midshipman in May 1947 and trained with the Royal Navy until May 1950, serving in H.M.S. Norfolk in the East Indies and at Greenwich Royal Naval College and navy establishments in Portsmouth, England.

Commander Machan's last appointment was as Squadron Commanding Officer with the Fourth Canadian Escort Squadron in H.M.C.S. Sussexvale. His wife, Pauline, was born in Rainham, Kent, England, and has three daughters, twins aged 10 and another aged 6. The family will be joining him from Victoria this week.

The new commander is a keen sportsman and is looking forward to hunting and fishing while stationed at Aldergrove. He will take Lt. Cdr. David Pearce's place in the Boo Boo's bowling team in the Aldergrove Bowling League.

Lt. Cdr. David Pearce has left for an eastern tour of duty at sea and will be based at Halifax, Nova Scotia.

In his farewell speech to the ship's company last Wednesday, he stated that his short time spent in Aldergrove was the happiest in his career.

CARRY ON, HOWARD GREEN

One can understand the thinking behind persons responsible recently for stealing the anvil from Gretna Green in Scotland and transporting it to London where it was left outside British Broadcasting House as a symbol for world peace.

People in England, as in Canada, are appalled at the ever increasing amounts being spent on armaments for security reasons.

The persons responsible for the above act suggested that if the powers of the West sought a marriage with powers from the East, then attention could be turned to solving the miseries prevailing in the world now, with accentuation on a cure for cancer. Gretna Green was of course a famous spot for run-away marriages.

Many famous statesmen have publicly stated they don't think Russia wants war. Many state that the Soviets are more frightened of war than the west and this is probably true. But they go on spending millions and millions of dollars which is making the world poorer and poorer. It must end somewhere.

Our hopes lie largely in the hands of our own Secretary of State for External Affairs, Howard Green, who was chiefly responsible for seeking and obtaining renewal of disarmament conferences. Canada is now a world voice in the Commonwealth and United Nations and while strongly opposing neutrality could be leaders in a universal demand for ending this nightmare of spending.

Nowadays, the person calling himself a pacifist is likely to be dubbed an "oddball" or even a communist but surely at heart everyone, including Khrushchev, must want the world to continue.

"YOUNG CANADA'S BOOK WEEK"

It may be said of books, even more truly than of films and telecasts, that they are "the golden keys that open the enchanted door." Textbooks alone, indispensable as they are, will not open the door, nor will they prove sufficient guides to those children who have passed through it. Boys and girls want books of quality and substance to match the growth of their powers and their own imagination. Homes and friends can often help, and so can public and regional libraries, but school libraries can help most of all.

The key to advancement in literature for Canadian children lies easily within the reach of parents. Like the situation of the old woman whose pig "wouldn't jump over the stile," one process in the chain of book supply must move before anything else will do so. Authors lose the courage to write books which publishers are not eager to accept; publishers cannot afford to issue continually books which have no market. Parents are the final link, for they form the potential market. Once parents show that they are willing to buy Canadian books for their children most such books will be forthcoming.

EXPLANATIONS

In the office, we have received quite a number of articles (reports, etc.), which people have written up like stories one would find in books, or as high pressure salesmanship in advertisements. The writers would like us to print them as sent in, but we must point out that this is a newspaper with certain rigid restrictions to which the staff must adhere as regards reporting.

The "salesmanship" stories should really be sent in as advertisements and as such should be paid for. Editorials cannot be written on reports or on forthcoming events. They are strictly the editor's personal opinion.

By the foregoing remarks we have explained why some write-ups cannot be printed as sent in and trust our readers will understand.

ANNUAL BAZAAR—A Guide, Shirley Griffiths, and a Brownie, Leslie Kirkham, from the County Line Company and Pack are seen in the photo above with some of the many beautiful things made for their bazaar by members of the sponsoring Group Committee and the youngsters themselves. The bazaar will be next Saturday morning at 11:30 and lunch will also be served by these busy youngsters. The large doll on the left will be raffled and she has a real mink hat and cape. (NEWS Photo

Douglas Day Plans Set For November 18

Governor Douglas was "sworn in" by Judge Begbie as the first Governor of British Columbia at Fort Langley on November 19, 1858, in a ceremony which heralded the establishment of law and order in a young and vigorous province. This important occasion in the development of British Columbia has marked Fort Langley as the focal point of attention from all corners of the world and the local people are justly proud of the role their "Fort" played in the process of nation building and refer to this attractive town as "the first Capital of B. C."

The celebration of Douglas Day will be held at Fort Langley on November 18 this year and the ceremonies will include the younger generation as well as the pioneers. The opening programme will be conducted at the modern "maximilite" school in the village, after which, the members of the Cabinet and local civic leaders will proceed to the restored Fort where the annual cabinet meeting will be held. Douglas Day has been celebrated in Langley for a number of years and the local residents are happy to note that the Government and people of the province have decided to expand these celebrations to include all of this great province.

The Provincial Government has officially recognized this historic occasion by the adoption of the Douglas Day Act which requires that November 19 shall be observed as Douglas Day throughout the province. In addition, the B. C. Cabinet, headed by Premier W. A. C. Bennett, will hold a special cabinet meeting in the restored Fort at 3 p. m. on November 18. Members of the Cabinet will also attend the banquet to be held in the Fort Langley Community Hall at 7:30 p. m.

One of the highlights of the Douglas Day celebrations each year is the table of honour, in the centre of the banquet hall, which is reserved for pioneer residents of the area. One of the regular attenders is in his 99th year and can remember when the old Hudson's Bay Fort was the centre of activity.

The guest speaker at the banquet will be Dr. C. E. Borden, of the Division of Archaeology, University of British Columbia. Dr. Borden has been engaged in research and excavation work on middens located on the lower mainland. He proposes to illustrate his address with photographic slides of the middens and interesting artifacts he has discovered.

Aldergrove Activities

The Aldergrove Old Age Pensioners' Organization met in the Vasa Hall on Friday afternoon with over fifty members attending and also eight visitors who wished to join. Mr. Orwick, president, opened the meeting, while Mrs. Gay did the honors at the piano. Two minutes silence was accorded three members who passed away since last meeting. Mr. Porter of White Rock was present, and remarked how well the Club has carried on since its inception last May. Members are invited to the Firemen's Band party in Fort Langley on Sunday. Many expressed a wish to go, so those who have cars will load passengers from Vasa Hall.

The Christmas dinner tickets are ready for sale, and members are getting set for a good time on December 15. Lunch was served at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. Bjerklund of Vancouver was house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Nelson last week when she renewed old acquaintances in the district.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Caplette were hostesses when the Aldergrove CCF Club met on November 2 in their home for their monthly meeting. Three visitors were welcomed and a busy agenda followed. A banquet will be sponsored by this Club and will be held in Vasa Hall on November 19 at 7 p. m.

A vote of Thanks was tendered Mrs. Nordin for work carried on by her before the election. Concern was felt for Mr. John Peever who has been a patient in Langley Memorial Hospital recently.

A card party will be held in Vasa Hall on November 7 and a turkey raffle will be sponsored by the Club, as soon as possible. December meeting will be at the home of A. P. Ness.

Mr. J. Peddy had the misfortune to injure his hand while at work last week.

Cricketers Hold Annual Banquet

Langley Cricket Club held their annual banquet at Wander Inn, Friday when 80 persons attended, including a large contingent of Langley teachers.

Mayor Alf Penzer congratulated the club on winning again the "B" division championship and pointed out that the City Council must largely share the credit as they provided the playing field.

Winner of the major individual trophy, the "Colin Stuart" best allrounder award, was Rev. Art Griffin who also took the award for best bowling performance in 1960.

Other awards went to Rod Sharp, best bat 1960 and best "A" bowler 1959 and to Rick Buck, best "B" bowler 1959. Doug Nott was receiver of a special token of appreciation from the cricketers.

Tribute to the club was paid by guest speaker Ted Allen of Vancouver Rowing Club whose subject "True Sportsmanship" revealed the growing lack of courtesy both on and off the field in modern professional sports. "Thank heavens" he said, "that we don't hear 'Kill the umpire' shouted on the cricket field."

Both president John Thomson and vice captain Gerry Brown emphasized the fine team spirit that existed in the Langley Club.

NEW BILLIARD HALL

The necessary trades licence in Aldergrove has been granted by Council to David Wolff, who has operated a similar hall in Chase.

Former Student Of Aldergrove High Graduates

Joyce Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cooper, R.R. 1, Aldergrove, and formerly on the staff of the "Aldergrove News," has just returned from a holiday "down east." While there she visited the McGee family, formerly of HMCS Aldergrove, and was present at Donna's graduation.

For the information of Donna's many friends, Joyce says "she looked lovely in a white brocade dress with a harem skirt." She also had a white fox cape. Donna is now working for the Department of Education and her "district" includes three schools.

The McGees look forward to receiving the "Aldergrove News" each week and to returning to B. C. next summer, says Joyce, who now is employed by the Australian Immigration Department in Vancouver.

United Church Annual Bazaar

The ladies of the Federation of Aldergrove United Church will hold their annual bazaar and tea in the Memorial Hall on November 19 at 2:30 p. m.

There will be stalls of aprons for all occasions, doll's clothing and furniture, novelties of all kinds, fishpond and again the parcel post which was so successful last year. Home baking will again be a popular stall.

Helping to serve the tea will be girls of the C.G.I.T.

1ST LANGLEY 'FALCONS'

This week's meeting was held in the United Church Hall as usual. Quite a lengthy discussion period was held in which such matters as Scout week and the window display were brought up. After the instruction period a game was directed by Ricky Pearce of the senior patrol. The points for the fall months were compiled and showed that the Owl Patrol was well in the lead. Let's see the rest of the patrols give them a little bit of competition.

SCRIBES NOTE

Look guys, this is pretty sad! Last week we had two pages of Scout news, this week—well you can see for yourselves.. There are eleven troops in Langley. If each troop sent in a report just once a month (Let's all pick a different week though) we would have a half decent column. Don't let your troops down scribes. See that they're represented.

SKIP SAYS

Next Sunday, 1:00 p. m., Ponder Memorial Scout Park. Will you and your troop be there? This is the time and date for the district wide game and Shield competition.

On November 11, the Remembrance Day Service will be held at the Langley High School and all troops are asked to participate. We will be meeting near the parking lot of the school (on the west side at 10:00 a. m.

All troops have reported a very successful Apple Day and I would like to thank all the people in Langley for their generous and wholehearted support of Scouting. The adult members of the association join the boys in saying "Thanks for your help."

OPERATION IGLOO

There are places for only forty boys on this outing so if you have not made application yet you had better do so right away. It looks like we will have a full attendance, with Scouts from all over the valley area attending. So far there are fifteen from Langley, five from Clover Valley, four from Abbotsford, four from Chilliwack, eight from Haney, two from Ladner, two from Hope, and some other applications from various points. If the applicatioins out-number the spaces available we will adopt a priority system of selection with first choice going to Langley Boys.

SCOUTERS NOTE

There will be a Basic 'A' course in Agassis on Saturday, December 3, 1960. Any Scouters who have not taken this course should make every effort to attend. The fee is $1.75 and includes your supper. (All participants are asked to bring a lunch with them.) Transportation will be available and will be leaving the Langley Bus Depot at 7:30 a. m. that morning. Full uniform is dress for the day. Please contact Skip if you plan to attend.

Planning Group Calls Meeting

The Fraser Valley branch of the Community Planning Association of Canada is sponsoring a panel discussion on the topic, "Municipal services—who pays?" at the Canadian Legion Hall in Whalley on Nov. 15, at 8 p. m.

On the panel will be Councillor R. McMath, Richmond, W. J Calderwood, representing the ratepayers, and T. Ryall representing the developers, and one other.

NEW COURSE — Most popular of all courses at Aldergrove Night School this year is Flower Arranging, instructed by Madge Wibberley. Here part of the large class of 33 ladies are seen doing class assignment of making decorative table centres. They were allowed 20 minutes to finish their design which had to conform to specific theme and then work was judged by themselves. Points are given each week for class and homework assignments. Awards to winners will be made at end of season. In the lower picture can be seen some of the finished work. Every Tuesday evening now the High School cafeteria resembles a flower shop. (NEWS Photo)

News From Canadian Legion

LANGLEY

by Legionnaire

Tomorrow, November 11, is Armistice Day, when we remember those who gave their lives for Canada and Freedom.

"They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun, and in the morning
We will remember them."

This week has been proclaimed Legion Week here in Langley by the Mayor and the Reeve, and also all over Canada. The Annual Armistice Day Service will be held tomorrow at 10:45 a. m. in the Langley High School Auditorium, and will be attended by Mayor Penzer and Reeve Poppy and Councillors. Lcdr. Stenning, C. D., R.C.N., will represent the Naval Station at Aldergrove. Units taking part in the parade will fall in on the Roberts Road at a point some distance from the school if the weather is good, otherwise near the school, at 10:15 a. m. Cars may be left in the school parking lot, but NOT on the road. After the service a party will proceed to the Fort Langley and Murrayville cemeteries to lay wreaths on the War Memorials.

After the service there will be the usual Reunion and musical programme in the Legion rooms.

POPPY DAY

We were very lucky in the weather again this year. Our helpers made a great effort to make the proceeds a record, and at the time of writing it looks as though they have succeeded.

WELFARE

In hospital: W. Sogge, Bob Wilson, F. Brown, Harry Praat and W. A. English are in Shaughnessy. W. Ferguson and W. Allard in the Derby Home. They can take all the pocket books you can spare, so please leave them at Gordon Touts'.

We are sponsoring another concert by the Fort Langley Firemen's Band at the Derby Home on Nov. 8 at 8 p. m. These concerts are greatly enjoyed by the old boys and they like to see as many of you active members as can come along.

ANNIVERSARY BANQUET

Tickets for the Banquet and Dance on Saturday, Nov. 26, can be obtained from the Legion Office or from any member of the Executive. This is a very special occasion and we are very anxious that no member, especially no one on W.V.A., shall be prevented from attending through lack of funds or transport. So if you are one of these and would like to come, please leave your name at the office or tell any member of the Executive, and we will fix it. But do it NOW or it may be too late.

A WARNING

We have been shown a "Veterans Calendar" which is being sold from door to door in the district. We want to make it clear that this has nothing whatever to do with the Canadian Legion, and that no veteran or other person has any authority to represent himself as selling goods on behalf of the Legion.

THE LAST WORD

Come to the service tomorrow and to the Reunion afterwards. It is only once a year; and each year, in the nature of things, there are two or three of the old familiar faces missing.

Young Canada's Book Week From Nov. 13 To 22

The annual "Young Canada's Book Week" is again being held throughout Canada and the Fraser Valley Regional Library, as well as the surrounding School Districts, are arranging book displays and otherwise publicizing the event.

To avoid any confusion in the mind of the public we point out that the dates covering this week extend over an actual week in length. The Langley School District has November 13 to 19 and the Regional Library dates are Nov. 15 to 22. This gives even more opportunity for young people to take advantage of it.

For the past eleven years, this annual event has been set aside to focus interest in good books for children and to encourage the reading of them at home, at school and at the library. Thousands of fine children's books are available and adults are encouraged to become aware of them.

In Langley, a definite start has been made to encourage the reading of good books at school, through the establishment of a central library service. However, to help foster this service, parents are urged to take an active interest in their children's home reading.

During "Young Canada's Book Week," libraries across the country aim to promote the interest of children of all ages in all types of good books. The children are encouraged to make use of library services for recreational reading and information of every possible kind. They are encouraged to learn to use the "request" service along with the regular library service.

Every month about 300 requests from children go through the Fraser Valley Regional Library which has well over 40,000 young readers in the district which it covers For this coming "Book Week" the slogan of the libraries is "The books are waiting for you, kids—come and get 'em!"

The Langley Board of School Trustees is also doing it's part for this important week, details of this effort being reported elsewhere in this issue.

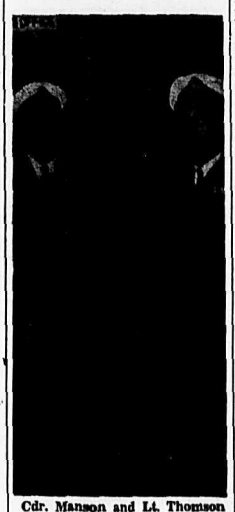
SEA CADET NEWS

When the head of all Sea Cadets in Canada visited the R. C. S. C. C. Columbia on Thursday evening the whole ship's company had never looked better. All except the two very newest recruits were in uniform, some for the first time. The new recruits were not left out but were given the job of opening and closing the doors for their visitors.

It was a fine sight that met the eye as one entered the naval gym at HMCS Aldergrove just prior to the arrival of the special visitor. The full company was lined up and waiting, slicked and polished to a man.

Commander G. J. Manson, C. D., R.C.N., Staff Officer Sea Cadets to the Commanding Officer,



Cdr. Manson and Lt. Thomson

Naval Divisions, is visiting every sea cadet corp across Canada, of which there are around 200. A visit from him does not occur often so this was indeed a special occasion.

After inspecting the whole ship's company and taking the salute at the march past Cammander Manson spoke to the cadets and told them he received reports from all over Canada at his Hamilton, Ontario office and although Aldergrove had only been commissioned for a year, he had repeatedly come across their name. He said that although so new they were already rated as one of the top corps in Canada. He urged all the cadets to continue their schooling as far as possible, at least until junior matriculation. Commander Manson said it would be even better if they obtained their senior matriculation or went on to a degree. He said they would be happier and so would the Navy. The Commander pointed out that the boys had three responsibilities — to themselves, to their corps, and to the Navy every time they donned their uniform. Referring to the latter, he said that to the majority of people who saw them on the street it would mean "There goes the Navy."

The Commander also said how pleased he was to see so many parents and friends in attendance and that the success of a corps depended so much on their support. At the conclusion of this address the corps was dismissed into classes and the officers and guests walked around watching the various activities.

Accompanying Cmdr. Manson were Lt. Cmdr. W. Bowditch, new Area Officer of Sea Cadets, and his assistant officer, Lt. Jens Gotthardt, who is stationed at HMCS Discovery in Vancouver. Also present was Mr. W. J. R. Peers, Provincial President of the Navy League of Canada, the sponsoring body. The local Fraser Valley branch was represented by its president, Mr. D. M. Hanson, principal of Aldergrove High School.

Lt. John Thomson, commanding officer of R.C.S.C.C. Columbia welcomed the visitors.

Guides, Brownies Annual Bazaar At County Line

The Group Committee of the County Line Guides and Brownies have been very busy making supplies for the stalls at the bazaar to be held on November 12 in the County Line School activity room. The time is rather unusual—11:30 in the morning, and lunch will also be served. This was explained as allowing people to go about their regular Saturday activities in the afternoon.

All sorts of things suitable for gifts have been made—wastepaper baskets, foam cushions, soap and washcloth novelties, Christmas stockings, seals and wrapping paper, painted bread boards and door stops. To top is all a large doll, fully dressed for a party, complete with real mink cape and hat and full wardrobe of clothes will be raffled. Some lucky person will get a wonderful Christmas gift.

This Week Proclaimed 'Legion Week' In B.C.

A joint proclamation has been signed naming this week Legion Week.

Signed by Reeve H. A. McDonold, Matsqui; Reeve Alex Hogan, Sumas; and M. W. Shore, Commissioner of Abbotsford Village, the proclamation reads "November 6 to 12 will be observed as Legion Week throughout British Columbia. It is a time of double significance for all of us. We recall with pride, and with deep compassion, the men and women who have died so bravely in the service of their country. We also are reminded of the great scope of the community services being rendered by their surviving comrades who work through Canadian Legion branches everywhere.

It is with considerable pride that we commend the vast amount of volunteer work and financial support the Legion gives to this community through scholarships, housing projects, sponsorship of young people's sports and continuing dedication to the welfare of veterans.

The Canadian Legion is the largest organization in numbers in the province. This year the Legion celebrates it's 35th anniversary and increased support will bring new vitality to the Legion organization and greater benefits to many in our community.

Many Take Part In Local Sport

Over 1,000 boys and girls, men and women, ages 4 and up, took part in activities sponsored by the Matsqui, Sumas, Abbotsford Recreation Commissions. This fact was reported at the regular meeting of the Recreation Commission in the Abbotsford courthouse.

Included in the list of the activities are softball, in which more than 500 took part, badminton, basketball, the gym club, and the supervised summer playground program at the Jubilee Park. The Recreation Commission gave financial assistance in excess of $1,000.

GROWING UP

Many arguments have been heard recently whether Halloween is worse now than it was many years ago. Some voices have even said that Halloween should be forgotten. Of course, those voices are from adults, persons who have had their fun and perhaps forgotten.

It seems to be easy to remember the mischievous things taken part in when young. However, when it comes time to condemn today's youngsters, these things are forgotten and the pranks practised by today's youth are not mischievous, they are malicious. The carriage on top of the school, and those outdoor buildings turned over, are painted a lighter color than the broken mailboxes and the turned over bus stops of today.

With youngsters of school and pre-school age in this house, we know just how wonderful Halloween is. It was looked forward to from the first of October with pumpkins that had to be bought in the early part of the month, to make sure we got the right ones. We know too from friends in the senior citizen bracket how they look forward to having the little ones come to visit and perform. Certainly we could not abolish Halloween for these little ones.

The problem is what to do with the few older teenagers who indulge in more than harmless pranks. Perhaps some responsibility could be given them for that evening. Perhaps they could assist in protecting our property. Or would parties for them be the answer?

Part of the solution has been made by district councils who have banned the sale of fireworks to certain ages, and restricted use.

Let us not look too blackly on Halloween, but insure the safe enjoyment of this evening for the little ones it was meant for.

Bradner Honors Popular Couple

People of the community of Bradner took the occasion of the silver wedding anniversary of two of Bradner's foremost residents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sanders, to show their appreciation of all the couple has done for the community during their sojourn in its midst.

A surprise party was arranged for last Saturday in the new Bradner Community Hall. The Sanders had guests from out-of-town and a supposed party had been arranged at the home of their daughter, Mrs. J. Horvath. On the way there, the Sanders stopped off at the darkened Community Hall to "collect" something for their daughter. When they entered the hall they found about 75 people waiting quietly for their arrival—a genuine surprise, since the Sanders' had been worrying as to how their daughter was going to accommodate all her guests.

A huge three-tiered wedding cake had been made by their other daughter, Mrs. Thomashewsky of Vancouver.

The grand march was led by Bill Smorenberg, and Cliff Upchurch proposed the toast to the popular couple, to which Ed Sanders replied.

On behalf of the community, Cliff Upchurch also presented Mr. and Mrs. Sanders with a trilight lamp and an engraved silver platter, partly as an anniversary gift and partly in appreciation of their efforts on behalf of the community.

At 10 o'clock, the morning address was given by Dr. Sabery, head of the Physiology Department at UBC. The afternoon meeting was based on discussions with a panel consisting of Mrs. J. Wood, University of Seattle; Mayor Beth Wood, of New Westminster; Mrs. J. Crowley, Vancouver School Board, and Dr. H. Bartness from Tacoma High. Topic for discussion was "Parents' Responsibitity for Their Children's Education." Dr. Price, representing the University of Seattle. PATRICIA

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Clamp accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scott as delegates from the Aldergrove Fair Board to the annual meeting of the B. C. Fair Association held this year at Powell River, B. C.

A very interesting two hours was spent on a conducted tour through the Powell River Pulp and Paper Mill after the business meeting.

The trip from Aldergrove was most enjoyable as Friday and Saturday were perfect fall days and the scenery was seen to its best advantage.

We met Jack Dunstan, formerly of Aldergrove Photo Studio, and he showed us through his studio in Powell River, where he is doing good business.

Patricia Women's Institute sent a birthday card last week to Mrs. Eva Heibein of Hatzic on her 80th birthday. Mrs. Heibein was a resident of Patricia and former member of the W. I.

Mrs. Tom Cochrane handled the poppy fund north of the Roberts Road.

Teachers At Induction

ra Ann Hough, Lochiel; Miss Myrna Carolyn Keith, Fort Langley; Miss Mary Ellen Mcgregor, Anderson; Louis Theodore Medveczky, Aldergrove Jr.-Sr. High School; Mrs. Helen Muralt, Otter; Miss Janet Camilla Roberton, Murrayville; Dennis James Ross, Otter; Peter Schlosser-Moller, Aldergrove Jr.-Sr. High School; Miss Elinor Jean Schmidt, Patricia; Miss Barbara Anne Small, Glenwood; Miss Susan Toews, County Line; Mrs. Maxine Wilkinson, Langley Jr.-Sr. High.

Miss Dams was a member of the first graduating class from Aldergrove Jr.-Sr. High School and prior to high school attended Aldergrove Elementary School.

Miss McGregor and Dennis Ross are graduates of Langley Jr.-Sr. High School.

Some of the Aldergrove High School teachers have had previous experience in European schools before coming to this country.

Following the induction Mr. Hardy asked Rev. Del Johnson to offer the prayer. Mr. Johnson mentioned that he also was a newcomer to Langley and welcomed the teachers on behalf of the community, then proceded to use the teachers' own prayer.

Chairman Hardy then introduced C. D. Ovans, General secretary of the B. C. Teachers' Federation, as the guest speaker whose topic was "The Challenge of Education in the Future." Mr. Ovans said that the challenge of education in the years ahead was to professionalize it. He said good educational systems must have good teachers. When referring to a professional, he said, means that a person does a job well and this was the sense in which he used the word "professionalize."

He also stated that teachers should be professionals only—masters of the subjects and skills which they teach. He urged that they keep abreast of developments.

Mr. Ovans went on to say that "It is a pity but a fact" that the majority of teachers are inadequately prepared to be teachers and that they have to learn by a certain amount of trial and error, until a better system has been worked out.

At the secondary level in Ontario teachers are required to have an honors degree in the subject they teach, the speaker said.

On behalf of the teachers and guests present N. A. Sherritt, Langley High School teacher, thanked Mr. Ovans.

Refreshments were served to all present at the conclusion of the ceremonies.

Canadian Legion — Branch 21

LANGLEY

The Poppy Committee wish to thank all those who, by giving so generously for their Poppies, helped to make our annual collection so successful. They also wish to thank all their helpers, without whose efforts this result could not have been achieved.

All the monies collected are placed in the Legions' Poppy Fund, which is a Trust Fund quite distinct from all other funds. The money will be used for the relief of distress amongst veterans and their dependents in this district. Help is given by way of groceries, children's clothing, fuel, hospital comforts, free meals, payment of medical expenses etc. The need is continuous, and the Poppy Fund is always open to receive donations and legacies.

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND THE LEGION ARMISTICE DAY SERVICE at 10:45 a. m. on Friday in the Langley High School Auditorium.
